PREFACE

( Reprinted from Vol. I)

When the A.I.R. entered the field with the first edition of its "Manual" in the year 1947, it at once leapt to the first rank and carved for itself an unrivalled position in the field of such publications, although it was a newcomer in that particular field. This was due to certain settled principles of the A.I.R. to which it has been adhering steadfastly since its foundation more than 50 years ago. These principles may be summed up in three rules, which the A.I.R. has been having as its watchwords since the beginning: (1) thoroughness, (2) exhaustiveness, and (3) meticulous study of all possible ways by which the usefulness of a publication to the legal profession can be enhanced. All these three principles were given full effect to in the A.I.R. Manual.

The publication proved to be the most exhaustive and reliable collection of central statute law together with all the relevant case-law bearing on it, summarised, arranged and presented in a most conscientious manner with a view to affording the maximum facilities to the legal profession, both on the Bench and at the Bar. These qualities meant very hard work both for the editorial staff engaged by the A.I.R. as well as for the management. But they have built up the reputation of the A.I.R. Manual on a most solid and enduring foundation. This reputation brought correspondingly good results as regards the actual sales of the publication and in less than 20 years after the A.I.R. entered the field, a third edition of the Manual has become necessary to meet the insistent demand of the legal profession.

It is needless to dilate, at length, on the special features of the publication. It gives, as in the previous editions, both civil and criminal Acts, and the inconvenient and illogical division into civil and criminal portions has been rejected as in the previous editions. The post-Independence period has been extraordinarily prolific in the matter of legislative output, both at the Centre and in the States. The A.I.R. Manual aims at placing within the reach of the profession, at a reasonable cost, the entire body of central statute law together with the relevant case-law arranged in a convenient form which has been developed, after patient thought and experimentation, as being the most suitable from the point of view of quick and efficient service to the profession, whenever its members may have to look up a point of law in the statutes of India. Needless to say that our statutes, unlike under the English system, constitute the staple of our law and, therefore, provide the most important and the bulkiest part of our law.

In the interval of about 8 years since the completion of the second edition, more than 100 new Acts have been added to the statute book and there have been also a very vast number of amendments and additions to the old Acts. This edition includes all the new Acts and all the up-to-date amendments, besides giving the State amendments also wherever it was possible to trace them.

Among the new Acts, special mention may be made of some which are of outstanding importance. Perhaps, the first place in this category will have to be given to the Limitation Act of 1963 which has taken the place of the Act of 1908 and not only overhauled the entire Law of Limitation but has revolutionised and simplified the law in many respects as, for instance, in regard to suits for possession of immovable property and applications for execution, which were two of the toughest and most confusing topics under the previous Limitation Act. The Advocates Act, 1961, has repealed the Bar Councils Act, 1926, and the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879 and has brought into existence a single unified Bar for the whole of India—which is itself a revolutionary change in the constitution of the Indian Bar and has been looked forward to, for a very long period by the whole Bar as an ideal to be realised.

The Arms Act, 1959, is another important Act which, by liberalising the provisions of the Arms Act of 1878 in a marked way, has shown itself to be a product of the post-Independence period. The Income-tax Act of 1961 has overhauled the whole structure of the Income-tax Act, 1922, and made a real attempt at simplification of the provisions of the law. Other Acts of the period also reflect the spirit of the times, each in its own way.

Above everything, however, this edition of A.I.R. Manual will be of special value to the Bench and the Bar as perhaps the most exhaustive and up-to-date reference book on the Constitution of India. The period, after the last edition, has witnessed an enormous growth and development of the Constitutional Law of India. Not only have there been a very large number of important amendments of the Constitution during this period but a phenomenally voluminous body of case-law which has accumulated on the Constitution.

This edition will not only contain the most authoritative version of the Constitution but also the most exhaustive collection of the case-law bearing on it. The subject is so voluminous that no ordinary text-book can be expected to cope with it and do full justice to it. This edition will be found to be practically unequalled as a book of reference on the Constitution of India.

All the special features of the previous editions, such as synopsis, "at-paging" of the Reports, etc., are continued in this edition and have also been considerably improved. These special features have been enumerated elsewhere at the beginning of this volume.

Before concluding, it is our pleasant duty to place on record our sense of gratitude to all our colleagues without whose unstinted labour and co-operation it would have been impossible to bring out such a vast publication. The editorial work, as can be seen, consists mainly of two branches: (i) that relating to preparing and editing the text of the various Acts, and (ii) the collection and editing of the notes of case-law bearing on the different Acts.

The responsibility for preparing and editing the text of the various Acts has been ably shouldered and executed by Sarvashri D. R. Rajandekar, B.A., LL.B., and A. G. Tambe, B.A., LL.B., assisted by Sarvashri P. A. Bakre, B.A., LL.B., H. G. Pathak, B.A., LL.B., and S. G. Kulkarni, B.A., LL.B.

The entire credit for organising and managing the editorial work in connection with the case-law must go to Shri V. B. Bakhale, M.A., LL.B., who has been assisted by a band of devoted workers, among whom may be chiefly mentioned Sarvashri R. G. Dhobley, B.A., LL.B., D. H. Zadgaonkar, B.A., LL.B., K. S. Bakre, B.Sc., LL.B., M. Kuppuswami, B.A., B.L., G. M. Jatar, B.A., LL.B., S. S. Guru, B.A., LL.B., M. V. Joshi, B.A., LL.B., L. G. Chavhan, B.A., LL.B., B. N. Pradhan, B.Sc., LL.B., C. W. Moharir, B.Com., LL.B., D. V. Thakre, B.Sc., LL.B., G. D. Ruikar, B.A., LL.B., Y. P. Baxi, B.A., LL.B., M. N. Thomare, B.A., LL.B., B. D. Bhave, B.Sc., LL.B., D. G. Bhagwat, B.Sc. LL.B., N. N. Harshe, M.A., LL.B. F.I.A., V. R. Buche, B.A., LL.B., G. G. Modak, B.Sc., LL.B., and S. V. Golwalkar, B.A., LL.B.

Shri Gopalrao Udar and his team including among others Sarvashri P. K. Thosar, H. W. Mendhi, Govindrao Udar, D. R. Landge, Ku. S. Naidu, Ku. K. G. Deshpande and Ku. S. Deshpande have done the very arduous and responsible work of correcting and passing the proofs and our thanks are due to them for this.

Scarcely less important than the work of the editors has been the work of Shri B. R. Abhyankar, who, with his devoted band of workers including Sarvashri M. S. Savarkar, B. R. Katankar, D. P. Alshi, W. J. Joshi, P. N. Deo, G. D. Deshpande, S. M. Lambe, L. S. Wavde and D. T. Joshi and others has manned the responsibility of preparing the manuscript for the press.

Thanks must also be given to Sarvashri M. W. Chitaley, C. R. Banerjee, and G. G. Padhye, M. M. Kanitkar and others of the A.I.R. Rotary Printing Press, who, under the leadership and guidance of Shri J. W. Chitaley, finished the printing of the work in record time.

Last, but by no means least, our thanks are due to Shri W. W. Chitaley, B.A., LL.B., who has been in overall charge of the whole undertaking and whose exceptional talents, in organising and managing the business side of the undertaking are of inestimable value for the success of the gigantic undertaking that this publication obviously is.

SCHEME OF PUBLICATION

1. Only existing Central Acts of all-India importance are given.
2. Acts are arranged in the alphabetical order of their short titles.
3. The prefixes 'The' or 'The Indian' in the short title of an Act are not taken into consideration in the alphabetical arrangement.
4. After all the Acts, the existing non-temporary Central Ordinances are given and arranged also alphabetically.
5. Provincial or State Amendments to the provisions of the Central Acts or the State Acts which repeal or replace a Central Act are given in their appropriate places wherever it is possible. But it is not possible to guarantee completeness in this respect.
6. Rules made by the Central Government under an enactment are, wherever possible, indicated in appropriate places along with their Gazette references.
7. All the amendments, repeals and adaptations are carefully traced and incorporated in the text of the enactment.
8. Date of the commencement of an enactment or that of the amendment is given where published in the Gazette.
9. A verbatim reproduction of the Statement of Objects and Reasons is invariably given.
10. Useful notes on the provisions of an enactment culled from the Statement of Objects and Reasons and the Select Committee Report are given under those provisions.
11. A statement showing how an Act is affected by subsequent amendment, adaptation or repeal in part is given.
12. Wherever possible, cognate provisions are indicated.
13. A few Acts enacted by British Parliament but applicable to India or the information about which is useful in India are also included.
14. Notes of important case-law are given and arranged under appropriate headings under the respective statutory provisions.
15. Wherever necessary, comparative table showing the parallel provisions of the present and past Acts is given.
16. After giving all the existing Central Acts made applicable to the whole of India and enacted up to the end of the year 1968, an attempt will be made to include such Central Acts as have been enacted during the period intervening between the publications of the first and the last volumes of the series.
17. A complete list of all the Acts and Ordinances included in the series will be given in the last volume.
18. A consolidated Subject Index will form the last item of this series.

SCHEDULE I

Rules for the computation of profits for purposes of Business Profits Tax.

SCHEDULE II

Rules for computing the capital of a company for purposes of Business Profits Tax.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The object of this Bill is to impose a special income-tax on the profits exceeding one lakh of rupees of businesses, professions and vocations...."—Gazette of India, 1947, Pt. V, p. 211.

SELECT COMMITTEE REPORT

"Clause 2 and Schedule II. — We consider that the flat figure of one lakh of rupees by way of abatement contained in the Bill is not suitable for all classes of business ownership, and we accordingly introduce as sub-cl. (1) of Cl. 2 a definition of abatement, fixing differing criteria of abatement in respect of companies, firms, Hindu undivided families and others, together with a second schedule laying down the basis on which the capital of a company will be computed, where the abatement is expressed as a percentage of capital."

(ACT XXI OF 1947)[a]

[11th April, 1947.]

An Act to impose a special tax on a certain class of income.

Whereas it is expedient to impose a special tax on income arising from business;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1947, Pt. V, p. 211 and for the Select Committee Report, see ibid, p. 279.
This Act and all the rules and orders made thereunder which are in force immediately before the commencement of the Taxation Laws (Extension to Merged States and Amendment) Act, 1949, are extended to, and shali be in force in, all the merged States. For the definition of the expression "merged States", see S. 2 (1) of that Act.
This Act and all rules and orders made thereunder shall operate as if they had been extended to, and brought into force in, all the merged States on the 1st day of April, 1949—See Sec. 3 of the Taxation Laws (Extension to Merged States and Amendment) Act, 1949 (67 of 1949).
For the interpretation of laws as extended to the merged States, for the removal of difficulties in giving effect to the provisions of any Act, etc., extended to the merged States and for repeal of corresponding laws in force in any of the merged States and savings in consequence of such repeal, see Secs. 4, 6 and 7, respectively, of Act 67 of 1949.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE BUSINESS PROFITS TAX ACT, 1947.

(2) It extends to the whole of [a][India except [b][the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in Part B States[c]].]

(3) It shall come into force on such date[d] as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

[a] Substitured for "British India" by A.L.O., 1950.
[b] Substituted for "Part B States" by 3 A.L.O., 1956.
[c] Immediately before the 1st of November 1956, the following were the Part B States in India: Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepsu, Rajasthan, Saurashtra and Travancore-Cochin.
[d] The Act came into force on 12-4-1947—See Gazette of India, 1947, Part I, p. 537.

2. Interpretation.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in subject, or context,—

(1) "abatement" means, in respect of any chargeable accounting period,

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Amount of profits lying unutilized and not specially set apart for any purpose cannot be treated as a reserve and added to the paid up share capital for the purposes of computing abatement under Section 2 (1) of the Act. ('53) AIR 1953 SC 501 (503): 1954 SCR 203 * ('55) AIR 1955 Cal 550 (552) (DB). (Computation of capital — Unappropriated balance of previous

[a][ending on or before the 31st day of March, 1947,] a sum which bears to a sum equal to—

(a) in the case of a company, not being a company deemed for the purposes of Section 9 to be a firm, six per cent of the capital of the company on the first day of the said period computed in accordance with Schedule II, or one lakh of rupees, whichever is greater, or

(b) in the case of a firm having—
(i) not more than two working partners, one lakh of rupees, or
(ii) three working partners, one and a half lakhs of rupees, or
(iii) four or more working partners, two lakhs of rupees, or

(c) in the case of a Hindu undivided family, two lakhs of rupees, or

(d) in any other case, one lakh of rupees,—the same proportion as the said period bears to the period of one year [b][and, in respect of any chargeable accounting period beginning after the 31st day of March, 1947, such sum as may be fixed by the annual Finance Act];

[b] Added ibid.

(2) "accounting period" in relation to any business means any period which is or has been determined as the previous year for that business for the purposes of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922;

[a] Clause (2A) was omitted by A.L.O., 1950.

(3) "business" includes any trade, commerce or manufacture, or any adventure in the nature of trade, commerce or manufacture, or any profession or vocation the profits of which are chargeable according to the provisions of Section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922[a]:

Provided that where the functions of a company or of a society incorporated by or under any enactment consist wholly or mainly in the holding of investments or other property, the holding of the investments or property shall be deemed for the purpose of this definition to be a business carried on by such company or society:

year simply carried forward without allocation for specific purpose — Not a reserve.)

(2) What Section 2 (1) (a) requires is an ascertainment of the computed capital on the first day of the chargeable accounting period in question. It is a factual ascertainment that is contemplated and required. What was the paid-up capital on that date and what were the reserves on that date; the two together make up the capital of the company within the meaning of Section 2 (1). ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 326 (329): ILR (1957) Mad 1163 (DB). (AIR 1957 Bom 26, Dissented from.)

(3) In dealing with the question, when was an effective and valid allocation made of the sums with reference to which the abatement was claimed under Section 2 (1) of the Act what has to be examined is whether any one possessed of the requisite authority indicated on or before the crucial date the manner of disposal or the destination of the funds of the company which constituted its profits. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 326 (327, 328): ILR (1957) Mad 1163 (DB). (Held on facts that the Directors only and not shareholders possessed requisite authority to order allocation to reserve fund.)

(4) The provisions of the Act import a restrictive factor in considering what constitutes business for purpose of business profits tax. Unless the profits of the business are chargeable under section 10 of the Income-tax Act, 1922 they have to be left out of account for the levy of business profits tax. AIR 1961 Mad 72 (74): (1960) 39 ITR 327 (DB). (Houses acquired in money lending business treated as stock-in-trade — But income from them assessed under Section 9, Income-tax Act — Income cannot be charged to business profits tax.)

(5) The proviso to Section 2 (3) creates a legal fiction. Income from property is deemed to be income from business only in the circumstances specified in the proviso, emphasising the main feature of Section 2 (3) that but for that legal fiction such income from property which could not be charged under Section 10 of the Income-tax Act, 1922 would not constitute profits from business for purposes of Business Profits Tax Act. AIR 1961 Mad 72 (74): (1960) 39 ITR 327 (DB).

Provided further that all businesses to which this Act applies carried on by the same person shall be treated as one business for the purposes of this Act;

[a] Now Income-tax Act, 1961.

(4) "chargeable accounting period" means—

(a) any accounting period falling wholly within the terms beginning on the first day of April 1946, and ending on the 31st day of March, [a][1949];

(b) where any accounting period falls partly within and partly without the said term, such part of that accounting period as falls within the said term:

[b][Provided that where an accounting period falls partly before, and partly after, the end of March, 1947, so much of that accounting period as falls before and so much of that accounting period as falls after, the end of March, 1947, shall be deemed each to be a separate chargeable accounting period];

[b] Added ibid.

(5) "company" means a company as defined in the Indian Companies Act, 1913,[a] [b][ or a company formed and registered under a law in force in any of the [c][merged territories]] or formed in pursuance of an Act of Parliament [d][of the United Kingdom] or of Royal Charter or Letters Patent or of an Act of the Legislature of a British possession or of a law of a [e][ ] State, and includes any foreign association, whether incorporated or not, which the Central Board of Revenue may, by general or special order, declare to be a company for the purposes of this Act;

[b] Inserted by the Taxation Laws (Extension to Merged States and Amendment) Act, 1949 (67 of 1949), S. 26 (2).

[c] Substituted for "merged States" by A.L.O., 1950.

[e] Words "Part B" were omitted by 3 A.L.O., 1956.

(6) "control of a company" means control direct or indirect of more than one-half of the voting power attached to the total issued paid-up share capital of the company, or control vested by its Memorandum and Articles of Association otherwise than by reference to such voting power:

Provided that the voting power attached to shares held by a nominee or trustee for any person shall be deemed for the purpose of this definition to be held by that person;

(7) "deficiency of profits" means—

(i) where profits have been made in any chargeable accounting period, the amount by which such profits fall short of the abatement in respect of that period;

(ii) where a loss has been made in any chargeable accounting period, the amount of the loss added to the abatement in respect of that period;

(8) "director" includes any person occupying the position of a director by whatever name called and also includes any person who—

(i) is a manager of the company or concerned in the management of the business; and

(ii) is remunerated out of the funds of the business, and

(iii) is the beneficial owner of not less than twenty per cent of the ordinary share capital of the company;

[a][(8A) "director's remuneration" includes all remuneration payable by a company to a director thereof in respect of any services rendered to or employment with the company in any capacity whatever;]

[a] This clause was inserted by the Income-tax and Business Profits Tax (Amendment) Act, 1948 (48 of 1948), S. 13 (w.r.e.f. 12-4-1947).

(9) "dividend" has the same meaning as in Section 2 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922[a];

[a] Now Income-tax Act, 1961.

(10) "firm", "partner" and "partnership" have the same meanings, respectively, as in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932.

(11) "fixed rate" in relating to dividends on share capital, other than ordinary share capital, includes a rate fluctuating in accordance with the maximum rate of income-tax;

(12) "loss" means a loss computed in the same manner as for the purposes of this Act, profits are to be computed.

[a] Definition of "merged States" inserted by Act 67 of 1949 was omitted by by A.L.O., 1950.

(13) "ordinary share capital", in relation to a company, means all the issued share capital (by whatever name called) of the company, other than capital the holders whereof have a right to a dividend at a fixed rate but have no other right to share in the profits of the company;

(14) "person" includes a Hindu undivided family;

(15) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(16) "profits" means profits as determined in accordance with Schedule I;

(17) "taxable profits" means the amount by which the profits during a chargeable accounting period exceed the abatement in respect of that period;

[a][(17A) "taxable territories" shall have the meaning assigned to that expression by clause (14A) of Section 2 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.]

[a] Inserted by A.L.O., 1950.

(18) "working partner" of a firm means a partner thereof who is required by the terms of the contract of partnership to devote substantially the whole of his time to the business of the firm.

3. Tax Authorities.—(1) Every Commissioner of Income-tax, Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax, Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax and Income-tax Officer shall have the like powers under this Act and in relation to the same area and cases as he exercises under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

(2) All officers and persons employed in the execution of this Act shall observe and follow the orders, instructions and directions of the Central Board of Revenue:

Provided that no such orders, instructions or directions shall be given so as to interfere with the discretion of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax in the exercise of his appellate functions.

4. Charge of tax.—Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall, in respect of any business to which this Act applies, be charged, levied and paid on the amount of the taxable profits during any chargeable accounting period, a tax (in this Act referred to as "business profits tax") [a][which shall, in respect of any

---

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) Under the Act the unit of taxation is the business i.e., any business to which the Act applies; and if a person carries on more than one business to all of which the Act applies all the business carried on by the same person shall be treated as one business for the purpose of the Act. AIR 1960 SC 1175 (1178): (1960) 3 SCR 727.

(2) The business profits tax is on the percentage allowed under the relevant chargeable accounting period ending on or before the 31st day of March 1947, be equal to sixteen and two-thirds per cent of the taxable profits, and in respect of any chargeable accounting period beginning after that date, be equal to such percentage of the taxable profits as may be fixed by the annual Finance Act:]

Provided that—

(a) any profits which are, under the provisions of sub-section (3) of Section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, exempt from income-tax,

(b) all profits from any business of life insurance,

(c) any sum paid to a business by or through the Central Government by way of bonus or subsidy,— shall be totally exempt from business profits tax under this Act:

[b][Provided further that where the profits include any profits from an industrial undertaking which are exempt from income-tax under Section 15C of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, the business profits tax otherwise payable on the whole of the taxable profits shall be reduced by an amount which bears to that business profits tax the same proportion as the amount of such inclusion bears to the whole profits.]

[a] Substituted for the words "which shall be equal to sixteen and two-thirds per cent of the taxable profits" by the Finance Act, 1948 (20 of 1948), Section 10 (3) (30-3-1948).

[b] Inserted by the Taxation Laws (Extension to Merged States and Amendment) Act, 1949 (67 of 1949), Sec 27.

5. Application of Act.—This Act shall apply to every business of which any part of the profits made during the chargeable accounting period is chargeable to income-tax by virtue of the provisions of sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or of clause (c) of that sub-section:

Finance Act corresponding to the chargeable accounting period on taxable profits less the abatement computed in accordance with Schedule II of the Act. (1964) 5 Guj LR 837 (838) (DB).

(3) Agreement between Central Board of Revenue and Association in 1945 that profits of the association should not be assessed to Income-tax, Super tax and Excess Profits Tax — Held, neither the agreement nor the provisions of the Income-tax Act operated to exempt the profits of the Association from assessment under the Act. AIR 1960 SC 1320 (1322): (1960) 39 ITR 723.

(4) Income from house properties, acquired by the assessee in the course of money lending business, cannot be brought under levy to business profits tax under Section 4, because, even though the property has been treated by the assessee as a stock-in-trade, and the income from the houses accrued to him in the course of his business activities, it can be computed to income-tax only under Section 9 and not Section 10 of the Income-tax Act. AIR 1961 Mad 72 (74): (1960) 39 ITR 327 (DB).

(5) The use of the word 'bonus' or 'subsidy' in Section 4 Proviso (c) connotes that the payment is in the nature of a gift. As the payments made by the Government to an association incorporated under the Central Ordinance 82 of 1945 to assist it in carrying on its trade or business in cotton piece goods in the Province of Bengal for the services it was rendering to Government could not be regarded as payments by the Government to itself or as payments in the nature of a gift they were not exempt under Section 4 Proviso (c). AIR 1960 SC 1320 (1323): (1960) 39 ITR 723.

(1) Whereas for the excess profits tax profits earned in an Indian State cannot be taken into consideration at all, such profits can be taken into account if brought into taxable territories for assessing business profits tax. As regards losses they can be taken into account in assessing the income from business whether they occurred in a State or in what was British India. AIR 1957 Punj 259 (261): ILR (1957) Punj 1137 (DB).

(2) The third proviso, to Section 5 does not exclude from the purview of the Act the business carried on by an assessee in any part of India to which the Act does not extend but exempts only the income, profits or gains of that business unless they are received in or brought into the taxable territories. The business is still one to which the Act applies under the substantive part of Section 5. Hence the losses of such business can be set off against the profits of the business in the taxable territories. AIR 1960 SC 1175 (1181): (1960) 3 SCR 727.

Provided that this Act shall not apply to any business the whole of the profits of which accrue or arise without [a][the taxable territories] where such business is carried on by or on behalf of a person who is resident but not ordinarily resident in [a][the taxable territories], unless the business is controlled in India:

[b][Provided further that where the profits of a part only of a business carried on by a person who is not resident in [a][the taxable territories] or not ordinarily so resident accrue or arise in [a][the taxable territories] or are deemed under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, so to accrue or arise, then, except where the business being the business of a person who is resident, but not ordinarily resident, in [a][the taxable territories] is controlled in India, this Act shall apply only to such part of the business, and such part shall for all the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a separate business.]

Provided further that this Act shall not apply to any income, profits or gains of business accruing or arising within [c][any part of India to which this Act does not extend] unless such income, profits or gains are received or deemed under the provisions of the aforesaid Act to be received in or are brought into [a][the taxable territories] in any chargeable accounting period, or are assessable under Section 42 of that Act.

[a] Substituted for "British India" by A.L.O., 1950.
[b] Inserted by the Income-tax and Business Profits Tax (Amendment) Act, 1947 (44 of 1947), S. 3 (w.r.e.f. 12-4-1947).
[c] Substituted for "a Part B State" by 3 A.L.O., 1956.

6. Relief on occurrence of deficiency of profits.—Where a deficiency of profits occurs in any chargeable accounting period in any business, the taxable profits of the business shall be deemed to be reduced and relief shall be granted in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) the aggregate amount of the taxable profits for the previous chargeable accounting periods shall be deemed to be reduced by the amount of the deficiency of profits and the amount of business profits tax payable in respect thereof shall be deemed to be reduced accordingly and the relief necessary to give effect to the reduction shall be given by repayment or otherwise;

(b) where the amount of the deficiency of profits exceeds the aggregate amount of the taxable profits for the previous chargeable accounting periods or where there is no previous chargeable accounting period, the balance of the deficiency of profits or the whole of the deficiency, as the case may be, shall be applied in reducing any taxable profits for the next subsequent chargeable accounting period, and if and so far as it exceeds the amount of those profits, any taxable profits for the next subsequent chargeable accounting period and so on.

7. Change in persons carrying on business.—As from the date of any change in the persons carrying on a business, the business shall be deemed for all the purposes of this Act to have been discontinued and a new business to have been commenced:

(1) When the assessee makes profits in the business in any part of India to which the Act does not extend but sustains loss in the business in the taxable territories the Act will not apply to such profits unless they are brought into the taxable territories and if they are so brought Section 6 will apply with regard to relief on the ground of deficiency of profits. AIR 1960 SC 1175 (1182): (1960) 3 SCR 727.

(2) Per S. K. Das and Kapur, JJ.— Sections 11 and 14 of the Act have to be read together. Income escapes assessment when the process of assessment has not been initiated as also in a case where it has resulted in no assessment after completion of the process of assessment. Hence even in the former case the Income-tax officer has no jurisdiction to assess an assessee by issuing a notice under Section 11 more than four years after such accounting period. AIR 1960 SC 1232 (1235): (1960) 3 SCR 988.

Provided that where a change takes place in the persons carrying on a business and where, except for such change, relief would be allowable under Sec. 6, the Central Board of Revenue may, if it thinks fit, allow such relief under that section as it considers just, having regard to the extent to which the persons directly or indirectly interested in the business before the change remain interested therein after the change.

8. Interconnected companies.—(1) Where any interest, annuity or other annual payment or any royalty or rent is payable by one company to another company, and one of those companies is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of a third company, and the recipient company is resident outside [a][the taxable territories], no allowance shall be made in respect of such payment in computing the profits or losses of the paying company.

(2) Where—

(a) a company (hereinafter referred to as "the principal") is resident in [a][the taxable territories] and is not a subsidiary of any other company resident in [a][the taxable territories]; and

(b) during the whole or any part of any chargeable accounting period of the principal, another company resident or carrying on business within [a][the taxable territories] (hereinafter referred to as "the subsidiary") is a subsidiary of the principal, the capital or profits or losses of the subsidiary for such chargeable accounting period or part thereof shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as if they were the capital of, or, as the case may be, profits or losses arising from the business of the principal:

Provided that the profits of the subsidiary so treated shall not be exempted from business profits tax in the hands of the principal by reason of any exemption applicable to the principal under the proviso to Section 4.

(3) Where the chargeable accounting periods of the principal and subsidiary are not conterminous, such division and apportionment of the profits or losses of the subsidiary for any chargeable accounting period shall be made as will allocate the due proportion thereof to the relative chargeable accounting period or periods of the principal; and such division and apportionment shall be by reference to the proportion that the number of days of the chargeable accounting periods of the subsidiary falling within the relative chargeable accounting period or periods of the principal bears to the total number of days in the chargeable accounting period of the subsidiary.

(4) For the purposes of this section a company shall be deemed to be a subsidiary of another company if and so long as not less than four-fifths of its ordinary share capital is beneficially owned by that other company, whether directly or through another company or other companies, or partly directly and partly through another company or other companies.

(5) The business profits tax payable by virtue of this section by the principal shall, for the purposes of Section 10, be allocated by the Income-tax Officer to the respective companies concerned in such proportion as in his opinion is just:

Provided that the principal shall have the same rights of appeal against an order of allocation made under this sub-section as it has under this Act against the amount of its business profits tax assessment.

[a] Substituted for "British India" by A.L.O., 1950.

9. Aggregation of profits in certain cases.—Where an individual [a][or a Hindu undivided family] is entitled to profits arising from more than one business, of which at least one is carried on by a firm in which he [b][or it] is a partner [c][or by a company which for the purposes of this section is deemed to be a firm in which he or it is interested], the Income-tax Officer may with the prior sanction of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax, aggregate the shares of such individual [d][or Hindu undivided family] in the profits or losses of all of such businesses and treat the sum of such aggregation as the profits of a business carried on by such individual [d][or Hindu undivided family] and assess him [b][or it] accordingly:

Provided that if the accounting periods of such businesses are not conterminous, the Income-tax Officer shall determine in respect of such individual [d][or Hindu undivided family] his [e][or its] chargeable accounting period and shall make such divisions, apportionment and aggregation of the shares of such individual [d][or Hindu undivided family] in the profits or losses of the several businesses as may be necessary to determine for such chargeable accounting period the total profits and gains of such individual [d][or Hindu undivided family] therefrom:

Provided further that for the purposes of this section, a company, which is neither one in which the public are substantially interested, as defined in the Explanation to sub-section (1) of Section 23A of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, nor a subsidiary company as defined in sub-section (4) of Section 8 of this Act, shall be deemed to be a firm in which the person having an interest in the company are partners, or in the case of a sole-share-holder, a business carried on by that sole-share-holder, and the profits of such company shall be computed accordingly:

Provided further that any profits or losses so aggregated for assessment upon an individual [a][or a Hindu undivided family] shall be excluded from the profits or losses of the respective businesses for the purposes of this Act; and no assessment under this Act shall be made in respect of any such business save in the names of the other partners therein [f][and such individual or Hindu undivided family shall not be treated as a working partner in relation to such business for the purposes of sub-clause (b) of clause (1) of Section 2.]

10. Allowance of business profits tax in computing income for income-tax purposes.—The amount of the business profits tax payable by any person for any chargeable accounting period shall, in computing total income for the purposes of the relevant income-tax or super-tax assessment, be allowed as a deduction:

Provided that where, under the provisions of this Act relating to deficiencies of profits relief is given by way of repayment from business profits tax chargeable for any chargeable accounting period previous to that in which the deficiency occurs, the amount of the deduction allowed shall not be altered, but the amount repayable shall be taken into account in computing the profits and gains of the business for the purposes of income-tax as if it were a profit of the business accruing in the previous year (as determined for that business for the purposes of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922) in which the deficiency of profit occurs.

11. Issue of notice for assessment.—(1) The Income-tax Officer may, for the purposes of this Act, require any person whom he believes to be engaged in any

(1) The Act being a taxing statute, if the Court can reconcile Section 11 and Sec. 14 and reconcile it in a manner which is beneficial to the subject, then it is its duty to do so. ('57) AIR 1957 Bom 1 (3): ILR (1957) Bom 91 (DB).

(2) Inasmuch as Section 11 does not indicate any period of time with regard to the issuing of a notice, it would be right for the Court to import into Section 11 the consideration which led the Legislature to fix a limitation of time for the purpose of issuing a notice under Section 14. Therefore a notice issued four years after the close of the chargeable accounting period, being beyond the time mentioned in Section 14, is not a valid notice under Section 11. business to which this Act applies, or to have been so engaged during any chargeable accounting period, or to be otherwise liable to pay business profits tax, to furnish within such period, not being less than forty-five days from the date of the service of the notice, as may be specified in the notice, a return in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner setting forth (along with such other particulars as may be provided for in the notice) with respect to any chargeable accounting period specified in the notice, the profits [a][and taxable profits] of the business or the amount of deficiency, if any, available for relief under Section 6:

Provided that the Income-tax Officer may, in his discretion, extend the date for the delivery of the return.

(2) The Income-tax Officer may serve on any person, upon whom a notice has been served under sub-section (1), a notice requiring him on a date to be therein specified to produce, or cause to be produced, such accounts or documents as the Income-tax Officer may require, and may from time to time serve further notices in like manner requiring the production of such further accounts or documents or other evidence as he may require.

12. Assessments.—(1) The Income-tax Officer shall, by an order in writing after considering such evidence, if any, as he has required under Section 11, assess to the best of his judgment the profits liable to business profits tax and the amount of business profits tax payable on the basis of such assessment, or if there is a deficiency of profits, the amount of that deficiency and the amount of business profits tax, if any repayable, and shall furnish a copy of such order to the person on whom the assessment has been made.

(2) Business profits tax payable in respect of any chargeable accounting period shall be payable by the persons carrying on, or treated as carrying on, the business in that period.

(3) Where two or more persons were carrying on the business jointly in the chargeable accounting period, the assessment shall be made upon them jointly and, in the case of a partnership, may be made in the partnership name.

(4) Where by virtue of the foregoing provisions an assessment could, but for his death, have been made on any person either solely or jointly with any other person or persons, the assessment may be made on his legal representative either solely or jointly with that other person or persons, as the case may be.

13. Power to make provisional assessments.—(1) The Income-tax Officer, before proceeding to make an assessment (in this section referred to as the regular assessment) under Section 12, may, at any time after the expiry of the period specified in the notice issued under sub-section (1) of Section 11 as that within which the return therein referred to is to be furnished, and whether the return has or has not been furnished, proceed to make in summary manner a provisional assessment of the taxable profits and the amount of business profits tax payable thereon.

(2) Before making such provisional assessment, the Income-tax Officer shall give notice in the prescribed form to the person on whom assessment is to be made of his intention to do so, and shall with the notice forward a statement of the amount of the proposed assessment, and the said person shall be entitled to deliver to the Income-tax Officer at any time within fourteen days of receipt of the said notice a statement of his objections, if any, to the amount of the proposed assessment.

(3) On expiry of one month from the date of service of the notice referred to in sub-section (2), or earlier, if the assessee agrees to the proposed assessment, the Income-tax Officer may, after taking into account the objections, if any, made under sub-section (2), make a provisional assessment, and shall furnish a copy of the order of assessment to the assessee:

Section 11 — Note 1 (contd.)

(3) When the Income-tax Officer issues a notice four years after the close of the chargeable accounting period he is not exercising his statutory authority in a reasonable manner. ('57) AIR 1957 Bom 1 (3): ILR (1957) Bom 91 (DB).

Provided that assent to the amount of the assessment, or failure to make objection to it, shall in no way prejudice the assessee in relation to the regular assessment.

(4) In making any such provisional assessment the Income-tax Officer shall make allowance for any deficiencies of profits for the previous chargeable accounting periods which are under the provisions of Section 6 to be set off against the taxable profits of the chargeable accounting period in respect of which the assessment is being made:

Provided that, where such deficiencies of profits have not been determined under sub-section (1) of Section 12, the Income-tax Officer shall estimate the amount thereof to the best of his judgment.

(5) There shall be no right of appeal against a provisional assessment made under this section and it shall, until a regular assessment is made in due course under Sec. 12, determine the amount of business profits tax due from the assessee.

(6) If, when a regular assessment is made in due course under Section 12, the amount of business profits tax payable thereunder is found to exceed that determined as payable by the provisional assessment, it shall be reduced by the amount determined as payable by the provisional assessment.

(7) If, when a regular assessment is made in due course under Section 12, the amount of business profits tax payable thereunder is found to be less than that determined as payable by the provisional assessment, any excess of tax paid as a result of the provisional assessment shall be refunded to the assessee, together with interest at two per cent per annum calculated from the date of payment of such excess tax to the date of the order of refund, both days inclusive.

14. Profits escaping assessment.—If, in consequence of definite information which has come into his possession, the Income-tax Officer discovers that profits of any chargeable accounting period chargeable to business profits tax have escaped assessment, or have been under-assessed, or have been the subject of excessive relief, he may at any time within four years of the end of the chargeable accounting period in question serve on the person liable to such tax a notice containing all or any of the requirements which may be included in a notice under Section 11, and may proceed to assess or reassess the amount of such profits liable to business profits tax, and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply as if the notice were a notice issued under that section.

15. Penalties.—If the Income-tax Officer, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax or the Commissioner of Income-tax, in the course of any proceedings under this Act, is satisfied that any person has, without reasonable cause, failed to furnish the return required under sub-section (1) of Section 11, or to produce or cause to be produced the accounts or documents or other evidence required by the Income-tax Officer under sub-section (2) of that section, or has

(b) in any other case, the amount of business profits tax which would have been avoided if the return made had been accepted as correct:

Provided that the Income-tax Officer shall not impose any penalty under this section without the previous approval of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax.

16. Appeals to Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax.—(1) Any person objecting to the amount of business profits tax for which he is liable as assessed by the Income-tax Officer or denying his liability to be assessed under this Act, or objecting to any penalty imposed by the Income-tax Officer, or to the amount of any deficiency of profits as assessed by the Income-tax Officer, or to the amount allowed by the Income-tax Officer by way of relief under any provision of this Act or to any refusal by the Income-tax Officer to grant relief, may appeal to the Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax.

(2) An appeal shall ordinarily be presented within forty-five days of receipt of the notice of demand relating to the assessment or penalty objected to, or in the case of an appeal against the assessment of a deficiency of profits, within thirty days of the receipt of the copy of the order determining the deficiency, or in the case of an appeal against the amount of a relief granted or a refusal to grant relief, within forty-five days of the receipt of the intimation of the order granting or refusing to grant the relief, but the Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax may admit an appeal after the expiration of that period if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

(3) An appeal shall be in the prescribed form and shall be verified in the prescribed manner.

(4) The Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax shall hear and determine the appeal and, subject to the provisions of this Act, shall pass such orders as he thinks fit, and such orders may include an order enhancing the assessment or a penalty:

Provided that an order enhancing an assessment or penalty shall not be made unless the person affected thereby has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such enhancement.

(5) The procedure to be adopted in the hearing and determination of appeals shall be in accordance with the rules made by the Central Board of Revenue in relation to income-tax.

17. Appeal to Appellate Tribunal.—Any Income-tax Officer or any person in respect of whose business an order under Section 12 has been passed and who objects to an order passed by an Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax under Section 15 or Section 16 may, within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, appeal against such order to the Appellate Tribunal constituted those allowances when computing the profits of the business for the purposes of business profits tax :

(1) Employees of company in jail during trial of murder case — Salary and bonus for such period of jail custody paid to them cannot be deducted under Section 10 (2) (xv) of the Income-tax Act, 1922 or under Business Profits Tax Act except for the periods they are entitled to leave under their terms of service. AIR 1967 All 513 (514): (1967) 1 ITJ 937 (DB).

Provided further—

(a) that any sums received or credited in a chargeable accounting period which by virture of Rule 9 of Schedule I to the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940, have been treated as business receipts for the purpose of assessment to excess profits tax, and shall be disregarded in computing the profits or losses of the chargeable accounting period :

(b) any expenditure or loss incurred in any chargeable accounting period, allowance in respect of which has been made for excess profits tax purposes,

Provided further that where a chargeable accounting period is not an accounting period, the profits or losses of the business during the accounting periods wholly or partly included within the chargeable accounting period shall be so computed as aforesaid, and such division and apportionment to specific periods of those profits or losses and such aggregation of those profits and losses, or any apportioned part thereof, shall be made as appears necessary to arrive at the profit during the chargeable accounting period; and any such apportionment shall be made in proportion to the number of days in the respective periods.

2. (1) The principle of adding the allowance for depreciation for any one period to the allowance for depreciation for any subsequent period and deeming it to be part of the allowance for such subsequent period shall not be followed.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as permitting the application, in computing profits for the purposes of business profits tax, of the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 24 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

3. Income received from investments or other property shall be included in the profits only as provided in this rule, that is to say,—

(a) in the case of the business of a building society, or a banking business, insurance business or business consisting wholly or mainly in the dealing in or holding of investments or other property, the profits shall include all income received from investments or other property; or

(b) in the case of a business part of which consists in banking, insurance or dealing in investments or other property, not being a business to which Clause (a) applies, the profits shall include all income received from investments or other property held for the purposes of that part of that business :

Provided that—

(i) income received directly or indirectly by way of dividend or distribution of profits from a body corporate carrying on business as defined in this Act, and

(ii) income to which the persons carrying on the business are not beneficially entitled, shall in no case be included.

4. (1) In the case of a business carried on in any accounting period which constitutes or includes a chargeable accounting period, by a company, the directors whereof have throughout that accounting period a controlling interest therein, no deduction shall be made in respect of directors' remuneration in computing the profits for that accounting period.

(2) Where, in the case of a business carried on by a company in any accounting period which constitutes or includes a chargeable accounting period, the directors of the company have during any part of that accounting period a controlling interest therein, and the case is not one to which sub-rule (1) applies, the profits of the accounting period shall be computed as if the directors of the company had no controlling interest therein, and to the part thereof appropriate to the chargeable accounting period ascertained in accordance with the third proviso to Rule 1 shall be added the directors' remuneration for that part of the chargeable accounting period during which the directors of the company had a controlling interest therein.

(3) In this rule the expression "directors' remuneration" does not include—

(a) the remuneration of any director who is required to devote substantially the whole of his time to the service of the company in a managerial or technical capacity and is not the beneficial owner of, or able, either directly or through the medium of other companies or by any other indirect means, to control more than five per cent. of the ordinary share capital of the company, or

(b) the remuneration of any managing agent where such remuneration is included in the profits of the managing agent's business for the purposes of the business profits tax.

5. (1) In computing the profits of any chargeable accounting period no deduction shall be allowed in respect of expenses in excess of the amount which the Income-tax Officer considers reasonable and necessary, having regard to the requirements of the business, and, in the case of directors' fees or other payments for services, to the actual services rendered by the person concerned:

Provided that no disallowance under this rule shall be made by the Income-tax Officer unless he had obtained the prior authority of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax.

(2) Any person who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Income-tax Officer under this rule may appeal in the prescribed time and manner to the Appellate Tribunal referred to in Section 17.

Rules for computing the capital of a company for purposes of Business Profits Tax.

1. For the purposes of ascertaining the abatement under this Act in respect of any chargeable accounting period, the capital of a company shall be computed in accordance with the following rules.

2. *[(1) Where the company is one to which R. 3 of Schedule I applies, its capital shall be the sum of the amounts of its paid-up share capital and of its reserves in so far as they have not been allowed in computing the profits of the

Schedule II, Rule 2 — Note 1

(1) Term 'reserve' is not defined in the Act and should be given the ordinary natural meaning as understood in common parlance. The reserve may be a general reserve or a specific reserve but there must be a clear indication to show that it was a reserve either of the one or the other kind. ('53) AIR 1953 SC 501 (502): 1954 SCR 203 * AIR 1958 Mad 328 (330).

(2) The word 'reserve' or 'reserves' has a technical sense in the Companies Act. The word cannot be given a wider meaning in this Act than the one given under Regulation 9 of Table A or S. 131-A of the Companies Act, 1913. ('54) AIR 1954 Pat 139 (140) (DB).

(3) Profits lying unutilized and not specially set apart for any purpose on the crucial date would not constitute reserves within Rule 2 (1). ('53) AIR 1953 SC 501 (502): 1954 SCR 203. (AIR 1951 Bom 420, Reversed.) * ('55) AIR 1955 Cal 289 (290) (DB) * ('55) AIR 1955 Cal 550 (551, 552) (DB). (Computation of capital — Unappropriated balance of previous year simply carried forward without allocation for specific purpose — Not a reserve.)

(4) In dealing with the question, when was an effective and valid allocation made of the sums with reference to which abatement was claimed under Section 2 (1), what has to be examined is whether any one possessed of the requisite authority indicated on or before the crucial date the manner of disposal or the destination of the funds of the company which constituted its profits. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 326 (327, 328): ILR (1957) Mad 1163 (DB). (Held in view of Articles of the company that Directors only and not sharecompany for the purposes of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, diminished by the cost to it of its investments or other property the income from which is not includable in the profits, so far as that cost exceeds any debt for money borrowed by it.]

[b][(2)] In all other cases, the capital shall be the sum ascertained in accordance with the said sub-rule, diminished by the cost to the company of its investments so far as that cost exceeds any debt for money borrowed by it.

[c][Explanation.—A reserve or paid-up share capital brought into existence by creating or increasing (by revaluation or otherwise) any book asset is not capital for the purposes of ascertaining the abatement under this Act in respect of any chargeable accounting period.]

holders possessed the requisite authority to order allocation to reserve fund.) * ('55) AIR 1955 Cal 289 (290) (DB) * AIR 1960 Mad 137 (140): (1960) 2 Mad LJ 1 (DB).

(5) Unless directors apply their mind to the question and unless they make appropriation of balance to payment of dividends or to building up reserves it is difficult to say that any portion of the amount of balance in profits and loss account could be treated as reserve or reserves for purpose of computing the amount of capital under Rule 2. ('54) AIR 1954 Pat 139 (141) (DB).

(6) What Rule 2 (1) requires is that the reserve should be factually in existence on first day of relevant chargeable accounting period. No retrospective effect can be given to the factual allocation. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 326 (329): ILR (1957) Mad 1163 (DB). (AIR 1957 Bom 26, Dissented from.)

(7) Function of Directors under the Companies Act is to make a recommendation as to how the profits should be distributed or allocated and it is the right of the shareholders ultimately to decide at a general meeting. When the shareholders accept and adopt the recommendations of the Directors in the form of a resolution that certain amounts should constitute reserve as on an earlier accounting period, the resolution obviously has a retrospective effect. ('57) AIR 1957 Bom 26 (27): ILR (1957) Bom 38 (DB). (Mere fact that shareholders passed a resolution at a later date could not affect the merits of the question.)

(8) True nature and character of a sum disputed as reserve is to be determined with reference to the substance of the matter. A reserve as used in Rule 2 can only mean profit earned by a company and not distributed as dividend to shareholders but kept back by directors for any purpose to which it may be put in future. AIR 1961 SC 812 (815, 816): (1961) 3 SCR 371 * AIR 1958 Cal 664 (667, 668) (DB).

(9) Even if the passing by general body of shareholders of profit and loss accounts submitted by the directors might be taken as evidence of appropriation of various amounts to various heads shown in profit and loss account, the question remains whether inclusion of any amount under the head, 'capital profit account', amounts to authorisation of a reserve fund. Where the real position is that a portion of the profits of the company was taken over to the capital profit account only to be available for a deferred distribution of dividends to share-holder, it only means that a portion of the profits were kept undistributed, and merely because they were included in a separate head account, they were not taken out of what is called 'amorphous and undistributed profits.' Such an amount would not be a reserve within meaning of Rule 2 (1). AIR 1960 Mad 351 (352): (1960) 38 ITR 428 (DB).

(10) The allocation of a specified sum out of the profits of the company to be kept back for utilisation towards the payment of tax is sufficient to make the sum so set apart a reserve within the meaning of Rule 2 (1). ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 326 (330): ILR (1957) Mad 1163 (DB).

(11) Payments made for taxes, until the assessment is finalised must be shown as advances and made from the common fund and such payments, are not debitable to the reserve. The assessee is entitled to select his own system of accounting and if he chooses to pay the taxes during any current year from out of unreserved and undemarcated funds and does not look to the tax reserve fund for the payment of such taxes, in particular advance taxes, there is nothing either in the provisions of the Act or in Rule 2 to justify the Income-tax Department to treat such payment as having been made from the reserve fund and to proceed to deduct such amount from out of the reserve fund for the purposes of the computation of capital under

[a][(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 2, where only a part of the profits of a company is chargeable under the provisions of the Act, its capital shall be the sum ascertained in accordance with the said rule diminished by an amount which bears to that sum the same proportion as the amount of its profits not so chargeable bears to its total profits.]

[a] Added by the Income-tax and Business Profits Tax (Amendment) Act, 1947 (44 of 1947), S. 3 (w. r. e. f. 12-7-1947).

3. So much of the premium realized by a company from the issue of any of its shares as is retained in the business shall be regarded as forming part of its paid-up capital for the purposes of Rule 2.

Rule 2 (1) of Schedule II. (1964) 5 Guj LR 837 (844, 845, 846): (1965) 58 ITR 854 (DB).

(12) The creation and maintenance of the item known, as 'undivided profits' by a non-resident Bank incorporated in U. S. A. being a requirement of the Treasury Rules which are made under the Statute of that country it cannot be said that the amount of Undivided Profits in the Balance sheet was not allocated as a result of either a resolution of the Directors, accepted by the shareholders or on account of the requirements of the law. The amount designated as 'Undivided Profits' was a part of the reserves and had to be taken into account when computing the capital and reserves within Rule 2 (1) of Schedule II of the Act. AIR 1961 SC 812 (815): (1961) 3 SCR 371. (1957-3 ITR 836 (Bom), Reversed.)

(13) Whatever was given as a refund of excess profits tax in the United Kingdom was available only for use for a limited purpose, as specified in Section 40 of the English Finance Act (2 of 1945) and the assessee was under a statutory liability to utilise this amount only for those purposes. When the amount refunded was shown in the balance sheet under a separate head of account as 'excess profits tax post-war refund suspense account' it meant that the amount was held in reserve, but in suspense, to be utilised for the statutory purposes as directed by Section 40 of the English Finance Act of 1945. The very inclusion of this amount under this head of account would be proof of an appropriation for a specified purpose. That amount was, a reserve within Rule 2. AIR 1960 Mad 351 (353): (1960) 38 ITR 428 (DB).

(14) Non-resident assessee Company taking over assets of two Companies — In consideration of transfer of assets assessee Company allotting shares to transferor Companies — Excess of book value of assets transferred over face value of shares issued shown as "Capital paid in Surplus" — "Capital paid in Surplus", held represented "premium" within Rule 3 or in alternative "reserve" within Rule 2 (1) — "Earned Surplus" representing net profits earned year after year, subject to certain appropriations, held should be treated as "reserve" within Rule 2 (1). AIR 1966 SC 1393 (1399. 1401. 1402): (1966) 2 SCR 367.

(15) Payments under Section 18-A do not satisfy that test and cannot therefore be treated as part of its reserve. Their true nature is that they are payments on account, made under the compulsion of a statute, towards the discharge of an instant liability for liquidating a charge, the precise measure of which is to be determined at a later date. ('58) AIR 1958 Cal 664 (667, 668) (DB).

Schedule 2, Rule 2-A — Note 1

(1) Under Rule 2-A, if part of the profits of a business in an Indian State are brought into the taxable territories, then a portion of the capital of the business in the Indian State proportionate to the profits would have to be taken into consideration for the purpose of abatement. The Legislature under this rule has clearly contemplated a case of part of the profits under the third proviso to Section 5 coming into the taxable territories and becoming liable to tax, and to that extent it has given the assessee the right of abatement. On a true construction of Rule 2-A it must follow that if a part of the profits is brought within the taxable territories, the abatement to which the assessee would be entitled would be only with regard to the capital proportionate to the profits; then if no profits are brought within the taxable territories the assessee would not be entitled to any abatement at all with regard to the capital utilised by him in the Indian State business. (1956) 30 ITR 849 (857, 858) (DB) (Bom).

(2) Assessee sustaining loss in business in part of India to which the Act does not extend — Computation of capital — No difficulty arises by reason of Rule 2-A. AIR 1960 SC 1175 (1182): (1960) 3 SCR 727.

Schedule 2, Rule 3 — Note 1

(1) Non-resident assessee company taking over assets of two companies — In consideration of transfer of assets assessee company allotting shares to transferor companies — Excess of book value of assets over face value of shares shown as "Capital paid in surplus" — "Capital paid in surplus" held represented "premium" within Rule 3. AIR 1966 SC 1393 (1397): (1966) 2 SCR 367.

[THE] CALCUTTA HIGH COURT (EXTENSION OF JURISDICTION) ACT, 1953
(ACT XLI OF 1953)

[The text of the Act printed here is as on 15-4-1969.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to extend the jurisdiction of the Calcutta High Court to Chandernagore and the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

2. In the case of Chandernagore, the Calcutta High Court has been the High Court for purposes of certain laws which were extended to the area after its de facto transfer to India by an order made by the Central Government under the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1947. Now that de jure transfer of the area to India has been effected, it is considered that the jurisdiction of that High Court should extend to that area for all purposes by an Act of Parliament as contemplated in Art. 230 of the Constitution.

3. In relation to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands also, the Calcutta High Court is the High Court for the purposes of a limited number of laws including the Codes of Civil and Criminal Procedure. The Bill is designed to confer on the High Court jurisdiction for all purposes."

[THE] CALCUTTA HIGH COURT (JURISDICTIONAL LIMITS) ACT, 1919

(ACT XV OF 1919)[a]

[The text of the Act printed here is as on 15-4-1969.]

An Act to declare and prescribe the limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Fort Wlliam in Bengal.

WHEREAS Clause 11 of the Letters Patent for the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, dated the 28th December, 1865, provides that the said High Court shall have and exercise ordinary original civil jurisdiction within such local limts as may from time to time be declared and prescribed by any law made by competent legislative authority for India;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient so to declare and prescribe the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the said High Court;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. Ind., 1919. Pt. V, page 74; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, Pt. VI, pages 876 and 1101.

1. Short title.—This Act may be called THE CALCUTTA HIGH COURT (JURISDICTIONAL LIMITS) ACT, 1919.

2. Limits of ordinary original civil jurisdiction.—The ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal shall be exercised within the limits set out in the Schedule :

Provided that nothing in this Act shall affect any suit or other legal proceeding pending in any Court at the date of the commencement of this Act.

THE SCHEDULE

1. The limits within which the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court shall be exercised are as follows:—

North. — A line commencing on the Western side of the river Hoogly at a point where the straight line joining reference pillar No. I (in a compound on the river side of the Ghusri Cotton Mill, Howrah) and reference pillar No. II (near the south-western end of Chitpur Toll Bridge) meets the western water-line of the river Hoogly, and thence along the said line to the point where it meets the eastern water line of the river Hoogly near the south bank of the opening of Circular Canal; thence along the water-line of the south bank of Circular Canal passing under the Chitpur Toll Bridge, the Chitpur or Baghbazar Bridge to boundary pillar A on the eastern side of the southern pile of Barrackpore Bridge.

East. — A line commencing from the said boundary pillar A following the eastern edge of the steps of the bridge to a point near the south-eastern corner of the immediate approach to the bridge marked by reference pillar III, which is on the boundary; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar B on the south-eastern corner of the junction of Cornwallis Street and Galif Street (now marked with a Publie Works Department stone); thence along the eastern side and the eastern side of the eastern pavement of Cornwallis Street in a series of regular links joining points marked by posts 1-3 to boundary pillar C at the north corner of the junction of Shambazar Street with Cornwallis Street; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar D on the solid south corner of the said junction; thence in an approximately straight line along the solid eastern side of Upper Circular Road marked by posts 4-9; thence eastward following the corner round to boundary pillar E on the north corner of the junction of the unnamed road (which runs into Jadu Nath Mitra Lane) with Upper Circular Road; and thence by a straight line to boundary Pillar F at the solid south corner of the junction of Jadu Nath Mitra Lane with Upper Circular Road; thence by posts 10-13 to boundary pillar G on the solid south corner of the junction of Ultadingi Road with Upper Circular Road; thence along the solid south side of Ultadingi Road in a series of continuous and approximately straight lines joining points marked by posts 14-16 to boundary pillar H at the solid western corner of the junction of Ultadingi Road and Gauribere Lane; thence by the solid western side of Gauribere Lane; marked by posts 17-21; thence by a straight line crossing the road diagonally to boundary pillar I on the solid south-eastern corner of the junction of Gauribere Lane and Ultadingi Junction Lane; thence along the solid eastern side of Ultadingi Junction Lane marked by posts 22-24 to boundary pillar J on the solid eastern corner of the junction of Ultadingi Junction Lane with Halsibagan Road; thence by a straight line to post 25 at the solid western corner of the said junction; thence along the solid north side of Halsibagan Road marked by post 26 to boundary pillar K on the north side of Halsibagan Road directly opposite the solid eastern side Upper Circular Road south of it; thence by a straight line to post 27 at the solid south corner of the junction of Halsibagan Road with Upper Circular Road; thence by the solid eastern side of Upper Circular Road marked by posts 28-34 to post 35; thence turning east to boundary pillar L on the north side of Maniktola Road; thence by a straight line to post 36 at the south corner of the junction of Maniktola Road with Upper Circular Road at the north-western corner of the garden of Kali Pada Barik; thence along the eastern side of the lane on the eastern side of the raised platform road and marked by posts 37-49 to boundary pillar M at the solid north corner of the junction of Gas Street and Upper Circular Road; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar N at the solid south corner of the said junction; thence keeping again to the eastern side of the lane on the eastern side of the raised platform road along a line marked by posts 50-61 excluding the recently made Ladies' Park to boundary pillar O near the north pillar of the north entrance to North Station, Sealdah; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar P at the south corner of that entrance; thence by the comparatively straight line from pillar to pillar connecting boundary pillars P, Q, R, S, and T adjacent to the pillars forming the corners of the various approaches Sealdah Station; thence along the solid eastern side of Lower Circular Road marked by posts 62-64 to pillar 65; thence turning west to boundary pillar U at the north-western corner of the outpatients' department of the Campbell Hospital; thence by a straight line marked by posts 66-68 to boundary Pillar V on the corner of the platform to the right of the north entrance to the Calcutta Corporation Central Stores; thence by post 69 turning east to post 70; thence by posts 71-76, boundary pillars W and X at the solid corners of the southern junction of Police Hospital Road with Lower Circular Road; thence by posts 77 80, to boundary pillars Y and Z on the solid corners of the junction of Bonapukur Lane with Lower Circular Road, by posts 81-86 to boundary pillars A1 and B1, at the solid corners of the junction of Nonapukur or Bijli Road and Lower Circular Road, posts 87, 88, to boundary pillar C1, near the south-western corner of the Circular Road burial ground; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar D1, on the other side of the tramway lines; thence post 89 eastward to post 90; thence to boundary pillars E1, and F1, at the solid corners of the junction of Karaya Bazar Road and Lower Circular Road, posts 91, 92, to boundary pillar G1, opposite to Theater Road, posts 93, 94, to boundary pillar H1, a few feet south of the point directly opposite the junction of Auckland Place and Lower Road, following the curve of the road by posts 95 and 96 to reference pillar IV (which is on the boundary) on the eastern side of the junction of Beck Bagan Lane with Lower Circular Road.

South. — A line commencing from the said reference pillar IV in a straight line to boundary pillar II, western corner of the junction of Beck Bagan Lane with Lower Circular Road; thence along the solid south side of Lower Circular Road to boundary pillar J1, and K1, at the solid corners of the junction of Ballyganj Circular Road and Lower Circular Road; thence by the solid south side of Lower Circular Road marked by posts 97, 98, boundary pillars L1, M1, at the solid corners of the junction of Lansdowne Road with Lower Circular Road, post 99 southward to posts 100 westward to post 101, northward to post 102 and westward to post 103, boundary pillars N1 and O1 at the solid corners of the junction of Woodburn Road with Lower Circular Road, posts 104, 105 boundary pillars P1 and Q1 at the solid corners of the junction of Lee Road with Lower Circular Road; thence by the straight line links but broken boundary line formed by posts 106-113, to boundary pillar R1, on the south-eastern corner of the junction of Chowringhee with Lower Circular Road; thence by an oblique straight line to boundary pillar S1 on the south-western corner of the said junction near a stone marked F. W. B. 26); thence by a line representing the present limits of the holdings on the south of Circular Road and marked by posts 114-116 boundary pillars T1 and U1 at the solid corners of the junction of Haris Chandra Mukharji Road and Lower Circular Road, posts 117-121; thence to boundary pillar V1, near the north corner of the junction of Bhowanipore Road and Lower Circular Road; thence following the curve of the corner and the eastern side of Bhowanipore Road and the surplus lands attached thereto by a series of straight line links joining points marked by posts 122-124, boundary pillars W1, and X1, at the junction of Shambunath Pandit Street and Bhowanipore Road, posts 125-128 turning eastward to boundary pillar Y1 on the north side of Sankaripara Road posts 129, 130 to boundary pillars Z1 and A2 across the entrance of Ketrapati Road into Bhowanipore Road, thence by posts 131, 132 to boundary pillar B2 on the north-eastern side of Alipore Bridge; thence along a straight line joining the said boundary pillar B2 with subsidary reference pillar VII on the south-eastern side of the said bridge to a point where that straight line meets the water-line of Tolly's Nala; thence along the water-line of Tolly's Nala to the north-eastern corner of the District Magistrate's compound, near which is boundary pillar C2; thence along the irregular northern boundary of the Magistrate's compound marked by posts 133-141 to boundary pillar D2 at the south corner of the entrance to the Civil Surgeon's house from Thackeray Road; thence southward along the western boundary of the Magistrate's compound by posts 142-145 and along the southern boundary of that compound marked by posts 147, 148 to boundary pillar E2 on the bank of Tolly's Nala; thence continuing the straight line from post 148 to boundary pillar E2 till it meets the water-line of Tolly's Nala; thence along the water-line of Tolly's Nala to a point in a direct line with the north side of the masonry drain running outside the Jail Garden near which is boundary pillar F2; thence along the north side of the said drain in a straight line across Motee Zeel to post 149 against the boundary of the compound of the Magistrate's Court; thence northward along that boundary to post 150 and westward to post 151 and northward again along the boundary of the Army Clothing Agency to post 152; thence westward on the south side of the lane to boundary pillar G2 at the north-western corner of the Police Hospital Compound; thence along the wall of the Alipore Central Jail, facing Belvedere Road and marked by pillars 153-157 to the north-western corner of the junction of Belvedere Road and Jail Lane following the corner eastward to post 158 and continuing along the south side of Jail Lane to post 159; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar H2 at the acute corner of the junction of Reformatory Street with Jail Lane; thence to boundary pillar 12 on the north-western side of Alipore Bridge; thence to boundary pillar J2 on the north-eastern side of the said bridge; thence by the solid south-western and western side of Bhowanipore Road marked by posts 160-167; thence following the western corner of the junction of Bhowanipore Road and Lower Circular Road to boundary pillar K2; thence along the solid south side of Lower Circular Road following the Sweep of the railings and marked by posts 168-172 to boundary pillar L2 on Lower Circular Road and east of its junction with Belvedere Road; thence following the natural bends of the corner marked by posts 173 and 174 to boundary pillar M2 on the eastern side of Belvedere Road; thence along the eastern side of Belvedere Road now indicated by wooden railings and marked by post 175 to boundary pillar N2 on the north-eastern side of Zeerut Bridge; thence along the railings of the footpath on the eastern side of the bridge to boundary pillar O2 near its south-eastern end; thence along a bent line following the shape of the bridge and marked by posts 176, 177 to post 178 on the eastern side of the south extremity of the immediate approach to the bridge; thence by a straight line to boundary pillar P2 on the western side of the said extremity; thence turning north along the railings of the footpath on the western side of the bridge, till it meets the water-line underneath the bridge, thence along the water-line of the south or Alipore bank of Tolly's Nala trending northwards under Hastings Bridge, to a point where a straight line joining reference pillar V (near the south-western end of Hastings Bridge), to reference pillar VI (on the Howrah side of the river in a line with the northern wall of the Bengal Nagpur Railway Goods Yard) meets the water-line of the south bank of the bend of the Hoogly River, near the western side of the opening of Tolly's Nala; thence continuing the said straight line till that said straight line meets the water-line of the Howrah side of the river Hoogly.

West. — A line commencing from the point last defined along the water-line of the Howrah side of the River Hoogly to the western extremity of the northern boundary.

2. (a) When the expression "water-line" is used in this Schedule all pucca ghats and other objects permanentiy attached to the bank and in contact with the water shall be deemed to appertain to the area to which the land on that bank appertains, and the water in contact with such objects shall be deemed to appertain to the other side of the boundary. In the places in the Schedule where the boundary is thus described the boundary line shall be the moving edge of the water wherever it may be at any time. In the case of bridges, however, the supporting pile in contact with the bank only shall be deemed to be permanently attached to the bank and the boundary line across the bridge to be immediately above the water-line so described.

(b) The expression "solid side" or "solid corner" means the line or spot marked out by solid objects, such as a pucca wall or the face of a house, the wayside lands and pavements thus being all included in the adjacent road, street or lane.

[THE] CALCUTTA PILOTS ACT, 1859

(ACT XII OF 1859)[a]

[4th May, 1859.]

An Act to make better provision for the trial of pilots at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal[b] for breach of duty.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law for the trial of persons employed in [c][the Hooghly Pilot Service of the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta], when accused of breach of duty, and to extend the same to persons licensed to act as pilots at the said Presidency[b]. It is enacted as follows :

[a] Short title given by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), S. 2 and Sch. I, Pt. II.

This Act applies to all persons employed in the Pilot Service at the Presidency (i. e., at Calcutta) and borne on the rolls of the Goverument establishment, and to all persons licensed to act as pilots at the Presidency (i e., at Calcutta). See S. 23.

[c] Substituted for the words "the Pilot Service of Government at the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal" by the Calcutta Port (Pilotage) Act, 1948 (XXXIII of 1948), S. 11 [w. e. f. 16-5-1948].

1. Repeal of Acts XXIV of 1845 and I of 1851.—[Repealed by the Repealing Act, 1870 (XIV of 1870), S. 1 and Sch., Pt. II.]

2. Trial of pilots accused of breach of duty.—When any person employed in [a][the Hooghly Pilot Service of the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta], or licensed to act as a pilot at the said Presidency,[b] shall be accused of having committed any breach of duty while engaged in such service or acting under such license, and it shall appear to the [c][Port Officer], or to the [d][Central Government] that such person ought to be brought to trial for such breach of duty, such person shall be brought to trial upon a charge or charges framed by the said [c][Port Officer], or such other person as the [d][Central Government] shall direct, before a Court constituted under the provisions of this Act.

[b] That is, at Calcutta.
[c] Substituted for "Superintendent of Marine" by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), S. 3 and Sch. II, Pt. II.
[d] Substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by A. O., 1937.

3. Appointment of Judge.—The [a][Central Government] shall appoint a fit person to be Judge of the said Court.

[a] Substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by A. O., 1937.

4. Appointment of prosecutor.—The [a][Central Government] shall appoint such person as [b][it] may think proper to conduct the proceedings before the Court as prosecutor on the part of Government.

[a] Substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by A. O., 1937.
[b] Substituted for "he", ibid.

5. Trial to be held before Judge and jury.—Every trial under this Act shall be held before the said Judge and a jury composed of two merchants of Calcutta, a master of a merchantship lying the Port of Calcutta, and a pilot of not less than twenty years' service.

6. Lists of merchants and pilots liable to serve on jury.—The Judge shall cause to be prepared and shall keep two separate lists, one containing the names of merchants, the other containing the names of pilots, liable to serve on such jury.

The names in each list shall be arranged in alphabetical order, and the place of abode and quality or business of each person named shall be stated.

7. Notice to prosecutor and accused of time and place for appointing jury.—When the Judge shall be about to hold a trial under this Act, he shall give notice to the prosecutor and to the party accused of a time and place to be fixed by the Judge for appointing a jury to serve at such trial.

8. Appointment of jury.—At the time and place mentioned in the notice, the Judge in the presence of the prosecutor and the person accused shall read over the names which first occur in each of the said lists of those merchants and pilots who he has reason to believe are present in Calcutta and capable of attending as jurors at the trial; and shall also propose the name of a master of a merchantship lying in the Port of Calcutta, whom he deems qualified to serve on such jury.

If no objection be made and allowed, the persons so nominated shall be the jury to serve at the trial.

If the prosecutor or the party accused shall object to any of the persons named as jurors, he shall assign the grounds of his objection and such objection shall forthwith be decided by the Judge.

If the objection be allowed, the Judge shall read from the said lists or propose (as the case may be) another name in the place of the one objected to, and the person so nominated shall serve on the jury provided no objection to such person be made and allowed as aforesaid.

9. Day of trial to be fixed and summons to issue to jurors. Penalty for non-attendance.—When a jury has been appointed under the last preceding section, the Judge shall fix a day for the trial and shall summon by writing under his hand the persons so appointed to sit as a jury.

If any such person when duly summoned shall, without such excuse as the Judge shall allow to be sufficient, neglect or refuse to attend at the time appointed or to remain in attendance until the trial shall be completed, it shall be lawful for the said Judge to impose upon any such person a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such default; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter under a warrant to be issued for that purpose by the Judge.

Such warrant may be transmitted by the Judge to any [a][Presidency Magistrate] for the town of Calcutta, and thereupon such Magistrate shall endorse the same and shall cause it to be executed in the same manner as if the warrant had been issued by such Magistrate.

[a] Substituted for "Magistrate of Police" by the Bengal Pilot Service (Centralisation of Administration) Act, 1929 (XI of 1929), S. 2.

10. Trial how to proceed if any juror does not attend.—If for any cause any of the persons summoned to attend as jurors shall not be in attendance at the time fixed for the commencement of the trial, the trial may with the consent of the prosecutor and the party accused be held before the Judge and such jurors as shall be in attendance.

If such consent be not given, the place of the absent juror shall be supplied by some other person selected by the Judge from the same profession or calling as the person originally summoned and who shall consent to serve, provided no objection to such person be made and allowed in manner aforesaid.

If the parties or either of them do not consent that the trial shall be held before the Judge and such jurors as may be in attendance and the place of the absent juror cannot be supplied by a person consenting to serve, the trial shall be postponed to another day and the Judge shall either re-summon the same jury or appoint and summon another jury in the manner hereinbefore provided.

11. Register of jurors who have served.—The Judge shall register in a book the names of all jurors mentioned in either of the said two lists who have attended and served on a trial held under this Act.

A juror who has served shall not be required again to serve and his name shall be excluded in reading over the jury lists until all the persons named in the said lists who are present in Calcutta and capable of attending as jurors shall have served.

12. Jurors to be sworn.—[Repealed by the Indian Oaths Act, 1873 (X of 1873), S. 2 and Sch., Pt. II.]

13. Judge may summon witnesses to attend at certain time and place. Examination of witnesses about to leave Calcutta.—It shall be lawful for the Judge of the said Court, at the instance of the prosecutor, or of the party accused, or of his own motion, by writing under his hand, to summon any person to attend as a witness at a time and place to be specified in the summons, for the purpose of being examined at any trial before the said Court; or if such person shall be about to depart from Calcutta, so as to be unable to attend at such trial without serious inconvenience, then to be examined before the Judge of the said Court before the day fixed for the trial:

Provided always that due notice of the time and place of such examination shall be given to the accused party; provided also that such witness may nevertheless be examined at the trial if he shall be able to attend thereat in which case his previous examination may also be read at the trial.

14. Penalty for witnesses not attending or refusing to give evidence.—If any person who shall have been duly summoned to attend as a witness shall, without sufficient excuse, neglect or refuse to attend, or attending shall refuse to give evidence or to answer any question which may be lawfully put to him, such person shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding five hundred rupees, as the Judge of the said Court shall order; and such fine, if not paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same in the manner prescribed in Section 9 of this Act.

[a][15. Arrest.—(1) Whenever the Judge of the said Court thinks it necessary for obtaining evidence that any person should be arrested, he may issue a warrant for his arrest, and may, for the purpose of effecting the arrest, authorize any officer (subject, nevertheless, to any general or special instructions from the [b][Central Government]) to enter any vessel.

(2) Any officer so authorized may, for the purpose of enforcing the entry, call to his aid any officers of Police or Customs, or any other persons, and may seize and detain the vessel for such time as is reasonably necessary to effect the arrest; and every such officer or other person shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, Section 186.

(3) No person shall be detained under this section for more than forty-eight hours.]

[a] Inserted by the Calcutta Pilots (Amendment) Act, 1883 (VI of 1883), S. 1 [w. e. f. 1-1-1884].

The original S. 15, relating to examination of witnesses on oath, affirmation or otherwise, was repealed by the Indian Oaths Act, 1873 (X of 1873), S. 2 and Sch., Pt. II.

[b] Substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by A. O., 1937.

16. Verdict of jurors.—Upon the completion of the trial, the jurors shall give their verdict upon the charge, or, if there be more than one, upon each separate charge.

The verdict shall be according to the opinion of the majority of jurors. If the jurors are equally divided, the Judge shall declare his opinion, and the verdict shall be according to the opinion of the Judge and the jurors with whom he concurs.

17. Sentence if accused found guilty.—If by such verdict the accused person is found guilty of the charge or of any one or more of the charges preferred against him, the Judge of the Court shall sentence him to be dismissed from the said pilot service, or to have his license withdrawn, or shall award such other punishment, by loss of rank [a][° °], or by change of a license from a higher to a lower grade, or suspension from employment for a specified period, as to the Judge shall appear fit.

Preparation of schedule of offences and punishments.

The [b][Central Government], [c][° °] may prepare a schedule of offences and punishments (such punishments being of the same nature as those hereinbefore mentioned) for the guidance of the said Court; and if such schedule be prepared [d][° °] and the charge proved before the said Court is an offence specified in such schedule, the Judge of the said Court shall award such punishment as is prescribed for such offence in the said schedule, and no other.

Acquittal.

If by such verdict as aforesaid the accused person is found not guilty of the charge or charges preferred against him, the Judge shall declare him acquitted of the same.

[a] The words "or pay" were omitted by the Calcutta Pilots (Amendment) Act, 1920 (Beng. IV of 1920), S. 2.

[b] Substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by A. O., 1937.
[c] The words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" were omitted by the Decentralisation Act, 1914 (IV of 1914), S. 2 and Sch., Pt. I.
[d] The words "and sanctioned" were omitted, ibid.

18. No sentence final till approved by Government.—The proceedings of the Court shall be sent by the Judge to the [a][Port Officer] for submission to the [b][Central Government;] and no sentence of punishment pronounced by the Judge of said Court shall be final until it has been approved of by the [b][Central Government.]

Government may remit sentence or mitigate punishment.

The [b][Central Government] may remit the whole or any part of such sentence, or may direct the substitution of any mitigated punishment in lieu of the punishment awarded by the said Court as [c][it] shall think fit.

[a] Substituted for "Superintendent of Marine" by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903), S. 3 and Sch. II, Pt. II.
[b] Substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by A. O., 1937.
[c] Substituted for "he", ibid.

19. If verdict of jurors be manifestly contrary to evidence, or trial otherwise insufficient.—If it shall appear to the Judge of the said Court that the verdict of the jurors is manifestly contrary to the evidence, or that the trial is otherwise insufficient, the Judge, instead of passing sentence on the accused person or declaring him acquitted, as the case may be, may certify the same to the [a][ Central Government], and the [a][Central Government] may either order a new trial before another jury or acquit the accused person, as [b][it] shall think fit.

[a] Substituted for "Governor General in Council" by A.O., 1937.
[b] Substituted for "he", ibid.

20. Power to make rules.—It shall be lawful for the [a][Central Government] to make such rules as [b][it] shall think proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for conducting the proceedings and regulating the practice of the said Court.

[a] Substituted for "Governor General in Council" by A.O., 1937.
[b] Substituted for "he", ibid.

21. Commissioners of Port of Calcutta may pass orders upon charge of breach of duty where trial unnecessary.—Nothing contained in this Act shall be held to restrict [a][the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta] from passing such orders as may be deemed proper upon any charge of breach of duty preferred against any person employed in the said pilot service, when it shall not be deemed necessary that such person should be brought to trial for such breach of duty under the provisions of this Act; [b][provided that no order for suspension, reduction or deprivation of appointment shall be made without the previous sanction of the Central Government].

[a] Substituted for the words "the marine authorities of the Government" by the Calcutta Port (Pilotage) Act, 1948 (XXXIII of 1948), S. 11 (w.e.f. 16-5-1948).
[b] These words were added, ibid.

22. Withdrawal of licence from licensed pilot.—If any person licensed to act as a pilot when duly charged with breach of duty as aforesaid, shall refuse to submit himself to trial under the provisions of this Act, the licence of such person shall be withdrawn, and he shall be incapable of being again licensed to act as a pilot at the said Presidency.[a]

[a] That is, at Calcutta.

23. Act applicable to persons in pilot service and to licensed pilots.—The provisions of this Act shall extend to [a][all persons employed in the Hoogly Pilot Service and borne on the rolls of the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta], whether such persons receive fixed salaries, or are remunerated by a portion of the pilotage charged on the vessels piloted by them, or in any other manner, and to all persons licensed to act as pilots at the said Presidency.[b]

[a] Substituted 'for the words "all persons employed in the Pilot service at the said Presidency and borne on the rolls of the Government establishment" by the Calcutta Port (Pilotage) Act, 1948 (XXXIII of 1948), S. 11 (w.e.f. 16-5-1948).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"At present the responsibility for administrative control over pilotage on the river Hooghly from the sea to the Calcutta Port limits rests with Government while the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta are responsible for the conservation and improvement of the Hooghly river and its approaches. The two functions are inter-dependent and, in the light of experience, it is considered that in the interests of better administration the Port Commissioners should be made responsible for pilotage also. The Commissioners have agreed to this proposal and the present Bill gives them the necessary legal powers for maintaining a cadre of pilots collecting pilotage fees from vessels, and provides for certain incidental matters."

[THE] CALCUTTA PORT (PILOTAGE) ACT, 1948

(ACT XXXIII OF 1948)[a]

[16th April, 1948.]

An Act to provide for the transfer of control over pilotage on the River Hooghly to the Commissioners for the Port of Culcutta.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the transfer of control over pilotage on the River Hooghly to the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta and for other matters incidental thereto, and to make certain consequential amendments in the Calcutta Pilots Act XII of 1859;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CALCUTTA PORT (PILOTAGE) ACT, 1948.

(2) It shall come into force on such date[a] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

[a] 16th May, 1948, vide Notification No. 27-M (III)/47, dated 19th May, 1948, see Gazette of India, 1948, Pt. I, p. 556.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "appointed day" means the date on which this Act comes into force;

(b) "Commissioners" means the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta incorporated under the Calcutta Port Act,[a] 1890;

(c) "Hooghly area" means the part of the Hooghly River extending from the Port of Calcutta to the sea to which Section 31 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908, has been extended.

[a] Bengal Act III of 1890.

3. Commissioners' duty to maintain pilots.—As from the appointed day it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to maintain pilots for the safe navigation of vessels in the Hooghly area and the Commissioners shall be bound to maintain a sufficient number of pilots for the purpose as may be prescribed by the Central Government from time to time.

4. Appointment of pilots.—No person shall be appointed to be a pilot by the Commissioners who is not for the time being authorised by the Central Government under the provisions of the Indian Ports Act, 1908, to pilot vessels.

5. Rules regarding pilots.—(1) The Commissioners may from time to time make rules—

(a) for fixing and regulating the salaries, wages and allowances for pilotage to be received by the pilots, and

(b) for regulating the behaviour and conduct of pilots, and may enforce the observance of such rules by the imposition of pecuniary penalties not exceeding two hundred rupees for every breach thereof or by suspension or deprivation of appointment or otherwise, as to them may appear expedient:

Provided that any such order made by the Commissioners shall, as respects any officer whose salary amounts to or exceeds one thousand rupees, be subject to the previous sanction of the Central Government.

(2) No such rules shall take effect until they are approved by the Central Government and published in the Official Gazette.

6. Levy of pilotage fees.—As from the appointed day the Commissioners shall be entitled to levy fees for the pilotage of vessels in the Hooghly area at rates fixed under the Indian Ports Act, 1908.

[a][7. Pilotage fees and fines and penalties levied under the Act.—All fees for pilotage and all fines and penalties levied under this Act from pilots or other persons employed in the pilot service, except fines and penalties imposed by a Court, shall be accounted for and expended by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of Section 36 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908.]

[a] Substituted for the original Section 7 by the Port Trusts and Ports (Amendment) Act, 1951 (XXXV of 1951), S. 193 (16-7-1951).

8. Expenditure in pilotage account. [Repealed by the Port Trusts and Ports (Amendment) Act, 1951 (XXXV of 1951), S. 194 (16-7-1951).

9. Power to transfer moneys from the general account to pilotage account and vice versa.—The Commissioners shall have the power, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, to apply [a][any sum out of] the moneys credited to the general account towards meeting deficits, if any, in the pilotage account [a][maintained under Section 36 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908] and to transfer the whole or [b][part of the surplus funds, if any, in such pilotage account] to the general account.

[a] Inserted by the Port Trusts and Ports (Amendment) Act, 1951 (XXXV of 1951), S 195 (16-7-1951).
[b] Substituted for the words "part of the surplus funds in the pilotage account", ibid.

[a][10. Application of certain provisions of Bengal Act III of 1890.—Secs. 18, 19, 24B, 29 to 34 (both inclusive), 47 to 54 (both inclusive), 55, 57, 58 and 69 to 80A (both inclusive) of the Calcutta Port Act, 1890, are hereby incorporated in this Act subject to the following modifications, namely:—

(a) that the references to the said sections to the Calcutta Port Act, 1890,[b] shall be taken as references to this Act;

(b) that in clause (b) of Section 19, for the words "the tolls, dues, rates, rents and charges", the words "the pilotage fees" shall be substituted;

(c) that the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 30 shall be omitted;

(d) that in sub-section (1) of Section 34, the words "the Deputy Chairman or to" shall be omitted.

(e) that sub-section (2) of Section 34 shall be omitted.]

[b] Bengal Act III of 1890.

11. Amendment of the Calcutta Pilots Act XII of 1859. [Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1950 (XXXV of 1950), S. 2 and Sch. I].

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"A committee which was appointed by the Government of India in January 1921 to consider what changes were necessary in order to introduce into the administration of cantonments the spirit of the reformed scheme of Government, recommended a complete revision and amalgamation of the Cantonments Act (Act 15 1910) and the Cantonment Code, 1912, in order to bring into conformity with ordinary municipal law the system under which military cantonments are administered.

The recommendations of the committee have now been examined by the Government of India and the conclusions arrived at are embodied in the Bill.

The main features of the Bill are as follows :—

(a) It is proposed to take power to municipalize the Government of those cantonments which contain a substantial civil population having no essential connection with or dependence upon the military administration. In other cantonments where these circumstances do not fully exist the administration of cantonment affairs will be vested in the hands of the commanding officer of the cantonment, who, for the purpose of the Act, will be constituted a corporation sole. The general effect will be that the Government authority will cease to be the purely executive agency at present. In the larger cantonments the existing cantonment committee will be replaced by a cantonment Board which will be municipal in character and an essentially local self-Government body.

(b) The reformed cantonment authorities will have a separate legal person, will be capable of suing and being sued in their own name and of making contracts. They will also be empowered to make bye-laws to govern local matters of administration which require different treatment in different cantonments.

(c) The cantonment fund under the reformed system will be a local fund vested in the cantonment authority.

(d) In the reformed cantonments where a Board is constituted a proportion of the cantonment Board will be elected representatives of the civil inhabitants of the cantonment. An official majority will, however, be maintained.

(e) The cantonment Magistrate, as such, will be eliminated. In his place an "executive officer" will be appointed. He will be paid by Government. He will perform, amongst other things, the duties of Secretary of the Board and he will have no judicial powers or functions.

(f) The Local Governments will exercise certain larger powers of superintendence and control over cantonment affairs than they do at present.

(g) The military authorities will retain certain special powers in matters affecting the health, welfare and discipline of troops."

—Gazette of India, 1923, Part V, p. 220.

"3. The non-official members of the Select Committee desire to express the following opinion on two questions of administration connected with the policy which the Bill seeks to introduce. They hold very strongly that the ultimate control of cantonment administration under the reformed system should be exercised by the Government of India in the Army Department, and not by any executive military authority. They also hold that the executive officer, though he may be a military officer subordinate to the Army Department, should be like the Cantonment Magistrate of the present, be an officer in civil employ. It is recognized that it would be inappropriate to embody in the Bill provisions cn these two points: but they desire it to be recorded that, in aggreeing to the Bill as amended, they hope that the further administrative arrangements to be made will conform to the views here expressed."

CHAPTER II

DEFINITION AND DELIMITATION OF CANTONMENTS

3. Definition of cantonments.—(1) The [°][Central Government] [a][° ° °] may, by notification in the [°][Official Gazette], declare any place or places in which any part of [b][the Indian Army or the Indian Air Force] is quartered or which, being in the vicinity of any such place or places, is or are required for the service of such forces to be a cantonment for the purposes of this Act and of all other enactments for the time being in force, and [°][° ° ° • °] may, by a like notification, declare that any cantonment shall cease to be a cantonment.

(2) The [°][Central Government] [c][° ° °] may, by a like notification, define the limits of any cantonment for the aforesaid purposes.

[d][(3) When any place is declared a cantonment for the first time, the [°][Central Government] may, until a Board is constituted in accordance with the provisions

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) Much of the land comprised in the cantonments in different parts of India was originally acquired by Government for military purposes. Private individuals were allowed to erect houses upon various plots. Thus the Government recognised, subject to certain restrictions, rights of private ownership in the buildings, while at the same time retaining in themselves the property in soil. ('31) AIR 1931 PC 1 (1, 2): 57 Ind App 339: 58 Cal 858.

(2) The Secretary of State is absolute owner of all cantonment land, unless it can be proved that he parted with it. A person occupying land in cantonments not specifically transferred to him by the Secretary of State can only hold it as a licensee from him. ('22) AIR 1922 All 57 (58, 59).

(3) Ownership of cantonment land vests in Secretary of State subsequent to establishment of cantonment. ('30) AIR 1930 All 587 (589).

(4) A cantonment Board, as representing the Secretary of State, is to be regarded as the owner of all the sites in the cantonment. It is entitled to eject its licensee on payment of compensation. ('33) AIR 1933 Pesh 56 (57).

(5) As to the result that follows from the transfer of property situate in cantonment area, see ('24) AIR 1924 All 415: 46 All 427.

(6) Where it is shown that Government did actually acquire certain land for the Cantonment in 1849-50 and it is established that the site in dispute is in the centre of the Cantonment area, that no other land in the centre of the area is privately owned, that in 1849-50 the site was already built upon or was about to be built upon and was included in the plan of the land which Government was proposing to acquire for the Cantonment, the proper conclusion is that the site was acquired by the Government. ('47) AIR 1947 PC 178 (182).

(7) See also Section 108.

of this Act, by order make any provision which appears necessary to °[it] either for the administration of the cantonment or for the constitution of the Board.]

[1][(4) The °[Central Government] may, by notification in the °[Official Gazette], direct that in any place declared a cantonment under sub-section (1) the provisions of any enactment relating to local self-Government other than this Act shall have effect only to such extent or subject to such modifications, or that any authority constituted under any such enactment shall exercise authority only to such extent, as may be specified in the notification.]

[a] The words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" were repealed by A. O., 1937.
[b] Substituted for "His Majesty's regular forces or regular air force" by A. L. O., 1950.
[c] The words "with the like sanction" were repealed by A. O., 1937.
[d] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 3.
[e] Substituted for "him" by A. O., 1937.
[f] Added by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1944 (8 of 1944), S. 2. [17-3-1944.]

4. Alteration of limits of cantonments.—(1) The °[Central Government] [a][° ° °] may [b][after consulting the State Government and the Board concerned], by notification in the °[Official Gazette], declare its intention to include within [c][the cantonment] any local area situated in the [d][°] vicinity thereof or to exclude from [c][the cantonment] any local area comprised therein.

(2) Any inhabitant of a cantonment or local area in respect of which a notification has been published under sub-section (1) may, within six weeks from the date of the notification, submit in writing to the °[Central Government] through the Official Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, an objection to the notification, and the °[Central Government] shall take such objection into consideration.

(3) On the expiry of six weeks from the date of the notification, the °[Central Government] may [a][° °] after considering the objections, if any, which have been submitted under sub-section (2), by notification in the °[Official Gazette], include the local area in respect of which the notification was published under sub-section (1), or any part thereof, in the cantonment or, as the case may be, exclude such area or any part thereof from the cantonment.

[a] The words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" were repealed by A. O., 1937.
[b] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1953 (2 of 1954), S. 4 [2-1-1954].
[c] Substituted for "a cantonment", ibid.

5. The effect of including area in cantonment.—When, by a notification under Section 4, any local area is included in a cantonment such area shall thereupon become subject to this Act and to all other enactments for the time being in force throughout the cantonment and to all notifications, rules, regulations, bye-laws, orders and directions issued or made thereunder.

6. Disposal of cantonment fund when area ceases to be a cantonment.—(1) When, by a notification under Section 3, any cantonment ceases to be a cantonment and the local area comprised therein is immediately placed under the control of a local authority, the balance of the cantonment fund and other property vesting in the [a][Board] shall vest in such local authority, and the liabilities of the [a][Board] shall be transferred to such local authority.

(1) Mere declaration of lands to be within Cantonment area does not vest their ownership in Government. Acquisition by Government for the purpose must be proved. ('27) AIR 1927 Cal 786 (787).

(2) When, in like manner, any cantonment ceases to be a cantonment and the local area comprised therein is not immediately placed under the control of a local authority, the balance of the cantonment fund and other property vesting in the [a][Board] shall vest in [°][Government], and the liabilities of the [a][Board] shall be transferred to the [°][Central Government].

7. Disposal of cantonment fund when area ceases to be included in a cantonment.—(1) When, by a notification under Section 4, any local area forming part of a cantonment ceases to be under the control of a particular [a][Board] and is immediately placed under the control of some other local authority, such portion of the cantonment fund and other property vesting in the [a][Board] and such portion of the liabilities of the [a][Board], as the [°][Central Government] may, by general or special order, direct, shall be transferred to that other local authority.

(2) When, in like manner, any local area forming part of a cantonment ceases to be under the control of a particular [a][Board] and is not immediately placed under the control of some other local authority, such portion of the cantonment fund and other property vesting in the [a][Board] shall vest in [°][Government], and such portion of the liabilities of the [a][Board] shall be transferred to the [°][Central Government], as the [°][Central Government] may, by general or special order, direct.

8. Application of funds and property transferred under Sections 6 and 7.—Any cantonment fund or portion of a cantonment fund or other property of a [a][Board] vesting in [°][Government] under the provisions of Section 6 or Section 7 shall be applied in the first place to satisfy any liabilities of the [a][Board] transferred under such provisions to the [°][Central Government] and in the second place for the benefit of the inhabitants of the local area which has ceased to be a cantonment or, as the case may be, part of a cantonment.

9. Limitation of operation of Act.—The [°][Central Government] may, [a][[°] [°][ by notification in the [°][Official Gazette], exclude from the operation of any part of this Act the whole or any part of a cantonment, or direct that any provision of this Act shall, in the case of any cantonment—

[b][(a) situated within the limits of a Presidency-town; or

(b) in which the Board is superseded under section 54], apply with such modifications as may be specified.

[a] Words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" were repealed by A. O., 1937.

[b] Substituted by S. 4 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), for "specified in the notification in which there is no Board".

CHAPTER III
[a][CANTONMENT BOARDS]
Boards.

[b]10. Cantonment Board and Executive Officer.—For every cantonment there shall be a Cantonment Board and an Executive Officer.

[a] The chapter heading was substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1939 (34 of 1939), S. 2 and Sch. 1 for "Boards and Cantonment Boards".

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) "We have here provided a power to exclude from the operation of any particular provision of the Act not only any specified part of a cantonment, but, where necessary, the whole of a cantonment." — Select Committee Report.

[b] Section 10 was substituted by the Cantonment (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 5, for the original section.

[a][11. Incorporation of Cantonment Board.—Every Board shall, by the name of the place by reference to which the cantonment is known, be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to acquire and hold property both moveable and immovable and to contract and shall, by the said name, sue and be sued.]

[a][12. Appointment of Executive Officer.—(1) The Executive Officer of every cantonment shall be appointed by the [c][Central Government], or by such person as the [c][Central Government] may authorise in this behalf, from the [aa][Military Lands and Cantonments Service] constituted by rules made under Section 280:

[b][Provided that where a member of the Military Lands and Cantonments Service is not readily available for such appointment, a Military Officer may be appointed as the Executive Officer for a period not exceeding three months:

Provided further that] an Executive Officer appointed before the commencement[c] of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936, shall, unless the [c][Central Government] otherwise directs in any case, be deemed to have been duly appointed in accordance with this sub-section.

(2) Not less than half the cost of the salary of the Executive Officer shall be paid [c][by the Central Government] and the balance from the cantonment fund:

Provided that the salary of an Executive Officer appointed before the commencement[c] of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936, shall, until the [c][Central Government] otherwise directs, continue to be paid from the source from which it was being paid at the commencement of the said Act.

(3) The Executive Officer shall be the Secretary of the Board and of every committee of the Board, but shall not be a member of the Board or of any such committee.]

[aa] Substituted for the words "Service of Executive Officers" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1948 (50 of 1948), S. 2. [3-9-1948].
[b] Substituted for the words "Provided that" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1953 (2 of 1954), S. 5 [2-1-1954].
[c] The Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936) came into force on the 31st October 1936.

[a][13. Constitution of Cantonment Boards.—(1) Cantonments shall be divided into three classes, namely:—

(i) Class I Cantonments, in which the civil population exceeds ten thousand;

Section 11 — Note 1

(1) A Cantonment Committee is a public officer within Section 2, Civil P. C. Hence before a Committee can be sued the notice prescribed under Section 80, Civil P. C., must be given. ('10) 34 Bom 583 (588).

Section 12 — Note 1

(1) The Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936, came into force on 31-10-1936. Sub-section (3) of Section 1 of that Act runs as follows: — "It shall come into force at once, but the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct either generally or in respect of a particular cantonment that a specified section or sections shall not take effect until such date as it may by a like notification appoint in this behalf."

Section 13 — Note 1

(1) Proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 13 gives power to the Central Government to alter the classification of cantonments in order to meet the difficulty apprehended in the N. W. F. P. and Baluchistan that owing to the military duties and frequent movements of military personnel, it might not always be possible or convenient to supply members for a more numerous Board.— Report of Second Select Committee on the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936.

(ii) Class II Cantonments, in which the civil population exceeds two thousand five hundred, but does not exceed ten thousand; and

(iii) Class III Cantonments, in which the civil population does not exceed two thousand five hundred :

[b][* * * * *]

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the civil population shall be calculated in accordance with the latest official census, or, if the *[Central Government], by general or special order, so directs, in accordance with a special census taken for the purpose.

(3) In Class I Cantonments, the Board shall consist of the following members, namely :—

(a) the Officer Commanding the station or, if the *[Central Government] so directs in respect of any cantonment, such other military officer as may be nominated in his place by the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command;

(b) a Magistrate of the first class nominated by the District Magistrate;

(c) the Health Officer;

(d) the Executive Engineer;

(e) four military officers nominated by name by the Officer Commanding the station by order in writing;

(f) seven members elected under this Act.

(4) In Class II Cantonments, the Board shall consist of the following members, namely :—

(a) the Officer Commanding the station, or, if the *[Central Government] so directs in respect of any cantonment, such other military officer as may be nominated in his place by the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command;

(b) a Magistrate of the first class nominated by the District Magistrate;

(c) the Health Officer;

(d) the Executive Engineer;

(e) (i) in cantonments of which the civil population exceeds seven thousand five hundred, three military officers;

(ii) in cantonments of which the civil population exceeds five thousand, but does not exceed seven thousand five hundred, two military officers;

*[(iii) in cantonments of which the civil population does not exceed five thousand, one military officer] nominated by name by the Officer Commanding the station by order in writing;

(f) such number of members elected under this Act as is equal to the number of members constituted or nominated by or under Clauses (b) to (e).

(5) In Class III Cantonments, the Board shall consist of the following members, namely :—

(a) the Officer Commanding the station, or if the *[Central Government] so directs in respect of any cantonment, such other military officer as may be nominated in his place by the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command;

(b) one military officer nominated by name by the Officer Commanding the station by order in writing;

(c) one member elected under this Act.

(6) The Officer Commanding the station may, if he thinks fit, with the sanction of the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, nominate in place of any military officer whom he is empowered to nominate under Clause (e) of sub-section (3), Clause (e) of sub-section (4) or Clause (b) of sub-section (5), any person, whether in the service of the °[Government] or not, who is ordinarily resident in the cantonment or in the vicinity thereof.

(7) Every election or nomination of a member of a Board and every vacancy in the membership thereof shall be notified by the °[Central Government] in the °[Official Gazette.]]

[c] Substituted for the former (4) (e) (iii) by A. L. O., 1950.

[14. Power to vary constitution of Boards in special circumstances.—(1) Notwithstanding anthing contained in Section 13, if the °[Central Government] is satisfied—

(a) that, by reason of military operations it is necessary, or

(b) [b][° ° °] that, for the administration of the cantonment, it is desirable, to vary the constitution of the Board in any cantonment under this section, the °[Central Government] may, by notification in the °[Official Gazette], make a declaration to that effect.

(2) Upon the making of a declaration under sub-section (1), the Board in the cantonment shall consist of the following members, namely :—

(a) the Officer Commanding the Station;

(b) one military officer nominated by name by the Officer Commanding the station by order in writing;

(c) one member, not being a person in the service of the Government, nominated by the Officer Commanding the station.

(3) Every nomination of a member of a Board constituted under this section and every vacancy in the membership thereof, shall be notified by the °[Central Government] in the °[Official Gazette.]

(4) The term of office of a Board constituted by a declaration under sub-section (1) shall not ordinarily extend beyond one year :

Provided that the °[Central Government] may from time to time, by a like declaration, extend the term of office of such a Board by any period not exceeding one year at a time :

Provided also that the °[Central Government] shall forthwith direct that the term of office of such a Board shall cease if, in the opinion of the °[Central Government], the reasons stated in the declaration whereby such Board was constituted, or its term of office was extended, have ceased to exist.

(5) When the term of office of a Board constituted under this section has expired or ceased, the Board shall be replaced by the former Board which, but for the declaration under sub-section (1), would have continued to hold office, or, if the term of office of such former Board has expired, by a Board constituted under Section 13.]

[b] Words "after consultation with the Local Government" were repealed by A. O.

15. Term of office of members.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, the term of office of a member of a Board shall be three years and shall commence from the date of the notification of his election or nomination under [a][sub-section (7) of Section 13], or from the date on which the vacancy has occurred in which he is elected or nominated, whichever date is later :

[b][Provided that the °[Central Government] may, when satisfied that it is necessary in order to avoid administrative difficulty, extend the term of office of all the elected members of a Board by such period, not exceeding one year, as [a][it] thinks fit]:

(2) The term of office of an ex officio member of a Board shall continue so long as he holds the office in virtue of which he is such a member.

(3) The term of office of a member elected to fill a casual vacancy shall commence from the date of election, and shall continue so long only as the member in whose place he is elected would have been entitled to hold office if the vacancy had not occurred.

(4) An outgoing member shall, unless the [c][Central Government] otherwise directs, continue in office until the election or nomination of his successor is notified under [a][sub-section (7) of Section 13.]

(5) Any outgoing member may, if qualified, be re-elected or re-nominated.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 6 for "sub-section (2) of Section 14".
[b] Inserted by S. 6, ibid.
[c] Substituted by A. O. for "he".
[d] The second proviso was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1947 (2 of 1948), S. 2 and Schedule [5-1-1948].

16. Filling of vacancies.—(1) Vacancies arising by efflux of time in the office of an elected member of a Board shall be filled by an ordinary election to be held on such date as the [c][Central Government] may, by notification in the [c][Official Gazette], direct.

(2) A casual vacancy shall be filled by a casual election the date of which shall be fixed by the [c][Central Government] by notification in the [c][Official Gazette], and shall be, as soon as may be, after the occurrence of the vacancy:

Provided that no casual election shall be held to fill a vacancy occurring within three months of any date on which the vacancy will occur by efflux of time, but such vacancy shall be filled at the next ordinary election.

17. Vacancies in special cases.—(1) If from any cause at an ordinary election no member is elected, or if the elected member is unwilling to serve on the Board, the outgoing member shall, if qualified and willing to serve, be deemed to have been re-elected:

[a][Provided that where there are more outgoing members qualified and willing to serve than there are vacancies to be filled under this sub-section, the outgoing members so deemed to have been re-elected shall, failing agreement amongst such members, be determined by lot under the supervision of the President of the Board and in such manner as he may decide.]

[b][(2) Vacancies arising in any of the following cases shall be filled by nomination by the Central Government after consultation with the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, namely :—

(a) where at a casual election no member is elected;

(b) where at an ordinary election no member or an insufficient number of members is elected, or an elected member is unwilling to serve on the Board and the outgoing member is not qualified or is not willing to serve or is dead or cannot be found within a reasonable time;

(c) where at an election held when a Board is constituted for the first time no member or an insufficient number of members is elected or an elected member is unwilling to serve on the Board.]

[c][(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 16, a member nominated in pursuance of sub-section (2) of this section shall, where there has been a division of the cantonment into wards or of the inhabitants thereof into classes, be deemed to have been elected by such ward or class, as the case may be, as the Central Government may at the time of making the nomination or at any time thereafter declare.]

"[(4)] The term of office of a member nominated or deemed to have been re-elected under this section shall expire at the time at which it would have expired if he had been elected at the ordinary or casual election, as the case may be.

[a] Proviso was added to sub-section (1) by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act (1942) (15 of 1942), S. 2 (20-3-1942).
[b] Substituted by S. 2 ibid, for original sub-section (2).
[c] New sub-section (3) was added by S. 2, ibid.
[d] Sub-section (3) was renumbered as sub-section (4), ibid.

18. Oath or affirmation.—(1) Every person who is by virtue of his office, or who is nominated or elected to be, a member of a Board shall, before taking his seat, make at a meeting of the Board an oath or affirmation of his allegiance to the [a][Constitution of India] in the following form, namely:—

"I, A.B., having become/been elected/been nominated a member of this Board, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to [b][the Constitution of India as by law established], and that I will faithfully discharge the duty upon which I am about to enter."

(2) If any such person fails to make the oath or affirmation within such time as the [c][Central Government] considers reasonable, the [c][Central Government] shall, by notification in the [c][Official Gazette], declare his seat to be vacant.

[a] Substituted for "Crown"' by A.C.A.O., 1948.

19. Resignation.—(1)Any nominated or elected member of a Board who wishes to resign his office may forward his resignation in writing through the President of the Board to the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, who shall forward it for orders to the [c][Central Government].

(2) If the [c][Central Government] accepts the resignation, such acceptance shall be communicated to the Board, and thereupon the seat of the member resigning shall become vacant.

20. President and Vice-President.—(1) The [a][Officer Commanding the station] [b][if a member of the Board] shall be the President of the Board:

[c][Provided that when a military officer holding the office of President ceases to be the Officer Commanding the station merely by reason of a temporary absence from the station on duty or on station leave, or during the transfer of his headquarters to a hill station, he shall not vacate the office of President.]

[d][(2) Where the Officer Commanding the station is not a member of the Board, the military officer nominated in his place under clause (a) of sub-sec. (3), sub-sec. (4) or sub-sec. (5) of Section 13 shall be President of the Board.

(3) In every Board in which there is more than one elected member, there shall be a Vice-President elected by the elected members only and from among their number [c][in accordance with such procedure as the Central Government may by rules prescribe].]

[b] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 7.
[c] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1927 (26 of 1927), S. 3.

Section 20 — Note 1

(1) The selection of the Vice-President by the votes of the elected members in a meeting of the Board is a decision of the Board, liable to supervision by the officer Commanding in Chief under Section 52 (1) (b). ('56) AIR 1956 Punj 147 (148).

[e] These words were added to S. 20 (3) by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S. 3 (30-3-1942).

21. Term of office of Vice-President.—[a][(1) The term of office of a Vice-President shall be three years or the residue of his term of office as a member, whichever is less.]

(2) A Vice-President may resign his office by notice in writing to the President and, on the resignation being accepted by the Board, the office shall become vacant.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 8, for the original sub-section.

22. Duties of President.—(1) It shall be the duty of the President of every Board—

(a) unless prevented by reasonable cause, to convince and preside at all meetings of the Board and to regulate the conduct of business thereat;

(b) to exercise supervision and control over the financial and executive administration of the Board;

(c) to perform all the duties and exercise all the powers specifically imposed or conferred on the President by or under this Act; and

(d) subject to any restrictions, limitations and conditions imposed by this Act, to exercise executive power for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and to be directly responsible for the fulfilment of the purposes of this Act.

(2) The President may, by order in writing, empower the Vice-President to exercise all or any of the powers and duties referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (1) other than any power, duty or function which he is by resolution of the Board expressly forbidden to delegate.

(3) The exercise or discharge of any powers, duties or functions delegated by the President under this section shall be subject to such restrictions, limitations and conditions, if any, as may be laid down by the President and to the control of, and to revision by, the President.

(4) Every order made under sub-section (2) shall forthwith be communicated to the Board and the [a][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command].

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 2, for "Officer Commanding the District".

23. Duties of Vice-President.—It shall be the duty of the Vice-President of every Board—

(a) in the absence of the President and unless prevented by reasonable cause, to preside at meetings of the Board and when so presiding to exercise the authority of the President under sub-section (1) of Section 22;

(b) during the incapacity or termporary absence of the President or pending his appointment or succession, to perform any other duty and exercise any other power of the President; and

(c) to exercise any power and perform any duty of the President which may be delegated to him under sub-section (2) of Section 22.

Section 22 — Note 1

(1) Signing the sanction for prosecution of a member of the staff is not a statutory duty conferred on the President of the Board. Therefore where the resolution was passed by the meeting, which was presided over by the Vice-President, the signature put by the latter could not be considered to be something unauthorised according of sanction to prosecute. ('58) AIR 1958 Madh Pra 2 (3); 1958 Cri L Jour 41.

(2) Provisions of Section 22 do not confer on Cantonment Board an authority to pass a resolution to set up a Court of Enquiry. ILR (1965) Andh Pra 620.

24. Duties of the Executive Officer.—The Executive Officer shall perform all the duties imposed upon him by or under this Act, and shall be responsible for the custody of all the records of the [a][Board], and shall arrange for the performance of such duties relative to the proceedings of the Board or of any Committee of the Board or of any Committee of Arbitration constituted under this Act, as those bodies may respectively impose on him, and shall comply with every requisition of the [a][Board], on any matter pertaining to the administration of the cantonment.

25. Special power of the Executive Officer.—The Executive Officer may, in cases of emergency, direct the execution of any work or the doing of any act which would ordinarily require the sanction of the [a][Board] and the immediate execution or doing of which is, in his opinion, necessary for the service or safety of the public, and may direct that the expense of executing such work or doing such act shall be paid from the cantonment fund:—

Provided that—

(a) [b][* * *] he shall not act under this section without the previous sanction of the President or, in his absence, of the Vice-President;

(b) he shall not act under this section in contravention of any order of the [a][Board] prohibiting the execution of any particular work or the doing of any particular act; and

(c) he shall report forthwith the action taken under this section and the reasons therefor to the [a][Board].

[b] The words "where there is a Board" were repealed by S. 9, ibid.

ELECTIONS

26. Electoral rolls.—(1) [a][* * *] [b][The Board or, where a Board is not constituted in any place declared by notification under sub-section (1) of Section 3 to be a cantonment, the Officer Commanding the station], shall prepare and publish an electoral roll showing the names of persons qualified to vote at election to the Board. Such roll shall be prepared, revised and finally published in such manner and on such date in each year as the [c][Central Government] may by rule prescribe.

(2) Every person whose name appears in the final electoral roll shall, so long as the roll remains in force, be entitled to vote at an election to the Board, and no other person shall be so entitled.

(3) When a cantonment has been divided into wards, [c][* * ] the electoral roll shall be divided into separate lists for each ward [d][ * *].

(4) If a new electoral roll is not published in any year on the date prescribed, the [c][Central Government] may direct that the old electoral roll shall continue in operation until the new roll is published.

[a] The words "Where a Board is constituted in any cantonment, otherwise than in accordance with the proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 14," were repealed by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 10.

[b] Substituted by S. 10, ibid, for "the Cantonment Authority".

[c] The words "or the inhabitants into classes" were omitted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1953 (2 of 1954), S. 6 (2-1-1954).

[d] The words "or class, as the case may be" were omitted, ibid.

Section 25 — Note 1

(1) "We think that the exercise by the Executive Officer of the emergency powers conferred by this clause should be subject to the previous sanction of the President or in his absence of the Vice-President, and we have provided accordingly." — Select Committee Report.

Section 26 — Note 1

(1) For the meaning of the word 'person', see Section 29.

27. Qualification of electors.—[a][(1) Every person who, on such date as may be fixed by the Central Government in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the qualifying date"), is not less than twenty-one years of age and who has resided in the cantonment for a period of not less than six months immediately preceding the qualifying date shall, if not otherwise disqualified, be entitled to be enrolled as an elector.

Explanation —When any place is declared a cantonment, for the first time, or when any local area is first included in a cantonment, residence in the place or area comprising the cantonment on the aforesaid date shall be deemed to be residence in the cantonment for the purposes of this sub-section.]

(2) A person, notwithstanding that he is otherwise qualified, shall not be entitled to be enrolled as an elector if he on the [b][qualifying date]—

[c][(i) is not a citizen of India]; or

[d][(ii) * * *]

(iii) has been adjudged by a competent Court to be of unsound mind or

(iv) is an undischarged insolvent or

(v) has been sentenced by a Criminal Court to imprisonment for a term exceeding [e][two years] or to transportation [f][for an offence which is declared by the [g][Central Government] to be such as to unfit him to become an elector] [g][* * * *] or has been sentenced by a Criminal Court for any offence under Chapter IXA of the Indian Penal Code:

Provided that the [g][Central Government] may, by order in writing, remove any disqualification incurred by a person under clause (v):

[h][Provided further that any disqualification incurred by a person under cl. (v) shall terminate on the lapse of three years from the expiry of the sentence or order.]

(3) If any person having been enrolled as an elector in any electoral roll subsequently becomes subject to any of the disqualifications referred to in cls. (i), (iii), (iv) and (v) of sub-section (2), his name shall be removed from the electoral roll unless, in the case referred to in cl. (v), the disqualification is removed by [g][Central Government].

[a] Substituted for former sub-section (1) and Explanation by the Cantonment Laws (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1950 (53 of 1950), S. 6 (18-8-1950).
[b] Substituted for "aforesaid date", ibid.
[c] Substituted for former clause (i) by A.L.O., 1950.
[d] Clause (ii) was omitted by Act (53 of 1950), S. 6.
[e] Substituted for "six months" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 11.
[f] Inserted, ibid, S. 11.
[g] The words "or has been ordered to find security for good behaviour under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898," were omitted by Act 24 of 1936, Sec. 11.
[h] Inserted, ibid, Sec. 11.

(1) Under sub-clause (iii) of clause (b) as it stood before, the minimum qualification to be entitled to be enrolled as an elector was that the person should be a graduate. But by virtue of the amendment made in 1936, it is enough if he has passed the matriculation or other equivalent examination.

Under the new proviso added in 1936 to sub-section (2) any disqualification under clause (v) of sub-section (2) automatically terminates on the lapse of three years from the expiry of the sentence or order.

(2) For the meaning of the word 'person' and as to when 'a person shall be deemed to pay a tax directly', see Section 29. As to the removal of any member who becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-sec. (2) of this section, see Section 34 (1) (a).

28. Qualification for being a member of the Board.—(1) Save as hereinafter provided, every person, not being [a][person [b][in receipt of pay] in the military or civil service of [c][Government] ], whose name is entered on the electoral roll of a cantonment shall be qualified for election as a member of the Board in that cantonment.

[d][(1A) No person shall be qualified for nomination as a member of a Board if he is subject to any of the disqualifications specified in sub-section (2) of Section 27.]

(2) No person shall be qualified for election or nomination as a member of a Board, if he—

(a) has been dismissed from [e][the service of the [c][Government] ] and is debarred from re-employment therein, or is a dismissed servant of [e][a Board or an authority which, before the commencement of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936, exercised and performed the powers and duties of a Cantonment Authority under this Act];

(b) is debarred from practising as a legal practitioner by order of any competent authority;

(c) holds any place of profit in the gift or at the disposal of the Board, or is [f][* * *] police officer, or is the servant or employer of a member of the Board; or

(d) is interested in a subsisting contract made with, or in work being done for, the Board except as a shareholder (other than a director) in an incorporated company; or

[g][(dd) is an officer or servant, permanent or temporary, of a Board; or]

[h][(ddd) is a member of any other local authority: or]

(e) is disqualified under any other provision of this Act:

Provided that—

(i) any of the disqualifications referred to in clauses (a) and (b) may be removed by an order of the [c][Central Government] in this behalf, and

(ii) a person shall not be deemed to have any interest in such a contract or work as is referred to in clause (d) by reason only of his having a share or interest in—

(a) any lease or sale or purchase of immovable property or any agreement for the same, or

(b) any agreement for the loan of money or any security for the payment of money only; or

(c) any newspaper in which any advertisement relating to the affairs of the Board is inserted; or

(d) the sale to the Board of any articles in which he regularly trades or the purchase from the Board of any articles, to a value in either case not exceeding Rs. 1,500 in the aggregate in any year during the period of the contract or work.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1938 (24 of 1936), S. 12, for a "stipendiary Magistrate or Military Officer or soldier".

[b] Added after the words "not being a person" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1944 (8 of 1944), S. 4 (17-3-1944).

[c] Sub-section (1A) was inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S. 5 (30-3-1942).

[e] Substituted by Act 24 of 1936, S. 12, for "the Cantonment Authority".

Section 28 — Note 1

(1) For the meaning of the word 'person', see Section 29. As to the removal of any member who becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (2) of this section, see Sec. 34 (1) (a).

[f] Came into force on 31st October 1936.
[g] Words "stipendiary Magistrate or" were repealed by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1925 (7 of 1925), S. 4.

Section 31 — Note 1

(1) Rules under, Rules 43, 47 — The fact that improper refusal of a nomination paper has been made specifically as a ground for challenging an election by Rule 47 is a necessary factor to be considered in interpreting the words "at the election" in Rule 43. ('56) AIR 1956 All 89 (94).

(2) Rules under, Rr. 44, 42, 43 and 45 — Language of Rule 44 is mandatory — Security deposit should accompany election petition — Deposit can be made at any time before case is taken up for hearing. AIR 1967 Bom 324 (325): 67 Bom LR 928 (DB).

(3) Rules under, Rule 20—Finding that nomination paper has been improperly rejected — It must be held that result of election has been materially affected. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 20 (24): 1957 Jab LJ 108 (DB).

(4) Rules under, Rule 20 — Seconder of nomination paper giving his serial number as printed in Hindi version of electoral roll — Number wrongly printed — Nomination paper cannot be rejected. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 20 (23, 24): 1957 Jab LJ 108 (DB).

(5) Rules under, Rules 16 and 20 — Nomination paper — Name of candidate prefixed with 'Shri' in electoral roll but not on nomination paper — Nomination paper cannot be rejected on that ground. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 20 (23, 24): 1957 Jab LJ 108 (DB).

(6) Rules under, Rules 16 and 20 — The prescribed nomination form does not require that in the case of a double-member constituency where a seat is reserved for a scheduled caste a candidate should enter in the nomination paper the seat which he is contesting. Failure to mention the seat is therefore no ground for rejection of nomination paper. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 20 (23): 1957 Jab LJ 108 (DB).

(7) The expression 'a candidate at the election' as used in Rule 43 of Cantonment Electoral Rules includes a candidate whose nomination paper has been rejected. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 20 (21, 22): 1957 Jab LJ 108 (DB).

(8) Rules under — The combined reading of Rules 9 to 12 of the Rules shows that the power of the Executive Officer of suo motu correcting the rolls is merely confined to the case of persons whom he knows to be dead and also to cases where he can make correction in pursuance of any claim provided that he has published the list of all such corrections with the list of claims and objections prescribed by Rule 11. (1961) 63 Punj LR 672.

(9) Rules under, Rules 43, 44, 45, 46 — Election Petitions — Forum — Additional District Judge to whom the District Judge transfers the petition cannot dispose of the same — State Government's notification designating the 'subordinate judicial officer' is necessary — 'District Judge' under Rule 43 is a persona designata. AIR 1967 Madh Pra 243 (245, 246): 1967 Jab LJ 69 (DB).

(e) the registration of electors, the nomination of candidates, the time and manner of holding elections and the method by which votes shall be recorded;

(f) the authority [d][(which may be an officer of the [c][State] Government)] by which and the manner in which disputes relating to electoral rolls or arising out of elections shall be decided, and the powers and duties of such authority and the circumstances in which such authority may declare a casual vacancy to have been created or any candidate to have been elected;

(g) any other matter relating to elections or election disputes in respect of which the [c][Central Government] is empowered to make rules under this Chapter or in respect of which this Act makes no provision or makes insufficient provision and provision is, in the opinion of the [c][Central Government], necessary.

[a] The words "or of the inhabitants of a cantonment into classes, or both" were omitted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1953 (2 of 1954), S. 9 (2-1-1954).

[b] The words "or class of persons" were omitted, ibid.

[c] Clause (c) was omitted by the Cantonment Laws (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1950 (53 of 1950), S. 8 (18-8-1950).

[d] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1944 (8 of 1944), S. 5 (17-3-1944).

MEMBERS

32. Member not to vote on matter in which he is interested.—No member of a Board shall vote at a meeting of the Board [a][or of any committee of the Board] on any question relating to his own conduct or on any matter, other than a matter affecting generally the inhabitants of the cantonment, which affects his own pecuniary interest or the valuation of any property in respect of which he is directly or indirectly interested, or of any property of or for which he is a manager or agent.

33. Liability of members.—Every member of a Board shall be liable for the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or other property belonging to the Board if such loss, waste or misapplication is a direct consequence of his neglect or misconduct while such member; and a suit for compensation for the same may be instituted against him either by the Board or by the [c][Central Government].

34. Removal of members.—[a][(1) The [c][Central Government] may remove from a Board any member thereof who—

(a) becomes [b][or is found to have been at the time of his election or nomination] subject to any of the disqualifications specified in sub-section (2) of Section 27 [c][or in Section 28]; or

(b) has absented himself for more than three consecutive months from the meetings of the Board and is unable to explain such absence to the satisfaction of the Board:

[a][Explanation.—In computing the aforesaid period of three consecutive months, no account shall be taken of any period of absence with the leave of the Board]; or

(c) has knowingly contravened the provisions of Section 32; or

(d) being a legal practitioner, acts or appears on behalf of any other person against the Board in any legal proceeding or against the [c][Govern-

*[35. Consequences of removal—(1) A member removed under clause (b) of sub-section (1) [b][or under sub-section (2A)] of Section 34 shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible for re-election or re-nomination.

(2) A member removed under clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 34 shall not be eligible for re-election or nomination for the period during which but for such removal, he would have continued in office.

(3) A member removed under sub-section (2) of Section 34 shall not be eligible for re-election or nomination until the expiry of three years from the date of his removal.]

[b] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1940 (31 of 1940), S. 5 (27-11-1940).

SERVANTS

36. Disqualification of person as servant of Board.—(1) No person who has directly or indirectly by himself or his partner any share or interest in a contract with, by or on behalf of a *[Board] or in any employment under, by or on behalf of a *[Board], otherwise than as a servant of the *[Board], shall become or remain a servant of such *[Board].

(2) A servant of a *[Board] who knowingly acquires or continues to have directly or indirectly by himself or his partner any share or interest in a contract with, by or on behalf of the *[Board] or, in any employment under, by or on behalf of the *[Board], otherwise than as a servant of the *[Board], shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Section 168 of the Indian Penal Code.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to any share or interest in any contract with, by or on behalf of, or employment under, by or on behalf of a *[Board], if the same is a share in a company contracting with, or employed by, or on behalf of, the [a][Board] or is a share or interest acquired or retained with the permission of the [b][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command,] in any lease or sale to, or purchase by, the [a][Board] of land or buildings or in any agreement for the same.

[c][(4) Every person applying for employment as a servant of a Board shall, if he is related by blood or marriage to any member of the Board or to any person not being a menial servant, in receipt of remuneration from the Board, notify the fact and the nature of such relationship to the appointing authority before the appointment is made, and if he has failed to do so, his appointment shall be invalid but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done by him.]

[a][36A. Cantonment servant to be deemed a public servant.—Every officer or servant, permanent or temporary, of a [b][Board] shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, and in the definition of "Legal remuneration" in Section 161 of that Code the word "Government" shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to include a [b][Board].]

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

PROCEDURE

37. Meetings.—(1) Every Board shall ordinarily hold at least one meeting in every month on such day as may be fixed, and of which notice shall be given in such manner as may be provided, by regulations made by the Board under this Chapter.

(2) The President may whenever he thinks fit and shall upon a requisition in writing by not less than one-fourth of the members of the Board, convene a special meeting.

(3) Any meeting may be adjourned until the next or any subsequent day, and an adjourned meeting may be further adjourned in like manner.

38. Business to be transacted.—Subject to any regulation made by the Board under this Chapter, any business may be transacted at any meeting:

Provided that no business relating to the imposition, abolition or modification of any tax shall be transacted at a meeting unless notice of the same and of the date fixed therefor has been sent to each member not less than seven days before that date.

39. Quorum. —(1) The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of a Board [a][in which there is more than one elected member] shall be five or one-half of the number of members of the Board actually holding office at the time, whichever is the greater number:

[a][(1A) The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of a Board constituted under sub-section (5) of Section 13 or under sub-section (1) of Section 14, shall be two.]

(2) If a quorum is not present, the President shall adjourn the meeting and the business which would have been brought before the original meeting if there had been a quorum present thereat shall be brought before, and may be transacted at, an adjourned meeting, whether there is a quorum present or not.

[b] The proviso was repealed by S. 14, ibid.

[a][40. Presiding Officer.—In the absence of—

(a) both the President and the Vice-President from any meeting of a Board in which there is more than one elected member,

(b) the President from a meeting of a Board constituted under sub-sec. (5) of Section 13 or sub-section (1) of Section 14, the members present shall elect one from among their own number to preside.]

41. Minutes.—(1) Minutes of the proceedings of each meeting shall be recorded in a book and shall be signed by the President before the close of the meeting, and shall, at such times and in such place as may be fixed by the Board, be open to inspection free of charge by any inhabitant of the cantonment.

(2) Copies of the minutes shall, as soon as possible after each meeting, be forwarded for information to [a][the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command,] the Officer Commanding the District, the Officer Commanding the Brigade area, [b][the District Magistrate and the Military Estates Officer].

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 16, for "and the District Magistrate".

42. Meetings to be public.—Every meeting of a Board shall be open to the public unless in any case the President, for reasons to be recorded in the minutes, otherwise directs.

43. Method of deciding questions.—(1) All questions coming before a meeting shall be decided by the majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

(2) In the case of an equality of votes, the President shall have a second or casting vote.

(3) The dissent of any member from any decision of the Board shall, if the member so requests, be entered in the minutes, together with a short statement of the grounds for such dissent.

[a][43A. Committees for civil areas.—(1) Every Board constituted under Section 13 in a Class I Cantonment or Class II Cantonment shall appoint a committee consisting of the elected members of the Board, the Health Officer and the Executive Engineer for the administration of such areas in the cantonments as the [c][Central Government] may, by notification in the [c][Official Gazette], declare to be [b][civil areas], and may delegate its powers and duties to such committee in the manner provided in clause (e) of sub-section (1) of Section 44.

(2) The Vice-President of the Board shall be the Chairman of the committee appointed under sub-section (1).]

[b] Substituted for "bazar areas" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1953 (2 of 1954), S. 11 (2-1-1954).

Section 41 — Note 1

(1) Where the minutes of the meeting were recorded on loose papers and not in minute book, contrary to the requirements of Rule 7 it is only an irregularity. ('58) AIR 1958 Madh Pra 2 (3): 1958 Cri L Jour 41.

Section 42 — Note 1

(1) A meeting of the Cantonment Board is usually open to the public, but the Act provides for holding it in camera if the President thinks it desirable to do so and records his reasons for doing so. Where the President had not recorded his reasons for holding a meeting in camera, it was a mere irregularity which could not vitiate the proceedings. ('58) AIR 1958 Madh Pra 2 (3): 1958 Cri L Jour 41.

Section 43-A — Note 1

(1) Section 43-A was newly added by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936. The Health Officer and the Executive Engineer have been made ex officio members of the Bazar Committee at the suggestion of the Second Select Committee. Prior to this they were left to be co-opted.

44. Power to make regulations.—(1) A Board may make regulations consistent with this Act and with the rules made thereunder to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the time and place of its meetings;
(b) the manner in which notice of the meeting shall be given;
(c) the conduct of proceedings at meetings and the adjournment of meetings;
(d) the custody of the common seal of the Board and the purposes for which it shall be used; and
(e) the appointment of committees for any purpose and the determination of all matters relating to the constitution and procedure of such committees, and the delegation to such committees, subject to any conditions which the Board thinks fit to impose, of any of the powers or duties of the Board under this Act other than a power to make regulations or bye-laws.

(2) No regulation made under clause (e) of sub-section (1) shall take effect until it has been approved by the [7][Central Government]

(3) No regulation made under this section shall take effect until it has been published in such manner as the [8][Central Government] may direct.

45. Joint action with other local authority.—(1) [a][Board] may—

(a) join with any other local authority—

(i) in appointing a joint committee for any purpose in which they are jointly interested and in appointing a chairman of such committee;

(ii) in delegating to such committee power to frame terms binding on the [a][Board] and such other local authority as to the construction and future maintenance of any joint work or to exercise any power which might be exercised by [b][the Board or by such other local authority]; and

(iii) in making rules for regulating the proceedings of any such committee relating to the purposes for which it has been appointed; or

(b) with the previous sanction of [9][the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command and] the [8][State Government] concerned, enter into an agreement with any other local authority regarding the levy of any tax or toll whereby the said tax or toll respectively leviable by the [d][Board and by such other local authority] may be levied together instead of separately within the limits of the aggregate area comprising the areas subject to the control of the [9][Board and such other local authority.]

(2) If any difference of opinion arises between any [1][Board and other local authority] acting together under this section, the decision thereon of the [8][Central Government] or of an officer appointed by the [8][Central Government] in this behalf shall be final.

(3) When any agreement such as is referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) has been entered into, then—

(a) where the agreement relates to an octroi or terminal tax or toll, the other local authority with which the [a][Board] has made such agreement shall have the same powers to establish octroi limits and octroi stations and places for the collection of the terminal tax and terminal toll within the cantonment, as it has within the area ordinarily subject to its control;

(b) such other local authority shall have the same power of collecting such tax or toll in the cantonment, and the provisions of any enactment in force relating to the levy of such tax or toll by such other local authority shall apply in the same manner, as if the cantonment were comprised within the area ordinarily subject to its control; and

(c) the total of the collection of such tax and toll made in the cantonment and in the area ordinarily subject to the control of such other local authority and the costs thereby incurred shall be divided between the cantonment fund and the fund subject to the control of such other local authority, in such proportion as may have been determined by the agreement.

[b] Substituted by ibid, S. 16, for "either of the said authorities".
[c] Inserted by ibid, S. 18.
[d] Substituted by S. 18 of Act (24 of 1936), for "authorities so contracting".
[e] Substituted by ibid, S. 18, for "said authorities".
[f] Substituted by ibid, S. 18, for "authorities".

'[45A. Report on administration.—Every board shall, as soon as may be after the close of the year and not later than the date fixed in this behalf by the *[Central Government], submit to the *[Central Government] through the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, a report on the administration of the cantonment during the preceding financial year, in such form and containing such details as the *[Central Government] may direct. The comments, if any, of the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, on such report shall be communicated by him to the Board which shall be allowed a reasonable time to furnish a reply thereto, and the comments together with the reply, if any, shall be forwarded to the *[Central Government] along with the report.]

CONTROL

46. Power of Central Government to require production of documents.—The [Central Government] a[ * *] may at any time require a b[Board]—

(a) to produce any record, correspondence, plan or other document in its possession or under its control;
(b) to furnish any return, plan, estimate, statement, account or statistics relating to its proceedings, duties or works;
(c) to furnish or obtain and furnish any report.

[a] The words "or the Local Government" were repealed by A. O.
[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

47. Inspection.—The a[Central Government or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command], may depute any person in the service of the *[Government] to inspect or examine any department of the office of or any service or work undertaken by or thing belonging to, a b[Board], and to report thereon, and the b[Board] and its officers and servants shall be bound to afford the person so deputed access at all reasonable times to the premises and property of the b[Board] and to all records, accounts and other documents the inspection of which he may consider necessary to enable him to discharge his duties.

[a] The words "Governor-General in Council or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command" were substituted for the words "Officer Commanding the District" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 4; and the words "Central Government" were substituted for the words "Governor-General in Council" by A. O.
[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

48. Power to call for documents.—a[The Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command], may, by order in writing,—

(a) call for any book or document in the possession or under the control of the b[Board];

(b) require the [b][Board] to furnish such statements, accounts, reports and copies of documents relating to its proceedings, duties or works as he thinks fit.

[a] The words "Governor-General in Council or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief the Command", were substituted for the words "Officer Commanding the District" by S. 4 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926); and the words "The Governor-General in Council or" were repealed by S. 20 of Act (24 of 1936).

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

49. Power to require execution of work, etc.—If, on receipt of any information or report obtained [a][under Section 46 or Sec. 47] or Section 48, the [b][Central Government or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief the Command,] is of opinion--

(a) that any duty imposed on a [c][Board] by or under this Act has not been performed or has been performed in an imperfect, inefficient or unsuitable manner, or

(b) that adequate financial provision has not been made for the performance of any such duty, [d][it or] he may [e][* * *] direct the [c][Board], within such period as [d][it or] he thinks fit, to make arrangements to [d][its or] his satisfaction for the proper performance of the duty, or, as the case may be, to make financial provision to [d][its or] his satisfaction for the performance of the duty:

Provided that, unless in the opinion of the [f][Central Government or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, as the case may be,] the immediate execution of such order is necessary, [d][it or] he shall, before making any direction under this section, give the [c][Board] an opportunity of showing cause why such direction should not be made.

[b] The words "Governor-General in Council or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command" were substituted for the words "Officer Commanding the District" by S. 5 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926); and the words "Central Government" were substituted by A. O. for the words "Governor-General in Council".

[d] Inserted by A. O.

[e] The words "after consultation with the Local Government" were repealed by A O. The words "after consultation with" had been substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 5, for the words "with the concurrence of the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, and of".

[f] The words "Governor-General in Council or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command as the case may be" were substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), Ss. 5 and 6 for the words "Officer Commanding the District", and the words "Central Government" were substituted by A. O. for the words "Governor-General in Council".

50. Power to provide for enforcement of direction under Section 49.—If, within the period fixed by a direction made under Section 49, any action the taking of which has been directed under that section has not been duly taken, the [a][Central Government or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, as the case may be] may make arrangements for the taking of such action, and may direct that all expenses connected therewith shall be defrayed out of the cantonment fund.

[a] The words "Governor-General in Council or the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, as the case may be", were substituted for the words "Officer Commanding the District" by Ss. 5 and 6 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), and the words "Central Government" were substituted by A. O. for the words "Governor-General in Council".

51. Power to override decision of Board.—(1) If the President dissents from any decision of the Board, which he considers prejudicial to the health, welfare or discipline of the troops in the cantonment, he may, for reasons to be recorded in the minutes, by order in writing, direct the suspension of action thereon for any period not exceeding one month and, if he does so, shall forthwith refer the matter to the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, [a][the reference being made, save in cases where the Officer Commanding the District is himself the Officer Commanding-in-Chief the Command, for the purposes of this Act], through the Officer Commanding the District, who may make such recommendations thereon as he thinks fit.

(2) If the District Magistrate considers any decision of a [b][Board] to be prejudicial to the public health, safety or convenience, he may, after giving notice in writing of his intention to the [b][Board], refer the matter to the [c][Central Government]; and, pending the disposal of the reference to the [c][Central Government], no action shall be taken on the decision.

(3) If any Magistrate who is a member of a Board, being present at a meeting, dissents from any decision which he considers prejudicial to the public health, safety or convenience, he may, for reasons to be recorded in the minutes and after giving notice in writing of his intention to the President, report the matter to the District Magistrate; and the President shall, on receipt of such notice, direct the suspension of action on the decision for a period sufficient to allow of a communication being made to the District Magistrate and of his taking proceedings as provided by sub-section (2).

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

52. Power of Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, on reference under Section 51 or otherwise.—(1) The Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, may at any time—

[c][* * * * *]

(a) direct that any matter or any specific proposal other than one which has been referred to the [c][Central Government] under sub-section (2) of Section 51 be considered or reconsidered by the [b][Board]; or

---

Section 51 — Note 1

(1) "We have also made an amendment to Clause 51 (i.e., Section 51) in order to confine the powers of the President in the matter of overriding decisions of the Board to cases where those decisions appear to him prejudicial to the health, welfare or discipline of the troops. This leaves the District Magistrate to exercise a similar power on behalf of the civil population generally" — Select Committee Report.

(1) Section 52 (1) (b) does not provide for an individual notice to a member of the Board. ('56) AIR 1956 Punj 147 (148).

(2) The words "on any decision of a Board" in Section 52 (1) (b) are not 'ejusdem generis' to the words used in Sec. 51 of the Act. The powers to be exercised under Section 51 are limited to those decisions of the Board which affect health and welfare, etc., of the army or of the public. But under Section 52 there is no such restriction. It is, therefore, clear that under Section 52 the authority mentioned therein can pass orders irrespective of the nature of the decision of the Board. ('56) AIR 1956 Punj 147 (147).

(3) The word "decision" means only a concluded opinion. The opinion of the Board is to be gathered from the majority of the votes cast in the matter. The selection of the Vice-President by the votes of elected mmbers in a meeting of the Board is a decision of the Board over which Officer Commanding-in-Chief has full supervisory control under Section 52 (1) (b), Cantonments Act. ('56) AIR 1956 Punj 147 (148).

(b) direct the suspension, for such period as may be stated in the order, of action on any decision of a [b][Board], other than a decision which has been referred to him under sub-section (1) of Section 51, and thereafter cancel the suspension or [c][after giving the Board a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why such direction should not be made], direct that the decision shall not be carried into effect or that it shall be carried into effect with such modifications as he may specify.

(2) When any decision of a Board has been referred to him under sub-section (1) of Section 51, the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, may, by order in writing,—

(a) cancel the order given by the President directing the suspension of action; or

(b) extend the duration of the order for such period as he thinks fit; or

[d][(c) after giving the Board a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why such direction should not be made, direct that the decision shall not be carried into effect or that it shall be carried into effect by the Board with such modifications as he may specify.]

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

[c] Inserted by S. 22, ibid.

53. Powers of Central Government on a reference made under Section 51.— When any decision of a [a][Board] has been referred to the [°][Central Government] under sub-section (2) of Section 51, the [°][Central Government] may, after consulting the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, by order in writing,—

(a) direct that no action be taken on the decision; or

(b) direct that the decision be carried into effect either without modification or with such modifications as it may specify.

54. Supersession of Board.—(1) If, in the opinion of the [°][Central Government], any Board is not competent to perform or persistently makes default in the performance of the duties imposed on it by or under this Act or otherwise by law, or exceeds or abuses its powers, the [°][Central Government may [a][° ° °]] by an order published, together with the statement of the reasons therefor, in the [°][Official Gazette], declare the Board to be incompetent or in default or to have exceeded or abused its powers, as the case may be, and supersede it for such period as may be specified in the order:

Provided that no Board shall be superseded unless a reasonable opportunity has been given to it to show cause against the supersession.

(2) When a Board is superseded by an order under sub-section (1),—

(a) all members of the Board shall on such date as may be specified in the order, vacate their offices as such members but without prejudice to their eligibilty for election or nomination under clause (c);

(b) during the supersession of the Board, all powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the Board by or under this Act or otherwise by law shall be exercised and performed by the [b][Officer Commanding the station] subject to such reservation, if any, as the [°][Central Government] may prescribe in this behalf; and

---

(1) Under Section 9 the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any provision of this Act shall, in the case of any cantonment in which the Board is superseded under Section 54, apply with such modifications as may be so specified.

(c) before the expiry of the period of supersession elections shall be held and nominations made for the purpose of reconstituting the Board.

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1925 (7 of 1925), S. 14, for "Commanding Officer of the Cantonment".

VALIDITY OF PROCEEDINGS

55. Validity of proceedings, etc.—(1) No act or proceeding of a Board or of any committee of a Board shall be invalid by reason only of the existence of a vacancy in the Board or committee.

(2) No disqualification or defect in the election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as the President or a member of a Board or of any such committee shall vitiate any act or proceeding of the Board or committee if the majority of the persons present at the time of the act being done or the proceeding being taken were duly qualified members thereof.

(3) Any document or minutes which purport to be the record of the proceedings of a Board or of any committee of a Board shall, if made and signed substantially in the manner prescribed for the making and signing of the record of such proceedings, be presumed to be a correct record of the proceedings of a duly convened meeting, held by a duly constituted Board or committee, as the case may be, whereof all the members were duly qualified.

CHAPTER IV

SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS AND INTOXICATING DRUGS

56. Unauthorised sale of spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug.—If within a cantonment, or within such limits adjoining a cantonment as the °[Central Government] may by notification in the °[Official Gazette] define, any person not subject to military or air-force law or any person subject to military or air-force law otherwise than as a military officer or a soldier knowingly barters, sells or supplies, or offers or attempts to barter, sell or supply, any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug to or for the use of any soldier or follower or soldier's wife or minor child without the written permission of the [a][Officer Commanding the station] or of some person authorised by the [a][Officer Commanding the station] to grant such permission, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

57. Unauthorised possession of spirituous liquor.—If within a cantonment, or within any limits defined under Section 56,—

(a) any person subject to military or air-force law otherwise than as a military officer or a soldier, or

(b) the wife or servant of any such person or of a soldier, has in his or her possession, except on behalf of the °[Central Government] or for the private use of a military officer, more than one quart of any spirituous liquor,

(1) The word 'supplies' in this Section has a restricted meaning, it is inapplicable in the case of servant giving his master liquor belonging to the master himself. Thus, where the servant of a soldier buys liquor with soldier's money for use, the servant cannot be said to have supplied liquor to the soldier. ('07) 31 Bom 523 (526) : 6 Cri L Jour 67.

(2) The words spirituous liquor' and 'intoxicating drugs' should be taken in their popular and ordinary meaning. Thus, 'tari' or 'toddy' is spirituous liquor. ('88) 15 Cal 452 (454). (Case under Cantonments Act, 1880, Section 14.)

(3) Country or home-made beer is not included in the term "spirituous liquor:" ('73) 7 Mad HCR (App) 15 (16). (Decision under Madras Act I of 1866, Section 30.)

(4) As to the meaning of 'soldier', see ('80) 3 All 214 (215).

other than fermented malt-liquor, without the written permission of the [a][Officer Commanding the station] or of some person authorised by the [a][Officer Commanding the station] to grant such permission, he or she shall be punishable, in the case of a first offence, with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of a subsequent offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

58. Arrest of persons and seizure and confiscation of things for offences against the two last foregoing sections.—(1) Any police officer or excise officer may, without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person whom he finds committing an offence under Section 56 or Section 57, and may seize and detain any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug in respect of which such an offence has been committed and any vessels or coverings in which the liquor or drug is contained.

(2) Where a person accused of an offence under Section 56 has been previously convicted of an offence under that section, an officer in charge of a police station may, with the written permission of a Magistrate, seize and detain any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug within the cantonment or within any limits defined under that section which, at the time of the alleged commission of the subsequent offence, belonged to, or was in the possession, of such person.

(3) The Court convicting a person of an offence under Section 56 or Sec. 57 may order the confiscation of the whole or any part of anything seized under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

(4) Subject to the provisions of Chapter XLIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, anything seized under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) and not confiscated under sub-section (3) shall be restored to the person from whom it was taken.

59. Saving of articles sold or supplied for medicinal purposes.—The foregoing provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to the sale or supply of any article in good faith for medicinal purposes by a medical practitioner, chemist or druggist authorised in this behalf by a general or special order of the [a][Officer Commanding the station.]

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1925 (7 of 1925), S. 14, for "Commanding Officer of the Cantonment".

CHAPTER V

TAXATION

Imposition of Taxation.

[a][60. General power of taxation.—(1)] The Board may, with the previous sanction of the [c][Central Government], impose in any cantonment any tax which

(1) Section does not envisage any conflict with the State Laws. The Board is bound to have due regard for the State laws while imposing taxes. AIR 1963 Raj 190 (191): 1963 Raj LW 258 (DB). (Terminal Tax by Cantonments Board in contravention of Section 21 of Rajasthan Motor Vehicles Taxation Act (11 of 1951) is invalid).

(2) Provincial Legislature can, by virtue of Sch. 7, List 2 item 50 of the Constitution validly authorise a municipality to levy tax on shows exhibited at the cinemas, within Municipal limits. A Cantonment Board can, therefore, follow suit under Section 60. ('54) AIR 1954 Bom 261 (264, 265): ILR (1954) Bom 647 (DB) * AIR 1959 SC 582 (584, 585): (1959) Supp (2) SCR 63.

(3) Reading Sections 60 to 63 it is plain that the previous sanction of the Central Government has to be accorded to the Board in accordance with the provisions of Sections 61 to 63, and, when the previous sanction of the Central Government has been so accorded under Section 63 of the Act, then only the Board can impose the tax. ('58) AIR 1958 Pat 38 (39): 36 Pat 1220 (DB). * AIR 1967 All 15 (18). (The limitation on powers of Municipal Board under any enactment for the time being in force, may be imposed in any municipality in the °[State] wherein such cantonment is situated;

(2) Any tax imposed under this section shall take effect from the date of its notification in the °[Official Gazette].]

a[61. Framing of preliminary proposals.—When a resolution has been passed by the Board proposing to impose a tax under Section 60, the Board shall in the manner prescribed in Section 255 publish a notice specifying—

(a) the tax which it is proposed to impose;

(b) the persons or classes of persons to be made liable and the description of the property or other taxable thing or circumstance in respect of which they are to be made liable; and

(c) the rate at which the tax is to be levied.]

a[62. Objections and disposal thereof.—(1) Any inhabitant of the cantonment may, within thirty days from the publication of the notice under Section 61, submit to the Board an objection in writing to all or any of the proposals contained therein and the Board shall take any objection into consideration and pass orders thereon by special resolution.

(2) If the Board decides to modify its proposals or any of them, it shall republish the modified proposals in the manner provided by Section 61 indicating that the proposals are in modification of the proposals previously published; and the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall apply to such modified proposals.

(3) When the Board has finally settled the proposals, it shall submit them along with the objections, if any, made in connection therewith to the °[Central Government] through the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command.]

to levy taxes do not apply to Cantonment Board).

(4) Section 60 (1) envisages the obtaining of the previous sanction of the Central Government by the Board only before the Board actually imposes the tax in any Cantonment. There need not be a notification of the Central Government prior to the proposal by the Board to impose the tax is not borne out by Sections 60 to 63 of the Act. ('58) AIR 1958 Pat 38 (39): 36 Pat 1220 (DB).

(5) Board empowered to levy tax on water cannot vary it without the sanction of the Government. ('26) AIR 1926 Sind 130 (130, 131, 132): 20 Sind LR 325.

(6) Section was "a law in force" at the time of commencement of Constitution and is saved by Art. 372 of Constitution — Mere fact that Central Legislature cannot now impose tolls cannot have the effect of depriving Cantonment Boards of the power to impose tolls which had been conferred by valid enactment. AIR 1967 All 15 (19).

(7) Art. 305 of Constitution of India saves provisions of Section 60 of the Act which was valid existing law and hence procedure under Art. 304 need not be followed for imposing any toll on vehicles passing through Cantonment area. AIR 1967 All 15 (19).

(a) in the case of railway stations, hotels, colleges, schools, hospitals, factories and any other buildings which a [a][Board] decides to assess under this clause, one-twentieth of the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of erecting the building to the estimated value of the land appertaining thereto, and

(b) in the case of a building or land not assessed under clause (a), the gross annual rent for which such building (exclusive of furniture or machinery therein) or such land is actually let or, where the building or land is not let or in the opinion of the [a][Board] is let for a sum less than its fair letting value, might reasonably be expected to let from year to year:

Provided that, where the annual value of any building is by reason of exceptional circumstances, in the opinion of the [a][Board], excessive if calculated in the aforesaid manner, the [a][Board] may fix the annual value at any less amount which appears to it to be just.

65 Incidence of taxation.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in the notification imposing the tax, every tax [a][assessed] on the annual value of buildings or lands or of both shall be leviable primarily upon the actual occupier of the property upon which the said tax is assessed, if he is the owner of the buildings or lands or holds them on a building or other lease [b][granted by or on behalf of the [c][Government] or] the [c][Board] or on a building lease from any person.

(2) In any other case, the tax shall be primarily leviable as follows namely:—

(a) if the property is let, upon the lessor;

(b) if the property is sub-let, upon the superior lessor;

(c) if the property is unlet, upon the person in whom the right to let the same vests.

(3) On failure to recover any sum due on account of such tax from the person primarily liable, there may be recovered from the occupier of any part of the buildings or lands in respect of which the tax is due such portion of the sum due as bears to the whole amount due the same ratio which the rent annually payable by such occupier bears to the aggregate amount of rent so payable in respect of the whole of the said buildings or lands, or to the aggregate amount of the letting value thereof, if any, stated in the authenticated assessment list.

(4) An occupier who makes any payment for which he is not primarily liable under this section shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be entitled to be reimbursed by the person primarily liable for the payment, and, if so entitled, may deduct the amount so paid from the amount of any rent from time to time becoming due from him to such person.

buildings or lands in the cantonment, or of both, as the case may be, to be prepared in such form as the °[Central Government] may by rule prescribe.

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

67. Publication of assessment list.—When the assessment list has been prepared, the *[Board] shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the list or a copy thereof may be inspected, and every person claiming to be the owner, lessee or occupier of any property included in the list, and any authorised agent of such person, shall be at liberty to inspect the list and to make extracts therefrom free of charge.

68. Revision of assessment list.—(1) The *[Board] shall, at the same time, give public notice of a date, not less than one month thereafter, when it will proceed to consider the valuations and assessments entered in the assessment list, and, in all cases in which any property is for the first time assessed or the assessment is increased, it shall also give written notice thereof to the owner and to any lessee or occupier of the property.

(2) Any objection to a valuation or assessment shall be made in writing to the *[Board] before the date fixed in the notice, and shall state in what respect the valuation or assessment is disputed, and all objections so made shall be recorded in a register to be kept for the purpose by the *[Board].

(3) The objections shall be inquired into and investigated, and the persons making them shall be allowed an opportunity of being heard either in person or by authorised agent, by an Assessment Committee appointed by the *[Board].

(4) The Assessment Committee shall consist of not less than three persons and, b[* * *] it shall not be necessary to appoint to the Assessment Committee any member °[of the Board].

[b] The words "where there is a Board" were repealed by Act 24 of 1936, S. 26.

[c] Substituted by S. 26, ibid, for "thereof".

69. Authentication of assessment list.—(1) When all objections made under Section 68 have been disposed of and the revision of the valuation and assessment has been completed, the assessment list shall be authenticated by the signature of the members of the Assessment Committee who shall, at the same time, certify that they have considered all objections duly made and have amended the list so far as is required by their decisions on such objections.

(2) The assessment list so authenticated shall be deposited in the office of the *[Board], and shall there be open, free of charge, during office hours to all owners, lessees and occupiers of property comprised therein or the authorised agents of such persons, and a public notice that it is so open shall forthwith be published.

70. Evidential value of assessment list.—Subject to such alterations as may thereafter be made in the assessment list under the provisions of this Chapter and to the result of any appeal made thereunder, the entries in the assessment list authenticated and deposited as provided in Section 69 shall be accepted as conclusive evidence—

(i) for the purpose of assessing any tax imposed under this Act, of the annual value or other valuation of all buildings and lands to which such entries respectively refer, and

(ii) for the purposes of any tax imposed on buildings or lands, of the amount of each such tax leviable thereon during the year to which such list relates.

71. Amendment of assessment list.—[a][(1) The Board may amend the assessment list at any time—

(a) by inserting or omitting the name of any person whose name ought to have been or ought to be inserted or omitted, or

(b) by inserting or omitting any property which ought to have been or ought to be inserted or omitted, or

(c) by altering the assessment on any property which has been erroneously valued or assessed through fraud, accident or mistake, whether on the part of the Board or of the Assessment Committee or of the assessee, or

(d) by revaluing or re-assessing any property the value of which has been increased, or

(e) in the case of a tax payable by an occupier, by changing the name of the occupier :

Provided that no person shall by reason of any such amendment become liable to pay any tax or increase of tax in respect of any period prior to the commencement of the year in which the assessment is made.]

[b][(1a) Before making any amendment under sub-section (1) the Board shall give to any person affected by the amendment notice of not less than one month that it proposes to make the amendment.]

(2) Any person interested in any such amendment may tender an objection to the [c][Board] in writing before the time fixed in the notice, and shall be allowed an opportunity of being heard in support of the same in person or by authorised agent.

[c] Substituted by S. 69, ibid, for "Cantonment Authority".

72. Preparation of new assessment list.—The [a][Board] shall prepare a new assessment list at least once in every three years, and for this purpose the provisions of Sections 66 to 71 shall apply in like manner as they apply for the purpose of the preparation of an assessment list for the first time.

73. Notice of transfers.—(1) Whenever the title of any person primarily liable for the payment of a tax on the annual value of any building or land to or over such building or land is transferred, the person whose title is transferred and the person to whom the same is transferred shall, within three months after the execution of the instrument of transfer or after its registration, if it is registered, or after the transfer is effected, if no instrument is executed, give notice of such transfer to the Executive Officer.

(2) In the event of the death of any person primarily liable as aforesaid, the person on whom the title of the deceased devolves shall give notice of such devolution to the Executive Officer within six months from the death of the deceased.

(3) The notice to be given under this section shall be in such form [a][as may be determined by rules made under Section 280,] and the transferee or other person on whom the title devolves shall, if so required, be bound to produce before the Executive Officer any documents evidencing the transfer or devolution.

(4) Every person who makes a transfer as aforesaid without giving such notice to the Executive Officer shall continue liable for the payment of all taxes assessed on the property transferred until he gives notice or until the transfer has been recorded in the registers of the [b][Board], but nothing in this section shall be held to affect the liability of the transferee for the payment of the said tax.

[c][(5) The Executive Officer shall record every transfer [d][or] devolution of title notified to him under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) in the assessment list and other tax registers of the Board.]

[d] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1940 (32 of 1940), S. 3 and Sch. II, for "on".

74. Notice of erection of buildings.—(1) If any building is erected or re-erected within the meaning of Section 179, the owner shall give notice thereof to the Executive Officer within thirty days from the date of its completion or occupation, whichever is earlier.

(2) Any person failing to give the notice required by sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees or ten times the amount of the tax payable on the said buildings, as erected or re-erected, as the case may be, in respect of a period of three months, whichever is greater.

REMISSION AND REFUND

75. Demolition, etc., of buildings.—If any building is wholly or partly demolished or destroyed or otherwise deprived of value, the [a][Board] may, on the application [b][in writing] of the owner [c][or occupier], remit or refund such portion of [d][any tax assessed on the annual value thereof] as it thinks fit.

76. Remission of tax.—In a cantonment [a][* * ] when any building or land has remained vacant and unproductive of rent for [b][sixty] or more consecutive days [c][ * ] the [d][Board] shall remit or refund, as the case may be, such portion of [e][any tax assessed on the annual value thereof] [f][ * *] as may be proportionate to the number of days during which the said building or land has remained vacant and unproductive of rent:

[g][Provided that in any cantonment which the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, has declared to be a hill cantonment and in respect of which the Central Government by the same or a like notification has declared a portion of the year to be the season for the cantonment, when any building or land is leased for occupation through the season only, but the rent charged is the full annual rent, no remission or refund shall be admissible under this section in respect of any time outside the season during which the building or land remains vacant, but in respect of any time, not being less than sixty consecutive days during which within the season such building or land has remained vacant and unproductive of rent, the Board shall remit or refund such portion of any tax assessed on the annual value thereof as bears to the whole of the tax so assessed the same proportion as the number of days during which the building or land has remained vacant and unproductive of rent bears to the total length of the season.]

[g] Proviso was added by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S.7 [30-3-1942].

77. Power to require entry in assessment list of details of buildings.—For the purpose of obtaining a partial remission or refund of tax, the owner of a building composed of separate tenements may request the [a][Board], at the time of the assessment of the building, to enter in the assessment list, in addition to the annual value of the whole building, a note recording in detail the annual value of each separate tenement. When any tenement, the annual value of which has been thus separately recorded, has remained vacant and unproductive of rent for [b][sixty] or more consecutive days [c][* * ] such portion of [d][any tax assessed on the annual value of the whole building [e][ * *]] shall be remitted or refunded as would have been remitted or refunded if the tenement had been separately assessed.

78. What buildings, etc., are to be deemed vacant.—[1] For the purposes of Sections 76 and 77 no building, tenement or land shall be deemed vacant if maintained as a pleasure resort or town or country house, or be deemed unproductive of rent if let to a tenant who has a continuing right of occupation thereof, whether he is in actual occupation or not.

(2) The burden of proving all facts entitling any person to claim relief under Section 75, or Section 76, or Section 77, shall be upon him.

79. Notice to be given of every occupation of vacant building or house.—(1) The owner of any building, tenement or land in respect of which a remission or refund of tax has been given under Section 76 or Section 77 shall give notice of the reoccupation of such building [a][tenement] or land within fifteen days of such reoccupation.

(2) Any owner failing to give notice required by sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which shall not be less than twice the amount of the tax payable on such building, tenement or land in respect of the period during which it has been reoccupied and which may extend to fifty rupees, or to ten times the amount of the said tax, whichever sum is greater.

[a] Inserted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1934 (24 of 1934), S. 2 and Schedule I.

CHARGE ON IMMOVABLE PROPERTY

80. Tax on buildings and land to be a charge thereon.—A tax assessed on the annual value of any building or land shall, subject to the prior payment of land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon, be a first charge upon the building or land.

OCTROI, TERMINAL TAX AND TOLL

81. Inspection of imported goods, etc.—Every person bringing or receiving any goods, vehicles or animals within the limits of any cantonment in which octroi or terminal tax or toll is leviable, shall, when so required by an officer duly authorised by the [a][Board] in this behalf, so far as may be necessary for ascertaining the amount of tax chargeable—

(a) permit that officer to inspect, examine or weigh such goods, vehicles or animals; and

(b) communicate to that officer any information, and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature, which such person may possess relating to such goods, vehicles or animals.

82. Evasion of octroi or terminal tax.—(1) Any person who takes or attempts to take past any octroi station or any other place appointed within a cantonment for the collection of octroi, terminal tax or toll any goods, vehicles or animals, on account of which octroi, terminal tax or toll is leviable and thereby evades, or attempts to evade, the payment of such octroi, terminal tax or toll, and any person who abets any such evasion or attempt at evasion, shall be punishable with fine which may extend either to ten times the value of such octroi, terminal tax or toll, or to fifty rupees, whichever is greater and which shall not be less than twice the value of such octroi terminal tax or toll, as the case may be.

(2) In case of non-payment of any octroi or terminal tax or toll on demand, the officer empowered to collect the same may seize any goods, vehicles or animals on which the octroi, terminal tax or toll is chargeable or any part or number thereof which is of sufficient value to satisfy the demand [a][and shall give a receipt specifying the items seized].

(3) The [b][Board], after the lapse of five days from the seizure, and after the issue of a notice in writing to the person in whose possession the goods, vehicles or animals were at the time of seizure, fixing the time and place of sale, may cause the property so seized, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by auction to satisfy the demand and any expenses occasioned by the seizure, custody and sale thereof, unless the demand and expenses are in the meantime paid:

Provided that the Executive Officer may, in any case, order that any article of a perishable nature which cannot be kept for five days without serious risk of damage, or which cannot be kept save at a cost which, together with the amount of octroi, terminal tax or toll, is likely to exceed its value, shall be sold after the lapse of such shorter time as he may, having regard to the nature of the article, think proper.

(4) If, at any time before the sale has begun, the person whose property has been seized tenders to the Executive Officer the amount of all expenses incurred and of the octroi terminal tax or toll, the Executive Officer shall release the property seized.

(5) The surplus, if any, of the sale-proceeds shall be credited to the cantonment fund, and shall, on application made to the [b][Board] within one year after the sale, be paid to the person in whose possession the property was at the time of seizure, and, if no such application is made, shall be the property of the [b][Board].

[b] Substituted by S. 69, ibid, for "Cantonment Authority".

83. Lease of octroi, terminal tax or toll.—It shall be lawful for the [a][Board], with the previous sanction of the [b][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command,] to lease the collection of any octroi, terminal tax or toll for any period not exceeding one year; and the lessee and all persons employed by him in the management and collection of the octroi, terminal tax or toll shall, in respect thereof,—

(a) be bound by any orders made by the [a][Board] for their guidance;
(b) have such powers exercisable by officers or servants of the [a][Board] under this Act as the [a][Board] may confer upon them; and
(c) be entitled to the same remedies and be subject to the same responsibilities as if they were employed by the [a][Board] for the management and collection of the octroi, terminal tax or toll, as the case may be:

Provided that no article distrained may be sold except under the orders of the [a][Board].

(2) If, on the hearing of an appeal under this section, any question as to the liability to, or the principle of assessment of, a tax arises on which the officer hearing the appeal entertains reasonable doubt, he may, either of his own motion or on the application of the appellant, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement with his own opinion on the point for the decision of the High Court.

(3) On a reference being made under sub-section (2), the subsequent proceedings in the case shall be, as nearly as may be, in conformity with the rules relating to references to the High Court contained in Order XLVI of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

[a] The words "there is a Board and" were repealed by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 32.

85. Costs of appeal.—In every appeal the costs shall be in the discretion of the officer hearing the appeal.

86. Recovery of costs from Board.—If the [a][Board] fails to pay any costs awarded to an appellant within ten days after the date of the order for payment thereof, the Officer awarding the costs may order the person having the custody of the balance of the cantonment fund to pay the amount.

87. Conditions of right to appeal.—No appeal shall be heard or determined under this Chapter unless—

(a) the appeal is, in the case of a tax assessed on the annual value of buildings or lands or both, brought within thirty days next after the date of the authentication of the assessment list under Section 69 (exclusive of the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the relevant entries therein), or, as the case may be, within thirty days of the date on which an amendment is finally made under Section 71, and, in the case of any other tax, within thirty days next after the date of the receipt of the notice of assessment or of alteration of assessment or, if no notice has been given, within thirty days next after the date of the presentation of the first bill in respect thereof:

Provided that an appeal may be admitted after the expiration of the period prescribed therefor by this section if the appellant satisfies the Court before whom the appeal is preferred that he had sufficient cause for not preferring it within that period;

(b) the amount, if any, in dispute in the appeal has been deposited by the appellant in the office of the [a][Board].

88. Finality of appellate orders.—The order of an appellate authority confirming, setting aside or modifying an order in respect of any valuation or assessment or liability to assessment or taxation shall be final:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the appellate authority, upon application or on its own motion, to review any order passed by it in appeal if application in this behalf is made within three months from the date of the original order.

PAYMENT AND RECOVERY OF TAXES

89. Time and manner of payment of taxes.—Save as otherwise expressly provided under this Act, any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act shall be payable on such dates and in such instalments, if any, as the [a][Board] may by public notice direct.

90. Presentation of bill.—(1) When any tax has become due, the Executive Officer shall cause to be presented to the person liable for the payment thereof a bill for the amount due.

(2) Every such bill shall specify the particulars of the tax and the period for which the charge is made.

91. Notice of demand.—(1) If the amount of the tax for which any bill has been presented is not paid to the [a][Board] within thirty days from the presentation thereof, the Executive Officer may cause to be served upon the person liable for the payment of the same a notice of demand in the form set forth in Schedule I.

(2) For every notice of demand which the Executive Officer causes to be served on any person under this section, a fee of such amount, not exceeding one rupee, as shall in each case be fixed by the Executive Officer, shall be payable by the said person and shall be included in the cost of recovery.

92. Recovery of tax.—(1) If the person liable for the payment of any tax does not, within thirty days from the service of the notice of demand, pay the amount due, or show sufficient cause for non-payment of the same to the satisfaction of the Executive Officer, such sum, with all costs of recovery, may be recovered under a warrant, issued in the form set forth in Schedule II, by distress and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter:

Provided that the Executive Officer shall not recover any sum the liability for which has been remitted on appeal under this Chapter.

(2) Every warrant issued under this section shall be signed by the Executive Officer.

93. Distress.—(1) It shall be lawful for any servant of the [a][Board] to whom a warrant issued under Section 92 is addressed to distrain wherever it may be found [b][in the cantonment], any moveable property of [b][or standing timber, growing crops or grass belonging to] the person therein named as defaulter, subject to the following conditions, exceptions and exemptions, namely:—

(a) the following property shall not be distrained:—

(i) the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the defaulter, his wife and children,

(ii) tools of artisans,

(iii) books of account, or

(iv) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed-grain, and such cattle as may be necessary to enable the defaulter to earn his livelihood;

(b) the distress shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible equal in value to the amount recoverable under the warrant, and if any property has been distrained which in the opinion of the Executive Officer, should not have been distrained, it shall forthwith be returned.

(2) The person charged with the execution of a warrant of distress shall forthwith make an inventory of the property which he seizes under such warrant, and, shall, at the same time, give a written notice in the form set forth in Schedule III to the person in possession thereof at the time of seizure that the said property will be sold as therein mentioned.

[b] Inserted by S. 33, ibid.

94. Disposal of distrained property.—(1) When the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody is, when added to the amount to be recovered, likely to exceed its value, the Executive Officer shall give notice to the person in whose possession the property was at the time of seizure that it will be sold at once, and shall sell it accordingly by public auction unless the amount mentioned in the warrant is forthwith paid.

(2) If the warrant is not in the meantime suspended by the Executive Officer, or discharged, the property seized shall, after the expiry of the period named in the notice served under sub-section (2) of Section 93, be sold by public auction by order of the Executive Officer.

(3) The surplus of the sale-proceeds, if any, shall forthwith be credited to the cantonment fund, and notice of such credit shall be given at the same time to the person from whose possession the property was taken, and, if the same is claimed by written application to the [a][Board] within one year from the date of the notice, a refund thereof shall be made to such person. Any surplus not claimed within one year as aforesaid shall be the property of the [a][Board].

(1) As to whether a distraint becomes invalid by reason of immaterial defect, See Section 105.

(1) "We have made a slight amendment in Sub-clauses (1) and (2) which will require distrained property, if sold, to be sold by public auction." — Select Committee Report.

(4) For every distraint made under this Chapter a fee of such amount, not exceeding one rupee, as shall in each case be fixed by the Executive Officer shall be charged, and the said fee be included in the costs of recovery.

95. Recovery from a person about to leave cantonment.—(1) If the Executive Officer has reason to believe that any person from whom any sum is due [a][or is about to become due] on account of any tax is about to remove from the cantonment, he may direct the immediate payment by such person of the sum so due or about to become due, and cause a bill for the same to be served on such person.

(2) If, on the service of such bill, such person does not forthwith pay the sum so due or about to become due, the amount shall be leviable by distress and sale in the manner hereinbefore provided in this Chapter, except that it shall not be necessary to serve upon the defaulter any notice of demand and the warrant of distress and sale may be issued and executed without any delay.

[a] Inserted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1930 (8 of 1930), S. 2 and Schedule I.

96. Power to institute suit for recovery.—Instead of proceeding against a defaulter by distress and sale as hereinbefore provided in this Chapter, or after a defaulter has been so proceeded against unsuccessfully or with only partial success, any sum due or the balance of any sum due, as the case may be, from such defaulter on account of a tax may be recovered from him by a suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO TAXATION

97. Power to prohibit or exempt from taxation.—Every [a][Board] shall be deemed to be a Municipal Committee for the purposes of the Municipal Taxation Act, 1881.

98. Power to make special provision for conservancy in certain cases.—A [a][Board] may make special provision for the cleansing of any factory, hotel, club or group of buildings or land used for any one purpose and under one management, and may fix a special rate and the dates and other conditions for periodical payment thereof, which shall be determined by a written agreement with the person liable for the payment of the conservancy or scavenging tax in respect of such factory, hotel, club or group of buildings or lands:

Provided that, in fixing the amount, proper regard shall be had to the probable cost to the [a][Board] of the services to be rendered.

99. Exemption in the case of buildings.—(1) When, in pursuance of Section 98, a [a][Board] has fixed a special rate for the cleansing of any factory, hotel, club or group of buildings, or lands, such premises shall be exempted from the payment of any conservancy or scavenging tax imposed in the cantonment.

(2) The following buildings and lands shall be exempt from any tax on property [b][other than a tax imposed to cover the cost of specific services rendered by the Board], namely:—

(a) places set apart for public worship and either actually so used or used for no other purpose;

(b) buildings used for educational purposes and public libraries, playgrounds and dharmsalas which are open to the public and from which no income is derived;

(c) hospitals and dispensaries maintained wholly by charitable contributions;

(d) burning and burial-grounds not being the property of [c][the Government] or a [a][Board], which are controlled under the provisions of this Act;

(e) buildings or lands vested in a [a][Board]; and

(f) any buildings or lands, used or acquired for the public service or for any public purpose, which are the property of [c][the Government] or in the occupation of [c][the Central or any State Government].

[b] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S. 8 (30-3-1942).

[a][99A. General power of exemption.—The [c][Central Government] may, by notification in the [c][Official Gazette], exempt, either wholly or in part from the payment of any tax imposed under this Act, any person or class of persons or any property or goods or class of property or goods [b][* * *].]

[a] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 7.

[b] The words "belonging to the Secretary of State for India in Council" were repealed by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1931 (7 of 1931), S. 6.

100. Exemption of poor persons.—A [a][Board] may exempt, for a period not exceeding one year at a time from the payment of any tax or any portion of a tax imposed under this Act, any person who is in its opinion, by reason of poverty, unable to pay the same.

101. Composition.—(1) A [a][Board] may, with the previous sanction of the [b][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command,] allow any person to compound for any tax.

(2) Every sum due by reason of the composition of a tax under sub-sec. (1) shall be recoverable as if it were a tax.

[b] Substituted by Act 35 of 1926, S. 2, for "Officer Commanding the District".

102. Irrecoverable debts.—A [a][Board] may write off any sum due on account of any tax [b][or rate] or of the costs of recovering any tax [b][or rate] if such sum is, in its opinion, irrecoverable:

[b][Provided that, where the sum written off in favour of any one person exceeds fifty rupees, the sanction of the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, shall be first obtained.]

[b] Inserted by S. 34, ibid.

103. Obligation to disclose liability.—(1) The Executive Officer may, by written notice, call upon any inhabitant of the cantonment to furnish such information as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining—

(a) whether such inhabitant is liable to pay any tax imposed under this Act;

(b) at what amount he should be assessed; or

(c) the annual value of the building or land which he occupies and the name and address of the owner or lessee thereof.

[a][(2) If any person, when called upon under sub-section (1) to furnish information, neglects to furnish it within the period specified in this behalf by the Executive Officer or furnishes information which is not true to the best of his knowledge or belief, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and shall also be liable to be assessed at such amount on account of tax as the Board may deem proper, and the assessment so made shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be final.]

104. Immaterial error not to affect liability.—No assessment and no charge or demand on account of any tax or fee shall be impeached or affected by reason only of any mistake in the name of any person liable to pay such tax or fee, or in the description of any property or thing, or any mistake in the amount of the assessment, charge or demand, if the directions contained in this Act and the rules and bye-laws made thereunder have in substance and effect been complied with; but any person who sustains any special damage by reason of any such mistake shall be entitled to recover compensation for the same by suit in a Court of competent jurisdiction.

105. Distraint not to be invalid by reason of immaterial defect.—No distress levied under this Chapter shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any person making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account only of any defect of form in the notice of demand, warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto; nor shall any such person be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but any person who sustains any special damage by reason of any such irregularity shall be entitled to recover compensation for the same by suit in a Court of competent jurisdiction.

(1) Since Sections 81 to 83 of the Act are a special provision dealing with octroi duties, Section 103 which is a general provision dealing with general taxes must be read as excluding from its operation the cases which have been provided for in Sections 81 to 83. An executive Officer of the Cantonment Board cannot under Sec. 103, require an inhabitant of the Cantonment to give information regarding goods imported into the Cantonment to ascertain liability to pay octroi. Failure to give such information cannot entail conviction under Section 103 (2). Section 103 also cannot be regarded as one meant for demanding information which may enable the Executive Officer to detect an evasion of tax. The only object of the section is to enable the Executive Officer to ascertain the liability or any particular inhabitant of the Cantonment Board to pay any tax. ('53) AIR 1953 Madh B 18 (19): ILR (1952) Madh B 334: 1953 Cri L Jour 236.

(2) It is open to the authorities to use Section 103 (1) for the purpose of ascertaining whether there has been any evasion or attempt to evade the payment of octroi duty by calling on shopkeepers to furnish details of goods imported by them. ('58) AIR 1958 Punj 396 (397): 1958 Cri L Jour 1343.

(3) The word "neglects" in Section 103 (2) cannot mean that a person on whom a notice has been served can only be prosecuted if he fails to send any reply at all and that any sort of reply to the notice, however inadequate or evasive, is sufficient to avert prosecution for failure to comply with the terms of the notice. ## CHAPTER VI

CANTONMENT FUND AND PROPERTY

CANTONMENT FUND

106. Cantonment Fund.—There shall be formed for every cantonment, a cantonment fund, and there shall be placed to the credit thereof the following sums, namely:—

(a) the balance, if any, of the cantonment fund formed for the cantonment under the Cantonments Act, 1910.

(b) all sums received by or on behalf of the [a][Board].

[b] The word "and" and cl. (c) were repealed by A.O., 1937. See, however, para. 4 of the India and Burma (Transitory Provisions) Order, 1937.

107. Custody of Cantonment Fund.—(1) Where in or near a cantonment there is a Government treasury or sub-treasury, or a branch of the Imperial Bank of India,[d] the cantonment fund shall be kept in such treasury, sub-treasury or bank, as the case may be.

(2) Where there is no such treasury, sub-treasury or bank, the cantonment fund may be deposited with any bank to which the Government treasury business has been entrusted, and, in the absence of such a bank, with any banker or person acting as a banker who has given such security for the safe custody of the fund and the payment on demand of the funds so deposited as the [a][Central Government] may in each case direct.

[a][(3) A [b][Board] may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the [a][Officer Commandinding-in-Chief, the Command], invest any portion of its cantonment fund in securities of the [a][Central Government] or in such other securities, including fixed deposits in banks, as the [a][Central Government] may approve in this behalf, and may dispose of such investments or vary them for others of a like nature.]

(4) The income resulting from any fixed deposit or from any such security as

Chapter VI — Note 1

(1) Chapter VI does not purport to provide for contracts in respect of immovable property. The manner of executing contracts is specially provided for by Chapter VII which applies equally to movable and immovable properties. ('57) AIR 1957 Andh Pra 859 (861).

(1) The Indian Legislature had power under the Devolution Rules, 1920, to legislate with respect to cantonments and with respect to criminal law. The latter power included a power to legislate with respect to the destination of fines imposed for breaches of the criminal law. If therefore the Indian Legislature chose to legislate as regards any Courts of criminal jurisdiction in a Province, including the Courts in cantonment areas, such legislation would prevail over any provincial legislation with respect to the administration of justice within the Province. A suit was instituted by the United Provinces against the Central Government for a declaration that S. 106 (c) was ultra vires the then Legislature and all fines imposed and realised by criminal Courts for offences committed within the cantonment areas should be credited to the provincial revenues and that the Untied Provinces were entitled to recover and adjust all sums wrongly credited to the cantonment funds since 1924. It was held (i) that the Untied Provinces were not entitled to a declaration that Provisions of Section 106 (c) were ultra vires; (ii) that Section 106 (c) was a law in force immediately before the commencement of Part III of the Government of India Act, 1935, and under the India and Burma (Transitory Provisions) Order 1937, such fines credited to the cantonment funds must be deemed not to form part of the revenues of the United Provisions till 31st March 1939; and (iii) that as Section 106 (c) has been deleted under the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, all such fines should be credited to the provincial revenues from 1st April 1939. [d] Now the State Bank of India.

PROPERTY

108. Property.—Subject to any special reservation made by the [a][Central Government] [b][° ° °], all property of the nature hereinafter in this section specified which has been acquired or provided or is maintained by a [c][Board] shall vest in and belong to that [c][Board] and shall be under its direction, management and control, that is to say,—

(a) all markets, slaughter-houses, manure and night-soil depots, and buildings of every description;

(b) all waterworks for the supply, storage or distribution of water for public purposes and all bridges, buildings, engines, materials and things connected therewith or appertaining thereto;

(c) all sewers, drains, culverts and water-courses, and all works, materials and things appertaining thereto;

(d) all dust, dirt, dung, ashes, refuse, animal matter, filth and rubbish of every kind, and dead bodies of animals collected by the [c][Board] from the streets, houses, privies, sewers, cesspools, or elsewhere, or deposited in places appointed by the [c][Board] for such purpose;

(e) all lamps and lamp-posts and apparatus connected therewith or appertaining thereto;

(f) all land or other property transferred to the [c][Board] [d][by the Central or a State Government], or by gift, purchase or otherwise for local public purposes; and

(g) all streets and the pavements, stones and other materials thereof, and also al ltrees, erections, materials, implements, and things existing on or appertaining to streets.

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "Governor-General in Council".

[b] The words "or the Local Government" were repealed by A.O., 1937.

[c] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

(1) Rule 4 of the Cantonment Administration Rules shows that land is classified as land which vests in the Crown and land which vests in the Board, and in the latter class is land which is vested in the Board under Section 108 and it is called class "C" land. By Rule 9, the management of this land is also vested in the Board so that the Board has both the ownership as well as the management and therefore, a suit for injunction restraining the Board from demolishing the structure built by the plaintiff on the alleged public street can only be filed against the Board and not against the Central Government. ('47) AIR 1947 All 243 (244).

(2) A combined reading of Sections 108 and 111 indicates that markets vest in and belong to the Board and the Board can lease the said markets in accordance with the statutory rules prescribed under Section 111. In discharging the statutory functions (regarding markets) the Board does not function as agent of Government. ('57) AIR 1957 Andh Pra 859 (860).

(3) If a person constructs a platform on a drain belonging to Board so as to provide ingress and egress to his house, he does not become owner thereof but he at least enjoys a right of its user unobstructed by any person except within certain limits prescribed by the Board and if any third person interferes in the exercise thereof, he has good possessory title to eject such a trespasser. (1954) 56 Punj LR 985 (988) (DB).

(4) As to ownership of land situated in a Cantonment, See Notes on Section 8.

109. Application of cantonment fund and property.—The cantonment fund and all property vested in a [a][Board] shall be applied for the purposes, whether express or implied, for which, by or under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, powers are conferred or duties or obligations are imposed upon the [a][Board]:

Provided that the [a][Board] shall not incur any expenditure for acquiring or renting land beyond the limits of the cantonment or for constructing any work beyond such limits except—

(a) with the sanction of the [c][Central Government], and

(b) on such terms and conditions as the [c][Central Government] may impose:

Provided, further, that priority shall be given in the order hereinafter set forth to the following liabilities and obligations of a [a][Board], that is to say,—

(a) to the liabilities and obligations arising from a trust legally imposed upon or accepted by the [a][Board];

(b) to the repayment of, and the payment of interest on, any loan incurred under the provisions of the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914;

(c) to the payment of establishment charges;

(d) to the payment of such expenses on account of pauper lunatics sent from the cantonment to public lunatic asylums and mental hospitals as the [c][Central Government] directs the [a][Board] to pay; and

(e) to the payment of any sum the payment of which is expressly required by the provisions of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder.

110. Acquisition of immovable property.—When there is any hindrance to the permanent or temporary acquisition upon payment of any land required by a [a][Board] for the purposes of this Act, the [c][Central Government] may, at the request of the [a][Board], [b][procure the acquisition thereof] under the provisions of the Land Acsuisition Act, 1894, and on payment by the [a][Board] of the compensation awarded under that Act and of the charges incurred by the Government in connection with the proceedings, the land shall vest in the [a][Board].

[b] Substituted by A. O., 1937, for "proceed to acquire it".

111. Power to make rules regarding cantonment fund and property.—The [a][Central Government] may make rules[b] consistent with this Act to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the conditions on which property may be acquired by [c][Boards] or on which property vested in a [d][Board] may be transferred by sale, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise; and

(b) any other matter relating to the cantonment fund or cantonment property in respect of which no provisions or insufficient provision is made by or under this Act, and provision is, in the opinion of the [a][Central Government], necessary.

[b] For the "Cantonment Property Rules, 1925, made under this section, see General Rules and Orders, Vol. V, page 467.

Section 109 — Note 1

(1) This Section includes among the payments to which priority must be given by a Board the payment of expenses on account of pauper lunaties sent from Cantonments to public asylums to such extent as the Central Government may direct — See the Report of the Select Committee.

Section 111 — Note 1

(1) A combined reading of Sections 108(a) and 111 indicates that markets vest in and belong to the Board and the Board can lease the said markets in accordance with the statutory rules prescribed under Section 111. [c] The words "as if the animal had been found straying," were omitted, ibid.

Dogs

119. Registration and control of dogs.—(1) A [a][Board] may make bye-laws to provide for the registration of all dogs kept within the cantonment.

(2) Such bye-laws shall—

(a) require the registration, by the Officer Commanding each military unit, of all dogs kept in the lines occupied by that unit;

(b) require that every registered dog shall wear a collar to which shall be attached a metal token to be issued by the registration authority, and fix the fee payable for the issue thereof;

(c) require that any dog which has not been registered or which is not wearing such token shall, if found in any public place, be detained at a place set apart for the purpose; and

(d) fix the fee which shall be charged for such detention and provide that any such dog shall be liable to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of unless it is claimed and the fee in respect thereof is paid within one week; and may provide for such other matters as the [a][Board] thinks fit.

(3) A [a][Board] may—

(a) cause to be destroyed, or to be confined for such period as [b][it] may direct, any dog or other animal which is, or is reasonably suspected to be, suffering from rabies; or which has been bitten by any dog or other animal suffering or suspected to be suffering from rabies;

(b) by public notice direct that, after such date as may be specified in the notice, dogs which are without collars or without marks distinguishing them as private property and are found straying on the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of their owners, if any, may be destroyed, and cause them to be destroyed accordingly.

(4) No damages shall be payable in respect of any dog or other animal destroyed or otherwise disposed of under this section.

(5) Whoever, being the owner or person in charge of any dog, neglects to restrain it so that it shall not be at large in any street without being muzzled and without being secured by a chain lead in any case in which—

(a) he knows that the dog is likely to annoy or intimidate any person, or

(b) the [a][Board] has, by public notice during the prevalence of rabies, directed that dogs shall not be at large without muzzles and chain leads.

shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(6) Whoever in a cantonment —

(a) allows any ferocious dog which belongs to him or is in his charge to be at large without being muzzled, or

(b) sets on or urges any dog or other animal to attack, worry or intimidate any person, or shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

(c) knowing or having reason to believe that any dog or animal belonging to him or in his charge has been bitten by an animal suffering or reasonably suspected to be suffering from rabies, neglects to give immediate information of the fact to the Executive Officer or gives information which is false.

[b] Substituted for "that Authority" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1939 (34 of 1939), S. 2 and Schedule I. (28-9-1939).

Traffic.

120. Rule of the road.—Whoever in driving, leading or propelling a vehicle along a street fails except in a case of actual necessity,—

(a) to keep to the left when passing a vehicle coming from the opposite direction, or

(b) to keep to the right when passing a vehicle going in the same direction as himself, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Prevention of Fire, etc.

121. Use of inflammable materials for building purposes.—(1) A [a][Board] may by public notice, direct that within such limits in the cantonment as may be specified in the notice, the roofs and external walls of huts or other buildings shall not, without the permission in writing of the [a][Board], be made or renewed of grass, mats, leaves or other inflammable materials, and may, by notice in writing require any person who has disobeyed any such direction as aforesaid to remove or alter the roofs or walls so made or renewed.

(2) A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner of any building in the cantonment which has an external roof or wall made of any such material as aforesaid to remove such roof or wall within such time as may be specified in the notice, notwithstanding that a public notice under sub-section (1) has not been issued or that such roof or wall was made with the consent of the [a][Board] or before the issue of such public notice:

Provided that, in the case of any such proof or wall in existence before the issue of such a public notice or made with the consent of the [a][Board], that Authority[b] shall make compensation, not exceeding the original cost of constructing the roof or wall, for any damage caused by the removal.

[a] Substituted by S. 69 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936) for "Cantonment Authority."

[b] Sic. The reference is obviously to the Board.

122. Stacking or collecting inflammable materials.—A [a][Board] may, by public notice, prohibit in any case where such prohibition appears to it to be necessary for the prevention of danger to life or property, the stacking or collecting of wood, dry grass, straw or other inflammable materials, or the placing of mats or thatched huts or the lighting of fires in any place in the cantonment, within any limits therein, which may be specified in the notice.

123. Care of naked lights.—No person shall set a naked light on or near any building in any street or other public place in a cantonment in such manner as to cause danger of fire:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the use, subject to the permission in writing of the [a][Board], of lights for purposes of illumination on the occasion of a festival or public or private entertainment.

124. Regulation of cinematographic and dramatic performances.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Cinematograph Act, 1918, no exhibition of pictures or other optical effects by means of a cinematograph or other like apparatus for the purpose of which inflammable films are used, and no public dramatic performance or pantomime, shall be given in any cantonment elsewhere than in premises for which a licence has been granted by the [a][Board] under this section.

(2) If the owner of a cinematograph or other apparatus uses the apparatus or allows it to be used, or if any person takes any part in any public dramatic performance or pantomime, in contravention of the provisions of this section, or if the occupier of any premises allows them to be used in contravention of the provisions of this section or of any condition of any licence granted under this section, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to fifty rupees for each day after the first during which the offence continues.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the giving of any exhibition or any dramatic performance or pantomime in any theatre or institute which is the property of [a][the Government] where the exhibition, performance or pantomime is held with the permission and under the control of the military authorities.

125. Discharging fireworks, fire-arms, etc.—Whoever in a cantonment discharges any fire-arm or lets off fire-works or fire-balloons, or engages in any game in such manner as to cause or to be likely to cause danger to persons passing by or dwelling or working in the neighbourhood or risk of injury to property shall be liable to fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

126. Power to require buildings, wells etc., to be rendered safe.—Where in a cantonment any building or wall, or anything affixed thereto, or any well, tank, reservoir, pool, depression, or excavation, or any bank or tree, is in the opinion of the [a][Board], [b][in a ruinous state or], for want of sufficient repairs, protection or enclosure, [b][a nuisance or] dangerous to persons passing by or dwelling or working in the neighbourhood, the [a][Board] [c][by notice in writing may], require the owner [d][or part-owner or person claiming to be the owner or part-owner thereof, or, fail-

(1) Section 126 clearly lays down two conditions, on the fulfilment of either of which a building may be ordered to be removed: (1) it must be in ruinous state, or (2) for want of sufficient repairs, protection or enclosure it is nuisance or dangerous to persons passing by or dwelling or working in the neighbourhood; in the cases falling under the first category, it is not necessary to show affirmatively that it portended danger to human beings. In the cases falling under the second category, it must further be shown that it was a nuisance or dangerous to persons. ('58) AIR 1958 Pat 71 (73) (DB).

(2) There was a conflict of opinion as to whether Section 126 requires the Board to give, to the owner of property in regard to which action is taken under the section, an option whether to remove the same or to repair it or whether the Board can require the removal without such option. The amendment made to section in 1944 now sets the conflict at rest by establishing the latter view.

(3) Option to determine question whether the building is in a dangerous condition and whether the owner shall be required to remove or repair the same is an option given to the Board and not to the owner. ('19) AIR 1919 Bom 172 (173): 20 Cri L Jour 697.

(4) It is for the Board to consider whether in its opinion the building was in a ruinous state, and if the Board has formed the opinion that the building is in ruinous state, then in the absence of suffi-ing any of them, the occupier] thereof [e][to remove the same or may require him to repair], [f][or to protect or to enclose] the same in such manner as it thinks necessary, and, if the danger is, in the opinion of the [a][Board], imminent, it shall forthwith take such steps as it thinks necessary to avert the same.

[e] Substituted by S. 6 of Act 8 of 1944, for "either to remove the same or to repair".
[f] Substituted by Act 24 of 1936, S. 38, for "protect or enclose".

127. Enclosure of waste land used for improper purposes.—A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or part-owner, or person claiming to be the owner or part-owner, of any building or land in the cantonment, or the lessee or the person claiming to be the lessee of any such land, which, by reason of disuse or disputed ownership or other cause, has remained unoccupied and has become the resort of idle and disorderly persons or of persons who have no ostensible means of subsistence or cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves, or is used for gaming or immoral purposes, or otherwise occasions or is likely to occasion a nuisance, to secure and enclose the same within such time as may be specified in the notice.

Chapter X — Note 1

(1) As to the power of the Central Government to extend any of the provisions

tary condition, those parts of a cantonment, respectively, which are specified in the case of each, that is to say:—

(a) the [a][Officer Commanding the station]—all buildings and lands which are occupied or used for military purposes;

(b) the Officer Commanding the air forces in the cantonment—all buildings and lands which are occupied or used for air force purposes ;

(c) the head of any civil department or railway administration occupying as such any part of the cantonment—all buildings and lands in his charge as head of that department or administration.

129. General duties of Health Officer.—(1) The Health Officer shall exercise a general sanitary supervision over the whole cantonment, and shall submit monthly to the [a][Board] a report as to the sanitary condition of the cantonment, together with such recommendations in connection therewith as he thinks fit.

(2) The Assistant Health Officer shall perform such duties in connection with the sanitation of the cantonment as are, subject to the control of the [a][Board], allotted to him by the Health Officer.

Conservancy and Sanitation

130. Public latrines, urinals and conservancy establishments.—All public latrines and urinals provided or maintained by a [a][Board] shall be so constructed as to provide separate compartments for each sex and not to be a nuisance, and shall be provided with all necessary conservancy establishments, and shall regularly be cleansed and kept in proper order.

131. Power of Board to undertake private conservancy arrangements.—(1) On the application or with the consent of the occupier of any building or land, or, where the occupier of any building or land fails to make arrangements to the satisfaction of the [a][Board] for the matters referred to in this section, without such consent, and after giving notice in writing to the occupier, a [a][Board] may undertake the house scavenging of any building or land in the cantonment for such period as it thinks fit on such terms as it may prescribe in this behalf.

(2) The [a][Board] may, by public notice, issue directions as to the time at which, all matter removed in the performance of such duties shall be the property of the [b][Board].

(3) For the purposes of this section, "house scavenging" means the removal of filth or rubbish or other offensive matter from a privy, latrine, urinal, drain, cesspool, or other common receptacle for such matter.

[b] Substituted for the word "Authority" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1939 (34 of 1939), S. 2 and Sch. I (28-9-1939).

132. Deposit and disposal or rubbish, etc.—(1) Every [a][Board] shall provide or appoint, in proper and convenient situations, public receptacles, depots or places for the temporary deposit or disposal of household rubbish, offensive matter, carcases of dead animals and sewage.

(2) The [a][Board] may, by public notice, issue directions as to the time at which, the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, any matter referred to in sub-section (1) may be removed along a street or may be deposited or otherwise disposed of.

(3) All matter deposited in receptacles, depots or places provided or appointed under this section shall be the property of the [a][Board].

133. Cesspools, receptacles for filth, etc.—The Executive Officer of any cantonment may, by notice in writing,—

(a) require any person having the control whether as owner, lessee or occupier of any land or building in the cantonment—

(i) to close any cesspool appertaining to the land or building which is in the opinion of the Executive Officer, a nuisance, or

(ii) to keep in a clean condition, in such manner as may be prescribed by the notice, any receptacle for filth or sewage accumulating on the land or in the building, or

(iii) to prevent the water of any private latrine, urinal, sink or bath-room or any other offensive matter, from soaking, draining or flowing, or being put, from the land or building upon any street or other public place, or into any water-course or into any drain not intended for the purpose, or

(iv) to collect and deposit for removal by the conservancy establishment of the [a][Board], within such time and in such receptacle or place, situate at not more than one hundred feet from the nearest boundary of the premises, as may be specified in the notice, any offensive matter or rubbish which such person has allowed to accumulate or remain under, in or on such building or land; or

(b) require any person to desist from making or altering any drain leading into a public drain; or

(c) require any person having the control of a drain in the cantonment to cleanse, purify, repair or alter the same, or otherwise put it in good order, within such time as may be specified in the notice.

134. Filling up of tank, etc.—(1) Where any well, tank, cistern, reservoir, receptable, or other place in the cantonment where water is stored or accumulates, whether within any private enclosure or not, is in such a condition as to create a nuisance or, in the opinion of the Health Officer, or the Assistant Health Officer, is or is likely to be a breeding place for mosquitoes, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier thereof, within such period as may be specified in the notice, to fill up or cover the well, cistern, reservoir or receptacle, or to fill up the tank, or to drain off or remove the water, as the case may be.

(2) The [a][Board] may, if it thinks fit, with the previous sanction of the [b][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command], meet the whole or any portion of the expenses incurred in complying with a requisition under sub-section (1).

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 2, for "Officer Commanding the District".

135. Provision of latrines, etc.—A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or lessee of any building or land in the cantonment to provide, in such manner as may be specified in the notice, any latrine, urinal, cesspool, dust-bin or other receptacle for filth, sewage, or rubbish, or any additional latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle as aforesaid, which should, in his opinion, be provided for the building or land.

136. Sanitation in factories, etc.—Every person employing, whether on behalf of the Government or otherwise, more than ten workmen or labourers, and every person managing or having control of a market, school, theatre or other place of public resort, in a cantonment shall give notice of the fact to the [a][Board], and shall provide such latrine, and urinals, and shall employ such number of sweepers, as the [a][Board] thinks fit, and shall cause the latrines and urinals to be kept clean and in proper order.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply in the case of a factory to which the Indian Factories Act, 1911,[b] applies.

[b] See now the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948), Ch. III.

137. Private latrines.—A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing,—

(a) require the owner or other person having the control of any private latrine or urinal in the cantonment not to put the same to public use; or

(b) where any plan for the construction of private latrines or urinals has been approved by the [a][Board], and copies thereof may be obtained free of charge on application,—

(i) require any person repairing or constructing any private latrine or urinal not to allow the same to be used until it has been inspected by or under the direction of the Health Officer and approved by him as conforming with such plan; or

(ii) require any person having control of any private latrine or urinal to re-build or alter the same in accordance with such plan; or

(c) require the owner or other person having the control of any such private latrine or urinal which, in the opinion of the [a][Board], constitutes a nuisance, to remove the latrine or urinal; or

(d) require any person having the control whether as owner, lessee or occupier of any land or building in the cantonment—

(i) to have any latrines provided for the same shut out by a sufficient roof and wall or fence from the view of persons passing by or dwelling in the neighbourhood, or

(ii) to cleanse in such manner as the [a][Board] may specify in the notice any latrine or urinal belonging to the land or building;

(e) require any person being the owner and having the control of any drain in the cantonment to provide, within ten days from the service of the notice, such covering as may be specified in the notice.

138. Removal of congested buildings.—(1) Where it appears to a [a][Board] that any block of buildings in the cantonment is in an unhealthy condition by reason of the manner in which the buildings are crowded together, or of the narrowness or closeness of the street or of the want of proper drainage or ventilation, or of the impracticability of cleansing the buildings or other similar cause, it may cause the block to be inspected by a committee consisting of—

(a) the Health Officer,

Section 137 — Note 1

(1) As to whether all proceedings to enforce the order and all prosecutions for any contravention thereof shall be held in abeyance pending the decision of the appeal from an order under Section 137 (a), see Section 276.

(b) the Civil Surgeon of the district, or, if his services are not available some other Medical Officer [b][in the service of the [c][Government]],

(c) the Executive Engineer or a person deputed by the Executive Engineer in this behalf, and

[c][(d) where the cantonment is a Class I or Class II cantonment, two non-official members of the Board, or where the cantonment is a Class III cantonment, one non-official member of the Board.]

(2) The committee shall make a report in writing to the [a][Board] regarding the sanitary condition of the block, and if it considers that the condition thereof is likely to cause risk of disease to the inhabitants of the building or of the neighbourhood or otherwise to endanger the public health, it shall clearly indicate on a plan verified by the Executive Engineer or the person deputed by him to serve on the committee, the buildings which should in its opinion wholly or in part be removed in order to abate the unhealthy condition of the block.

(3) If, upon receipt of such report, the [a][Board] is of opinion that all or any buildings indicated should be removed, it may, by notice in writing, require the owners thereof to remove them:

Provided that the [a][Board] shall make compensation to the owners for any building so removed which have been erected under proper authority:

Provided, further, that the [a][Board] may, if it considers it equitable in the circumstances so to do, pay to the owners such sum as it thinks fit as compensation for any buildings so removed which have not been erected under proper authority.

(4) For the purposes of this section "buildings" includes enclosure walls and fences appertaining to buildings.

[b] Substituted by A. O., 1937, for "of the Government."

139. Overcrowding of dwelling houses.—(1) Where it appears to a [a][Board] that any building or part of a building in the cantonment which is used as a dwelling house is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, it may, after such inquiry as it thinks fit, by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of the building or part thereof, as the case may be, within such time not being less than one month as may be specified in the notice, to abate the overcrowding of the same by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants, or other inmates to such number as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Any person who fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with a requisition made upon him under sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, to an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the failure has continued.

140. Power to require repair or alteration of building.—(1) Where any building in a cantonment is so ill-constructed or dilapidated as to be, in the opinion of the [a][Board], in an insanitary state, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner within such time as may be specified in the notice, to execute such repairs or to make such alterations as it thinks necessary for the purpose of removing such defects.

---

Section 140 — Note 1

(1) As to whether all proceedings to enforce the order and all prosecutions for any contravention thereof shall be held in abeyance pending the decision of the appeal from an order under this section, see Section 276.

(2) A copy of every notice issued under sub-section (1) shall be conspicuously posted on the building to which it relates.

(3) A notice issued under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been complied with if the owner of the building to which it relates has, instead of executing the repairs or making the alterations directed by the notice, removed the building.

141. Power to require land or building to be cleansed.—(1) The Executive Officer may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier of any building or land in the cantonment, which appears to him to be in a filthy or insanitary state, within twenty-four hours to cleanse the same or otherwise put it in a proper state, in such manner as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If, within three months from the date of the service of a notice under sub-section (1), any building or land in respect of which the notice was issued is again in a filthy or insanitary state, the owner, lessee or occupier, as the case may be, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

142. Power to order disuse of house.—If a [a][Board] is satisfied that any building or part of a building in the cantonment which is intended for or used as a dwelling place is unfit for human habitation, it may cause a notice to be posted on some conspicuous part of the building prohibiting the owner or occupier thereof from using the building or room for human habitation, or allowing it to be so used, until it has been rendered fit for such use to the satisfaction of the [a][Board].

143. Removal of noxious vegetation.—A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee, or occupier of any land in the cantonment to clear away and remove any thick or noxious vegetation or undergrowth, which appears to it to be injurious to health or offensive to persons residing in the neighbourhood.

144. Agriculture and irrigation.—Where, in the opinion of a [a][Board], the cultivation in the cantonment of any description of crop or the use therein of any kind of manure or the irrigation of any land therein in any specified manner is likely to be injurious to the health of persons dwelling in the neighbourhood, the [a][Board] may, by public notice, prohibit such cultivation, use or irrigation after such date as may be specified in the notice, or may, by a like notice, direct that it shall be carried out subject to such conditions as the [a][Board] thinks fit:

Provided that if, when a notice is issued under this section, any land to which it relates has been lawfully prepared for cultivation or any crop is sown therein or is standing thereon, the [a][Board] shall, if it directs that the notice is to take effect on a date earlier than that by which the crop would ordinarily be sown or reaped as the case may be, make compensation to all persons interest-

(1) The use of the word "again" suggests that the offence contemplated in sub-section (2) is a recurring and not a continuing offence. Hence, where a person fails to comply with notice under Section 141 (1) he cannot be prosecuted under Sec. 141 (2). He can be dealt with under Section 141 (1) read with Section 268 and in case of a continuing failure to comply with it he is liable to an additional fine. ed in the land or crop for the loss, if any, incurred by them respectively by reason of compliance with the notice.

Burial and Burning Grounds

145. Power to call for information regarding burial and burning grounds.— A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or person in charge of any burial or burning ground in the cantonment to supply such information as may be specified in the notice concerning the condition, management or position of such ground.

146. Permission for use of new burial or burning ground.—(1) No place in a cantonment which has not been used as a burial or burning ground before the commencement of this Act shall be so used without the permission in writing of the [a][Board].

(2) Such permission may be granted subject to any conditions which the [a][Board] thinks fit to impose for the purpose of preventing annoyance to, or danger to the health of, persons residing in the neighbourhood.

147. Power to require closing of burial or burning ground.—(1) Where a [a][Board], after making or causing to be made local inquiry, is of opinion that any burial or burning ground in the cantonment has become offensive to, or dangerous to the health of, persons living in the neighbourhood, it may, with the previous sanction of the [c][Central Government], by virtue in writing, require the owner or person in charge of such ground to close the same from such date as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Where the [c][Central Government] sanctions the issue of any notice under sub-section (1), it shall declare the conditions on which the burial or burning ground may be re-opened, and a copy of such declaration shall be annexed to the notice.

(3) Where the [c][Central Government] sanctions the issue of any such notice, it shall require a new burial or burning ground to be provided at the expense of the cantonment fund, or, if the community concerned is willing to provide a new burial or burning ground, the [c][Central Government] shall require a grant to be made from the cantonment fund towards the cost of the same.

(4) No corpse shall be buried or burnt in any burial or burning ground in respect of which a notice issued under this section is for the time being in force.

148. Exemption from operation of sections 145 to 147.—The provisions of sections 145, 146 and 147 shall not apply in the case of any burial ground which is for the time being managed by or on behalf of the Government.

149. Removal of corpses.—A [a][Board] may, by public notice, prescribe routes in the cantonment by which alone corpses may be removed to burial or burning grounds.

PREVENTION OF INFECTIOUS OR CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

150. Obligation to give information of infectious or contagious diseases.—[a][Any person], being in charge of, or in attendance, whether as a medical practitioner or otherwise, upon any person in a cantonment whom he knows or has reason to believe to be suffering from a contagious or infectious disease, or being the owner, lessee or occupier of any building in a cantonment in which he knows that any such person is so suffering, shall, if he fails to give information, or if he gives false information, to the [b][Board] respecting the existence of such disease, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees:

Provided that no person shall be punishable under this section for failure to give information if he had reasonable cause to believe that the information had already been duly given:

Provided, further, that this section shall not apply in the case of venereal disease where the person suffering therefrom is under specific and adequate medical treatment and is, by reason of his habits and conditions of life and residence, unlikely to spread the disease.

[a] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1930 (8 of 1930), S. 2 and Sch. I, for "Whoever".

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

151. Special measures in case of outbreak of infectious or epidemic diseases.—(1) In the event of a cantonment being visited or threatened by an outbreak of any infectious or contagious disease among the inhabitants thereof or of any epidemic disease among any animals therein, the [a][Officer Commanding in-Chief, the Command], if he thinks that the provisions of this Act or of any law for the time being in force in the cantonment are insufficient for the purpose, may, with the previous santion of the [b][Central Government],—

(a) take such special measures, and

(b) by public notice, make such temporary regulations to be observed by the public or by any class or section of the public, as he thinks necessary to prevent the outbreak or the spread of the disease:

Provided that, where in the opinion of the [a][Offier Commanding-in-Chief, the Command], immediate measures are necessary, he may take action without such sanction as aforesaid and, if he does so, shall forthwith report such action to the [b][Central Government].

(2) Whoever commits a braech of any temporary regulation made under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 188 of the Indian Penal Code.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 2, for "Officer Commanding the district".

152. Power to require names of dairyman's customers.—Where it is certified to the Eexcutive Officer by a medical practitioner that the outbreak or spread of any infectious or contagious disease in the cantonment is, in the opinion of such medical practitioner, attributable to the milk supplied by any dairyman, the Executive Officer may, by notice in writing, require the dairyman, within such time as may be specified in the notice, to furnish him with a full and complete list of the names and addresses of all his customers within the cantonment, or to give him such information as will enable him to trace the persons to whom the dairyman has sold milk.

(1) Power is given under this section to the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, to take emergent measures for the prevention of the spread of disease in cases of extreme urgency without having to wait for the previous sanction of the Central Government. — See the Report of the Select Committee.

153. Power to require names of a washerman's customers.—Where it is certified to the Executive Officer by the Health Officer that it is desirable, with a view to prevent the spread of any infectious or contagious disease in the cantonment, that the Health Officer should be furnished with a list of the customers of any washerman, the Executive Officer may, by notice in writing, require the washerman, within a time to be specified in the notice, to furnish the Health Officer with a full and complete list of the names and addresses of all owners within the cantonment of clothes and other articles which the washerman washes or has washed during the six weeks immediately preceding the date of the notice.

154. Report after inspection of dairy or washerman's place of business.—Where, after inspection, the Health Officer is of opinion that any infectious or contagious disease is caused or is likely to arise in the cantonment from the consumption of the milk supplied from a dairy or from the washing of clothes or other articles in any place, or from any process employed by a washerman, he shall report the matter to the Executive Officer.

155. Action on report submitted by Health Officer.—Upon receipt of a report submitted by the Health Officer under Section 154, the Executive Officer may, by notice in writing,—

(a) prohibit the supply of milk from the dairy until the notice has been withdrawn; or

(b) prohibit the washerman from washing clothes or other articles in any such place or by any such process as aforesaid until the notice has been withdrawn or unless he uses such place in such manner, or washes by such process, as the Executive Officer may direct in the notice.

156. Examination of milk or washed clothes.—The Health Officer may take possession of any milk, clothes or other articles which are or have recently been in the possession of any dairyman on whom a notice has been served under section 152, or of any clothes or other articles which are or have recently been in the possession of any washerman, on whom a notice has been served under section 153, and may subject the same or cause the same to be subjected to such chemical or other process as he may think necessary; and the [a][Board] shall pay from the cantonment fund all the costs of the process and shall also pay to the owner of the milk, clothes or [b][other] articles such sum as compensation for any loss occasioned by such process as may appear to it to be reasonable.

[b] Substituted by the Repealing and Amendment Act, 1930 (8 of 1930), S. 2 and Sch. I for "their".

157. Contamination of public conveyance.—Whoever in a cantonment—

(a) uses a public conveyance while suffering from an infectious or contagious disease, or

(b) uses a public conveyance for the carriage of a person who is suffering from any such disease, or

(c) uses a public conveyance for the carriage of the corpse of a person who has died from any such disease, shall be bound to take proper precautions against the communication of the disease to other persons using or who may thereafter use the conveyance and to notify such use to the owner, driver or person in charge of the conveyance, and further to report without delay to the Executive Officer the number of the conveyance and the name of the person so notified.

158. Disinfection of public conveyance.—(1) Where any person suffering from, or the corpse of any person who has died from, an infectious or contagious disease has been carried in a public conveyance which ordinarily plies in a cantonment, the driver thereof shall forthwith report the fact to the Executive Officer who shall forthwith cause the conveyance to be disinfected if that has not already been done.

(2) No such conveyance shall be brought again into use until the Executive Officer has granted a certificate stating that it can be used without causing risk of infection.

159. Penalty for failure to report.—Whoever fails to make to the Executive Officer any report which he is required to make by section 157 or section 158, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

160. Driver of conveyance not bound to carry person suffering from infectious or contagious disease.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no owner, driver or person in charge of a public conveyance shall be bound to convey or to allow to be conveyed in such conveyance in or in the vicinity of a cantonment any person suffering from an infectious or contagious disease or the corpse of any person who has died from such disease unless and until such person pays or tenders a sum sufficient to cover any loss and expense which would ordinarily be incurred in disinfecting the conveyance.

161. Disinfection of building or articles therein.—Where a [a][Board] is upon the advice of the Health Officer, of opinion that the cleansing and disinfection of any building or part of a building in the cantonment or of any articles in any such building or part which are likely to retain infection, or the renewal of the flooring of any such building or part of such building would tend to prevent or check the spread of any infectious or contagious disease, [b][the Board may], by notice in writing, require the owner or occupier to cleanse and disinfect the said building, part or articles, as the case may be, or to renew the said flooring, within such time as may be specified in the notice:

Provided that where, in the opinion of the [a][Board], the owner or occupier is from poverty or any other cause unable effectually to carry out any such requisition, the [a][Board] may, at the expense of the cantonment fund, cleanse and disinfect the building, part or articles, or, as the case may be, renew the flooring.

162. Destruction of infectious hut or shed.—(1) Where the destruction of any hut or shed in a cantonment is, in the opinion of the [a][Board], necessary to prevent the spread of any infectious or contagious disease, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner to destroy the hut, or shed and the materials thereof within such time as may be specified in the notice

(2) Where the President of a Board [b][* * *] is satisfied that the destruction of any hut or shed in the cantonment is immediately necessary for the purpose of preventing the spread of any infectious or contagious disease, he may order the owner or occupier of the hut or shed to destroy the same forthwith, or may himself cause it to be destroyed after giving not less than two hours' notice to the owner or occupier thereof.

(3) The [a][Board] shall pay compensation to the owner of any hut or shed destroyed under this section.

[b] The words "or, where there is no Board, the Officer Commanding the station" were repealed by S. 40, ibid.

163. Temporary shelter for inmates of disinfected or destroyed building or shed.—The [a][Board] shall provide free of charge temporary shelter or house accommodation for the members of any family in which an infectious or contagious disease has appeared who have been compelled to leave their dwelling by reason of any proceedings taken under section 161 or section 162, and who desire such shelter or accommodation as aforesaid to be provided for them.

164. Disinfection of building before letting the same.—(1) Where in a cantonment any building or part of a building is intended to be let in which any person has, within the six weeks immediately preceding, been suffering from an infectious or contagious disease, the person letting the building or part shall before doing so disinfect the same in such manner as the [a][Board] may, by public or special notice, direct, together with all articles therein liable to retain infection.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the keeper of an hotel, lodging house or sarai shall be deemed to let to any person who is admitted as a guest therein that part of the building in which such person is permitted to reside.

165. Disposal of infected article without disinfection.—No person shall, without disinfection of the same, give, lend, sell, transmit or otherwise dispose of to another person any article or thing which he knows or has reason to believe has been exposed to contamination by any infectious or contagious disease and is likely to be used in, or taken into, a cantonment.

166. Means of disinfection.—(1) Every [a][Board] shall—

(a) provide proper places with necessary attendants and apparatus for the disinfection of conveyances, clothing, bedding or other articles which have been exposed to infection;

(b) cause conveyances, clothing or other articles brought for disinfection to be disinfected either free of charge or on payment of such charges as it may fix.

(2) A [a][Board] may notify places at which articles of clothing, bedding, conveyances or other articles which have been exposed to infection shall be washed, and, if it does so, no person shall wash any such thing at any place not so notified without having previously disinfected such thing.

(3) The President of a Board [b][* * *] may direct the destruction of any clothing, bedding or other article in the cantonment likely to retain infection, and may give such compensation as he thinks fit for any article so destroyed.

[b] The words "or, where there is no Board, the Officer Commanding the station" were repealed by S. 41, ibid.

167. Making or selling of food etc., or washing clothes by infected person.—Whoever, while suffering from, or in circumstances in which he is likely to spread, any infectious or contagious disease,—

(a) makes, carries or offers for sale in a cantonment or takes any part in the business of making, carrying or offering for sale therein any article of food or drink or any medicine or drug for human consumption, or any article of clothing or bedding for personal use or wear, or

(b) takes any part in the business of the washing or carrying of clothes, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

168. Power to restrict or prohibit sale of food or drink.—When a cantonment is visited or threatened by an outbreak of any infectious or contagious disease, the [a][Board] may, by public notice, restrict in such manner or prohibit for such period, as may be specified in the notice, the sale or preparation of any article of food or drink for human consumption specified in the notice or the sale of any flesh of any description of animals so specified.

169. Control over wells, tanks, etc.—(1) If a [a][Board] is of opinion that the water in any well, tank or other place is likely, if used for drinking, to engender, or cause the spread of, any disease, it may,—

(a) by public notice, prohibit the removal or use of such water for drinking;

(b) by notice in writing, require the owner or person having control of such well, tank or place to take such steps as may be directed by the notice to prevent the public from having access to or using such water; or

(c) take such other steps as it may consider expedient to prevent the outbreak or spread of any such disease.

(2) In the event of a cantonment or any part of a cantonment being visited or threatened by an outbreak of any infectious or contagious disease, the Health Officer or any person authorised by him in this behalf may, without notice and at any time, inspect and disinfect any well, tank or other place from which water is, or is likely to be, taken for the purposes of drinking, and may further take such steps as he thinks fit to ensure the purity of the water or to prevent the use of the same for drinking purposes.

170. Disposal of infectious corpse.—Where any person has died in a cantonment from any infectious or contagious disease, the Executive Officer may, by notice in writing,—

(a) require any person having charge of the corpse to convey the same to a mortuary, thereafter to be disposed of in accordance with law; or

(b) prohibit the removal of the corpse from the place where death occurred except for the purpose of being buried or burned or of being conveyed to a mortuary.

HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES

171. Maintenance or aiding of hospitals or dispensaries.—(1) A [a][Board] may—

(a) provide and maintain either within or without the cantonment as many hospitals and dispensaries as it thinks fit; or

(b) make, upon such terms as it thinks fit to impose, a grant-in-aid to any hospital or dispensary [b][or veterinary hospital], whether within or without the cantonment, not maintained by it.

(2) Every hospital or dispensary maintained or aided under sub-section (1) shall have attached to it a ward or wards for the treatment of persons suffering from infectious or contagious disease.

(3) A medical officer, appointed in such manner as the [a][Central Government] may direct, shall be in charge of every hospital or dispensary maintained or aided under this section.

[a] Substituted by S. 69 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936) for "Cantonment Authority".

[b] Inserted by S. 42, ibid.

172. Medical supplies, appliances, etc.—(1) Every hospital or dispensary maintained or aided under Section 171 shall be maintained in accordance with any general or special orders of the [a][Central Government] [b][* * ] for the conduct of hospitals and dispensaries or in accordance with the said orders modified in such manner as the [a][Central Government] [b][ * ] [c][ * *], thinks fit.

(2) The [d][Board] shall cause every such hospital or dispensary to be provided with all requisite drugs, instruments, apparatus, furniture and appliances and with sufficient cots, bedding and clothing for in-patients.

[a] Substituted by A. O., for "Governor-General in Council".
[b] The words "or the local Government" were repealed by A. O.
[c] The words "as the case may be" were repealed by A. O.
[d] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

173. Free patients.—At every hospital or dispensary maintained or aided under section 171, the sick poor of the cantonment and other inhabitants of the cantonment suffering from infectious or contagious diseases, and, with the sanction of the [a][Board], any other sick persons, may receive medical [b][or surgical] treatment free of costs, and, if treated as in-patients, shall be either dieted gratuitously or, if the medical officer in charge so directs, shall be granted subsistence allowance on such scale as the [a][Board] may fix:

Provided that the subsistence allowance shall not be less than the lowest allowance for the time being fixed for the subsistence of judgment-debtors by the [c][State Government] under section 57 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

[b] Inserted by S. 43, ibid.

174. Paying patients.—Any sick person who is ineligible to receive medical [a][or surgical] treatment free of costs in any hospital or dispensary under section 173 may be admitted to treatment therein upon such terms as the [b][Board] thinks fit.

[a] Inserted by S. 44 of the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936).

175. Power to order person to attend hospital or dispensary.—(1) If the Health Officer or the medical officer in charge of a hospital or dispensary maintained or aided under section 171 has reason to believe that any person living in the cantonment is suffering from an infectious or contagious disease, he may, by notice in writing, call upon such person to attend for examination at any such hospital or dispensary at such time as may be specified in the notice and not to quit it without the permission of the medical officer in charge; and, on the arrival of such person at the hospital or dispensary, the medical officer in charge thereof may examine him for the purpose of satisfying himself whether or not such person is suffering from an infectious or contagious disease:

Provided that, if, having regard to the nature of the disease or the condition of the person suffering therefrom, or the general environment and circumstances of such person, the Health Officer or medical officer, as the case may be, considers that the attendance of such person at a hospital or dispensary is likely to prove unnecessary or inexpedient, he shall examine such person at such person's own residence.

(2) If any person, on examination under sub-section (1), is found to be suffering from an infectious or contagious disease, the Health Officer or medical officer

Section 175 — Note 1

(1) We have, to a large extent, remodelled this clause in order to provide that, in the case of persons whose circumstances are such as to allow of their satisfactory segregation in their own houses, the Medical Officer concerned shall make the medical examination at their private residences and shall not subsequently require their detention in hospital. We further think that the Health Officer of a cantonment, as well as the Medical Officer-in-Charge of Cantonment hospitals, should be able to exercise the power conferred by this clause". — Select Committee Report.

as the case may be, may cause him to be detained in hospital until he is free from the infection or contagion:

Provided that if, having regard to the nature of the disease or the condition of the person suffering therefrom, or the general environment and circumstances of such person, he considers that the detention of such person at a hospital or dispensary is unnecessary or inexpedient, he shall discharge such person and take such measures or give such directions in the matter as he thinks necessary.

176. Power to exclude from cantonment persons refusing to attend hospital or dispensary.—(1) If the Health Officer or the medical officer in charge of a hospital or dispensary maintained or aided under Section 171 reports in writing to the [a][Officer Commanding the station] that any person having received a notice under Sec. 175 has refused or omitted to attend at the hospital or dispensary, specified in the notice, or that such person, having attended the hospital or dispensary, has quitted it without the permission of such medical officer, or that any person has failed to comply with any direction given to him under section 175, the [a][Officer Commanding the station] may, by order in writing, direct such person to remove from the cantonment within twenty-four hours and not to re-enter it without his permission in writing.

(2) No person who has under sub-section (1) been ordered to remove from and not to re-enter a cantonment shall enter any other cantonment [b][* *] without the written permission of the [c][Officer Commanding the station].

[b] The words "in the Provinces" were omitted by A.L.O., 1950.

[c] Substituted for S. 8, ibid, for "Commanding Officer of that Cantonment".

CONTROL OF TRAFFIC FOR HYGIENIC PURPOSES

177. Routes for pilgrims and others.—(1) A [a][Board] may provide or prescribe suitable routes for the use of persons passing through the cantonment—

(a) on their way to or from fairs or places of pilgrimage or other places of public resort; or

(b) during times when an infectious or contagious disease is prevalent; and may, by public notice, require such persons as aforesaid to use such routes and no others.

(2) All routes provided or prescribed under sub-section (1) shall be clearly and sufficiently indicated by the [a][Board].

SPECIAL CONDITIONS REGARDING ESSENTIAL SERVICES

178. Conditions of service of sweepers.—(1) Whoever, being a sweeper employed by a [a][Board] in the absence of a written contract authorising him so to do and without reasonable cause, resigns his employment or absents hismelf from his duty without having given one month's notice to the [a][Board], or neglects or refuses to perform his duties, or any of them, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to one month.

(2) The [b][Central Government] may, by notification in the [b][Official Gazette] direct that on and from such date as may be specified in the notification, the provisions of this section shall apply in the case of any specified class of servants employed by a [a][Board] whose functions intimately concern the public health or safety.

(1) As to whether all proceedings to enforce the order and all prosecutions for any contravention thereof shall be held in abeyance pending the decision of the appeal from an order under this section, see Section 276.

(3) For the purpose of this section, "sweeper" includes any menial servant employed by a [a][Board] in the removal or disposal of filth or rubbish.

CHAPTER XI

CONTROL OVER BUILDINGS, STREETS, BOUNDARIES, TREES, ETC.

Buildings

[a][178A. Sanction for building.—No person shall erect or re-erect a building on any land in a cantonment, except with the previous sanction of the Board, nor otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and of the rules and bye-laws made under this Act relating to the erection and re-erection of buildings.]

[a] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 45.

179. Notice of new buildings.—(1) Whoever intends to erect or re-erect any building in a cantonment shall [a][apply for sanction by giving notice] in writing of his intention to the [b][Board].

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be deemed to erect or re-erect a building who—

(a) makes any material alteration or enlargement of any building, or

(b) converts into a place for human habitation any building not originally constructed for that purpose, or

(c) converts into more than one place for human habitation a building originally constructed as one such place, or

(d) converts two or more places of human habitation into a greater number of such places, or

(e) converts into a stable, cattle-shed or cowhouse any building originally constructed for human habitation, or

(f) makes any alteration which there is reason to believe is likely to affect prejudicially the stability or safety of any building or the condition of any building in respect of drainage, sanitation or hygiene, or

(g) makes any alteration to any building which increases or diminishes the height of, or area covered by, or the cubic capacity of, the building,

Chapter XI — Note 1

(1) As to the power of the Central Government to extend any of the provisions of Chapter XI to any area beyond a cantonment and in the vicinity thereof, see Section 286.

Section 179 — Note 1

(1) Sub-sections (1) and (2) deal with matters of general nature which have to be borne in mind by the Board while granting or refusing sanction. There is no force in the contention that if sanction may not be refused under sub-sections (1) and (2) it cannot be refused under sub-section (4). Nor can it be urged that the dispute contemplated by Clause (b) of sub-section (4) must exist at the time the notice under Section 179 is given. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (88): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB)

(2) A constructed a building on land situated within cantonment which he held as a licensee from Government. The land was resumable by Government after one month's notice. A mortgaged the building along with the land to B. A's widow who had a share in the mortgaged property sold it to B. Thereafter on various occasions B applied to the Government describing himself as owner of the building for making additions and alterations to the building. On each occasion sanction was granted and before granting sanction notices and proclamations required by the Act were issued. In 1934, B obtained a lease of the vacant site forming part of mortgaged land from the Government and built a cinema there. Held that the lease of 1934 was valid. ('47) AIR 1947 PC 99 (105): ILR (1947) Lah 399: ILR (1947) Kar (PC) 203.

(3) Though it is true that in replacing a roof with R. C. C. slab and replacing the tin sheets constituting a wall of the kitchen with a brick wall, alterations are effected which would normally add to the comforts and safety of the residents and that the new construction is more lasting and substantial, they do not amount to any material alteration under Section 179 (2) (a). AIR 1961 All 263 (265); 1960 All LJ 956.

or which reduces the cubic capacity of any room in the building below the minimum prescribed by any bye-law made under this Act.

180. Conditions of valid notice.—(1) A person giving the notice required by section 179 shall specify the purpose for which it is intended to use the building to which such notice relates.

(2) No notice shall be valid until the information required under sub-section (1) and any further information and plans which may be required under bye-laws made under this Act have been furnished to the satisfaction of the [a][Board] along with the notice.

181. Power of Board to sanction or refuse.—The [a][Board] may either refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection, as the case may be, of the building, or may sanction it either absolutely or subject to such directions as it thinks fit to make in writing in respect of all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the free passage or way to be left in front of the building;

(b) the space to be left about the building to secure free circulation of air and facilitate scavenging and the prevention of fire;

(c) the ventilation of the building, the minimum cubic area of the rooms and the number and height of the storeys of which the building may consist.

---

(1) Permission once granted without any reservation cannot be subsequently modified or cancelled in part. ('30) AIR 1930 Lah 822 (822).

[See ('27) AIR 1927 Lah 891 (893). (Where once a Municipal Committee has given sanction to roof a drain it cannot revoke it.) * (1900) 1900 Pun Re No. 52 p. 189 (193). (Municipal Committee's power to revoke sanction once given.)]

[But see ('22) AIR 1922 Bom 247 (249): 46 Bom 663 (FB). (New building — Permission granted by P. W. Committee — General Body can revoke permission.)]

(2) Where any part of the building is sought to be re-erected the matter is covered by sub-section (4), Clause (b) of Section 181, and a dispute as to re-erection of a part of the building in question is covered by Clause (b) of sub-section (4) of ection 181. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (83): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(3) Where the Board has decided the matter of sanction itself and has not simply communicated Government's objection, it is not necessary to consider whether it had properly applied its mind to the merits of the objections. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (83): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(4) A liability not existing under the general law, viz., to obtain the requisite sanction to erect or re-erect a building has been created by the statute and a special remedy has also been provided therein for enforcing it. It is, that remedy alone which the aggrieved party must adopt to seek redress. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (82): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(5) Sub-sections (1) and (2) of Sec. 181 deal with matters of a general nature which have to be borne in mind by the Board while granting or refusing sanction. The Board is not obviously concerned with the existence of any dispute unless it brought to its notice under sub-section (3). Such objection may relate to a pre-existing dispute or to a dispute which may arise in consequence of the proposed construction. In either case, it has to be considered by the Board under Clause (b) of sub-section (4). ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (83): ILR (1955) Nag 973 (DB).

(6) The question whether, on the objection of the Government, a person should be given or refused sanction is within the power of the Board and of the appellate authority, and cannot be raised in the Civil Courts, even if their decision may work hardship. That the person is prepared to forego a claim to compensation for the construction in case the Government decide to resume the land is beside the point. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (84): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(7) A person could not challenge the jurisdiction of the Cantonment Board over certain village, when he himself applied under Section 179 of the Act for permission to build the houses, submitted to its jurisdiction with a free awareness and when various notifications also established that full control over the village passed to the Board. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 113 (116) (DB).

(d) the provision and position of drains, latrines, urinals, cesspools or other respectacles for filth:

(e) the level and width of the foundation, the level of the lowest floor and the stability of the structure;

(f) the line of frontage neighbouring buildings if the building abuts on a street;

(g) the means to be provided for egress from the building in case of fire;

(h) the materials and method of construction to be used for external and party walls for rooms, floors, fire-places and chimneys;

(i) the height and slope of the roof above the uppermost floor upon which human beings are to live or cooking operations are to be carried on; and

(j) any other matter affecting the ventilation and sanitation of the buildings; and the person erecting or re-erecting the building shall obey all such written directions in every particular.

[b][(2) The Board may refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building, either on grounds sufficient in the opinion of the Board affecting the particular building, or in pursuance of a general scheme sanctioned by the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, restricting the erection or re-erection of buildings within specified limits for the prevention of over-crowding or in the interests of persons residing within such limits or for any other public purpose.

(3) The Board, before sanctioning the erection or re-erection of a building on land which is under the management of the Military Estates Officer shall refer the application to the Military Estates Officer for ascertaining whether there is any objection on the part of Government to such erection or re-erection; and the Military Estates Officer shall return the application together with his report thereon to the Board within thirty days after it has been received by him.

(4) The Board may refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building—

(a) when the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect the building is held on a lease [c][from the Government] if the erection or re-erection constitutes a breach of the terms of the lease, or

(b) when the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect the building is not held on a lease [c][from the Government], if the right to build on such land is in dispute between the person applying for sanction and the Government.

(5) If the Board decides to refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of the building, it shall communicate in writing the reasons for such refusal to the person by whom notice was given.

(6) Where the Board neglects or omits, for one month after the receipt of a valid notice, to make and to deliver to the person who has given the notice any order of any nature specified in this section, and such person thereafter by a written communication sent by registered post to the Board calls the attention of the Board to the neglect or omission, then, if such neglect or omission continues for a further period of fifteen days from the date of such communication the Board shall be deemed to have given sanction to the erection or re-erection, as the case may be, unconditionally:

Provided that, in any case to which the provisions of sub-section (3) apply, the period of one month herein specified shall be reckoned from the date on which the Board has received report referred to in that sub-section.]

[b] Sub-sections (2) to (6) were substituted by S. 47, ibid, for the original sub-sections (2), (3) and (4).

182. Compensation.—(1) No compensation shall be claimable by any person for any damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the refusal of the [a][Board] of sanction to the erection of any building or in respect of any direction issued by it under sub-section (1) of Section 181.

(2) The [a][Board] shall make compensation to the owner of any building for any actual damage or loss sustained by him in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building or of its requiring any land belonging to him to be added to the street:

Provided that the [a][Board] shall not be liable to make any compensation in respect of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building which for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such refusal has not been in existence or has been unfit for human habitation.

183. Lapse of sanction.—Every sanction for the erection or re-erection of a building given or deemed to have been given by the [a][Board] as herein before provided shall be available for one year from the date on which it is given, and if the building so sanctioned is not begun by the person who has obtained the sanction or some one lawfully claiming under him within that period, it shall not thereafter be begun [b][unless the Board on application made therefor has allowed an extension of that period.]

[b] Substituted by S. 48, ibid, for "without fresh sanction obtained in the manner hereinbefore provided."

[183A. Period for completion of building.—A Board, when sanctioning the erection or re-erection of a building as hereinbefore provided, shall specify a reasonable period after the work has commenced within which the erection or re-erection is to be completed, and, if the erection or re-erection is not completed within the period so fixed, it shall not be continued thereafter without fresh sanction obtained in the manner hereinbefore provided, unless the Board on application made therefor has allowed an extension of that period:

Provided that not more than two such extensions shall be allowed by the Board in any case.]

[a] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 49.

184. Illegal erection and re-erection.—Whoever begins, continues or completes the erection or re-erection of a building—

(a) without having given a valid notice as required by sections 179 and 180, or before the building has been sanctioned or is deemed to have been sanctioned, or

---

Section 182 — Note 1

(1) "We think that compensation should only be payable in cases where actual loss is caused by the refusal of a Cantonment Authority to allow a building to be re-erected and have provided accordingly. To enact, as was proposed in the Bill as introduced, that compensation should be payable in any case where the refusal is on the ground that the building is unsuitable in plan or design to the locality or is intended for a purpose unsuited to the locality would in our opinion be to invite a systematic blackmail of the Cantonment Authority." — Select Committee Report.

(1) Erecting or re-erecting a building without the permission and failure to comply with a notice to alter or demolish a building are separate offences. Non-compliance with a notice given after the enactment of 1924, is punishable under the Act of 1924, even though the building was erected before 1924. Prosecution for such disobedience may be launched within 6 months of such disobedience. ('32) AIR 1932 Lah 370 (372): 33 Cri L Jour 336.

(2) Section 184 provides no penalty for a continuing failure or contravention, although such a penalty is provided in Section 268. ('34) AIR 1934 Oudh 29 (31): 35 Cri L Jour 666.

(3) An order directing a person, who has erected a structure without sanction,

(b) without complying with any direction made under sub-section (1) of section 181, or

(c) when sanction has been refused, or has ceased to be available, [a][or has been suspended by the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 52,] shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

[a] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) At, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 50.

185. Power to stop erection or re-erection or to demolish.—[a][(1)] A [b][Board] may, at any time, by notice in writing direct the owner, lessee or occupier of any land in the cantonment to stop the erection or re-erection of a building in any case in which the [b][Board] considers that such erection or re-erection is an offence under section 184, and may in any such case [c][or in any other case in which the Board considers that the erection or re-erection of a building is an offence under Section 184, within [d][twelve months] of the completion of such erection or re-erection] in like manner direct the alteration or demolition as it thinks necessary of the building or any part thereof, so erected or re-erected:

Provided that the [b][Board] may, instead of requiring the alteration or demolition of any such building or part thereof, accept by way of composition such sum as it thinks reasonable:

[c][Provided further that the Board shall not, without the previous concurrence of the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, accept any sum by way of compensation under the foregoing proviso in respect of any building on land which is not under the management of the Board.

(2) A Board shall by notice in writing direct the owner, lessee or occupier of any land in the cantonment to stop the erection or re-erection of a building in any case in which the order under Section 181 sanctioning the erection or re-erection has been suspended by the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, under clause (b) of sub-sec. (1) of Sec. 52, and shall in any such case in like manner direct the demolition or alteration, as the case may be, of the building or any part thereof so erected or re-erected where the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, thereafter directs that the order of the Board sanctioning the erection or re-erection of the building shall not be carried into effect or shall be carried into effect with modifications specified by him:

Provided that the Board shall pay to the owner of the building compensation for any loss actually incurred by him in consequence of the demolition or alteration of any building which has been erected or re-erected prior to the date on which to remove the structure within a certain time or in default to pay thereafter a daily fine is improper. If the Magistrate's directions are not carried out, then the proper course is to institute a further prosecution and allow the accused an opportunity of defending himself before the further fine is imposed. ('11) 12 Cri L Jour 371 (372) (Lah). (Case under Section 104 of the Act of 1889).

(4) It is not proper to substitute a conviction under Section 268 for one under Section 184 (b). ('34) AIR 1934 Oudh 29 (31): 35 Cri L Jour 666.

Section 184 (b) — (5) S. 184 (b) does not provide a punishment for mere non-compliance with direction made under subs. (1) of S. 181. What it makes punishable is the beginning, continuation or completion of the erection of building without complying with such direction. ('34) AIR 1934 Oudh 29 (31): 35 Cri L Jour 666.

Section 185 — Note 1

(1) The owner should know the precise nature and extent of the repairs which he is expected to make. A notice which does not state what kind of repairs the Board requires the owner to make to the houses specified in the notice is illegal. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 17 (17): 1912 Pun Re (Cr) No. 3. (Case under Section 94 of old Act.)

(2) It was held in the following case that it was not necessary for the Cantonment Authority to issue a notice for the demolition within a reasonable time and that such a notice could be given at any time. ('32) AIR 1932 Lah 370 (371): 33 Cri L Jour 336. (But now the amendment made in the section by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936.)

186. Power to make bye-laws.—A [a][Board] may make bye-laws prescribing—

(a) the manner in which notice of the intention to erect or re-erect a building in the cantonment shall be given to the [a][Board] and the information and plans to be furnished with the notice;

(b) the type or description of buildings which may or may not, and the purpose for which a building may or may not, be erected or re-erected [b][in the cantonment or any part thereof];

(c) the minimum cubic capacity of any room or rooms in a building which is to be erected or re-erected; [c][*]

(d) the fees payable on provision by the [a][Board] of plans or specifications of the type of buildings which may be erected in the cantonment or any part thereof.

[d][(e) the circumstances in which a mosque, temple or church or other sacred building may be erected or re-erected; and

(f) with reference to the erection or re-erection of buildings, or of any class of building, all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(i) the line of frontage where the building abuts on a street;

(ii) the space to be left about the building to secure free circulation of air and facilities for scavenging and for the prevention of fire;

(iii) the materials and method of construction to be used for external and party-walls, roofs and floors:

(iv) the position, the material and the method of construction of fire places, chimneys, drains, latrines, privies, urinals and cesspools;

(v) height and slope of the roof above the uppermost floor upon which human beings are to live or cooking operations are to be carried on;

(vi) the level and width of the foundation, the level of the lowest floor and the stability of the structure;

(vii) the number and height of the storeys of which the building may consist.

(viii) the means to be provided for egress from the building in case of fire;

(ix) the safeguarding of wells from pollution; or

(x) the materials and method of construction to be used for godowns intended for the storage of foodgrains in excess of fifty maunds in order to render them rat proof.]

[d] Clauses (e) and (f) were inserted by S. 52, ibid.

187. Projections and obstructions.—(1) No owner or occupier of any building in a cantonment shall, without the permission in writing of the [a][Board] add to or place against or in front of the building any projection or structure overhanging, projecting into or encroaching on, any street or any drain, sewer or aqueduct therein.

(2) The [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or occupier of any such building to alter or remove any such projection or encroachment as aforesaid:

Provided that, in the case of any projection or encroachment lawfully in existence at the commencement of this Act, the [a][Board] shall make compensation for any damage caused by the removal or alteration.

(3) The [a][Board] may, by order in writing, give permission to the owners or occupiers of buildings in any particular street to put up open verandahs, balconies or rooms projecting from any upper storey thereof to an extent beyond the line of the plinth or basement wall at such height from the level ground or street as may be specified in the order.

(1) Notice under this section must be issued by the Cantonment Board. Conviction cannot be sustained for disobedience of notice issued by Executive Officer of Cantonment when notice was not issued by or with the approval of Cantonment Authority. Subsequent confirmation by the Board is of no avail. ('33) AIR 1933 Lah 545 (545): 35 Cri L Jour 612.

(2) Where a person ordinarily authorised to communicate the sanction does so on an official form of the Board, the applicant making an application for the same is entitled to act on such communication, it being not his business to enquire whether the sanction conveyed to him was actually granted by the Board. ('34) AIR 1934 Lah 510 (511): 36 Cri L Jour 700.

(3) A person is not bound to comply with the notice of the Board which is illegal and if he fails to comply with an illegal notice he cannot be liable to a fine under the Act. ('33) AIR 1933 All 486 (488): 34 Cri LJ 1191.

(4) A Cantonment Board gave permission to build warning the applicant that the question of title to the land was doubtful and hence he would build it at his own risk. Immediately the construction was started the board served a notice "to demolish the unauthorised construction" and thereafter prosecuted him under Section 268. It was held that prosecution could not stand as there was no construction for which sanction was not obtained. ('33) AIR 1933 All 486 (488): 34 Cri L Jour 1191.

(5) In the following case it was held that the open space in question in that case was not a 'street' within the meaning of Section 2 (37) and therefore paving it with burnt bricks did not amount to 'placing a structure encroaching on the street' within the meaning of this section. ('35) AIR 1935 Lah 588 (589): 36 Cri L Jour 1475.

(6) A municipal committee passed a resolution: "the committee authorized the President . . . . . to take notice of any breach of the by-laws, and to take action on the same reporting the said action for the approval of the committee at the ensuing meeting." It was held that the resolution did not validate a notice for removal of a terrace given by a Deputy Commissioner as the President of the municipality and breach of such notice was not, therefore, punishable. ('81) 1881 Pun Re No. 32, p. 84 (87). (AIR 1926 Cal 1073 (1075), a case under Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 may be consulted.)

(7) Only projections or structures overhanging, projecting into, or encroaching on, any street or drain, sewer or aqueduct therein can be demolished under the section. ('47) AIR 1947 All 243 (244).

189. Drainage and sewer connections.—(1) A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or lessee of any building or land in any street, at his own expense and in such manner as the [a][Board] thinks fit, to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for receiving and carrying rain water from the building or land and for discharging the same or to establish and maintain any other connection or communication between such building or land and any drain or sewer.

(2) For the purpose of efficiently draining any building or land in the cantonment, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or lessee of the building or land—

(a) to pave, with such materials and in such manner as it thinks fit, any courtyard, alley or passage between two or more buildings, or

(b) to keep any such paving in proper repair.

190. Power to attach brackets for lamps.—A [a][Board] may attach to the outside of any building, or to any tree in the cantonment, brackets for lamps in such manner as not to occasion injury thereto or inconvenience.

STREETS

191. Temporary occupation of street, land, etc.—A [a][Board] may, by order in writing, permit the temporary occupation of any street, or of any land vested in the [a][Board], for the purpose of depositing any building materials or making any temporary excavation therein or erection thereon, subject to such conditions as it may prescribe for the safety or convenience of the public, and may charge a fee for such permission and may in its discretion withdraw such permission.

192. Closing and opening of streets.—(1) A [a][Board] shall not permanently close any street or open any new street without the previous sanction of the [b][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command.]

(2) A [a][Board] may, by public notice, temporarily close any street or any part of a street for repair or for the purpose of carrying out any work connected with drainage, water-supply or lighting or any other work which it is by or under this Act required or permitted to carry out:

Provided that where, owing to any works or repairs or from any other cause, the condition of any street or of any water-works, drain, culvert or premises vested in the [a][Board], is such as to be likely to cause danger to the public, the [a][Board] shall—

(a) take all reasonable means for the protection of the adjacent buildings and land and provide reasonable means of access thereto;

(b) cause sufficient barriers or fences to be erected for the security of life and property, and cause such barriers or fences to be sufficiently lighted from sunset to sunrise.

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 2, for "Officer Commanding the District."

193. Names of streets and numbers of buildings.—(1) A [a][Board] may cause a name to be given to any street and to be affixed on any building in the cantonment in such place as it thinks fit, and may also cause a number to be affixed to any such building.

(2) Whoever destroys, pulls down, defaces or alters any such name or number or puts up any name or number differing from that put up by the order of the [a][Board] shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

[b][(3) When a number has been affixed to any building under sub-section (1), the owner of the building shall maintain the number in order, and shall replace it if removed or defaced, and if he fails to do so the Board may by notice in writing require him to replace it.]

[b] Inserted by S. 53, ibid.

BOUNDARIES AND TREES

194. Boundary walls, hedges and fences.—(1) No boundary wall, hedge or fence of any material or description shall be erected in a cantonment without the permission in writing of the [a][Board].

(2) A [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or lessee of any land in the cantonment—

(a) to remove from the land any boundary wall, hedge or fence which is in its opinion unsuitable, unsightly or otherwise objectionable; or

(b) to construct on the land sufficient boundary walls, hedges or fences of such material, description or dimensions as may be specified in the notice; or

(c) to maintain the boundary walls, hedges or fences of such lands in good order:

Provided that, in the case of any such boundary wall, hedge or fence which was erected with the consent or under the orders of the [a][Board], or which was in existence at the commencement of this Act, the [a][Board] shall make compensation for any damage caused by the removal thereof.

(3) The [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier of any such land to cut or trim any hedge on the land in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the notice.

195. Felling, lopping and trimming of trees.—(1) Where, in the opinion of a [a][Board], the felling of any tree of mature growth standing in a private enclosure in the cantonment is necessary for any reason, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier of the land to fell the tree within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) A [a][Board] may—

(a) cause to be lopped or trimmed any tree standing on land in the cantonment which belongs to [c][the Government]; or

(b) by public notice require all owners, lessees or occupiers of land in the cantonment or by notice in writing require the owner, lessee or occupier of any such land, to lop or trim, in such manner as may be

Section 194 — Note 1

(1) Before an order can legally be issued by the Board, it must form the opinion that the boundary wall is unsuitable, unsightly or otherwise objectionable. The Executive Officer has no authority of his own initiative to issue an order under this section. ('09) 9 Cri L Jour 447 (448): 3 Sind LR 11.

Section 195 — Note 1

(1) A notice under this section must be in writing; a disobedience of a notice not in writing is not punishable under Section 268. ('19) AIR 1919 All 158 (158): 20 Cri L Jour 384.

196. Digging of public land.—Whoever, without the permission in writing of the [a][Board], digs up the surface of any open space in the cantonment which is not private property, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, [b][with an additional fine] which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the offence continues.

[b] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1930 (8 of 1930), S. 2 and Sch. I, for "to an additional fine."

197. Improper use of land.—(1) If, in the opinion of a [a][Board], the working of a quarry in the cantonment, or the removal of stone, earth or other material from the soil in any place in the cantonment, is dangerous to persons residing in or frequenting the neighbourhood of such quarry or place, or creates, or is likely to create, a nuisance, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, prohibit the owner, lessee or occupier of such quarry or place or the person responsible for such [b][working] or removal, from continuing or permitting the working of such quarry or the moving of such material, or require him to take such steps in the matter as the [a][Board] may direct for the purpose of preventing danger or abating the nuisance arising or likely to arise therefrom.

(2) If, in any case referred to in sub-section (1), the [a][Board] is of opinion that such a course is necessary in order to prevent imminent danger, it may, by order in writing, require a proper hoarding or fence to be put up for the protection of passers-by.

[b] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1930 (8 of 1930), S. 2, and Sch. I, for "making."

CHAPTER XII

MARKETS, SLAUGHTER-HOUSES, TRADES AND OCCUPATIONS

198. Public markets and slaughter-houses.—(1) A [a][Board] may provide and maintain, either within or without the cantonment, public markets and public slaughter-houses, to such number as it thinks fit, together with stalls, shops, sheds, pens and other buildings or conveniences for the use of persons carrying on trade or business in or frequenting such markets or slaughter-houses, and may provide and maintain in any such market buildings, places, machines, weights, scales and measures for the weighment or measurement of goods sold therein.

(2) When such market or slaughter-house is situated beyond cantonment limits, the [a][Board] shall have the same power for the inspection and proper regulation of the same as if it were situated within those limits.

(3) The [a][Board] may at any time, by public notice, close any public market or public slaughter-house or any part thereof.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorise the establishment of a public market or public slaughter-house within the limits of any area administered by any local authority other than the [a][Board], without the permission of such local authority or otherwise than on such conditions as such local authority may approve.

199. Use of public market.—(1) No person shall, without the general or special permission in writing of the [a][Board], sell or expose for sale any animal or article in any public market.

(2) Any person contravening the provisions of this section, and any animal or article exposed for sale by such person, may be summarily removed from the market by or under the orders of the Executive Officer or any officer or servant of the [a][Board] authorised by it in this behalf.

[a][200 Power to transfer by public auction, etc.—The Board may transfer by public auction, for any period not exceeding three years at a time, the right to occupy or use any stall, shop, standing, shed or pen in a public market, or public slaughter-house or the right to expose goods for sale in a public market or the right to weigh or measure goods sold therein, or the right to slaughter animals in any public slaughter house:

Provided that where the Board is of opinion that such transfer of the aforesaid rights by public auction is not considered desirable or expedient, it may with the previous sanction of the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief of the Command,—

(a) either levy such stallages, rents or fees as it thinks fit; or

(b) farm the stallages, rents and fees leviable under clause (a) for any period not exceeding one year at a time.]

[a] Substituted for former section 200 by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1953 (2 of 1954), S. 18 (2-1-1954).

201. Stallages, rents, etc., to be published.—A copy of the table of stallages, rents and fees, if any, leviable in any public market or public slaughter-house, and of the bye-laws made under this Act for the purpose of regulating the use of such market or slaughter-house, printed in the English language and in such other language or languages as the [a][Board] may direct, shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the market or slaughter-house.

202. Private markets and slaughter-houses.—(1) No place in a cantonment other than a public market shall be used as a market, and no place in a cantonment other than a public slaughter-house shall be used as a slaughter-house, unless such place has been licensed as a market or slaughter-house, as the case may be, by the [a][Board]:

Section 200 — Note 1

(1) The cantonment authorities rented a shed to X for Rs. 300, for use as vegetable shop. The period of tenure was three years. Before the expiry of the period the shed was blown off. Some instalments were paid by X but he refused to pay instalments after the shed blew off. The agreement included a clause that any amount due would be recovered from the movable and immovable property of X. The cantonment authorities recovered the dues by issue of a warrant of attachment. Thereupon X filed a suit for illegal restraint and damages.

Held, that Section 200 applies to the case and not Section 210. The relationship between the authorities and X was that of ordinary landlord and tenant and it was optional for X to avoid the lease under Section 108 of the T. P. Act. ('33) AIR 1933 Lah 517 (519).

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply in the case of a slaughter-house established and maintained by the Government.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed—

(a) to restrict the slaughter of any animal in any place on the occasion of any festival or ceremony, subject to such conditions as to prior or subsequent notice as the Executive Officer with the previous sanction of the District Magistrate may, by public or special notice, impose in this behalf, or

(b) to prevent the Executive Officer, with the sanction of the [a][Board], from setting apart places for the slaughter of animals in accordance with religious custom, when such animals are slaughtered for consumption by the troops or for the purpose of the sale of the flesh thereof to the troops.

(3) Whoever omits to comply with any condition imposed by the Executive Officer under clause (a) of sub-section (2) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day after the first during which the offence is continued.

203. Conditions of grant of licence for private market or slaughter-house.—(1) A [a][Board] may charge such fees as it thinks fit to impose for the grant of a licence to any person to open a private market or private slaughter-house in the cantonment, and may grant such licence subject to such conditions, consistent with this Act, and any bye-laws made thereunder, as it thinks fit to impose.

(2) The [a][Board] may refuse to grant any such licence without giving reasons for such refusal.

204. Penalty for keeping market or slaughter-house open without licence, etc.—(1) Any person who keeps open for public use any market or slaughter-house in respect of which a licence is required by or under this Act, without obtaining licence therefor, or while the licence therefor is suspended, or after the same has been cancelled, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the offence is continued.

(2) When a licence to open a private market or private slaughter-house, is granted or refused or is suspended or cancelled, the [a][Board] shall cause a

(1) The section covers only licenses to open a market. The word "open" must be read as applying only to the first opening of a market. It is only at that stage that the Cantonment Board has been given power to charge a fee. Once a license is given and a market is opened the section ceases to apply. The Board cannot charge any fee for renewal of the license. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 513 (513, 514): ILR (1955) Mad 729 (DB).

(2) There can be no doubt that under Section 203 the Cantonment Board can say when issuing a licence that it will be tenable only for a particular period. But under the guise of that power the board cannot say that on the expiration of the period the market is being opened and therefore it is entitled to charge fees for issuing licence for a further period. Nor do Sections 208 and 280 which empower the Board and the Central Government to make bye-laws and rules confer power on the Cantonment Board to charge fees for the renewal of a licence issued under Section 203. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 513 (514): ILR (1958) Mad 729 (DB).

(1) Section 204 does not apply to the question of the levy of fees for the renewal of license granted under Section 203. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 513 (514): ILR (1958) Mad 729 (DB).

notice of the grant, refusal, suspension or cancellation to be posted in English and in such other language or languages as it thinks necessary, in some conspicuous place by or near the entrance to the place to which the notice relates.

205. Penalty for using unlicensed market or slaughter-house.—Whoever, knowing that any market or slaughter-house has been opened to the public without a licence having been obtained therefor when such licence is required by or under this Act, or that the licence granted therefor is for the time being suspended or that it has been cancelled, sells or exposes for sale any article in such market, or slaughters any animal in such slaughter-house, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the offence is continued.

206. Prohibition and restriction of use of slaughter-houses.—(1) Where, in the opinion of the [a][Board], it is necessary on sanitary grounds so to do, it may, by public notice, prohibit for such period, not exceeding one month, as may be specified in the notice, or for such further period, not exceeding one month, as it may specify by a like notice, the use of any private slaughter-house specified in the notice, or the slaughter therein of any animal of any description so specified.

(2) A copy of every notice issued under sub-section (1) shall be conspicuously posted in the slaughter-house to which it relates.

207. Power to inspect slaughter-houses.—(1) Any servant of a [a][Board], authorised by order in writing in this behalf by the President of the Board [b][* * * *] or the Health Officer, may, if he has reason to believe that any animal has been, is being, or is about to be slaughtered in any place in contravention of the provisions of this Chapter, enter into and inspect any such place at any time, whether by day or by night.

(2) Every such order shall specify the place to be entered and the locality in which the same is situated and the period, which shall not exceed seven days, for which the order is to remain in force.

[b] The words "if any" were repealed by S. 54, ibid.

208. Power to make bye-laws.—A [a][Board] may, with the approval of the [b][Central Government], make bye-laws consistent with this Act to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the days on, and the hours during, which any private market or private slaughter house may be kept open for use;

(b) the regulation of the design, ventilation and drainage of such markets and slaughter-houses, and the material to be used in the construction thereof;

Section 205 — Note 1

(1) The section does not apply to the question of levy of fees for the renewal of license granted under Sec. 203. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 513 (514): ILR (1958) Mad 729 (DB).

Section 207 — Note 1

(1) Nothing in Section 241 shall be deemed to confer upon any person any power such as is referred to in this section; see proviso to Section 241.

Section 208 — Note 1

(1) Section 208 which empowers the Board and the Central Government to make bye-laws and rules does not confer power on the Board to charge fees for the renewal of the license granted under S. 203. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 513 (514): ILR (1958) Mad 729 (DB).

(c) the keeping of such markets and slaughter-houses and lands and buildings appertaining thereto in a clean and a sanitary condition, the removal of filth and refuse therefrom, and the supply therein of pure water and of a sufficient number of latrines and urinals for the use of persons using or frequenting the same;

(d) the manner in which animal shall be stalled at a slaughter-house;

(e) the manner in which animals may be slaughtered;

(f) the disposal or destruction of animals offered for slaughter which are, from disease or any other cause, unfit for human consumption; and

(g) the destruction of carcases which from disease or any other cause are found after slaughter to be unfit for human consumption.

Trades and Occupations

209. Provision of washing places.—(1) A [a][Board] may provide suitable places for the exercise by washermen of their calling, and may require payment of such fees for the use thereof as it thinks fit.

(2) Where the [a][Board] has provided such places as aforesaid it may, by public notice, prohibit the washing of clothes by washermen at any other place in the cantonment:

Provided that such prohibition shall not be deemed to apply to the washing by a washerman of his own clothes or of the clothes of any other person who is an occupier of the place at which they are washed.

(3) Whoever contravenes any prohibition contained in a notice issued under sub-section (2) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

210. Licences required for carrying on of certain occupations.—(1) No person of any of the following classes, namely:—

(a) butchers and vendors of poultry, game or fish;

---

(1) The provisions of Section 210 of the Act does not impose an unreasonable restriction on the exercise of the right guaranteed by Article 19 (1) (g) of the Constitution of India. AIR 1961 Madh Pra 361 (362, 363): 1961 Jab LJ 531 (DB).

(2) Sub-section (1) (i) — Betel leaves are not articles of food within the meaning of Clause (i) of sub-section (1) of Section 210. 1962 (1) Cri LJ 161 (162): 1961 Jab LJ 1143.

(3) The term "vegetables" in Section 210 (1) (i) denotes those classes of vegetable matter which are used for the table. 1962 (1) Cri LJ 161 (162): 1961 Jab LJ 1143.

(4) The words 'no person' used in Section 210 (1) cannot be abridged as to exclude persons who have obtained a lease under Section 200 from the Cantonment Authority. ('55) ILR (1955) Patiala 1 (5).

Sub-section (1) (l) — (5) The word "wood" is unqualified and not restricted to "inflammable wood" only. Hence a person selling bamboos, ballies, takhats and karies within cantonment without licence is guilty under Section 268. ('34) AIR 1934 All 987 (987): 36 Cri L Jour 261.

Sub-section (3) — (6) The word 'locality" is not an unfair interpretation of the word "part" in Clause (a) of Section 210 (3). It covers all that part of the cantonment where the bazar was situated and where the particular trader could carry on his occupation without offence or danger to other parts of the cantonment not used for the purpose of a bazar, but where residences of officers or the barracks for troops are situated. ('42) AIR 1942 Sind 95 (95): 43 Cri L Jour 733.

(7) Where a person has been carrying on a trade in the same part of the cantonment from the commencement of the Cantonments Act, there is no obligation upon him to apply for licence to carry on the trade. Cantonment Authority must give him three month's notice of his obligation to apply for licence. Without such notice he cannot be convicted for carrying on trade without a licence. ('42) AIR 1942 Sind 95 (95): 43 Cri L Jour 733.

(8) A notice was served on a person prohibiting him from selling fruit in the cantonment area. He made a representation under sub-section (3) (a) whereupon he was allowed to continue the business but

(b) persons keeping pigs for profit, and dealers in the flesh of pigs which have been slaughtered in India;
(c) persons keeping milch cattle or milch goats for profits;
(d) persons keeping for profit any animals other than pigs, milch cattle or milch goats;
(e) dairymen, buttermen and makers and vendors of ghee;
(f) makers of bread, biscuits or cake, and vendors of bread, biscuits or cake made in India;
(g) vendors of fruit or vegetables;
(h) manufacturers of aerated or other potable waters or of ice or ice-cream and vendors of the same;
[a][(i)] vendors of any medicines, drugs or articles of food or drink for human consumption (other than the flesh of pigs, milk, butter, bread, biscuits, cake, fruit, vegetables, aerated or other potable waters or ice or ice-cream) which are of a perishable nature;
(j) vendors of water to be used for drinking purposes;
(k) washermen;
(l) dealers in hay, straw, wood, charcoal or other inflammable material;
(m) dealers in fire-works, kerosene oil, petroleum or any other inflammable oil or spirit;
(n) tanners and dyers;
(o) persons carrying on any trade or occupation from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise;
(p) vendors of wheat, rice and other grain or of flour; [b][*]
(q) makers and vendors of sugar or sweetmeats [c][and
(r) barbers and keepers of shaving saloons;]

shall carry on his trade, calling or occupation in any part of a cantonment unless he has applied for and obtained a licence in this behalf from the [d][Board].

(2) A licence granted under sub-section (1) shall be valid [e][until the end of the year in which it is issued] and the grant of such licence shall not be withheld by the [d][Board] unless it has reason to believe that the business which it is intended to establish or maintain would be offensive or dangerous to the public [f][or that the premises in which the business is intended to be established or maintained are unsuitable for the purpose].

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1),—

(a) no person who was, at the commencement of this Act, carrying on his trade, calling or occupation in any part of a cantonment shall be bound to apply for a lience for carrying on such trade or occupation in that part until he has received from the [d][Board] not less than three months' notice in writing of his obligation to do so, and if the [d][Board] refuses to grant him a licence, it shall pay compensation for any loss, incurred by reason of such refusal;

(b) no person shall be required to take out a licence for the sale or storage of petroleum or for the sale or possession for sale of poisons or white arsenic in any case in which he is required to take out a licence for such sale, storage or possession for sale by or under the Indian Petroleum Act, 1899,[g] or the Poisons Act, 1919.

it was not clear whether the cantonment authorities required him to take a licence. However, he applied for a licence without paying the fee prescribed for it. No licence was issued and he was tried summarily for offence under Sections 210 (g) and 213, and convicted. It was held that he could not by reason of his conduct in applying for a licence, avail of sub-section (3) (a). It was also remarked that the accused should not have been tried summarily. ('38) AIR 1938 Lah 427 (427): 39 Cri L Jour 653.

(4) The [a][Board] may charge for the grant of licences under this section such fee [b][not exceeding the cost of granting the licences,] as it may fix with the previous sanction of the [c][Central Government].

[g] See now the Indian Petroleum Act, 1934 (30 of 1934).

211. Conditions which may be attached to licences.—A licence granted to any person under section 210 shall specify the part of the cantonment in which the licensee may carry on his trade, calling or occupation, and may regulate the hours and manner of transport within the cantonment of any specified articles intended for human consumption, and may contain any other conditions which the [a][Board] thinks fit to impose in accordance with bye-laws made under this Act.

General Provisions

212. Power to vary licence.—If a [a][Board] is satisfied that any place used under a licence granted under this Chapter is a nuisance or is likely to be dangerous to life, health or property, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee or occupier thereof to discontinue the use of such place or to effect such alterations, additions, or improvements as well, in the opinion of the [a][Board] render it no longer a nuisance or dangerous.

213. Carrying on trade, etc., without licence or in contravention of section 212.—Whoever carries on any trade, calling or occupation for which a licence is required without obtaining a licence therefor or while the licence therefor is suspended or after the same has been cancelled, and whoever, after receiving a notice under Section 212, uses or allows to be used any building or place in contravention thereof, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to forty rupees for every day after the first during which the offence is continued.

214. Feeding animals on dirt, etc.—Whoever feeds or allows to be fed on filthy or deleterious substances any animal, which is kept for the purpose of supplying milk to, or which is intended to be used as food for, the inhabitants of a cantonment or allows it to graze in any place in which grazing has, for sanitary reasons, been prohibited by public notice by the [a][Board] shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Section 213 — Note 1

(1) A butcher who had no licence imported meat in large quantities and distributed it. There was no evidence of his receiving any money. He alleged that he was a salaried person employed for fetching meat by several persons. It was held that the presumption was that he imported meat for sale and sold it, and in the absence of any other evidence conviction was proper. ('29) AIR 1929 Sind 150 (151): 30 Cri L Jour 906.

ENTRY, INSPECTION AND SEIZURE

215. Powers of entry and seizure.—(1) The President or the Vice-President [a][* * *] the Executive Officer, the Health Officer, the Assistant Health Officer, or any other officer or servant of a [b][Board] authorised by it in writing in this behalf,—

(a) may at any time enter into any market, building, shop, stall or other place in the cantonment for the purpose of inspecting, and may inspect, any animals, articles or things intended for human food or drink or for medicine, whether exposed or hawked about for sale or deposited in or brought to any place for the purpose of sale, or of preparation for sale, or any utensil or vessel for preparing, manufacturing or containing any such article or thing, and may enter into and inspect any place used as a slaughter-house and may examine any animal or article therein;

(b) may seize any such animal, article or thing which appears to him to be diseased, or unwholesome or unfit for human food or drink or medicine, as the case may be, or to be adulterated or to be not what it is represented to be, or any such utensil or vessel which is of such a kind or in such a state as to render any article prepared, manufactured or contained therein unwholesome or unfit for human food or for medicine, as the case may be.

(2) Any article seized under sub-section (1) which is of a perishable nature may, under the orders of the Health Officer or the Assistant Health Officer, forthwith be destroyed if, in his opinion, it is diseased, unwholesome or unfit for human food, drink or medicine, as the case may be.

(3) Every animal, article, utensil, vessel or other thing seized under sub-section (1) shall, if it is not destroyed under sub-section (2), be taken before a Magistrate [c][who shall give orders as to its disposal].

(4) The owner or person in possession, at the time of seizure under sub-section (1) of any animal or carcase which is diseased or of any article or thing which is unwholesome or unfit for human food, drink or medicine as the case may be, or is adulterated or is not what it is represented to be, or of any utensil or vessel which is of such kind or in such state as is described in clause (b) of sub-section (1), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and the animal, article, utensil, vessel or other thing shall be liable to be forfeited to the [b][Board] or to be destroyed or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or used for the preparation of food, drink or medicine, as the case may be.

Explanation I.—If any such article, having been exposed or stored in, or brought to, any place mentioned in sub-section (1) for sale as ghee, contains any substance not exclusively derived from milk, it shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to be an article which is not what it is represented to be.

Explanation II.—Meat subjected to the process of blowing shall be deemed to be unfit for human food.

Explanation III.—The article of food or drink shall not be deemed to be other than what it is represented to be merely by reason of the fact that there has been added to it some substance not injurious to health:

Provided that—

(a) such substance has been added to the article because the same is required for the preparation or production thereof as an article of commerce in a state fit for carriage or consumption and not fraudulently

---

Section 215 — Note 1

(1) Nothing in Section 241 shall be deemed to confer upon any person any power such as is referred to in this section; see proviso to Section 241.

to increase the bulk, weight or measure of the food or drink or conceal the inferior quality thereof, or

(b) in the process of production, preparation or conveyance of such article of food or drink, the extraneous substance has unavoidably become intermixed therewith, or

(c) the owner or person in possession of the article has given sufficient notice by means of a label distinctly and legibly written or printed thereon or therewith, or by other means of a public description, that such substance has been added, or

(d) such owner or person has purchased the article with a written warranty that it was of a certain nature, substance and quality and had no reason to believe that it was not of such nature, substance and quality, and has exposed it or hawked it about or brought it for sale in the same state and by the same description as that in and by which he purchased it.

Import of Cattle and Flesh

216. Import of cattle and flesh.—(1) No person shall, without the permission in writing of the [a][Board], bring into a cantonment any animal intended for human consumption, or the flesh of any animal slaughtered outside the cantonment otherwise than in a slaughter-house maintained by the Government or the [a][Board].

(2) Any animal or flesh brought into a cantonment in contravention of sub-section (1) may be seized by the Executive Officer or by any servant of the [a][Board] and sold or otherwise disposed of as the [b][President of the Board] may direct, and, if it is sold the sale-proceeds may be credited to the cantonment fund.

(3) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to cured or preserved meat or to animals driven or meat carried throughout a cantonment for consumption outside thereof, or to meat brought into a cantonment by any person for his immediate domestic consumption:

Provided that the [a][Board] may, by public notice, direct that the provisions of this section shall apply to cured or preserved meat of any specified description or brought from any specified place.

[b] Substituted for "Board" by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1944 (8 of 1944), (17-3-1944).

CHAPTER XIII

WATER-SUPPLY, DRAINAGE AND LIGHTING

Water-supply

217. Maintenane of water-supply.—(1) In every cantonment where a sufficient supply of pure water for domestic use does not already exist, the [a][Board] shall provide or arrange for the provision of such a supply.

Chapter XIII — Note 1

(1) As to the power of the Central Government to extend any of the provisions of Chapter XIII to any area beyond a cantonment and in the vicinity thereof, see Section 286.

(2) The [a][Board] shall, as far as possible, make adequate provision that such supply shall be continuous throughout the year, and that the water shall be at all times pure and fit for human consumption.

218. Control over sources of public water-supply.—(1) The [a][Board] may, with the previous sanction of the [c][Central Government], by public notice, declare any lake, stream, spring, well, tank, reservoir or other source, whether within or without the limits of the cantonment (other than a source of water-supply under the control of the [b][Military Engineer] Services or the Public Works Department) from which water is or may be made available for the use of the public in the cantonment to be a source of public water-supply.

(2) Every such source shall be under the control of the [a][Board].

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1925 (7 of 1925), S. 9, for "Military Works".

219. Power to require maintenance or closing of private source of public drinking water-supply.—The [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require the owner or any person having the control of any source of public water-supply which is used for drinking purposes—

(a) to keep the same in good order and to clear it from time to time of silt, refuse and decaying vegetation, or

(b) to protect the same from contamination in such manner as the [a][Board] may direct, or

(c) if the water therein is proved to the satisfaction of the [a][Board] to be unfit for drinking purposes, to take such measures as may be specified in the notice to prevent the public from having access to or using such water:

Provided that, in the case of a well, such person as aforesaid may, instead of complying with the notice signify in writing his desire to be relieved of all responsibility for the proper maintenance of the well and his readiness to place it under the control and supervision of the [a][Board] for the use of the public, and, if he does so, he shall not be bound to carry out the requisition, and the [a][Board] shall undertake the control and supervision of the well.

220. Supply of water.—(1) The [a][Board] may permit the owner, lessee or occupier of any building or land to connect the building or land with a source of public water-supply by means of communication pipes of such size and description as it may prescribe for the purpose of obtaining water for domestic use.

---

Section 218 — Note 1

(1) "It has been pointed out that this clause as originally drafted would enable the cantonment authority to take under its own control sources of water-supply belonging to a municipality supplying water in the cantonment besides giving somewhat wide powers of confiscation of wells, etc. We have accordingly made the exercise of the powers conferred by this section subject to the sanction of the Local Government." — Select Committee Report.

Section 219 — Note 1

(1) The Officer of the Military Engineer Services or the Public Works Department when in charge of water supply may require the Board to exercise any of the powers conferred by this section; see Section 233 (1).

Section 220 — Note 1

(1) As to the penalty for using for other than domestic purposes any water supplied for domestic use, see Section 226.

(2) As to whether the Board empowered to levy tax on water can increase or vary the tax without sanction from Government, see ('26) AIR 1926 Sind 130 (131, 132): 20 Sind LR 325.

(2) The occupier of every building so connected with the water-supply shall be entitled to have for domestic use, in return for the water tax, if any, such quantity of water as the [a][Board] may determine.

(3) All water supplied in excess of the quantity to which such supply is limited under sub-section (2) and, in a cantonment in which a water tax is not imposed, all water supplied under this section, shall be paid for at such rate as the [a][Board] may fix.

(4) The supply of water for domestic use shall not be deemed to include any supply—

(a) for animals or for washing vehicles where such animals or vehicles are kept for sale or hire;

(b) for any trade, manufacture or business;

(c) for fountains, swimming baths or any ornamental or mechanical purpose;

(d) for gardens or for purposes of irrigation;

(e) for making or watering roads or paths; or

(f) for building purposes.

221. Power to require water supply to be taken.—If it appears to the [a][Board] that any building or land in the cantonment is without a proper supply of pure water, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing require the owner, lessee or occupier of the building or land to obtain from a source of public water-supply such quantity of water as is adequate to the requirements of the persons usually occupying or employed upon the building or land, and to provide communication pipes of the prescribed size and description, and to take all necessary steps for the above purposes.

222. Supply of water under agreement.—(1) The [a][Board] may, by agreement, supply, from any source of public water-supply, the owner, lessee or occupier of any building or land in the cantonment with any water for any purpose, other than a domestic purpose, on such terms and conditions, consistent with this Act and rules and bye-laws made thereunder, as may be agreed upon between the [a][Board] and such owner, lessee or occupier.

(2) The [a][Board] may withdraw such supply or curtail the quantity thereof at any time if it should appear necessary to do so for the purpose of maintaining sufficient supply of water for domestic use by inhabitants of the cantonment.

223. Board not liable for failure of supply.—Notwithstanding any obligation imposed on [a][Board] under this Act a [b][Board] shall not be liable to any forfeiture, penalty or damages for failure to supply water or for curtailing the quantity thereof if the failure or curtailment, as the case may be, arises from accident or from drought or other unavoidable cause unless in the case of an agreement for the supply of water under section 222, the [b][Board] has made express provision for forfeiture, penalty or damages in the event of such failure or curtailment.

[b] Substituted by S. 69, ibid, for "Cantonment Authority".

224. Conditions of universal application.—Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained or contained in any agreement under section 222, the supply of water by a [a][Board] to any building or land shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, granted subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) the owner, lessee or occupier of any building or land in or on which water supplied by the [a][Board] is wasted by reason of the pipes, drains or other works being out of repair shall, if he has knowledge thereof, give notice of the same to such officer as the [a][Board] may appoint in this behalf;

(b) the Executive Officer or any other officer or servant of the [a][Board] authorised by it in writing in this behalf may enter into or on any premises supplied with water by the [a][Board], for the purpose of examining all pipes, taps, works and fittings connected with the supply of water and of ascertaining whether there is any waste or misuse of such water;

(c) the [a][Board] may, after giving notice in writing, cut off the connection between any source of public water-supply and any building or land to which water is supplied for any purpose therefrom, or turn off such supply if—

(i) the owner or occupier of the building or land neglects to pay the water-tax or other charges connected with the water-supply within one month from the date on which such tax or charge falls due for payment;

(ii) the occupier refuses to admit the Executive Officer or other authorised officer or servant of the [a][Board] into the building or land for the purpose of making any examination or inquiry authorised by clause (b) or prevents the making of such examination or inquiry;

(iii) the occupier wilfully or negligently misuses or causes waste of water;

(iv) the occupier wilfully or negligently injures or damages his meter or any pipe or tap conveying water from the water-works;

(v) any pipes, taps, works or fittings connected with the supply of water to the building or land are found, on examination by the Executive Officer, to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause a waste of water;

(d) the expense of cutting off the connection or of turning off the water in any case referred to in clause (c) shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the building or land;

(e) no action taken under or in pursuance of clause (c) shall relieve any person from any penalty or liability which he may otherwise have incurred.

225. Supply to persons outside cantonment.—A [a][Board] may allow any person not residing within the limits of the cantonment to take or be supplied with water for any purpose from any source of public water supply on such terms as it may prescribe, and may at any time withdraw or curtail such supply.

226. Penalty.—Whoever—

(a) uses for other than domestic purposes any water supplied by a [a][Board] for domestic use, or

(b) where water is supplied by agreement with a [a][Board] for a specified purpose, uses that water for any other purpose.

shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and the [a][Board] shall be entitled to recover from him the price of the water misused.

Water, Drainage and other Connections

337. Power of Board to lay wires, connections, etc.—A [a][Board]] may carry any cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel of any kind,—

(a) for the purpose of carrying out, establishing or maintaining any system of water-supply, lighting, drainage, or sewerage, through, across, under or over any road or street, or any place laid out or intended as a road or street or, after giving reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through, across, under or over any land or building, or up the side of any building, situated within the cantonment, or

(b) for the purpose of supplying water or of the introduction or distribution of outfall of water or for the removal or outfall of sewage, after giving reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through, across, under or over any land or building, or up the side of any building, situated outside the cantonment; and may at all times do all acts and things which may be necessary or expedient for repairing or maintaining any such cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel in an effective state for the purpose for which the same may be used or is intended to be used:

Provided that no nuisance shall be caused in excess of what is reasonably necessary for the proper execution of the work:

Provided, further, that compensation shall be payable to the owner or occupier for any damage sustained by him which is directly occasioned by the carrying out of any such operation.

228. Wires, etc, laid above surface of ground.—In the event of any cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel being laid or carried above the surface of any land or through, over or up the side of any building, such cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel shall be so laid or carried as to interfere as little as possible with the rights of the owner or occupier to the due enjoyment of such land or building, and compensation shall be payable by the [a][Board] in respect of any substantial interference with the right to any such enjoyment.

229. Connection with main not to be made without permission.—No person shall, for any purpose whatsoever, without the permission of the [a][Board] at any time make or cause to be made any connection or communication with any cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel constructed or maintained by, or vested in, a [a][Board].

230. Power to prescribe ferrules and to establish meters, etc.—A [a][Board] may prescribe the size of the ferrules to be used for the supply of gas, if any, and may establish meters or other appliances for the purpose of testing the quantity of any water, or the quantity or quality of any gas supplied to any premises by the [a][Board].

231. Power of inspection.—The ferrules, communication pipes, connections, meters, stand-pipes and all fittings thereon or connected therewith leading from water mains or from pipes, drains, sewers or channels into any house or land, to which water or gas is supplied by a [a][Board] and the pipes, fittings, and works inside any such house or within the limits of any such land, shall in all cases be [b][installed or] executed subject to the inspection and to the satisfaction of the [a][Board].

[b] Inserted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1930 (8 of 1930), S. 2 and Sch. I.

232. Power to fix rates and charges.—A [a][Board] may fix the charges to be made for the establishment by them or through their agency of communications from, and connections with, mains, or pipes for the supply of water, or gas, or for meters or other appliances for testing the quantity or quality thereof supplied, and may levy such charges accordingly.

Application of this Chapter to Government Water-supplies

233. Government water-supply.—(1) Where in any cantonment there is a water-supply under the control of the [a][Military Engineer] Services or the Public Works Department, the Officer of the [a][Military Engineer] Services or of the Public Works Department, as the case may be, in charge of such water-supply (hereinafter in [b][this Chapter] referred to as the Officer) may publish in the cantonment in such manner as he thinks fit a notice declaring that any lake, stream, spring, well, tank, reservoir or other source, whether within or without the limits of the cantonment (other than a source of public water-supply) under the control of the [c][Board] is a source of public water supply and may, for the purpose of keeping any such source in good order or of protecting it from contamination or from use, require the [c][Board] to exercise any power conferred upon [d][it] by section 219.

(2) In the case of any water-supply such as is referred to in sub-section (1), the following provisions of this Chapter, namely, the provisions of Sections 220, 222, 223, 224, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, and 232 shall, as far as may be, be applicable in respect of the supply of water to the cantonment, and for the purpose of such application references to the [c][Board] shall be construed as references to the Officer and references to the Executive Officer or other officer, or servant of the [c][Board] shall be construed as references to such person as may be authorised in this behalf by the Officer.

[e][(3) The provisions of Section 222 shall be applicable in respect of the supply of water by agreement to the Board by the Officer for use for any purpose other than a domestic purpose in like manner as they are applicable to such supply to the owner, lessee or occupier of any building or land in the cantonment.]

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 57, for "this section and in section 234."

[c] Substituted by S. 69, ibid, for "Cantonment Authority."

[d] Substituted for "that Authority" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1939 (34 of 1939), S. 2 and Sch. I. (28-9-1939).

[e] Sub-section (3) was added by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S. 10 (30-3-1942).

234. Recovery of charges.—In any case in which the provisions of Section 233 apply [a][and in which the Board is not receiving a bulk supply of water under section 234A,] the water-tax, if any, imposed in the cantonment and all other charges arising out of the supply of water which may be imposed under the provisions of this Chapter as applied by Section 233 shall be recovered by the [b][Board], and all monies so recovered, or such proportion thereof as the [c][Central Government] may in each case determine, shall be paid by the [b][Board] to the Officer.

[a][234A. Supply of water from Government water supply to the Board.—(1) Where in any cantonment there is a water-supply such as is referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 233, the Board may [b][and so long as the Board is unable to provide a water supply of its own, it shall] receive from the Military Engineer Services or the Public Works Department, as the case may be, at such point or points as may be agreed upon betwen the Board and the Officer, a supply of water adequate to the requirements for domestic use of all persons in the cantonment other than entitled consumers.

(2) Any supply of water received under sub-section (1) shall be a bulk supply and the Board shall make such payments to the Officer for all water so received as may be agreed upon between the Board and the Officer, or, in default of such agreement, as may be determined by the [c][Central Government] to be reasonable having regard to the actual cost of supplying the water in the cantonment and the rate charged for water in any adjacent municipality:

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Board shall not charge for the supply to persons in the cantonment of water received by the Board under this section a rate calculated to produce more than the sum of the payments made to the Officer for water received and the actual cost of the supply thereof by the Board to consumers.

(3) If any dispute arises between the Board and the Officer regarding the amount of water adequate to the requirements of persons in the cantonment other than entitled consumers, the dispute shall be referred to the [c][Central Government] whose decision shall be final.]

[b] Inserted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S. 11, (30-3-42).

[a][234B. Functions of the Board in relation to distribution of bulk supply.—Where under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 234A a bulk supply of water is received by the Board, the Board shall be solely responsible for the supply of water to all persons in the cantonment other than entitled consumers; and the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such bulk supply were a source of public water-supply under the control of the Board and as if the communications from and connections with such bulk supply for the purpose of supplying water to such persons were a system of water-supply established and maintained by the Board.]

238. Removal and exclusion from cantonment of disorderly persons.—(1) A Magistrate of the first class, having jurisdiction in a cantonment, on receiving information that any person residing in or frequenting the cantonment—

(a) is a disorderly person who has been convicted more than once of gaming or who keeps or frequents a common gaming house, a disorderly drinking shop or a disorderly house of any other description, or

(b) has been convicted more than once, either within the cantonment or elsewhere, of an offence punishable under Chapter XVII of the Indian Penal Code, or

(c) has been convicted, either within the cantonment or elsewhere, of any offence punishable under section 156 of the Army Act,[a] or may record in writing the substance of the information received, and may issue a summons to such person requiring such person to appear and show cause why he should not be required to remove from the cantonment and be prohibited from re-entering it.

(d) has been ordered under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, either within the cantonment or elsewhere, to execute a bond for his good behaviour,

(2) Every summons issued under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by a copy of the record aforesaid, and the copy shall be served along with the summons on the person against whom the summons is issued.

(3) The Magistrate shall, when the person so summoned appears before him, proceed to inquire into the truth of the information received and take such further evidence as he thinks fit, and if upon such inquiry, it appears to him that such person is a person of any kind described in sub-section (1) and that it is

(1) The provisions of Section 238 are not violative of the constitutional liberties declared by Article 19 (1) (d) and (e) and the procedural and substantive provisions of the Act do not overstep the limits of reasonableness. The section is intra vires the Constitution. AIR 1957 Punj 244 (254): ILR (1957) Punj 1388: 1957 Cri L Jour 1173 (DB).

(2) The provisions of the section are in the interest of general public within the meaning of Article 19 (5) of the Constitution. ('57) AIR 1957 Punj 244 (248): ILR (1957) Punj 1388: 1957 Cri L Jour 1173 (DB).

(3) The provisions of Section 238 relating to externment of disorderly and other persons did not make any distinction between Indian or British soldiers. If it was desirable in 1924 when the Act was passed, to protect British and Indian soldiers against bad influences it is equally desirable that Indian soldiers now should also receive the benefit of the legislation. [b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1925 (7 of 1925), S. 14, for "Commanding Officer of the Cantonment".

239. Removal and exclusion from cantonment of seditious persons.—(1) If any person in a cantonment causes or attempts to cause or does any act which he knows is likely to cause disloyalty, disaffection or breaches of discipline amongst any portion of [as][the Armed forces of the Union] or is a person who, the [a][Officer Commanding the station] has reason to believe, is likely to do any such act the [a][Officer Commanding the station] may make an order in writing setting forth the reasons for the making of the same and requiring such person to remove from the cantonment within such time as may be specified in the order and prohibiting him from re-entering it without the permission in writing of the [a][Officer Commanding the station]:

Provided that no order shall be made under this section against any person unless he has had a reasonable opportunity of being informed of the grounds on which it is proposed to make the order and of showing cause why the order should not be made.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall be sent to the Superintendent of Police of the district, who shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the person concerned.

(3) Upon the making of any order under sub-section (1), the [a][Officer Commanding the station] shall forthwith send a copy of the same to the [c][Central Government].

(4) The [c][Central Government] may, of its own motion, and shall, on application, made to it in this behalf within one month of the date of the order by the person against whom the order has been made, call upon the District Magistrate to make, after such inquiry as the [c][Central Government] may prescribe, a report regarding the justice of the order and the necessity therefor. At every such inquiry the person against whom the order has been made shall be given an opportunity of being heard in his own defence.

(5) The [c][Central Government] may, at any time after the receipt of a copy of an order sent under sub-section (3), or where a report has been called for under sub-section (4), on receipt of that report if it is of opinion that the order should be varied or rescinded, [b][make such order thereon as it thinks fit].

(6) Any person who has been excluded from a cantonment by an order made under this section may, at any time after the expiry of one month from the date thereof, apply to the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, for the rescission of the same and, on such application being made, the said Officer may,

[b] Substituted by A. O. for "refer the case to the Governor-General in Council, who shall pass such orders thereon as he thinks fit".

240. Penalty.—Whoever—

(a) fails to comply with an order issued under this Chapter within the period specified therein, or, whilst an order prohibiting him from re-entering a cantonment without permission is in force, re-enters the cantonment without such permission, or

(b) knowing that any person has, under this Chapter, been required to remove from the cantonment and has not obtained the requisite permission to re-enter it, harbours or conceals such person in the cantonment, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first during which he has persisted in the offence.

CHAPTER XV

POWERS, PROCEDURE, PENALTIES AND APPEALS

Entry and Inspection

241. Powers of entry.—It shall be lawful for the President or the Vice-President of a Board, or the Executive Officer, or the Health Officer or Assistant Health Officer, or any person specially authorised by the Health Officer or the Assistant Health Officer, or for any other person authorised by general or special order of a [a][Board] in this behalf, to enter into or upon any building or land with or without assistants or workmen in order to make any inquiry, inspection, measurement, valuation or survey, or to execute any work, which is authorised by or under this Act or which it is necessary to make or execute for any of the purposes or in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or order made thereunder:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to confer upon any person any power such as is referred to in Section 207 or Section 215 or to authorise the conferment upon any person of any such power.

242. Powers of inspection by member of a Board.—With the previous sanction of the President, any member of a Board may inspect any work or institution constructed or maintained, in whole or part, at the expense of the Board, and any register, book, accounts or other document belonging to, or in the possession of, the Board.

243. Power of inspection, etc.—(1) A [a][Board] may, by general or special order, authorise any person—

(a) to inspect any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool, pipe, sewer or channel in or on any building or land in the cantonment, and, in his discretion, to cause the ground to be opened for the purpose of preventing or removing any nuisance arising from the drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool, pipe, sewer or channel, as the case may be;

(b) to examine works under construction in the cantonment, to take levels or to remove, test, examine, replace or read any meter.

(2) If on such inspection, the opening of the ground is found to be necessary for the prevention or removal of a nuisance, the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the land or building, but if it is found that no nuisance exists or but for such opening would have arisen the ground or portion of any building, drain, or other work opened, injured or removed for the purpose of such inspection shall be filled in, reinstated, or made good, as the case may be, by the [a][Board].

244. Power to enter land adjoining land where work is in progress.—(1) The Executive Officer of a cantonment may, with or without assistants or workmen, enter on any land within fifty yards of any work authorised by or under this Act for the purpose of depositing thereon any soil, gravel, stone or other materials, or of obtaining access to such work, or for any other purpose connected with the carrying on of the same.

(2) The Executive Officer shall, before entering on any land under sub-section (1), give the occupier, or, if there is no occupier, the owner not less than three days' previous notice in writing of his intention to make such entry, and shall state the purpose thereof, and shall, if so required by the occupier or owner, fence off so much of the land as may be required for such purpose.

(3) The Executive Officer shall, in exercising any power conferred by this section, do as little damage as may be, and compensation shall be payable by the [a][Board] to the owner or occupier of such land, or to both, for any such damage whether permanent or temporary.

245. Breaking into premises.—It shall be lawful for any person, authorised by or under this Act to make any entry into any place, to open or cause to be opened any door, gate or other barrier—

(a) if he considers the opening thereof necessary for the purpose of such entry; and

(b) if the owner or occupier is absent, or being present refuses to open such door, gate or barrier.

246. Entry to be made in the day time.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no entry authorised by or under this Act shall be made except between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

247. Owner's consent ordinarily to be obtained.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no building or land shall be entered without the consent of the occupier, or if there is no occupier, of the owner thereof, and no such entry shall be made without giving the said occupier or owner, as the case may be, not less than four hours' written notice of the intention to make such entry:

Provided that no such notice shall be necessary if the place to be inspected is a stable for horses or a shed for cattle, or a latrine, privy or urinal, or a work under construction.

(1) The entry which is contemplated in Section 247 which requires four hours' written notice is an entry without the consent of the occupier or the owner. But if the entry is with the implied consent of the occupier or the owner no question of four hours' written notice arises. ('35) AIR 1935 All 160 (161): 36 Cri L Jour 356.

248. Regard to be had to social and religious usages.—When any place used as a human dwelling is entered under this Act, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious customs and usages of the occupants of the place entered, and no apartment in the actual occupancy of a female shall be entered or broken open until she has been informed that she is at liberty to withdraw and every reasonable facility has been afforded to her for withdrawing.

249. Penalty for obstruction.—Whoever obstructs or molests any person employed by a [a][Board], who is not a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code or any person with whom the [a][Board] has lawfully contracted, in the execution of his duty or of anything which he is empowered or required to do by virtue or in consequence of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or order made thereunder, or in fulfilment of his contract, as the case may be, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF POLICE OFFICERS

250. Arrest without warrant.—Any member of the police force employed in a cantonment may, without a warrant, arrest any person committing in his view a breach of any of the provisions of this Act which are specified in Schedule IV.

Provided that—

(a) in the case of the breach of any such provision as is specified in Part B of Schedule IV, no person shall be so arrested who consents to give his name and address, unless there is reasonable ground for doubting the accuracy of the name or address so given, the burden of proof of which shall lie on the arresting officer, and no person so arrested shall be detained after his name and address have been ascertained; and

(b) no person shall be so arrested for an offence under section 236 except—

(i) at the request of the person importuned or of a military officer in whose presence the offence was committed; or

(ii) by or at the request of a member of the Military or Air Force Police, who is employed in the cantonment and authorised in this behalf by the [a][Officer Commanding the station], and in whose presence the offence was committed or by or at the request of any police officer not below the rank of a sub-inspector who is employed in the cantonment and authorised in this behalf by the [a][Officer Commanding the station].

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1925 (7 of 1925), S. 14, for "Commanding Officer of the Cantonment".

251. Duties of police officers.—It shall be the duty of all police officers to give immediate information to the [a][Board] of the commission of any offence against the provisions of this Act or of any rule or bye-law made thereunder, and to assist all cantonment officers and servants in the exercise of their lawful authority.

law, the notice, order or requisition shall specify a reasonable time for doing the same.

253. Authentication and validity of notices issued by Board.—Every notice, order or requisition issued by a [a][Board] under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder shall be signed—

(a) [b][* * ] either by the President of the Board or by the Executive Officer or, [c][ * *]

(b) by the members of any committee especially authorised by the [a][Board] in this behalf.

[b] The words "where there is a Board" were repealed by S. 60, ibid.
[c] The words "where there is no Board, by the Executive Officer; or" were repealed by S. 60, ibid.

254. Service of notice, etc.—(1) Every notice, order or requisition issued under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, be served or presented—

(a) by giving or tendering the notice, order or requisition, or sending it by post, to the person for whom it is intended; or

(b) if such person cannot be found, by affixing the notice, order or requisition on some conspicuous part of his last known place of abode or business, if within the cantonment, or by giving or tendering the notice, order or requisition to some adult male member or servant of his family, or by causing it to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land, if any, to which it relates.

(2) When any such notice, order or requisition is required or permitted to be served upon an owner, lessee or occupier of any building or land, it shall not be necessary to name the owner, lessee or occupier therein, and the service thereof shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, be effected either—

(a) by giving or tendering the notice, order or requisition, or sending it by post, to the owner, lessee or occupier, or, if there are more owners, lessees or occupiers than one, [a][to] any one of them; or

(b) if no such owner, lessee or occupier can be found, by giving or tendering the notice, order or requisition to the authorised agent, if any, of any such owner, lessee or occupier, or to an adult male member or servant of the family of any such owner, lessee or occupier, or by causing it to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land to which it relates.

(3) When the person on whom a notice, order or requisition is to be served is a minor, service upon his guardian or upon an adult male member or servant of his family shall be deemed to be service upon the minor.

[a] Substituted for "on" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1940 (32 of 1940), S. 3 and Sch. II, (27-11-1940).

255. Method of giving notice.—Every notice which, by or under this Act, is to be given or served as a public notice or as a notice which is not required to be given to any individual therein specified shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, be deemed to have been sufficiently given or served if a copy thereof is affixed in such conspicuous part of the office of the [a][Board] or in such other public place, during such period, or is published in such local newspaper or in such other manner, as the [a][Board] may direct.

256. Powers of Board in case of non-compliance with notice, etc.—In the event of non-compliance with the terms of any notice, order or requisition issued to any person under this Act, or any rule or bye-law made thereunder, requiring such person to execute any work or to do any act, it shall be lawful for the [a][Board], whether or not the person in default is liable to punishment for such default or has been prosecuted or sentenced to any punishment therefor, after giving notice in writing to such person, to take such action or such steps as may be necessary for the completion of the act or work required to be done or executed by him, and all the expenses incurred on such account shall be recoverable by the [a][Board].

RECOVERY OF MONEY

257. Liability of occupier to pay in default of owner.—(1) If any such notice as is referred to in Section 256 has been given to any person in respect of property of which he is the owner, the [a][Board] may require any occupier of such property or of any part thereof to pay to it, instead of to the owner, any rent payable by him in respect of such property, as it falls due, up to the amount recoverable from the owner under section 256:

Provided that, if the occupier, on application made to him by the [a][Board], refuses truly to disclose the amount of his rent or the name or address of the person to whom it is payable, the [a][Board] may recover from the occupier the whole amount recoverable under section 256.

(2) Any amount recovered from an occupier instead of from an owner under sub-section (1) shall, in the absence of any contract between the owner and the occupier to the contrary, be deemed to have been paid to the owner.

258. Relief to agents and trustees.—(1) Where any person, by reason of his receiving the rent of immovable property as an agent or trustee, or of his being as an agent to trustee the person who would receive the rent if the property were let to a tenant, would under this Act be bound to discharge any obligation imposed on the owner of the property for the discharge of which money is required, he shall not be bound to discharge the obligation unless he has, or but for his own improper act or default might have had, funds in his hands belonging to the owner sufficient for the purpose.

(2) The burden of proving any fact entitling an agent or trustee to relief under sub-section (1) shall lie upon him.

(3) Where any agent or trustee has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the [a][Board] may, by notice in writing, require him, to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first monies which may come to his hands on behalf, or for the use, of the owner, and, on failure to comply with the notice, he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge the obligation.

COMMITTEES OF ARBITRATION

260. Application for a Committee of Arbitration.—In the event of any disagreement as to the liability of a [a][Board] to pay any compensation under this Act, or as to the amount of any compensation so payable, the person claiming such compensation may apply to the [a][Board] for the reference of the matter to a committee of Arbitration, and the [a][Board] shall forthwith proceed to convene a Committee of Arbitration to determine the matter in dispute.

261. Procedure for convening Committee of Arbitration.—When a Committee of Arbitration is to be convened, the [a][Board] shall cause a public notice to be published stating the matter to be determined, and shall forthwith send copies of the order to the District Magistrate, and to the other party concerned, and shall, as soon as may be, nominate such members of the Committee, as it is entitled to nominate under section 262, and, by notice in writing, call upon the other persons who are entitled to nominate a member or members of the Committee to nominate such member or members in accordance with the provisions of that section.

ther, under the new section the proviso to sub-section (1) exempts tools of artisans from such distress or sale.

(2) An action for recovery can be taken under Section 259 with respect to rent on land and buildings if such rent is "claimable" by a Board under the Act or the rules framed thereunder. The section cannot be applied to a simple case of money due to the Board on a contract of lease. AIR 1966 SC 108 (111): (1965) 3 SCR 341.

(3) Magistrate while purporting to act under Section 259 of the Cantonments Act does not exercise any judicial function. His order is, therefore, not revisable. ILR (1959) 9 Raj 1041.

262 Constitution of Committee of Arbitration.—(1) Every Committee of Arbitration shall consist of five members, namely:—

(a) a Chairman who shall be a person not in the service of the [a][Government] or the [a][Board], and who shall be nominated by the [b][Officer Commanding the station];

(b) two persons nominated by the [a][Board]; and

(c) two persons nominated by the other party concerned,

[c][* * * *]

(2) If the [a][Board] or the other party concerned or the [b][Officer Commanding the station] fails within seven days of the date of issue of the notice referred to in section 261 to make any nomination which it or he is entitled to make or, if any member who has been so nominated neglects or refuses to act and the [a][Board] or other person by whom such member was nominated fails to nominate another member in his place within seven days from the date on which it or he may be called upon to do so by the District Magistrate, the District Magistrate shall fortwith appoint a member or members, as the case may be, to fill the vacancy or vacancies.

[c] The words "who shall be persons liable to pay taxes in the cantonment and ordinarily resident therein or in the immediate vicinity thereof" were repealed by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 62.

263. No person to be nominated who has direct interest or whose services are not immediately available.—(1) No person who has a direct interest in the matter under reference, or whose services are not immediately available for the purposes of the Committee, shall be nominated a member of a Committee of Arbitration.

(2) If, in the opinion of the District Magistrate, any person who has been nominated has a direct interest in the matter under reference, or is otherwise disqualified for nomination, or if the services of any such person are not immediately available as aforesaid, and if the [a][Board] or other person by whom any such person was nominated fails to nominate another member within seven days from the date on which it or he may be called upon to do so by the District Magistrate, such failure shall be deemed to constitute a failure to make a nomination within the meaning of Section 262.

264. Meetings and powers of Committees of Arbitration.—(1) When a Committee of Arbitration has been duly constituted, the [a][Board] shall, by notice in writing, inform each of the members of the fact, and the Committee shall meet as soon as may be thereafter.

(2) The Chairman of the Committee shall fix the time and place of meetings, and shall have power to adjourn any meeting from time to time as may be necessary.

(3) The Committee shall receive and record evidence, and shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses, and, on requisition in writing signed by the Chairman of the Committee, the District Magistrate shall issue the necessary processes for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents required by the Committee, and may enforce the said processes as if they were processes for attendance or production before himself.

265 Decisions of Committees of Arbitration.—(1) The decision of every Committee of Arbitration shall be in accordance with the majority of votes taken at a meeting at which the Chairman and at least three of the other members are present.

(2) If there is not a majority of votes in favour of any proposed decision, the opinion of the Chairman shall prevail.

(3) The decision of a Committee of Arbitration shall be final and shall not be questioned in any Court.

PROSECUTIONS

266 Prosecutions.—[a][(1)] Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no Court shall proceed to the trial of any offence made punishable by or under this Act, other than an offence specified in Schedule IV, except on the complaint of, or upon information received from, the [b][Board] concerned or a person authorised by the [b][Board] by a general or special order in this behalf.

[c][(2) No offence made punishable under this Act shall be tried by any Magistrate or by any Bench, if such Magistrate or any of the Magistrates composing the Bench is a member of the Board.]

[b] Substituted by S. 69, ibid, for "Cantonment Authority".

[c] Inserted by S. 63, ibid.

Section 266 — Note 1

(1) "We have excepted from the general rule that cognizance is not to be taken of offences otherwise than on complaint by or under the authority of the Cantonment Authority, those offences under the Act for which the Police can arrest without warrant." — Select Committee Report.

(2) This section merely lays down that no Court shall proceed to the trial of any offence under this Act unless moved by the persons mentioned in the section. After such persons initiate the proceedings, the Court must follow the procedure laid down in the Criminal P. C. This section does not lay down that on the information or complaint of certain persons the Court should proceed with the trial of the case irrespective of the provisions of the Criminal P. C. ('28) 29 Cri L Jour 591 (592) (Nag).

(3) Offences under Section 141 (1) and offences under Section 141 (2) are not specified in Schedule IV. Therefore, no Court can proceed with the trial of any of these offences except on the complaint filed in accordance with Section 266. ('35) AIR 1935 All 905 (906): 36 Cri L Jour 1493.

(4) The letter on record, which was written to the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, purported to be signed by the Executive Officer of the Cantonment Authority. No evidence was called to prove this letter. Neither was it proved to have been signed by the Cantonment Authority nor was the officer proved to have been authorised by the Authorities. Held, that Section 266 was not complied with and the proceedings commenced on that letter and the orders passed were invalid. ('35) AIR 1935 All 905 (906): 36 Cri L Jour 1493.

(5) Cantonment Board lodging a complaint signed by its Executive Officer — Executive Officer filing no authority but having power to file such complaint — Affidavit filed in revision Court showing that he had an authority to do so — Omission to file authority held was curable under Section 537, Criminal P. C. ('28) AIR 1928 Lah 946 (947): 29 Cri L Jour 822.

(6) On the report of a Cantonment Official, the Cantonment Magistrate wrote: "A is to blame; prosecute A." — The Magistrate then proceeded to try A himself without informing him that he was entitled to have the case tried by another Magistrate. It was held that the Magistrate should not have tried the case without informing the accused of his right to trial by another Magistrate. ('20) AIR 1920 Lah 203 (204): 21 Cri L Jour 394.

(7) Sub-section (2), as inserted by the amending Act in 1936, now specifically provides that no offence made punishable under this Act shall be tried by a Magistrate if such Magistrate is a member of the Board. The following case decided in 1928 holding that a cantonment Magistrate can try a complaint even though he is a member of the Board is no longer good law. ('28) AIR 1928 Lah 946 (947): 29 Cri L Jour 822.

267. Composition of offence.—(1) A [a][Board], or any person authorised by it, by general or special order in this behalf, may, either before or after the institution of the proceedings, compound any offence made punishable by or under this Act other than an offence under Chapter XIV:

Provided that no offence shall be compoundable which is committed by failure to comply with a notice, order or requisition issued by or on behalf of the [a][Board], unless and until the same has been complied with in so far as compliance is possible.

(2) Where an offence has been compounded, the offender, if in custody, shall be discharged and no further proceedings, shall be taken against him in respect of the offence so compounded.

GENERAL PENALTY PROVISIONS

268. General penalty.—Whoever, in any case in which a penalty is not expressly provided by this Act, fails to comply with any notice, order or requisition issued under any provision thereof, or otherwise contravenes any of the provisions of this Act, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing failure or contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first during which he has persisted in the failure or contravention.

269. Cancellation and suspension of licences.—Where any person to whom a licence has been granted under this Act or any agent or servant of such person

(1) Notwithstanding the fact that an offence under the Cantonments Act, e.g., disobedience to a notice under Section 135 of that Act, may be triable under the Criminal P. C., as a summons case and the accused could only be acquitted and not discharged the accused can be discharged or further proceedings against him can be dropped under Section 267 (2), if the ofence with which he is charged has been properly compounded. ('47) AIR 1947 Sind 128 (128): ILR (1947) Kar 299: 48 Cri L Jour 300 (DB).

(2) Where an offence under the Act has been properly compounded, the fact that the offender is not in custody and therefore it is not necessary to discharge him under Section 267 (2) does not preclude the Court from dropping further proceedings against the offender under Section 267 (2). (3) Section 184 provides no penalty for a continuing failure or contravention; such a penalty is provided in Section 268. ('34) AIR 1934 Oudh 29 (31): 35 Cri L Jour 666.

(4) The punishment of whipping is not one of the sentences mentioned by the Cantonments Act. ('93) 1893 Rat 682 (682). (Case under old Act, 1889.)

(6) The penal sections of the Act are of so rigorous a nature that they must be construed strictly in favour of an accused as well as against him. ('11) 12 Cri L Jour 371 (372) (Lah).

(7) Prosecution for failure to comply with resolution — It is always open to accused to show that resolution was not legal or that it was in excess of powers possessed by body passing such resolution — No independent proceedings are necessary for this purpose — Accused cannot be held guilty unless prosecution establishes that Board was within its powers in passing Resolution and calling upon accused to comply with it. 1937 Cr LJ 1235 (Mys).

270. Recovery of amount payable in respect of damage to cantonment property.—Where any person has incurred a penalty by reason of having caused any damage to the property of a [a][Board], he shall be liable to make good such damage, and the amount payable in respect of the damage shall in case of dispute, be determined by the Magistrate by whom the person incurring such penalty is convicted, and, on non-payment of such amount on demand, the same shall be recovered by distress and sale of the moveable property of such person, and the Magistrate shall issue a warrant for its recovery accordingly.

LIMITATION

271. Limitation for prosecution.—No Court shall try any person for an offence made punishable by or under this Act, after the expiry of six months from the date of the commission of the offence, unless complaint in respect of the offence has been made to a Magistrate within the six months aforesaid.

SUITS

272. Protection of Board, Executive Officer, etc.—No suit or prosecution shall be entertained in any Court against any [a][Board] [b][* * *] or against any [c][Officer Commanding a station] or against any member of a Board, or against any officer or servant of a [a][Board], for anything in good faith done, or intended to be done, under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder.

(2) In the case of a continuing offence the limitation for making a complaint begins to run from the time when the offence was last committed. ('55) ILR (1955) Patiala 1 (8).

Section 272 — Note 1

(1) Section applies only to cases where notice under Section 187 appears to have been given according to terms of Act. Where it is found that the notice itself was bad because the alleged encroachments were not on a public street but were on the land belonging to the plaintiff and therefore, a notice under Section 187 was not justified, Section 272 would have no application. ('47) AIR 1947 All 243 (244).

Section 273 — Note 1

(1) The object of the provisions of Section 273 is to give these public authorities an opportunity to settle such claims without suit and to afford them protection against suits filed after considerable delay with the result that the burden falls upon a different set of tax-payers and not upon the body of tax-payers as it existed at the

(2) If the [a][Board], member, officer or servant has, before the suit is instituted, tendered sufficient amends to the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall not recover any sum in excess of the amount so tendered, and shall also pay all costs incurred by the defendant after such tender.

(3) No suit, such as is described in sub-section (1), shall, unless it is an action for the recovery of immoveable property or for a declaration of title thereto, be instituted after the expiry of six months from the date on which the cause of action arises.

(4) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to apply to a suit in which the only relief claimed is an injunction of which the object would be defeated by the giving of the notice or the postponment of the institution of the suit or proceeding.

APPEALS AND REVISION

274. Appeals from executive orders.—(1) Any person aggrieved by any order described in the second column of Schedule V may appeal to the authority specified in that behalf in the third column thereof.

date of the cause of action . ('47) AIR 1947 All 42 (45) (DB).

(2) Sub-section (1) of this section does not apply to suits on private contracts. A suit for the recovery of the price of the goods supplied to the Cantonment Board is not a suit within the ambit of this section. Hence, such a suit is governed by Article 52, Limitation Act, and not by this section. ('34) AIR 1934 All 436 (437): 56 All 885 * 1969 MPLJ 425: 1969 Jab LJ 304.

(3) The effect of the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (3) of Section 273 is that a plaintiff is entitled to institute his suit within eight months of the date of the accruing of the cause of action after having delivered notice to the Board not less than two months prior to the institution of the suit. ('47) AIR 1947 All 42 (44) (DB).

(4) All that sub-section (1) of Sec. 273 contemplates is that the act must have been done in pursuance of the Act or of any rule or bye-law made thereunder and this section cannot be interpreted to mean that the acts done by the Board in exercise of its powers under the Act will stand on a different footing from those done in discharge of the duties imposed on the Board by the Act. Sub-section (3) will be applicable to all suits which fall within the ambit of sub-section (1) of the said section. AIR 1961 Punj 460 (463, 464): 63 Punj LR 407.

(5) It is to acts which the Board has not merely the authority but also duty to perform, that is acts which are enjoined upon the Board that the protection afforded by Section 273 extends. An "act done by the Board in pursuance of this Act" means an act enjoined upon the Board by the Act. ('47) AIR 1947 All 42 (46, 48) (DB). (Post of Office Superintendent carrying certain fixed pay — Person appointed as Office Superintendent but paid less pay according to new scale introduced by Board but not sanctioned by Eastern Command — Suit by person for payment of arrears of pay — Section 273 (1) does not apply.)

(1) A self-contained code of appeal is provided by Sections 274 and 278 and it is, therefore, difficult to conceive that the challenge to the appellate order does not apply to the Civil Courts but only to the authorities functioning under the Act. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (82): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(2) No such appeal be admitted if it is made after the expiry of the period specified in that behalf in the fourth column of the said Schedule.

(3) The period specified as aforesaid shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, with respect to the computation of periods of limitation thereunder.

275. Petition of appeal.—(1) Every appeal under section 274 shall be made by petition in writing accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against.

(2) Any such petition may be presented to the authority which made the order against which the appeal is made, and that authority shall be bound to forward it to the appellate authority, and may attach thereto any report which it may desire to make by way of explanation.

276. Suspension of action pending appeal.—On the admission of an appeal from an order, other than an order contained in a notice issued under [a][* * *], section 140, section 176, or section 238, all proceedings to enforce the order and all prosecutions for any contravention thereof shall be held in abeyance pending the decision of the appeal, and, if the order is set aside on appeal, disobedience thereto, shall not be deemed to be an offence.

[a] The words, letter, brackets and figures "clause (a) of section 137" were omitted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1948 (50 of 1948), S. 3, (8-9-1948).

277. Revision.—[a][ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ]

[a][(1)] Where an appeal from an order made by the [b][Board] has been disposed of by the District Magistrate, [c][either party to the proceedings] may, within thirty days from the date thereof, apply, through the [d][Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command], to the [e][Central Government], or to such authority as the [e][Central Government] may appoint in this behalf, for a revision of the decision.

---

(2) The question whether on the objection of the Government, a person should be given or refused sanction is within the power of the Board and of the appellate authority and cannot be raised in Civil Court even though their decision may work hardship. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (84): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(3) A liability not existing under the general law viz to obtain the requisite sanction to erect or to re-erect a building has been created by Section 181 of the statute and a special remedy has also been provided therein (Section 274) for enforcing it. It is that remedy alone which the aggrieved party must adopt to seek redress. ('55) AIR 1955 Nag 81 (82): ILR (1954) Nag 973 (DB).

(4) Conviction by Cantonment Magistrate of offences punishable under Cantonment Rules are appealable to the same extent as convictions by other Magistrates of the same class. ('97) 1897 Pun Re (Cr) No. 1, p. 1 (2) (DB).

(5) A Cantonment Magistrate was expressly made subordinate to the District Magistrate by the Cantonments Act, 1889, Section 7. ('96) Rat Un. Cr. C. 849 (849).

(6) The Cantonment Magistrate of Secunderabad in his character of a District Magistrate is subordinate to the High Court of Bombay in criminal matters relating to Christian European British subjects in Hyderabad within the contemplation of Section 526, Criminal P. C. ('85) 9 Bom 333 (341, 342).

(7) Order levying compensation fee under Section 185 — Not appealable — Person is not entitled to a reasonable opportunity of being heard in person under Section 279. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 113 (116) (DB).

(1) An order inflicting a fine under Section 268 is a judicial order and, therefore, is open to revision ('10) 11 Cri L Jour 17 (18): 1909 Pun Re (Cr) No. 9.

(2) It is no part of the duty of the superior Court to search through a voluminous enactment like the Cantonments Act in order to ascertain whether convictions are maintainable otherwise than under the precise section quoted by the Magistrate as his authority. Where, therefore, a Magistrate convicts under a wrong section, the accused is entitled to the benefit of the mistake and the Magistrate's orders are liable to be set aside in revision as being illegal. ('11) 12 Cri L Jour 371 (372) (Lah).

*[(2)] The provisions of this Chapter with respect to appeals shall apply, as far as may be, to applications for revision made under this section.

[a] The original sub-section (1) was omitted and sub-sections (2) and (3) were re-numbered as (1) and (2) by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 9.

[b] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority".

[c] Substituted by S. 65, ibid, for "the Cantonment Authority".

[d] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1926 (35 of 1926), S. 9, for "Officer Commanding the District".

278. Finality of appellate orders.—Save as otherwise provided in Section 277, every order of an appellate authority shall be final.

279. Right of appellant to be heard.—No appeal shall be decided under this Chapter unless the appellant has been heard, or has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard in person or through a legal practitioner.

CHAPTER XVI

RULES AND BYE-LAWS

280. Power to make Rules.—(1) The *[Central Government] may, after previous publication, make rules[a] to carry out the purposes and objects of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the manner in which, and the authority to which, application for permission to occupy land belonging to *[the Government] in a cantonment is to be made;

(b) the authority by which such permission may be granted and the conditions to be annexed to the grant of any such permission;

(2) All rules so made shall be published in the [°][Official Gazette] and in such other manner, if any, as the [°][Central Government] may direct and, on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

282. Power to make bye-laws.—Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the rules made thereunder a [a][Board] may, in addition to any bye-laws which it is empowered to make by any other provision of this Act, make bye-laws to provide for all or any of the following matters in the cantonment, namely:—

(1) The registration of births, deaths and marriages and the taking of a census;

(2) The enforcement of compulsory vaccination;

(3) the regulation of the collection and recovery of taxes, tolls and fees under this Act and the refund of taxes;

(4) the regulation or prohibition of any description of traffic in the streets;

(5) the manner in which vehicles standing, driven, led or propelled in the streets between sunset and sunrise shall be lighted;

(6) the seizure and confiscation of ownerless animals staying within the limits of the cantonment;

(7) the prevention and extinction of fire;

(8) the construction of scaffolding for building operations to secure the safety of the general public and of persons working thereon;

(9) the regulation in any manner not specifically provided for in this Act of the construction, alteration, maintenance, preservation, cleaning, and repairs of drains, ventilation-shafts, pipes, waterclosets, privies, latrines, urinals, cesspools and other drainage works.

[10] the regulation or prohibition of the discharge into, or deposit in drains or sewage, polluted water and other offensive or obstructive matter;

(11) the regulation or prohibition of the stabling or herding of animals, or of any class of animals, so as to prevent danger to public health;

(12) The proper disposal of corpses, the regulation and management of burial and burning places and other places for the disposal of corpses and the fees-chargeable for the use of such places where the same are provided or maintained by Government or at the expense of the cantonment fund;

(13) the permission, regulation or prohibition of the use or occupation of any street or place by itinerant vendors or by any person for the sale of articles or the exercise of any calling or the setting up of any booth or stall, and the fees chargeable for such use or occupation;

[14] the regulation and control of encamping grounds, pounds, washing-places, serais, hotels, dak-bungalows, lodging-houses, boarding-houses, buildings let in tenements, residential clubs; restaurants, eating-houses, cafes, refreshment-rooms and places of public recreation, entertainment or resort;

Section 282 — Note 1

(1a) Section 282 only indicates the subjects on which bye-laws can be framed. It does not require that the bye-laws should contain a mention of all possible details in respect of the situations in which they are to be enforced or the circumstances in which they are to apply. Thus, bye-laws conferring general powers to be utilised on specific occasions by means of resolutions can be framed under Section 282. AIR 1960 All 719 (721): 1960 All LJ 572 (DB).

(1) As to the power of the Central Government to extend any bye-laws framed under this section to any area beyond a cantonment and the vicinity thereof, see Section 286.

other potable waters and of butter, milk, sweet-meats and other articles of food or drink for human consumption;

(16) the matters regarding which conditions may be imposed by licences granted under section 210;

(17) the control and supervision of places where dangerous or offensive trades are carried on so as to secure cleanliness therein or to minimise any injurious, offensive or dangerous effects arising or likely to arise therefrom;

(18) the regulation of the erection of any enclosure, fence, tent, awning or other temporary structure of whatsoever material or nature on any land situated within the cantonment;

(19) the laying out of streets, and the regulation and prohibition of the erection of buildings without adequate provision being made for the laying out and location of streets;

(20) the regulation of the use of public parks and gardens and other public places, and the protection of avenues, trees, grass and other appurtenances of streets and other public places;

(21) the regulation of the grazing of animals;

(22) the fixing and regulation of the use of public bathing and washing places;

(23) the regulation of the posting of bills and advertisements, and of the position, size, shape or style of name-boards, sign-boards and sign-posts;

(24) the fixation of a method for the sale of articles whether by measure, weight, piece or any other method;

[(25) the rendering necessary of licences within the cantonment—

(a) for persons working as job porters for the conveyance of goods;

(b) for animals or vehicles let out on hire;

(c) for the proprietors or drivers of vehicles, boats or other conveyances, or of animals kept or plying for hire; ²[•]

(d) for persons impelling or carrying such vehicles or other conveyances; ²[or

(e) for persons practising as nurses, midwives or dais;]]

[(26) the prescribing of the fee payable for any licence required under Cl. (25), and of the conditions subject to which such licences may be granted, revised, suspended or withdrawn;

[(27)] the regulation of the charges to be made for the services of such job porters and of the hire of such animals, vehicles or other conveyances, and for the remuneration of persons impelling or carrying such vehicles or conveyances as are referred to in clause (25);

[(28)] the regulation or prohibition, for purposes of sanitation or the prevention of disease or the promotion of public safety or convenience of any act which occasions or is likely to occasion a nuisance, and for the regulation or prohibition of which no provision is made elsewhere by or under this Act;

[(29)] the circumstances and the manner in which owners of buildings or land in the cantonment, who are temporarily absent from, or are not resident in, the cantonment, may be required to appoint as their agents, for all or any of the purposes of this Act or of any rule or bye-law made thereunder, persons residing within or near the cantonment;

[(30)] the prevention of the spread of infectious or contagious diseases within the cantonment;

(31) the segregation in, or the removal and exclusion from, the cantonment, or the destruction, of animals suffering or reasonably suspected to be suffering from any infectious or contagious disease;

(32) the supervision, regulation, conservation and protection from injury, contamination or trespass of sources and means of public water-supply and of appliances for the distribution of water whether within or without the limits of the cantonment;

(33) the manner in which connections with water-works may be constructed or maintained, and the agency which shall or may be employed for such construction and maintenance;

(34) the regulation of all matters and things relating to the supply and use of water including the collection and recovery of charges therefor and the prevention of evasion of the same;

(35) the maintenance of schools, and the furtherance of education generally;

(36) the regulation or prohibition of the cutting or destruction of trees or shrubs, or of the making of excavations, or of the removal of soil or quarrying, where such regulation or prohibition appears to the [a][Board] to be necessary for the maintenance, of a water-supply, the preservation of the soil, the prevention of landslips or of the formation of ravines or torrents, or the protection of land against erosion or against the deposit thereon of sand, gravel or stones;

(37) the rendering necessary of licences for the use of premises within the cantonment as stables or cowhouses or as accommodation for sheep, goats or fouls;

(38) the control of the use in the cantonment of mechanical whistles, syrens or trumpets; and

(39) generally for the regulation of the administration of the cantonment under this Act.

[b] the word "or" was omitted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1942 (15 of 1942), S. 12. (30-3-1942).

[c] Added by S. 12, ibid.

283. Penalty for breach of bye-laws.—Any bye-law made by a [a][Board] under this Act may provide that a contravention thereof shall be punishable—

(a) with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees; or

(b) with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention; or

(c) with fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which the contravention continues after the receipt of a notice from the [a][Board] by the person contravening the bye-law requiring such person to discontinue such contravention.

284. Supplemental provisions regarding bye-laws.—(1) Any power to make bye-laws conferred by this Act is conferred subject to the condition of the bye-laws being made after previous publication and of their not taking effect until they have been approved and confirmed by the [b][Central Government] and published in the [b][Official Gazette].

---

(1) The additional fine is to be imposed only after first conviction and that too on proof that failure is persisted in. The continuing failure must be matter of separate inquiry and proof. ('98) 22 Bom 841 (843). (Failure to re-build latrines according to plan.)

(2) The *[Central Government] in confirming a bye-law may make any change therein which appears to it to be necessary.

(3) The *[Central Government] may, after previous publication of its intention cancel any bye-law which it has confirmed, and thereupon the bye-law shall cease to have effect.

285. Rules and bye-laws to be available for inspection and purchase.—(1) A copy of all rules and bye-laws made under this Act shall be kept at the office of *[Board] and shall, during office hours, be open free of charge to inspection by any inhabitant of the cantonment.

(2) Copies of all such rules and bye-laws shall be kept at the office of the [a][Board], [b][and shall be sold to the public at cost price singly, or in collections at the option of the purchaser].

CHAPTER XVII
SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

286. Extension of certain provisions of the Act and rules to places beyond cantonments.—The *[Central Government] may, by notification in the *[Official Gazette], and subject to any conditions as to compensation or otherwise which it thinks fit to impose, extend to any area beyond a cantonment and in the vicinity thereof, with or without restriction or modification, any of the provisions of Chapters IX, X, XI, XII, XIII, XIV and XV or of any rule or bye-laws made under this Act for the cantonment which relates to the subject-matter of any of those Chapters, and every enactment, rule or bye-law so extended shall thereupon apply to that area as if the area were included in the cantonment.

[a][286A. Power to delegate functions of Executive Officer.—[b][(1)] The [c][Board] may empower any of its members or officers to exercise or perform in the absence of the Executive Officer from the cantonment all or any of such powers or duties of an executive officer under this Act as the *[Central Government] may by notification in the *[Official Gazette], specify in this behalf.]

[d][(2) The Board may, by a resolution passed in this behalf, delegate to the President, Vice-President, Executive Officer or health officer, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the resolution, all or any of its functions under sub-section (3) of section 82, sub-section (3) or clause (b) of sub-section (5) of Section 119, Section 131, sub-section (2) of Section 132, Section 143, Section 161, section 163, section 164, section 168, section 169, section 189, section 190, section 191, section 194, section 195, section 196 or section 197.]

[d] Sub-section (2) was added by Act 2 of 1954, S. 24. (2-1-1954).

287. Registration.—(1) Paragraphs 2 and 3 of section 54 and sections 59, 107 and 123 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, with respect to the transfer of property by registered instrument, shall, on and from the commencement of this Act, extend to every cantonment.

*[(2) The Registrar or Sub-Registrar of the district or sub-district formed for the purposes of the Indian Registration Act, 1908, in which any cantonment is situated, shall, [b][when any document relating to immovable property within the cantonment is registered, send information of the registration] forthwith to the [a][Board] or such other authority as the [c][Central Government] may prescribe in this behalf.]

[b] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1927 (10 of 1927), S. 2 and Sch. I, for the original words.

[c] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authority and Cantonment Authorities", respectively.

288. Validity of notices and other documents.—No notice, order, requisition, licence, permission in writing or other such document issued under this Act shall be invalid merely by reason of any defect of form.

289. Admissibility of document or entry as evidence.—A copy of any receipt application, plan, notice, order or other document or of any entry in a register, in the possession of a [a][Board] shall, if duly certified by the legal keeper thereof or other person authorised by the [a][Board] in this behalf, be admissible in evidence of the existence of the document or entry, and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters and transactions therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent to which, the original document or entry would, if produced, have been admissible to prove such matters.

290. Evidence by officer or Servant of the Board.—No officer or servant of a [a][Board] shall, in any legal proceeding to which the [a][Board] is not a party, be required to produce any register or document the contents of which can be proved under section 289 by a certified copy, or to appear as a witness to prove any matter or transaction recorded therein save by order of the Court made for special cause.

291. Application of Act IV of 1899.—For the purposes of the Government Buildings Act, 1899, cantonments and [a][Boards] shall be deemed to be municipalities and municipal authorities respectively.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (Amendment) Act, 1936 (24 of 1936), S. 69, for "Cantonment Authorities".

(1)The effect of Section 32 of the Cantonments Act of 1889 (corresponding to Section 287 of the present Act) is that a gift of property situate in a cantonment must be made in the manner provided by Section 123 of the T. P. Act. An oral gift by a Muhammadan of such property is, therefore, not valid. ('20) AIR 1920 Lah 249 (251).

(2) Transaction purporting to create a mortgage by deposit of title deeds effected in a cantonment area is invalid. The determining factor in such a case is not the place where the property is situated but the formalities required by the law for a mortgage at a place where the title-deeds are delivered to the creditor. ('33) AIR 1933 Lah 972 (974).

(3) This section makes Section 59 of the T. P. Act applicable to cantonments. Hence a mortgage by deposit of title-deeds within the limits of the cantonment is invalid. ('33) AIR 1933 Lah 1001 (1001, 1002).

(4) Section 107 of the Transfer of Property Act has been made applicable to cantonments by this section; hence lease of land in cantonment from month to month has to be registered. ('31) AIR 1931 Lah 501 (502).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Under Article 246 of the Constitution read with Entry 3 of the Union Legislative List, power to make laws with respect to rent control in cantonment areas now belongs exclusively to Parliament. Before the Constitution came into force, this power belonged to the former Provincial Legislature and in most Provinces the Provincial Rent Control Act was applied to cantonment areas and these Acts have continued in force in those areas. In Uttar Pradesh, however, due to a misunderstanding of the constitutional position, the cantonment areas were unfortunately excluded from the application of the Provincial Act by an amendment made shortly before the commencement of the new Constitution, with the result that there is no rent control law in force in the cantonments in that State.

2. The residents of the cantonments in Uttar Pradesh have been representing that they are being put to very grave hardship by reason of the removal of the rent control which was in force from 1947 to 1949. As rent control had not been operating in Cantonments in Uttar Pradesh for nearly two years and as the absence of such control had resulted in considerable hardship to tenants, an Ordinance, namely the Uttar Pradesh Cantonments (Control of Rent and Eviction) Ordinance, 1952 (No. II of 1952) was promulgated on the 16th January 1952, providing for the restriction of rents and protection against eviction, generally on the lines of the rent control law in force in the State. The Ordinance is applicable only to the cantonments in Uttar Pradesh, since cantonments in the other Part 'A' States and Part 'C' States (former Provinces) are covered by existing State law, and the problem has so far not arisen in the two or three cantonments situated in Part 'B' States.

3. As the necessity for the control of rents and eviction in cantonment areas of Uttar Pradesh is likely to continue for some considerable time, it is essential to replace the said Ordinance II of 1952 by an Act."

ACT HOW AFFECTED BY SUBSEQUENT LEGISLATION

—Repealed in part by Act XXXVI of 1957.

[THE UTTAR PRADESH] CANTONMENTS (CONTROL OF RENT AND EVICTION) ACT, 1952

(ACT X OF 1952)[a]

[27th February, 1952.]

An Act to provide for the control of rent of house accommodation in cantonments in Uttar Pradesh and to prevent the eviction of tenants therefrom.

Be it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 1952, Pt. II-Sec. 2, page 31.

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE UTTAR PRADESH CANTONMENTS (CONTROL OF RENT AND EVICTION) ACT, 1952.

(2) It extends to all the cantonments in the State of Uttar Pradesh.

2. Act not to apply to certain accommodation.—Nothing contained in this Act shall apply to—

(a) any premises belonging to the Government;

(b) any tenancy or other like relationship created by a grant from the Government in respect of premises taken on lease or requisitioned by the Government; or

(c) any house which is, or may hereafter be, appropriated by the Central Government on lease under the Cantonments (House Accommodation) Act, 1923.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "accommodation" means house accommodation, residential or non-residential, in any cantonment to which this Act applies, and includes—

(i) the gardens, grounds or outhouses, if any, appurtenant to the building or any part thereof;

(ii) any furniture supplied by the landlord for use in the house or any part thereof;

(iii) any fittings affixed to the building or any part of the building for the more beneficial enjoyment thereof;

(b) "district Magistrate" includes an officer authorised by a district Magistrate to perform any of his functions under this Act;

(c) 'landlord" means a person to whom rent is payable by a tenant in respect of any accommodation, and includes—

(i) the agent, attorney, heir or assignee of the landlord, and

(ii) a tenant in relation to a sub-tenant;

(d) 'lease" includes a sub-lease;

(e) "municipal assessment" means—

(ii) in respect of accommodation which was assessed by a cantonment board after the said date, the annual rental value first assessed after the said date;

(f) "officer commanding the station" means the military officer for the time being in command of the forces in a cantonment or, if that officer is the Officer Commanding the Area or Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, the military officer who would be in command of those forces in the absence of the Officer Commanding the Area and Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, and includes any officer authorised by the officer commanding the station to exercise the powers of an officer commanding the station under this Act;

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) The language of S. 2 of the Act is wide enough to cover a factory situate in a shop. 1957 All WR (HC) 35: 1957 All LJ 183.

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) Factory situated in shop comes within definition of "accommodation" as defined in Section 3 (a). 1957 All LJ 183.

(2) The definition of the word 'tenant" in Section 3 (h) applies unless the context otherwise requires. The context in Section 20 clearly requires the contrary. 1954 All L Jour 622.

(3) In a suit for the ejectment of the tenant where the tenant attacks the validity of the order of permission to sue under Section 3 on the ground that it was passed by an officer with no authority from the District Magistrate, the initial burden of proving that a valid order granting permission was passed is on the plaintiff-landlord, but it is discharged when the plaintiff produces a certified copy of an order which purports on the face of it to be made by an officer with apparent authority to pass it. After this it is for the defendant to produce some evidence in support of his allegation that the officer had in fact no authority. 1963 All LJ 827: 1963 All WR (HC) 421.

(g) "reasonable annual rent" means—

(1) in the case of accommodation constructed before the 1st day of October, 1946,—

(i) if it is separately assessed to municipal assessment, its municipal assessment plus twenty-five per cent. thereon;

(ii) if it is a part only of the accommodation so assessed, the proportionate amount of the municipal assessment of such accommodation plus twenty-five per cent. thereon;

(iii) if it is not assessed to municipal assessment—

(a) if it was held by a tenant on rent between the 1st day of April, 1942 and the 30th day of September, 1946, fifteen times the rent for the one month nearest to and after the 1st day of April, 1942; and

(b) if it was not so held on rent, the amount determined under Section 7; and

(2) in the case of accommodation constructed on or after the 1st day of October, 1946, the rent determined in accordance with Section 7;

(h) "tenant" means the person by whom rent is, or, but for a contract express or implied, would be, payable for any accommodation and includes any person holding or occupying the accommodation as a sub-tenant.

4. Control of rent.—(1) Except as hereafter in this section provided, the rent payable for any accommodation shall be such as may be agreed upon between the landlord and the tenant.

(2) Where the rent for any accommodation has not been agreed upon, or where in the case of tenancies continuing from any date before the 1st day of October, 1946, the landlord wishes to enhance the rent agreed upon, he may, by notice in writing, fix the annual rent at, or enhance it to an amount not exceeding, the reasonable annual rent:

Provided that the enhanced rent shall not exceed the rent, if any, payable on the 1st day of October, 1946, by more than fifty per cent. thereof:

Provided further that nothing in this section shall entitle the landlord to enhance the rent in the case of leases for a fixed term during the continuance of the term unless so permitted by the contract of tenancy.

(3) If any accommodation is let after the 16th day of January, 1952, without the rent being agreed upon between the landlord and the tenant, the rent fixed under sub-section (2) shall be payable from the date of commencement of the tenancy and where the rent agreed upon is enhanced under the said sub-section, the enhanced rent shall be payable from the first day of the month next after the month in which the notice is given.

(4) If the landlord claims that the reasonable annual rent of any accommodation is inadequate, or if the tenant claims that the reasonable annual rent is excessive or that the agreed rent is higher than the reasonable annual rent, he may institute a suit for fixation of rent in the Court of the munsiff having territorial jurisdiction if the annual rent claimed or payable is five hundred rupees or less, and if it exceeds five hundred rupees, in the Court of the civil Judge having territorial jurisdiction or, if there is no such civil Judge, in the Court of the district Judge:

Provided that the Court shall not vary the agreed rent unless it is satisfied that the transaction was unfair and, in the case of a lease for a fixed term made before the 1st day of April, 1942, that the term has expired.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1), (2) and (3), the rent fixed by the Court under sub-section (4) shall, so long as this Act remains in force, be payable by the tenant and from such date as the Court may direct.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "accommodation" includes any accommodation let on a monthly basis.

5. Procedure in suits under Section 4.—In determining the amount of annual or monthly rent in any suit under sub-section (4) of Section 4, the Court shall take into account—

(a) in the case of accommodation constructed before the 1st day of October, 1946, the pre-war rent, the reasonable annual or monthly rent, the prevailing rent on the date of the suit for similar accommodation in the locality, the cost of maintenance of, and repairs to, such accommodation, and any other material circumstances provided by the plaintiff or the defendant;

(b) in the case of accommodation constructed on or after the said date, the cost of construction and maintenance of, and repairs to, the accommodation, its situation and any other circumstances which the Court may consider material.

6. Bar of appeals from decrees or orders in suits under Section 4.—No appeal shall lie from any decree or order of the munsiff, the civil Judge or the district Judge, as the case may be, in a suit brought under sub-section (4) of Section 4:

Provided that the decree or order so passed (except in so far as it relates to the amount of rent) snall not operate as res judicata between the parties or their representatives in interest in any suit or proceeding under any other law.

7. Determination of reasonable annual rent in certain cases.—(1) In the case of any accommodation constructed after the 30th day of September, 1946, or falling within Item (b) of sub-clause (1) (iii) of Clause (g) of Section 3, the district Magistrate may, on the application of the landlord or the tenant, determine the reasonable annual rent thereof.

(2) In determining the reasonable annual rent under sub-section (1), the district Magistrate shall take into account—

(a) in the case of accommodation constructed after the 30th day of September, 1946, the cost of construction and maintenance of, and repairs to the accommodation, its situation and any other matter which in the opinion of the district Magistrate is material, and

(b) in the case of accommodation falling within Item (b) of sub-clause (1) (iii) of Clause (g) of Section 3, the matters set out in Cl. (a) of Section 5.

(3) Subject to the result of any suit filed under sub-section (4) of Section 4, the amount fixed by the district Magistrate under this section shall be the reasonable annual rent of the accommodation.

8. Unlawful charges not to be claimed or received.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, no person shall be entitled to claim or to receive any rent in excess of the rent payable under this Act notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

(2) No person shall, in consideration of the grant, continuance or renewal of any tenancy, claim or receive any premium or other like sum in addition to the rent payable under this Act.

9. Control of letting.—(1) The officer commanding the station may, by general or special order, require a landlord to give intimation that any accommodation of which he is the landlord has fallen vacant and to let or not to let such accommodation to any person.

---

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) No sooner a tenant leaves the premises at the end of the period of his tenancy, a vacancy occurs and consequently the Station Commander has authority to make an allotment order in favour of another person, notwithstanding the fact that the premises left was a shop and the landlord has purchased the business and goodwill of the outgoing tenant. 1954 All LJ 766.

(2) Every tenant occupying accommocation shall, within seven days of his vacating such accommodation, give intimation thereof in writing to the officer commanding the station.

(3) The officer commanding the station may, on application being made to him by the landlord, require a prospective tenant of any accommodation in respect of which an order has been made under this section to pay to the landlord an advance of rent equal—

(a) to one month's rent, where the accommodation is to be let on a monthly basis, and

(b) to one-half of the yearly rent where the accommodation is to be let on a yearly basis.

(4) In respect of any accommodation constructed after the 1st day of October, 1946, in respect of which he has to pass an order under sub-section (1), the officer commanding the station shall allot it to the owner if the owner, not being in occupation of any other house owned by him in the cantonment, genuinely requires such accommodation for his own residence.

Explanation I.—Any accommodation newly constructed shall be deemed to be vacant as soon as it is fit for occupation.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this section "letting" includes sub-letting.

10. Eviction of persons occupying accommodation in contravention of Section 9.—(1) Where in pursuance of an order of the officer commanding the station under sub-section (1) of Section 9 the vacancy of any accommodation is required to be reported and is not so reported, or where an order requiring any accommodation to be let or not to be let has been duly passed under that sub-section and the officer commanding the station believes, or has reason to believe, that any person has, in contravention of such order, occupied the accommodation or any part thereof, he may call upon the person in occupation to show cause, within such time as may be fixed by him, why he should not be evicted therefrom :

Provided that no order under this section shall be made if the officer commanding the station is of opinion that due to lapse of time or other causes it is inexpedient to do so.

(2) If such person fails to appear in reply to the notice served under sub-section (1) or, if he appears but fails to satisfy the officer commanding the station that the order under sub-section (1) of Section 9 was not duly passed and that he is entitled to remain in occupation of the accommodation, the officer commanding the station may, without prejudice to any other action which may be taken against

---

(1) Section 10 contemplates two notices; one is given to an occupant to show cause within a specified time as to why he should not be evicted. The second notice is given to the occupant to vacate the premises within a specified time. 1957 All WR (HC) 35: 1957 All LJ 183.

(2) Section 10 (3) comes into play only when notice given in Section 10 (2) is not complied with and unless the period in notice expires, it cannot be argued that terms of notice had not been complied with. 1957 All LJ 183: 1957 All WR (HC) 35.

(3) Petitioner threatened with forcible ejectment — Availability of remedy by way of revision under Section 10 (4) is no bar to a remedy under Art. 226 of the Constitution. 1957 All LJ 183: 1957 All WR (HC) 35.

(4) Tenant forcibly dispossessed without authority of law — It is open to the petitioners to ask for a writ of mandamus directing the opposite party not to disturb the possession of the petitioners and to deliver back the possession to them. 1957 All LJ 183: 1957 All WR (HC) 35.

(5) Where notice to vacate under Section 10 (2) is issued to the petitioners, it is not open to the allottees to say that no notice should have been given as the petitioners were not occupants. 1957 All LJ 183: 1957 All WR (HC) 35.

(6) Where the only notice given to occupant was asking him to vacate the premises within a fortnight, the notice is not legal. Attitude of occupant showing that he was not likely to vacate the premises is no ground for taking forcible possession before the expiry of period mentioned in notice. 1957 All LJ 183: 1957 All WR (HC) 35.

him under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, direct him to vacate the premises within such period as he may specify.

(3) Upon the making of an order under sub-section (2), the person against whom the order is made and any other person claiming under him shall vacate the accommodation and if the person does not vacate the accommodation within the time allowed or such extended period as the officer commanding the station may, on cause shown, allow, the officer commanding the station may evict, or cause to be evicted, the person or persons concerned and may use such force as may be necessary for carrying out the order and also put the person entitled under sub-section (1) of Section 9 in occupation of the accommodation.

(4) No appeal shall lie from any order passed by the officer commanding the station under this section, but the Central Government or any person authorised by it in this behalf may revise the said order if it is satisfied that the officer commanding the station has acted illegally or with material irregularity or has wrongly refused to act, and may make such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit.

11. Eviction of tenants occupying accommodation under Section 9.—(1) Where any tenant who is in occupation of any accommodation in pursuance of an order made under sub-section (1) of Section 9 is in arrears of rent for more than three months, the landlord may make an application to the munsiff having territorial jurisdiction for an order of eviction of the tenant from the accommodation.

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall contain the following particulars, namely .—

(a) the name of the landlord and, where there are more landlords than one, the names of all the landlords;

(b) a sufficient description of the accommodation from which the tenant is to be evicted or a copy of the order of allotment;

(c) the arrears claimed and the rate at which they are claimed;

(d) where the rent has already been determined in a suit under sub-section (4) of Section 4, the fact that it has been so determined; and shall be verified in the manner prescribed for the verification of plaints in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

(3) On the making of an application under sub-section (1), the munsiff shall, without unnecessary delay, cause a notice to be served on the tenant in the manner prescribed by rules under this Act requiring him to pay the amount of arrears within fifteen days of the service thereof or to show cause within the said period why an order evicting him from the accommodation be not passed against him.

(4) If within the time allowed in the notice under sub-section (3) the tenant pays into Court the amount mentioned therein, the munsiff shall dismiss the application and direct the amount to be deposited to be paid to the landlord in satisfaction of the arrears and shall make such order as to costs as may appear to him to be just and proper.

(5) Where the tenant has been duly served with a notice under sub-section (3) but fails to deposit the amount mentioned within the time allowed therein and does not file any objection thereto, the munsiff shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, make an order directing that the tenant be evicted from the accommodation and that he shall pay the costs of the application.

(6) As soon as may be after an order has been passed under sub-section (5) the munsiff shall forward a copy of the same to the district Magistrate and thereupon the district Magistrate shall cause the tenant to be evicted from the accommodation, using or causing to be used such force as may be necessary for the purpose, and nothing contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall apply to any such proceedings :

Provided that if the tenant at any time before his eviction deposits the amount due in the treasury or pays the landlord or the officer charged with the execution of the order for the delivery of possession the amount of arrears together with all the costs of the proceedings, the tenant shall not be evicted from the accommodation and the district Magistrate shall report the proceedings to the munsiff who shall make an order quashing the proceedings :

Provided further that the district Magistrate may, for sufficient reasons, allow such time as he may think fit to the tenant to pay the amount for which an order of eviction has been passed against him.

(7) Any order made under sub-section (5) or anything done or any action taken under sub-section (6) shall not be deemed in any way to affect the question of title to the property to which it relates.

12. Proceedings under Section 11 may be converted into suits in certain cases.—(1) Where a tenant appears in reply to a notice under sub-section (3) of Section 11 and files an objection, other than an objection as to the costs of the proceedings merely, the munsiff shall inform the applicant that he may, subject to the payment within such time as may be specified of the court-fee in respect thereof, have the application treated as a plaint in a suit for the recovery of arrears of rent alone :

Provided that the tenant shall not be permitted to file any objection unless he deposits in Court the amount mentioned in the notice.

(2) If the applicant pays the necessary court-fee within the time allowed, the application shall be treated as a plaint and the proceedings as a suit and disposed of accordingly, but if no court-fee is so deposited the proceeding shall be quashed, without prejudice to the right of the applicant to file, subject to any other law for the time being in force, a separate suit for ejectment and recovery of arrears.

13. Special costs for frivolous or vexatious applications or objections.—Whenever the munsiff finds that an application by the landlord under Sec. 11 or any objection filed by the tenant under Section 12 is frivolous or vexatious, he shall award, by way of special costs, to the tenant or the landlord, as the case may be, such sum not exceeding the amount of the claim as he may think fit,

14. Restrictions on eviction.—No suit shall, without the permission of the district Magistrate, be filed in any civil Court against a tenant for his eviction from any accommodation except on one or more of the following grounds, namely :—

(a) that the tenant has wilfully failed to make payment to the landlord of any arrears of rent within one month of the service upon him of a notice of demand from the landlord;

(b) that the tenant has wilfully caused or permitted to be caused substantial damage to the accommodation;

(c) that the tenant has, without the permission of the landlord, made or permitted to be made any such construction as in the opinion of the Court has materially altered the accommodation or is likely substantially to diminish its value;

(d) that the tenant has created a nuisance or has done any act which is inconsistent with the purpose for which he was admitted to the tenancy of the accommodation or which is likely to affect adversely and substantially the landlord's interest therein;

(e) that the tenant has sub-let the whole or any portion of the accommodation without the permission of the landlord;

---

Section 14 — Note 1

(1) When there was a lis between the parties which was formally adjudicated under Section 14 the order so passed was nothing but a quasi-judicial order which could not have been reviewed or modified without an express provision in the Act to that effect. 1966 All L Jour 103.

(f) that the tenant has renounced his character as such or has denied the title of the landlord and the latter has not waived his right or condoned the conduct of the tenant.

Explanation.—For the purposes of Clause (e), a person lodging another person in any accommodation which is a hotel or a lodging house shall not be deemed to have sub-let such accommodation.

Note.—As regards a suit for eviction pending on the date of the commencement of the Act, no decree for eviction shall be passed except on one or more of the grounds mentioned in this section. See S.19.

Similarly, a decree for eviction of a tenant passed before the commencement of the Act, in so far as it relates to the eviction of such tenant, shall not be executed unless the decree is based on one or more of the grounds specified in this section, provided that if the decree is based on the ground mentioned in clause (a), the decree shall not be executed if the tenant pays the arrears of rent together with the costs of the suit. See S. 20.

15. Penalty.—Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any order made in pursuance thereof shall be punishable, on conviction, with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine, which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

16. Attempts, etc.—Any person who attempts to contravene or abets a contravention of any order made under this Act shall be deemed to have contravened that order.

17. Offences by companies.—(1) If the person contravening any order made under this Act is a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company shall be deemed to be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence was committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director or manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means any body corporate, and includes a firm or other association of individuals, and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

18. Act to override other laws.—The provisions of this Act and of any orders or rules made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law.

19. Pending suits for eviction.—In all suits for eviction of a tenant from any accommodation pending on the date of commencement of this Act, no decree for eviction shall be passed except on one or more of the grounds mentioned in Section 14.

20. Execution of pending decrees for eviction.—Any decree for the eviction of a tenant from any accommodation passed before the commencement of this Act, in so far as it relates to the eviction of such tenant, shall not be capable of execution unless the decree is based on one or more of the grounds specified in Section 14:

Provided that where the decree is based on the ground specified in C. (a) of Section 14, the decree shall not be capable of execution if the tenant pays to the landlord or deposits in Court the arrears of rent due from him together with all the costs of the proceedings and also agrees to pay to the landlord the reasonable annual rent or the rent payable by him before the passing of the decree, whichever is lower.

21. Orders under Act not to be questioned in any Court.—Save as otherwise provided in this Act, no order made thereunder by the Government or the district Magistrate or the officer commanding the station shall be called in question in any Court.

22. Protection for action taken in good faith.—(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any order made under this Act.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any order made under this Act.

23. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules[a] to give effect to the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner in which any notice under this Act may be served;

(b) the procedure to be followed by district Magistrates in the disposal of any proceedings under this Act;

(c) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which officers commanding the station may exercise their powers under this Act.

[THE] CANTONMENTS (EXTENSION OF RENT CONTROL LAWS) ACT, 1957
(ACT 46 OF 1957)

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Under Art. 246 of the Constitution read with Entry 3 of the Union List, power to make laws with respect to rent control in cantonment areas now belongs exclusively to Parliament. Before the Constitution came into force, this power belonged to the Legislatures of the former Provinces and States.

2. Accordingly in Mhow cantonment, rents of premises, their letting and eviction of tenants therefrom were controlled by the Madhya Bharat Accommodation Control Act which had been passed on the 11th January 1950, and applied to Mhow as from the 6th February, 1950. The Act was due to expire on the 30th June 1953, but by State Act VI of 1953

(1) Compromise decree passed before passing of Act — Execution of decree after commencement of Act — Can be made only in accordance with terms of Section 20 and not according to its own term. 1954 All LJ 622 (DB).

(2) 'Tenant' means person who was tenant before suit but whose right to continue as such has ceased and suit for eviction against him has been decreed on that ground. 1954 All LJ 622 (DB).

its duration was extended up to the 30th June 1955. The Act was however replaced before that date by an Ordinance which in its turn has been replaced by the present Madhya Bharat Accommodation Control Act of 1955. In view of the re-distribution of the legislative powers in the Constitution the State Legislature cannot exercise legislative powers after the commencement of the Constitution, over a subject which is included in the Union List. Hence, the Amendment Act of 1953 or the Ordinance promulgated in 1955 was not, nor the present Act is, applicable to the Mhow Cantonment. A large number of eviction cases has been filed by the landlords by taking advantage of the non-existence of any rent control law in the cantonment area.

3. To protect the tenants from improper evictions, Central legislation is, therefore, necessary to provide for the application of the State Act of 1955 to Mhow with necessary modifications.

4. As a situation similar to that in Mhow Cantonment, may arise in other cantonments also, it is proposed to confer powers on the Central Government to extend the relevant rent control laws of any State to the cantonments situated in that State by notification in the Gazette of India.

5. The Bill is designed to achieve the objects mentioned above."

THE] CANTONMENTS (EXTENSION OF RENT CONTROL LAWS) ACT, 1957 (ACT 46 OF 1957)[a]

[18th December, 1957.]

An Act to provide for the extension to cantonments of laws relating to the control of rent and regulation of house accommodation.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows :

This Act has been extended to the Union Territory of Pondicherry by Regulation 7 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-10-1963].

1. Short title.—This Act may be called THE CANTONMENTS (EXTENSION OF RENT CONTROL LAWS) ACT, 1957.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, "cantonment" means any place declared to be a cantonment under S. 3 of the Cantonments Act, 1924.

3. Power to extend to cantonments laws relating to control of rents and regulation of house accommodation.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend to any cantonment with such restrictions and modifications as it thinks fit, any enactment relating to the control of rent and regula-

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) What Section 3 empowers the Central Government to do is to extend to any cantonment with restrictions and modification any enactment relating to control of rent and regulation of house accommodation that might be in force on the date of notification in the State in which the cantonment was situated. In doing that the Central Government would merely be adopting the State Act with modifications and applying it to a cantonment Board area in exercise of delegated legislative functions. In no case such a modified Act could be considered to be a central enactment for the purposes of interpretation except with reference to the special modifications provided for. AIR 1966 Madh Pra 171 (174): 1965 Jab LJ 786.

(2) Extension of M. P. Accomodation Control Act (1961) during pendency of suit — For eviction except Section 51 thereof. Held, that although Act is not retrospective and does not apply to suits pending on date of notification, validly instituted suit for eviction filed before extension of Act could be continued in view of fact of its being a vested right of plaintiff. [But See AIR 1966 Madh Pra 171 (176, 177): 1965 Jab LJ 786. (The action of Central Government in deleting Sec. 52 of M.P. Accommodation Control Act (41 of 1961) while adopting that Act for Cantonment Board area, would have the effect of the 1961 Act becoming applicable to pending cases.)]

tion of house accommodation which is in force on the date of the notification in the State in which the cantonment is situated :

Provided that nothing contained in any enactment so extended shall apply to,—

(a) any premises within the cantonment belonging to the Government;

(b) any tenancy or other like relationship created by a grant from the Government in respect of premises within the cantonment taken on lease or requisitioned by the Government; or

[c] any house within the cantonment which is, or may be, appropriated by the Central Government on lease under the Cantonments (House Accommodation) Act, 1923.

4. Extension of the Madhya Bharat Accommodation Control Act, 1955 to the Cantonment of Mhow.—The Madhya Bharat Accommodation Control Act, 1955, as in force in that part of the State of Madhya Pradesh which immediately before the 1st day of November, 1956, formed the State of Madhya Bharat is hereby extended to, and brought into force in, the Cantonment of Mhow with the following modifications, namely:—

In the said Act,—

(a) for the words "commencement of this Act" wherever they occur, the words "extension of this Act to the cantonment" shall be substituted;

(b) in Section 1, for sub-sections (2), (3) and (4), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely .—

"(2) It extends to the Cantonment of Mhow.

(3) It shall remain in force up to the 31st day of December, 1957; but the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct from time to time that it shall remain in force for such further period as may be specified in the notification so, however, that the total period for which it may remain in force shall not exceed two years from the 31st day of December, 1957.";

(c) in Section 2, in Cl. (b) of sub-section (1), for the words "a Municipality", the words "the Cantonment Board" shall be substituted;

(d) in Section 3, in Cl. (e), for the word "Municipal", the words "Cantonment Board" shall be substituted;

(e) in Section 4,—

(i) in Clause (g), for the words "city or town concerned", the word "cantonment" shall be substituted;

(ii) in Clause (h), for the words "city or town for that purpose and if he was in occupation, has for sufficient reasons vacated it after the Act has been extended to that city or town", the words "cantonment for that purpose or if he was in occupation, has for sufficient reasons vacated it after the extension of this Act thereto" shall be substituted;

(f) in Section 6,—

(i) in sub-section (1), the words and brackets "situated in the city of Lashkar (including Gwalior and Morar), Indore, Ujjain or Ratlam" shall be omitted;

(ii) sub-section (2) shall be omitted;

(g) in Section 14, the words "the provisions of this Act cease to be applicable to any town, or" shall be omitted;

(h) in Section 15, after the word "instituted", the words "or if instituted, continued", shall be inserted;

(i) in Section 18, sub-section (4) shall be omitted;

(j) in Section 21, the words "or deemed to have been passed" shall be omitted;

(k) in Section 22, the words "or deemed to have been made" shall be omitted;

(l) Section 23, Section 27 and the Schedule shall be omitted;

(m) in Sections 24 and 25, the words "or deemed to have been made" shall be omitted.

STATEMENTS OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The committee which was appointed in the winter of 1920-21 to enquire into and make recommendations in regard to the administration of cantonments recommended inter alia that the Cantonments (House Accommodation) Act should be revised, so as to remove certain defects which have been brought to light and to carry out more fully the intention of the Act, namely, the better provision of house-accommodation for military officers in cantonments. These recommendations have now been examined by the Government of India whose conclusions are embodied in the draft Bill.

2. A number of the amendments are designed merely to bring the Act up-to-date by specifying, in place of the authorities by whom the Act is at present administered, other authorities recently constituted, e.g. District Commanders in lieu of Divisional Commanders.

3. The principal changes of substance which the Bill seeks to introduce are, firstly, to substitute for the procedure under which houses are liable to be appropriated for use, on a monthly tenancy, by military officers holding direct from the house owner, a procedure under which Government will take such houses as may be required on a repairing lease for a term of at least five years and will allot the houses so leased to officers requiring accommodation. Under this procedure, officers will become the tenants of Government who alone will deal with the house-owners. Secondly, it is proposed to repeal those sections of the existing Act which provide for interference in the settlement of disputes between house-owners and individual tenants. If the Bill becomes law, individual officers will, as already explained, cease to be the direct tenants of house owners. Where the military officer prefers to take a house by private agreement with a house-owner, and not from Government, it is considered that there is no justification for interference between the two parties in cases of disputes, which will in future be settled as they would outside a cantonment, either by agreement between the parties or by recourse to the law Courts. Thirdly, the Bill alters the constitution of Committees of Arbitration and provides for an appeal to the Court against the decisions of such committees."

[THE] CANTONMENTS (HOUSE-ACCOMMODATION) ACT, 1923 (ACT 6 OF 1923)[a]

[5th March 1923.]

An Act further to amend and to consolidate the law relating to the provision of house accommodation for military officers in cantonments.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend and to consolidate the law relating to the provision of house-accommodation for military officers in cantonments; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Report of Joint Committee, see Gazette of India, 1923, Pt. V, p. 5.

The Act has been extended to the new provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950), and to the Union Territories of Manipur and Tripura, by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh, to which also this Act was extended along with Manipur and Tripura, now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e) (1-11-1956). It has now been extended to the Union Territory of Pondicherry by Regn. 7 of 1963 (1 10-1963).

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CANTONMENTS (HOUSE-ACCOMMODATION) ACT, 1923.

(2) It extends to [b][the whole of India [c][* ]] [d][ * ] [e][ *].

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of April, 1923, but it shall not become operative in any cantonment or part of a cantonment until the issue, or otherwise than in pursuance, of a notification as hereinafter provided by Sec. 3:

Provided that any notification made under Section 3 of the [d]Cantonments (House-Accommodation) Act, 1902, which is in force at the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be a notification made under Section 3 of this Act.

[a] The words 'except Part B States" were omitted by the Cantonment Laws (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1950 (53 of 1950), S. 2 (18-8-1950). If immediately before the 19th day of June 1950, there was in force in any of the Part B States any law corresponding to the Cantonments (House-Accommodation) Act, 1923, such corresponding law is repealed by S. 10 of the said Act.

[b] The brackets and words "inclusive of British Baluchistan" were omitted by A.O., 1948.

[c] The words "except Aden" were omitted by A.O., 1937.

[d] Repealed by this Act, see S. 39 and Schedule.

2. Definitions.—(1) In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) 'Brigade area" means one of the Brigade areas, whether occupied by a brigade or not, into which India is for military purposes for the time being divided, and includes any area which the [Central Government] may, by notification in the [Official Gazette], declare to be a Brigade area for all or any of the purposes of this Act;

[a] This clause originally lettered (bb) was inserted by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1925 (10 of 1925), S. 2. It was re-lettered (b), and the original clause (b) was repealed by ibid, 1930 (9 of 1930), S. 2.

(c) 'Command' means one of the Commands into which India is for military purposes for the time being divided, and includes any area which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare to be a Command for all or any of the purposes of this Act;

(d) [['Officer Commanding the station"] means the officer for the time being in command of the forces in a cantonment [or, if that officer is the Officer Commanding the District, the military officer who would be in command of these forces in the absence of the Officer Commanding the District].

[b] Inserted, see ibid, 1930 (9 of 1930), S. 2.

(e) 'District" means one of the Districts into which India is for military purposes for the time being divided; it includes a Brigade area which does not form part of any such District and any area which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare to be a District for all or any of the purposes of this Act;

(f) "house" means a house suitable for occupation by a military officer or a military mess, and includes the land and buildings appurtenant to a house;

(g) "military officer" means a commissioned or warrant officer of [the Indian] military or air forces on military or air force duty in a cantonment, [* * * *], [an officer of the Cantonments Department] and any person in Army departmental employment whom the Officer Commanding the District may at any time, by an order in writing, place on the same footing as a military officer for the purposes of this Act;

[a] Substituted for "His Majesty's" by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] The words "and includes a chaplain on duty with troops in a Cantonment" were omitted by A.L.O., 1950.

[c] Substituted by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1925 (10 of 1925), S. 2, for "a Cantonment Magistrate".

(h) "owner" includes the person who is receiving, or is entitled to receive, the rent of a house, whether on his own account or on behalf of himself and others or as an agent or trustee, or who would so receive the rent, or be entitled to receive it, if the house were let to a tenant; and

(i) a house is said to be in a state of reasonable repair when—

(i) all floors, walls, pillars and arches are sound and all roofs sound and watertight,

(ii) all doors and windows are intact, properly painted or oiled, and provided with proper locks or bolts or other secure fastenings, and

(iii) all rooms, out-houses and other appurtenant buildings are properly colour-washed or white-washed.

(2) If any question arises whether any land or building is appurtenant to a house, it shall be decided by the [a][Officer Commanding the station] whose decision thereon shall, subject to revision by the [b][Collector], be final.

[b] Substituted, see ibid, 1930 (9 of 1930), S. 2, for "District Magistrate".

[a][(3) In the application of this Act to [b][the territories which, immediately before the 1st November 1956, were comprised in any Part B State], any reference to an enactment not in force in [c][those territories] shall be construed as a reference to the corresponding law in force in [c][those territories].]

[a] Added by the Cantonment Laws (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1950 (53 of 1950), S. 3 (18-8-1950).

[b] Substituted for "any Part B State" by 3 A.L.O., 1956.

[c] Substituted for "that State", ibid.

CHAPTER II

APPLICATION OF ACT

3. Cantonments or parts of cantonments in which Act to be operative.—(1) The [a][Central Government] [b][• • •] may, by notification in the [a][Official Gazette], declare this Act to be operative in any cantonment or part of a cantonment [b][• • •], other than a cantonment situate within the limits of a presidency-town

(2) Before issuing a notification under sub-section (1) in respect of any cantonment or port of a cantonment, the [a][Central Government] shall cause local inquiry to be made with a view to determining whether it is expedient to issue such notification, and what portion (if any) of the area proposed to be included therein should be excluded therefrom.

[a] The words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" were repealed by A.O., 1937.

[b] The words "situate in the Province" were repealed by A.O., 1937.

[c] Substituted, ibid, for "Local Government".

[a][4. Saving of written instruments.—Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of any written [b][contract with the Government] unless all the parties to that contract consent in writing to be bound by the terms of this Act.]

[b] Substituted for "crown contract" by A.L.O., 1950.

---

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) Section 4 does not apply to a licence under General Order No. 179 unless the Secretary of State and the other party entitled consent to be bound by the terms of the Act. AIR 1936 Lah 582 (583) (DB).

(2) Where Government once owned land in a cantonment to which General Order No. 179 applied, the occupiers of buildings thereon are licensees and the onus is upon them to show that they own the land. AIR 1936 Peah 227 (227, 228) (DB).

CHAPTER III

APPROPRIATION OF HOUSES

5. Liability of houses to appropriation.—Every house situate in a cantonment or part of a cantonment in respect of which a notification under sub-section (1) of Section 3 is for the time being in force shall be liable to appropriation by [a][the Central Government] on a lease in the manner and subject to the conditions hereinafter provided.

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937.

[a][6. Conditions on which houses may be appropriated.—(1) Where—

(a) a military officer who is stationed in or has been posted to the cantonment, or a President of a military mess in the cantonment, applies in writing to the Officer Commanding the Station stating that he is unable to secure suitable accommodation in the cantonment for himself or the mess on reasonable terms by private agreement, and that no suitable house or quarter belonging to the [b][Government] is available for his occupation or for the occupation of the mess, and the Officer Commanding the Station is satisfied on inquiry of the truth of the facts so stated; or

(b) the Officer Commanding the Station is satisfied on inquiry that there is not in the cantonment a sufficient and assured supply of houses available at reasonable rates of rent by private agreement to meet the requirements of the military officers and military messes whose accommodation in the cantonment is in his opinion necessary or expedient, the Officer Commanding the Station may, with a view to enforcing the liability under Section 5, serve a notice on the owner of any house which appears to him to be suitable for occupation by a military officer or a military mess, as the case may be, within the cantonment, or, if this Act is in force in part only of the cantonment, within that part, requiring the owner to permit the house to be inspected, measured and surveyed by such person and on such date, not being less than three clear days from the service of the notice, and at such time between sunrise and sunset, as may be specified in the notice.

(2) On the date and at the time so specified the owner shall be bound to afford all reasonable facilities to the person specified in the notice for the purpose of the inspection, measurement and survey of the house and if he refuses or neg-

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) Two pre-requisites of a valid notice under Section 6 are that there should be an application from an individual officer to the Officer Commanding the station that no Government quarters were provided to him and that despite reasonable efforts he could not find any private accommodation; and that the Officer Commanding the station has been satisfied on enquiry of the truth of these facts. The Officer Commanding the station can move suo motu only when he is satisfied by enquiry about the necessity of appropriating a private house inasmuch as there is not a sufficient and assured supply of houses available at reasonable rates by private agreement. No house will be liable to appropriation unless these two conditions are satisfied. (1954) 1954 BLJR 414 (417).

(2) It is sufficient if the authority is satisfied that the house is required for occupation of a military officer. An order not specifying the particular officer is not a mala fide exercise of jurisdiction. (1954) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Two pre-requisite conditions are to be fulfilled in order to give validity to a notice under Section 6: According to the first clause of the section, (1) there should be an application from an individual officer to the Officer Commanding the station that the applicant could not be provided with Government quarters and (2) in spite of all reasonable efforts he was not able to make satisfactory private arrangement. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (417).

(2) The only thing necessary for the authority is to satisfy itself whether a house is required for occupation of a military officer. Order not specifying the particular military officer for whom accommodation was sought for is not mala fide. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

(3) A Civil Court has no jurisdiction to question validity of notice under Sections 6 and 7. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

(4) As to service of notice, see Section 34.

lects to do so, such person may, subject to any rules made under this Act, enter on the premises and do all such things as may be reasonably necessary for the said purpose.]

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950, for "the Crown".

7. Procedure for taking house on lease.—(1) If, on the report of such person as aforesaid, the [a][Officer Commanding the station] is satisfied that the house is suitable for occupation by a military officer or a military mess, he may [b][* * *] by notice—

(a) require the owner to execute a lease of the house to [c][the Central Government] for a specified period which shall not be less than five years;

(b) require the existing occupier, if any, to vacate the house; and

(c) require the owner to execute within such time as may be specified in the notice such repairs as may, in the opinion of the [a][Officer Commanding the station], be necessary for the purpose of putting the house into a state of reasonable repair.

(2) Every notice issued under sub-section (1) shall state the amount of the annual rent proposed as reasonable for the house, calculated on the assumption that the owner will carry out the required repairs, if any. It shall also contain an estimate of the cost of such repairs.

(3) The following shall be deemed to be conditions of every lease executed under sub-section (1), namely:—

(a) that the house shall, on the expiration of the lease, be re-delivered to the owner in a state of reasonable repair, and

(b) that the grounds and the garden, if any, appertaining to the house shall be maintained in the condition in which they are at the time at which the lease is executed:

[d][Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect the right of [c][the Central Government] to avoid the lease in any such event as is specified in clause (e) of Section 108 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.]

[b] The words "with the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the District" were repealed by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1930 (9 of 1930), S. 4.
[c] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "the Government".

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) As to appeal to Officer Commanding the District see Section 30; and as to service of notice, see Section 34.

(2) Best criterion for arriving at a reasonable figure of rent of a house is to find out the rent of the houses in the locality. ('39) AIR 1939 Pesh 22 (22, 23).

(3) When the procedure prescribed in the Act is not followed, the amount of rent payable by a military officer is a matter of contract expressed or implied between the officer and the owner. ('13) 18 Ind Cas 708 (710) (All).

(4) Order of appropriation under Section 7 is final and cannot be agitated in a civil suit. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

(5) Where there is a mala fide exercise of jurisdiction the whole proceedings are vitiated. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

(6) 'House' means the whole house and an order for partial appropriation of a house is without jurisdiction particularly when the other part is occupied bona fide by the owner himself. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (421).

(7) A Civil Court cannot declare that an order for appropriation is illegal on the ground that there was a breach regarding the execution of the lease. Proper manner is for the owner to apply to the Officer Commanding the Station to rectify the mistake. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

8. Procedure to be observed before taking a house on lease. [Repealed by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1930 (IX of 1930), S. 5.]

9. Sanction to be obtained before a house is occupied as a hospital, etc.—No house in any cantonment or part of a cantonment in which this Act is operative shall, unless it was so occupied at the date of the issue of the notification declaring this Act or the [a]Cantonments (House-Accommodation) Act, 1902, as the case may be, to be operative, be occupied for the purposes of a hospital, school, school hostel, bank, hotel, or shop, or by a railway administration, a company or firm engaged in trade or business or a club, without the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the District given with the concurrence of the Commissioner or, in a [b][State] where there are no Commissioners, of the Collector.

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950, for "Province".

10. Houses not to be appropriated in certain cases.—No notice shall be issued under Section 7 if the house—

(a) was, at the date of the issue of the notification declaring this Act or the [a]Cantonments (House-Accommodation) Act, 1902, as the case may be, to be operative in the cantonment or part of the cantonment, or is with such sanction as is required by Section 9, occupied as a hospital, school, school hostel, bank, hotel or shop, and has been so occupied continuously during the three years immediately preceding the time when the occasion for issuing the notice arises, or

(b) was, at the date of such a notification as is referred to in clause (a), or is, with such sanction as aforesaid, occupied by a railway administration or by a company or firm engaged in trade or business or by a club, or

(c) is occupied by the owner, or

(d) has been appropriated by the [b][State Government] with the concurrence of the Officer Commanding the District, or by the [c][Central Government], for use as a public office or for any other purpose.

[a] Repealed by this Act, S. 39 and Schedule.
[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950, for "Province".

11. Time to be allowed for giving possession of house.—(1) If a house is unoccupied, a notice issued under Section 7 may require the owner to give possession of the same to the [a][Officer Commanding the station] within twenty-one days from the service of the notice.

(2) If a house is occupied, a notice issued under Section 7 shall not require its vacation in less than thirty days from the service of the notice.

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) The owner of a house in cantonment may agree with authorities that if the house is required by a military officer, he would deliver possession thereof to him. Such an agreement does not defeat the provision contained in Section 10 (c). ('24) AIR 1924 Bom 258 (259). (Cantonment tenure — Sale of lands subject to sanction of cantonment authorities — Requisition by cantonment authorities that the intending purchaser should vacate house when required for military officer — Requisition is not illegal.)

(2) Officer Commanding the station has no jurisdiction to pass an order appropriating only a part of a house, while the rest of it is occupied by the owner. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (420, 421).

Section 11 — Note 1

(1) Order of the Officer Commanding the Station under Section 11 (2) is not illegal because there was any breach regarding the execution of the lease or omission to give the statutory time of 30 days. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (418).

(2) Officer commanding the Station has no jurisdiction to appropriate only a part of the house, while the remaining part is occupied by the owner. ('54) 1954 BLJR 414 (420, 421).

vacated in pursuance thereof, the lease shall be deemed to have commenced on the date on which the house was so vacated.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1925 (10 of 1925), S. 6, for "Commanding Officer of the Cantonment".

12. Surrender of house when to be enforced.—If the owner fails to give possession of a house to the [a][Officer Commanding the station] in pursuance of a notice issued under Section 7, or if the existing occupier fails to vacate a house in pursuance of such a notice, the District Magistrate, by himself or by another person generally or specially authorised by him in this behalf, shall enter on the premises and enforce the surrender of the house.

13. Option in certain cases for owner on whom notice is issued under Sec. 7 to call upon the Government to purchase.—(1) If a house, in respect of which a notice is issued under Section 7, is shown to the satisfaction of the [a][Central Government], or is proved by a decree or order of a Court of competent jurisdiction, to have been erected—

(a) under any conditions, rules, regulations or orders which were in force in Bengal prior to the eighth day of December, 1864, and conferred on the owner the option of offering the house for sale to the military officer applying for its appropriation for his occupation or to the East India Company or the Government, or

(b) under any conditions, rules, regulations or orders which were in force in Bombay prior to the first day of June, 1875, and conferred such an option as is described in clause (a), then the owner shall have the option of either complying with the notice or offering the house [b][for sale to the Central Government].

(2) If the owner elects to sell the house, and [c][the Central Government] is willing to purchase it, the question of the amount of the purchase-money to be paid shall, in the event of disagreement, be referred to [c][a Civil Court, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IV].

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "Local Government".
[b] Substituted, ibid, for "for sale to the Government".
[c] Substituted by Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1930 (9 of 1930), S. 6, for "a Committee of Arbitration".

14. Provision where house is held on long lease by a tenant.—(1) If a house, in respect of which a notice is issued under Section 7, is occupied by a tenant holding in good faith and for valuable consideration under a registered lease for any term exceeding one year, [a][the Central Government] shall, for the term of one year from the date on which the house is vacated in pursuance of the notice, or for the unexpired term of the lease whichever is the shorter, be liable to the owner for the rent fixed by the registered lease instead of for the rent payable under this Act if the rent so fixed exceeds the rent so payable.

(2) If a house, in respect of which a notice is issued under Section 7, is occupied by a tenant holding in good faith and for valuable consideration under a registered lease from year to year, [a][The Central Government] shall be liable as aforesaid for the term of six months from the date on which the house is vacated in pursuance of the notice.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed—

(a) to render [a][the Central Government] so liable unless an application in writing in this behalf is made by the owner to the [a][Officer Commanding the station] within fifteen days from the service of the notice; or

(b) to limit or otherwise affect any agreement between [b][the Government] and the owner

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950, for "the Crown"

15. Power for owner to refer to Civil Court on question of rent.—(1) If the owner considers that the rent stated in a notice issued under Section 7 is not reasonable, he may within a period of [a][thirty] days from the service of such notice, [b][refer the matter to a Civil Court, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IV]:

[Provided that where an appeal has been made to the Officer Commanding the District under Section 30, the period of thirty days shall be reckoned from the date on which the owner received notice of the result of the appeal under sub-section (2) of Section 32.]

(2) If the owner does not make such a [c][reference] within the said period, he shall be deemed to have accepted the rent so offered.

[a] Substituted by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1930 (9 of 1930), S. 7, for "fifteen".
[b] Substituted by S. 7, ibid, for "require that the matter be referred by the Officer Commanding the station to a Committee of Arbitration".
[c] Inserted by the Cantonments (House-Accommodation Amendment) Act, 1933 (22 of 1933), S.2.
[d] Substituted by Act 9 of 1930, S. 7, for "requisition".

16. Power for owner to refer to Civil Court on question of repairs.—(1) If the owner fails to execute any repairs to a house as required by a notice issued to him under Section 7, the [a][Officer Commanding the station] may by notice require the owner to execute the repairs within such period, not being less than [b][thirty] days, as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If the owner objects to any requisition contained in a notice issued under sub-section (1), he may, within [b][thirty] days from the service of the notice [c][refer the matter to a Civil Court in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IV]:

[d][Provided that where an appeal has been made to the Officer Commanding the District under Section 30, the period of thirty days shall be reckoned from the date on which the owner received notice of the result of the appeal under sub-section (2) of Section 32.]

(3) It is the owner alone that can make a reference under this section to the civil Court. Therefore, in a reference the owner is not bound to make a mortgagee, who is not in possession of the lease property, a party to the reference and his non-joinder will not defeat the suit. However, the Court may join the mortgagee as a proper party under Civil P. C., Order 1, Rule 10. ('37) AIR 1937 Pesh 17 (17, 18).

36. Further provisions respecting rules.—(1) The power to make rules under Section 35 shall be subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication and of their not taking effect until they have been published in the [Official Gazette] and in such other manner (if any) as the [Central Government] may direct.

(2) Any rule under Section 35 may be general for all cantonments or parts of cantonments [^ *] in which this Act is for the time being operative, or may be special for any of such cantonments or parts as the *[Central Government] may direct.

(3) A copy of the rules under Section 35 for the time being in force in a cantonment shall be kept open to inspection free of charge at all reasonable times in the office of the Cantonment [b][Board].

(4) In making any rule under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 35, the *[Central Government] may direct that whoever obstructs any person, not being a public servant within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, in making any entry, inspection, measurement or survey, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, with fine which, in addition to such fine as aforesaid, may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which such offence continues.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The object of this measure is to keep in existence...the control over capital issues which was imposed by Rule 94-A of the Defence of India Rules in May, 1943 and continued in force after the expiry of the Defence of India Act by Ordinance No. XX of 1946. Although there has been an appreciable change in the general conditions which constituted the principal reason for the introduction of the control during war-time, it is thought in the light of experience gained that the control is still necessary to secure a balanced investment of the countrys's resources in industry, agriculture and the social servicses".

[THE] CAPITAL ISSUES (CONTROL) ACT, 1947
(ACT XXIX OF 1947)[a]

[18th April, 1947.]

An Act to provide for [b][* *] control over issues of capital.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for [b][* *] control over issues of capital; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Cazette of India, 1947, Pt. V, p. 264.

The Act has been extended to the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the Union Territories of Manipur and Tripura by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—See C.A. 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (a) (1-11-1956). The Act now extends to the Union territories of—

(1) Goa, Daman and Diu—See Regn. 12 of 1962 (with effect from 24-1-1963).

(2) Dadra and Nagar Haveli—Act as in force in the State of Gujarat is extended to this territory with effect from 1-1-1966—See Cazette of India, 18-12-65, Pt. II, S. 3 (1), p. 2016.

(3) Pondicherry, by Regn. 7 of 1963 (with effect from 1-10-1963).

(4) Laccadiv, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands by Regn. 8 of 1965 (with effect from 1-10-1967).

[b] The words "the continuance of" were omitted by the Capital Issues (Continuance of Control) Amendment Act, 1956 (8 of 1956), S. 2 [21-3-1956].

1. Short title, extent and duration.—(1) This Act may be called THE CAPITAL ISSUES [a][* *] CONTROL ACT, 1947.

[b][(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir, and it applies also to citizens of India outside India.]

[c][(3) * * * * * *].

[a] The words "continuance of" were omitted by the Capital Issues (Continuance of Control) Amendment Act, 1956 (8 of 1956), S. 3 [21-3-1956].

[b] Substituted for former sub-section (2) by the Capital Issues (Continuance of Control) Amendment Act, 1950 (22 of 1950), S. 2 [18-3-1950].

[a][2. Definitions and interpretation.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

---

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) The important words in Section 2 are 'in this Act'. Therefore the definitions of 'securities' and of 'issue of capital' as contained in Section 2 would not govern the meaning of the terms 'debenture' as it

(a) "company" means a company as defined in Section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956, and includes a foreign company within the meaning of Section 591 of that Act;

(b) "issue of capital" means the issuing or creation of any securities whether for cash or otherwise, and includes the capitalisation of profits or reserves for the purpose of converting partly paid-up shares into fully paid-up shares or increasing the par value of shares already issued;

(c) "private company" means a private company as defined in Section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956;

(d) "prospectus" means any prospectus, notice, circular, advertisement or other document inviting offers from the public for the subscription or purchase of any securities of a company;

(e) "securities" means any of the following instruments issued or to be issued, or created or to be created, by or for the benefit of a company, namely :—

(i) share, stocks and bonds;

(ii) debentures;

(iii) mortgage deeds, instruments of pawn, pledge or hypothecation and any other instruments, creating or evidencing a charge or lien on the assets of the company; and

(iv) instruments acknowledging loan to or indebtedness of the company and guaranteed by a third party or entered into jointly with a third party;

(f) 'States" means the territories of India to which this Act extends.

(2) Any reference in this Act to offering securities to the public shall be construed as including a reference to offering them to any section of the public, whether selected as members, debenture holders or holders of any other securities of the company concerned or as clients of the person issuing any prospectus in relation to such securities, or selected in any other manner :

Provided that the foregoing provisions shall not be taken as requiring any offer to be treated as made to the public if it can properly be regarded, in all the circumstances, as not being calculated to result directly or indirectly in the securities becoming available for the subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer, otherwise as being a domestic concern of the persons making or receiving it.]

[a] Substituted for old S. 2, by the Capital Issues (Control) Amendment Act, 1957 (50 of 1957), S. 2 [21-12-1957].

3 Control over issues of capital[b].—(1) No company incorporated in °[the States] shall, except with the consent of the Central Government, make an issue of capital outside °[the States].

(2) No company, whether incorporated in °[the States] or not, shall, except with the consent of the Central Government,—

(a) make an issue of capital in °[the States];

(b) make in °[the States] any public offer of securities for sale;

(c) renew or postpone the date of maturity or repayment of any security maturing for payment in °[the States].

(3) The Central Government may on application make an order according recognition to an issue of capital made or to be made outside °[the States] by a company not incorporated in °[the States].

occurs in the Companies Act, 1956. So far the latter Act is concerned. 'debenture' is an instrument under seal evidencing a debt. It is not capital. AIR 1958 Bom 491 (498): ILR (1958) Bom 250 (DB). (Discount on debenture is not a payment out of capital.)

(4) The Central Government may qualify any consent or recognition accorded by it under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) with such conditions, whether for immediate or future fulfilment, as it may think fit to impose; and where a company acts in pursuance of such consent or recognition, it shall comply with the terms of any condition so imposed.

(5) Where an application for the consent or recognition of the Central Government under any of the provisions of this section is refused, the Central Government shall, upon the request of the applicant, communicate to him in writing the reasons for such refusal.

*[(6) The Central Government may by order at any time—

(a) revoke the consent or recognition accorded under any of the provisions of this section; or

(b) where such consent or recognition has been qualified with any conditions, vary all or any of those conditions :

Provided that before an order under this sub-section is made the company concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why such order should not be made.

(7) Where an order has been made under sub-section (6), the Central Government shall, upon the request of the company concerned, communicate to it in writing the reasons for such order.]

[b] Industrial Credit and Investment Corporation of India Ltd., exempted from the provisions of this section as well as S. 5, see Gaz. of India., 1961, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), page 993.

*[4. Control of advertisement of offers of securities for subscription etc.—(1) No person shall circulate any offer, being a public offer, in the States for the subscription, or purchase of any securities unless consent or recognition has been accorded by the Central Government under this Act to the issue or creation of such securities and a statement has been made to that effect in the offer.

(2) No company shall circulate any offer, being an offer to existing holders of the securities of that company or to existing holders of the securities of any other company specified in the offer, in the States for the subscription or purchase of any securities of such company unless recognition has been accorded by the Central Government under this Act to the issue or creation of such securities and a statement has been made to that effect in the offer.

(3) No person shall without the consent of the Central Government circulate any offer, being a public offer, in the States for the sale of any securities issued or created with the consent or recognition of the Central Government if such issue or creation was made by a private company or if the order according consent or recognition contained a condition that the securities should be privately subscribed.]

5. Purchase and sale of securities*.—(1) No person shall accept or give any consideration for any securities in respect of an issue of capital made or proposed to be made in *[the States] or elsewhere unless the consent or recognition of the Central Government has been accorded to such issue of capital.

(2) No person shall sell or purchase or otherwise transfer or accept transfer of any securities issued by a company in respect of any issue or capital made after the 17th day of May 1943 in *[the States] or elsewhere unless such issue has been made with the consent or recognition of the Central Government.

[b] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

6. Power to exempt and to condone contraventions.—(1) The Central Government may, by general order[a] which shall be notified in the Official Gazette, provide for the granting of exemption from all or any of the provisions of Sections 3, 4 and 5.

(2) The Central Government may, by order condone a contravention of any of the provisions of Section 3 or Section 4 [b][or Section 5], and on the making of such order the provisions of this Act, shall have effect as if an exemption had been granted under sub-section (1) of this section in respect of the thing done or omitted to be done in contravention of Section 3 or Section 4 [b][or Section 5], as the case may be.

[a] For the Capital Issues (Exemption) Order, 1969, see Gaz. of Ind., 1-2-1969, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), Ext., page 149. In the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, however. Capital Issue (Exemption) Order 1961 published in G. I. 8-6-1961, as S. O. 1234 has been extended — See G. I. 13-5-1967, Pt. II, S 3 (i), page 796.

[a][7 Power to call for information[b].—Any officer authorised in this behalf by the Central Government may, for the purpose of inquiring into the correctness of any statement made in an application for consent or recognition to an issue of capital or for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the requirements of any condition attached to an order according such consent or recognition have been complied with or for the purpose of obtaining particulars as to the total capital issued or for any other purposes of this Act, require any company or any officer of a company to submit and furnish to him within such time as may be specified in the requisition, such accounts, book or other documents and such information as he may reasonably think necessary.]

[a] Substituted for former S. 7 by the Capital Issues (Control) Amendment Act, 1957 (50 of 1957), S. 6 [21-12-1957].

[b] Every Registrar of Joint Stock Companies has been authorised to exercise the powers conferred by the section, within the limits of his jurisdiction—See Gaz. of Ind., 1954, Pt. II, S. 3, page 1106.

8 False statement.—No person shall, when complying with any requisition under Section 7 or when making any application for consent or recognition to an issue of capital [a][or in connection with any of the other provisions of this Act], give any information or make any statement which he knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, to be false or not true in any material particular.

[a] Inserted by the Capital Issues (Control) Amendment Act, 1957 (50 of 1957), S. 8 [21-12-1957].

9 Prohibition against disclosing information.—No person who obtains any information by virtue of this Act shall, otherwise than in connection with the execution of the provisions of this Act or of any order made in pursuance thereof, disclose that information to any other person except with the permission of the Central Government.

10 Power to delegate function.—The Central Government may by order[a] direct that any power or duty which by or under any of the preceding provisions of this Act is conferred or imposed upon the Central Government shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged by any officer subordinate to that Government.

11. Committee to advise Government.—The Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute an Advisory Committee consisting of not more than five members, and may from time to time refer to it for advice any such matters arising out of the administration of this Act as the Central Government may think fit.

12. Power to make rules.—[a][(1)] The Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette make rules[b] for carrying out the purposes of this Act [c][and in particular for the levy of fees on applications made to the Central Government for its consent].

[d][(2) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before each House of Parliament as soon as possible after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.]

[a] Section 12 was renumbered as sub-section (1) by the Capital Issues (Control) Amendment Act, 1957 (50 of 1957), S. 8 [21-12-1957].

[c] Added by the Capital Issues (Continuance of Control) Amendment Act, 1952 (6 of 1952), S. 3 [23-2-1952].

[d] Inserted by Act 50 of 1957, S. 8.

13. Penalties.—(1) Whoever contravenes, or attempts to contravene, any of the provisions of this Act or of any order made thereunder shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine or with both.

(2) If the person committing an offence punishable under this section is a company or other body corporate, every director, manager, secretary or other officer thereof shall, unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent its commission, be deemed to be guilty of such offence.

14. Burden of proof in certain cases.—Where any person is prosecuted for contravening any provision of this Act or of any order made thereunder which prohibits him from doing an act without the consent or permission of any authority the burden of proving that he had the requsite consent or permission shall be on him.

15. Protection of action taken under Act.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

16. Continuance of existing orders and savings.—(1) All orders made or deemed to be made under the provisions of the Capital Issues (Continuance of Control) Ordinance, 1947, and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue to be in force and be deemed to be orders made under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

(2) Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply upon the expiration of the said Ordinance as if it had then been repealed by this Act.

Section 13 — Note 1

(1) All infractions of orders in the sense of breaches of conditions attached to consents accorded under Rule 94-A of the Defence of India Rules can be punished under Section 13 of the Act. Hence, a Director of company can be prosecuted for breach of conditions imposed in the consent granted for issue of capital. ILR (1957) 2 Cal 506 (516).

Section 16 — Note 1

(1) Consent for issue of capital under Rule 94-A of the Defence of India Rules had to be communicated by an order, and the order was continued by virtue of the provisions of S. 15 of Ordinance V of 1947 and Section 16 of the Act of 1947 and remained valid. ILR (1957) 2 Cal 506.

CHAPTER II

THE CARDAMOM BOARD.

4. Establishment and constitution of the Board.—(1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, there shall be established for the purposes of this Act a Board to be called the Cardamom Board.

(2) The Board shall be a body corporate by the name aforesaid, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to contract, and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

(3) The Board shall consist of the following members, namely :—

(a) a Chairman to be appointed by the Central Government;

(b) the Director of Cardamom Development, ex officio;

(c) three Members of Parliament of whom two shall be elected by the House of the People and one by the Council of States :

(d) three members to represent respectively the Ministries of the Central Government dealing with—

(i) commerce;

(ii) agriculture; and

(iii) finance;

(e) such number of other members not exceeding fifteen as the Central Government may think expedient, to be appointed by that Government by notification in the Official Gazette from among persons who are in its opinion capable of representing—

(i) the Governments of the principal cardamom-growing States;

(ii) the cardamom-growing interests;

(iii) the cardamom trade interests;

(iv) the interests of labour;

(v) the consumers; and

(vi) such other persons or class of persons who, in the opinion of the Central Government, ought to be represented on the Board.

(4) The number of persons to be appointed as members from each of the categories specified in Clause (e) of sub-section (3), the term of office of the members of the Board other than the member referred to in Clause (b) of that sub-section, and the manner of filling vacancies among, and the procedure to be followed in the discharge of their functions by, the members of the Board shall be such as may be prescribed.

(5) Any officer of the Central Government, not being a member of the Board, when deputed by that Government in this behalf shall have the right to attend meetings of the Board and take part in the proceedings thereof but shall not be entitled to vote.

(6) The Board shall elect from among its members a Vice-Chairman who shall exercise such of the powers, and perform such of the functions of the Chairman as may be prescribed or as may be delegated to him by the Chairman.

5. Acts or proceedings of Board or its Committees not to be invalidated.—No act or proceeding of the Board or any Committee appointed by it under Section 8, shall be invalidated merely by reason of—

(a) any vacancy in, or any defect in the constitution of, the Board or such Committee, or

(b) any defect in the appointment of a person acting as a member of the Board or such Committee, or

(c) any irregularity in the procedure of the Board or such Committee not affecting the merits of the case.

6. Salary and allowances of Chairman.—The Chairman shall be entitled to such salary and allowances and such conditions of service in respect of leave, pension, provident fund and other matters as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Central Government.

7. Executive officers of the Board and other staff.—(1) The Central Government shall appoint a Director of Cardamom Development to exercise such powers and perform such duties under the Chairman as may be prescribed or as may be delegated to him by the Chairman.

(2) The Central Government shall appoint a Secretary to the Board to exercise such powers and perform such duties under the Chairman as may be prescribed or as may be delegated to him by the Chairman.

(3) The Director and the Secretary shall be entitled to such salaries and allowances and be governed by such conditions of service regarding leave, pension, provident fund and other matters as may be fixed by the Central Government.

(4) Subject to such control and restrictions as may be prescribed, the Board may appoint such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient performance of its functions and pay them such salaries and allowances as it may determine from time to time:

Provided that all officers and other employees of the Directorate of Cardamom Development and Marketing (other than the Director) who hold office as such immediately before the date referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 4 shall be deemed to have been appointed as officers or employees of the Board with effect from that date and every such officer and employee shall hold his office by the same tenure, at the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, leave, provident fund and other matters as he would have held the same if this Act had not been passed, and shall continue to do so unless and until his employment is terminated or until such tenure, remuneration and terms and conditions are altered by the Board with the approval of the Central Government:

Provided further that if the alteration so made is not acceptable to any such officer or employee, his employment may be terminated by the Board in accordance with the terms of the contract, if any, with such officer or employee or, if there be no such contract, on payment to him by the Board of compensation equivalent to three months' remuneration in the case of permanent employees and one month's remuneration in the case of other employees.

(5) The Chairman, the Director, the Secretary and other employees of the Board shall not undertake any work unconnected with their duties under this Act except with the permission of the Central Government.

[a] For Cardamom Board Service (Recruitment) Rules 1967—see Gaz. of Ind., 2-12-1967, Pt. II, S. 3 (1), p. 1889.

8. Committees of the Board.—(1) The Board may appoint such Committees as may be necessary for the efficient discharge of its duties and performance of its function under this Act.

(2) The Board shall have the power to co-opt as members of any Committee appointed under sub-section (1) such other number of persons who are not members of the Board, as it may think fit.

9. Functions of the Board.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Board to promote, by such measures as it thinks fit, the development under the control of the Central Government of the cardamom industry.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the measures referred to therein may provide for—

(a) promoting co-operative efforts among growers of cardamom;

(b) ensuring remunerative returns to growers of cardamom;

(c) financial or other assistance for improved methods of cultivation and processing of cardamom, for replanting cardamom and for extension of cardamom growing areas;

(d) regulating the sale and export of cardamom and stabilisation of prices of cardamom;

(e) training in cardamom testing and fixing grade standards of cardamom;

(f) increasing the consumption in India and elsewhere of cardamom and carrying on propaganda for that purpose;

(g) registering and licensing of brokers (including auctioneers) of cardamom and persons engaged in the business of cardamom.

(h) improving the marketing of cardamom in India and elsewhere;

(i) collecting statistics from growers, dealers and such other persons as may be prescribed on any matter relating to the cardamom industry; the publishing of statistics so collected or portions thereof or extracts therefrom;

(j) securing better working conditions and the provision and improvement of amenities and incentives for workers;

(k) undertaking, assisting or encouraging scientific, technological and economic research; and

(l) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) The Board shall perform its functions under this section in accordance with and subject to such rules as may be made by the Central Government.

10. Dissolution of the Board.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the Board shall be dissolved from such date and for such period as may be specified in the notification.

(2) When the Board is dissolved under the provisions of sub-section (1),—

(a) all members, notwithstanding that their term of office has not expired, shall, from the date of dissolution, vacate their offices as such members;

(b) all powers and duties of the Board shall during the period of dissolution, be exercised and performed by such person or persons as the Central Government may appoint in this behalf;

(c) all funds and other property vested in the Board shall, during the period of dissolution, vest in the Central Government; and

(d) as soon as the period of dissolution expires, the Board shall be reconstituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

CHAPTER IV

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT.

14. Imposition of a cess on cardamom exported.—(1) There shall be levied on all cardamom which is exported, a cess for the purposes of this Act at such rate not exceeding two per cent. ad valorem as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix.[a]

(2) The cess levied under sub-section (1) shall be in addition to any cess or duty leviable on cardamom under any other law for the time being in force.

(3) The provisions of the Customs Act, 1962, and the rules and regulations made thereunder, including those relating to refunds and exemptions from duty, shall, as far as may be, apply in relation to the levy and collection of the cess leviable under sub-section (1) as they apply in relation to the levy and collection of a duty of customs under that Act or those rules and regulations.

[a] Two per cent. ad valorem cess levied on Cardamom exported w. e. f. 1-4-1969 — see G. I., 31-3-1969, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), p. 421.

15. Payment of proceeds of cess to the Board.—The proceeds of the cess levied under Section 14 shall first, be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India and the Central Government may, if Parliament by appropriation made by law in this behalf so provides, pay to the Board, from time to time, from out of such proceeds, after deducting the expenses of collection, such sums of money as it may think fit for being utilised for the purposes of this Act.

16. Grants and loans by the Central Government.—The Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Board by way of grants or loans such sums of money as the Central Government may consider necessary.

17. Constitution of the Fund.—(1) There shall be formed a Fund to be called the Cardamom Fund and there shall be credited thereto—

(a) the proceeds of the cess made over to the Board by the Central Government;

(b) all fees levied and collected in respect of licences issued under this Act;

(c) any other fee that may be levied and collected by the Board under this Act or the rules made thereunder;

(d) any grants or loans that may be made by the Central Government for the purposes of the Fund;

(e) any grants or loans that may be made by any institution for the purposes of this Act;

(f) all sums realised by the Board in carrying out the measures referred to in Section 9.

(2) The Fund shall be applied—

(a) for meeting the salaries, allowances and other remuneration of the officers and other employees of the Board;

(b) for meeting the other administrative expenses of the Board;

(c) for meeting the cost of the measures referred to in Section 9;

(d) for repayment of any loans from the Central Government or from any institution.

18. Borrowing powers of the Board.—Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, the Board shall have power to borrow on the security of the Cardamom Fund or any other asset for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

19. Accounts and audit.—(1) The Board shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts, including the profit and loss account and the balance-sheet in such form as may be prescribed by the Central Government in consultatoin with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The accounts of the Board shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India at such intervals as may be specified by him and any expenditure incurred in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Board to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Board shall have the same rights and privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General has in connection with the audit of Government accounts and, in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect any of the offices of the Board.

(4) The accounts of the Board as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament.

CHAPTER V

CONTROL BY CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

20. Power to control price and distribution of cardamom.—(1) The Central Government may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, fix in respect of cardamom of any description specified therein—

(a) the maximum price or the minimum price, or the maximum and minimum prices, which may be charged by a grower of cardamom or cardamom dealer, wholesale or retail, whether for the Indian market or for export;

(b) the maximum quantity which may in one transaction be sold to any person.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), any order made thereunder may provide—

(a) for requiring persons engaged in the production, supply or distribution of, or trade and commerce in, cardamom to maintain and produce for inspection such books, accounts and records relating to their business and to furnish such information relating thereto as may be specified in the order;

(b) for such other matters, including in particular the entering and search of premises, vehicles, vessels and aircraft, and the seizure by a person authorised to make such search, of cardamom in respect of which such person has reason to believe that a contravention of the order has been, is being or is about to be committed.

21. Power to prohibit or control imports and exports of cardamom.—(1) The Central Goverument may, by order[a] published in the Official Gazette, make provision for prohibiting, restricting or otherwise controlling the import or export of cardamom, either generally or in specified classes of cases.

(2) All goods to which any order under sub-section (1) applies shall be deemed to be goods of which the import or export has been prohibited or restricted under Section 11 of the Customs Act, 1962, and all the provisions of that Act shall have effect accordingly.

(3) If any person contravenes any order made under sub-section (1), he shall, without prejudice to any confiscation or penalty to which he may be liable under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1962, as applied by sub-sec. (2), be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

[a] For directions under the section see G. I., 18-6-66, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), p. 1767.

22. Directions by Government.—The Board shall carry out such directions as may be issued to it from time to time by the Central Government for the efficient administration of this Act.

---

CHAPTER VI

MISCELLANEOUS.

23. Penalty for making false returns.—Any person who being required by or under this Act to furnish any return fails to furnish such return or furnishes a return containing any particular which is false and which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

24. Penalties for obstructing an officer or member of the Board in the discharge of his duties and for failure to produce books and records.—Any person who—

(a) obstructs any member authorised by the Chairman in writing or any officer or other employee of the Board authorised by it in this behalf or any person authorised in this behalf by the Central Government or by the Board, in the exercise of any power conferred, or in the discharge of any duty imposed, on him by or under this Act; or

(b) having control over or custody of any account book or other record, fails to produce such book or record when required to do so by or under this Act, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

25. Penalty for contravention of order relating to control of price, etc.—(1) If any person contravenes any order made under Section 20, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both; and the property in respect of which the order has been contravened or such part thereof as the Court may deem fit, shall be forfeited to the Central Government.

(2) Any person who attempts to contravene, or abets the contravention of, any order under Section 20 shall be deemed to have contravened that order.

26. Other penalties.—Whoever contravenes or attempts to contravene or abets the contravention of the provisions of this Act or of any rules made thereunder other than the provisions, punishment for the contravention whereof has been provided for in Sections 21, 23, 24 and 25, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both, and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

27. Offences by companies.—(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation —For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

28. Jurisdiction of Court.—No Court inferior to that of Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under this Act.

29. Previous sanction of Central Government.—No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Act shall be instituted except with the previous sanction of the Central Government.

30. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government or the Board or any Committee appointed by it, or any member of the Board or such Committee, or any officer or employee of the Government or the Board or any other person authorised by the Government or the Board, for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

31. Power to delegate.—The Central Government may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, direct that any power exercisable by it under this Act may also be exercised, in such cases and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order by such officer or authority as may be specified therein.

32. Suspension of operation of Act.—(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that circumstances have arisen rendering it necessary that certain of the restrictions imposed by this Act should cease to be imposed or if it considers it necessary or expedient so to do in the public interest, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, suspend or relax to a specified extent, either indefinitely or for such period as may be specified in the notification, the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Where the operation of any provision of this Act has under sub-sec. (1) been suspended or relaxed indefinitely, such suspension or relaxation may at any time, while this Act remains in force, be removed by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

33. Power of Central Government to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notfication in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the number of persons to be appointed as members from each of the categories specified in clause (e) of sub-section (3) of Section 4, the term of office and other conditions of service of the members of the Board and the procedure to be followed in the discharge of their functions by, and, the manner of filling vacancies among such members;

(b) the circumstances in which, and the authority by which, a member of the Board may be removed;

(c) The procedure to be followed at meetings of the Board and Committees thereof for the conduct of business and the number of members which shall form a quorum at a meeting;

(d) the maintenance by the Board of records of business transacted by the Board and the submission of copies thereof to the Central Government;

(e) the holding of a minimum number of meetings of the Board every year;

(f) the powes of the Board, its Chairman, Director and Committees of the Board with respect to the incurring of expenditure.

(g) the conditions subject to which the Board may incur expenditure outside India;

(h) the preparation of budget estimates of receipts and expenditure of the Board and the authority by which the estimates are to be sanctioned;

(i) the form and the manner in which the accounts should be kept by the Board;

(j) the deposit of the funds of the Board in banks and the investment of such funds;

(k) the conditions subject to which the Board may borrow;

(l) the conditions subject to which and the manner in which contracts may be entered into by or on behalf of the Board;

(m) the delegation to the Chairman or Director or members or officers of the Board of any of the powers and duties of the Board under this Act;

(n) the staff which may be employed by the Board and the pay and allowances and leave and other conditions of service of officers (other than those appointed by the Central Government) and other employees of the Board;

(o) the additional matters in respect of which the Board may undertake measures in the discharge of its functions;

(p) the travelling and other allowances of members of the Board and of Committees thereof;

(q) the remuneration and other allowances payable to the person or persons referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 10;

(r) the maintenance of the registers and other records of the Board and its various Committees;

(s) the appointment by the Board of agents to discharge on its behalf any of its functions;

(t) the form of, and the particulars to be contained in any returns or reports to be made to the Board under this Act;

(u) the form of and the manner of making application for licences issued by the Board, the fees payable for such application and the procedure to be followed in granting, and the conditions governing, such licences;

(v) the collection of any information or statistics in respect of cardamom;

(w) any other matter (other than a matter specified in Sec. 12) which is to be or may be prescribed or provided for by rules under this Act.

(3) Every rule made by the Central Government under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

[THE INDIAN] CARRIAGE BY AIR ACT, 1934
(ACT XX OF 1934)

CONTENTS

SECTIONS

1. Short title, extent and commencement.

2. Application of the convention to India.

3. Provisions regarding suits against High Contracting Parties who undertake carriage by air.

4. Application of the Act to carriage by air which is not international.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"An International Convention for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air was signed at Warsaw in October, 1929, by certain Governments The convention defines liability of air carriers for injury or damage caused to passengers or goods. The convention was not signed on behalf of India, but its provisions have been examined by the Government of India and are, in their opinion suitable to Indian conditions. They, therefore, propose to adhere to the convention as soon as requisite legislation to implement its provisions has been enacted. To that end they have framed the present Bill.

The convention applies only in respect of International carriage by air, i.e., carrige between two States signatory to the convention but as there is no law on the subject in India, beyond the general law of contract and the law relating to carriages on land, the Bill seeks to provide power to the Governor-General in Council to make rules extending the provisions of the convention also to internal carriage by air".

ACT HOW AFFECTED BY SUBSEQUENT LEGISLATION

—Amended by Acts 31 of 1939; 3 of 1951.
—Adapted by A. C. A. O., 1948; A. L. O., 1950.
—Extended by Acts 59 of 1949; 30 of 1950; 1 of 1962; and Regs. 6 of 1963; 7 of 1963; 8 of 1965.

(ACT XX OF 1934)[a]

[19th August, 1934.]

An Act to give effect [b][° °] to a Convention for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air.

WHEREAS a Convention for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air (hereinafter referred to as the Convention) was, on the 12th day of October, 1929, signed at Warsaw;[a]

AND WHEREAS it is expedient that [c][India] should accede to the Convention and should make provision for giving effect to the said Convention [b][° ° °];

AND WHEREAS it is also expedient to make provision for applying the rules contained in the Convention (subject to exceptions, adaptations and modifications) to carriage by air [b][° °] which is not international carriage within the meaning of the Convention;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Report of Select Committee see Gazette of India, 1934, Pt. V, p. 189.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950], Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of State of Madhya Pradesh — See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

The Act now extends to the Union Territories of—

(1) Dadra and Nagar Haveli — See Reg. 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-7-1965].
(2) Pondicherry — See Reg. 7 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-10-1963].
(3) Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands—see Reg. 8 of 1965 [w.e.f. 1-10-1967].
(4) Goa, Daman and Diu — See G. S. R. 388, G. I., 25-3-1967, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), page 471.

[b] The words "in the Provinces of India" were omitted by A. L. O., 1950.
[c] Substituted for "the Provinces of India", ibid.
[d] See Note (a) under R. 1 in Sch. I.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE INDIAN CARRIAGE BY AIR ACT, 1934.

---

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The liability of the internal carrier by Airways who is not governed by the Indian Carriage by Air Act, 1934 or by the Carriers Act, 1865 is governed by the English Common Law since adopted in India and not by the Contract Act. AIR 1960 Assam 71 (72, 76): ILR (1957) 9 Assam 443 (DB). (Contract giving carrier complete immunity from liability — Not hit by Section 23, Contract Act — View of Sankaran Nair, J., in 18 Mad LJ 497 (FB), Dissented from.) * AIR 1964 Cal 396 (398) (DB). (Carrier has absolute freedom to contract out of his liability even in cases of negligence. AIR 1962 Cal 311, Not approved.)

(2) There is no statute for internal air carriage in India. The Indian Airlines Corporation is a common carrier as opposed to a private carrier, but it is not a 'common carrier' within the meaning of the Carriers Act 1865. The liability of the Corporation as a common carrier is governed by the English Common Law as administered in India. The Contract Act, 1872, has no application. As the English Common Law is applicable, the Corporation can exempt itself of all liabilities, including its liability for negligence,

[a][(2) It extends to the whole of India [b][° °].]

(3) It shall come into force on such date[c] as the °[Central Government] may, by notification in the °[Official Gazette], appoint.

[a] Substituted for original sub-section (2) and for certain words by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] The words 'except Part B States' were omitted by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. I.

[c] 18th February 1935, see Gazette of India, 1935, Pt. I, p. 320.

2. Application of the Convention to India.—(1) The rules contained in the First Schedule, being the provisions of the Convention relating to the rights and liabilities of carriers, passengers, consignors, consignees and other persons, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the force of law in [a][India] in relation to any carriage by air to which those rules apply, irrespective of the nationality of the aircraft performing the carriage.

(2) The [aa][Central Government] may by notification[b] in the [aa][Official Gazette], certify who are the High Contracting Parties to the Convention, in respect of what territories they are parties, and to what extent they have availed themselves of the Additional Protocol to the Convention, and any such notification shall be conclusive evidence of the matters certified therein.

(3) Any reference in the First Schedule to the territory of any High Contracting Party to the Convention shall be construed as a reference to all the territories in respect of which he is a party.

[c][(3A) Any reference in the First Schedule to agents of the carrier shall be construed as including a reference to servants of the carrier.]

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Fatal Accidents Act, 1855, or any other enactment or rule of law in force in any part of [a][India], the rules contained in the First Schedule shall, in all cases to which those rules apply, determine the liability of a carrier, in respect of the death of a passenger, and the rules contained in the Second Schedule shall determine the persons by whom and for whose benefit and the manner in which such liability may be enforced.

(5) Any sum in francs mentioned in Rule 22 of the First Schedule shall, for the purpose of any action against a carrier, be converted into rupees at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date on which the amount of damages to be paid by the carrier is ascertained by the Court.

[a] Substituted for "Part A States and Part C States" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch.

[aa] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] For specification of High Contracting Parties to the Convention and the territories in respect of which they are respectively parties and the date on which the said Convention came into force in respect of those territories, see Notifn. No. 10A/54-51 dated 29-10-1952 published in Gaz. Ind., 1952, Pt. I, Sec. 1, page 574.

[c] Inserted by the Indian Carriage by Air (Amendment) Act, 1939 (31 of 1939), S. 2 [28-9-1939].

3. Provisions regarding suits against High Contracting Parties who undertake carriage by air.—(1) Every High Contracting Party to the Convention who has not availed himself of the provisions of the Additional Protocol thereto shall, for the purposes of any suit brought in a Court in [a][India] in accordance with the provisions of Rule 28 of the First Schedule to enforce a claim in respect of carriage undertaken by him, be deemed to have submitted to the jurisdiction of that Court and to be a person for the purposes of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

by special agreement. AIR 1961 Cal 383 (384, 385, 386) * (1959) AIR 1959 Mad 285 (287): (1959) 2 Mad LJ 373.

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Warsaw Convention for Carriage of Passenger and Goods by Air is still in force and to which India is a party. The Carriage by Air Act (20 of 1934) does not apply to internal air carriage in India. AIR 1961 Cal 383 (384). (There is no statute for internal air carriage in India.)

(2) The High Court may make rules of procedure providing for all matters which may be expedient to enable suits to be instituted and carried on.

(3) Nothing in this section shall authorise any Court to attach or sell any property of a High Contracting Party to the Convention.

[a] Substituted for "Part A States and Part C States" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch.

4. Application of Act to carriage by air which is not international.—The [a][Central Government] may by notification[b] in the [a][Official Gazette], apply the rules contained in the First Schedule and any provision of Section 2 to such carriage by air, not being international carriage by air as defined in the First Schedule, as may be specified in the notification, subject however to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications, if any, as may be so specified.

[a] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] For notification applying the provisions of S. 2 and the rules contained in First and Second Schedules to all carriage by air, not being international carriage as defined in First Schedule, irrespective of the nationality of the aircraft performing the carriage, subject to exceptions, adaptations and modifications, see G. S. R. 1967, Gaz. Ind., 28-12-1967, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), p. 2221 [w. e. f. 1-3-1964].

RULES[a]

CHAPTER I

SCOPE—DEFINITIONS

1. (1) These rules apply to all international carriage of persons, luggage or goods performed by aircraft for reward. They apply also to such carriage when performed gratuitously by an air transport undertaking.

(2) In these rules "High Contracting Party" means a High Contracting Party to the Convention.

(3) For the purposes of these rules the expression "international carriage" means any carriage in which, according to the contract made by the parties, the

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) See also Preamble.

(2) The Act does not apply of its own force to internal or non-internal carriage of persons, luggage or goods, but by Section 4 of the Act, the Central Government is given authority to issue notification applying the rules in the first Schedule to internal carriage by air. In the absence of any such notification under Section 4 of the Act applying the rules of the First Schedule of the Act to internal carriage by air by Central Government of India, the appellant cannot have the benefit of R. 22 (2) of the First Schedule. AIR 1959 Cal 755 (757, 758): ILR (1960) 1 Cal 701.

(3) The very specific provision of Section 4 excludes the application of rules of Warsaw Convention to internal carriage by air in India unless the Central Government chooses to apply it by a notification. That bars the application of those rules by Judges through the back door of the vague conception of justice, equity and good conscience. (1965) AIR 1965 Cal 252 (264) (DB). (AIR 1962 Cal 544, Reversed.)

(4) In the absence of any notification under Section 4, in India there are no statutory rights, duties and liabilities of carriers and their passengers and of consignors, carriers and cosignees of goods in respect of non-international carriage by air. The rights, duties and liabilities of carriers and consignees of goods by air in India has to be decided on the principles of ordinary law, that is those contained in the Contract Act and the principles of English law which have been held to be applicable to common carriers in India. AIR 1959 Mad 285 (287): (1959) 2 Mad LJ 373.

Schedule I, Rule 1 — Note 1

(1) Any carriage where the place of departure was in Pakistan and the place of destination is India, is international carriage within the meaning of Rule 1 (3) of Schedule I. ('54) 56 Bom LR 944 (952). (Carriage by air of parcel containing gold from Karachi to Bombay — Loss in Bombay office while awaiting delivery — Carrier held not liable.)

place of departure and the place of destination, whether or not there be a break in the carriage or a transhipment, are situated either within the territories of two High Contracting Parties, or within the territory of a single High Contracting Party if there is an agreed stopping place within a territory subject to the sovereignty, suzerainty, mandate or authority of another Power, even though that Power is not a party to the Convention. A carriage without such an agreed stopping place between territories subject to the sovereignty, suzerainty, mandate or authority of the same High Contracting Party is not deemed to be international for the purposes of these rules.

(4) A carriage to be performed by several successive air carriers is deemed, for the purposes of these rules, to be one undivided carriage, if it has been regarded by the parties as a single operation, whether it has been agreed upon under the form of single contract or of a series of contracts, and it does not lose its international character merely because one contract or a series of contract is to be performed entirely within a territory subject to the sovereignty, suzerainty, mandate or authority of the same High Contracting Party.

[a] As stated in Sec. 2, the rules contained in this Schedule are the provisions of the Convention. These conventions were subsequently amended by the Hague Protocol in 1955. The English text of the Warsaw Convention, as amended by the Hague Protocol, has been reproduced below as Appendix I for information of all interested in it. Similarly, the British Act, the Carriage by Air (Supplementary Provisions) Act, 1962 (10 and 11 Eliz. II, c. 48) is also printed as Appendix II. These do not form part of the Act.

2. (1) These rules apply to carriage performed by the State or by legally constituted public bodies provided it falls within the conditions laid down in R. 1.

(2) These rules do not apply to carriage performed under the terms of any International Postal Convention.

CHAPTER II
DOCUMENTS OF CARRIAGE
Part 1—Passenger ticket.

3. (1) For the carriage of passengers the carrier must deliver a passenger ticket which shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) the place and date of issue;

(b) the place of departure, and of destination;

(c) the agreed stopping places, provided that the carrier may reserve the right to alter the stopping places in case of necessity, and that if he exercises that right, the alteration shall not have the effect of depriving the carriage of its international character;

(d) the name and address of the carrier or carriers;

(e) a statement that the carriage is subject to the rules relating to liability contained in this Schedule.

(2) The absence, irregularity or loss of the passenger ticket does not affect the existence or the validity of the contract of carriage, which shall none the less be subject to these rules. Nevertheless, if the carrier accepts a passenger without a passenger ticket having been delivered, he shall not be entitled to avail himself of those provisions of this Schedule which exclude or limit his liability.

Part II—Luggage ticket.

4. (1) For the carriage of luggage, other than small personal objects of which the passenger takes charge himself, the carrier must deliver a luggage ticket.

(2) The luggage ticket shall be made out in duplicate, one part for the passenger and the other part for the carrier.

(3) The luggage ticket shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) the place and date of issue;

(b) the place of departure and of destination;

(c) the name and address of the carrier or carriers;

(d) the number of the passenger ticket;

(e) a statement that delivery of the luggage will be made to the bearer of the luggage ticket;

(f) the number and weight of the packages;

(g) the amount of the value declared in accordance with Rule 22 (2);

(h) a statement that the carriage is subject to the rules relating to liability contained in this Schedule.

(4) The absence, irregularity or loss of the luggage ticket does not affect the existence or the validity of the contract of carriage, which shall none-the-less be subject to these rules. Nevertheless, if the carrier accepts luggage without a luggage ticket having been delivered, or if the luggage ticket does not contain the particulars set out at (d), (f) and (h) of sub-rule (3), the carrier shall not be entitled to avail himself of those provisions of this Schedule which exclude or limit his liability.

Part III—Air consignment note

5. (1) Every carrier of goods has the right to require the consignor to make out and hand over to him a document called an "air consignment note"; every consignor has the right to require the carrier to accept this document.

(2) The absence, irregularity or loss of this document does not affect the existence or the validity of the contract of carriage which shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 9, be none-the-less governed by these rules.

6. (1) The air consignment note shall be made out by the consignor in three original parts and be handed over with the goods.

(2) The first part shall be marked "for the carrier", and shall be signed by the consignor. The second part shall be marked "for the consignee"; it shall be signed by the consignor and by the carrier and shall accompany the goods. The third part shall be signed by the carrier and handed by him to the consignor after the goods have been accepted.

(3) The carrier shall sign an acceptance of the goods.

(4) The signature of the carrier may be stamped; that of the consignor may be printed or stamped.

(5) If, at the request of the consignor, the carrier makes out air consignment note, he shall be deemed, subject to proof to the contrary, to have done so on behalf of the consignor.

7. The carrier of goods has the right to require the consignor to make out separate consignment notes when there is more than one package.

8. The air consignment note shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) the place and date of its execution;

(b) the place of departure and destination;

(c) the agreed stopping places, provided that the carrier may reserve the right to alter the stopping places in case of necessity, and that if he exercises that right the alteration shall not have the effect of depriving the carriage of its international character;

Schedule I, Rule 8 — Note 1

(1) Even if the carriage of goods is an international carriage by air and even if a consignment notice in the form required by Rule 8 is not issued, no liability of the carrier arises where the goods are not lost during 'the carriage by air' but from the office of the destination where the goods were awaiting delivery. ('54)) 56 Bom LR 944 (954).

(d) the name and address of the consignor;
(e) the name and address of the first carrier;
(f) the name and address of the consignee, if the case so requires;
(g) the nature of the goods;
(h) the number of the packages, the method of packing and the particular marks or numbers upon them;
(i) the weight, the quantity and the volume or dimensions of the goods;
(j) the apparent condition of the goods and of the packing;
(k) the freight, if it has been agreed upon, the date and place of payment and the person who is to pay it;
(l) if the goods are sent for payment on delivery, the price of the goods and, if the case so requires, the amount of the expenses incurred;
(m) the amount of the value declared in accordance with Rule 22 (2);
(n) the number of parts of the air consignment note;
(o) the documents handed to the carrier to accompany the air consignment note;
(p) the time fixed for the completion of the carriage and a brief note of the route to be followed, if these matters have been agreed upon;
(q) a statement that the carriage is subject to the rules relating to liability contained in this Schedule.

9. If the carrier accepts goods without an air consignment note having been made out or if the air consignment note does not contain all the particulars set out in Rule 8 (a) to (i) inclusive and (q), the carrier shall not be entitled to avail himself of the provisions of this Schedule which exclude or limit his liability.

10. (1) The consignor is responsible for the correctness of the particulars and statements relating to the goods which he inserts in the air consignment note.

(2) The consignor will be liable for all damage suffered by the carrier or any other person by reason of the irregularity, incorrectness or incompleteness of the said particulars and statements.

11. (1) The air consignment note is prima facie evidence of the conclusion of the contract of the receipt of the goods and of the conditions of carriage.

(2) The statements in the air consignment note relating to the weight, dimensions and packing of the goods, as well as those relating to the number of packages, are prima facie evidence of the facts stated; those relating to the quantity, volume and condition of the goods do not constitute evidence against the carrier except so far as they both have been, and are stated in the air consignment note to have been, checked by him in the presence of the consignor, or relate to the apparent condition of the goods.

12. (1) Subject to his liability to carry out all his obligations under the contract of carriage, the consignor has the right to dispose of the goods by withdrawing them at the aerodrome of departure or destination, or by stopping them in the course of the journey on any landing, or by calling for them to be delivered at the place of destination or in the course of the journey to a person other than the consignee named in the air consignment note, or by requiring them to be returned to the aerodrome of departure. He must not exercise this right of disposition in such a way as to prejudice the carrier or other consignors and he must repay any expenses occasioned by the exercise of this right.

(2) If it is impossible to carry out the orders of the consignor, the carrier must so inform him forthwith.

Schedule I, Rule 9 — Note 1

(1) Under R. 9, the carrier cannot get the special exemption unless he strictly complies with the particulars in the consignment note as given in Rule 8 (a) to (i) and (q). ('54) AIR 1954 Cal 170 (171).

(3) If the carrier obeys the orders of the consignor for the disposition of the goods without requiring the production of the part of the air consignment note delivered to the latter, he will be liable, without prejudice to his right of recovery from the consignor, for any damage which may be caused thereby to any person who is lawfully in possession of that part of the air consignment note.

(4) The right conferred on the consignor ceases at the moment when that of the consignee begins in accordance with Rule 13. Nevertheless, if the consignee declines to accept the consignment note or the goods, or if he cannot be communicated with, the consignor resumes his right of disposition.

13. (1) Except in the circumstances set out in Rule 12, the consignee is entitled, on arrival of the goods at the place of destination, to require the carrier to hand over to him the air consignment note and to deliver the goods to him on payment of the charges due and on complying with the conditions of carriage set out in the air consignment note.

(2) Unless it is otherwise agreed, it is the duty of the carrier to give notice to the consignee as soon as the goods arrive.

(3) If the carrier admits the loss of the goods, or if the goods have not arrived at the expiration of seven days after the date on which they ought to have arrived, the consignee is entitled to put into force against the carrier the rights which flow from the contract of carriage.

14. The consignor and the consignee can respectively enforce all the rights given them by Rules 12 and 13, each in his own name, whether he is acting in his own interest or in the interest of another, provided that he carries out the obligations imposed by the contract.

15. (1) Rules 12, 13 and 14 do not affect either the relations of the consignor or the consignee with each other or the mutual relations of third parties whose rights are derived either from the consignor or from the consignee.

(2) The provisions of Rules 12, 13 and 14 can only be varied by express provisions in their air consignment note.

16. (1) The consignor must furnish such information and attach to the air consignment note such documents as are necessary to meet the formalities of customs, octroi or police before the goods can be delivered to the consignee. The consignor is liable to the carrier for any damage occasioned by the absence, insufficiency or irregularity of any such information or documents, unless the damage is due to the fault of the carrier or his agents.

(2) The carrier is under no obligation to enquire into the correctness or sufficiency of such information or documents.

CHAPTER III

LIABILITY OF THE CARRIER

17. The carrier is liable for damage sustained in the event of the death or wounding of a passenger or any other bodily injury suffered by a passenger, if the accident which caused the damage so sustained took place on board the aircraft or in the course of any of the operations of embarking or disembarking.

Schedule I, Rule 17 — Note 1

(1) The provisions of the Carriage by Air Act, should be made applicable to internal air transport, even though the Central Government has not yet issued any notification under Section 4, extending its operation. Therefore, under Rules 17 and 20 (1) a carrier is liable unless he proves that he was not negligent. (1962) AIR 1962 Cal 544 (548).

[But see AIR 1964 Cal 396 (DB).]

(1) Ordinarily the expression 'carriage

18. (1) The carrier is liable for damage sustained in the event of the destruction or loss of, or of damage to, any registered luggage or any goods, if the occurrence which caused the damage so sustained took place during the carriage by air.

(2) The carriage by air within the meaning of the preceding paragraph comprises the period during which the luggage or goods are in charge of the carrier, whether in an aerodrome or on board an aircraft, or, in the case of a landing outside an aerodrome, in any place whatsoever.

(3) The period of the carriage by air does not extend to any carriage by land, by sea or by river performed outside an aerodrome. If, however, such a carriage takes place in the performance of a contract for carriage by air, for the purpose of loading, delivery or transhipment, any damage is presumed, subject to proof to the contrary, to have been the result of an event which took place during the carriage by air.

19. The carrier is liable for damage occasioned by delay in the carriage by air of passengers, luggage or goods.

20. (1) The carrier is not liable if he proves that he and his agents have taken all necessary measures to avoid the damage or that it was impossible for him or them to take such measures.

(2) In the carriage of goods and luggage the carrier is not liable if he proves that the damage was occasioned by negligent pilotage or negligence in the handling of the aircraft or in navigation and that, in all other respects, he and his agents have taken all necessary measures to avoid the damage,

21. If the carrier proves that the damage was caused by or contributed to by the negligence of the injured person the Court may exonerate the carrier wholly or partly from his liability.

22. (1) In the carriage of passengers the liability of the carrier for each passenger is limited to the sum of 125,000 francs. Where damages may be awarded in the form of periodical payments, the equivalent capital value of the said payments shall not exceed 125,000 francs. Nevertheless, by special contract the carrier and the passenger may agree to a higher limit of liability.

(2) In the carriage of registered luggage and of goods, the liability of the carrier is limited to a sum of 250 francs per kilogram, unless the consignor has made, at the time when the package was handed over to the carrier, a special declaration of the value at delivery and has paid a supplementary sum if the case so requires. In that case the carrier will be liable to pay a sum not exceeding the declared sum, unless he proves that that sum is greater than the actual value to the consignor at delivery.

(3) As regards objects of which the passenger takes charge himself, the liability of the carrier is limited to 5,000 francs per passenger.

(4) The sums mentioned in this rule shall be deemed to refer to the French franc consisting of 65½ milligrams gold of millesimal fineness 900.

by air' cannot include mere storage of goods after they are transported by the air-craft to the destination and they are awaiting delivery to the consignee. ('54) 56 Bom LR 944 (953). (Carriage by air of parcel containing gold from Karachi to Bombay — Loss in Bombay office while awaiting delivery — Carrier not liable for loss under Rule 18 (1).)

(2) The liability of Indian Airlines Corporation is governed by the English Common Law as administered in India; the Contract Act, 1872 has no application. As the English Common Law is applicable, the Corporation can exempt itself of all liabilities including its liability for negligence, by special agreement. AIR 1961 Cal 383 (385, 386).

Schedule I, Rule 22 — Note 1

(1) In the absence of a Notification under Section 4 by the Central Government applying rules under Schedule I to internal carriage by air a consignor consigning goods by air within India cannot have the benefit of Rule 22 of Schedule I. AIR 1959 Cal 755 (757): ILR (1960) 1 Cal 701.

23. Any provision tending to relieve the carrier of liability or to fix a lower limit than that which is laid down in these rules shall be null and void, but nullity of any such provision does not involve the nullity of the whole contract, which shall remain subject to the provisions of this Schedule.

24. (1) In the cases covered by Rules 18 and 19, any action for damages, however founded, can only be brought subject to the conditions and limits set out in this Schedule.

(2) In the cases covered by Rule 17, the provisions of sub-rule (1) also apply without prejudice to the questions as to who are the persons who have the right to bring suit and what are their respective rights.

25. (1) The carrier shall not be entitled to avail himself of the provisions of this Schedule which exclude or limit his liability, if the damage is caused by his wilful misconduct or by such default on his part as is in the opinion of the Court equivalent to wilful misconduct.

(2) Similarly, the carrier shall not be entitled to avail himself of the said provisions, if the damage is caused as aforesaid by any agent of the carrier acting within the scope of his employment.

26. (1) Receipts by the person entitled to delivery of luggage or goods without complaint is prima facie evidence that the same have been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the document of carriage.

(2) In the case of damage, the person entitled to delivery must complain to the carrier forthwith after the discovery of the damage, and, at the latest, within three days from the date of receipt in the case of luggage and seven days from the date of receipt in the case of goods. In the case of delay the complaint must be made at the latest within fourteen days from the date on which the luggage or goods have been placed at his disposal.

(3) Every complaint must be made in writing upon the document of carriage or by separate notice in writing despatched within the times aforesaid.

(4) Failing complaint within the times aforesaid, no action shall lie against the carrier, save in the case of fraud on his part.

27. In the case of the death of the person liable, an action for damages lies in accordance with these rules against those legally representing his estate.

28. An action for damages must be brought at the option of the plaintiff, either before the Court having jurisdiction where the carrier is ordinarily resident, or has his principal place of business, or has an establishment by which the contract has been made or before the Court having jurisdiction at the place of destination.

29. The right of damages shall be extinguished if an action is not brought within two years, reckoned from the date of arrival at the destination, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived, or from the date on which the carriage stopped.

30. (1) In the case of carriage to be performed by various successive carriers and falling within the definition set out in sub-rule (4) of Rule 1, each carrier who accepts passengers, luggage or goods is subjected to the rules set out in this Schedule, and is deemed to be one of the contracting parties to the contract of carriage in so far as the contract deals with that part of the carriage which is performed under his supervision.

(2) In the case of carriage of this nature, the passenger or his representative can take action only against the carrier who performed the carriage during which the accident or the delay occurred, save in the case where, by express agreement, the first carrier has assumed liability for the whole journey.

(3) As regards luggage or goods, the passenger or consignor will have a right of action against the first carrier, and the passenger or consignee who is entitled to delivery will have a right of action against the last carrier, and further, each may take action against the carrier who performed the carriage during which the destruction, loss, damage or delay took place. The carriers will be jointly and severally liable to the passenger or to the consignor or consignee.

CHAPTER IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO COMBINED CARRIAGE

31. (1) In the case of combined carriage performed partly by air and partly by any other mode of carriage, the provisions of this Schedule apply only to the carriage by air, provided that the carriage by air falls within the terms of R. 1.

(2) Nothing in this Schedule shall prevent the parties in the case of combined carriage from inserting in the document of air carriage conditions relating to other modes of carriage, provided that the provisions of this Schedule are observed as regards the carriage by air.

CHAPTER V

GENERAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

32. Any clause contained in the contract and all special agreements entered into before the damage occurred by which the parties purport to infringe the rules laid down by this Schedule, whether by deciding the law to be applied, or by altering the rules as to jurisdiction, shall be null and void. Nevertheless, for the carriage of goods arbitration clauses are allowed, subject to these rules, if the arbitration is to take place in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties within one of the jurisdictions referred to in Rule 28.

33. Nothing contained in this Schedule shall prevent the carrier either from refusing to enter into any contract of carriage, or from making regulations which do not conflict with the provisions of this Schedule.

34. This Schedule does not apply to international carriage by air performed by way of experimental trial by air navigation undertakings with the view to the establishment of a regular line of air navigation, nor does it apply to carriage performed in extraordinary circumstances outside the normal scope of an air carrier's business.

35. The expression "days" when used in these rules means current days, not working days.

36. When a High Contracting Party has declared at the time of ratification of or of accession to the Convention that the first paragraph of Article 2 of the Convention shall not apply to international carriage by air performed directly by the State, its colonies, protectorates or mandated territories or by any other territory under its sovereignty, suzerainty or authority, these rules shall not apply to international carriage by air so performed.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(See Section 2)

PROVISIONS AS TO LIABILITY OF CARRIERS IN THE EVENT OF THE DEATH OF A PASSENGER

1. The liability shall be enforceable for the benefit of such of the members of the passenger's family as sustained damage by reason of his death.

Schedule 1, Rule 36 — Note 1

(1) The special exemption from liability given in Rule 36 is given to the carrier, and not where the consignment note was by the forwarding agent and not the carrier. ('54) AIR 1954 Cal 170 (171).

In this rule the expression "member of the family" means wife or husband, parent, step-parent, grand-parent, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, child, step-child, grandchild:

Provided that, in deducing any such relationship as aforesaid any illegitimate person and any adopted person shall be treated as being, or as having been, the legitimate child of his mother and reputed father or, as the case may be, of his adopters.

2. An action to enforce the liability may be brought by the personal representative of the passenger or by any person for whose benefit the liability is under the last preceding rule enforceable, but only one action shall be brought in [a][India] in respect of the death of any one passenger, and every such action by whomsoever brought shall be for the benefit of all such persons so entitled as aforesaid as either are domiciled in [a][India] or, not being domiciled there, express a desire to take the benefit of the action.

3. Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding rule the amount recovered in any such action, after deducting any costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided between the persons entitled in such proportions as the Court may direct.

4. The Court before which any such action is brought may at any stage of the proceedings make any such order as appears to the Court to be just and equitable in view of the provisions of the First Schedule to this Act limiting the liability of a carrier and of any proceedings which have been, or are likely to be, commenced outside [a][India] in respect of the death of the passenger in question.

APPENDIX I

WARSAW CONVENTION WITH THE AMENDMENTS MADE IN IT BY THE HAGUE PROTOCOL[a]

PART I

(The English Text)

CONVENTION

FOR THE UNIFICATION OF CRETAIN RULES RELATING TO INTERNATIONAL CARRIAGE BY AIR

CHAPTER I

SCOPE—DEFINITIONS

Article 1

This convention applies to all international carriage of persons, baggage or cargo performed by aircraft for reward. It applies equally to gratuitous carriage by aircraft performed by an air transport undertaking.

(2) For the purposes of this Convention, the expression 'international carriage' means any carriage in which, according to the agreement between the parties, the place of departure and the place of destination, whether or not there be a break in the carriage or a transhipment, are situated either within the territories of two High Contracting Parties or within the territory of a single High Contracting Party if there is an agreed stopping place within the territory of another State, even if that State is not a High Contracting Party. Carriage between two points within the territory of a single High Contracting Party without an agreed stopping place within the territory of another State is not international carriage for the purposes of this Convention.

(3) Carriage to be performed by several successive air carriers is deemed, for the purposes of this Convention, to be one undivided carriage if it has been regarded by the parties as a single operation. Whether it had been agreed upon under the form of a single contract or of a series of contracts, and it does not lose its international character merely because one contract or a series of contracts is to be performed entirely within the territory of the same State.

Article 2

(1) This Convention applies to carriage performed by the State or by legally constituted public bodies provided it falls within the conditions laid down in Article 1.

(2) This Convention shall not apply to carriage of mail and postal packages.

CHAPTER II
DOCUMENTS OF CARRIAGE
SECTION 1—PASSENGER TICKET

Article 3

(1) In respect of the carriage of passengers a ticket shall be delivered containing—

(a) an indication of the places of departure and destination;

(b) if the places of departure and destination are within the territory of a single High Contracting Party, one or more agreed stopping places being within the territory of another State, an indication of at least one such stopping place;

(c) a notice to the effect that, if the passenger's journey involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Warsaw Convention may be applicable and that the Convention governs and in most cases limits the liability of carriers for death or personal injury and in respect of loss of or damage to baggage.

(2) The passenger ticket shall constitute prima facie evidence of the conclusion and conditions of the contract of carriage. The absene, irregularity or loss of the passenger ticket does not affect the existence or the validity of the contract of carriage which shall, nonetheless, be subject to the rules of this Convention. Nevertheless, if, with the consent of the carrier, the passenger embarks without a passenger ticket having been delivered, or if the ticket does not include the notice required by paragraph (1) (c) of this Article, the carrier shall not be entitled to avail himself of the provisions of Article 22.

SECTION 2—BAGGAGE CHECK

Article 4

(1) In respect of the carriage of registered baggage, a baggage check shall be delivered, which, unless combined with or incorporated in a passenger ticket which complies with the provisions of Article 3, paragraph (1), shall contain—

(a) an indication of the place of departure and destination ;

(b) if the places of departure and destination are within the territory of a single High Contracting Party, one or more agreed stopping places being within the territory of another State, an indication of at least one such stopping place;

(c) a notice to the effect that, if the carriage involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Warsaw Convention may be applicable and that the Convention governs and in most cases limits the liability of carriers in respect of loss of, or damage to baggage.

(2) The baggage check shall constitute prima facie evidence of the registration of the baggage and of the conditions of the contract of carriage. The absence, irregularity or loss of the baggage check does not affect the existence or the validity of the contract of carriage which shall, none the less, be subject to the rules of this Convention. Nevertheless, if the carrier takes charge of the baggage without a baggage check having been delivered or if the baggage check (unless combined with or incorporated in the passenger ticket which complies with the provisions of Article 3, paragraph (1) (c)), does not include the notice required by paragraph (1) (c) of this Article, he shall not be entitled to avail himself of the provisions of Article 22, paragraph (2).

SECTION 3—AIR WAYBILL

Article 5

(1) Every carrier of cargo has the right to require the consignor to make out and hand over to him a document called an "air waybill"; every consignor has the right to require the carrier to accept this document.

(2) The absence, irregularity or loss of this document does not affect the existence or the validity of the contract of carriage which shall, subject to the provisions of Article 9 be none the less governed by the rules of this Convention.

Article 6

(1) The air waybill shall be made out by the consignor in three original parts and be handed over with the cargo.

(2) The first part shall be marked "for the carrier", and shall be signed by the consignor. The second part shall be marked "for the consignee"; it shall be signed by the consignor and by the carrier and shall accompany the cargo. The third part shall be signed by the carrier and handed by him to the consignor after the cargo has been accepted.

(3) The carrier shall sign prior to the loading of cargo on board the aircraft.

(4) The signature of the carrier may be stamped; that of the consignor may be printed or stamped.

(5) If, at the request of the consignor, the carrier makes out the air waybill, he shall be deemed, subject to proof to the contrary, to have done so on behalf of the consignor.

Article 7

The carrier of cargo has the right to require the consignor to make out separate waybills when there is more than one package.

Article 8

The air waybill shall contain—

(a) an indication of the places of departure and destination;

(b) if the places of departure and destination are within the territory of a single High Contracting Party, one or more agreed stopping places being within the territory of another State, an indication of at least one such stopping place;

(c) a notice to the consignor to the effect that, if the carriage involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Warsaw Convention may be applicable and that the Convention governs and in most cases limits the liability of carriers in respect of loss of, or damage to, cargo.

Article 9

If, with the consent of the carrier, cargo is loaded on board the aircraft without an air waybill having been made out, or if the air waybill does not include the notice required by Article 8, paragraph (c), the carrier shall not be entitled to avail himself of the provisions of Article 22, paragraph (2).

Article 10

(1) The consignor is responsible for the correctness of the particulars and statements relating to the cargo which he inserts in the air waybill.

(2) The consignor shall indemnify the carrier against all damage suffered by him, or by any other person to whom the carrier is liable, by reason of the irregularity, incorrectness or incompleteness of the particulars and statements furnished by the consignor.

Article 11

(1) The air waybill is prima facie evidence of the conclusion of the contract, of the receipt of the cargo and of the conditions of carriage.

(2) The statements in the air waybill relating to the weight, dimensions and packing of the cargo, as well as those relating to the number of packages, are prima facie evidence of the facts stated; those relating to the quantity, volume and condition of the cargo do not constitute evidence against the carrier except so far as they both have been, and are stated in the air waybill to have been, checked by him in the presence of the consignor, or relate to the apparent condition of the cargo.

Article 12

(1) Subject to his liability to carry out all his obligations under the contract of carriage, the consignor has the right to dispose of the cargo by withdrawing it at the aerodrome of departure or destination, or by stopping it in the course of the journey on any landing, or by calling for it to be delivered at the place of destination or in the course of the journey to a person other than the consignee named in the air waybill, or by requiring it to be returned to the aerodrome of departure. He must not exercise this right of disposition in such a way as to prejudice the carrier or other consignors and he must repay any expenses occasioned by the exercise of this right.

(2) If it is impossible to carry out the orders of the consignor, the carrier must so inform him forthwith.

(3) If the carrier obeys the orders of the consignor for the disposition of the cargo without requiring the production of the part of the air waybill delivered to the latter, he will be liable, without prejudice to his right of recovery from the consignor, for any damage which may be caused thereby to any person who is lawfully in possession of that part of the air waybill.

(4) The right conferred on the consignor ceases at the moment when that of the consignee begins in accordance with Article 13. Nevertheless, if the consignee declines to accept the waybill or the cargo, or if he cannot be communicated with, the consignor resumes his right of disposition.

Article 13

(1) Except in the circumstances set out in the preceding Article, the consignee is entitled, on arrival of the cargo at the place of destination, to require the carrier to hand over to him the air waybill and to deliver the cargo to him, on payment of the charges due and on complying with the conditions of carriage set out in the air waybill.

(2) Unless it is otherwise agreed, it is the duty of the carrier to give notice to the consignee as soon as the cargo arrives.

(3) If the carrier admits the loss of the cargo, or if the cargo has not arrived at the expiration of seven days after the date on which it ought to have arrived, the consignee is entitled to put into force against the carrier the rights which flow from the contract of carriage.

Article 14

The consignor and the consignee can respectively enforce all the rights given them by Articles 12 and 13, each in his own name, whether he is acting in his own interest or in the interest of another, provided that he carries out the obligations imposed by the contract.

Article 15

(1) Articles 12, 13 and 14 do not affect either the relations of the consignor or the consignee with each other or the mutual relations of third parties whose rights are derived either from the consignor or from the consignee.

(2) The provisions of Articles 12, 13 and 14 can only be varied by express provisions in the air waybill.

(3) Nothing in this Convention prevents the issue of a negotiable air waybill.

Article 10

(1) The consignor must furnish such information and attach to the air waybill such documents as are necessary to meet the formalities of the customs, octroi or police before the cargo can be delivered to the consignee. The consignor is liable to the carrier for any damage occasioned by the absence, insufficiency or irregularity of any such information or documents, unless the damage is due to the fault of the carrier or his servants or agents.

(2) The carrer is under no obligation to enquire into the correctness or sufficiency of such information or documents.

CHAPTER III

LIABILITY OF THE CARRIER

Article 17

The carrier is liable for damage sustained in the event of the death or wounding of a passenger or any other bodily injury suffered by a passenger, if the accident which caused the damage so sustained took place on board the aircraft or in the course of any of the operations of embarking or disembarking.

Article 18

(1) The carrier is liable for damage sustained in the event of the destruction or loss of, or of damage to, any registered baggage or any cargo, if the occurrence which caused the damage so sustained took place during the carriage by air.

(2) The carriage by air within the meaning of the preceding paragraph comprises the period during which the baggage or cargo is in charge of the carrier, whether in an aerodrome or on board an aircaft, or in the case of a landing outside an aerodrome, in any place whatsoever.

(3) The period of the carriage by air does not extend to any carriage by land, by sea or by river performed outside an aerodrome. If, however, such a carriage takes place in the performance of a contract for carriage by air for the purpose of loading, delivery or transhipment, any damage is presumed, subject to proof to the contrary, to have been the result of an event which took place during the carriage by air.

Article 19

The carrier is liable for damage occasioned by delay in the carriage by air of passengers, baggage or cargo.

Article 20

The carrier is not liable if he proves that he and his servants or agents have taken all necessary measures to avoid the damage or that it was impossible for him or them to take such measures.

Article 21

If the carrier proves that the damage was caused by or contributed to by the negligence of the injured person, the Court may, in accordance with the provisions of its own law, exonerate the carrier wholly or partly from the liability.

Article 22

(1) In the carriage of persons the liability of the carrier for each passenger is limited to the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand francs. Where, in accordance with the law of the Court seized of the case, damages may be awarded in the form of periodical payments the equivalent capital value of the said payments shall not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand francs. Nevertheless, by special contract, the carrier and the passenger may agree to a higher limit of liability.

(2) (a) In the carriage of registered baggage and of cargo, the liability of the carrier is limited to a sum of two hundred and fifty francs per kilogramme, unless the passenger or consignor has made, at the time when the package was handed over to the carrier, a special declaration of interest in delivery at destination and has paid a supplementary sum if the case so requires. In that case the carrier will be liable to pay a sum not exceeding the declared sum, unless he proves that that sum is greater than the passenger's or consignor's actual interest in delivery at destination.

(b) In the case of loss, damage or delay of part of registered baggage or cargo, or of any object contained therein, the weight to be taken into consideration in determining the amount to which the carrier's liability is limited shall be only the total weight of the package or packages concerned. Nevertheless, when the loss, damage or delay of a part of the registered baggage or cargo, or of an object contained therein, affects the value of other packages covered by the same baggage check or the same air waybill, the total weight of such package or packages shall also be taken into consideration in determining the limit of liability.

(3) As regards objects of which the passenger takes charge himself the liability of the carrier is limited to five thousand Francs per passenger.

(4) The limits prescribed in this Article shall not prevent the Court from awarding, in accordance with its own law, in addition, the whole or part of the Court costs and of the other expenses of the litigation incurred by the plaintiff. The foregoing provision shall not apply if the amount of the damages awarded, excluding Court costs and other expenses of the litigation, does not exceed the sum which the carrier has offered in writing to the plaintiff within a period of six months from the date of the occurrence causing the damage, or before the commencement of the action, if that is later.

(5) The sums mentioned in Francs in this Article shall be deemed to refer to a currency unit consisting of sixty-five and a half miligrammes of gold of millesimal fineness nine hundred. These sums may be converted into national currencies in round figures. Conversion of the sums into national currencies other than gold shall, in case of judicial proceedings, be made according to the gold value of such currencies at the date of the judgment.

Article 23

(1) Any provision tending to relieve the carrier of liability or to fix a lower limit than that which is laid down in this Convention shall be null and void, but the nullity of any such provision does not involve the nullity of the whole contract, which shall remain subject to the provisions of this Convention.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply to provisions governing loss or damage resulting from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the cargo carried.

Article 24

(1) In the cases covered by Articles 18 and 19 any action for damages, however founded, can only be brought subject to the conditions and limits set out in this Convention.

(2) In the cases covered by Article 17 the provisions of the preceding paragraph also apply, without prejudice to the questions as to who are the persons who have the right to bring suit and what are their respective rights.

Article 25

The limits of liability specified in Article 22 shall not apply if it is proved that the damage resulted from an act or omission of the carrier, his servants or agents, done with intent to cause damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result; provided that, in the case of such act or omission of a servant or agent, it is also proved that he was acting within the scope of his employment.

Article 25A

(1) If an action is brought against a servant or agent of the carrier arising out of damage to which this Convention relates, such servant or agent, if he proves that he acted within the scope of his employment, shall be entitled to avail himself of the limits of liability which that carrier himself is entitled to invoke under Article 22.

(2) The aggregate of the amounts recoverable from the carrier, his servants and agents, in that case, shall not exceed the said limits.

(3) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply if it is proved that the damage resulted from an act or omission of the servant or agent done with intent to cause damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.

Article 26

(1) Receipt by the person entitled to delivery of baggage or cargo without complaint is prima facie evidence that the same has been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the document of carriage.

(2) In the case of damage, the person entitled to delivery must complain to the carrier forthwith after the discovery of the damage, and, at the latest, within seven days from the date of receipt in the case of baggage and fourteen days from the date of receipt in the case of cargo. In the case of delay the complaint must be made at the latest within twenty-one days from the date on which the baggage or cargo have been placed at his disposal.

(3) Every complaint must be made in writing upon the document of carriage or by separate notice in writing despatched within the times aforesaid.

(4) Failing complaint within the times aforesaid, no action shall lie against the carrier, save in the case of fraud on his part.

Article 27

In the case of the death of the person liable, an action for damages lies in accordance with the terms of this Convention against those legally representing his estate.

Article 28

(1) An action for damages must be brought, at the option of the plaintiff, in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties, either before the Court having jurisdiction where the carrier is ordinarily resident, or has his principal place of business, or has an establishment by which the contract has been made or before the Court having jurisdiction at the place of destination.

(2) Questions of procedure shall be governed by the law of the Court seised of the case.

Article 29

(1) The right to damages shall be extinguished if an action is not brought within two years, reckoned from the date of arrival at the destination, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived or from the date on which the carriage stopped.

(2) The method of calculating the period of limitation shall be determined by the law of the Court seised of the case.

Article 30

(1) In the case of carriage to be performed by various successive carriers and falling within the definition set out in the third paragraph of Article 1, each carrier who accepts passengers, baggage or cargo is subjected to the rules set out in this Convention, and is deemed to be one of the contracting parties to the contract of carriage in so far as the contract deals with that part of the carriage which is performed under his supervision.

(2) In the case of carriage of this nature, the passenger or his representative can take action only against the carrier who performed the carriage during which the accident or the delay occurred, save in the case where, by express agreement, the first carrier has assumed liability for the whole journey.

(3) As regards baggage or cargo, the passenger or consignor will have a right of action against the first carrier, and the passenger or consignee who is entitled to delivery will have a right of action against the last carrier, and further, each may take action against the carrier who performed the carriage during which the destruction, loss, damage or delay took place. These carriers will be jointly and severally liable to the passenger or to the consignor or consignee.

CHAPTER IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO COMBINED CARRIAGE

Article 31

(1) In the case of combined carriage performed partly by air and partly by any other mode of carriage, the provisions of this Convention apply only to the carriage by air, provided that the carriage by air falls within the terms of Article 1.

(2) Nothing in this Convention shall prevent the parties in the case of combined carriage from inserting in the document of air carriage conditions relating to other modes of carriage, provided that the provisions of this Convention are observed as regards the carriage by air.

CHAPTER V

GENERAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 32

Any clause contained in the contract and all special agreements entered into before the damage occurred by which the parties purport to infringe the rules laid down by this Convention, whether by deciding the law to be applied, or by altering the rules as to jurisdiction, shall be null and void. Nevertheless for the carriage of cargo arbitration clauses are allowed, subject to this Convention, if the arbitration is to take place within one of the jurisdictions referred to in the first paragraph of Article 28.

Article 33

Nothing contained in this Convention shall prevent the carrier either from refusing to enter into any contract of carriage, or from making regulations which do not conflict with the provisions of this Convention.

Article 34

The provisions of Articles 3 to 9 inclusive relating to documents of carriage shall not apply in the case of carriage performed in extraordinary circumstances outside the normal scope of an air carrier's business.

Article 35

The expression "days" when used in this Convention means current days not working days.

Article 36

The Convention is drawn up in French in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Poland and of which one duly certified copy shall be sent by the Polish Government to the Government of each of the High Contracting Parties.

Article 40A

(1) (This paragraph is not reproduced. It defines "High Contracting Party".)

(2) For the purposes of the Convention the word territory means not only the metropolitan territory of a State but also all other territories for the foreign relations of which that State is responsible.

(Articles 37, 38, 39, 40 and 41 and the concluding words of the Convention are not reproduced. They deal with the coming into force of the Convention.)

CARRIAGE BY AIR (SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS) ACT, 1962
(10 & 11 Eliz. 2, c. 48)

CONTENTS

SECTIONS

1. Supplementary Convention to have force of law.
2. Interpretation of Supplementary Convention.
3. Application of provisions of Acts of 1961 and 1932.
4. Interim protection for carriers' servants and agents.
5. Application to British possessions, etc., and to carriage by air not governed by Supplementary Convention.
6. Application to Crown.
7. Short title, commencement and saving.

SCHEDULE

An Act to give effect to the Convention, supplementary to the Warsaw Convention, for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air performed by a person other than the contracting carrier; and for connected purposes.

[19th July, 1962.]

1. Supplementary Convention to have force of law.—(1) The provisions of the Convention, supplementary to the Warsaw Convention, for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air performed by a person other than the contracting carrier, as set out in the schedule to this Act, shall, so far as they relate to the rights and liabilities of carriers, carriers' servants and agents, passengers, consignors, consignees, and other persons, and subject to the provisions of this Act, have the force of law in the United Kingdom in relation to any carriage by air to which the Convention applies, irrespective of the nationality of the aircraft performing that carriage.

(2) If there is any inconsistency between the text in English in Part I of the Schedule to this Act and the text in French in Part II of that Schedule, the text in French shall prevail.

2. Interpretation of Supplementary Convention.—(1) In the Schedule to this Act, "the Warsaw Convention" means—

(a) before the day on which section one of the Carriage by Air Act, 1961, comes into force, the Convention set out in the First Schedule to the Carriage by Air Act, 1932, and

(b) on and after that day, the Convention set out in the First Schedule to the said Act of 1961, but, in relation to rights or liabilities arising out of an occurrence before that day, "the Warsaw Convention" shall continue to have the same meaning as before that day.

(2) In Articles VII and VIII in the Schedule to this Act, "Court" includes (in an arbitration allowed by the Conventions referred to in the foregoing sub-section or by Article IX, Section 3 in the Schedule to this Act) an arbitrator.

(3) In the application to Scotland of the Schedule to this Act and of the foregoing provisions of this section, for references to an arbitrator and a plaintiff, there shall be substituted respectively references to an arbiter and a pursuer.

3. Application of provisions of Acts of 1961 and 1932.—(1) In paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) and in sub-sections (2) and (3) of section four of the said Act of 1961 (which explain the limitations on liability in Article 22 in the First Schedule to that Act and enable a Court to make appropriate orders and awards to give effect to those limitations) references to the said Article 22 shall include, subject to any necessary modifications, references to Article VI in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) In section five of the said Act of 1961 (which limits the time for bringing proceedings against a carrier's servant or agent and to obtain contribution from a carrier) references to a carrier include references to an actual carrier as defined in paragraph (c) of Article I in the Schedule to this Act as well as to a contracting carrier as defined in paragraph (b) of that Article.

(3) In section eight of the said Act of 1961 (which relates to actions against States brought in the United Kingdom in accordance with Article 28 in the First Schedule to that Act) and in section two of the said Act of 1932 (which contains corresponding provisions) the reference to Article 28 shall include a reference to Article VIII in the Schedule to this Act.

4. Interim protection for carrier's servants and agents.—Article V in the Schedule to this Act, and so much of Article VI in that Schedule as limits the aggregate amount which can be recovered from a carrier and his servants and agents, shall, in relation to rights or liabilities arising out of an occurrence before the day on which Article 25A in the First Schedule to the said Act of 1961 (to which those provisions are supplementary) comes into force, apply not only in relation to carriage performed by an actual carrier and to the persons mentioned in those provisions but also in relation to any other carriage governed by the Convention set out in the First Schedule to the said Act of 1932 and to any carrier under that convention and his servants and agents.

5. Application to British possessions, etc., and to carriage by air not governed by Supplementary Convention.—(1) Section nine of the said Act of 1961 (which enables Her Majesty to extend that Act to British possessions and other territories) shall (except so far as it relates to United Kingdom trust territories) apply to this Act as it applies to that Act, and an order under that section may relate to both that Act and this Act.

(2) Section ten of the said Act of 1961 (which enables Her Majesty to apply the First Schedule and other provisions of that Act to carriage by air which is not governed by the Convention set out in that Schedule) shall apply to the Schedule and other provisions of this Act as it applies to that Act, and an order under that section may relate to both that Act and this Act.

(3) Before the day on which section one of the said Act of 1961 comes into force, in sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section the references to sections nine and ten of the said Act of 1961 shall be read respectively, subject to any necessary modifications, as references to sections three and four of the said Act of 1932 (which contain corresponding provisions).

(4) This section shall come into force on the passing of this Act.

6. Application to Crown.—(1) This Act shall bind the Crown.

(2) This section shall not have effect before the day on which section one of the said Act of 1961 comes into force.

7. Short title, commencement and saving.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Carriage by Air (Supplementary Provisions) Act, 1962.

(2) Except as otherwise provided, this Act shall come into force on such day as Her Majesty may by Order in Council certify to be the day on which the Convention in the Schedule to this Act comes into force as regards the United Kingdom.

(3) This Act shall not apply so as to affect rights or liabilities arising out of an occurrence before the day mentioned in the last foregoing sub-section; and nothing in this section shall prevent any provision of this Act having effect before that day by virtue of an order under sub-section (2) of section five of this Act.

SCHEDULE

PART I

(The English Text)

CONVENTION

Supplementary to the Warsaw Convention for the Unification of certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air performed by a Person other than the contracting Carrier.

Article I

In this Convention—

(a) (This paragraph is not reproduced. It defines "Warsaw Convention".)

(b) "Contracting carrier" means a person who as a principal makes an agreement for carriage governed by the Warsaw Convention with a passenger or consignor or with a person acting on behalf of the passenger or consignor;

(c) "actual carrier" means a person, other than the contracting carrier, who by virtue of authority from the contracting carrier, performs whole or part of the carriage contemplated in paragraph (b) but who is not with respect to such part a successive carrier within the meaning of the Warsaw Convention. Such authority is presumed in the absence of proof to the contrary.

Article II

If an actual carrier performs the whole or part of carriage which, according to the agreement referred to in Art. I, paragraph (b), is governed by the Warsaw Convention, both the contracting carrier and the actual carrier shall, except as otherwise provided in this Convention, be subject to the rules of the Warsaw Convention, the former for the whole of the carriage contemplated in the agreement, the latter solely for the carriage which he performs.

Article III

1. The acts and omissions of the actual carrier and of his servants and agents acting within the scope of their employment shall, in relation to the carriage performed by the actual carrier, be deemed to be also those of the contracting carrier.

2. The acts and omissions of the contracting carrier and of his servants and agents acting within the scope of their employment shall, in relation to the carriage performed by the actual carrier, be deemed to be also those of the actual carrier. Nevertheless, no such act or omission shall subject the actual carrier to liability exceeding the limits specified in Article 22 of the Warsaw Convention. Any special agreement under which the contracting carrier assumes obligations not imposed by the Warsaw Convention or any waiver of rights conferred by that Convention or any special declaration of interest in delivery at destination contemplated in Article 22 of the said Convention, shall not affect the actual carrier unless agreed to by him.

Article IV

Any complaint to be made or order to be given under the Warsaw Convention to the carrier shall have the same effect, whether addressed to the contracting carrier or to the actual carrier. Nevertheless, orders referred to in Article 12 of the Warsaw Convention shall only be effective if addressed to the contracting carrier.

Article V

In relation to the carriage performed by the actual carrier, any servant or agent of that carrier or of the contracting carrier shall, if he proves that he acted within the scope of his employment, be entitled to avail himself of the limits of liability which are applicable under this Convention to the Carrier whose servant or agent he is unless it is proved that he acted in a manner which, under the Warsaw Convention, prevents the limits of liability from being invoked.

Article VI

In relation to the carriage performed by the actual carrier, the aggregate of the amounts recoverable from that carrier and the contracting carrier, and from their servants and agents acting within the scope of their employment, shall not exceed the highest amount which could be awarded against either the contracting carrier or the actual carrier under this Convention, but none of the persons mentioned shall be liable for a sum in excess of the limit applicable to him.

Article VII

In relation to the carriage performed by the actual carrier, an action for damages may be brought, at the option of the plaintiff, against that carrier or the contracting carrier, or against both together or separately. If the action is brought against only one of those carriers, that carrier shall have the right to require the other carrier to be joined in the proceedings, the procedure and effects being governed by the law of the Court seised of the case.

Article VIII

Any action for damages contemplated in Article VII of this Convention must be brought at the option of the plaintiff, either before a Court in which an action may be brought against the contracting carrier, as provided in Article 28 of the Warsaw Convention, or before the Court having jurisdiction at the place where the actual carrier is ordinarily resident or has his principal place of business.

Article IX

1. Any contractual provision tending to relieve the contracting carrier or the actual carrier of liability under this Convention or to fix a lower limit than that which is applicable according to this Convention shall be null and void, but the nullity of any such provision does not involve the nullity of the whole agreement, which shall remain subject to the provisions of this Convention.

2. In respect of the carriage performed by the actual carrier, the preceding paragraph shall not apply to contractual provisions governing loss or damage resulting from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the cargo carried.

3. Any clause contained in an agreement for carriage and all special agreements entered into before the damage occurred by which the parties purport to infringe the rules laid down by this Convention, whether by deciding the law to be applied, or by altering the rules as to jurisdiction, shall be null and void. Nevertheless, for the carriage of cargo arbitration clauses are allowed, subject to this Convention, if the arbitration is to take place in one of the jurisdictions referred to in Article VIII.

Article X

Except as provided in Article VII, nothing in this Convention shall affect the rights and obligations of the two carriers between themselves.

(Articles XI to XVIII and the concluding words of the Convention are not reproduced. They deal with the coming into force of the Convention and provide that in the case of inconsistency the text in French shall prevail.)

[THE INDIAN] CARRIAGE OF GOODS BY SEA ACT, 1925
(ACT XXVI OF 1925)

CONTENTS

SECTIONS

1. Short title and extent.
2. Application of Rules.
3. Absolute warranty of seaworthiness not to be implied in contracts to which the Rules apply.
4. Statement as to application of Rules to be included in bills of lading.
5. Modification of Article VI of Rules in relation to goods carried in sailing ships and by prescribed routes.
6. Modifications of Rules 4 and 5 of Article III in relation to bulk cargoes.
7. Saving and operation.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"A bill of lading was originally a receipt for the goods placed on a ship and also a document for transferring the title of the goods to the consignee. With the development of trade, it became recognised as a negotiable instrument in which shippers, the carriers and the consignees or purchasers of the goods as well as bankers and under-writers became increasingly interested. Concurrently with this it became the custom to show on the bill of lading the terms of the contract on which the goods were delivered to and received by the ship, and from time to time new clauses were added usually in the direction of contracting the carrier out of liability for some kind of loss or damage to the goods. There thus arose great diversity between the conditions on which goods were carried by sea and considerable uncertainty about the liabilities which still attached to the carrier.

2. There has been a demand for many years among the different commercial interests which handle bills of lading for uniformity among all maritime countries in the definition of the liabilities and risks attaching to the carrier of goods by sea. Some countries, e. g. Canada, Australia, and the United States of America, enacted legislation prohibiting carriers of goods by sea from contracting themselves out of certain kinds of liability. The matter was discussed at several International Conferences between shipowners, shippers and bankers in an attempt to secure the universal adoption of an agreed set of rules.

3. A Code of rules was drawn up in 1921 by the International Law Association at the Hague. These were subjected to criticism by the various interests affected till finally agreement was reached at the International Conferences on Maritime Law held in Brussels in October, 1922, and again in October 1923. A Code of rules defining the responsibilities and liabilities to which a carrier of goods by sea should be subject and also the rights and immunities he was entitled to enjoy was drawn up, and it was unanimously recommended that every country should give legal sanction to these rules. The United Kingdom has done so by the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act (1924) (14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22). It is proposed to do the same in India by this Bill.

4. This Bill follows closely the English Act. The agreed Code of Rules are reproduced in the Schedule. Clause 5 of the Bill exempts from these rules goods carried in the coasting trade under documents other than bills of lading whilst Clause 6 saves the carrier from claims for shortage of weight in certain cases of bulk shipments where, by the custom of the trade, the weight entered in the bill of lading is a weight ascertained or accepted by a third party other than the carrier of shipper and this fact is so stated in the bill of lading."

—Gazette of India, 1925, Part V, page 37.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE

"The following report of the Joint Committee on the Bill to amend the law with respect to the carriage of goods by sea was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 31st August 1925:—

"We the undersigned Members of the Joint Committee to which the Bill to amend the law with respect to the carriage of goods by sea was referred. have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

We have made one change in the Bill the substitution of new Cl. 5.

Original Cl. 5, following lines of the English Act, exempted the whole of the coasting trade from the requirement that in all cases a bill of lading should be issued subject to the conditions prescribed in the Rules, that is to say, such trade was excluded from the operation of the Rules.

It is clear from the opinions received that, contrary to the English practice, bills of lading are almost invariably issued by steamship companies engaged in the Indian coasting trade, and that it is the desire of the mercantile community that the provisions of the Bill relating to bills of lading should apply to such trade.

It is not, however, the practice for sailing vessels engaged in the coasting trade or proceeding from Indian ports to issue bills of lading and these have been exempted accordingly.

The provision in Clause (b) is intended to cover the case of goods carried by the South Indian Railway ferry boat from Dhanushkodi to Talaimanar. Bills of lading are not issued for the short sea journey and cargo is carried subject to the provisions of the Railway Act."

MINUTE OF DISSENT

[By Purshotamdas Thakurdas] "I think it is necessary to draw the attention of the Indian Legislature to the opinion of Mr. Justice J. R. Ellis Cunliffe of the Rangoon High Court. He says that the English statute corresponding to the Bill under report 'was the result of a so-called International Maritime Conference at Brussels, which has been subjeet to acute criticism on the part of high legal authorities at Home.' These authorities 'regarded the draft provisions of the Bill as being extremely difficult to interpret and likely to lead to much unnecessary litigation arising out of their obscurity'. The learned Judge further remarks:

"The construction of Article 6 under the Schedule will be extremely difficult to decide. How the Courts are to come to a satisfactory conclusion as to whether the stipulation mentioned in the first part of the Article is or is not contrary to public opinion, I do not know. And further, the ordinary trader is bound to be in very great doubt as to the difference between the receipt mentioned therein, which is ruled to be a non-negotiable instrument and to be so marked and, the ordinary bill of lading which is, by custom largely a formally printed document.

The only reason that I know of for recommending the Indian Legislature to adopt the Rules given in the Schedule to this Bill is to ensure uniformity in a matter which has been under discussion between experts of the various countries for a number of years. But in his long and protracted discussion, it must be noted that, Indian interests had no direct say or representation. Whilst I see no reason, so far, to oppose the Bill as amended by the "Select Committee," I deem it my duty to bring the opinion expressed by Justice Cunliffe to the notice of the Legislature by a separate Minute."

[21st September, 1925.]

An Act to amend the Law with respect to the carriage of goods by sea.

WHEREAS at the International Conference on Maritime Law held at Brussels in October, 1922, the delegates at the Conference, [b][° ° °] agreed unanimously to recommend their respective Governments to adopt as the basis of a convention a draft convention for the unification of certain rules relating to bills of lading;

AND WHEREAS at a meeting held at Brussels in October, 1923, the rules contained in the said draft convention were amended by the Committee appointed by the said Conference;

[b][AND WHEREAS it is expedient that the said rules as so amended and set out with modifications in the Schedule, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the force of law with a view to establishing the responsibilities, liabilities, rights and immunities attaching to carriers under bills of lading; It is hereby enacted as follows :—]

[a] This Indian Act follows, with slight modifications, the provisions contained in the English Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1924 (14 and 15, Geo. V, c. 22).

For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. Ind., 1925, Pt. V, page 37; and for the Report of the Joint Committee, see ibid, page 205.

The Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of State of Madhya Pradesh — See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

It has now been extended to the Union Territories of—

(1) Goa, Daman and Diu by Reg. 12 of 1962 [w. e. f. 1-2-1965].

(2) Pondicherry by Reg. 7 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-10-1963].

(3) Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands by Reg. 8 of 1965.

[b] Words 'including the delegates representing His Majesty' omitted and Para 3 substituted for original Paras 3 and 4 by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1964 (52 of 1964), S. 3 and Sch. II [29-12-64].

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE INDIAN CARRIAGE OF GOODS BY SEA ACT, 1925.

(2) It extends to [a][the whole of India].

[a] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

2. Application of Rules.—Subject to the provisions of this Act, the rules set out in the Schedule (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules") shall have effect in relation to and in connection with the carriage of goods by sea in ships carrying goods from any port in [a][India] to any other port whether in or outside [a][India].

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—S. 1.]

[a] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

3. Absolute warranty of seaworthiness not to be implied in contracts to which Rules apply.—There shall not be implied in any contract for the carriage of goods by sea to which the Rules apply any absolute undertaking by the carrier of the goods to provide a seaworthy ship.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—S. 2.]

4. Statement as to application of Rules to be included in bills of lading.—Every bill of lading, or similar document of title, issued in [a][India] which contains

Preamble — Note 1

(1) Prior to the passing of the Act the common law of England was applicable to common cariers and not the provisions of the Contract Act. ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 3 (6): ILR (1953) Mad 396 (DB).

(2) The Carriage of Goods by Sea Act does not apply to cargo which by the contract of carriage is stated as being carried on deck and is so carried. The English Common Law applies and Ss. 151 and 152 of the Indian Contract Act cannot affect the liability of the common carrier. The liability of a common carrier for the loss, injury or delay in respect of the goods carried may be varied by contract.

A contract relieving the carrier of responsibility for short delivery is not opposed to public policy and Section 23 of the Indian Contract Act does not apply. The bill of lading relieves the ship-owner from any liability with regard to showing how the loss had occurred. AIR 1953 Mad 3 (7, 8): ILR (1953) Mad 396 (DB).

[See however AIR 1955 Mad 602 (603, 604).]

(3) The provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act can be validly incorporated and made a part of the contract contained in the bill of lading and when so incorporated parties would be governed by the provisions of the Act and the schedule. AIR 1952 Sau 104 (105) (DB) * ('55) 8 Sau LR 179 (182).

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Unless the starting point or the port of loading is a port in British India, the Act is inapplicable. AIR 1955 Mad 519 (521): ILR (1956) Mad 85 (DB).

(2) Lighter carrying goods from port not to another port but to a ship lying at anchor in the sea does not come within the scope of this section. AIR 1939 Mad 401 (402).

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) Two conditions have to be satisfied before the exemption could be invoked by a carrier — (1) he must have issued a bill of lading and (2) this should contain a clause stating that it was subject to the provisions of the Act. AIR 1955 Mad 519 (521): ILR (1956) Mad 85 (DB). (It was held that satmi letters issued in this case in respect of each loading did not amount to a bill of lading and further that the reference to the rules in the form did not render the statute applicable to the carriage of goods.)

or is evidence of any contract to which the Rules apply, shall contain an express statement that it is to have effect subject to the provisions of the said Rules as applied by this Act.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—S. 3.]

[a] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

5. Modification of Article VI of Rules in relation to goods carried in sailing ships and by prescribed routes.—Article VI of the Rules shall, in relation to—

(a) the carriage of goods by sea in sailing ships carrying goods from any port in [a][India] to any other port whether in or outside [a][India], and have effect as though the said Article referred to goods of any class instead of to particular goods and as though the proviso to the second paragraph of the said Article were omitted.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—S. 4.]

[c] Substituted by A. L. O., 1937.

6. Modification of Rules 4 and 5 of Article III in relation to bulk cargoes.—Where under the custom of any trade the weight of any bulk cargo inserted in the bill of lading is a weight ascertained or accepted by a third party other than the carrier or the shipper and the fact that the weight is so ascertained or accepted is stated in the bill of lading, then, notwithstanding anything in the Rules, the bill of lading shall not be deemed to be prima facie evidence against the carrier of the receipt of goods of the weight so inserted in the bill of lading, and the accuracy thereof at the time of shipment shall not be deemed to have been guaranteed by the shipper.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—S. 5.]

7. Saving and operation.—(1) Nothing in this Act shall affect the operation of sections [a][331 and 352 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958),] or the

(2) A bill of lading which did not contain a statement as required by Section 4, viz., that it is to have the effect subject to the provisions of the said rules as applied by the Act is not invalid on that account and it is the document alone which can have the relationship between the parties as distinct from the exemptions and immunities granted by the statute. AIR 1957 Trav-Co 133 (134): ILR (1956) Trav-Co 348 (DB).

(3) When a Paramount Clause is incorporated into a contract, the purpose is to give the Hague Rules contractual force, so that although the bill of lading may contain very wide exceptions the rules are paramount and make the shipowners liable for want of due diligence to make the ship seaworthy and so forth. (1957) 1957-2 All ER 311 (316): 1957-2 WLR 509 and 968.

(4) Paramount Clause which is designed for a bill of lading cannot sensibly be applied to charterparty. (1957) 1957-2 All ER 311 (318): 1957-2 WLR 509 and 968.

(5) In order to make ship owner liable for deceit the first ingredient to be satisfied is that he knowingly issued a clean Bill of Lading when it should not have been given, with intent that on that basis payment would be made to the holder of the bill under the Letters of Credit. Where a ship owner is sued for damages on the basis of deceit on the ground that he had issued a clean Bill of Lading in collusion with the seller and thereby caused the payment to be made through Letters of Credit, in order to see whether all the ingredients of the definition of 'deceit' have been satisfied, it is necessary to know the exact scope of the term 'Letters of Credit', 'Bill of Lading' and 'clean Bill of Lading.' The said three expressions are evolved in the Law Merchant to facilitate international trade and clean as under: (The scope was explained). AIR 1966 SC 1892 (1899): 1966 (Supp) SCR 92.

(6) A Bill of Lading serves three purposes, viz. (1) it is a receipt for the goods shipped containing the terms on which they have been received; (2) It is evidence of the contract of goods for the carriage of the goods; (3) It is a document of title for the goods specified therein. The contract of the ship owners in the Bill of Lading is that they will deliver the goods at their destination 'in the like good order and condition' in which they were when shipped. AIR 1966 SC 1892 (1898): 1966 (Sup) SCR 92.

operation of any other enactment for the time being in force limiting the liability of the owners of sea-going vessels.

(2) The Rules shall not by virtue of this Act apply to any contract for the carriage of goods by sea before such day,[b] not being earlier than the first day of January, 1926, as the [c][Central Government] may, by notification in the [c][Official Gazette], appoint, nor to any bill of lading or similar document of title issued, whether before or after such day as aforesaid, in pursuance of any such contract as aforesaid.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—S. 6 (2), (3).]

[a] Substituted for the words describing sections of British Acts by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1964 (52 of 1964), S. 3 and Sch. II [28-12-1964].

[b] For Notification appointing such day as the 1st of January 1926, see Gazette of India, 1925, Pt. I, page 950.

[c] Substituted by A. L. O., 1937.

SCHEDULE

RULES RELATING TO BILLS OF LADING[a]

Article I

Definitions.

In these Rules the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, that is to say—

(a) "Carrier" includes the owner or the charterer who enters into a contract of carriage with a shipper:

(b) "Contract of carriage" applies only to contracts of carriage covered by a bill of lading or any similar document of title, in so far as such

---

Schedule — Note 1

(1) Looking to the international character of the provisions, it is incumbent on Courts to pay more than usual attention to the normal grammatical sense of the words and to guard against being influenced by similar words used in other Indian Acts. AIR 1960 SC 1058 (1062): (1960) 3 SCR 820.

Article I — Note 1

(1) In all cases in which a bill of lading is given there is antecedent to the issuing of the bill of lading a contract expressed or implied between the parties for affreightment of goods. Whether this is a contract of carriage of goods by sea within the meaning of the definition will depend upon whether parties to it intended that a bill of lading should be given and that the defendants would have the right to demand such a bill. ('53) AIR 1953 Bom 396 (399, 400).

(2) The true construction of the words "covered by a bill of lading" is not that the contract actually is covered by such a bill. It is sufficient if the parties intend that the shipper should be entitled to claim at or after shipping a bill of lading. ('53) AIR 1953 Bom 396 (399).

(3) The words "from the moment at which such bill of lading or similar document of title regulates the relations between a carrier and a holder of the same" qualify a contract covered by a bill of lading or any similar document issued under or pursuant to a charterparty and not a contract covered by a bill of lading or any similar document of title in so far as such document relates to the carriage of goods by sea. ('53) AIR 1953 Bom 396 (398).

(4) Before you can have a charterparty, you must have (a) the hiring of a ship or some principal part of a ship, and (b) the ship must be specified. If the identity of the ship can be established as having been agreed upon between the parties, it would not matter whether the name of the ship was given or not given in the charterparty. ('53) AIR 1953 Bom 396 (397, 398).

(5) Deck cargo at owner's risk — Such cargo not being "goods" within meaning of Article 1 (c), carriage of such goods is not governed by Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, but by English common law, i.e., by the terms of the contract embodied in the bill of lading. ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 3 (7): ILR (1953) Mad 396 (DB).

(6) A mere statement in the contract of carriage that the goods are on deck would not be sufficient to exclude such cargo from the definition of the term 'goods.' It would be necessary also to prove that the cargo in question was in fact carried on the deck of a ship. Whether the cargo was carried on the deck is a fact within the special knowledge of the steamship company and the burden would be on the company to lead evidence to prove that it was so carried. AIR 1960 Bom 416 (417, 418): 62 Bom LR 265.

document relates to the carriage of goods by sea including any bill of lading or any similar document as aforesaid issued under or pursuant to a charterparty from the moment at which such bill of lading or similar document of title regulates the relations between a carrier and a holder of the same:

(c) "Goods" includes goods, wares, merchandises, and articles of every kind whatsoever, except live animals and cargo which by the contract of carriage is stated as being carried on deck and is so carried:

(d) "Ship" means any vessel used for the carriage of goods by sea:

(e) "Carriage of goods" covers the period from the time when the goods are loaded on to the time when they are discharged from the ship.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. I.]

[a] For law relating to Bills of Lading, see the Indian Bills of Lading Act, 9 of 1856.

Article II

Risks.

Subject to the provisions of Article VI, under every contract of carriage of goods by sea the carrier, in relation to the loading, handling, stowage, carriage, custody, care, and discharge of such goods, shall be subject to the responsibilities and liabilities, and entitled to the rights and immunities hereinafter set forth.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. II.]

Article III

Responsibilities and Liabilities.[a]

1. The carrier shall be bound, before and at the beginning of the voyage, to exercise due diligence to—

(a) make the ship seaworthy;

(b) properly man, equip, and supply the ship;

(c) make the holds, refrigerating and cool chambers, and all other parts of the ship in which goods are carried, fit and safe for their reception, carriage and preservation.

Article II — Note 1

(1) Two conditions have to be satisfied before the exemption could be invoked by the carrier: (1) he must have issued a bill of lading and (2) this should contain a clause stating that it was subject to the provisions of the Act. AIR 1955 Mad 519 (521): (1955) 2 Mad LJ 240 (DB).

ARTICLE III — SYNOPSIS

1. General.
2. Rule 2.
3. Rule 3.
4. Rule 4.
5. Rule 6.
6. Rule 8.

1. General.— (1) It is only when a bill of lading is issued and this document contains an express provision that it is subject to the terms of the rules under the Act that the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the stipulation set out in Articles 2 to 4 including the exemption in favour of the carrier. AIR 1955 Mad 519 (521): (1955) 2 Mad LJ 240 (DB).

(2) A bill of lading is a document of title, transferable by endorsement and its transfer has the same effect as delivery of the goods. Delivery of goods to consignee without production of bill of lading, does not discharge the carrier when the consignee is not true holder of the bill of lading. ILR (1956) 2 Cal 600 (604).

2. Rule 2.— (1) If more than 3,500 tobacco bags are stacked in one place going right upto the ceiling of the hold with a slight gap and if they kept stacked in 12 or 14 layers deep that should be held to be deep stowage. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (483) (DB).

3. Rule 3.— (1) In a suit for short delivery of goods, where the bill of lading expressly says 'weight, contents and value when shipped unknown', the burden is on the plaintiff to prove shortage. ('23) AIR 1923 Mad 523 (1) (523).

(2) Common carrier — Liability in contract — Damages to goods caused by breach of contract committed by seller — Delivery made in the containers specified in the Bill of Lading — Carriers not liable for damages suffered by the consignee. AIR 1966 SC 1892 (1896): (1966) Sup SCR 92.

(3) A clause in a bill of lading was as follows:

"At all ports in which by law or the custom of the port there shall exist a Port or Harbour Authority, delivery of the goods into the custody of such Port or

2. Subject to the provisions of Article IV, the carrier shall properly and carefully load, handle, stow, carry, keep, care for and discharge the goods carried.

3. After receiving the goods into his charge, the carrier or the master or agent of the carrier, shall, on demand of the shipper, issue to the shipper a bill of lading showing among other things—

(a) The leading marks necessary for identification of the goods as the same are furnished in writing by the shipper before the loading of such goods starts, provided such marks are stamped or otherwise shown clearly upon the goods if uncovered, or on the cases or coverings in which such goods are contained, in such a manner as should ordinarily remain legible until the end of the voyage:

(b) Either the number of packages or pieces, or the quantity, or weight, as the case may be, as furnished in writing by the shipper:

(c) The apparent order and condition of the goods:

Provided that no carrier, master or agent of the carrier, shall be bound to state or show in the bill of lading any marks, number, quantity, or weight which he has reasonable ground for suspecting not accurately to represent the goods actually received, or which he has had no reasonable means of checking.

4. Such a bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the carrier of the goods as therein described in accordance with paragraph 3 (a), (b) and (c).

5. The shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the carrier the accuracy at the time of shipment of the marks, number, quantity, and weight, as furnished by him, and the shipper shall indemnify the carrier against all loss, damages, and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper.

---

Article III — Note 3 (contd.)

Harbour Authority shall be a good and effectual discharge and delivery of the goods and shall be treated as a removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to the delivery thereof."

Held, (i) that the clause does not refer to the condition of the goods but is concerned only with person or authority taking delivery of the goods. It is a clause to facilitate delivery and not to exonerate liability for damage to goods.

(ii) that the words, 'the goods' do not mean 'different goods' or 'damaged goods' or 'substituted goods' within the meaning of this clause. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (481) (DB).

(4) A clause in a bill of lading was as follows:

"If any consignee has a shortage in the marks and numbers called for by this bill of lading unclaimed goods of like kind and quality shall at the carrier's option be deemed to constitute a part of the goods and be accepted by the consignee as good delivery under this bill of lading."

Held, that the scope of the clause cannot be extended to cover where the goods themselves are a total loss or have suffered total damage. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (481) (DB).

(5) Bill of lading is generally prima facie evidence against the ship owner of shipment on board of the goods acknowledged in the Bill. If the ship owner is bound by the contents of the bill as his bailee the Port Trust would be equally bound, even though the Port Trust while making the tally has not verified the brands that were being unloaded. AIR 1968 Mad 42 (46) :(1967) 2 Mad LJ 594 (DB).

(6) Delivery of cargo — Port Trust cannot contend that delivery can only be according to tally sheets and not to bill of lading. AIR 1968 Mad 42 (45): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 594 (DB).

(7) A clean bill of lading is one that does not contain any reservation as to the apparent good order or condition of either the goods themselves or their packing. A defect in packing noted in a bill of lading would render it an unclean bill. AIR 1961 Mad 442 (447): (1961) 2 Mad LJ 97 (DB).

(8) A clause in a bill of lading was, "The company will not be accountable for gold, silver . . . . planted wares or other valuables, or beyond the amount of Rs. 500/- for any package . . . . . ", Held, words "beyond the amount of Rs. 500/- for any package" stand out separately and must be construed irrespective of the occurrence if the words "gold silver . . . . . ". (1957) 100 Cal LJ 45 (52).

4. Rule 4.— (1) The bill of lading is sufficient evidence to establish the fact

6. Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of carriage, or, if the loss or damage be not apparent, within three days, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the carrier of the goods as described in the bill of lading.

The notice in writing need not be given if the state of the goods has at the time of their receipt been the subject of joint survey or inspection.

In any event the carrier and the ship shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

In the case of any actual or apprehended loss or damage, the carrier and the receiver shall give all reasonable facilities to each other for inspecting and tallying the goods.

7. After the goods are loaded the bill of lading to be issued by the carrier, master or agent of the carrier, to the shipper shall, if the shipper so demands, be a "shipped" bill of lading, provided that, if the shipper shall have previously taken up any document of title to such goods, he shall surrender the same as against the issue of the "shipped" bill of lading, but at the option of the carrier, such that the goods were actually put on board and were received by the master of the ship. AIR 1955 Mad 602 (603).

---

(2) A bill of lading is evidence and sometimes conclusive evidence of the contract of affreightment, but is not the contract of affreightment itself. AIR 1919 Mad 931 (935).

(3) A stipulation in the bill of lading that if no claim for compensation is made within thirty days from the date of arrival of the ship the shipping company will not be liable for compensation is void as it offends against Paragraph 8 of Article 3. For it seeks at least to 'lessen', otherwise than provided in the rules in the Schedule the liability of the ship or carrier for loss or damage to goods or in connection with goods caused by the failure to deliver. AIR 1960 SC 1058: (1960) 3 SCR 820 * AIR 1968 Mad 42 * AIR 1953 Sau 32 (37) (FB).

(4) Once a clean Bill of lading is issued the ship owners are estopped from denying that the goods and package were not in good order. The estoppel applies only when the bad condition is discernible on a reasonable examination on the container having regard to the contents. AIR 1966 SC 1892 (1898): 1966 (Sup) SCR 92.

(5) Liability of contract — Damages to goods caused by breach of contract committed by seller — Delivery made in the containers specified in the Bill of Lading — Carriers not liable for damages suffered by the consignee. AIR 1966 SC 1892 (1896): 1966 (Sup) SCR 92.

(6) When the consignment is correctly landed from the ship, the Port Trust cannot contend that the delivery can only be in accordance with tally sheets and not according to Bill of Lading. AIR 1968 Mad 42 (45): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 594 (DB).

(7) Article 3, Rule (4) no doubt says that there is prima facie evidence, of shipment by the production of the Bill of Lading. Yet where there in specific disclaimer as to the number, or quantity in a Bill of Lading, it is not conclusive against a ship owner, it does not offer any prima facie evidence and it has no probative value. (1966) 70 Cal WN 307 (317).

5. Rule 6.— (1) The word 'loss' in the third clause of the 6th rule of Article 3 in the Schedule to the Act means and includes any loss caused to a shipper or a consignee by reason of the inability of the ship or the carrier to deliver part or whole of the goods, to whatever reason such failure may be due. AIR 1960 SC 1058 (1065): (1960) 3 SCR 820 * AIR 1953 Sau 32 (34) (FB).

(2) The provisions of Rule 6 of Article III do not apply proprio vigore to all contracts of carriage by sea but only in case where a bill of lading has been issued incorporating the provisions of the Act. AIR 1957 Trav-Co 133 (134): ILR (1956) Trav-Co 348 (DB).

(3) 'Removal' means physical removal. ('37) AIR 1937 Sind 11 (13): 30 Sind LR 345.

(4) The interpretation which is placed on Column 3 of Article 31, Limitation Act would equally govern the interpretation of Paragraph 6, Article III, Schedule I of the Act. It is a question of fact in each case as to when the goods should have been delivered and as to the date from which the period of limitation should be computed. Where the Courts below took the date when the carriers repudiated their liability to pay the value of the short delivery, as the date when the goods should have been delivered and not the date when the goods were unloaded at the port, the High Court refused to interfere with the division. ('57) ILR (1957) Andh Pra 295 (298).

document of title may be noted at the port of shipment by the carrier, master, or agent with the name or names of the ship or ships upon which the goods have been shipped and the date or dates of shipment, and when so noted the same shall for the purpose of this Article be deemed to constitute a "shipped" bill of lading.

8. Any clause, covenant or agreement in a contract of carriage[a] relieving the carrier or the ship from liability for loss or damage to or in connection with goods arising from negligence, fault or failure in the duties and obligations provided in this Article or lessening such liability otherwise than as provided in these Rules, shall be null and void and of no effect.

A benefit of insurance or similar clause shall be deemed to be a clause relieving the carrier from liability.

Article III — Note 5 (contd.)

(5) Paragraph 6 does not only purport to limit the time within which the holder of a bill of lading may enforce his rights against the carrier, but it goes much further. It extinguishes the right itself. AIR 1931 Sind 124 (126): 25 Sind LR 222.

(6) The period of one year under Cl. 6 of Article 3 begins from the date of the delivery to the Port Commissioner and it would be irrespective of the question whether he was the consignee's agent or not. ('52) AIR 1952 Sau 104 (106) (DB).

(7) A shipping company against whom the claim for non-delivery is made may elect to waive a clause in the contract of carriage according to which the suit should be brought within one year. AIR 1957 Trav-Co 133 (135): ILR (1956) Trav-Co 348 (DB).

(8) Rule 6 is to be construed strictly — Ship leaving port on a particular date must be deemed to have delivered cargo to consignee — Consignee cannot take advantage of survey unduly delayed to extend period of limitation. AIR 1937 Sind 11 (13): 30 Sind LR 345.

(9) Condition in a bill of lading that carrier or ship will not be liable unless claim for damages for short delivery is brought within one year after delivery of goods — Suit for damages brought after one year of delivery — Held, condition extinguished consignor's right to claim damages. AIR 1932 Bom 330 (332) • AIR 1940 Rang 294 (295, 296): 1940 Rang LR 552. (By virtue of Article II the carrier is liable under the contract and not by way of tort in addition to it.)

(10) A suit against Shipping Company for recovery of amount paid to its landing agents is a suit for damages on account of unlawful detention of goods and is governed by Article III, Rule 6 (3) and not by Article 62, Limitation Act. AIR 1965 Ker 51 (55): 1964 Ker LJ 378.

(11) Effect of omission to serve notice is that removal of goods is prima facie evidence of delivery, but this prima facie evidence can be rebutted by proving that goods were not delivered. AIR 1964 Cal 362 (366).

(12) "Date" when the goods should have been delivered means the date when the ship left the port of delivery. AIR 1960 SC (1066, 1067): (1960) 3 SCR 820.

(13) Onus of proving that the claim is barred is on defendant. If however the defendant conceals material evidence, the plaintiff's claim is not extinguished. AIR 1964 Cal 362 (366).

(14) Plaintiff to prove that loss occurred due to negligence or want of skill by the defendant (carrier) . . . . Duty of carrier to show how consignment was dealt with in transit . . . . If carrier fails to do so plaintiff can request Court to draw presumption under Section 114 (g). AIR 1964 Cal 362 (364).

(15) Carriage of goods by sea — Partial loss —Claim of consignee satisfied by Insurance Company — Rights of insurers as subrogee — Suit for damages against carriers by consignee — Held not maintainable. AIR 1964 Cal 362 (365).

(16) All that Clause (1) of Rule 6 provides is that unless notice is given as required thereby, removal of the goods shall be prima facie evidence of delivery by the carrier of the goods. The only consequence therefore, of omission to serve the notice is that the removal of the goods amounts to prima facie evidence of delivery and nothing more. But this prima facie evidence can be rebutted if it is proved that goods have not been delivered at all. AIR 1964 Cal 362 (366, 367).

(17) Clause (3) of Rule 6 of Article 3 In the Schedule to the Act provides for the extinction of the right to compensation and not merely a rule of limitation.

The ordinary grammatical sense of 'discharged from liability' does not connote 'free from the remedy as regards liability' but are more apt to mean a total extinction of the liability following upon an extinction of the right. Once the liability is extinguished under this clause, there is no scope of any acknowledgment of liability thereafter. AIR 1960 SC 1058 (1065): (1960) 3 SCR 820.

Article IV

Rights and Immunities.

1. Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be liable for loss or damage arising or resulting from unseaworthiness unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the carrier to make the ship seaworthy, and to secure that the ship is properly manned, equipped and supplied, and to make the holds, refrigerating and cool chambers and all other parts of the ship in which goods are carried fit and

(18) Contractual condition stipulating period for filing suit for damages — Suit not filed within the period, Court being in recess — Suit filed immediately when Court reopened — Principles underlying Section 4 of Limitation Act (1908) and Section 10 of General Clauses Act (1897), applied — Suit held within time. AIR 1964 Ker 190 (191, 192): 1963 Ker LJ 1233 (DB).

(19) Limitation Act (1908), Article 62 — Suit against carrier for recovery of money paid to its landing agents and sub-agents — It is suit for damage — Suit is governed by Article III, Rule 6, Clause 3 and not by Article 62 of Limitation Act. AIR 1965 Ker 51 (55): 1964 Ker LJ 378.

(20) In view of the fact that a bill of lading is a document of title to goods which would pass by negotiation, the representations or misrepresentations therein should be held to have been made to every individual who comes by it as a holder thereof. There is thus a breach of duty on the part of the shipowner in not disclosing the correct facts which would affect the negotiability of the bill of lading. Person suffering loss due to such misrepresentation is entitled to damages. AIR 1961 Mad 442 (450): (1961) 2 Mad LJ 97 (DB).

6. Rule 8.— (1) If the conditions contained in a Bill of Lading contravene the provisions of R. 8 of Art. 3 read with R. 2 of Art. 4 of the Schedule to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, the liability of the carrier has to be determined on the basis that those conditions have not been imposed or agreed upon between the parties. ('51) ILR (1951) 1 Cal 650 (653).

(2) The words "otherwise than" imply entire exclusion and any lessening of the liability by whatever method except as provided by Rule 8 shall be null and void. AIR 1953 Sau 32 (35) (FB).

(3) A condition in a bill of lading which limits the duration of the carrier's liability to 14 days unless notice is given is hit by Art. III, Rule 8, provided other conditions exist which attract the operation of that rule and therefore, being otherwise than as provided in the rules is null and void and of no effect. AIR 1953 Sau 32 (37) (FB).

(4) Where a carrier fails to deliver goods, the measure of damages is the value of the goods at the place of destination. The clause in the bill of lading which restricts the damage to the invoice value of the goods is repugnant to Rule 8 of Article III of the Sea Carriage Act and is null and void. ('50) ILR (1950) 1 Cal 313 (323).

(5) Where in a suit for the cost of shortage in a consignment, the shippers claimed exempption from liability on the basis of a typed endorsement specifically stipulated in the printed form of the bill of lading to the effect that the shippers were not responsible for the breakages and shortages: Held, that the carrier was not entitled to exoneration. The endorsement did not stand on a different footing than the printed clause in the bill of lading. Article 3, Rule 8, hit the endorsement as effectively as it hit any printed clause. The responsibility of the carrier to deliver the goods 'in the like good order and condition' was always there. So in view of Article 3, Rule 8, the carrier was liable to indemnify the consignee. The liability extended to that of proportionate gallonage and freight also. AIR 1957 Trav-Co 297 (298, 299): ILR (1956) Trav-Co 477.

(6) If the loss or damages arises from the neglect, fault or failure in the duties and obligations as provided in the statutory Articles or rules then a clause in the bill of lading exempting the carrier from liability for such loss and damage would be null and void and of no effect. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (482) (DB).

(7) Plea in written statement that claim for loss by plaintiff should have been made within one month of arrival of steamship as provided in bill of lading — Answer by plaintiff that such condition was void under Article 2, Rule 8 — Held, defendant should have countered plaintiff's plea by saying that that rule would not apply because the goods were not goods as fell within the definition of the term 'goods' in Clause (c) of Article 1. AIR 1960 Bom 416 (417, 418): 62 Bom LR 265.

(8) Clause in Bill of Lading providing for cesser of liability of carrier as soon as goods are free from ship's tackle — Clause cannot relieve carrier or his agents from prime obligation of delivering goods to consignee unless there was custom to the contrary in port. AIR 1965 Ker 51 (52, 53): 1964 Ker LJ 378.

SCHEDULE — ARTICLE IV.

SYNOPSIS

1. General.
2. Rule 1.
3. Rule 2.
4. Rule 5.

safe for their reception, carriage and preservation in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article III.

Whenever loss or damage has resulted from unseaworthiness the burden of proving the exercise of due diligence shall be on the carrier or other person claiming exemption under this section.

2. Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible for loss or damage arising or resulting from—

(a) act, neglect, or default of the master, mariner, pilot, or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship;
(b) fire, unless caused by the actual fault or privity of the carrier;
(c) perils, dangers and accidents of the sea or other navigable waters;
(d) act of God;
(e) act of war;
(f) act of public enemies;
(g) arrest or restraint of princes, rulers of people, or seizure under legal process;
(h) quarantine restriction;
(i) act or omission of the shipper or owner of the goods, his agent, or representative;
(j) strikes or lock-outs or stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause, whether partial or general;
(k) riots and civil commotions:
(l) saving or attempting to save life or property at sea;
(m) wastage in bulk or weight or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality, or vice of the goods;
(n) insufficiency of packing;
(o) insufficiency or inadequacy of marks;
(p) latent defects not discoverable by due diligence;

Article IV (contd.)

1. General.— (1) The expression "any other cause" appearing in Rule 2 (q) of Article 4 cannot be interpreted as being ejusdem generis to sub-rules (a) to (p). These words should be given a wider interpretation and to evade his responsibility the carrier can prove that neither he nor his servants were at fault. ('51) ILR (1951) 1 Cal 650 (652, 653).

(2) Where a lighter carries goods from the port but does not carry goods to any other port the fact that goods transported are placed in another ship, which itself carries them to another port, would not bring the lighter within the purview of S. 2 of the Act. Morever, even if this lighter is a 'ship' to which the Act applies, then Art. 4, Para 2, clause (q) would make the owners of the lighter liable for the loss of goods which is due to the fault of the agent of the carriers. ('39) AIR 1939 Mad 401 (402).

(3) Clause 12 of the bill of lading insisting, on a special declaration and special conditions in respect of goods exceeding Rs. 500 per package is repugnant to Rule 5 and is null and void. Rule 5 cannot be varied in favour of the carrier in the manner it is sought to be done by cl. (12) of the bill of lading. ('50) ILR (1950) 1 Cal 313 (320).

(4) Clauses in Bills of lading, relieving the companies from liability are usually construed "contra profrentem". The relieving effect of such clauses will extend only to the tenor and the purport of words actually used. Where a clause provided against loss, non-delivery of goods cannot amount to loss. No distinction can be drawn between partial or insufficient delivery and total non-delivery. AIR 1963 Cal 510 (512).

(5) Where a Bill of lading contains an express provision that it is subject to the rules under the Act, the right and obligation of parties are governed by Articles II to IV. AIR 1955 Mad 519 (521): (1955) 2 Mad LJ 240: ILR (1955) Mad 85 (DB).

2. Rule 1.—(1) If the damage to or loss of goods was caused by the negligence of the carriers in stowing and stacking the goods during voyage while the goods were in their charge or custody, then they are liable. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (481) (DB).

(2) Where a whole consignment of tobacco is reduced to a 'charged mass' by spontaneous combustion, caused by the presence of water and moisture in the tobacco, if the effective and proximate

(q) any other cause arising without the actual fault or privity of the carrier, or without the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier, but the burden of proof shall be on the person claiming the benefit of this exception to show that neither the actual fault or privity of the carrier nor the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier contributed to the loss or damage.

3. The shipper shall not be responsible for loss or damage sustained by the carrier or the ship arising or resulting from any cause without the act, fault or neglect of the shipper, his agents or his servants.

4. Any deviation in saving or attempting to save life or property at sea, or any reasonable deviation shall not be deemed to be an infringement or breach of these Rules or of the contract of carriage, and the carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom.

5. Neither the carrier nor the ship shall in any event be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with goods in an amount exceeding 100l per package or unit or the equivalent of that sum in other currency, unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the shipper before shipment and inserted in the bill of lading.

This declaration if embodied in the bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence, but shall not be binding or conclusive on the carrier.

By agreement between the carrier, master or agent of the carrier and the shipper another maximum amount than that mentioned in this paragraph may be fixed, provided that such maximum shall not be less than the figure above named.

Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible in any event for loss or damage to or in connection with goods if the nature or value thereof has been knowingly mis-stated by the shipper in the bill of lading.

cause of this damage be the grossly careless and negligent stowing by the carrier, then the carrier is liable for the loss. If the effective and proximate cause for the spontaneous combustion is the wetness of the tobacco then the shipper and not the carrier will have to bear the loss.

Mere presence of water will not prove the inherent vice in the tobacco or its latent defect so as to exonerate the carrier if it is found that the actual burning was due to bad and negligent stowing of the cargo. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (482) (DB).

(3) Where it was found that cowls were not unshipped nor canvass taken off them it amounts to serious act of carelessness and negligence in stowing cargo. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (DB).

(4) When one is not sure as to how much loss was due to improper stowage and how much to the inherent vice or infirmity of the affected goods, the "sporting rule" of halving the damage is a known practice. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (486) (DB).

(5) As the ultimate liability to pay the excise duty is on the owner of the goods in respect of which damages are claimed, the amount of excise duty which has not been actually paid as yet could not be deducted from the market value of the goods. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (488) (DB).

3. Rule 2.—(1) The correct view on the law of onus relating to carriage of goods by sea is that if the shipper proves that the goods have not been delivered or damaged after shipment during the voyage and while the goods were in charge and custody of the carrier, the onus shifts on to the carrier to bring the cause of damage within the exception provided in Article 4, Rule 2 thereof. If the shipper then wants to defeat the carrier's defence of excepted risks under Article 4 by showing and proving negligence, then the onus shifts on to the shipper to prove such negligence. AIR 1959 Cal 479 (486, 487) (DB).

4. Rule 5. — (1) Where, in a case of short delivery of goods, in the absence of a declaration of the value of goods by the shipper in the bill of lading, it is necessary to compute the equivalent of £100 in currency other than that of the United Kingdom, Article 9 of the Schedule under the Act requires the amount of the foreign currency which would be equal in value to 100 gold sovereigns to be computed. What Article 9 imports is certainly not an obligation to deliver gold or pay in gold; what it does is to import a special standard or measure of value. Article 4, Rule 5 and Article 9 of the Schedule read together mean that the maximum prescribed is the value in rupees of 100 gold sovereigns as a vendible commodity or their gold content. 1960 Ker LT 997: 1960 Ker LJ 939 (DB).

6. Goods of an inflammable, explosive or dangerous nature to the shipment whereof the carrier, master or agent of the carrier, has not consented, with knowledge of their nature and character, may at any time before discharge be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the carrier without compensation, and the shipper of such goods shall be liable for all damages and expenses directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from such shipment.

If any such goods shipped with such knowledge and consent shall become a danger to the ship or cargo, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the carrier without liability on the part of the carrier except to general average, if any.

[(1924) 14 and 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. IV.]

Article V

Surrender of Rights and Immunities, and Increase of Reponsibilities and Liabilities.

A carrier shall be at liberty to surrender in whole or in part all or any of his rights and immunities or to increase any of his responsibilities and liabilities under the Rules contained in any of these Articles, provided such surrender or increase shall be embodied in the bill of lading issued to the shipper.

The provisions of these Rules shall not be applicable to charterparties, but if bills of lading are issued in the case of a ship under a charterparty, they shall comply with the terms of these Rules. Nothing in these Rules shall be held to prevent the insertion in a bill of lading of any lawful provision regarding general average.

[(1924) 14 & 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. V.]

Article VI

Special Conditions.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding Articles, a carrier, master or agent of the carrier, and a shipper shall, in regard to any particular goods, be at liberty to enter into any agreement in any terms as to the responsibility and liability of the carrier for such goods, and as to the rights and immunities of the carrier in respect of such goods, or his obligation as to seaworthiness so far as the stipulation is not contrary to public policy, or the care or diligence of his servants or agents in regard to the loading, handling, stowage, carriage, custody, care, and discharge of the goods carried by sea, provided that in this case no bill of lading has been or shall be issued and that the terms agreed shall be embodied in a receipt which shall be a non-negotiable document and shall be marked as such.

Any agreement so entered into shall have full legal effect:

Provided that this Article shall not apply to ordinary commercial shipments made in the ordinary course of trade, but only to other shipments where the character or condition of the property to be carried or the circumstances, terms and

Article VI — Note 1

(1) Article 6 enables two contracting parties to contract out of the rules in respect of the carriage of any class of goods provided two conditions are fulfilled: (1) that no bill of lading has been or shall be issued, and (2) that the terms agreed upon between the parties shall be embodied in a receipt which shall be a non-negotiable instrument and shall be marked as such. ('53) AIR 1953 Bom 396 (400).

(2) Article VI does not apply in case of Deck Cargo at owner's risk. Carriage of such cargo is not governed by Contract Act. Such cargo not being 'Goods' within meaning of Article 1 (c) carriage of such goods is not governed by Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1925, but by English Common Law i.e., by the terms of the contract embodied in the bill of lading. Liability of the Common Carrier in such case is not affected by Sections 151 and 152, Contract Act. ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 3 (7): ILR (1953) Mad 396 (DB).

conditions under which the carriage is to be performed, as such are reasonably to justify a special agreement.

[(1924) 14 & 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. VI.]

Article VII

Limitations on the Application of the Rules.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent a carrier or a shipper from entering into any agreement, stipulation, condition, reservation or exemption as to the responsibility and liability of the carrier or the ship for the loss or damage to or in connection with the custody and care and handling of goods prior to the loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the ship on which the goods are carried by sea.

[(1924) 14 & 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. VII.]

Article VIII

Limitation of liability.

The provisions of these Rules shall not affect the right and obligation of the carrier under any Statute for the time being in force relating to the limitation of the liability of owners of sea-going vessels.

[(1924) 14 & 15 Geo. V, c. 22—Art. VIII.]

Article IX

The monetary units mentioned in these Rules are to be taken to be gold value.

Article VII — Note 1

(1) Article VII applies only to cases where there is a question of liability for loss or damage to goods occurring prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the ship. ('53) AIR 1953 Sau 32 (34) (FB).

(2) In a bill of lading there was a condition to the effect that "in all cases and under all circumstances the liability of the ship-owner shall absolutely cease when the goods are free from the ship's tackle. The goods were delivered to a landing agent who disposed of them without the production of a bill of lading or a delivery order. It was held that the condition in the bill afforded complete protection to the shipowner. ('09) 4 Ind Cas 475 (477) (PC).

(3) The provisions of the Act can be validly incorporated and made a part of the contract contained in the bill of lading. In such a case the rights of the parties would be governed by the provisions of the Act and the Schedule. ('52) AIR 1952 Sau 104 (105) (DB).

Article IX — Note 1

(1) Where it is necessary to compute the equivalent of £100 (U. K.) in other currency, the amount of foreign currency which would be equal in value to one hundred gold sovereigns has to be computed. There is no obligation in Article 9 to deliver gold or to pay in gold. 1960 Ker LT 997: 1960 Ker LJ 939 (DB).

7. Liability of owner of railroad or tramroad constructed under Act XXII of 1863, not limited by special contract. In what case owner of railroad or tramroad answerable for loss or damage.
8. Common carrier liable for loss or damage caused by neglect or fraud of himself or his agent.
9. Plaintiffs, in suits for loss, damage, or non-delivery, not required to prove negligence or criminal act.
10. Notice of loss or injury to be given within six months.
11. State Government to add to the Schedule.
SCHEDULE

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The defective state of the Law of India in respect of the liabilities of carriers, whether companies or individuals has for some time past attracted the attention of the Governor-General in Council, but it was thought desirable to postpone any enactment on the subject, until it should be seen whether the labours of Her Majesty's Commissioners for preparing a Body of Substantive Law would relieve the Indian Legislature from the necessity of special legislation.

Meantime, however, the question has become pressing, from the increase in the numbers of carrying companies, from the transfer of part of the Government carrying business to one of them, and from the prospect of Tramways being constructed under Act XXII of 1863 (to provide for taking land for works of public utility to be constructed by private persons or companies, and for regulating the construction and use of works on land so taken). The necessity for prompt legislation has further been urged on the Government in petitions, and by the Government of Madras in an official letter.

The Bill now published by the Viceroy's permission follows the principles, though not the form or language, of the English Statutes regulating the liability of carriers.

The earlier sections extend to India the principle embodied in the English Statute II Geo. IV and I Will. IV. Chapter 68. They relieve carriers from the extraordinary liabilities which would be imposed on them by the delivery to them, without notice, of articles of peculiar value or perishableness. Any customer, delivering to the carrier any of the articles enumerated in the Schedule, must declare them, and then the carriers may charge at a higher rate for the additional risk, in conformity with a scale to be publicly exhibited in his place of business. Under the ordinary law of contract, the carrier might relieve himself from the liability by such a notice but it would be necessary to bring the notice home to the customer by evidence. From the necessity of giving such evidence, the carrier will now be relieved by this enactment.

By Section VI it is provided that the carrier shall not rid himself of his liability for articles, neither unusually valuable nor unusually perishable, by any public notice but (unless he be the owner of a Tramway) he is permitted to modify his legal obligations by special contract.

Section VII extends to Tramways constructed under Act XXII of 1863, the same rule which is applied to Railways by Act XVIII of 1854. It seems highly expedient that the same law should, if possible, be made to govern both Railways and Tramways.

The rule applicable to Indian Railway Companies is contained in Section XI of Act XVIII of 1854, and is as follows:—

"The liability of such a Railway Company for loss or injury to any articles or goods to be carried by them other than those specially provided for by this Act, shall not be deemed or construed to be limited, or in anywise affected by any public notice given, or any private contract made by them, but such a Railway Company shall be answerable for such loss or injury when it shall have been caused by gross negligence or misconduct on the part of their agents or servants."

On this Section the Government of Madras observes: The first clause prohibiting any private contract in limitation of liability goes far beyond the Common Law of England and Statutes 17 and 18 Vic., Cap. 31, S. VII. which admits of such contracts if just and reasonable. It is difficult to see why a Railway company in India should be deprived of that power of protecting itself by special contract which a Railway Company in England possesses If the latter clause of the section, which make a company liable for gross negligence or misconduct of their agents, is meant to relieve them from liability in all other cases, it would be well to say so by distinct negative words. But it is very questionable whether so wide an exemption from responsibility is desirable or was intended.'

If, however, the word "only" be supplied after "answerable" in the last line but three of the extract from the Railways Act as printed above, the Section becomes intelligible. It limits the liability of Railway Companies to the consequences of gross negligence or misconduct on the part of their agents or servants but declares that from this liability so limited they shall not be allowed to relieve themselves by any kind of contract. There cannot indeed be much doubt that the intention of the Legislature was to place all Railway Company in what was once supposed to be the exact position of a carrier who had contracted for himself as favourably as the law of England would permit:

It was, in fact, long supposed in England that, while a carrier could by contract relieve himself from most of his liabilities, his power of doing so stopped short of liability for negligence or misconduct. Such is the view of the law taken by Mr. Justice Story in his "Commentaries on the law of Bailments," Section 549, and such is understood to be still the law in America. But a series of decisions in the English Courts overturned the older doctrine, and it was settled that a carrier could by a properly framed contract, deliver himself from liability even for misconduct or negligence. The liberty thus conceded was, however, found to be a practical evil, and the English Legislature intervened by 17 and 18 Vic., Cap 31.

The nearly contemporaneous enactment of the Indian Legislature, embodied in Sec. XI of Act XVIII of 1854, is obviously aimed at the same object.

It seems very undersirable to adopt the rule contained in Section VII of 17 and 18 Vic. Cap. 31, which permits companies to contract themselves on certain conditions, out of their liability for negligence. The Section, in question has been severely condemned by the present Lord Chancellor of England on the ground both of obscurity of expression and of difficulty of application:— (Peek v. The North Staffordshire Railway Company, 32 LJ NSQB 241). On the other hand, the rule of the Indian Legislature is comparatively simple: it would probably be sustained by the general sense of the mercantile community and it is especially applicable to a country in which there exists considerable difference of opinion as to the general liabilities of carriers."

[THE] CARRIERS ACT, 1865

(ACT III OF 1865)[a]

[14th February, 1865.]

An Act relating to the rights and liabilities of Common Carriers.

Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient not only to enable common carriers to limit their liability for loss of or damage to property delivered to them to be carried but also to declare their liability for loss of, or damage to, such property occasioned by the negligence or criminal acts of themselves, their servants or agents; It is enacted as follows :—

[a] For Proceedings relating to the Bill, see Gazette of India, 1864 Supplement, p. 497, and ibid, 1865, pp. 51, 64 and 65.

The Act has been declared to be in force in the whole of India, except the Scheduled Districts, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (15 of 1874), Sec. 3.

It has been extended to Berar by the Berar Laws Act, 1941 (4 of 1941) and has been applied to the Santhal Parganas, by the Santhal Parganas Settlement Regulation, 1872 (3 of 1872), S. 31. Berar now forms part of the State of Maharashtra and Santhal Parganas are in the State of Bihar.

It has been declared, by notification under S. 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (14 of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—

West Jalpaiguri, the Western Hills of Darjiling, Darjiling Tarai and the Damson Sub-dn. of the Darjiling District, see ibid, 1881, Pt. I, p. 74 (now in the State of West Bengal of Bihar State); The Districts of Hazaribagh Lohardaga (now the Ranchi District), see Cal. Gaz., 1899, Pt. I, p. 44 (now in the State of Bihar) and Manbhum, and Pargana Dhalbhum and the Kolhan in the District of Singbhum, see ibid, 1881, Pt. I, p. 504 (now in the State of Bihar); The Porahat Estate in the District of Singbhum, see ibid, 1897, Pt. I, p. 1059 (now in the State of Bihar); Kumaon and Garhwal, see ibid, 1876, Pt. I, p. 605; The schedule portion of the Mirzapur District, see ibid, 1878, Pt. I, p. 383; Jaunsar Bawar, see ibid, 1878, Pt. I, p. 382 (now in the State of U.P.); The Scheduled Districts of the C.P., see ibid, 1879, Pt. I, p. 771; The Scheduled Districts in Ganjam (now in the State of Orissa) and Vizagapatam (now in the State of Andhra Pradesh), see ibid, 1898, Pt. I, p. 870; Assam (except the North Lushai Hills (now known as Mizo District) ), see Act 18 of 1954, S. 2, see ibid 1897, Pt. I, p. 299.

It has been declared, by notification under S. 3 (b) of the last-mentioned Act, not to be in force in the Scheduled District of Lahaul. This district along with Spiti District has now been transferred to the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh—See the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 (31 of 1966), S. 5 [1-11-1966]—See Gazette of India, 1886, Pt. I, p. 301.

It has been extended by notification under S. 5 of the same Act to the following Scheduled Districts, namely, the Tarai of the Province of Agra—See Gazette of India, 1876, Pt. I, p. 505; now in the State of Uttar Pradesh; Ajmer and Merwara—See ibid, 1877, Pt. I, p. 605. Ajmer forms part of Rajasthan now—See Act 37 of 1956, S. 10.

It has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur and Tripura by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh — See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e). The Act has been extended to the Union Territories of Pondicherry and Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Act 26 of 1968, S. 3 (1) and Schedule [1-8-1968] and Reg. 6 of 1963 (with effect from 1-7-1965), respectively.

It has been extended to the States merged in the State of Bombay—See Bom. Act 4 of 1950. Bombay has been divided into the States of Maharashtra and Gujarat, by the Bombay Reorganisation Act, 1961 (XI of 1961).

It has been repealed as to carriers by rail by the Indian Railways Act, 1879 (4 of 1879).

For the Railways Act now in force, see the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890).

1. Short title.—This Act may be cited as THE CARRIERS ACT, 1865.

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The duties and liabilities of a common carrier are governed in India by the principles of the common law in England on that subject except where they have been departed from in the case of particular class of common carriers, e.g., by the Carriers Act or the Railways Act. A common carrier's responsibility is not within the Contract Act. AIR 1915 Mad 833 (834): 38 Mad 941 * AIR 1951 Trav-Co 1 (4, 6): 1950 Trav-Co LR 339 (DB) * AIR 1919 Upp Bur 17 (18): 3 Upp Bur Rul 120 * ('11) 38 Cal 28 (41, 42).

2. Interpretation clause.—In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Common carrier."

"common carrier" denotes a person, other than the Government, engaged in the business of transporting for hire property from place to place, by land or inland navigation, for all persons indiscriminately;

"Person."

[a]"person" includes any association or body of persons, whether incorporated or not.

[b][* * * *].

[a] Cf. definition in the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), S. 3 (39).

[b] The para relating to "number" was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1914 (10 of 1914).

Pre — Note 1 (contd.)

(2) This Act is not applicable in the case of railways except to a very limited extent. AIR 1931 Cal 585 (586).

(3) Enactments like the Carriers Act and the Railways Act are not affected by the Contract Act. (1878-79) 3 Bom 109 (113).

(4) The Carriers' Act was the first statutory enactment in India by which common carriers are enabled to limit their liability for loss or for damage to property delivered to them to be carried. ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 3 (5): ILR (1953) Mad 396 (DB).

(5) By virtue of the provisions of Kota State Laws Act and of Section 21 of Kota State Civil Courts Act, the principles underlying Carriers Act, 1865, which was in force in former British India could be resorted to in dealing with the liability of common carriers in the ex-Kota State on grounds of justice, equity and good conscience. AIR 1965 Raj 200 (202, 203): 1965 Raj LW 247 (DB).

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Carriers by sea are not "common carriers" within the meaning of Section 2 of this Act and hence this Act will not apply to them. ('15) AIR 1915 Mad 833 (833, 834): 38 Mad 941 * ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 3 (5): ILR (1953) Mad 396 (DB) * ('28) AIR 1928 Bom 5 (6): 52 Bom 37 * ('16) AIR 1916 Bom 265 (267): 40 Bom 529 * ('05) 28 Mad 400 (403).

(2) The Carriers Act cannot apply to the case of carriage of goods by air, for the term 'common carrier' as defined in Section 2 of that Act does not include a carrier by air. So the liability of a carrier by air cannot be found on the basis of Section 8 of that Act. AIR 1959 Mad 285 (287): (1959) 2 Mad LJ 373.

(3) Though carriers by sea are not contemplated by this Act they are nevertheless common carriers for other purposes, e.g., for the purpose of Limitation Act. ('81) 3 Mad 107 (110).

(4) The definition of a "common carrier" in Section 2 is framed without reference to the extent of his liability. Thus, a common carrier does not cease to be so if he enters into special contract lawfully limiting his liability. ('15) AIR 1915 Nag 6 (7): 11 Nag LR 174.

(5) "For all persons indiscriminately" means simply that carriers are not at liberty to refuse business. ('24) AIR 1924 PC 40 (42): 51 Ind App 28: 51 Cal 304.

(6) The main attribute of a common carrier is that to transport for hire property for all persons indiscriminately. The question whether a carrier is a private or a common carrier depends upon the nature of the public profession made by the carrier with regard to the carriage of goods undertaken by it elsewhere. It follows therefore, that the mere fact that a common carrier is engaged in the transport of goods from places on its transport system to places outside it would not be sufficient to justify the conclusion that whatever carriage it may undertake elsewhere is also in his capacity as a common carrier. AIR 1966 All 260 (262): ILR (1965) 2 All 150 (DB).

(7) What is required in the case of a person who answers the definition of common carrier under the Carriers Act is that, he must be ready to carry for hire as a business and not as a casual occupation. It is essential that he should hold himself out as being ready to carry goods for any person or to carry any passengers, no matter who they may be. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 71 (73, 74): (1963) 2 Andh WR 190.

(8) Where under the terms of the licence, a licensee is under the obligation to carry goods of all persons, except when due to special reasons he may refuse, he is a common carrier. ('33) AIR 1933 Cal 735 (737, 738): 60 Cal 879.

(9) A licensee of a ferry is a "common carrier". ('19) AIR 1919 Upp Bur 17 (18): 3 Upp Bur Rul 120.

(10) Where a canal company which transported goods under a contract with a railway company was sued for damages for loss of goods, it was held that canal company was a common carrier and liable as such. ('31) AIR 1931 Mad 115 (117).

(11) Where in order to facilitate the transport of cargo by its steamers, a navigation company adopts different auxiliary transport systems for the carriage of goods from the producer's estates to its regular steamer ghats, the question whether the company does or does not

3. Carriers not to be liable for loss of certain goods above one hundred rupees in value unless delivered as such.—No common carrier shall be liable for the loss of or damage to property delivered to him to be carried exceeding in value one hundred rupees and of the description contained in the schedule to this Act, unless the person delivering such property to be carried, or some person duly authorized in that behalf, shall have expressly declared to such carrier or his agent the value and description thereof.[a]

[a] The earlier sections extend to India the principle embodied in the Carriers Act, 1830 (II Geo. IV, and 1 Will IV, c. 68)—See Statement of Objects and Reasons.

operate these different systems as common carriers, would be entirely a question of fact depending upon the evidence in each case. ('55) AIR 1955 Assam 65 (70): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB).

(12) The definition of "common carrier" in the Act would bring the Government after having assumed charge of the Railway administration within the meaning of the word "common carrier" but for the fact that the Government has been specially excluded under the definition. But the Government would not be excluded from the ambit of the word carrier merely because it is not a person but a sovereign body or a body politic when it does the business of carriage of goods as the owner of the railway. ('55) 1955-1 Mad L Jour 406 (408).

(13) Navigation company a common carrier on main stream, carrying goods from place on tributory to main station on main route is a common carrier in respect of the feeder service. AIR 1962 SC 1276 (1279, 1280): (1962) 2 SCR 802.

(14) In determining whether a person is a common carrier or not the provisions of Motor Vehicles Act are also relevant. The provisions of Sections 2 (23), 54 and 55 show that it is a matter of public employment that a licence is granted and not for doing the transport work for only a particular individual or individuals casually. AIR 1963 Bom 208 (210, 211): 65 Bom LR 152 (DB).

(15) The Indian Airlines Corporation is a common carrier as opposed to a private carrier, but it is not a "common carrier" within the meaning of the Carriers Act. AIR 1961 Cal 383 (384, 385, 386). (There is no statute for internal air carriage in India.)

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) When a package containing both scheduled and non-scheduled articles is lost, the value of the non-scheduled articles may be recovered although the value of the scheduled articles cannot be recovered. ('32) AIR 1932 Cal 344 (346): 59 Cal 472.

(2) Liability for loss or damage of property is not defeated by the fact that the goods delivered as luggage are in fact merchandise. ('14) AIR 1914 Cal 150 (151): 41 Cal 80.

(3) Misdescription of property lost in transit does not exonerate the carrier from his liability for the loss. The liability is limited to the value declared and not the value of the actual contents of the package consigned. ('79) 3 Bom 120 (129, 130).

(4) Section 3 is applicable to the goods described in the schedule attached to the Act. 'Leno' means a kind of cotton gauge for caps, veils, curtains, etc. It cannot by any stretch of imagination be brought within the ambit of the clause which is 'clothes, and issues embroidered with the precious metals or of which such metals form part'. (1968) 1 Andh LT 317 (320): (1969) 1 Andh WR 115.

(5) The liability of a common carrier is that of an insurer. It, therefore, follows that notwithstanding the fact that there is no negligence on the part of the common carrier he is liable to compensate the owner of goods for the loss of the goods that occurred during the transit thereof by the lorry belonging to the carrier. AIR 1962 Mad 44 (46): 74 Mad LW 495 (DB) * AIR 1959 Mad 285 (286): (1959) 2 Mad LJ 373 * AIR 1964 Mad 516 (518): (1964) 2 Mad LJ 181. (Under general law a common carrier is liable practically as an insurer of the goods. That liability can be regulated by a contract between the parties. It is invariably the practice for common carrier to enter into a contract, defining and limiting their liability and in the normal course of things one would expect any consignor of goods to look into conditions in consignment notes. It is not the rule that in every case the carrier should prove that he drew the attention of the consignor to the clause in the consignment note regarding limitation of his liability.)

(6) It is the elementary duty of a common carrier to enquire, whenever a person presents the consignee's note, whether he is the proper person or his authorised agent. They cannot absolve themselves of their obligation to deliver the goods consigned to the proper person by merely entering into a contract with the consignor that they will not be liable for misdelivery or wrong delivery. In India a common carrier is subject to two distinct classes of liability, one for loss as an insurer and the other for loss under his obligation to carry safely. A person who suffered loss by a common carrier's breach of his common law obligations can maintain a suit independent of contract. AIR 1964 Mad 516 (517, 518): (1964) 2 Mad LJ 181.

4. For carrying such property payment may be required at rates fixed by carrier.—Every such carrier may require payment for the risk undertaken in carrying property exceeding in value one hundred rupees and of the description aforesaid at such rate of charge as he may fix:

Proviso.

Provided that, to entitle such carrier to payment at a rate higher than his ordinary rate of charge, he shall have caused to be exhibited in the place where he carries on the business of receiving property to be carried, notice of the higher rate of charge required, printed or written in English and in the vernacular language of the country wherein he carries on such business.

5. The person entitled to recover in respect of property lost or damaged may also recover money paid for its carriage.—In case of the loss or damage to property exceeding in value one hundred rupees and of the description aforesaid, delivered to such carrier to be carried, when the value and description thereof shall have been declared and payment shall have been required in manner provided for by this Act, the person entitled to recover in respect of such loss or damage shall also be entitled to recover any money actually paid to such carrier in consideration of such risk as aforesaid.

6. In respect of what property liability of carrier not limited or affected by public notice.—The liability of any common carrier for the loss or damage to any property delivered to him to be carried, not being of the description contained in the schedule to this Act, shall not be deemed to be limited or affected by any public notice;

---

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) Where a person makes a declaration about the nature of the articles consigned but the carrier does not demand higher payment, the carrier is liable for the loss of articles although the higher payment is not made. ('92) 19 Cal 538 (540, 541).

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) It is only the owner of goods and not his agent, who is entitled to benefit under Section 8. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 71 (73): (1963) 2 Andh WR 190. (Goods entrusted to common carrier re-entrusted to another carrier — Suit for recovery of damages for loss of goods — Suit not by owner, but by one carrier against other — Suit, held not maintainable.)

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) The rights and liabilities of a common carrier are outside the Contract Act and are governed by the principles of the English Common Law as modified by the Carriers Act. In India, a common carrier is, therefore, subject to two distinct classes of liability, the one for loss for which he is liable as an insurer, the other for loss for which he is liable under his obligation to carry safely. The effect of Sections 6, 8 and 9 is that the liability of a common carrier for the loss of goods not being the description contained in the schedule may be limited by special contract signed by the owner save when such loss shall have arisen from the negligence or criminal act of the carrier or any of his agents or servants. ('11) 38 Cal 28 (41, 42) * ('55) AIR 1955 Assam 65 (72): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB). *AIR 1966 All 260 (264): ILR (1965) 2 All 150 (DB). (Provision of S. 8 override those of Section 6.) * AIR 1962 Mad 44 (46): 74 Mad LW 495 (DB). (Negligence of common carrier need not be proved.) * AIR 1967 Assam 74 (78): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 395 (DB).

(2) A common carrier is insurer of goods which he contracts to carry and he is liable for all loss of, or injury to those goods while they are in the course of transit unless such loss or injury is caused by the act of God or by the State enemies or is the consequence of inherent vice in the thing carried or is attributable to consignor's own fault. Exception to the general liability of a carrier or a bailee in general have to be construed strictly. The carrier cannot escape its liability by merely contending that he entered into a contract with the consignor and that he is absolved from all liability for misdelivery or wrong delivery. The term 'misdelivery' should, if used in exception clause, be held to cover no more than "accidental misdelivery by mistake or error" and not deliberate misdelivery. It is the elementary duty of a carrier to enquire whenever a person presents the consignee's note whether he is the proper person or its authorised agent. AIR 1964 Mad 516 (517, 518).

(3) Sections 6 and 9 recognize the common law doctrine, save in so far as the liability is limited by some special contract, as provided by Section 6. Therefore, even if it were found that the carriers but any such carrier, not being the owner of a railroad or tramroad constructed under the provisions of [a]Act XXII of 1863 (to provide for taking land for works of public utility to be constructed by private persons or companies, and for regulating the construction and use of works on land so taken) may, by special contract, signed by the owner of such property so delivered as last aforesaid or by some person duly authorized in that behalf by such owner, limit his liability in respect of the same.

took as much care of the goods as a man of ordinary prudence would, under similar circumstances, they would be liable if the loss was not occasioned by any act of God or the King's enemies, which, in case of republican State, would mean the enemies of the State. AIR 1955 Assam 65 (72): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB) * AIR 1965 Raj 200 (203): 1965 Raj LW 247 * AIR 1963 Bom 208 (209, 212): 65 Bom LR 152.

(4) Before a common carrier can take advantage of a special contract, whereby he is exonerated from liability in case of damages due to navigational perils, he must establish that his steamer has to face the peril of navigation in the course of its voyage; and he and his agents have taken all reasonable care and exercised all necessary diligence in avoiding the peril but in spite of it all the steamer sustained damage with the consequential damage to the goods of the consignor. If these facts are not proved Section 6 of the Act will be attracted and the carrier will be held liable for the damages. AIR 1967 Assam 79 (82): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 10.

(5) A special contract being in derogation of the common law, has to be strictly construed. ('55) AIR 1955 Assam 65 (71): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB).

(6) The position of common carriers is different from that of railway companies who are only bailees coming under Sections 151, 152 and 161 of the Contract Act. The liability of common carriers is that of an insurer subject to certain exceptions under Section 6 of this Act. ('13) 40 Cal 716 (718, 719).

(7) The liability of the 'carriers' is not that of a mere bailee, as defined by Sections 151 and 152, Contract Act. The extent of his liability is very often described as the liability of an insurer against all risks; but it is not a question of any contract to insurer; if, therefore, the boat, ship or steamer sank on account of its having struck upon some snag and the cargo was lost, that may be a mere 'peril of navigation' but not an act of God and the steamer companies would still be liable even if, under the circumstances, they were found to have acted with reasonable care and prudence. AIR 1955 Assam 65 (72): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB).

(8) A carrier of passengers in law is neither an insurer nor precluded from making a special contract with his passengers which may either enlarge, diminish or exclude his general duty to exercise care. Hence, a specific contract between a passenger and a carrier of passengers by air exempting the carrier wholly from liability for the neglect or default of his servants, is valid and enforceable. AIR 1947 PC 151 (152, 154).

(9) Certain goods were lost in transit by the defendants who were common carriers. It was found that the loss had not been occasioned by act of God or the Queen's enemies. The defendants had taken as much care of them as a man of ordinary prudence would take of similar goods belonging to himself. It was held that Sections 151 and 152, Contract Act, did not apply, and defendants were liable for loss, in the absence of a special contract such as is provided for in Section 6 of Carriers Act. (1884) 10 Cal 166 (182) (FB).

(10) What is required to limit the liability of "carrier" is that the nature of the contract entered into must either have limitation of liability under the Act made expressly and in writing or the facts must be such, that the contractor was engaging in a different type of business from that of common carriers. AIR 1924 PC 40 (42): 51 Ind App 28: 51 Cal 304.

(11) In the case of continuous carriers, (1) when goods have to be carried with the aid of different transport agencies in order to arrive at the destination, the carrier with whom the contract is made at one end is, in the absence of any contract limiting his liability to his own transport system, liable for the loss or destruction of the goods on portions beyond his own system or in consequence of acts or default of persons other than his own servants; (2) in the absence of a contract to the contrary, the consignor cannot hold the company with whom he does not contract liable for damages when all that can be complained of is non-feasance, though such company may be liable in tort for breach of duty arising from the mere fact that he has undertaken the liability of carrying goods or property belonging to another; (3) when there is an agreement between two companies the effect of which is to constitute one company the agent of the other and the traffic is carried for the joint benefit of both the companies, either company may be sued at the option of the consignor. AIR 1918 Mad 341 (343).

[a]7. Liability of owner of railroad or tramroad constructed under Act XXII of 1863, not limited by special contract. In what case owner of railroad or tramroad answerable for loss or damage.—The liability of the owner of any railroad or tramroad constructed under the provisions of the said [b]Act XXII of 1863, for the loss of or damage to any property delivered to him to be carried, not being of the description contained in the Schedule to this Act, shall not be deemed to be limited or affected by any special contract; but the owner of such railroad or tramroad shall be liable for the loss of or damage to property delivered to him to be carried only when such loss or damage shall have been caused by negligence or a criminal act on his part or on that of his agents or servants.

[a] Section 7 (so far as it relates to railways) has been repealed by the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), S. 72.

(12) Goods were delivered to M Railway Company. The destination was a station on the G Railway lines. M and G Companies had an agreement between themselves for conveyance of goods handed over by one another for carriage on their own lines. The goods were lost after they were handed over to G company. It was held that a suit by the consignor against G company was maintainable. (1880-81) 5 Bom 371 (378).

(13) The plaintiffs consigned goods through a steam navigation company knowing that it would be carried by another railway company in latter part of the journey. The goods were lost after being delivered to the railway company. It was held that the agreement was in substance with both companies and that the railway company was absolved from liability under Section 75 of the Railways Act. (1907) 11 Cal WN 1076 (1077).

(14) A consignor entered into a contract with a railway company for carrying certain goods to a port and thence to England. Oning to a breach on the railway line the goods had to be conveyed in steamers by a steamship company with whom the Railway Company had entered into an agreement. It was held that a suit by the consignor against the steamship company for loss of goods during transit by the latter company was maintainable. AIR 1920 Cal 758 (762): 47 Cal 6.

(15) Where goods are booked to be carried over the lines of serveral carriers the proper person who is liable is one to whom the goods are delivered by the consignor. The contract is an indivisible contract and not so many contracts with different persons. The question with whom the contract is made is a question of fact. AIR 1927 Cal 394 (398): 54 Cal 430.

(16) Consignment booked at station of I. G. Navigation and Railway Co., to be despatched at station on B. A. Railway—Consignment delivered by former company to latter but not reaching consignee — Suit for loss — B. A. Railway not made party — Suit not maintainable. AIR 1949 Assam 25 (27, 29) (DB).

(17) Where in order to facilitate the transport of cargo by its steamers, the navigation company adopts different auxiliary transport systems for the carriage of goods from the Tea estates to its regular steamer ghats, the company may take delivery either at the garden ghat or at the steamer ghat. Once it has taken delivery at a garden ghat no question of fresh delivery arises because the delivery of the self-same goods to the carriers can only be made once. The liability of the company as common carriers would be there if the goods happened to be lost after such delivery, but before reaching destination. AIR 1955 Assam 65 (70): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB).

(18) Consignment of goods not perishable by nature — No special contract as to time for delivery — Goods deteriorating due to delay caused by abnormal time taken for transit — Plaintiff consignee entitled to damages — He need not prove negligence on part of carrier. AIR 1962 Assam 110 (114): ILR (1962) 14 Assam 107 (DB).

(19) Special contract — Person contracting not authorised by owner of goods — No exoneration from liability. AIR 1965 Raj 200 (205): 1965 Raj LW 247 (DB).

(20) Under general law a common carrier is liable practically as an insurer of the goods. That liability can be regulated by a contract entered into between the parties. It is invariably the practice for common carriers to enter into a contract defining and limiting their liability. That practice is so universal that in the normal course of things one would expect any consignor of goods to look into canditions which are found in consignment notes. To say that in every case the carrier should prove that he drew the attention of the consignor to the clause in the consignment note regarding limitation of its liability is extending the rule beyond its limits. AIR 1959 Mad 285 (286).

8. Common carrier liable for loss or damage caused by neglect or fraud of himself or his agent.—Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, every common carrier shall be liable to the owner for loss of or damage to any property delivered to such carrier to be carried where such loss or damage shall have arisen from the [a][° °] criminal act of the carrier or any of his agents or servants [b][and shall also be liable to the owner for loss or damage to any such property other than property to which the provisions of Section 3 apply and in respect of which the declaration required by that section has not been made, where such loss or damage has arisen from the negligence of the carrier or any of his agents or servants.]

[a] The words "negligence or" were repealed by the Carriers (Amendment) Act, 1921 (13 of 1921), S. 2.

[b] Inserted by S. 2, ibid.

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) Sections 8 and 9 are declared by Section 72 of the Railways Act not to affect the responsibility of the Railway Company as defined in the latter section. ('94) 17 Mad 445 (446).

(2) The Indian Carriers Act, while restricting the power of a common carrier of exempting himself from his common law liability, by Section 8 affirms or creates a liability and gives the benefit of that liability to the owner only. The plaintiff who himself is a common carrier who undertakes to carry the goods of a person, and who engages the defendant common carrier to carry them, not himself being the owner is not entitled to maintain a suit under Section 8 against the defendant. ('58) AIR 1958 Cal 730 (732) (DB). (Whether the plaintiff has employed the defendant carrier on his own account is a question of fact. The ordinary inference is that the contract of carriage is between the carrier and the owner in whose favour the common law duty exists. In a proper case such is the inference even when the owner is not the consignor.) * AIR 1959 Madh Pra 351 (352): 1958 Jab LJ 45. (Carrier must exonerate himself from liability for the loss.)

[See also AIR 1964 Andh Pra 71 (73): (1963) 2 Andh WR 190. (It is only the owner of the goods, who is entitled to the benefit of Section 8. An agent of the owner to whom goods are entrusted for carriage, who entrusts them to a common carrier to carry, cannot mtintain a suit for recovering damages for loss of such goods against the common carrier employed by him.) * AIR 1967 Assam 74 (76): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 395 (DB). (By mere production of an unendorsed steamer receipt from one's custody on the basis of which he obtains an assessment delivery he cannot be said to have acquired title either to the receipt or to the goods and he has no right to bring a suit on the basis of the said invoice. Such a person can however establish his ownership in the goods by proving that he or his agent had purchased them.)]

(3) A common carrier is responsible for safety of goods except when loss is caused by act of God or King's enemies. AIR 1916 Cal 647 (648).

(4) So far as the Presidency Towns are concerned common carriers by air, who carry on their business within the territory of India, are not governed by the provisions of the Indian Contract Act of 1872 or of the Carriers Act, 1865, or the Indian Carriage by Air Act, 1934, but they are to be governed by the rules of English Common law. Since the common law relating to inland carriage by air has not been modified by any statute in India, it follows that the absolute freedom of the carrier to contract out of his liability even in cases of negligence remains. Even in a territory outside the Presidency towns, the above rule of English Common law is consonant with the principles of 'justice, equity and good conscience' and as such applies in that territory. AIR 1964 Cal 396 (398) (DB).

(5) Where the point of decision arises under the Indian Law, reference to the English Law of Carriers is not very necessary. AIR 1963 Ker 198 (199, 200): 1962 Ker LJ 1284.

(6) The carrier cannot be made liable for any loss or damage which occurred before the goods were actually delivered to him for carriage. (1947) 51 Cal WN 551 (554).

(7) A common carrier does not cease to be a common carrier simply because he agreed to a special stipulation, to carry goods safely. Special stipulations do not absolve the carrier from his liabilities under the Act. AIR 1933 Cal 735 (737, 738): 60 Cal 879.

(8) A common carrier is liable to the owner for loss or damage to any property delivered to such carrier to be carried, whether such loss or damage has arisen from the negligence of the carrier or any of his agents or servants. The term "at the owner's risk" used in the goods receipt only means that the owner would be liable for any loss or damage to the goods, which are lying with the company if such loss or damage was not caused by any negligence on the part of the carrier. AIR 1964 Punj 318 (319): 1963 Cur LJ 256.

Section 8 — Note 1 (contd.)

(9) The combined effect of Sections 6 and 8 is that in respect of the property not mentioned in the schedule common carriers may limit their liability by special contract but not so as to get rid of their liability for negligence. (1891) 18 Cal 620 (628, 629): 18 Ind App 12 (PC) * (1890) 17 Cal 39 (43, 44).

(10-11) Provisions of Section 8 override those of Section 6. In other words, whatever other kinds of liabilities the carrier may be able to limit by special contract with the owner of the property, he cannot limit his liability for the criminal act or negligence of himself or any of the agents and servants. AIR 1967 Assam 74 (78): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 395 (DB) * AIR 1966 All 260 (264): ILR (1965) 2 All 150 (DB) * AIR 1963 Ker 198 (199, 200): 1962 Ker LJ 1284.

(12) Agreement limiting liability of carrier does not relieve carriers of liability arising from the negligence of their servants. (1911) 38 Cal 28 (42).

(13) Where a special contract absolves the carrier from liability in the case of loss or damage by accident as well as resulting from negligence, the clause absolving from liability due to negligence is bad; but this does not make the contract wholly void. The carriers are nevertheless absolved from their liability in case of accident. (1890) 17 Cal 39 (44).

(14) A common carrier cannot escape the liability for loss or damage of the property delivered to him to be carried merely by showing that he had not received it directly from the consignor but only from another carrier. (1947) 51 Cal WN 551 (553).

(15) Where one transporting agency undertakes to transport goods which are to be transported by several agencies consecutively, the other agencies are agents of the contracting agency which is responsible for the loss of goods during the whole transport. An agreement that the contracting agency will not be liable after it has delivered goods to another agency is void as offending against Section 8. AIR 1932 Cal 344 (346): 59 Cal 472.

(16) There was nothing in Section 8 which would make the clause in a forwarding note accompanying the consignment, that the common carrier will be liable on their transport system and beyond that they will act as agent of other administration, void. The common carrier cannot, therefore, be held responsible for non-delivery of part of the consignment at the destination on another administration, their responsibility being only as of agents. AIR 1955 Assam 229 (231) (DB) * AIR 1956 Assam 122 (123) (DB) * AIR 1949 Assam 25 (27, 29) (DB).

(17) Agent contracting on behalf of known principal can restrict his personal liability for acts of principal or his servants and agents — Stipulation by Steam Company with respect to consignment of goods, to act as principal so far as their own system was concerned but so far as transport over the Railway system was concerned, as agents for known principals — Further stipulation that they would not be liable for loss to goods while in transit over Railway system due to acts of the principal or the agents or servants of the principal, as they would be for loss on their own system — Stipulation contained in Clause 11 of forwarding note — Stipulation held valid and did not offend against Section 8. AIR 1953 Cal 547 (548): ILR (1952) 1 Cal 347 (DB).

(18) In a suit for damages caused to the plaintiff's goods entrusted for carriage by the ship, ordinarily, if an agent is guilty of wrongful conversion and the carrier fails to deliver the goods to the consignee, he is liable for the market price of the entire goods. But where the damage was caused due to accident, the liability of the defendants arises only because he failed to have instructions from the plaintiff as regards the disposal of the damaged goods. The loss thus suffered by the plaintiff is the market value of the damaged goods on the date when the goods were taken out of the vessel after the accident. AIR 1958 Assam 115 (119) (DB).

(19) Consignment of goods not perishable by nature — No special contract as to time for delivery — Goods deteriorating due to delay caused by abnormal time taken for transit — Plaintiff-consignee entitled to damages. AIR 1962 Assam 110 (114): ILR (1962) 14 Assam 107 (DB).

(20) Goods arriving in a deteriorated condition — Consignee not taking delivery — Carriers selling the goods and appropriating the amount towards demurrages — Consignee cannot recover as damages the entire value of the goods — He can recover only the balance after deducting the amount realised by sale and adjusted towards demurrages. AIR 1962 Assam 110 (115): ILR (1962) 14 Assam 107 (DB).

(21) Navigation perils — Special contract to limit liability of carrier — Carrier must still prove his dililgence in avoiding peril before claiming the benefit of special contract. AIR 1967 Assam 79 (82): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 10.

(22) Bill of Lading providing in respect of liability for loss of goods by carrier — Loss held did not include non-delivery. AIR 1963 Cal 510 (512).

(23) The Carriers Act does not apply to the case of carriage of goods by air, for the term "common carrier" as defined in

9. Plaintiffs, in suits for loss, damage, or non-delivery, not required to prove negligence or criminal act.—In any suit brought against a common carrier for the loss, damage or non-delivery of goods entrusted to him for carriage, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to prove that such loss, damage or non-delivery was owing to the negligence or criminal act of the carrier, his servants, or agents.

---

Section 8 — Note 1 (contd.)

Section 2 does not include a carrier by air. So the liability of a carrier by air cannot be found on the basis of Section 8 of the Act. AIR 1959 Mad 285 (287): (1959) 2 Mad LJ 373.

(24) Passenger travelling by bus paying extra charges for carriage of his baggage containing betelnuts — Loss of luggage — Owner of the bus is liable for the loss in the absence of contract to contrary. AIR 1964 Mad 476 (476, 477): 77 Mad LW 247.

(25) Liability under, in respect of loss of goods — Privity of contract between the owner of goods and carrier not necessary. AIR 1965 Raj 200 (204): 1965 Raj LW 247 (DB).

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) Section 9 relieves the plaintiff from burden of showing that the loss or damage or non-delivery was owing to any negligence or criminal act. AIR 1955 Assam 65 (72): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB) * AIR 1965 Raj 200 (205): 1965 Raj LW 247 (DB) * AIR 1959 Madh Pra 351 (352): 1958 Jab LJ 45 * AIR 1967 Assam and Nagaland 74 (78): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 395 (DB) * AIR 1963 Bom 208 (212): 65 Bom LR 152 (DB).

(2) Sections 6 and 9 recognise the common law doctrine save in so far as the liability is limited by some special contract as provided by Section 6. Therefore, even if it were found that the defendants took as much care of the goods as a man of ordinary prudence, would, under similar circumstances, the defendant would be liable if the loss was not occasioned by any act of God or enemies of the State. AIR 1955 Assam 65 (72): ILR (1954) 6 Assam 433 (DB) * AIR 1963 Bom 208 (212): 65 Bom LR 152 (DB) * AIR 1962 Assam 110 (114): ILR (1962) 14 Assam 107 (DB). (Consignment of goods not perishable by nature — No special contract as to time for delivery — Goods deteriorating due to delay caused by abnormal time taken to transit — Plaintiff-consignee entitled for damages — He need not prove negligence on part of carrier.) * AIR 1967 Assam 79 (83): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 10. (Navigational perils — Special contract to limit liability of carrier — Carrier must still prove his diligence in avoiding peril before claiming the benefit of special contract.) * AIR 1967 Assam and Nagaland 74 (78): ILR (1964) 16 Assam 395 (DB).

(3) Negligence is presumed by the loss of goods. AIR 1931 Mad 115 (117).

(4) Loss from unknown cause is presumptive proof of negligence. AIR 1928 Cal 371 (376).

(5) Occurrence of fire without any explanation as to origin of it is evidence of negligence. ('99) 26 Cal 398 (403): 26 Ind App 1 * AIR 1962 Mad 44 (46): 74 Mad LW 495 (DB). (An accidental fire though it might not have resulted from any act or omission of the common carrier cannot be said to be an act of God.)

(6) Onus of proving negligence of the carrier is not upon the person who seeks to make the carrier liable. ('14) AIR 1914 Cal 150 (152): 41 Cal 80 * AIR 1963 Ker 198 (199): 1962 Ker LJ 1284.

(7) Loss or damage to the goods sent is prima facie evidence of negligence. The burden of proving absence of negligence is on the carrier. ('16) AIR 1916 Cal 647 (648) * ('21) AIR 1921 Cal 315 (317): 47 Cal 1027 * ('99) 26 Cal 398 (401, 402, 403): 26 Ind App 1 (PC) * ('57) AIR 1957 Pat 328 (331): 36 Pat 495 (DB) * (47) 51 Cal WN 551 (556) * ('97) 24 Cal 786 (818) * ('31) AIR 1931 Mad 115 (117, 118) * AIR 1966 All 260 (265): ILR (1965) 2 All 150 (DB). (Presumption under Section 9 — Defendants failing to lead evidence to rebut presumption — Suit held must be decreed in full.)

(8) But where parties have placed all evidence on which they rely before the Court, it is for the Court to say upon that evidence whether or not the loss was caused by negligence of the carriers or their servants. Where, in an action brought against common carriers for loss of goods delivered to them for carriage from one place to another, nothing appears to have been done which was inconsistent with due care and skill, the presumption of negligence is rebutted, and, the carriers are entitled to have the action dismissed. ('97) 24 Cal 787 (787, 789, 791.

(9) The burden of proving negligence is not on the plaintiff even where the consignment note provides that the defendant company is not liable for damage or loss caused by fire, etc., and the goods are actually damaged by fire. ('79) 3 Bom 120 (129, 130) * ('13) 40 Cal 716 (719).

(10) In a suit for damages caused to the plaintiff's goods entrusted for carriage by the defendant's ship, the master of the ship is entitled, in the case of accident and emergency, to enter into a contract which will bind the owner of the cargo, notwithstanding that it transcends his express authority, if it is bona fide made in the best interests of the owner concerned. A person who seeks to bind a principal on these grounds bears the onus of proving that the course adopted by the carrier was reasonably necessary in the circumstances and also that it was practically impossible to communicate with the cargo owner. AIR 1958 Assam 115 (118) (DB).

(11) Remote damage should not be allowed in a suit for damages for loss of goods caused in transit. But where what was claimed as the loss of profit was not the future profit which the consignor might have earned but it was only difference between the price which he paid for the articles at the market and the price that was then prevalent at the place of destination, it would not be taken as remote damage. AIR 1957 Pat 328 (330): 36 Pat 495 (DB).

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) To maintain a suit for damages for short delivery against a common carrier, notice of claim under Section 10 must be given even though the carrier came to know of the claim aliunde within six months' time and had no difficulty in tracing the goods. AIR 1918 Cal 896 (897) * ('11) 38 Cal 50 (51).

(2) This section places Steamship Company in the same position as a Railway and makes it obligatory upon person wanting to sue Steamer Company to give notice of such suit within the time mentioned in section. ('08) 8 Cal L Jour 192 (192).

(3) In a suit against a common carrier, plaintiff need not state the fact of issue of notice under Section 10 in the plaint. It is implied under Order 6, Rule 6, Civil P. C. Defendants should raise plea of absence of notice. On their failure to do so, the onus is on them to prove absence of negligence on their part. AIR 1938 Rang 437 (438, 499) (DB). (Per Dunkley J.— Absence of plea of want of notice in the written statement amounts to waiver on the part of the defendant.)

(4) The essenial of a good notice appears to be that it should reach the person liable for the loss. Notice to local agent is sufficient. AIR 1927 Cal 394 (398): 54 Cal 430.

(5) A contract with a proviso: "No claim of any kind whatsoever in respect of this contract shall be valid unless in writing and delivered at the office of the Company . . . . . within six months from the date of any default, loss or damage in respect of which such claim arises." is not unreasonable. AIR 1928 Cal 371 (374).

[THE] CASTE DISABILITIES REMOVAL ACT, 1850
(ACT XXI OF 1850)[a]

[11th April, 1850.]

An Act for extending the principle of Section 9, Regulation VII, 1832, of the Bengal Code throughout [b][India].

Preamble.

Whereas it is enacted by S. 9, Regulation VII, 1832[c] of the Bengal Code, that "whenever in any civil suit the parties to such suit may be of different persuasions,

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The Act is not retrospective in operation. 1966 Ker L Jour 73: ILR (1966) 2 Ker 205.

when one party shall be of the Hindu and the other of the Muhammadan persuasion, or where one or more of the parties to the suit shall not be either of the Muhammadan or Hindu persuasions the laws of those religions shall not be permitted to operate to deprive such party or parties of any property to which, but for the operation of such laws, they would have been entitled"; and whereas it will be beneficial to extend the principle of that enactment throughout [b][India]; It is enacted as follows :—

[a] The short title was given by the Indian Short Titles Act, 1897 (14 of 1897).

The Act (21 of 1850) has been declared to be in force in the whole of India, except the Scheduled Districts, by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (15 of 1874), S. 3.

It has been declared to be in force in the Santhal Parganas, by the Santhal Parganas Settlement Regulation (3 of 1872), S. 3. Sonthal Parganas now form part of the State of Bihar. It has been declared by notification under S. 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (14 of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely :— West Jalpaiguri, (now in the State of West Bengal), see ibid, 1881, Pt. I, p. 74; The Districts of Hazaribagh, Lohardaga (now the Ranchi District,) see Calcutta Gazette, 1899, Pt. I, p. 44), and Manbhum, and Pargana Dhalbhum and the Kolhan in the District of Singbhum, (now parts of the State of Bihar;), see ibid, 1881, Pt. I, page 504, the Scheduled portion of the Mirapur District, see ibid, 1879, Pt. I, page 383; Jaunsar Bawar, now in the State of Uttar Pradesh, see ibid, 1879, Pt. I, page 382; The District of Lahaul, (now forming part of Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh)—see Act 31 of 1966, S. 5 [1-11-1966], see ibid, 1886, Pt. I, p. 301; the Scheduled Districts of the C. P., see ibid, 1879, Pt. I, page 771; the Scheduled Districts in Ganjam (now in the State of Orissa and Vizagapatam now in the State of Andhra Pradesh, see ibid, 1898, Pt. I, page 870; Coorg, now in Mysore State, see ibid, 1898, Pt. I, page 870; Assam (except the North Lushai Hills), now known as Mizo District—see Act 18 of 1954, S. 2, see ibid, 1897, Pt. I, page 299; the Porahat Estate in the Singbhum District, see ibid, 1897, Pt. I, page 1059 (now in Bihar State).

It has been extended, by notification under S. 5 of the same Act, to the following Scheduled Districts, namely:— Kumaon and Garhwal, see Gazette of India, 1876, Pt. I, page 606; the Tarai of the Province of Agra, see Gaz. of Ind., 1876, Pt. I, page 505. All in U. P. State now.

The Act has been extended to the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur and Tripura by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950].

The Act has been extended to Union Territories of Pondicherry, see Act 28 of 1968, S. 3 and Sch. [1-8-1968] and of Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regulation 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-7-1965].

The Act has been extended to States merged in the States of—Bombay—Bombay Act 4 of 1950. Bombay has been reorganised into two States of Maharashtra and Gujarat.

Punjab—Punj. Act 5 of 1950. Punjab divided into the States of Haryana and Punjab and Union Territories of Chandigarh and Himachal Pradesh.

[b] Substituted for "the territories subject to the Government of the East India Company" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. [1-4-1951].

[c] Repealed by the Bengal Civil Courts Act, 1871 (6 of 1871), which was repealed by the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act, 1887 (12 of 1887).

1. Law or usage which inflicts forfeiture of, or affects, rights on change of religion or loss of caste to cease to be enforced.—So much of any law or usage now in force within [a][India] as inflicts on any person forfeiture of rights or property, or may be held in any way to impair or affect any right of inheritance, by reason of his or her renouncing, or having been excluded from the communion of, any religion, or being deprived of caste, shall cease to be enforced as law [b][in any Court].

[a] Substituted for "the territories subject to the Government of the East India Company" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. [1-4-1951].

[b] Substituted for "in the Court of the East India Company and in the Courts established by Royal Charter within the said territories," ibid.

SECTION 1 — SYNOPSIS

1. Applicability and scope.
2. 'Deprived of caste.'
3. 'Forfeiture of rights.'
4. 'Right of inheritance.'

1. Applicability and scope.— (1) The Act is not retrospective. ('07) 29 All 487 (492).

(2) Before the enactment of this Act, upon degradation from caste a Hindu, whether male or female, was considered as dead by Hindu law. His degradation caused an extinction of all his property, whether acquired by inheritance, succession, or in any other manner. ('80) 5 Cal 776 (792): 7 Ind App 115 (PC). (The question as to what would be the effect of this Act on the vested estate of a Hindu widow on her being degraded or deprived of caste for unchastity was left unconsidered in this case.)

(3) The Act provides for the cases of those who, (a) have renounced, or (b) have been excluded from the communion of any religion or (c) have been deprived of caste, meaning those who by their own choice, or by action of their caste fellows have been finally shut out, or temporarily deprived. ('73) 19 Suth WR 367 (406) (FB). (This case is useful for its discussion on the object and construction of this Act.) * ('40) AIR 1940 All 134 (140): ILR (1940) All 100.

(4) This Act provides not only for prevention of forfeiture of rights of those who are put out of caste on account of their renouncing, or being excluded from Hindu religion but also relieves those who are deprived of caste on grounds other than change of religion. But there is nothing in the Act which has the effect of placing outcaste, in every respect, in the position which he would occupy if he had not been put out of caste, or of restoring to him all rights which he, as casteman, could have civilly enforced. It does not contemplate the restoration of privileges the granting of which would amount to interference with autonomy of caste. (1900) 23 Mad 171 (176).

(5) This Act sets aside the provisions of Hindu law which penalises the renunciation of religion or exclusion from caste by enforcing forfeiture of property of the convert. ('11) 33 All 356 (365, 366): 38 Ind App 87 (PC) * ('15) AIR 1915 Lah 441 (441): 1915 Pun Re No. 89 * ('09) 1909 Pun Re No. 36, 102 (106) (DB). (Does not lay down any rule of succession after conversion.)

(6) The effect of the Act is not to enlarge the convert's interest in any property or to get rid of any condition of restriction to which it was originally subject. ('21) AIR 1921 Mad 224 (224): 44 Mad 891 (FB). (1912 Mad WN 386, Overruled; 40 Cal 407, Dissented.)

(7) Section 1 applies only to person actually converted or outcasted. ('30) AIR 1930 PC 251 (252): 57 Ind App 313. (11 All 100, Overruled.) * ('18) AIR 1918 Mad 430 (430): 40 Mad 1118. (Provisions apply only to the convert and not to his descendants.)

(8) Held, that Sec. 9 of Regulation VII of 1832 did not abrogate the Hindu law as to the consequence of apostasy, but merely laid down for the guidance of the Judge a rule under which he might refuse to enforce these consequences; but it did not purport to affect the substantive law. ('07) 29 All 487 (491). (Hindu joint family of father and son — Father embracing Islamism — Son immediately becomes sole owner of joint property.)

(9) Province of Oudh was annexed on 13th February, 1856. Therefore, Regulation 7 of 1832 and Act 21 of 1850 did not apply to the case of convert who renounced his religion prior to that date. ('28) AIR 1928 Oudh 138 (139): 3 Luck 154.

2. 'Deprived of caste.'— (1) Deprivation of caste in the Act means deprivation owing to change of religion and not merely for moral degradation. ('31) AIR 1931 Cal 741 (744): 58 Cal 1392 * ('70) 5 Beng LR 466 (496) (DB).

(2) A Hindu who declares for the purpose of the Special Marriage Act that he is not a Hindu does not cease to be a Hindu and Hindu Law remains applicable to him. The Caste Disabilities Removal Act is of no assistance in construing the provisions of the Special Marriage Act. AIR 1959 Punj 415 (417): 61 Pun LR 407 (DB).

of caste does not occasion a forfeiture of rights or property. ('77) 1 Bom 559 (560).

(2) A general principle of Hindu law is that the degradation of the husband from caste does not dissolve the marriage tie, ('72) 2 NWPHCR 300 (302) * ('80) 4 Bom 330 (332). (Convert's marriage with a Muhammadan during the life-time of her former husband will amount to an offence under Section 494, Penal Code.) * ('91) 18 Cal 264 (269). (3) Suit for restitution of conjugal rights — Hindu husband turned out of caste at the time of institution of suit — Decree for restitution of conjugal rights conditional on plaintiff's obtaining restoration to caste may be passed. ('86) 8 All 78 (81).

(4) Where a Hindu widow after embracing Islamism marries a Muhammadan, she does not thereby lose her right as a devisee of property bequeathed to her by her Hindu sister. ('25) AIR 1925 Mad 861 (870).

(5) Excommunication from caste as of itself does not deprive a wife of the right to joint enjoyment of her husband's property. ('82) 4 Mad 243 (243).

(6) This Act does not repeal the usage of Hindu temples or of religious or quasi religious institutions. A right consisting in the participation, along with other members of a caste, in the benefits of a religious institution appropriated to the members of the caste is not within the purview of this Act. ('90) 13 Mad 293 (298, 299).

(7) The word 'rights' means not merely rights of property or inheritance but also includes the right of guardianship of infant children. ('01) 1901 Pun Re No. 60, p. 191 (199) * ('77) 1 All 549 (560). (A Hindu deprived of his caste does not incur forfeiture of his right as guardian to the custody of his minor daughter.) * ('06) 28 All 233 (235). (Do.)

(8) The right of giving his son in adoption is not lost by a Hindu father even after his conversion to Muhammadanism. ('01) 25 Bom 551 (555).

(9) Conversion does not give right to partition if there is none prior to conversion. ('21) AIR 1921 Mad 224 (224): 44 Mad 891 (FB). (1912 Mad WN 386, Overruled.)

(10) Conversion of a Hindu coparcener creates a partition by operation of Hindu law. Hence, the right of survivorship is not retained by the convert unless the partition by conversion is renounced by convert. ('27) AIR 1927 Mad 883 (884, 885).

(11) Provisions of the Act cannot be extended beyond its specific provisions. Conversion of a Hindu to Muhammadanism does not entail forfeiture of any rights to ancestral property which his descendants may otherwise possess. ('02) 1902 Pun Re No. 104, p. 460 (462) (DB).

(12) Hindu widow becoming Muhammadan and then marrying a Muhammadan forfeits first husband's estate. ('19) AIR 1919 Mad 854 (859, 860) (FB). (The forfeiture is also entailed by reason of Section 2 of Act 15 of 1856 — AIR 1918 Mad 314, Overruled.)

(13) Under the strict Hindu law converts not only become divided in status but forfeit all rights to their tarwad property. But Act 21 of 1850 preserves their right to the property in that they can still continue to possess the rights incidental to their ownership. However, the Act does not preserve their status as a member of the tarwad or the incidents appropriate to and dependent thereon. ('38) AIR 1938 Mad 242 (245).

(14) The result of reading the Caste Disabilities Removal Act with Section 23 of the Special Marriage Act is this: a person marrying under the Act does not by reason of his marriage forfeit his existing interest in the joint family property or lose his rights of inheritance to the property of the members of the family whether the right accrues before or after the marriage. As by operation of Section 22 there results severance of status of a person marrying under the Act, the right of such person to take by survivorship is completely extinguished. That right is not saved by Section 23 or by Act No. 21 of 1850. ('55) AIR 1955 Madh B 148 (153): ILR (1955) Madh B 239 (DB).

(15) A Christian becoming Muhammadan after marrying Christian woman — Held, that an Indian Christian domiciled in India and married to a Christian woman also domiciled in India can validly marry a Muhammadan woman after his conversion. There is nothing in this Act which invalidates such marriage. ('39) AIR 1939 Cal 417 (418): ILR (1939) 2 Cal 12.

(16) Custom forfeiting right of out-casted husband to society of wife is not enforceable in law under Section 1 — Restitution of conjugal rights cannot be refus-

'Right of inheritance.'— (1) Their Lordships of the Privy Council observe: "It is perfectly true that the words 'his or her' are not so easy to apply, because there is not a person expressed in the Act who is represented by 'his or her', but it seems to their Lordships to be plain that the words 'or may be held in any way to impair or affect any right of inheritance by reason of his or her renouncing' should be read 'any right of inheritance of any person by reason of his or her renouncing.' The clause is given a simple meaning by the construction and their Lordships think that that is the correct view." ('30) AIR 1930 PC 251 (252, 253). (11 All 100, Overruled.)

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The primary object of this Bill is to consolidate the law relating to cattle trespass, which is now scattered through three Acts, — III of 1857, V of 1860 and XXII of 1861. The opportunity has been taken to improve the arrangement and the wording of the law; to provide that damages awarded for illegal seizures may be recovered as if they were fines; and (with reference to the case of Reg. v. Lingana bin Giubana, 4 Bombay High Court Rep. C. C. 14) to declare expressly that a person who, through neglect, permits a public road to be damaged by allowing his pigs to trespass thereon, is liable to be fined. The cases of Reg. v. Mir Saheb Kassamia, 1 Bombay High Court Rep. 100; Reg. v. Mathur Purshottam, 4 ib, C. C. 13; and Reg. v. Ganga kom Mhasu, 5 ib, C. C. 13 have also been carefully considered."

[THE] CATTLE-TRESPASS ACT, 1871
(ACT 1 OF 1871)[a]

[13th January, 1871.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Trespasses by Cattle.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to trespasses by cattle. It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For proceedings in Council, see Gazette of India, Supplement, pp. 1150, 1200, 1290, and Supplement, 1871, p. 178.
This Act has been declared to be in force in the Khondmals District by the Khondmals Laws Regulation, 1936 (4 of 1936), S. 3 and Schedule.
This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur and Tripura by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh is in the State of Madhya Pradesh now—see Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).
This Act is made applicable to the Merged States by Bombay Act 4 of 1950; M. P. Act 12 of 1950; Madras Act 35 of 1949; Orissa Act 4 of 1950; and Punjab Act 5 of 1950 [15-10-1962].
The Act has been extended to transferred territories in :—
Punjab by Punj. Act 5 of 1957; Madras by Mad. Act 23 of 1960; Andhra Pradesh by A. P. Act 16 of 1959.
This Act has now been extended to the Union Territory of Pondicherry by Reg. 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-10-1963]; of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands by Reg. 8 of 1965 [w. e. f. 1-10-67] and to the North-East Frontier Area by Reg. 3 of 1960 [w. e. f. 1-11-1960]; to the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Reg. 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-7-1965].

CHAPTER I
PRELIMINARY

[a][1. Title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CATTLE-TRESPASS ACT, 1871; and

---

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) The maintenance of private cattle pounds is incompatible with the provisions of the Cattle-Trespass Act and the establishment and maintenance of cattle pounds under the superintendence and control of Government Officials assisted by the police may be considered essential for the maintenance of law and order and the peace and good government of the country. Hence, where the Executive Government takes over the charge of the

(2) It extends to °[the whole of India except [b][the territories which immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in Part B States] ], °[except the presidency-towns and such local areas as the °[State Government], by notification in the Official Gazette, may from time to time exclude from its operation.]

[a] Substituted by the Cattle-Trespass Act (1871) Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 1, for original S. 1.

[b] Substituted for "Part B States" by 2 A. L. O., 1956.

Immediately before the 1st of November 1956, the following were the Part B States in India; Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepsu, Rajasthan, Saurashtra and Travancore-Cochin.

Hyderabad is part of Andh. Pra. State; Madhya Bharat is part of M. P. State; Saurashtra forms part of Gujarat and Travancore-Cochin with certain areas from Madras is known as Kerala State. Only Mysore and Jammu and Kashmir are full-fledged States now.

[c] This Act has been declared in force in the Santhal Parganas by the Santhal Parganas Settlement Regulation, 1872 (3 of 1872); in Panth Piploda by the Panth Piploda Laws Regulation, 1929 (1 of 1929), S. 2. It has been declared by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (14 of 1874), S. 3 (a) to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely :—

The Districts of Hazaribagh, Lohardaga, Manbhum, Paragana Dhalbhum and the Kolhan in the District of Singbhum [Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 504; the District of Lohardaga included at this time the present District of Palamau which was separated in 1894; the District of Lohardaga is now called the Ranchi District, see Calcutta Gazette, 1899, Pt. I, p. 44.] (all these areas now form part of the State of Bihar); and the Scheduled Districts in Ganjam (now in Orissa State) and Vizagapatam (now in Andhra Pradesh State), ibid, 1899, Pt. I, p. 720.

The Act has been repealed in the State of Kerala by the Kerala Cattle-Trespass Act, 1961 (Ker. Act 26 of 1961), S. 33 [1-11-1962] and in the State of Mysore by the Mysore Cattle-Trespass Act, 1966 (Mys. Act 19 of 1966), S. 33.

The Act ceases to apply to the municipalities in Gujarat and Maharashtra — See Gujarat Municipalities Act 1964 (Guj. Act 34 of 1964), S. 238 [1-1-1965] and the Maharashtra Municipalities Act, 1965 (Maha. Act 40 of 1965), S. 282 [15-6-1966].

[d] Sub-section (3) of S. 1 was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1914 (10 of 1914), S. 3 and Schedule II.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Andhra Pradesh

In its application to the State of Andhra Pradesh in S. 1, sub-section (2), after the expression "the territories, which, immediately before the 1st November 1956 were comprised in Part B States" insert the expression "(other than the territories, specified in sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 except the cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad)" — Andhra Pradesh Act 16 of 1959, S. 4 [16-10-1962].

Note.—By Sec. 3 of the Cattle-Trespass (Andhra Pradesh Extension and Amendment) Act, 1959 (16 of 1959), the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871 as in force at the commencement of the said Amendment Act in the Andhra area and as amended by the said Amendment Act is extended to and shall be in force in the transferred territories i. e., the territories specified in S. 3 (1) of the pounds from private persons who were previously controlling them, it is not competent to the Civil Courts to interfere. ('12) 39 Cal 615 (662): 39 Ind App 31 (PC).

States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956). And by S. 8 of the said Amendment Act the Hyderabad Cattle-Trespass Act (5 of 1337F.) is repealed.

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, amendment in S. 1 is the same as in Maharashtra. Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 3 read with Guj. A. L. (8th Am.) Order 1961, Pt. II.

Maharashtra

In its application to the State of Maharashtra in S. 1 add the following proviso, namely,—

"Provided that on the commencement of the Cattle-Trespass (Bombay Extension and Amendment) Act, 1959, it shall extend to those areas in which the Hyderabad Cattle-Trespass Act, or as the case may be, the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, as modified and applied to the Saurashtra area of the State of Bombay was in force immediately before such commencement" — Bombay Act 13 of 1959, S. 3 [19-3-1959] and Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

Note.—By S. 2 of the Cattle-Trespass (Bombay Extension and Amendment) Act (Bombay Act 13 of 1959) the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, as in force in the area of the pre-reorganisation State of Bombay (excluding the transferred territories) immediately before the commencement of the said Extension and Amendment Act is extended to the Saurashtra and Hyderabad areas of the State and shall be so in force throughout the State of Bombay. And accordingly all amendments made by any law to the provisions of the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, in the application of the said Act to the Vidarbha region and Kutch area of the State of Bombay shall cease to have effect and shall stand repealed. Further, all amendments made in the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, in their application to the area of the pre-reorganisation State of Bombay (excluding the transferred territories) and in force at the commencement of the said Extension and Amendment Act shall be in force in the Vidarbha region and amendments made by C. P. B. Acts XII of 1935, XXII of 1937 and XXVII of 1949 shall cease to apply to Vidarbha region and Kutch area of the State and the relevant provision of the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, as in force in the said region and area shall be deemed to be amended accordingly. By S. 12 of the said Act the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, as modified and applied to the Saurashtra area of the State of Bombay by the State of Saurashtra (Application of Central and Bombay Act) Ordinance, 1948 and the Hyderabad Cattle-Trespass Act are repealed.

Madhya Pradesh

In sub-section (2) of Section 1, after "in Part B States" add "other than the Madhya Bharat and Sironj regions of the State of Madhya Pradesh" — M. P. Act 23 of 1958.

Note.—Sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the Madhya Pradesh Extension of Laws Act (M. P. Act 23 of 1958) provides: "The Acts specified in Part A of the Schedule and as in force in the Mahakoshal region immediately before the appointed day, are hereby extended to, and shall, as from the appointed day, be in force in all the other regions of the State." The Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, is one of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule as Item 4.

2. Repeal of Acts.—References to repealed Acts. [Repealed by the Repealing Act (1 of 1938), S. 2 and the Schedule.]

3. Interpretation clause.—In this Act,—

"officer of police" includes also village-watchman, and
"cattle" includes also elephants, camels, buffaloes, horses, mares, geldings, ponies, colts, fillies, mules, asses, pigs, rams, ewes, sheep, lambs, goats, and kids, [a][and [b]"local authority" means any body of persons for the time being invested by law with the control and administration of any matters within a specified local area, and

"local fund" means any fund under the control or management of a local authority.]

[a] Inserted by the Cattle-Trespass Act (1871) Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 2.

[b] Cf. definition in the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), S. 3 (31), which applies to all Acts passed after the 14th January 1887, see S. 4 (2), ibid.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Andhra Pradesh

In its application to the State of Andhra Pradesh in S. 3, for the expression "'officer of police' includes also village watchman and" substitute the expression "'officer of police' includes village watchman and the police patel or the person discharging the functions of the police patel in the local area concerned, and."— A. P. Act 16 of 1959, S. 5 [16-10-1962].

Haryana

Amendment in Haryana is the same as in Punjab — See Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Orissa

In its application to the State of Orissa, in S. 3, at the end of the definition of "local authority" add the words, namely, "and entrusted by the State Government under Sec. 31 with any function under this Act in that area."—Orissa Acts 15 of 1948, S. 2 and Sch. I (Part A); 22 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II and 23 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II.

Punjab

In its application to the State of Punjab, in S. 3, after the word "cattle" insert the words "does not include such bulls as are let loose for stud purposes and are specified by a notification in this behalf but."—Punjab Act 24 of 1952, S. 2 [3-12-1952].

Tamil Nadu

In its application to the territories added to the State of Tamil Nadu by Act 56 of 1959, amendment in section is same as in Andhra Pradesh—Mad. (A. T.) A. L. O., 1961 [w. e. f. 1-4-1961].

Union Territory (Chandigarh)

Amendment in the section is the same as in Punjab — See S. 88 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 (31 of 1966).

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh)

In its application to the territories transferred to H. P., amendment in the section is the same as in Punjab — See S. 88 of Act 31 of 1966.

CHAPTER II
POUNDS AND POUND-KEEPERS

4. Establishment of pounds.—Pounds shall be established at such places as the Magistrate of the District, subject to the general control of the [a][State Government], from time to time directs.

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) An order of the Collector abolishing a cattle-pound is an executive order and cannot be interfered with under Article 226 of the Constitution. Chapter V of Cattle Trespass Act does not take away the power of the District Collector to direct abolition of a cattle pound.

The State Government's power under Section 4 of the Act is to exercise a general or over-all control over cattle-pounds

The village by which every pound is to be used shall be determined by the Magistrate of the District.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Amendment in the section in Gujarat is the same as in Maharashtra — Bombay Act 8 of 1958, read with S. 87 of Act 11 of 1960.

Maharashtra

In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in Section 4 for the words "State Government" substitute the word "Commissioner". — Bombay Act 8 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. and Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

Tamil Nadu

In its application to the State of Tamil Nadu in S. 4, for the words "Magistrate of the District" substitute the words "District Collector".—Madras Act 20 of 1957, S. 2 [11-12-1957] read with Madras Act 23 of 1960, S. 3 and Sch. I.

5. Control of pounds. Rates of charge for feeding impounded cattle.—The pounds shall be under the control of the Magistrate of the District; and he shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the rates, of charge for feeding and watering impounded cattle.

STATE AMENDMENT

Tamil Nadu

In its application to the State of Tamil Nadu in S. 5, for the words "Magistrate of the District" substitute the words "District Collector" — Madras Act 20 of 1957, S. 2 [11-12-1957] read with Madras Act 23 of 1960, S. 3 and Sch. I.

6. Appointment of pound-keepers.[b]—[a][The State Government shall appoint a pound-keeper for every pound.

Pound-keepers may hold other offices.

Any pound-keeper may hold simultaneously any other office under the [aa][Government].

Pound-keepers to be "public servants".

Every pound-keeper shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.]

[a] Substituted by the Supplemental A. O., 1937.

[aa] Substituted for 'Crown' by A. L. O., 1950.

[b] Functions of the State Government under this section have been transferred to the Gaon Panchayats in the districts of Goalpara, Kamrup, Darrang, Nowgong, Sibsagar, Lakhimpur and Cachar in State of Assam — See Assam Gaz., 2-11-1966, Pt. IIA, p. 2641.

STATE AMENDMENT

Orissa

In its application to the State of Madhya Pradesh, for S. 6 substitute the following namely,—

"6. The Magistrate of the District or any officer not being below the rank of a Sub-Divisional Magistrate specially authorised by the Magistrate of the District in this behalf shall appoint for each pound a pound-keeper. Every pound-keeper appointed by the Magistrate of the District or by the officer so authorised may be suspended and removed by AIR 1962 Ker 10 (11): 1962 (1) Cri LJ 39: 1960 Ker LT 1231.

(2) A private citizen is not entitled to have his own pound or to claim the right to impound the offending cattle of other citizen in a private pound. (1967) 69 Bom LR 801 (807, 808): ILR (1968) Bom 203.

such Magistrate or officer. Any pound-keeper may hold simultaneously any office under the Government. Every pound-keeper shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian P. C." — Orissa Acts 15 of 1948, S. 2 and Sch. I (Part A); 22 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II and 23 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II.

DUTIES OF POUND-KEEPERS

7. To keep registers and furnish returns.—Every pound-keeper shall keep such registers and furnish such returns as the [a][State Government] from time to time directs.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

8. To register seizures.—When cattle are brought to a pound, the pound-keeper shall enter in his register,—

(a) the number and description of the animals,

(b) the day and hour on and at which they were so brought,

(c) the name and residence of the seizure, and

(d) the name and residence of the owner, if known, and shall give the seizer or his agent a copy of the entry.

9. To take charge of and feed cattle.—The pound-keeper shall take charge of, feed and water the cattle until they are disposed of as hereinafter directed.

---

CHAPTER III

IMPOUNDING CATTLE

10. Cattle damaging land.—The cultivator or occupier of any land, or any person who has advanced cash for the cultivation of the crop or produce on any land, or the vendee or mortgagee of such crop or produce or any part thereof, may seize or cause to be seized any cattle trespassing on such land, and doing damage thereto or to any crop or produce thereon, and [a][send them or cause them to be sent within twenty-four hours] to the pound established for the village in which the land is situate.

---

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) When the cattle are brought to the pound it is not necessary to inform the pound-keeper whether the cattle were seized rightly or wrongly: ('43) AIR 1943 Oudh 280 (282): 44 Cri L Jour 640.

SECTION 10 — SYNOPSIS

1. Damage, whether essential.
2. "Produce" on the land.
3. Seizure, when to be made.
4. "Within twenty-four hours".
5. Who can seize.
6. Seizure must be under the provisions of the section.

1. Damage, whether essential.— (1) A person is not entitled to seize cattle which has not done any damage. A clear finding of damage done by the trespassing cattle is essential to a conviction under Section 24. ('40) AIR 1940 Pat 299 (300): 41 Cri L Jour 257 * ('45) AIR 1945 Oudh 116 (117). (A finding that cattle were grazing crops implies that they were doing damage.) * ('18) AIR 1918 Pat 649 (650): 19 Cri L Jour 157 * ('20) AIR 1920 Pat 832 (833): 21 Cri L Jour 640. (Lower Court relied on the evidence of a witness who deposed that he saw the cattle grazing on the complainant's bhoga paddy — Held, that the evidence was insufficient to show that damage was caused.) * ('18) AIR 1918 Pat 628 (628): 19 Cri L Jour 202 * ('05) 1 Weir 709 * ('18) AIR 1918 All 267 (268): 19 Cri L Jour 368.

(2) Damage required under Section 10 may be nominal and not substantial. ('49) AIR 1949 All 180 (183): ILR (1949) All 211: 50 Cri L Jour 232 * AIR 1966 Orissa 191 (192): 1966 Cri L Jour 1044: 31 Cut LT 1127.

(3) Where the damage done by the cattle is only little, their seizure may be unreasonable but is not illegal. ('39) 1939 Oudh WN 150 (152). (Hence compensation under Section 22 cannot be granted.)

(4) Where cattle trespass on a field full of standing sugar-cane, damage may be presumed. AIR 1949 All 180 (183): ILR (1940) All 211: 50 Cri L Jour 232.

(5) Where there is acceptable evidence on record in support of the prosecution case of grazing resulting in damage to the crop, conviction under Section 24 of the Act cannot be set aside merely for omission to record a finding of damage.

Police to aid seizures.

All officers of police shall, when required, aid in preventing (a) resistance to such seizures, and (b) rescues from persons making such seizures.

[a] Substituted by the Cattle-Trespass Act (1871) Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 3, for "take them or cause them to be taken without unnecessary delay".

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, amendment in S. 10 is the same as in Maharashtra, except that for the words "State of Bombay (i. e. Maharashtra), words "State of Gujarat" shall be substituted. — Gujarat A. L. (8 Amendt.) Order 1961.

Maharashtra

In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in S. 10, after the words "or any part thereof" insert the following, namely,—

"or a watch and ward appointed by a panchayat established under Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933 or any corresponding law in force in

AIR 1963 Pat 199 (200): 1963 (1) Cri L Jour 607: ILR 43 Pat 709 (DB).

2. 'Produce" on the land. — (1) Grass is "produce" on the land within the meaning of Section 10. ('43) AIR 1943 Sind 152 (154): ILR (1943) Kar 112: 44 Cri L Jour 761.

3. Seizure, when to be made. — (1) Under the English law the cattle can be seized only while they were actually trespassing and not afterwards. But the codified law in India gives the right of seizure even though the cattle have in the meantime left the field of the complainant and reached the field or grove of the accused (the owner of the cattle), provided notice of trespass was taken immediately and the complainant was pursuing the cattle in order to take them to the pound. In such a case the accused would have no right to forcibly rescue the cattle and cause injuries to the complainant who were taking the cattle to the pound and who resisted the rescue. ('54) AIR 1954 All 381 (382): 1954 Cri L Jour 790 * ('28) AIR 1928 Lah 692 (693): 30 Cri L Jour 627 * AIR 1966 Guj 221 (227): 1966 Cri LJ 994: (1966) 7 Guj LR 357 (DB) * 1966 Cri LJ 217 (220): (1966) 1 Mad LJ 95 (DB) * AIR 1960 Pat 385 (387): 1960 Cri LJ 1132: 1960 BLJR 240.

[But see ('05) 1 Weir 709 (709). (It is only when cattle are actually trespassing that they can be seized and impounded under Section 10.) * ('25) AIR 1925 Nag 50 (50): 25 Cri L Jour 1004. (Right to seize subsists only until the cattle leave the land.) * AIR 1959 Raj 124 (125, 126): 1959 Cri LJ 770: 1959 Raj LW 120. (AIR 1954 All 581, Dissented from.)]

(2) The words "cattle trespassing on such land" in Section 10 have to be given an extended meaning but confined within reasonable limits. The act of seizure may be within section if it is effected at a spot within easy reach of the field damaged, but where the distance is very great, and the cattle have already come, not merely constructively, but actually within their owner's possession, the act of the pursuers in seizing and attempting to remove the animals is not only not covered by Section 10, but it also amounts technically to an offence of theft within the meaning of Section 378, Penal Code. ('47) AIR 1947 Lah 380 (382) (DB). (Consequently, the owners of the animals are entitled under Section 104, Penal Code, to use force to any extent short of causing death in order to prevent the pursuers from carrying out their purpose.)

(3) Although the right of capture would not extend to following them to their sheds and seizing them there, yet the person who attempts to seize the cattle while actually trespassing on the land had a right to capture them before they have definitely made their escape from the spot though they may not be actually inside the field trespassed when captured. ('34) AIR 1934 Nag 258 (259): 31 Nag LR 139: 36 Cri L Jour 361.

(4) When a person seizes cattle on the ground that they were trespassing on his land and causing damage to his crop or produce and gives out that he was taking them to the pound, he commits no offence of theft however mistaken he may be about his right to that land or crop. The remedy of the owner of the cattle so seized is to take action under Section 20 of the Act. He has no right to use force to rescue the cattle so seized. AIR 1965 SC 926 (931, 932): 1965 (2) Cri LJ 18: (1965) 1 SCR 293. (Order in Government Appeal No. 24 of 1960, Dated 13-12-1962 (Pat), Reversed.) * AIR 1968 Pat 442: 1968 Cri LJ 1440: 1968 BLJR 380.

(5) Where there is no evidence to show that cattle had trespassed into A's land, and that the cattle were running away any part of the State of Maharashtra, or any person authorised by State Government in this behalf, either by name or by virtue of office."—Bom. Acts 34 of 1950, Ss. 2 (1) and 13 of 1959, S. 4 read with Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

Madhya Pradesh

In its application to the State of Madhya Pradesh for Section 10, the following section shall be substituted, namely :—

10. Seizure of cattle trespassing on land and doing damage and causing hurt, etc.

"The owner or occupier of any land or the person having interest in any land may seize or cause to be seized any cattle-trespassing on such land and doing damage thereto or to any crop, produce or property thereon belonging to such owner, occupier or interested person, or causing hurt or injury or obstruction to any of them or to any person by leave or licence present on, or having charge of, such land or of any such crop, produce or property, and send them or cause to be

4. 'Within twenty-four hours".— (1) Where the person seizing a cow kept it overnight in his custody and released it next morning (before 24 hours of the seizure) on receipt of some money from the owner: Held, that no offence under Section 379 of the Penal Code or under any other provision was committed. ('23) AIR 1923 Nag 64 (65): 23 Cri L Jour 511.

5. Who can selze.— (1) For the purposes of Cattle Trespass Act, it is sufficient to prove occupation within the meaning of Section 10. There is no question of title involved in such a case. Hence, an unregistered kabuliat evidencing the settlement of land, is admissible to prove the occupation at the relevant time. ('47) AIR 1947 Pat 172 (174): 47 Cri L Jour 986 (DB).

(2) What is or is not "occupation" must depend on the nature of the land. ('43) AIR 1943 Sind 152 (154): ILR (1943) Kar 112: 44 Cri L Jour 761.

(3) A person in exclusive possession of land is an occupier thereof under Section 10. ('16) AIR 1916 Lah 281 (281): 1916 Pun Re (Cr) No. 3: 17 Cri L Jour 63. (The question of title of the owner of the cattle to the land trespassed does not affect the right to seize.)

(4) A person with whom a land has been settled for the purpose of pasture is to be regarded as the occupier of the land within the meaning of Section 10 and the grass standing thereon is to be regarded as the produce of the land within the meaning of the section. AIR 1947 Pat 172 (174): 47 Cri L Jour 986 (DB).

(5) Seizure of cattle grazing in the forest under orders of an officer in charge of forest under the Zamindar who is an occupier of the forest which is treated for some purposes as reserve forest, under Sections 26 and 32, Madras Forest Act, is legal under Section 10. ('48) AIR 1948 Mad 467 (468): 49 Cri L Jour 689.

(6) A private protected forest and embankment are included within the meaning of the term "land". Proprietor of such forest or embankment is an "occupier" of land. ('39) 20 Pat LT 340 (341).

(7) Unless the burgadar is shown to be a mere servant of the lessor, burgadar can seize the cattle of the lessor if they trespass on his land under burga lease. ('19) AIR 1919 Cal 93 (93): 20 Cri L Jour 398.

(8) The impounding of the cattle by a watchman who has got general instructions from the occupier to seize them while trespassing, is authorised under Section 10. ('16) AIR 1916 Mad 786 (786): 16 Cri L Jour 772 * ('22) AIR 1922 Pat 317 (317). * AIR 1960 Mad 331 (332): 1960 Cri LJ 932: (1960) 2 Mad LJ 455. (If the watchman or servant seizes cattle under such instructions, it must be held that the cultivator or occupier causes the them to be seized within the meaning of the section.)

(9) Where an indigo factory supplies the seeds, pays for the labour of sowing, and gives compensation to raiyats growing indigo on their own land, but no advance in cash has been made, held that, although the indigo is grown for the factory, a servant of the factory is not a person authorised under Section 10 of the Act, to seize cattle doing damage to the indigo. ('05) 2 Cri L Jour 345 (346, 347) (Cal).

(10) Seizure by a claimant to the disputed possession of land is illegal under this section, when the intention is to take by force the cattle of his opponent and not to protect his crop or produce. ('43) AIR 1943 Sind 152 (154): ILR (1943) Kar 112: 44 Cri L Jour 761.

(11) The fact that the lessee seizing the cattle intends that in order to prevent impounding the owner of the cattle may pay the grazing charges, will not make the seizure illegal if it is otherwise legal. ('18) AIR 1918 Cal 701 (702): 18 Cri L Jour 849.

sent within twenty-four hours to the pound established for the local area in which the land is situate.

All officers of police shall, when required, aid in preventing (a) resistance to such seizures and (b) rescues from persons making such seizures".—C. P. and Berar Act 12 of 1935, S. 2 [30-3-1935] read with S. 119 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956) [1-11-1956] and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 (1) and Sch., Pt. A, Item 4.

[a]11. Cattle damaging public roads, canals and embankments.—Persons in charge of public roads, pleasure-grounds, plantations, canals, drainage-works, embankments and the like and officers of police, may seize or cause to be seized any cattle doing damage to such roads, grounds, plantations, canals, drainage-works, embankments and the like or the sides or slopes of such roads, canals, drainage-works or embankments or found straying thereon.

and shall [b][send them or cause them to be sent within twenty-four hours] to the nearest pound.

[a] As to the application of S. 11 to forest, see the Indian Forest Act, 1927 (16 of 1927), S. 70; to railways, see the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), S. 125 (4); to reserved or village forest in Mysore, see Mysore Forest Act, 1964 (5 of 1964), S. 60 [1-6-1969].

[b] Substituted by the Cattle-Trespass Act (1871) Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 4, for "take them without unnecessary delay".

Section 10 — Note 5 (contd.)

(12) It will be an illegal seizure amounting to theft for persons other than those empowered by Section 10 to attempt to seize and impound cattle. In that case owner of the cattle will conceivably have a right of private defence of property. The seizure of cattle by a watchman or servant under general instructions of the owner or occupier would be lawful, but such authority must be specifically proved. 1966 Cri LJ 217 (220): (1966) 1 Mad LJ 96 (DB).

(13) The term 'cultivator" includes not only the person who actually toils on the land on his own account but also the owner of the land who gets it cultivated through his farm-servant or daily labourer.

The occupier of any land is not necessarily a cultivator. Land other than cultivable land seems, therefore, to have been contemplated by the section. AIR 1960 Mad 331 (332): 1960 Cri LJ 932: (1960) 2 Mad LJ 455. (AIR Manual 2nd (1960) Edn. cited with approval.)

6. Seizure must be under the provisions of the section.— (1) No person has a right to seize and remove cattle except under the provisions of Section 10. Thus, where the system in vogue was that whenever the person seized any cattle which he caught trespassing and causing damage, he rounded them up and drove them to the village and the cattle could be redeemed on the way by their owners on payment of four annas per head of cattle, or, if the fine was not paid there, the cattle were detained in some irregular manner until the fine was paid, possibly by being handed over to the owners of the land on which the trespass and damage had been committed:

Held, that the villagers might find a rough and ready system of this kind convenient but it had no warrant in law since cattle could only be seized under Section 10 of the Act for the purpose of being impounded in the pound established for the village. ('56) AIR 1956 Punj 185 (187): 1956 Cri L Jour 1096 (DB).

(2) If persons, who are entitled to do so, round up cattle which are trespassing and causing damage, and set off to take the cattle to the pound, the owners of the cattle are not entitled to attack them and rescue the cattle simply because those persons do not state in so many words that they have seized the cattle under Section 10, and are taking them away for the purpose of impounding them. ('56) AIR 1956 Punj 185 (186): 1956 Cri L Jour 1096 (DB).

Section 11 — Note 1

(1) Sub-section (4) of Section 125, Railways Act, 1890, runs as follows: "The expression 'public road' in Sections 11 and 26, Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, shall be deemed to include a railway, and any railway servant may exercise the powers conferred on officers of police by the former of those sections".

(2) Section 70, Forest Act, 1927, is as follows: "Cattle trespassing in a reserved forest or in any portion of a protected forest which has been lawfully closed to grazing shall be deemed to be cattle doing damage to a public plantation within the meaning of Section 11, Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871, and may be seized and impounded as such by any Forest Officer or Police Officer".

(3) Though, in terms, Section 11 cannot apply to causes of trespass on Reserved Forest land, the provisions of the said section are attracted to such causes by virtue of Section 57 of the Madras Forest Act and, as such, an accused can be convicted under Section 24 for allowing cattle

STATE AMENDMENTS

Andhra Pradesh

In its application to the State of Andhra Pradesh in Sec. 11, after the word "plantations" add the word "aerodromes" at both places; and after the words "or found straying thereon", insert the words " or within the premises of such aerodromes" — A. P. Act 30 of 1961, S. 2 [21-9-1961].

Madhya Pradesh

In Section 11 after the words "and the like" insert the words "officers and servants of the local authorities".— C. P. and Berar Act 12 of 1935, S. 3 [30-3-1935] and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch., Pt. A.

[a][12. Fines for cattle impounded.—For every head of cattle impounded as aforesaid, the pound-keepers shall levy a fine in accordance with the scale for the time being prescribed by the [b][State Government] in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette. Different scales may be prescribed for different local areas.

All fines so levied shall be sent to the Magistrate of the District through such officers as the [b][State Government] may direct.

List of fines and charges for feeding:

A list of the fines and of the rates of charge for feeding and watering cattle shall be posted in a conspicuous place on or near to every pound.]

(5) There is "trespass" within the meaning of Section 70, Forest Act, even where the cattle do not go into the reserved forest themselves but are driven into it. Such cattle are liable to seizure. ('92) Rat Un Cr C 602 (603).

Section 12 — Note 1

(1) Section 71, Forest Act, 1927, is as follows: 'The Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that, in lieu of the fines fixed under Section 12, Cattle Trespass Act, 1871, there shall be levied for each head of cattle impounded under Section 70 of this Act such fines as it thinks fit but not exceeding the following, that is to say, for each elephant — ten rupees; for each buffalo or camel—two rupees; for each horse, mare, gelding, pony, colt, filly, mule, bull, bullock, cow, or heifer—one rupee; for each calf, ass, pig, ram, ewe, sheep, lamb, goat, or kid—eight annas".

(2) A fine levied by a pound-keeper under this section is not a punishment imposed on conviction for an 'offence'. ('70) 7 Bom HCR (Cr) 55 (56).

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Amendments in the State of Gujarat in S. 12 are the same as in Maharashtra—Bombay Act 34 of 1950, read with Guj A. L. (8th Am.) Order 1961.

Maharashtra

In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in S. 12.

(a) delete the words "head of";

(b) for the words "Different scales may be prescribed for different local areas" substitute the following, namely,—

"Progressively increasing scales may be prescribed in respect of cattle belonging to or kept by the same person according to the number of cattle impounded at a time and the number of times such cattle are impounded and different scales may be prescribed for different local areas".—Bom. Act 34 of 1950, S. 2 (2).

Orissa

In Section 12—

(a) for the words "the pound-keepers shall levy a fine" substitute the words "the Local Authority exercising jurisdiction within the area in which the pound is situated shall impose a fine";

(b) the second paragraph beginning with the words "All fines so levied" and ending with the words "may direct" shall be omitted — Orissa Acts 15 of 1948, S. 2 and Sch. I (Part A); 22 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II and 23 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II.

Tamil Nadu

In its application to the State of Tamil Nadu, in Sec. 12, for the words "Magistrate of the District" substitute the words "District Collector".— Madras Act 20 of 1957, S. 2 [11-12-1957] and Mad. Act 23 of 1960, S. 3 and Sch. I.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Section 12A

Gujarat

Section 12A is the same as in Maharashtra—See Act 11 of 1960, S. 87.

Madhya Pradesh

After Section 12, the following section shall be inserted, namely,—

"12A. Security in respect of cattle impounded.—In any local area to which the State Government may, by notification, apply this section, every pound-keeper shall, before releasing any cattle, require the owner or his agent to make, in the form to be prescribed by the State Government, a declaration regarding the ownership of such cattle and to deposit, by way of security such sum as the State Government may, by rule, prescribe. Different scales may be prescribed for different areas or different classes of cattle.

If the cattle of such owner are impounded, within six months from the date of deposit, and if the seizure is not adjudged illegal, the amount of deposit or part thereof in accordance with the rules made by the State Government in this behalf shall stand forfeited to Government.

If the cattle of such owner are not impounded as aforesaid the amount of security shall, on application by or on behalf of the depositor, be refunded to him on the expiry of such period.

A fresh security shall be required to be deposited on every occasion on which the release of cattle impounded under the Act is applied for."—C. P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 2 [6-5-1949] and Act 37 of 1956, S. 119 and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

Maharashtra

After Sec. 12, the following new section shall be inserted, namely,—

"12A. Security in respect of impounded cattle.—(1) In any local area to which the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, apply this section, every pound-keeper shall, before releasing any impounded cattle, require the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent to make, in the form to be prescribed by the State Government, a declaration regarding the ownership of such cattle and to deposit by way of security such sum as the State Government may, by rules, prescribe. Different scales may be prescribed for different areas or different classes of cattle.

(2) If any cattle belonging to such owner are impounded within a period of six months from the date on which the security is deposited, and if the seizure is not adjudged illegal, the amount of deposit or a part thereof, as may be directed by the State Government by rules made in this behalf, shall stand forfeited to the State Government. If cattle are not impounded as aforesaid, the amount of security deposit shall, on an application made by or on behalf of the depositor, be refunded to him on the expiry of that period.

(3) On every occasion on which the release of the cattle impounded under this Act is claimed, the owner of the cattle shall deposit a fresh security".— Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 5 [19-3-1959].

STATE AMENDMENTS

Section 12B

Gujarat

Section 12B is the same as in Maharashtra—See Act 11 of 1960, S. 87 and Guj. A.L.O., 1960.

Madhya Pradesh

After S. 12A, the following section shall be inserted, namely,—

"12B. Special provisions regarding cattle habitually allowed to go astray.—(1) If, on a report received from the Magistrate of the District or a local authority, it appears to the State Government that severe damage is being caused to crop, produce or other property in the local area under the jurisdiction of such Magistrate of the District or Local authority by reason of the cattle being allowed to go astray, the State Government may, by notification, apply the provisions of this section to such local area generally or in respect of such cattle or class of cattle as may be specified therein.

(2) Every owner or keeper of cattle in respect of which the provisions of sub-section (1) have been made applicable shall keep his cattle in confinement or in detention during the period between one hour after sun set and one hour after sun rise.

(3) It shall be lawful for any person to seize any such cattle found astray in such local area and to send it immediately to the nearest pound. All officers of police, shall, when required, aid in preventing resistance to such seizure and rescue from person making such seizure.

(4) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-sec. (2) on conviction for the first offence, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and in case of a second or subsequent offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with both.

(5) Any fine imposed under this section shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery provided by law, be realised by the sale of all or any of the cattle in respect of which the offence has been committed.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

(i) "to keep in confinement" shall mean to keep the cattle effectively confined within any fencing, wall or compound; and

(ii) "to keep in detention" shall mean to keep the cattle effectively detained by any rope or other sufficiently strong tie."—M. P. Act 11 of 1960, S. 2 [31-3-1960].

Maharashtra

After Sec. 12A, the following section shall be inserted, namely,—

"12B. Removal of cattle to specified places.—(1) If in any local area to which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply this section, a Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari is satisfied—

(i) that the grazing land set apart for the use of cattle of one or more villages in the taluka, tahsil or mahal under his jurisdiction is insufficient for the cattle belonging to the permanent residents of such village; or

(ii) that the crops or grass standing on any agricultural land or grazing land so set apart are likely to be damaged by cattle belonging to persons who are not residents of such village or villages and who own more than twenty heads of cattle,

he may,

(a) in any case referred to in clause (i) direct any such resident owner, by special or general order, to remove or cause to be removed all or any dry or useless cattle belonging to him to such place or places within the State and within such period as may be specified in the order, and

(b) in any case referred to in clause (ii) direct any such non-resident owner, by special or general order, to remove or cause to be removed all or any of his cattle to such place or places within the State and within such period as may be specified in the order.

(2) If the owner of the cattle fails to remove the cattle as directed under sub-section (1), the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari, as the case may be, may direct a police officer not below the rank of a head constable to remove or cause to be removed such cattle to the place or places specified in the order.

(3) If the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari is satisfied that the order issued by him under sub-section (1) is contravened by any owner or keeper of cattle, he may impose a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees. Any fine so imposed may, on failure of such owner or keeper to pay the same within the specified time, be recovered by sale of all or any of the cattle ordered to be removed under sub-section (1)".—Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 5 [19-3-1959] and Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

CHAPTER IV

DELIVERY OR SALE OF CATTLE

13. Procedure when owner claims the cattle and pays fines and charges.—If the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent appear and claim the cattle, the pound-keeper shall deliver them to him on payment of the fines and charges incurred in respect of such cattle.

The owner or his agent, on taking back the cattle, shall sign a receipt for them in the register kept by the pound-keeper.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Same as in Maharashtra—Bom. Act 13 of 1959 and Guj. A.L.O., 1960.

Madhya Pradesh

In the first paragraph of Sec. 13, add at the end the words and figures "and on deposit of the amount of security prescribed under Section 12A."—C. P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 3 [6-5-1949] and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 (1) and Sch. Pt. A

Maharashtra

To the first paragraph of S. 13, add the following, namely,—

"and on depositing the amount of security prescribed under Section 12A".—Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 6 [19-3-1959] and Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

14. Procedure if cattle be not claimed within a week.—If the cattle be not claimed within seven days from the date of their being impounded, the pound-keeper shall report the fact to the officer in charge of the nearest police station or to such other officer as the Magistrate of the District appoints in this behalf.

Such officer shall thereupon stick up in a conspicuous part of his office a notice stating—

(a) the number and description of the cattle,
(b) the place where they were seized,
(c) the place where they are impounded.

and shall cause proclamation of the same to be made by beat of drum in the village and at the market-place nearest to the place of seizure.

If the cattle be not claimed within seven days from the date of the notice, they shall be sold by public auction by the said officer, or an officer of his establishment deputed for that purpose, at such place and time and subject to such conditions as the Magistrate of the District by general or special order from time to time directs:

Provided that, if any such cattle are, in the opinion of the Magistrate of the District, not likely to fetch a fair price if sold as aforesaid, they may be disposed of in such manner as he thinks fit.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Same as in Maharashtra—Bom. Act 5 of 1931 and Act 11 of 1960, S. 87.

Haryana

Same as in Punjab—Punjab Act 18 of 1959 and C. A. 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Madhya Pradesh

In Section 14, for the existing Provisos, substitute the following Provisos, namely:—

"Provided that the Magistrate of the District or an officer authorised by him in this behalf may notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, sell infirm and maimed cattle, pigs and asses at any time after the expiry of five days from the date of their being impounded, without the issue of a notice and proclamation :

Provided further that if no person offers to purchase at a reasonable price the cattle sold under this section, the Magistrate of the District or an officer outhorised by him in this behalf may, in the manner prescribed under rules made under Section 32, dispose of such cattle, including in the case of pigs and assess destruction."—C.P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 4 [6-5-1949] and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

Maharashtra

In the proviso to Section 14, for the words "Magistrate of the District", the words "officer authorised to sell them by public auction" shall be substituted—Bombay Act 5 of 1931, S. 2 [23-5-1931].

Punjab

In Section 14, for the word "seven" where it occurs for the first time, substitute the word "three" and where it occurs for the second time, substitute the word "four"—Punjab Act 18 of 1959, S. 2 [30-4-1959].

Tamil Nadu

In Section 14, for the words "Magistrate of the District", substitute the words "District Collector"—Madras Act 20 of 1957 [11-12-1957].

Union Territory (Chandigarh)

Amendment in Section 14 is the same as in Punjab—see Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 (31 of 1966), S. 88.

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh)

In its application to territories added to Himachal Pradesh from Punjab, the amendment in S. 14 is the same as in Punjab—See C.A. 31 of 1966, S. 88.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Section 14A

Haryana

Same as in Punjab.

Punjab

In its application to Punjab, add the following after S. 14—

"14A. Procedure for speedy disposal of certain unclaimed cattle.—Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 14 where any unattached calf, kid or lamb or any decrepit, weak or maimed cattle is impounded, the pound-keeper shall report the fact to the officer specified in that section within twenty-four hours of the impounding and such officer shall, within twenty-four hours of such report and if such unattached calf, kid or lamb or cattle has not been claimed within twenty-four hours of its impounding cause them to be disposed of by auction or otherwise after a proclamation of its disposal has been made by beat of drum in the village and at the market-place nearest to the place of seizure and in such other manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that if in the opinion of the Magistrate of the district the disposal of any such unattached calf, kid or lamb or cattle is not likely to fetch a fair price, he may send such cattle to any gosadan or pinjrapole.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section the expression—

(a) "gosadan" or "pinjrapole" means a place or an institution where old, decrepit, wounded or otherwise non-productive or useless cattle are kept for the purpose of maintenance and not for any commercial purpose, whether such place or institution is managed by Government or by a private society or person; and

(b) "unattached calf, kid or lamb" means a calf, kid or lamb not attached to its mother."

—Punjab Act 18 of 1959, Sec. 3 [29-4-1959].

Union Territory (Chandigarh)

Same as in Punjab—see Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh—Added territories)—Same as in Punjab—See C.A. 31 of 1966, S. 88.

15. Delivery to owner disputing legality of seizure but making deposit.—If the owner or his agent appears and refuses to pay the said fines and expenses, on the ground that the seizure was illegal and that the owner is about to make a complaint under Section 20, then, upon deposit of the fines and charges incurred in respect of the cattle, the cattle shall be delivered to him.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Amendment in Section 15 in Gujarat Act is the same as in Maharashtra—Bombay Act 13 of 1959, S. 7 and Gujarat A. L. O., 1960.

Madhya Pradesh

For Section 15, substitute the following section, namely:—

"15. Delivery of cattle to owner disputing legality of seizure but making deposit.—If the owner or his agent appears and refuses to pay the said fines and expenses, and to deposit the said amount of security and to make the said declaration, on the ground that the seizure was illegal and that the owner is about to make a complaint under S. 20, then upon deposit of the fines and charges incurred in respect of the cattle as well as the amount of security and upon making a declaration as required by S. 12A, the cattle shall be delivered to him."—C.P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 5 [6-5-1949] and M.P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

Maharashtra

Section 15 shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section, and after sub-section (1), as so renumbered, insert the following sub-section, namely:—

"(2) If on any complaint referred to in sub-section (1) the seizure is declared to be lawful, or if the owner or his agent fails to make such complaint within a period of four weeks from the date of delivery of the cattle to him, the pound-keeper shall require such owner or agent to make a declaration and to deposit the amount of security as required by Sec. 12A. If the owner or his agent fails to make such declaration or to deposit such amount, the cattle delivered to him under sub-section (1) shall be seized again for the purposes of Section 16."—Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 7 [19-3-1959] and Maharashtra A.L.O., 1961.

16. Procedure when owner refuses or omits to pay the fines and expenses.—If the owner or his agent appear and refuse or omit to pay or (in the case mentioned in Section 15) to deposit the said fines and expenses, the cattle, or as many of them as may be necessary, shall be sold by public auction by such officer at such place and time, and subject to such conditions, as are referred to in Section 14.

Deduction of fines and expenses.—The fines leviable and the expenses of feeding and watering, together with the expenses of sale, if any, shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale.

Delivery of unsold cattle and balance of proceeds.—The remaining cattle and the balance of the purchase money, if any, shall be delivered to the owner or his agent, together with an account showing—

(a) the number of cattle seized,
(b) the time during which they have been impounded,
(c) the amount of fines and charges incurred,
(d) the number of cattle sold,
(e) the proceeds of sale, and
(f) the manner in which those proceeds have been disposed of.

Receipts.—The owner or his agent shall give a receipt for the cattle delivered to him and for the balance of the purchase money (if any) paid to him according to such account.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Amendment in S. 16 is the same as in Maharashtra—Bom. Act 13 of 1959 and Guj. A.L.O., 1960.

Madhya Pradesh

Same as the amendment made in Maharashtra below—C. P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 6 [6-5-1949] and M.P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

Maharashtra

In Section 16, for the first and second paragraphs, substitute the following new paragraphs, namely:—

"If the owner or his agent appears and refuses or omits to pay the said fines and expenses and to deposit the said amount of security or (in the case mentioned in S. 15) to deposit the said fines, expenses and amount of security or to make a declaration as required by S. 12A, the cattle or as many of them as may be necessary, shall be sold by public auction by such officer, at such place and time, and subject to such conditions, as are referred to in S. 14, or disposed of in accordance with the provisions therein.

The fines leviable and the expenses of feeding and watering together with the expenses of sale, if any, and the amount of security prescribed under S. 12A shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale."—Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 8 [19-3-1959] and Maharashtra A.L.O., 1961.

17. Disposal of fines, expenses and surplus proceeds of sales.—The officer by whom the sale was made shall send to the Magistrate of the District the fines so deducted.

The charges for feeding and watering deducted under Section 16 shall be paid over to the pound-keeper, who shall also retain and appropriate all sums received by him on account of such charges under section 13.

The surplus unclaimed proceeds of the sale of cattle shall be sent to the Magistrate of the District, who shall hold them in deposit for three months and if no claim thereto be preferred and established within that period, shall, at its expiry, [a][be deemed to hold them as part of the revenues of the State].

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "dispose of them as hereinafter provided".

STATE AMENDMENTS

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh)

In its application to territories added to Himachal Pradesh by Act 31 of 1966, amendment in S. 17 is the same as in Punjab—Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

18. Application of fines and unclaimed proceeds of sale.—[Repealed by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.]

STATE AMENDMENT

Orissa

After Section 17, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"18. All sums received on account of fines and the unclaimed proceeds of the sale of cattle shall be sent to the Local Authority concerned and out of those sums there shall be paid—

(a) the remuneration of the pound-keepers;

(b) the expenses incurred for the construction and maintenance of pounds, or for any other purposes connected with the execution of this Act and the surplus, if any, shall be credited to the fund of the said Local Authority."—Orissa Acts 15 of 1948, S. 2 and Sch. I (Part A); 22 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II; and 23 of 1950, S. 2 and Sch. II.

19. Officers and pound-keepers not to purchase cattle at sales under Act.—No officer of police or other officer or pound-keeper appointed under the provisions herein contained shall, directly or indirectly, purchase any cattle at a sale under this Act.

Pound-keepers when not to release impounded cattle.—No pound-keeper shall release or deliver any impounded cattle otherwise than in accordance with the former part of this Chapter, unless such release or delivery is ordered by a Magistrate or Civil Court.

CHAPTER V[a]

COMPLAINTS OF ILLEGAL SEIZURE OR DETENTION

20. Power to make complaints.—Any person whose cattle have been seized under this Act, or, having been so seized, have been detained in contravention of this Act, may, at any time within ten days from the date of seizure, make a complaint[b] to the Magistrate of the District or any Magistrate authorized to receive and try charges without reference by the Magistrate of the District.

[a] Substituted for the original Chapter V by the Cattle-trespass Act (1871), Amendment Act, 1891 (I of 1891), S. 6.

Section 20 — Note 1 (contd.)

(a) An act in respect of which a complaint could be made under this section was held not to be an offence in the cases decided under the Criminal P. C. of 1882; and hence a request for action against such act was not a complaint within the meaning of that Act. (2) The addition of the words "it also includes any Act in respect of which a complaint may be made under Section 20 of the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871" in the definition of the word "offence" in Section 4 (1) (o), Criminal P. C. 1898, makes it clear that such an act is an offence. (6) The commission of an offence under Section 20 would not give rise to the right of private defence of property. The owner of the cattle, therefore, cannot plead this right in defence of charges of offences like rioting, hurt, etc., alleged to be committed by him while rescuing by force cattle being illegally taken away to the pound although such illegal act of taking away the cattle to the pound is an offence under Section 20, Cattle Trespass Act. [b] The term "offence", as defined by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), S. 4 (1) (o), includes any act in respect of which a complaint may be made under this section. Offences under this section may be tried in a summary way, see Criminal P. C., 1898, S. 260 (1) (m). In Assam and Uttar Pradesh, offences under Ss. 20 to 24 of this part are triable by Panchayati Adalats—see Assam Act 24 of 1959, S. 95 (2) and U.P. Act 26 of 1947, S. 52 (1) (b). In Manipur, Hill Areas, offences under Ss. 24, 26 and 27 and in West Bengal those under Ss. 26 and 27 are triable by village Courts and Nyaya Panchayats—see C.A. 80 of 1956, S. 20 and West Bengal Act 1 of 1957, S. 71 and Sch. III: offences under Ss. 24 and 26 are triable by a Nyaya Panchayat in Andhra Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh; by a Gram Cutcherry in Bihar and by a Gram Panchayat in Punjab—see Andhra Pradesh Act 2 of 1964, S. 195 (1) (d); Madhya Pradesh Act 7 of 1962, S. 228; Bihar Act, S. 62 (2); and Punjab Act, 4 of 1953, S. 38, Sch. Amendment in S. 20 is the same as in Punjab—see Act 31 of 1966, S. 88 [1-11-1966].

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh)

Amendment in S. 20, in its application to added territories, is the same as in Punjab—See Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

21. Procedure on complaint.—The complaint shall be made by the complainant in person, or by an agent personally acquainted with the circumstances. It may be either in writing or verbal. If it be verbal, the substance of it shall be taken down in writing by the Magistrate.

If the Magistrate, on examining the complainant or his agent, sees reason to believe the complaint to be well founded, he shall summon the person complained against, and make an enquiry into the case.

22. Compensation for illegal seizure or detention.—If the seizure or detention be adjudged illegal, the Magistrate shall award to the complainant, for the loss caused by the seizure or detention, reasonable compensation, not exceeding one hundred rupees, to be paid by the person who made the seizure or detained the cattle together with all fines paid and expenses incurred by the complainant in procuring the release of the cattle.

AIR 1967 Orissa 150 (151): 1967 Cr LJ 1354: 33 Cut LT 226.

Section 21 — Note 1

(1) The expression 'agent personally acquainted' in Section 21 means an agent or servant who could be said to have acted as an agent, such as a kamdar who, if not present at the time of seizure, had received information of it soon after the event. It cannot, however, include an agent, who lives at a distance and who has received information of the seizure at second hand. Where a complaint is made by a wrong person, there is no complaint at all and the Court has no jurisdiction to inquire into the matter. ('31) AIR 1931 Nag 98 (99): 27 Nag LR 167: 32 Cri L Jour 896.

illegal; he should dispose of the case himself under Section 22. ('75) 23 Suth WR (Cr) 2 (3).

(2) Where the seizure and detention of cattle were wrongful and illegal, the jurisdiction of the Magistrate to grant compensation under this section is not affected even if the person detaining them happens to be a Forest Officer who claims to act under the colour of the Forest Act, if the seizure and detention had nothing to do with any forest. ('38) AIR 1938 Mad 820 (821): 39 Cri L Jour 956 (1).

(3) Where an accused person was found to have loosened the complainant's cattle at night and to have driven them to the pound with the object of sharing with the pound-keeper the fees to be paid for the release: Held, that the accused was not liable under this section inasmuch as there was no illegal seizure and detention of the cattle. The accused was ordered to be charged and tried for theft. ('95) 22 Cal 139 (142).

(4) The fact that the damage was likely to be very small does not make the seizure of the cattle illegal though it may be unreasonable. Hence, compensation under Section 22 cannot be awarded in such cases. ('39) 1939 Oudh WN 150 (151, 152).

(5) The person who is held liable under Section 22 of the Act is not 'an accused' nor is he 'convicted' of the 'offence'. Under Section 22 compensation together with fines and expenses, can only be ordered against the person who is adjudged liable. This money is recoverable under Section 23 of the Act as if it were a fine. ('49) AIR 1949 Nag 117 (118): 50 Cri L Jour 289: ILR (1948) Nag 620.

(7) Proceedings under, are not criminal Provisions in Criminal P. C. with regard to appeals do not apply to order under Section 22. AIR 1962 Madh Pra 273 (274): 1962 (2) Cri LJ 375: 1962 Jab LJ 124 (DB).

(8) Under Rajasthan Panchayat Act though a Nyaya Panchayat can take cognizance of an offence under the Cattle Trespass Act yet a Panchayat Samiti has no such power and cannot pass an order of the nature provided by Section 22. 1965 Raj LW 486 (486): ILR (1965) 15 Raj 1058.

2. Appeal.— (1) By Section 4 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the word "offence" includes an act in respect of which a complaint may be made under Section 20 of the Cattle-Trespass Act. It follows, therefore, that a person against whom an order under Section 22 of the Cattle-Trespass Act is made is "a person convicted on a trial." An 'appeal against the conviction lies, therefore, under Ss. 407 and 408 of the Criminal P. C. ('05) 1 Weir 712 (713) * ('22) AIR 1922 Bom 191 (191): 46 Bom 58: 22 Cri L Jour 624. 3. Compensation.— (1) Compensation for wrongful seizure of cattle under Section 22 should be by way of reasonable compensation for the costs caused by the seizure and detention of cattle; and not by way of penalty, or of an award of general damages to the complainant. ('78) 1878 Pun Re (Cr) No. 25, p. 65 (65).

(2) There is a difference in the nature of the orders under Sections 22 and 24. A person hauled up for forcible seizure of cattle is an accused but under Section 22 only a reasonable compensation is awarded. ('51) AIR 1951 Nag 287 (288): ILR (1950) Nag 393.

(3) In awarding compensation for illegal seizure of cattle, the complainant's costs incurred in prosecuting his complaint may be included in the compensation awarded. (1872-92) 1872-92 Low Bur Rul 515.

(4) Compensation to be awarded under Section 22 would include the amount which the complainant had to spend for procuring the release of cattle. ('49) AIR 1949 Nag 136 (137): 50 Cri L Jour 335.

(5) Court-fees paid by the Complainant may form part of the compensation. ('78) 2 Cri L Rep 507 (508) * ('05) 1 Weir 715 (715).

(6) Under the head of compensation for the loss caused by the seizure and detention of cattle, it is open to a Magistrate to include the process fees. ('05) 1 Weir 715 (715).

(7) Section 22 does not contemplate the award of conpensation for damage to the reputation of the complainant. ('78) 1878 Pun Re (Cr) No. 37, p. 87 (88).

(9) Where some compensation was awarded in addition to the sum allowed on account of the fines and "expenses" or other charges incurred in procuring the release of the cattle, held that the High Court would not consider the sufficiency or insufficiency of the amount allowed. ('05) 1 Weir 715 (716).

(10) High Court will interfere in cases where the compensation awarded is excessive. ('51) AIR 1951 Orissa 40 (41): ILR (1950) Cut 149: 52 Cri L Jour 15.

(11) Where an order under Section 22 directed that the amount mentioned be paid to the complainant as compensation for the cost and damages incurred by him, and the words with which the decretal part of the judgment began were "I therefore fine the accused": held that latter portion was a mere surplusage and that, although the order was inaccurately worded, the intention to award compensation was clear. ('05) 1 Weir 715 (716).

(12) An order of compensation by a Magistrate, incompetent to entertain a complaint under Section 20, is illegal and the illegality is not curable under Sec. 529 or 537, Cr. P. C. ('51) AIR 1951 Orissa 40 (40): ILR (1950) Cut 149: 52 Cri L Jour 15.

4. Compensation, to whom awarded.— (1) Compensation may be awarded to owner of the cattle and not to agent filing complaint. ('29) AIR 1929 Nag 152 (153): 26 Nag LR 201: 30 Cri L Jour 633.

5. Compensation order against several persons — Joint liability.—(1) Where compensation is ordered to be paid by two persons without specifying the proportionate amount payable by each they are jointly and severally liable to pay it. ('87) 14 Cal 175 (176).

6. "Fines and expenses".— (1) A Magistrate is not authorised under Section 22 to fine, but only to award compensation. But he is also authorised to add to the compensation, fines and expenses paid to the pound keeper by the owner on releasing the cattle and order them to be paid by the party who made the seizure. ('05) 1 Weir 710 (710).

7. Proceeding under Section 22, nature of.— (1) A proceeding under Section 22 is not a regular criminal proceeding but a quasi-civil proceeding in which a Magistrate is authorised to assess and enforce, in a summary manner, compensation for an injury, for which a civil action might be brought. ('87) 14 Cal 175 (176).

(2) The summary procedure laid down in Chapter XXII of the Criminal P. C., is applicable to the trial of offences under Section 22. ('96) 1896 All WN 136 (136).

Union Territory (Chandigarh)

Amendment in S. 24 is the same as in Punjab—See Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh added territories)—Amendment in S. 24 same as in Punjab.

West Bengal

In S. 24, section shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) and to it following be added as sub-section (2):—(2) Offences under this section shall be cognizable and bailable—West Bengal Act 4 of 1956, S. 3 [16-1-1956].

STATE AMENDMENT

Section 24A

Uttar Pradesh

After Section 24, the following section shall be inserted:—

"24A. Compounding of offences under Section 24.—The offences punishable under Section 24 may, with the permission of the Court before which any prosecution for such offence is pending, be compounded—

(a) where the cattle is rescued after seizure from a pound, by the local authority owning or maintaining the pound or, if such local authority has nominated any person in that behalf, by such person; and

(b) in other cases, by the person who was opposed in seizing the cattle or, as the case may be, from whom the cattle was rescued."—U.P. Act 12 of 1957, S. 3 [30-3-1957].

---

enough that the cattle were removed from the pound or from a person taking or about to take them to a pound. The cattle must be proved to be liable to seizure under this Act. ('18) AIR 1918 Pat 649 (650): 19 Cri L Jour 157 * ('26) AIR 1926 All 276 (276): 27 Cri L Jour 313.

(2) Where a conviction was not justified under Section 24 and especially where the fine was arbitrary, High Court interfered to set aside the conviction is revision. ('30) AIR 1930 Oudh 250 (251): 6 Luck 26: 31 Cri L Jour 1015.

(3) Where an act is punishable both under the Penal Code and this Act, the accused can be punished only under one of the two enactments and not both. A person convicted for theft under the Penal Code cannot be convicted under Section 24 of this Act. ('31) AIR 1931 Mad 18 (19): 32 Cri L Jour 354.

(4) Where a charge is framed under Section 379, Penal Code, and the defence is directed only to that charge, conviction for an offence under Section 24 of this Act is illegal in the absence of the framing of another charge and giving proper opportunity to produce evidence. ('18) AIR 1918 Pat 628 (630): 19 Cri L Jour 202.

(5) A person proceeded against under Section 24 is an accused and the result of the proceedings is either acquittal or conviction. ('51) AIR 1951 Nag 287 (288): ILR (1950) Nag 393.

(6) Conviction under Section 24 cannot be set aside merely for omission to record a finding of damage. AIR 1963 Pat 199 (200): 1963 (1) Cri LJ 607 (DB). (AIR 1920 Pat 832, Commented upon.)

(7) An offence under Section 24 is triable by Panchayati Adalat, in J. and K. State. But when the offence is along with offences under Ss. 323 and 427, I. P. C., as Panchayati Adalat would not try an offence under Section 427, I. P. C. the magistrate was competent to try the entire case. (1963) Kash LJ 45 (48).

3. Offence under Penal Code.— (1) A conviction under Section 24 is not essential before any offence under the Penal Code connected with such an offence can be taken into consideration. ('45) AIR 1945 Oudh 116 (117).

(2) "Offence" in Section 441, Penal Code includes offence under Section 24 of this Act. ('27) AIR 1927 Lah 495 (496): 8 Lah 331: 28 Cri L Jour 665.

(3) Entering the cattle pound with intent to commit an offence under Sec. 24 amounts to criminal trespass within Section 447, Penal Code. ('27) AIR 1927 Lah 495 (496): 8 Lah 331: 28 Cri L Jour 665.

(4) Accused prosecuted under Ss. 143, 447, Penal Code and Section 24 Cattle Trespass Act when acquired on all those charges cannot be convicted under S. 426, Penal Code when the offence of mischief did not form part of the same transaction. 1963 (2) Cri LJ 112 (113) (Tripura).

Section 24 (contd.)

4. Offence whether compoundable.— (1) Offence under Section 24 is not compoundable. ('19) AIR 1919 All 31 (31): 42 All 202: 21 Cri L Jour 305 * ('49) AIR 1949 Mad 501 (502): 50 Cri L Jour 778. (Even with the permission of the Court.)

5. Opposing seizure.— (1) Opposition to unlawful seizure of cattle is not an offence punishable under Section 24. ('91) 1891 Pun Re (Cr) No. 4, p. 10 (11).

(2) To resist the seizure of the cattle, which escaped from pound and which were found grazing in charge of their owner, is not an offence punishable under Section 24. ('86) Rat. Un-Cr. C 294 (295).

(3) Where an owner of the cattle opposes the seizure of the cattle trespassing a land, on the ground that he has a title over that land, the question of title does not affect the right of the person in exclusive possession of the land to seize the cattle. ('16) AIR 1916 Lah 281 (281): 1916 Pun Re (Cr) No. 3: 17 Cri L Jour 63.

(4) Where no damage is done by the cattle trespassing upon the fields of another, no offence is committed under S. 24 by persons who forcibly oppose their seizure and removal to the pound. ('49) AIR 1949 All 180 (183): ILR (1949) All 211: 50 Cri L Jour 232.

(5) In cases where the "seizure of the cattle" is not proved but damage of the crop is proved, a conviction under S. 426, I. P. C., could be altered into one under Section 24, in an appeal under Section 423 (1) (b), Cr. P. C. ('54) AIR 1954 Orissa 145 (148): ILR (1953) Cut 713: 1954 Cri L Jour 883 (DB).

(6) Section 57 of the Madras Forest Act attracts the provisions of Section 11 of the Cattle Trespass Act and any cattle trespassing in a reserved forest will be deemed to be cattle doing damage to a public plantation within the meaning of Sec. 11 of the Cattle-Trespass Act. Such cattle may be seized and impounded by any forest officer. Consequently Section 24 of the Cattle-Trespass Act also will apply when the seizure is forcibly opposed and the person so opposing may be convicted by a Magistrate under that section. ('58) AIR 1958 Mad 312 (313): ILR (1958) Mad 507: 1958 Cri L Jour 779.

(2) Offence under Section 24 would be committed, only if the cattle liable to be seized under Section 10 are rescued. There should, therefore, be a specific finding that the cattle rescued were liable to be seized under Section 10. But the absence of a specific findings would not entile the accused to an acquittal if it can be reasonably inferred from the evidence in the case. The absence of such a finding would at the worst be a curable irregularity. ('54) AIR 1954 Mad 135 (136): 1954 Cri L Jour 95.

(3) 'Rescue' in Section 24 includes driving away cattle by shouts and cries. ('23) AIR 1923 Mad 608 (608): 24 Cri L Jour 456.

(4) A person who removes cattle from the pound without paying the fees has undoubtedly the dishonest intention of escaping from the payments. Such removal amounts to theft. ('31) AIR 1931 Mad 18 (19): 32 Cri L Jour 354.

[But see ('91) 1 Weir 716 (716). (Removing of cattle from a pound with intention of returning it to the owner is an offence punishable under Section 24 and not of theft in a building.)]

(5) The offence of causing hurt is a separate offence from that of rescuing cattle and separate sentence may legally be passed. ('28) AIR 1928 Mad 18 (18): 28 Cri L Jour 982.

(6) Cattle grazing in Zamindari forest treated for some purposes as reserve forest under Sections 26 and 32, Madras Forest Act — Seizure of cattle under orders of officer in charge of forest under Zamindar who is occupier of such forest — Seizure is lawful within Section 10 — Accused rescuing cattle commit offence under Section 24. ('48) AIR 1948 Mad 467 (468): 48 Cri L Jour 689.

(7) Where six accused forming an unlawful assembly and in pursuance of their common object used force and inflicted injuries in rescuing their cattle which were lawfully being taken to the pound, the accused are guilty of offence under Sec. 24 and other sections of the I. P. Code. Even if the motive of each group was to release its own cattle nevertheless the object to rescue remains common. ('58) AIR 1958 All 348 (351): 1958 Cri L Jour 588.

(8) Where a person knowing that the cattle have not caused any damage seizes them and drives them to a cattle pound with the intention to compel the cattle owner to incur expenditure is getting the cattle released, the cattle owner gets a right of private defence of property. AIR 1963 Orissa 52 (53): 1963 (1) Cri LJ 308: 28 Cut LT 613. (AIR 1943 Oudh 280; 24 WR (Cr) 7: AIR 1949 All 180, Dissented.)

7. Stay of proceedings.— (1) An offence under Section 24 falls within Chapter XVII of the Indian Penal Code and hence proceedings in respect of that offence can be stayed under Section 5 of the Madras Preservation of Private Forests Act (27 of 1949). ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 999 (999): 1953 Cri L Jour 1864.

8. Withdrawal of complaint.— (1) An offence under this section is triable as a summons case. Hence, a complaint of such an offence can be withdrawn under section 248, Cr. P. C. ('19) AIR 1919 All 31 (31): 42 All 202: 21 Cri L Jour 305.

[a]25. Recovery of penalty for mischief committed by causing cattle to trespass.—Any fine imposed [b][under the next following section or] for the offence of mischief by causing cattle to trespass on any land may be recovered by sale of all or any of the cattle by which the trespass was committed, whether they were seized in the act of trespassing or not, and whether they are the property of the person convicted of the offence, or were only in his charge when the trespass was committed.

[a] As to the application of S. 25 in the case of the cattle trespassing on a railway, see the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), S. 125 (3).

[b] Inserted by the Cattle-trespass Act (1871), Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 7.

26. Penalty for damage caused to land or crops or public roads by pigs.—Any owner or keeper of pigs who, through neglect or otherwise, damages or causes or permits to be damaged any land, or any crop or produce of land, or any public road[a], by allowing such pigs to trespass thereon, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with fine not exceeding ten rupees.

[b][°[The State Government], by notification[c] in the Official Gazette, may from time to time, with respect to any local area specified in the notification, direct that the foregoing portion of this section shall be read as if it had reference to cattle generally, or to cattle of a kind described in the notification, instead of to pigs only, or as if the words "fifty rupees" were substituted for the words "ten rupees", or as if there were both such reference and such substitution.]

[d][° ° ° °]

[a] "Public road" includes a railway, see the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), S. 125 (4).

[b] Inserted by the Cattle-trespass Act (1871), Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 8.

Section 24 — Note 8 (contd.)

(2) Offence under this section joined with Section 323, Penal Code — Offence under Penal Code compounded — Offence under this section should be deemed to be withdrawn. ('19) AIR 1919 All 31 (31): 42 All 202: 21 Cri L Jour 305.

Section 25 — Note 1

(1) As to application of fine recovered under this section, see Section 28.

(2) Sub-section (3) of Section 125, Railways Act, 1890, runs as follows: — "Any fine imposed under this section may, if the Court so directs, be recovered in manner provided by Section 25 of the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871."

Section 26 — Note 1

(1) As to application of fine recovered under this section, see Section 28.

(2) Seciton 125, sub-sections (1) and (2) Railways Act, (1890) run as follows: "(1) The owner or person in charge of any cattle straying on a railway provided with fences suitable for the exclusion of cattle shall be punished with fine which may extend to five rupees for each head of cattle in addition to any amount which may have been recovered or may be recoverable under the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871.

(2) If any cattle are wilfully driven, or knowingly permitted to be, on any railway otherwise than for the purpose of lawfully crossing the railway or for any other lawful purpose, the person in charge of the cattle, or at the option of the railway administration, the owner of the cattle shall be punished with fine which may extend to ten rupees for each head of cattle, in addition to any amount which may have been recovered or may be recoverable under the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871."

(3) Sub-section (4) of Section 125, Railways Act, 1890, runs as follows:— "The expression 'public road' in Sections 11 and 26 of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, shall be deemed to include a railway, and any railway servant may exercise the powers conferred on officers of police by the former of those sections."

(4) Before any person can be convicted under Section 26, prosecution must establish that owner has through neglect or otherwise, damaged or caused or permitted to be damaged land, etc., by allowing his cattle to trespass thereon. A personal neglect on the part of the owner, and his allowing his cattle to trespass must, if they cannot be inferred from the circumstances of the case, be shown affirmatively to exist. ('96) Rat Un Cr C 867: Cr Rg 36 of 1896.

[d] The last paragraph was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1914 (10 of 1914).

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Same as in Maharashtra—See Act 11 of 1960, S. 87.

Same as in Punjab—Punjab Act 25 of 1964 and C.A. 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Maharashtra

In Section 26—

(a) number the first paragraph as sub-section (1) of Section 26.

(b) after sub-section (1) so numbered, insert the following:—

"(2) The Magistrate trying the offence under sub-section (1) may order,—

(a) that the accused shall pay such compensation, not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees, as the Magistrate considers reasonable, to any person for any damage proved to have been caused to his crop or other produce of land by the accused committing the offence;

(b) that the pigs in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be forfeited to the State Government.

(3) Any compensation awarded under sub-section (2) may be recovered as if it was a fine imposed under this section."

(c) number the second paragraph as sub-section (4) of Section 26 and in sub-section (4) so numbered delete the words "the foregoing portion of".

—Bom. Act 34 of 1950, S. 2 (3) [6-11-1950].

Punjab

(i) Renumber S. 26 as sub-section (1) thereof and add the following sub-section:—

"(2) While convicting such person, the Magistrate may also—

(a) require him to pay to the person whose land, crop or produce has been damaged such compensation, not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees, as may be considered reasonable, and

(b) order that the cattle in respect of which the offence has been committed shall, in addition to pay other penalty imposed, be forfeited to the State."

—Punjab Act 24 of 1952, S. 5 [3-12-1952].

(ii) Omit the words "before a Magistrate"—Punjab Act 25 of 1964, S. 2 and Sch. Pt. II [2-10-1964].

Union Territory (Chandigarh)

Amendments in S. 26 are the same as in Punjab—Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Union Territory (Himachal Pradesh)

Added Territories: Amendments in S. 26 are the same as in Punjab — See Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Uttar Pradesh

For S. 26, substitute the following:—

"26. Penalty for damage caused to land by cattle.—Any owner, keeper or attendant of cattle, who through neglect or otherwise, damages or causes or permits to be damaged any land, or any crop or produce of land by allowing such cattle to trespass thereon, shall, on conviction before the Magistrate, be liable to a fine not less than Rs. 10 but not exceeding Rs. 250 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both."

—U.P. Act 7 of 1954, S. 2 [26-3-1954].

Note.—Section 3 of the Cattle-Trespass (U.P. Amendment Act 7 of 1954) is as follows:—

"3. The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, with respect to any local area specified in the notification, declare that Section 26 of the principal Act, as amended by this Act and Sec. 28 of the principal Act, shall stand further amended and modified as specified in the Schedule and with effect from the date of the said declaration the principal Act shall stand amended accordingly.

SCHEDULE

1. For Sec. 26 of the principal Act, as amended by this Act, the following shall be substituted:—

"26. Penalty for damage caused to land by cattle.—Any owner, keeper or attendant of cattle, who through neglect or otherwise, damages or causes or permits to be damaged any land or any crop or produce of land by allowing such cattle to trespass thereon, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable—

(a) for the first offence to a fine not less than Rs. 10, but not exceeding Rs. 250 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both,

(b) for the second or subsequent offence to an imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months and fine not exceeding Rs. 500."

2. For Section 28 of the principal Act, the following shall be substituted:—

"28. Applications of fines recovered under Section 25, 26 or 27.—All fines recovered under Section 25, clause (a) of Section 26, or Section 27 may be appropriated in whole or in part as compensation for loss or damage proved to the satisfaction of the convicting Magistrate."—U.P. Act 7 of 1954, S. 3.

West Bengal

For Section 26, substitute—

"26. Penalty for damage caused to land or crop or public road by cattle.—Any owner or keeper of cattle who through neglect or otherwise, damages or causes or permits to be damaged any land or any public road by allowing such cattle to trespass thereon, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees."—West Bengal Act 4 of 1956, S. 4 [16-1-1956].

STATE AMENDMENT

Section 26A.

Madhya Pradesh

After Section 26, insert the following section, namely:—

"26A. Cognizance of offence.—No Court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under Section 26 except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence made by the person aggrieved by such offence or by a person who is a public servant as defined in Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860."—C.P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 9 [6-5-1949] and M.P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

27. Penalty on pound-keeper failing to perform duties.—Any pound-keeper releasing or purchasing or delivering cattle contrary to the provisions of Section 19, or omitting to provide any impounded cattle with sufficient food and water, or failing to perform any of the other duties imposed upon him by this Act, shall, over and above any other penalty to which he may be liable, be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

---

Section 27 — Note 1

(1) A person, who is not himself a pound-keeper but has been merely engaged by a Police Patel, who was ex-officio the pound-keeper, is not a pound-keeper within the meaning of Section 27, and cannot, therefore, be convicted under that section. ('72) 9 Bom HCR (AC) 164 (165).

(2) Where the pound-keeper falsifies accounts, the offence committed does not fall under Section 27, but falls under Sections 409 and 511 of the Penal Code. ('96) Rat Un Cr C 632: Cr Rg 2 of 1893.

(3) As to application of fine recovered under section, see Section 28.

Such fines may be recovered by deductions from the pound-keeper's salary.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Haryana

Same as in Punjab—Punjab Act 25 of 1964 and C. A. 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Punjab

In S. 27, omit the words "'before a Magistrate"—Punjab Act 25 of 1964, S. 2 and Sch. Pt. II [2-10-1964].

Union Territory (Chandigarh)

Amendment in S. 27 is the same as in Punjab—Punjab Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

Union Territory (H. P.)

Added Territories: Amendment in S. 27 is the same as in Punjab — Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.

28. Application of fines recovered under Section 25, 26 or 27.—All fines recovered under Section 25, Section 26 or Section 27 may be appropriated in whole or in part as compensation for loss or damage proved to the satisfaction of the convicting Magistrate.

STATE AMENDMENT

Uttar Pradesh

For Section 28 as may be substituted in its application to Uttar Pradesh, see under "Uttar Pradesh" in State Amendments under Section 26.

STATE AMENDMENT

Section 28A.

Gujarat

Section 28A is the same in Gujarat as in Maharashtra—Bombay Act 34 of 1950, Gujarat A.L. (Eighth Amendment) Order, 1961.

Maharashtra

After Section 28, insert the following section:—

"28A Offence under Section 26 to be cognizable.—The offence under Section 26 shall be cognizable."—Bombay Act 34 of 1950, S. 2 (4).

CHAPTER VII
SUITS FOR COMPENSATION

29. Saving of right to sue for compensation.—Nothing herein contained prohibits any person whose crops or other produce of land have been damaged by trespass of cattle from suing for compensation in any competent Court.

Section 28 — Note 1

(1) Where the accused have been sentenced to a fine of Rs. 10 and they have been also ordered to pay Rs. 10 as compensation to the complainant the manner in which the Magistrate has worded the order is irregular and properly speaking he should have imposed a fine of Rs. 20 and under Section 28 awarded Rs. 10 as compensation to the complainant out of the fine, if recovered. (1951) 4 Sau LR 245 (DB).

Section 29 — Note 1

(1) In a suit for damages for illegal seizure of cattle the onus lies on defendant to prove that the seizure was justifiable. Such a suit is not barred by reason of Chapter 5. ('18) AIR 1918 Nag 124 (125) * ('71) 15 Suth WR 279 (280) * ('89) 16 Cal 159 (160). (2 Cal L Rep 344, Dissented from.)

(2) Where in a suit against joint tortfeasors for damages, the plaintiff compromises with some of them without releasing the entire cause of action, he is not debarred from getting a decree against the others. ('42) AIR 1942 Oudh 73 (74): 17 Luck 284.

(3) In a suit for damages under this section it was alleged that the defendants dishonestly let loose their cattle. It was not alleged that the defendants did so with a view to have the defendant's crops grazed. It was not found that the defendants had acted jointly or in concert. The extent of damage caused by the cattle of each defendant was not known. It was held that a joint decree for all the damages against all the defendants could not be passed. Further, in the absence of evidence to show what damages were caused by the cattle of each defendant, only nominal damages could be awarded against each defendant. ('42) AIR 1942 Oudh 73 (74, 75): 17 Luck 284.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

Section 29 is the same as in Maharashtra.—Bom. Act 13 of 1959 and Guj. A. L. (8th Am.) Order, 1961.

Maharashtra

For the existing Section 29, substitute the following section, namely,—

"29. Saving of right to sue for compensation.—Nothing herein contained prohibits any person whose property, crops or other produce of land have been damaged or to whom any hurt or injury or obstruction has been caused by trespass of cattle from suing for compensation in any competent Court".—Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 10 [19-3-1959] and Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

Madhya Pradesh

In Section 29 for the words "whose crops or other produce of land have been damaged" substitute the words "whose property, crops or other produce of land have been damaged or to whom any hurt or injury or obstruction has been caused".—C. P. and Berar Act 12 of 1935, S. 4 [30-3-1935] and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

30. Set-off.—Any compensation paid to such person under this Act by order of the convicting Magistrate shall be set-off and deducted from any sum claimed by or awarded to him as compensation in such suit.

CHAPTER VIII[a]

SUPPLEMENTAL

31. Power for State Government to transfer certain functions to local authority.—The °[State Government] may, from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette,—

(a) transfer to any local authority within any part of the territories under its administration in which this Act is in operation, all or any of the functions of the °[State Government] or the Magistrate of the District under this Act, within the local area subject to the jurisdiction of the local authority.

[b][° ° ° ° ° °]

[a] Chapter VIII was added by the Cattle-trespass Act (1871) Amendment Act, 1891 (1 of 1891), S. 9.

[b] Originally there were the following words:— "Or (b) direct that the whole or any part of the surplus accruing in any district under Sec. 18 of this Act shall be placed to the credit of such local fund or funds as may be formed for any local area or local areas comprised in that district, [and may from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, cancel or vary any notification under this section]. The bracketed words were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1914 (10 of 1914) and the rest by A. O., 1937.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Madhya Pradesh

In Section 31, add the following Proviso to Clause (a)—

"Provided that if in any area any of the functions of the State Government or the Magistrate of the District under this Act were, immediately before the commencement of the Madhya Pradesh Extension of Laws Act, 1958, being performed by a local authority, then on such commencement all such functions shall be deemed to have been transferred to such local authority under this section."— M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 (1) and Sch. (Part A).

Tamil Nadu

In Section 31, for the words "Magistrate of the District" substitute the words "District Collector".—Madras Act 20 of 1957, S. 2 [11-12-1957].

STATE AMENDMENTS

Section 32

Andhra Pradesh

In its application to the State of Andhra Pradesh, after Section 31, add the following section—

"32. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) All rules made under this section shall, as soon as may be, after they are made, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly and shall be subject to such modifications, whether by way of repeal or amendment, as the Legisaltive Assembly may make within fourteen days thereafter during the session in which they are so placed".—A. P. Act 16 of 1959, S. 6 [15-10-1962].

Gujarat

Section 32 is the same in Gujarat as in Maharashtra.—Bom. Act 13 of 1959 read with Guj. A. L. (8th Am.) Order, 1961.

Maharashtra

After Section 31, insert the following new section—

"32. Powter to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying into effect the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such rules may provide for the following matters, namely,—

(i) the form of, and the procedure relating to the declaration, and the scales of deposits to be made, under Section 12A;

(ii) the procedure regulating the making of security deposits, custody and refund thereof;

(iii) the manner in which any cattle may be disposed of;

(iv) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

(3) The power to make rules under this section shall be subject to the condition of previous publication in the Official Gazette.

(4) All rules made under this section shall be laid before each House of the Legislature as soon as may be after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid, or the session immediately following".—Bom. Act 13 of 1959, S. 11 [19-3-1959] and Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

Madhya Pradesh

After Section 31, insert the following section—

"32. Power to make rules.—The State Government may make rules—

(a) prescribing the form of, and the procedure relating to the making of, the declaration and the scales of deposit to be made under Section 12A;

(b) prescribing the procedure regulating the making of security deposit, custody and refund thereof;

(c) the manner in which any cattle may be disposed of".

—C. P. and Berar Act 27 of 1949, S. 10 [6-5-1949] and M. P. Act 23 of 1958, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. A.

Tamil Nadu

In its application to the territories added to the State by Act 56 of 1959, S. 32 added is the same as in Andhra Pradesh — See Mad. (A. T.) A. L. O., 1961 [w. e. f. 1-4-1961].

West Bengal

For Section 32 as inserted by Beng. Act 5 of 1934, substitute the following section—

"32. Power for Magistrate of the District to appoint Chairmen of Municipalities or Presidents of Union Boards to discharge the functions of an officer under Section 14.—(1) The Magistrate of the District may appoint for the purposes of this Act, a Chairman of a Municipality constituted under the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, or a President of a Union Board constituted under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, to discharge the functions of an officer appointed under Section 14, in respect of cattle impounded within the area included within that municipality or within the area subject to the jurisdiction of that Union Board as the case may be:

Provided that a Chairman or President so appointed may, by general or special order, delegate to the Vice Chairman of such municipality or the Vice-President of such Union Board, as the case may be, all, or any of the functions of an officer appointed under Sec. 14 which such Chairman or President is entitled to discharge and may at any time withdraw the same.

(2) A Chairman or President so appointed, or a Vice-Chairman or Vice-President to whom the Chairman or the President, as the case may be, may have delegated all or any of the functions referred to in sub-section (1), shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase any cattle at a sale under this Act".—Beng. Act 4 of 1947, S. 3 [12-6-1947].

STATE AMENDMENT

Section 33

West Bengal

"33. Delegation of certain powers of the Magistrate of the District.—The Magistrate of the District may, by an order in writing, delegate the powers specified below to any Magistrate subordinate to him—

(1) the determination of the manner of disposal of unclaimed impounded cattle under the proviso to S. 14; and

(2) the settlement of claims in respect of surplus unclaimed proceeds of the sale of cattle held in deposit under Sec. 17".—Beng. Act 4 of 1947, S. 3 [12-6-1947].

[THE] CENSUS ACT, 1948
(ACT XXXVII OF 1948)[a]

[3rd September, 1948.]

An Act to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of census.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the taking of census [b][° ° °] India or any part thereof whenever necessary or desirable and to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of such census;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1948, Pt. V, p. 475.

This has been applied—

(i) all the partially excluded areas in Assam specified in the schedule to the Government of India (Excluded and Partially Excluded Areas) Order, 1936—see Assam Gazette, 1948, Pt. II, p. 1269;

(ii) all the partially excluded areas in the Central Provinces and Berar subject to certain modification—see C. P. and Berar Gaz., 1948, Pt. I, p. 622;

(iii) the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the Union Territories of Manipur, and Tripura, by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—see Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

The Act has been extended to Goa, Daman and Diu by Reg. 11 of 1963 (w.e.f. 1-2-1965); Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands by Reg. 8 of 1965.

The Act as in force in Gujarat has been extended to the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, with modifications, by S. O. 464 — Gaz. Ind., 9-2-62, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii) Ext., p. 391.

The Act has been extended to the Union Territory of Pondicherry (Consisting of former French Establishments in India) by the French Establishments A. L. O., 1954 as amended by S. O. 1375 D/-20-6-1959 [w. e. f. 1-7-1959.]

[b] The words "the Provinces and Acceding States of" were omitted by A.L.O., 1950.

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENSUS ACT, 1948.

[a][(2) It extends to the whole of India [b][• • •].]

[a] Substituted for former sub-section (2) by A. L. O., 1950.

[b] The words "except the State of Jammu and Kashmir" were omitted by the Census (Amendment) Act, 1959 (22 of 1959), S. 2 [19-5-1959].

[a][2. Rule of construction respecting enactments not extending to Jammu and Kashmir.—Any reference in this Act to the Indian Penal Code or the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, shall, in relation to the State of Jammu and Kashmir, be construed as a reference to the corresponding enactment in force in that State.]

[a] Inserted by the Census (Amendment) Act, 1959 (22 of 1959), S. 3 [19-5-1959].

Modification :

Union territory (Dadra and Nagar Haveli)—Omit S. 2 — See S. O. 464, Gaz. of Ind., 9-2-62, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), Ext., p. 391.

Note 1 : References, wherever they occur, to State Government shall be construed as reference to the Administrator; to the Official Gazette, as to Gazette of India and to State, to include a Union Territory.

Note 2 : In its application to the Union Territory of Pondicherry, the expression 'State Government' wherever occurring shall be substituted by the expression "Chief Commissioner". — French Establishments A. L. O., 1954 as amended by S. O. 1375 D/-20-6-1959.

3. Central Government to take census.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare its intention of taking a census in the whole or any part of the territories to which this Act extends, whenever it may consider it necessary or desirable so to do, and thereupon the census shall be taken.

4. Appointment of census staff.—(1) The Central Government may appoint a Census Commissioner to supervise the taking of the census throughout the area in which the census is intended to be taken, and Superintendents of Census Operations to supervise the taking of the census within the several [a][States].

(2) The [a][State] Government may appoint persons as census-officers to take, or aid in, or supervise the taking of, the census within any specified local area and such persons, when so appointed, shall be bound to serve accordingly.

(3) A declaration in writing, signed by any authority authorised by the [a][State] Government in this behalf, that any person has been duly appointed a census-officer for any local area shall be conclusive proof of such appointment.

(4) The [a][State] Government may delegate to such authority as it thinks fit the power of appointing census-officers conferred by sub-section (2).

[a] Substituted for 'Provincial' by A. L. O., 1950.

5. Status of census authorities as public servants.—The Census Commissioner, all Superintendents of Census Operations and all census-officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

6. Discharge of duties of census-officers in certain cases.—(1) Where the District Magistrate, or such authority as the [a][State] Government may appoint in this behalf, by a written order so directs—

(a) every officer in command of any body of men belonging to the naval, military or air forces, or of any vessel of war, of India,

(b) every person (except a pilot or harbour-master) having charge or control of a vessel,

(c) every person in charge of a lunatic asylum, hospital, workhouse, prison, reformatory or lock-up or of any public, charitable, religious or educational institution,

(d) every keeper, secretary or manager of any sarai, hotel, boarding-house, lodging-house, emigration depot or club,

(e) every manager or officer of a railway or any commercial or industrial establishment, and

(f) every occupant of immovable property wherein at the time of the taking of the census persons are living, shall perform such of the duties of a census-officer in relation to the persons who at the time of the taking of the census are under his command or charge, or are inmates of his house, or are present on or in such immovable property or are employed under him as may be specified in the order.

(2) All the provisions of this Act relating to census-officers shall apply, so far as may be, to all persons while performing such duties under this section, and any person refusing or neglecting to perform any duty which under this section he is directed to perform shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Sec. 187 of the Indian Penal Code.

[a] Substituted for 'Provincial' by A. L. O., 1950.

7. Power to call upon certain persons to give assistance.—The District Magistrate, or such authority as the [a][State] Government may appoint in this behalf for any local area, may, by written order which shall have effect throughout the extent of his district or of such local area, as the case may be call upon—

(a) all owners and occupiers of land, tenure-holders, and farmers and assignees of land revenue, or their agents,

(b) all members of the district, municipal, panchayat and other local authorities and officers and servants of such authorities, and

(c) all officers and members of staff of any factory, firm or establishment, to give such assistance as shall be specified in the order towards the taking of a census of the persons who are, at the time of the taking of the census, on the lands of such owners, occupiers, tenure-holders, farmers and assignees, or on the premises of factories, firms and other establishments, or within the areas for which such local authorities are established, as the case may be, and the persons to whom an order under this section is directed shall be bound to obey it and shall, while acting in pursuance of such order, be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

[a] Substituted for 'Provincial' by A. L. O., 1950.

8. Asking of questions and obligation to answer.—(1) A census-officer may ask all such questions of all persons within the limits of the local area for which he is appointed as, by instructions issued in this behalf by the [a][State] Government and published in the Official Gazette, he may be directed to ask.

(2) Every person of whom any question is asked under sub-section (1) shall be legally bound to answer such question to the best of his knowledge or belief:

Provided that no person shall be bound to state the name of any female member of his household, and no woman shall be bound to state the name of her husband or deceased husband or of any other person whose name she is forbidden by custom to mention.

[a] Substituted for 'Provincial' by A. L. O., 1950.

9. Occupier to permit access and affixing of numbers.—Every person occupying any house, enclosure, vessel or other place shall allow census-officers such access thereto as they may require for the purposes of the census and as, having regard to the customs of the country, may be reasonable, and shall allow them to paint on or affix to, the place such letters, marks or numbers as may be necessary for the purposes of the census.

10. Occupier or manager to fill up schedule.—(1) Subject to such orders as the [a][State] Government may issue in this behalf, a census-officer may, within the local area for which he is appointed, leave or cause to be left a schedule at any dwelling-house or with the manager or any officer of any commercial or industrial establishment, for the purpose of its being filled up by the occupier of such house or of any specified part thereof or by such manager or officer with such particulars as the [a][State] Government may direct regarding the inmates of such house or part thereof, or the persons employed under such manager or officer, as the case may be, at the time of the taking of the census.

(2) When such schedule has been so left, the said occupier, manager or officer, as the case may be, shall fill it up or cause it to be filled up to the best of his knowledge or belief so far as regards the inmates of such house or part thereof or the persons employed under him, as the case may be, at the time aforesaid, and shall sign his name thereto and, when so required, shall deliver the schedule so filled up and signed to the census-officer or to such person as the census-officer may direct.

[a] Substituted for 'Provincial' by A. L. O., 1950.

11. Penalties.—(1) (a) Any census-officer or any person lawfully required to give assistance towards the taking of a census who refuses or neglects to use reasonable diligence in performing any duty imposed upon him or in obeying any order issued to him in accordance with this Act or any rule made thereunder, or any person who hinders or obstructs another person in performing any such duty or in obeying any such order, or

(b) any census-officer who intentionally puts any offensive or improper question or knowingly makes any false return or, without the previous sanction of the Central Government or the [a][State] Government, discloses any information which he has received by means of, or for the purposes of, a census return, or

(c) any sorter, compiler or other member of the census staff who removes, secretes, damages or destroys any census document or deals with any census document in a manner likely to falsify or impair the tabulations of census results, or

(d) any person who intentionally gives a false answer to, or refuses to answer to the best of his knowledge or belief, any question asked of him by a census-officer which he is legally bound by Section 8 to answer, or

(e) any person occupying any house, enclosure, vessel or other place who refuses to allow a census-officer such reasonable access thereto as he is required by Section 9 to allow, or

(f) any person who removes, obliterates, alters, or damages any letters, marks or numbers which have been painted or affixed for the purposes of the census, or

(g) any person who, having been required under Section 10 to fill up a schedule, knowingly and without sufficient cause fails to comply with the provisions of that section, or makes any false return thereunder, or

(h) any person who trespasses into a census office, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and in case of a conviction under part (b) or (c) shall also be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months.

(2) Whoever abets any offence under sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

[a] Substituted for 'Provincial' by A. L. O., 1950.

12. Sanction required for prosecutions.—No prosecution under this Act shall be instituted except with the previous sanction of the [a][State] Government or of an authority authorised in this behalf by the [a][State] Government.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

13. Operation of other laws not barred.—Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence under this Act:

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted except with the previous sanction referred to in Section 12.

14. Jurisdiction.—No Court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the second class [a][° ° °] shall try, whether under this Act or under any other law, any act or omission which constitutes an offence under this Act.

[a] The words "or in a Part B State, a Magistrate corresponding to a Magistrate of the second class" were omitted by 3 A. L. O., 1956.

Modifications:

Union Territory (Dadra and Nagar Haveli); In its application to Dadra and Nagar Haveli, for S. 14, substitute the following:

"14. No Magistrate other than a Magistrate specially empowered in this behalf by the Administrator shall try, whether under this Act or under any other law, any act or omission which constitutes an offence under this Act".—S. O. 464, Gaz. of Ind., 1962, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), Ext., p. 391.

Union Territory (Pondicherry)

S. 14 in the territory is the same as in Dadra Nagar Haveli except that for the word Administrator words 'Chief Commissioner are there'—see S. O. 1375, Gaz. Ind., 1959, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), p. 1387.

15. Records of census not open to inspection nor admissible in evidence.—No person shall have a right to inspect any book, register or record made by a

---

Section 15 — Note 1

(1) The reports of Census in India prior to the coming into force of the Constitution were made by Superintendents of Census Operations for each Presidency or Province as the case may be. These reports are printed and published by the Government and are available for sale to the Public. The reports of Census compiled by the superinten-census-officer in the discharge of his duty as such, or any schedule delivered under Section 10, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, no entry in any such book, register, record or schedule shall be admissible as evidence in any civil proceeding whatsoever or in any criminal proceeding other than a prosecution under this Act or any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence under this Act.

16. Temporary suspension of other laws as to mode of taking census in municipalities.—Notwithstanding anything in any enactment or rule with respect to the mode in which a census is to be taken in any municipality, the municipal authority, in consultation with the Superintendent of Census Operations or with such other authority as the [a][State] Government may authorise in this behalf, shall, at the time appointed for the taking of any census cause the census of the municipality to be taken wholly or in part by any method authorised by or under this Act.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

17. Grant of statistical abstracts.—The Census Commissioner or any Superintendent of Census Operations or such person as the [a][State] Government may authorise in this behalf may, if he so thinks fit, at the request and cost (to be determined by him) of any local authority or person, cause abstracts to be prepared and supplied containing any such statistical information as can be derived from the census returns for [a][India or any State], as the case may be, being information which is not contained in any published report and which in his opinion it is reasonable for that authority or person to require.

[a] Substituted for the words "the Provinces of India or the Province" by A. L. O., 1950.

18. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Central Government may make rules providing for the appointment of census-officers and of persons to perform any of the duties of census-officers or to give assistance towards the taking of a census, and for the general instructions to be issued to such officers and persons.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to replace the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1924, by this law which provides for the constitution of two Boards named, respectively, as the Central Board of Direct Taxes and the Central Board of Excise and Customs. Owing to the very considerable expansion of the Union revenue administration since 1924, substantial strengthening of the Board of Revenue at the Centre as well as its functional bifurcation has become a matter of urgent necessity. Such separation has also been recommended by the Direct Taxes Administration Enquiry Committee and more recently, by the Central Excise Reorganisation Committee. This Bill seeks to give effect to those recommendations which have since been accepted by Government. — See Gazette of India, 1963, Pt. II-Sec. 2, Extra, p. 775.

THE CENTRAL BOARDS OF REVENUE ACT, 1963
(ACT 54 OF 1963)[a]

[30th December, 1963.]

An Act to provide for the constitution of separate Boards of Revenue for Direct Taxes and for Excise and Customs and to amend certain enactments for the purpose of conferring powers and imposing duties on the said Boards.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 30-12-1963, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext., page 775.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENTRAL BOARDS OF REVENUE ACT, 1963.

(2) It shall come into force on such date[a] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

[a] The date appointed is 1-1-1964, see Gaz. of India, 30-12-1963, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), Ext., p. 897.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Board" means the Central Board of Direct Taxes or the Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under Sec. 3;

(b) "Central Board of Revenue" means the Central Board of Revenue constituted under the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1924;

(c) "direct tax" means—

(1) any duty leviable or tax chargeable under—

(i) the Estate Duty Act, 1953;
(ii) the Wealth-tax Act, 1957;
(iii) the Expenditure-tax Act, 1957;
(iv) the Gift-tax Act, 1958;
(v) the Income-tax Act, 1961;
(vi) the Super Profits Tax Act, 1963; and

(2) any other duty or tax which, having regard to its nature or incidence, may be declared by the Central Government, by notification[a] in the Official Gazette, to be a direct tax.

[a] Tax chargeable under the Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922); Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940 (15 of 1940), the Business Profits Tax Act, 1947 (21 of 1947) declared to be a direct tax within the meaning of the section — See Gaz. of Ind., 1-1-1964, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), p. 2.

3. Constitution of separate Central Boards for Direct Taxes and for Excise and Customs.—(1) The Central Government shall, in place of the Central Board of Revenue, constitute two separate Boards of Revenue to be called the Central Board of Direct Taxes and the Central Board of Excise and Customs, and each such Board shall, subject to the control of the Central Government, exercise such powers and perform such duties, as may be entrusted to that Board by the Central Government or by or under any law.

(2) Each Board shall consist of such number of persons not exceeding five as the Central Government may think fit to appoint.

4. Procedure of the Board.—(1) The Central Government may make rules[a] for the purpose of regulating the transaction of business by each Board and every order made or act done in accordance with such rules shall be deemed to be the order or act, as the case may be, of the Board.

(2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thiry days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any modification of annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

[a] For the Central Board of Direct Taxes (Regulation of Transaction of Business) Rules, 1964 and Central Board of Excise and Customs (Regulation of Transaction of Business) Rules, 1964, see Gaz. of Ind., 1-1-1964, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), Ext., pages 3, 4.

5. Amendment of certain enactments.—(1) In the Estate Duty Act, 1953, the Wealth-tax Act, 1957, the Expenditure-tax Act, 1957, the Gift-tax Act, 1958, the Income-tax Act, 1961 and the Super Profits Tax Act, 1963, for the words and figures "Central Board of Revenue constituted under the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1924" or "Central Board of Revenue", wherever they occur, the words and figures "Central Board of Direct Taxes constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963" shall be substituted.

(2) In the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944, and the Customs Act, 1962, for the words and figures "Central Board of Revenue constituted under the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1924" or "Central Board of Revenue" wherever they occur, the words and figures "Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963" shall be substituted.

(3) The functions entrusted to the Central Board of Revenue by or under any other enactment shall,—

(a) if such functions relate to matters connected with direct taxes, be discharged by the Central Board of Direct Taxes; and

(b) if such functions relate to any other matter, unless they are entrusted by the Central Government to the Central Board of Direct Taxes, be discharged by the Central Board of Excise and Customs.

6. Transfer of certain proceedings.—(1) Every proceeding pending at the commencement of this Act, before the Central Board of Revenue shall—

(a) if it is a proceeding relating to direct taxes, stand transferred to the Central Board of Direct Taxes; and

(b) in any other case, stand transferred to the Central Board of Excise and Customs.

(2) If any question arises as to whether any proceeding stands transferred to the Central Board of Direct Taxes or to the Central Board of Excise and Customs, it shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

---

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) There is nothing in the Income-tax Act, 1961, nor in the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1963, which required the Central Board of Direct Taxes to act as a single body and to perform all the functions of that Board sitting together without assigning some or all of its various duties to the individual members constituting it. The words "for the purpose of regulating the transaction of business" in S. 4 of the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1963, are extremely wide and include in their ambit the power to make rules empowering the Chairman of the Central Board of Direct Taxes to pass an order distributing the business of the Board among himself and the member or the members of the Board. (1968) 2 ITJ 69 (73) (All) (DB).

(3) In any legal proceeding pending at the commencement of this Act to which the Central Board of Revenue is a party,—

(a) if it is a proceeding relating to direct taxes, the Central Board of Direct Taxes shall be deemed to be substituted for the Central Board of Revenue in such proceeding; and

(b) if it is a proceeding relating to any other matter, the Central Board of Excise and Customs shall be deemed to be substituted for the Central Board of Revenue in such proceeding.

7. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) An order under sub-section (1) may be made so as to have retrospective effect from a date not earlier than the date of the commencement of this Act.

8. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Central Board of Revenue Act, 1924, is hereby repealed.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall affect any appointment, assessment, order (including quasi-judicial order) or rule made, or exemption, approval or recognition granted, or any notice, notification, direction or instruction issued, or any duty levied, or penalty or fine imposed, or confiscation adjudged, or any form prescribed, or any other thing done or action taken by the Central Board of Revenue under any law and any such appointment, assessment, order, rule, exemption, approval, recognition, notice, notification, direction, instruction, duty, penalty, fine, confiscation, form, thing or action shall be deemed to have been made, granted, issued, levied, imposed, adjudged, prescribed, done or taken by the Central Board of Direct Taxes, or as the case may be, by the Central Board of Excise and Customs and shall continue to be in force unless and until it is revised, withdrawn or superseded by the concerned Board.

SECOND SCHEDULE

THIRD SCHEDULE [Repealed.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The administration of internal commodity taxation in British India has grown up piecemeal over many years and has been considerably expanded during the last decade. Hitherto, the introduction of a new central duty of excise has required the enactment of self-contained law and the preparation of a separate set of statutory rules. There are no less than 10 separate excise Acts (the excise on kerosene being covered by a part of the Indian Finance Act, 1922) and 11 sets of statutory rules: and there are also 5 Acts relating to salt, the duty on which is by a wide margin the oldest of our taxes on indigenous commodities. The taxes being closely akin to one another, the methods of collection follow the same general pattern and many of the provisions of the various Acts are identical or closely similar; and this is the case also with many of the statutory rules. The agglomeration of statutes and regulations dealing with similar matters is neither convenient for the public nor conducive to well organised administration. Moreover, under this disjunctive arrangement, we have not, and cannot readily construct, a comprehensive code of standing instructions for the governance of the excise staff and each set of statutory rules is burdened with departmental instructions in which the public has no concern or interest and which, even taken together, do not form an adequate administrative code.

(2) It is accordingly proposed to consolidate in a single enactment all the laws relating to central duties of excise and to the tax on salt and to embody therein a Schedule, similar to that in the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, setting forth the rates of duty leviable on each class of goods. At the same time the statutory rules will be similarly amalgamated and disembarrassed of their unnecessary detail. The Act and the consolidated statutory rules, together with as many manuals of departmental instructions as may be necessary, will then form a complete Central Excise Code, which will simplify the administration of this branch of the revenue system and aid such further development as may be necessary; and any proposal for a new excise which may be hereafter be laid before the Legislature may then take the simpler and more convenient form of a clause in the annual Finance Bill.

3. The intention of the Bill is to reproduce provisions already existing in the Acts which it is proposed to repeal, but in the process certain small amendments have been made, either in modernising the language or for dovetailing the provisions and otherwise adapting them to present circumstances. These amendments are the minimum consistent with such blending and adaptation.

4. The combination of a number of separate measures, each of which has been moulded to fit its particular subject, necessarily includes their special features as well as those which are common to others in the group and it follows that certain provisions which have hitherto applied only to certain goods will, after consolidation, become applicable over the whole field, either as a matter of course or by notification as circumstances may require. In particular the Bill provides that certain features of the salt law relating to transport by small coastal craft will become adaptable, as necessary, in the administration of other excise duties.

5. No interference of any kind is made in any of the existing duties. These have been merely collected from the various Acts and reproduced in the Schedule; and the item relating to salt has been so worded as to preserve to the Central Legislature the right which it has so long exercised of voting annually on the rate of duty to be fixed."

EXTRACT FROM THE SELECT COMMITTEE REPORT

* * * * * *

"The changes made in the Bill are nearly all of a formal nature dictated by the advisability of emphasising, more pointedly than the Bill as drafted did the differences between salt and the other articles subjected to duties of central excise, and the difference between the salt duty and the other central excise duties, differencs referred to in the judgment of the Federal Court in the case, Lahore Municipality v. Daulat Ram, 1942 F. C. R. 31. It is inadvisable to exhibit, as the Bill did, the duty on salt as indistinguishable from those other duties of excise. The competence of the Central Legislature to legislate on salt is derived from entry 47 of List I of the Seventh Schedule to the Government of India Act and extends to salt in all its aspects. Legislative competence in respect of other articles is derived from item 45 of that list and extends only to the imposition of dutics of excise upon them and, in so far as provisions which might fall within the scope of Entries 27 and 29 of List II of the Seventh Schedule are concerned, to the making only of such provisions as are essential for the purpose of effectively implementing the power of imposing such duties.

The changes made by us in the long title, preamble, short title, and clause (2) (d) and (e) recognise the peculiar status under the Constittuion Act of salt as compared with the other excisable articles with which the Bill deals, while leaving the provisions applicable generally to all excisable articles applicable also to salt. The alteration of Clause (3) (1) again recognizes a distinction between other central excise duties and the duty on salt and is responsible for the small consequential amendment made in Clause (5).

The limitations on the power of the Central Legislature to legislate on matters coming ordinarily within the scope of Items 27 and 29 of the Provincial Legislative List have suggested the alterations made by us in Clauses (6) and (8) and in the Items (v), (x) and (xiv) of Clause 37 (1)[a]. The extent to which incursion into the Provincial legislative field is necessitated for the purpose of effective legislation on the subject dealt with by the Bill is particularised. Under Clause (6) the power to control manufacture by licence is essential for the purpose of effectively levying and collecting the excise duty in all cases, but so far as purchase, sale and storage are concerned the power is essential and has so far been taken only in respect of tobacco, though subsequent additions to the articles subjected to duties of central excise may necessitate further entries in Part A of the new Schedule II. Clause (8) dealing with the possession of excisable goods has been recast on similar lines for similar reasons. The alterations in Clause 3 (1) again specifically state the limitations which are, under the Constitution Act, attached to Central legislation on the matters dealt with."

[THE] CENTRAL EXCISES AND SALT ACT, 1944
(ACT 1 OF 1944)[a]

[24th February, 1944.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to central duties of excise and to salt.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to central duties of excise on goods manufactured or produced in *[certain parts of India] and to salt;

It is hereby enacted as follows:

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 1943, Pt. V, page 243; and for Select Committee Report, see ibid, 1944, Pt. V, page 13.

The Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the States of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—see Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

The Act has been extended to the Union Territories of Goa, Daman and Diu, by Regulation 12 of 1962; Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regn. 6 of 1963; Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi by Regn. 8 of 1965.

The Act has been extended to the French Establishments in India by the French Establishments A.L.O., 1954 (w.e.f. 1-11-1954); said French Establishments now constitute the Union Territory of Pondicherry.

CHAPTER I

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENTRAL EXCISES AND SALT ACT, 1944.

(2) It extends to the whole of India [ * *].

(3) It shall come into force on such date[b] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

[a] The words "except the State of Jammu and Kashmir" were omitted by the Taxation Laws (Extension to Jammu and Kashmir) Act, 1954 (41 of 1954), S. 2 and Sch. [8-10-1954].

[b] This Act came into force on 28th February, 1944—See Gazette of India, 1944, Extraordinary, page 293.

---

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The operation of the excise law is confined to enumerated commodities and salt only. AIR 1966 SC 805 (808): (1962) 2 SCR 942.

(2) Restrictions imposed by Act are not unreasonable. AIR 1960 SC 424 (430): (1960) 2 SCR 362.

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) The Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944, was extended to the State of Rajasthan by S. 11, Finance Act, 25 of 1950 from 1-4-1950 and the necessary rules under that Act also came into force from that date. ('53) AIR 1953 Raj 145 (148) : ILR (1953) 3 Raj 128 (FB).

(2) Once the notification for bringing the Act into force throughout the area in which it was intended to be in force was issued and the Act was brought into force in that area the power of the Central Government to issue any notification in that behalf was exhausted. The Act did not postulate its extension to any other area either at once or from time to time. AIR 1961 Madh Pra 353 (355): 1961 Jab LJ 1193 (DB).

(3) Even otherwise the power to issue a notification to bring an Act into force is a delegated power and the Legislature is competent to subsequently enact, when extending the Act to a new area, that it shall come into force immediately and so to take away the delegated power by necessary implication. AIR 1961 Madh Pra 353 (355) : 1961 Jab LJ 1193.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "broker" or "commission agent" means a person who in the ordinary course of business makes contracts for the sale or purchase of excisable goods for others;

(b) "Central Excise Officer" means any officer of the Central Excise Department or any person (including an officer of the [b][State] Government) invested by the [a][Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963] with any of the powers of a Central Excise Officer under this Act;

[a] Substituted for "Central Board of Revenue" by Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963 (54 of 1963), S. 5 (2) [1-1-1964].

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

(c) "curing" includes wilting, drying, fermenting and any process for rendering an unmanufactured product fit for marketing or manufacture;

(d) "excisable goods" means goods specified in the First Schedule as being subject to a duty of excise and includes salt;

(e) "factory" means any premises, including the precincts thereof, wherein or in any part of which excisable goods other than salt, are manufactured, or wherein or in any part of which any manufacturing process connected with the production of these goods is being carried on or is ordinarily carried on;

[a][(ee)• • • •]

[a] Clause (ee), inserted by the Finance Act, 1950 (25 of 1950), was omitted by the Taxation Laws (Extension to Jammu and Kashmir) Act, 1954 (41 of 1954), S. 2 and Sch. [8-10-1954].

(f) "manufacture" includes any process incidental or ancillary to the completion of a manufactured product; and

(i) in relation to tobacco includes the preparation of cigarettes, cigars cheroots, biris, cigarette or pipe or hookah tobacco, chewing tobacco or snuff, [a][•]

(ii) in relation to salt, includes collection, removal, preparation, steeping, evaporation, boiling, or any one or more of these processes, the separation or purification of salt obtained in the manufacture of saltpetre, the separation of salt from earth or other substance so as to produce alimentary salt, and the excavation or removal of natural saline deposits or efflorescence; [b][• • •];

---

Section 2(a) — Note 1

(1) The expression 'in the ordinary course of business is susceptible of one meaning namely that there should be a series of transactions as distingushed from one transaction. The course of business should consist in making some purchases as an agent. A stray transaction may not be said to constitute an ordinary course of business. It is not essential that the agent should have several customers to fall within the purview of the definition. AIR 1959 Andh Pra 647 (648) (DB).

Section 2 (c) — Note 1

(1) Whatever be the process of curing and however inclusive be its definition in the Act, it must be completed only by a licenced curer and no other person can carry out any process of curing. AIR 1959 Punj 357 (360) : 61 Pun LR 154.

Section 2 (f) — Note 1

(1) The word "manufacture" implies a change but every change in the raw material is not manufacture. There must be such a transformation that a new and different article must emerge having a distinctive name, character or use. AIR 1968 SC 922 (928) : (1968) 2 SCJ 433.

(2) The definition cl. (f) of S. 2 is specially inserted in the Act with a view to remove any ambiguity that may arise as to the precise stage when the manufacture of certain class of goods may be said to have been completed. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (250) : 1966 BLJR 790 (DB).

(3) The stage of completion of a manufactured produce is not reached until all the processes incidental or ancillary have also been completed. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (250) : 1966 BLJR 790 (DB).

(4) Person engaging in production or manufacture through independent contractor is also manufacturer under Section 2 (f) (ii). AIR 1965 Guj 215 (224, 225) (1965) 6 Guj LR 137 (DB).

[c][(iii) In relation to patent or proprietary medicines, as defined in Item No. 14-E of the First Schedule and in relation to cosmetics and toilet preparations as defined in Item No. 14-F of that Schedule, includes the conversion of powder into tablets or capsules, the labelling or relabelling of containers intended for consumers and repacking from bulk packs to retail packs or the adoption of any other treatment to render the product marketable to the consumers.]

[d][(iv) In relation to goods comprised in Item No. 18-A of the First Schedule, includes sizing, beaming, warping, wrapping, winding or reeling, or any one or more of these processes, or the conversion of any form of the said goods into another form of such goods; and the word "manufacturer" shall be construed accordingly and shall include not only a person who employs hired labour in the production or manufacture of excisable goods, but also any person who engages in their production or manufacture on his own account.]

[a] The word "and" was omitted by the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1962 (20 of 1962), Sec. 16.

[b] Certain words were omitted by the Finance Act, 1964 (5 of 1964), Sec. 60 (1) (i).

[c] Clause (iii) was inserted by Finance (No. 2) Act, 1962 (20 of 1962), S. 16.

[d] Clause (iv) was inserted by Finance Act, 1964 (5 of 1964), S. 60 (1) (ii).

(g) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(h) "sale" and "purchase", with their grammatical variations and cognate expressions, mean any transfer of the possession of goods by one person to another in the ordinary course of trade or business for cash or deferred payment or other valuable consideration;

(i) "Saltpetre" includes rasi, sajji, and all other substances manufactured from saline earth, and kharinun and every form of sulphate or carbonate of soda;

(j) "salt factory" includes—

(i) a place used or intended to be used in the manufacture of salt and all embankments, reservoirs, condensing and evaporating pans, buildings and waste places situated within the limits of such place, as defined from time to time by the Collector of Central Excise;

(ii) all drying grounds and storage platforms and storehouses appertaining to any such place;

(iii) land on which salt is spontaneously produced; and a "private salt factory" is one not solely owned or not solely worked by the Central Government;

[a][(jj) • • • •]

[a] Clause (jj) inserted by A.L.O., 1950, was omitted by the Finance Act, 1950 (25 of 1950), S. 11 and Sch. IV (31-3-1950).

(k) "wholesale dealer" means a person who buys or sells excisable goods wholesale for the purpose of trade or manufacture, and includes a broker or commission agent who, in addition to making contracts for the sale or purchase of excisable goods for others, stocks such goods belonging to others as an agent for the purpose of sale.

---

Section 2(j) — Note 1

(1) 'Mineral" in S. 231, Revenue Act, 1949 includes Marwar Land salt wherever produced. AIR 1957 Raj 213 (215) : ILR (1956) 6 Raj 305 (DB).

CHAPTER II

LEVY AND COLLECTION OF DUTY

3. Duties specified in the First Schedule to be levied.—(1) There shall be levied and collected in such manner as may be prescribed duties of excise on all excisable goods other than salt which are produced or manufactured in [a][India] and a duty on salt manufactured in, or imported by land into, any part of [a][India] as, and at the rates set forth in the First Schedule.

[b][(1A) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply in respect of all excisable goods other than salt which are produced or manufactured in India by, or on behalf of, Government as they apply in respect of goods which are not produced or manufactured by Government.]

(2) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix, for the purpose of levying the said duties, tariff values of any articles enumerated, either specifically or under general headings, in the First Schedule as chargeable with duty ad valorem and may alter any tariff values for the time being in force.

(3) Different tariff values may be fixed for different classes or descriptions of the same article.

[a] Substituted for "the States" by the Finance Act, 1950 (25 of 1950), S. 11 and Sch. IV [31-3-1950].

[b] Substituted by the Customs and Central Excises (Amendment) Act, 1963 (30 of 1963), S. 3 [1-10-1963].

---

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) Though levy of duty is valid it must be collected by authority of law and in manner prescribed by law. No rules are prescribed for collection of duty on excisable goods which have already been removed from warehouse and hence duty cannot be collected on such goods. AIR 1952 Nag 139 (144) : ILR (1952) Nag 156 (DB).

(2) There is nothing unconstitutional if a taxing statute while providing for levy in the Act itself delegates to the rule-making authority the power of providing for the collection of tax. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (252) : 1966 BLJR 790 (DB).

(3) The duty collected under S. 7(2) of the Finance Act (1951) is a duty of excise and not a direct tax. AIR 1952 Nag 139 (141) : ILR (1952) Nag 156 (DB).

(4) (Per Sinha C. J., Gajendragadkar, Wanchoo, Shah and Ayyangar JJ.) The immunity granted to the States in respect of Union taxation does not extend to duties of customs including export duties or duties of excise on the production or manufacture in India, of the property of a State used for purposes other than those specified in Clause (2) of Article 289 of the Constitution. AIR 1967 Ker 62 (62): 1966 Ker LJ 23 (DB).

(8) An Excise Duty is a duty on production and though according to the economists, it is an indirect tax capable of being passed on to the consumer as part of the price yet the mere passing on of the duty is not its essential characteristic. Even if borne by the producer or manufacturer it does not cease to be a duty of excise. AIR 1963 SC 104 (106): (1963) 3 SCR 642 * AIR 1960 Raj 92 (99): 1960 Raj LW 44 (DB). and above the ex-mill price of the cloth. AIR 1960 Raj 92 (99): 1960 Raj LW 44 (DB).

(11) In the case of manufactured goods the payment of duty and the clearance of goods may be synchronous or the payment may be postponed although the goods may be removed. AIR 1967 SC 1564 (1568).

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) Excise duty is a duty on the manufacture of goods and, is chargeable on the value of goods manufactured. It is necessary to determine the value of the goods manufactured. This must then be the value of the goods at the place of manufacture. It is to be noted that the value is not to be determined on the basis of the sale of the article in question but on the basis of the wholesale cash price for which an article of the like kind is sold or is capable of being sold. 1967 All LJ 393.

(2) The determination of excise duty in terms of Section 4, depends on the determination of the value for the purpose of duty, for the calculation of which there are three factors, (1) the location where the calculation is to be made. (2) the time at which the calculation should be made and (3) the method of calculation. AIR 1961 Cal 477 (480).

(3) First, the Court must determine the location where the wholesale cash price is to be determined. What would be the location of the nearest wholesale market and the particular wholesale price for a specified class of goods must be determined upon the facts of each case. AIR 1968 Cal 154 (155) (DB).

(4) So far as time is concerned, the calculation must be made with reference to the time when the goods are removed from factory or place of manufacture or production for delivery. AIR 1968 Cal 154 (156) (DB).

(5) Cost price is not a decisive factor in deciding the value for the purpose of Section 4. Cost price can only indicate at what price, as rock bottom price, it was possible for the plaintiff to sell under normal conditions as a prudent business concern and not as a philanthropic or charitable institution. It does not necessarily indicate the actual price as contemplated by Section 4 of the Act. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 281 (285, 287); (1967) 2 Andh WR 20 (DB).

(6) The expression "the article of the like kind and quality occurring both in Section 4 (a) and (b) includes an article of the same kind and quality as the dutiable article as well as an article of similar kind and quality. AIR 1967 Bom 338 (339): 68 Bom LR 597.

(7) The expression "place of manufacture or production means the factory and the connected premises and not the whole city in which the factory is situated. AIR 1967 Bom 338 (339, 340): 68 Bom LR 597.

(8) "Wholesale price" means the price which a wholesale dealer and not a retail dealer, charges for his goods, when he sells them in wholesale units, in a wholesale market. These wholesale units may be different for different classes of goods at different places. Normally, the wholesale price to be taken into account, would be the wholesale price in the nearest wholesale market. AIR 1968 Cal 154 (155) (DB) • AIR 1967 Andh Pra 281 (285): (1967) 1 An WR 20 (DB) • AIR 1963 Mys 216 (218): 1962 Mys LJ (Sup) 568.

6. Certain operations to be subject to licence.—The Central Government may, by notification[a] in the Official Gazette, provide that, from such date as may be specified in the notification, no person shall, except under the authority and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence granted under this Act, engage in—

(a) the production or manufacture or any process of the production or manufacture of [b][any specified goods included in the First Schedule] or of saltpetre or of any specified component parts or ingredients of such goods or of specified containers of such goods, or the one at the market place nearest the place of manufacture. Whatever the prices at which the seller sells his goods in other zones the department can assess the value only on the basis of cash price at the wholesale market nearest the place of manufacture. The department cannot insist that the seller should furnish a uniform price list for all zones. 1967 All LJ 393 (395).

(10) The word "wholesale market" means a place where the article in question is habitually sold to anybody who wishes to make a sale or purchase at wholesale prices. It is not that a factory cannot be a wholesale market, if it can be shown that goods are habitually sold there at wholesale rates to every one who wishes to sell or purchase. But the mere fact that a factory manufactures the articles at a particular place and sells them there to its stockists or dealers will not by itself convert it into a wholesale market. AIR 1968 Cal 154 (155) (DB) * AIR 1967 Bom 338 (339, 340): 68 Bom LR 597. (AIR 1963 Mys 216, Dissented.) * AIR 1963 Mys 216 (218): 1962 Mys LJ (Sup) 568.

(11) If the precise goods in question are not sold in the nearest wholesale market, then it might be necessary to consider the price of goods of like kind and quality. If no actual sale of those goods is discernible in any market within reasonable proximity, it might be sufficient to establish that such goods were capable of being sold at such prices in the nearest wholesale market. AIR 1968 Cal 154 (155, 156) (DB) * AIR 1963 Mys 216 (218): 1962 Mys LJ (Sup) 568.

(12) Explanation does not allow any other deduction except the trade discount from the wholesale price. Hence, apart from trade discount no further deductions in respect of freight handling, packing and advertisement charges can be allowed. AIR 1967 Bom 338 (341): 68 Bom LR 597. (AIR 1963 Mys 216, Dissented from.)

(13) Trade discount need not always be in the form of money and not in the shape of goods. All that is necessary is that a trade discount must operate as a deduction of the price chargeable to the purchaser. AIR 1967 Bom 338 (341): 68 Bom LR 597.

(14) A quantity discount in the form of free gift of an article for the same price, has precisely the same effect as a money discount, for in both cases there is deduction in the price charged to the purchaser. AIR 1967 Bom 338 (341): 68 Bom LR 597.

Hence, the lessor Jagirdar himself having no right of ownership with respect to any salt deposits in his Jagir, the lease obtained by the petitioner from the Jagirdar is of no avail whatsoever so far as the manufacture of salt is concerned. AIR 1957 Raj 213 (217): ILR (1956) 6 Raj 305 (DB).

(6) Where salt, wherever produced and in whichever manner is the property of a former State (in this case, State of Marwar) or of the successor State or for that matter of a third party, mere freedom to manufacture salt without obtaining a license from the Government of India, as envisaged in the Press Note, dated 23-4-1948 issued under Section 6 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, will not and cannot serve as any justification for interference with such right of ownership. In such a case it cannot be said that the party seeking to manufacture salt has lawful access to the relevant land for the purpose of manufacturing salt. (1) Under the provisions of Sections 6 to 9 and the Rules made under the Act a licence under the Act is necessary before a person engages in the tobacco trade. (1) License issued for tobacco business is personal. The licensee cannot admit other partners into the tobacco business without getting his licence amended. Failure to get the licence amended would be penalised. ## CHAPTER III

POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND LANDHOLDERS

13. Power to arrest.—(1) Any Central Excise Officer duly empowered by the Central Government in this behalf may arrest any person whom he has reason to believe to be liable to punishment under this Act.

(2) Any person accused or reasonably suspected of committing an offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder, who on demand of any officer duly empowered by the Central Government in this behalf refuses to give his name and residence, or who gives a name or residence which such officer has reason to believe to be false, may be arrested by such officer in order that his name and residence may be ascertained.

14. Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents in inquiries under this Act.—(1) Any Central Excise Officer duly empowered by the Central Government in this behalf shall have power to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary either to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing in any inquiry which such officer is making for any of the purposes of this Act. A summons to produce documents or other things may be for the production of certain specified documents or things or for the production of all documents or things of a certain description in the possession or under the control of the person summoned.

(2) All persons so summoned shall be bound to attend, either in person or by an authorised agent, as such officer may direct; and all persons so summoned shall be bound to state the truth upon any subject respecting which they are examined or make statements and to produce such documents and other things as may be required:

fore hearing them cannot be regarded as "procedure relating to appeals" within S. 12 of the Central Excises and Salt Act. AIR 1968 SC 13 (15): (1968) 1 SCR 82.

(3) The applicability of the provisions of Ss. 168, 172, 178, 179, 180, 189 and 192 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, relating to matters specified therein to like matters in respect of the duties imposed by S. 3 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944, is subject to the modifications and alterations as detailed in the Notification No. 9/59 dated 24-1-1959 as superseded or amended by subsequent Notifications. AIR 1965 All 543 (545) : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 582 : 1964 All WR (HC) 128.

(4) The contention that the application of S. 189 and other sections of the Sea Customs Act can be made only by a notification under S. 12 and not by a rule under S. 37 is not sustainable. The question is whether Rule 215 is validly enacted and is within the scope of S. 37. If it is so the fact that there is no notification under Section 12 is not of any material consequence. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 294 (296, 297) • ILR (1963) Andh Pra 42 (DB).

(5) The word 'confiscation' in Section 12 indicates that rules concerning confiscation in the Sea Customs Act were to be brought into the Central Excises and Salt Act. AIR 1961 Ker 93 (95, 96) : 1961 (1) Cri LJ 379: 1960 Ker LJ 777 (DB).

(6) Section 12 of the Act cannot be held to transgress the limits of proper delegation, and therefore Rules framed thereunder cannot be said to be invalid. AIR 1961 Ker 93 (96) : 1961 (1) Cri LJ 379 : 1960 Ker LJ 777 (DB).

Section 14 — Note 1

(1) When a penalty is imposed for committing an offence, the enquiry to be conducted before deciding whether such a penalty be imposed or not would be and shall be treated to be of the form of a judicial proceeding. For conducting such a proceeding the Presiding Officer should not be one who is interested in the case or one who is in substance responsible for the prosecution of the offender. AIR 1960 All 402 (404): 1960 Cri LJ 867.

Provided that the exemptions under Sections 132 and 133 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to requisitions for attendance under this section.

(3) Every such inquiry as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a "judicial proceeding" within the meaning of Section 193 and Section 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

15. Officers required to assist Central Excise officers.—All officers of Police and Customs and all officers of Government engaged in the collection of land revenue, and all village officers are hereby empowered and required to assist the Central Excise officers in the execution of this Act.

16. Owners or occupiers of land to report manufacture of contraband excisable goods.—Every owner or occupier of land, and the agent of any such owner or occupier, in charge of the management of that land, if contraband excisable goods are manufactured thereon, shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, be bound to give notice of such manufacture to a Magistrate, or to an officer of the Central Excise, Customs, Police, or Land Revenue Department, immediately the fact comes to his knowledge.

17. Punishment for connivance at offences—Any owner or occupier of land or any agent of such owner or occupier in charge of the management of that land, who wilfully connives at any offence against the provisions of this Act or of any rules made thereunder shall, for every such offence, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

18. Searches and arrests how to be made.—All searches made under this Act or any rules made thereunder and all arrests made under this Act shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating respectively to searches and arrests made under that Code.

19. Disposal of persons arrested.—Every person arrested under this Act shall be forwarded without delay to the nearest Central Excise officer empowered to send persons so arrested to a Magistrate, or, if there is no such Central Excise officer within a reasonable distance, to the officer in charge of the nearest police station.

---

Section 18 — Note 1

(1) The excise officers are empowered in their own right to make a search and that power would be analogous to that of a police officer empowered to make a search himself. By virtue of S. 18, S. 165 of Criminal Procedure Code authorising a public officer to make a search after certain formalities becomes applicable and that brings in the further requirement of stating the grounds of the belief and the specification of the article to be searched to be recorded in writing. AIR 1958 Raj 296 (297) : 1958 Cri LJ 1350 (DB).

(2) The recording of reasons under Section 165, Cr. P. C. is an important step in the matter of search and to ignore it is to ignore the material part of the provisions governing searches. If that can be ignored it cannot be said that the search is carried out in accordance with the "provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure" within S. 18. AIR 1960 SC 210 (212, 213) : 1960 Cri LJ 280 : (1960) 1 SCR 901.

(3) Mere fact that the money was seized unnecessarily, together with other articles, does not indicate that the motive of the Excise Officer was dishonest. Honesty on the part of the citizens as well as the officers of the State is to be zealously safeguarded, and any evidence of dishonesty has to be ruthlessly, scrutinised and investigated. AIR 1966 All 42 (44) : 1966 Cri LJ 4 : 1966 All WR (HC) 149.

(4) A charge of dishonesty or mala fides against officers performing rather arduous duties, cannot, in any case, be lightly accepted by courts without adequate reasons. AIR 1966 All 42 (44) : 1966 All WR (HC) 149 : 1966 Cri LJ 4.

(5) Mere circumstance that there was an infirmity or illegality in the matter of non-compliance with the provisions of S. 165 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, would not by itself invalidate the entire proceedings which resulted in the conviction of the party on the basis of the materials discovered in the course of the search. AIR 1963 Ker 241 (246): 1963 (2) Cri LJ 279: 1962 Ker LJ 1212 : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 279: 1964 Ker LJ 149.

20. Procedure to be followed by officer-in-charge of police station.—The officer-in-charge of a police station to whom any person is forwarded under S. 19 shall either admit him to bail to appear before the Magistrate having jurisdiction, or in default of bail forward him in custody to such Magistrate.

21. Inquiry how to be made by Central Excise officers against arrested persons forwarded to them under Section 19.—(1) When any person is forwarded under Section 19 to a Central Excise officer empowered to send persons so arrested to a Magistrate, the Central Excise officer shall proceed to enquire into the charge against him.

(2) For this purpose the Central Excise officer may exercise the same powers and shall be subject to the same provisions as the Officer-in-charge of a police station may exercise and is subject to under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, when investigating a cognizable case:

Provided—

(a) if the Central Excise officer is of opinion that there is sufficient evidence or reasonable ground of suspicion against the accused person, he shall either admit him to bail to appear before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case, or forward him in custody to such Magistrate;

(b) if it appears to the Central Excise officer that there is not sufficient evidence or reasonable ground of suspicion against the accused person, he shall release the accused person on his executing a bond, with or without sureties as the Central Excise officer may direct, to appear, if and when so required, before the Magistrate having jurisdiction, and shall make a full report of all the particulars of the case to his official superior.

22. Vexatious search, seizure, etc., by Central Excise Officer.—Any Central Excise or other officer exercising powers under this Act or under the rules made thereunder who—

(a) without reasonable ground of suspicion searches or causes to be searched any house, boat or place;

(b) vexatiously and unnecessarily detains, searches or arrests any person;

(c) vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the moveable property of any person, on pretence of seizing or searching for any article liable to confiscation under this Act;

(d) commits, as such officer, any other act to the injury of any person, without having reason to believe that such act is required for the execution of his duty, shall, for every such offence, be punishable with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.

Any person wilfully and maliciously giving false information and so causing an arrest or a search to be made under this Act shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with both.

---

Section 21 — Note 1

(1) Though under S. 21(2) the Excise Officer has powers of an Officer-in-charge of a police station when investigating a cognizable case the power is for purpose of enquiry under S. 21(1) and the power does not include power to submit a charge-sheet under S. 173 Cr. P. C. AIR 1966 SC 1746 (1749): 1966 Cri LJ 1353 : (1966) 3 SCR 698.

(2) The provisions of S. 21(2) of the Central Excises and Salt Act invests Excise Officers with the powers of Inspectors of Police investigating cases and entrusts them with the duties of such investigating officers acting under the Code of Criminal Procedure. AIR 1966 All 42 (44) : 1966 Cri LJ 4 : 1966 All WR (HC) 149.

(3) An officer of the Central Excise, though he may be a police officer so far as he conducts an investigation in respect of offences under the Excise Act, is not a police officer while discharging his duties under the Customs Act. AIR 1965 Bom 195 (207) : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 616 : 67 Bom LR 317.

23. Failure of Central Excise officer in duty.—Any Central Excise officer who ceases or refuses to perform or withdraws himself from the duties of his office, unless he has obtained the express written permission of the Collector of Central Excise, or has given to his superior officer two months' notice in writing of his intention or has other lawful excuse, shall on conviction before a Magistrate be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to three months' pay or with both.

CHAPTER IV

TRANSPORT BY SEA

24. Penalties for carrying excisable goods in certain vessels.—When any excisable goods are carried by sea in any vessel other than a vessel of the burden of three hundred tons and upwards, the owner and master of such vessel shall each be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

25. Exceptions.—Nothing in Section 24 applies to—

(a) any excisable goods covered by a permit granted under rules made under this Act;

(b) any excisable goods covered by a pass granted by any officer whom the [a][Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963] may appoint in this behalf;

(c) such amount of excisable goods carried on board any vessel for consumption by her crew or by the passengers or animals (if any) on board as the [a][Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963] may from time to time exempt from the operation of Section 24.

[a] Substituted for "Central Board of Revenue" by Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963 (54 of 1963), S. 5 (2) [1-1-1964].

26. Power of stoppage, search and arrest.—When any officer empowered by the [a][Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963] to act under this section has reason to believe, from personal knowledge or from information taken down in writing, that any excisable goods are being carried or have within the previous twenty-four hours been carried, in any vessel so as to render the owner or master of such vessel liable to the penalties imposed by Section 24, he may require such vessel to be brought to and thereupon may—

(a) enter and search the vessel;

(b) require the master of the vessel to produce any documents in his possession relating to the vessel or the cargo thereof;

(c) seize the vessel if the officer has reason to believe it liable to confiscation under this Act, and cause it to be brought with its crew and cargo into any port in [b][India]; and

(d) where any excisable goods are found on board the vessel, search and arrest without a warrant any person on board the vessel whom he has reason to believe to be punishable under Section 24.

[a] Substituted for "Central Board of Revenue" by Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963 (54 of 1963), S. 5 (2) [1-1-1964].

[b] Substituted by Act 25 of 1950 for the "States".

27. Penalties for resisting officer.—Any master of a vessel refusing or neglecting to bring to the vessel or to produce his papers when required to do so by an officer acting under Section 26, and any person obstructing any such officer in the performance of his duty, may be arrested by such officer without a warrant, and shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

28. Confiscation of vessel and cargo.—(1) Every vessel (including all appurtenances) in which any excisable goods are carried so as to render the owner or master of such vessel liable to penalties imposed by Section 24, the cargo on board such vessel and the excisable goods in respect of which an offence under this Act has been committed shall be liable to confiscation on the orders of the officer empowered in this behalf by the Central Government.

(2) Whenever any Customs officer is satisfied that any article is liable to confiscation under this section, he may seize such article, and shall at once report the seizure to his superior officer for the information of the officer empowered to order confiscation under sub-section (1) and such officer may, if satisfied on such report or after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, that the article so seized is liable to confiscation, either declare it to be confiscated, or impose a fine in lieu thereof not exceeding the value of the article.

29. Jurisdiction.—Any offence punishable under Section 24 or Section 27 may be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of any place where the offender is found, or, to which, if arrested under Section 26 or Section 27, he may be brought.

30. Power to exempt from operation of this Chapter.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt the carriage of excisable goods within any local limits or in any class of vessels from the operation of this Chapter, and, by like notification, again subject such carriage to the operation of this Chapter.

CHAPTER V

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO SALT

31. Special and permanent rights of manufacturing salt to be recognised.—The proprietor of a private salt factory who has by virtue of a sanad granted by [a][the Government] or any former Government, a special and permanent right to manufacture salt, or to excavate or collect natural salt, shall on application made in accordance with the rules made under this Act be entitled to a licence for such purpose and to the annual renewal thereof, unless on a breach of the provisions of this Act, his licence has been cancelled by an officer duly empowered by the Central Government in this behalf.

[a] Substituted for "the British" by A.L.O., 1950.

32. Rights of ordinary proprietors of existing salt-works.—Every proprietor of a private salt work, other than a private salt factory, to which S. 31 applies, of which, under the provisions of Section 17 of the Bombay Salt Act, 1890,* the proprietor was entitled on application to a licence to manufacture or to excavate or collect natural salt at such factory, shall continue to be entitled, on application made in accordance with the rules made under this Act, to a licence for such purpose and to the annual renewal thereof, unless on a breach of the provisions of this Act, his licence has been cancelled by an officer duly empowered by the Central Government in this behalf:

Provided that the Collector of Central Excise may at any time withdraw or withhold a licence from the proprietor of any such salt factory, if no salt has been manufactured, excavated or collected in such salt factory for the three years ending on the thirtieth day of June last preceding the date of his order, or, with the previous sanction of the [b][Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963], if such salt factory has not produced, on an average, during the said three years, at least five thousand maunds of salt per annum.

[a] Repealed by S. 39 and Sch. III of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944).

[b] Substituted for "Central Board of Revenue" by Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963 (54 of 1963), S. 5 (2) [1-1-1964].

CHAPTER VI

ADJUDICATION OF CONFISCATIONS AND PENALTIES

33. Power of adjudication.—Where by the rules made under this Act any thing is liable to confiscation or any person is liable to a penalty, such confiscation or penalty may be adjudged—

(a) without limit, by a Collector of Central Excise;

(b) up to confiscation of goods not exceeding five hundred rupees in value and imposition of penalty not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees, by an Assistant Collector of Central Excise:

Provided that the Central Board of Revenue may, in the case of any officer performing the duties of an Assistant Collector of Central Excise, reduce the limits indicated in clause (b) of this section, and may confer on any officer the powers indicated in clause (a) or (b) of this section.

34. Option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation.—Wherever confiscation is adjudged under this Act or the rules made thereunder, the officer adjudging it shall give the owner of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the officer thinks fit.

Section 33 — Note 1

(1) Central Excise Rules (1944), Rr. 211 and 212 — Non-duty paid tobacco — Seizure and confiscation — Tobacco sold in spite of payment of duty and redemption fine — Suit for recovery of tobacco or its market price against Union of India maintainable and was not barred under S. 40. Selling of confiscated tobacco was ultra vires and such action could not be said to be "anything done or ordered to be done under this Act" within the meaning of S. 40. AIR 1958 Pat 439 (440) (DB).

(2) Adjudication of cases of confiscation and penalties under S. 33 is judicial or at least quasi-judicial function and therefore, subject to principles of natural justice. AIR 1965 Guj 215 (232): (1965) 6 Guj LR 137 (DB) * AIR 1960 All 402 (404) : 1960 Cri LJ 867.

(3) Confiscation of goods belonging to plaintiff — Statements recorded by Enquiry Officer in absence of plaintiff — Plaintiff not allowed to cross-examine them — Statements are inadmissible. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 338 (352) : (1967) 2 Andh LT 141 (DB).

(4) In view of the fact that proceedings under S. 33 is subject to judicial process and principle of natural justice Rule 9(2) cannot be assailed on the ground that it is unreasonable as there is no machinery or procedure provided for in the rule. AIR 1965 Guj 215 (232, 233) : (1965) 6 Guj LR 137 (DB).

(5) Suit challenging decision of Excise Authority — Point not raised before Excise Authority cannot be allowed to be taken in suit. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 338 (351): (1967) 2 Andh LT 141 (DB).

(6) Tobacco seized lawfully by excise authorities — Release of tobacco subject to condition precedent of paying full excise duty and provisional penalty — Excise authorities held not unjustified in imposing conditions. AIR 1962 Madh Pra 112 (114, 115): 1961 Jab LJ 1185 (DB).

(7) Where an order of the Assistant Collector, Central Excise, was set aside in appeal not on merits but on technical ground for not giving the owner a personal hearing as requested by him, the Assistant Collector was quite free to initiate fresh proceedings against the said owner on the same grounds with a view to observe correct procedure. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 324 (325): ILR (1961) 2 Andh Pra 279 (DB).

35. Appeals.—(1) Any person deeming himself aggrieved by any decision or order passed by a Central Excise officer under this Act or the rules made thereunder may, within three months from the date of such decision or order, appeal therefrom to the Central Board of Revenue, or, in such cases as the Central Government directs, to any Central Excise Officer not inferior in rank to an Assistant Collector of Central Excise and empowered in that behalf by the Central Government. Such authority or officer may thereupon make such further inquiry and pass such order as he thinks fit, confirming, altering or annulling the decision or order appealed against:

Provided that no such order in appeal shall have the effect of subjecting any person to any greater confiscation or penalty than has been adjudged against him in the original decision or order.

(2) Every order passed in appeal under this section shall, subject to the power of revision conferred by Section 36, be final.

action could not be said to be "anything done or ordered to be done under this Act" within the meaning of Section 40. ('58) AIR 1958 Pat 439 (440) (DB).

Section 35 — Note 1

(1) Provision for appeal, viz., S. 35 is not applicable to cases where the Excise Officer acts beyond the powers conferred by the Act or the Rules or acts in an arbitrary manner. AIR 1967 All 546 (548).

(2) A person aggrieved by any decision or order has an unfettered right to appeal under Section 35. Section 129 of Customs Act 1962, requiring deposit of duty or penalty levied pending appeal, applied to such appeal by notification dated 4-5-63 whittles down substantive right of appeal. Notification is therefore not valid. AIR 1968 SC 13 (15, 16): (1968) 1 SCR 82. (AIR 1966 Ker 195, Affirmed. [See however AIR 1960 Andh Pra 294 (297, 298). (There is nothing intrinsically illegal in a rule which prescribes certain limitations to the right of appeal. There is nothing like an absolute, inherent and unfettered right of appeal. Though adaptation of Section 189 of the Sea Customs Act to appeals under the Central Excises and Salt Act prescribes limitation to the right of appeal under Section 35 there is nothing illegal in it. Impliedly Overruled in AIR 1968 SC 13.) ]

(3) Remedies under Ss. 35 and 36 — Availability of — No bar to invoke extraordinary jurisdiction of High Court under Article 226. AIR 1962 Madh Pra 112 (114): 1961 Jab LJ 1185 (DB) * AIR 1965 All 305 (307). (4) Collector while hearing appeal acts quasi judicially — Directions issued by Central Board of Revenue which are not under Rule 238, cannot be binding on him for purposes of deciding the appeal. AIR 1969 SC 48 (51): (1969) 1 SCJ 110.

(5) Order passed by subordinate executive officer does not merge in appellate or revisional order — Writ petition against such order lies in High Court. AIR 1961 Madh Pra 148 (151) : 1961 Jab LJ 59 (DB).

(6) Appeal and revision — Quasi judicial function — Reasonable opportunity should be given to assessee of being heard. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (254): 1966 BLJR 790 (DB) * AIR 1960 All 402 (404): 1960 Cri LJ 867.

(8) The appellate authority functions as tribunal and does not figure as disputant. AIR 1968 Mys 237 (239): (1968) 1 Mys LJ 178.

(9) There is no indication in S. 35 to show that an oral enquiry is contemplated. The expression "such further enquiry" need not necessarily mean oral hearing of appeal. The enquiry may be of many kinds. There is nothing to warrant that the expression means and can only mean the oral enquiry. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 350 (355).

(10) Absence of specific provision as to remand in Section 35, which speaks only of the appellate authority passing such order as he thinks fit, confirming, altering or annulling the decision or order appealed against, does not disable the appellate authority from sending the matter back to the authority that passed the order for fresh enquiry. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 324 (325): ILR (1961) 2 Andh Pra 279 (DB). (1958 Andh LT 627, Foll.)

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

37. Power of Central Government to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may make rules[a] to carry into effect the purposes of this Act.

[a] For the Central Excise Rules, 1944, see Gazette of India, 1944, Extraordinary, dated 28-2-1944, p. 297.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(i) provide for the assessment and collection of duties of excise, the authorities by whom functions under this Act are to be discharged, the

Section 35 — Note 1 (contd.)

(12) If appellate authority after examining whole case on merits communicates a copy of its judicial order to the subordinate authority with a post script which post script is absent in the copy of final order communicated to the party, such post script cannot form part of judicial order. Reopening of case relying on such uncommunicated post script would offend against finality conferred on appellate decision. (1965) 6 Guj LR 350.

(13) After the disposal of the matter by the Appellate Tribunal, jurisdiction can be revived in the original Tribunal only if there are specific directions in the appellate order to that effect. AIR 1964 Mad 111 (112): (1963) 2 Mad LJ 332 (DB).

Section 36 — Note 1

(1) The Central Government exercising powers of revision under Section 36 must act quasi-judicially and give the petitioner a reasonable opportunity of being heard. When a mixed question of law and fact arises the petitioner must be given a reasonable opportunity to prove by affidavit or otherwise. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (254): 1966 BLJR 790 (DB).

(2) Existence of remedy by way of revision under Section 36 to Central Government does not bar jurisdiction of High Court under Art. 226 of the Constitution. AIR 1968 SC 13 (15): (1961) 1 SCR 82 * AIR 1965 All 305 (307). (Remedy of appeal and revision under Sections 35 and 36 available — Absence of good ground for by-passing remedy of appeal — Writ petition should be dismissed.) * AIR 1960 All 402 (403): 1960 Cri LJ 867 * AIR 1962 Madh Pra 112 (114) : 1961 Jab LJ 1513 (DB).

(3) The fact that Central Government is interested in the recovery of duty properly payable under the Act does not transform it from Tribunal as envisaged under Section 36 into a disputant. Consequently, issue of writ in favour of State Government, challenging the order of Central Government is not excluded by Article 131 of Constitution. AIR 1968 Mys 237 (238, 239): (1968) 1 Mys LJ 178 (DB).

(4) Order passed by subordinate executive officer and that of appellate authority under Section 35 (1) does not merge in revisional order — Writ petition against such order lies in High Court even if revisional authority is outside its jurisdiction. AIR 1961 Madh Pra 148 (151) : 1961 Jab LJ 59 (DB).

(5) In an appeal filed to the Supreme Court against the order passed in revision under Section 36, if there is no difficulty in holding that the claim of the appellant is definite and of ascertainable amount, the proper Court-fee payable is as prescribed by Entry 2, Part II of 3rd Schedule of Supreme Court Rules (1950). AIR 1966 SC 1754 (1757, 1758): (1966) 3 SCR 657.

(6) Section 35 (2) makes the order passed in appeal under Section 35 final subject to the power of revision conferred on the Central Government under Section 36. (1965) 6 Guj LR 350 (356): ILR (1965) Guj 240 (DB).

SECTION 37 — SYNOPSIS

1. General.
2. Rules framed under.

1. General. — (1) Power of assessment conferred on assessing officer by the rules made under Section 37 (2) cannot be exercised arbitrarily or capriciously. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (252): 1966 BLJR 790.

(2) The Act or the Rules made under Section 37 and published under S. 38 provide no machinery whatsoever for issue of notices requiring payment, the manner in which the duties shall be payable, and the recovery of duty not paid;

(ii) prohibit absolutely, or with such exceptions, or subject to such conditions as the Central Government thinks fit, the production or manufacture, or any process of the production or manufacture, of excisable goods, or of any component parts or ingredients or containers thereof, except on land or premises approved for the purpose;

(iii) prohibit absolutely, or with such exceptions, or subject to such conditions as the Central Government thinks fit, [a][ ° ° ° ] the transit of excisable goods from any part of [b][India] to any other part thereof;

[a] The words "the bringing of excisable goods into India from the State of Jammu and Kashmir" were omitted by the Taxation Laws (Extension to Jammu and Kashmir) Act, 1954 (41 of 1954), S. 2 and Schedule [8-10-1954].

AIR 1969 Punj 50 (55): ILR (1969) 1 Punj 456 (DB).

Rule 9 — (10) Provision under Rule 9 for confiscation of goods is not unreasonable on the ground that the Rule does not provide machinery and procedure for confiscation as the right to hold goods is affected only when demand is made under Rule 9 (2) and right to object has been provided under S. 33. AIR 1965 Guj 215 (232, 233): (1965) 6 Guj LR 137 (DB).

(11) In case of manufactured goods, payment of duty and clearance of goods may be synchronous or the payment may be postponed, although goods may be removed (Provisos to Rule 9). This immediately sets up two kinds of cases in respect of manufactured goods. The critical time thus becomes the removal from factory or warehouse but if payment of duty is made before the removal then critical time is the payment of duty. [a] The Proviso was omitted by the Central Excises and Salt (Amendment) Act, 1957 (49 of 1957), S. 2 [20-12-1957].

(xvii) exempt any goods from the whole or any part of the duty imposed by this Act;

(xviii) define an area no point in which shall be more than one hundred yards from the nearest point of any place in which salt is stored or sold by or on behalf of the Central Government, or of any factory in which saltpetre is manufactured or refined, and regulate the possession, storage and sale of salt within such area;

(xix) define an area round any other place in which salt is manufactured, and regulate the possession, storage and sale of salt within such area;

(xx) authorise the [a][Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act. 1963] or Collectors of Central Excise appointed for the purpose of this Act to provide by written instructions, for supplemental matters arising out of any rule made by the Central Government under this section.

[a] Substituted for "Central Board of Revenue" by Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963 (54 of 1963), S. 5 (2) [1-1-1964].

(3) In making rules under this section, the Central Government may provide that any person committing a breach of any rule shall, where no other penalty is provided by this Act, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two thousand rupees and that any article in respect of which any such breach is committed shall be confiscated.

(24) Rule 10-A is residuary provision — It is automatically excluded where Rule 10 applies. AIR 1967 Cal 269 (273): 71 Cal WN 1 (DB).

(25) Demand for duty under Rule 9 (2) for contravention of Rule 9 (1) — Rule 10 has no application. AIR 1965 Guj 215 (234): (1965) 6 Guj LR 137 (DB).

(26) Bond executed in terms of proviso to Rule 10-B (2) on 22-5-1958 — Assessments subsequent to that are provisional while prior to it are final. AIR 1968 Cal 154 (158) (DB).

(27) Where after realising that certain bottles were erroneously considered as laboratory glasswares and the duty was levied as such, the Department could ask for recovery of additional duty without giving show cause notice, when the time required in giving the notice would have barred the claim for additional duty and when the authorities were already knowing what the assessee would have replied. Principles of natural justice would not apply and all that was necessary was an attitude of impartiality and fairness on part of authorities. AIR 1965 All 305 (308) (DB).

(28) Recovery of duties or charges short levied or erroneously refunded — Higher duty can be demanded on ground that an error had been committed by officials earlier. AIR 1965 All 305 (308) (DB).

Rule 10-A — (29) As a general rule the proper time for collection of excise duty from a producer or manufacturer is when he wishes to remove the excisable goods from the place of manufacture etc., and secures the permission of the proper officer for that purpose. But exceptional cases may and do arise when the excise duty has been ordered to be levied after the goods have been already cleared away. Such cases are clearly covered by Rule 10-A. ('55) AIR 1955 Raj 114 (123): ILR (1955) 5 Raj 832 (DB).

[a][(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), and without prejudice to the provisions of Section 9, in making rules under this section, the Central Government may provide that if any manufacturer, producer or licensee of a warehouse—

(a) removes any excisable goods in contravention of the provisions of any such rule, or

(b) does not account for all such goods manufactured, produced or stored by him, or

(c) engages in the manufacture, production or storage of such goods without having applied for the licence required under Section 6, or

(d) contravenes the provisions of any such rule with intent to evade payment of duty,

The firm was not a person and therefore, proviso to the Notification in G. S. R. 373 dated 18-3-1961 as amended by Notification No. 81/61 dated 1-4-61 could not apply. Consequently higher rate of duty could not be demanded from each partner individually. 77 Mad LW 563 : ILR (1965) 1 Mad 542.

(64) All that proviso to Rule 178 (3A) means is that the grant of a licence to the person in actual possession of the premises, will not in any manner affect prejudicially the rights of the person who may be ultimately found to be entitled to the premises. The excise authorities have nothing to do with any dispute between the heirs of a deceased licensee inter se, so long as they grant the license to the heir in "actual possession" of the premises. AIR 1960 Assam 207 (208) : ILR (1958) 10 Assam 65 (DB).

(65) Cases under the Abkari, Opium or Forest Acts have no application in determining the validity of partnerships made in contravention of the provisions of the Central Excises and Salt Act. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 39 (41) : (1959) 2 Andh WR 550 (DB).

Rule 200—(66) Notifications Nos. 5 and 6, dated the 27th February, 1948, issued under S. 3(1), Land Customs Act 1924, referred to the then existing jurisdictions of the Collectors of Central Excise and of subordinate staff as descriptive of the area in regard to which the Collector of Land Customs and its subordinate staff would exercise jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the Land Customs Collector or the subordinate staff was not made dependant on the retention by the Collector of Central Excise or the subordinate staff of their existing jurisdiction by the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944. ('53) AIR 1953 Cal 663 (666) : ILR (1955) 1 Cal 343 (DB).

(67) Under notification No. 5 of 29-3-1947, the Province of Assam became a separate Collectorate with Headquarters at Shillong with effect from 1-4-1947 from which date, under another notification of the same date, the power under R. 200 could only be conferred by Collector of Central Excise Shillong on the officers of department within its territorial jurisdiction. Without such power being conferred detention and search of a vehicle under R. 200 by any officer subordinate to Collector would be illegal. That prior to 1-4-1947 such power was conferred by circular order No. 4-G 1/47, dt. 20-1-1947 is immaterial. ILR (1959) 11 Assam 397.

Rule 213—(68) The words "date of hearing" and "shall be heard" in R. 213 do not necessarily imply an oral hearing. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 350 (355).

Rule 215—(69) A person aggrieved by any decision or order has an unfettered right to appeal under S. 35. Section 129 of Customs Act 1962, requiring deposit of duty or penalty levied pending appeal, applied to such appeal by notification dt. 4-5-63 whittles down the substantive right of appeal. Notification is therefore not valid. AIR 1968 SC 13 (15, 16) : (1968) 1 SCR 82. (AIR 1960 Andh Pra 224, Impliedly Overruled.)

(70) R. 215 is not ultra vires of the rule-making power under S. 37. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 294 (297).

[But see ILR (1958) Punj 1343].

(71) Merely because R. 215 provides that for deposit of duty pending appeal, it does not mean either in fact or law that S. 189 of the Sea Customs Act can only be applied in cases where there has been a confiscation or withholding of the goods as provided for in Sea Customs Act. AIR 1960 AP 294 (297).

Rule 223A—(72) Rule 223-A envisages levy of penalty where it is found that there is a deficiency in the weight of the commodity which is not accounted for to the satisfaction of the officer. It is only in cases where assessing authority finds that there has been deficiency in the weight of the commodity at the warehouse which is not attributable to evaporation or dryage that the procedure mentioned in the rule should be adopted. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 540 (543, 544) : (1961) 1 Andh WR 367.

(73) Where assessing authorities made an allowance of only 5 per cent of the actual loss of weight in tobacco due to dryage at warehouse, held, that since assessee was entitled to an allowance of the actual loss of weight due to evaporation or dryage, the department was bound to allow all the loss of weight and not only 5 per cent. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 540 (544) : (1961) 1 Andh WR 367.

38. Publication of rules and notifications.—All rules made and notifications issued under this Act shall be made and issued by publication in the Official Gazette. All such rules and notifications shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act:

Provided that every such rule shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before [a][ ° ° ° ] [b][Parliament], while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more sessions, and if before the expiry of that period, °[[d][Parliament] makes any modification in the rule or directs] that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be.

[b] Substituted for the words "the Central Legislature" by A.L.O., 1950.
[c] Substituted for the words "or where the period for which the rule is so laid before one Chamber does not coincide with that for which it is so laid before the other, before the expiry of the later of these periods, both Chambers agree in making any modification in the rule or both Chambers agree" by A.C.A.O., 1948.

Section 37 — Note 2 (contd.)

Rule 225—(74) Rule 225 does not impinge upon the fundamental right guaranteed under Art. 19(1)(g) of the Constitution. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 350 (354).

(75) Rule 225 cannot be taken into consideration for interpreting R. 151. 1967 All Cr. R. 209 : 1967 All WR (HC) 304.

Rule 226—(76) Rule 226 is concerned only with the question of maintaining proper registers and deals with cases of failure to maintain registers prescribed therein. (1965) 6 Guj LR 350 : ILR (1965) Guj 240.

Section 38 — Note 1

(1) The first part of S. 38 of the Act by use of the word 'thereupon' makes it clear that the Notification of the Rule issued under the Act immediately on its publication in the official gazette has the effect of being enacted in the Act. That means that it acquires statutory force immediately on the publication in the official gazette. It has not to wait for its statutory force to be laid before Parliament. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (221): 65 Cal WN 670 (DB) * AIR 1961 Punj 192 (196) (DB).

(2) These Rules or notifications although they become part of Statute immediately on their publication will go out of the Statute book if Parliament modifies or annuls them within time and during the session mentioned in the proviso. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (221): 65 Cal WN 670 (DB).

(3) All that the proviso means is that as soon as may be such Rule shall be laid before Parliament and Parliament is given the right to modify or annul such Rule within time and session specified therein. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (221) : 65 Cal WN 670 (DB).

(4) If there is any conflict between Rules or Notifications and a section of the Act, it must be dealt with in the same spirit as a conflict between two sections of the Act would be dealt with and if reconciliation is impossible, the subordinate provision must give way, and probably the Rules or Notifications would be treated as subordinate to the section. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (223) : 65 Cal WN 670 (DB) * (1958) 60 Punj LR 205: ILR (1958) Punj 1343.

(5) The Act or the Rules made under Section 37 and published under Section 38 provide no machinery whatsoever for recovery of duty paid under a mistake. Therefore, neither the order passed by Asstt. Collector rejecting claim for refund of amount paid by mistake, nor subsequent order passed by appellate authority, were the orders passed under the Act. AIR 1967 Pat 363 (365) : 1968 BLJR 137 (DB).

(6) That, however, cannot mean that the Court cannot go into the question or rules being ultra vires on the ground that the impugned rule or notification was not "under this Act" within the meaning of Section 38. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (223): 65 Cal WN 670 (DB).

(7) Where there is nothing on record to show that the Rules or Notifications were not placed before Parliament, Court is entitled to presume that officials acts have been performed in their regular course. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (221): 65 Cal WN 670 (DB).

(8) In view of Proviso to Section 38 it cannot be said that Parliament has completely abdicated its functions as far as collection of excise duties is concerned. The rules framed under the Act cannot, therefore, be struck down on the ground of excessive delegation by legislature. AIR 1966 Pat 248 (252): 1966 BLJR 790 (DB).

(9) The Notification No. 2/Salt/47 dated 28-2-47 is a valid Notification and

39. Repeal of enactments.—[Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1947 (2 of 1948), S. 2 and Sch.]

Section 38 — Note 1 (contd.)

is binding on the Union of India. On a proper construction of Sections 37 and 38, the Central Government has power to make rules for refund of duty paid on salt subsequently exempted. AIR 1961 Cal 217 (222): 1966 Cri LJ 530 (DB). (AIR 1954 Punj 159, Dissented from.) * AIR 1961 Pat 72 (73) (DB). (AIR 1954 Punj 159, Dissented from.)

(10) Government Notification in G. S. R. No. 373 of 18th March, 1961 as amended by Notification No. 81/61 Central Excise of 1st April 1961, proviso — Two persons producing cotton fabrics under firm name — License issued in favour of both partners and not firm — Dissolution of partnership and both partners sharing looms and commencing production separately — Held, the looms were not acquired from another person and hence the Proviso to the Notification did not apply. (1964) 77 Mad LW 563: ILR (1965) 1 Mad 542.

Section 39 — Note 1

(1) By Repealing and Amending Act (2 of 1948), Section 39 and Third Schedule to Central Excises and Salt Act (1944) were repealed and no saving clause was inserted. Hence, Notification made under Madras Salt Act (1889) cannot continue to be in force. (1964) 2 Andh WR 416.

(2) The important criterion is whether the act was done in the discharge or purported discharge of official duty and the act must be an official act. 1963 (2) Cri LJ 202 (208) (Andh Pra). (It has got to be seen whether the act was integrally connected with the duties and was in separable from the duties and that the duties did not furnish a mere occasion or an opportunity for committing that act. The mere fact that the act is an offence is not sufficient to decide the question whether the protection is available.)

(3) Only suits of tortious nature for compensation or damages are barred. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 338 (343): (1967) 2 Andh LT 141. (Questions of collecting illegal taxes or orders imposing tax, duty or penalty are not dealt with by S. 40.) * AIR 1961 Andh Pra 540 (544): (1961) 1 Andh WR 367.

(4) Where any order or act passed or done is assailed or challenged, the matter would not be within ambit of S. 40. AIR 1967 All 546 (548).

(5) Civil Courts have jurisdiction to entertain suits with regard to illegal recovery of Central excise duty. AIR 1957 Mad 110 (113) (DB) * AIR 1961 Andh Pra 540 (543, 544): (1961) 1 Andh WR 367 * (1962) 3 Guj LR 762 * (1968) 70 Pun LR 412 * AIR 1967 Andh Pra 338 (343): (1967) 2 Andh LT 141 * AIR 1967 Andh Pra 281 (284): (1967) 1 Andh WR 20 (DB).

(6) Bar of limitation — Applies not only to prosecutions by private parties but also to prosecutions by State. 1963 (2) Cri LJ 202 (205) (Andh Pra).

(7) Central Excise Rules (1944), Rules 211 and 212 — Non-duty paid tobacco — Seizure and confiscation — Tobacco sold in spite of payment of duty and redemption fine — Suit for recovery of tobacco or its market price against Union of India was maintainable and was not barred under Section 40. Selling of confiscated tobacco was ultra vires and such action could not be said to be "anything done or ordered to be done under this Act" within the meaning of Section 40. Suit was governed by Article 62, Limitation Act, the terminus a quo for the period of limitation being the date of the sale. ('58) AIR 1958 Pat 439 (440) (DB).

(8) Suit for declaration that order of Excise Authority levying penalty and duty was illegal — Suit is not barred by Section 40 and hence limitation prescribed by Section 40 (2) is not applicable to it — General law of limitation will apply. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 338 (348): (1967) 2 Andh LT 141 * AIR 1967 Pat 363 (365): 1968 BLJR 137 (DB).

(9) Conspiracy (i) to defraud Central Government of its legitimate revenue by issue of bogus permit and (ii) to transport tobacco, cheat merchant and receive money from him — Charge against official and non-official — Prosecution more than 6 months after issue of permit — Prosecution was barred by Section 40 (2) as regards object (i) but was not barred by that provision, as regards object (ii). 1963 (2) Cri LJ 546 (554): (1963) 1 Andh LT 57.

(10) The prosecution against accused having been instituted after the expiration of six months of the commission of the alleged offences is barred by time under Section 40 (2). 1963 (1) Cri LJ 650 (658): (1962) 2 Andh WR 312 * (1959)2 Mad LJ 165.

(11) Point not raised before Central Excise Authority cannot be allowed to be urged in suit challenging decision of Authority. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 338 (351): (1967) 2 Andh LT 141.

(12) Wrongful attachment and sale of goods — Suit for damages — Burden is upon plaintiff to show want of good faith on part of Excise Officials. 1959-2 Mad LJ 165. (Suit for damages — Plaintiff failing to prove want of good faith — Suit is barred under S. 40 (1).)

40. Bar of suits and limitation of suits and other legal proceedings.—(1) No suit shall lie against the Central Government or against any officer or the *[Government] in respect of any order passed in good faith or any act in good faith done or ordered to be done under this Act.

(2) No suit, prosecution, or other legal proceedings shall be instituted for anything done or ordered to be done under this Act after the expiration of six months from the accrual of the cause of action or from the date of the act or order complained of.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

(See Section 3)

[NOTE:—This Schedule is substituted for the Original First Schedule, by the Central Excises (Conversion to Metric Units) Act, 1960 (38 of 1960), S. 2 and First Schedule, with effect from 1st October 1960. The Schedule is subsequently amended by Acts 14 of 1961; 11 of 1962; 20 of 1962; 13 of 1963; 30 of 1963; 5 of 1964; 10 of 1965; 15 of 1965; 13 of 1966; 12 of 1967; 20 of 1967 and 19 of 1968. The items in the Schedule here are given as amended by the relevant last amending Act. To ascertain the current rate of excise duty relating to the particular item reference should be made to the current annual Finance Act and the amending Act, if any, subsequent to the above mentioned Acts. For special duties of excise on certain goods and the regulatory duties of excise, see Sections 39 and 40 of the Finance Act, 1968 (19 of 1968).]

| Item No. | Description of goods | Rate of duty |
|---|---|---|
| (1) | (2) | (3) |
| | Food | |
| 1 | SUGAR, PRODUCED IN A FACTORY ORDINARILY USING POWER IN THE COURSE OF PRODUCTION OF SUGAR—"Sugar" means any form of sugar in which the sucrose content, if expressed as a percentage of the material dried to constant weight at 105° Centigrade, would be more than ninety. | |
| | (1) Sugar other than Khandsari or Palmyra. | Thirty rupees and fifty paise per quintal. |
| | (2) Khandsari sugar—that is to say, sugar in the manufacture of which neither a vacuum pan nor a vacuum evaporator is employed. | Fifteen rupees per quintal. |
| | (3) Palmyra sugar—that is to say, sugar manufactured from jaggery obtained by boiling the juice of the palmyra palm. | Nil. |
| 1A | CONFECTIONERY AND CHOCOLATES IN OR IN RELATION TO THE MANUFACTURE OF WHICH ANY PROCESS IS ORDINARILY CARRIED ON WITH THE AID OF POWER NAMELY:—(1) Boiled sweets, toffees, caramels, candies, nuts (including almonds) and fruit kernels coated with sweetening agent, and chewing gums. | Eighty paise per kilogram. |

Schedule 1 — Note 1

(1) Though the amendments of the First Schedule made by sub-section (1) of Section 7 of the Finance Act, 1951, did not become law until 28-4-1951, yet because the Parliament expressly stated that they are to be treated as if they had become law on the preceding 1st March the liability for payment of excise duty is to be determined on the assumption that as and from 1-3-1951 the rates of duty were those set out in sub-section (1) of Section 7. ('57) AIR 1957 All 84 (86) (DB).

(2) Excise duty is on the manufacture of goods and not on the sale. The fact, therefore, that the substance produced by the manufacturer at an intermediate stage is not put in the market, would not make any difference to the chargeability of the substance to excise duty, if it is covered by an item in Schedule 1 of the Act. AIR 1963 SC 791 (793): (1963) Supp 1 SCR 586 * AIR 1968 SC 922 (928): (1968) 2 SCJ 433.

| Item 1-A (contd.) | Description of goods | Rate of duty. |
|---|---|---|
| (1) | (2) | (3) |
| | (2) Chocolates in the form of slabs, tablets, bars, pastilles or croquettes, whether or not containing nuts, fruit kernels or fruits. | |
| 2 | COFFEE, cured—"Coffee" means the seed of the coffee tree (coffea), whether with or without husk, whether cured or uncured, but does not include the seed while still attached to the tree. | Eighty-five rupees per quintal. |
| 3 | TEA—"Tea" includes all varieties of the product known commercially as tea, and also includes green tea. | |
| | (1) Tea, all varieties except package tea falling within sub-item (2) of this item. | Not exceeding sixty-six paise per kilogram as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix. |
| | (2) Package tea, that is to say, tea packed in any kind of container containing not more than 27 kilograms net of tea. | Forty-six paise per kilogram, plus the duty for the time being leviable under sub-item (1) of this item, if not already paid. |
| | Beverages and Tobacco | |
| 4 | TOBACCO—"Tobacco" means any form of tobacco, whether cured or uncured and whether manufactured or not, and includes the leaf, stalks and stems of the tobacco plant, but does not include any part of a tobacco plant while still attached to the earth. | |
| I. | Unmanufactured tobacco— | Per kilogram. |
| | (1) if flue cured and used in the manufacture of cigarettes. | Three rupees and fifty paise. |
| | (2) if flue cured and used for the manufacture of smoking mixtures for pipes and cigarettes. | Twenty-seven rupees and fifty paise. |
| | (3) if flue cured and not otherwise specified. | Two rupees and fifty paise. |
| | (4) if other than flue cured and used for the manufacture of— | Two rupees and eighty-five paise. |
| | (a) cigarettes or (b) smoking mixtures for pipes and cigarettes. | |

Sch. I, Item 3 — Note 1

(1) The green leaves of tea are liable to sales tax under the provisions of the Travancore General Sales Tax Act, 1124. ('54) ILR (1954) Trav-Co 1035 (1041).

Sch. I, Item 4 — Note 1

(1) The provisions of the Central Excises and Salt Act are not contrary to the provisions of Section 66 (1) (e), C. P. and Berar Municipalities Act or to the levy of octroi duty on tobacco. Tobacco becomes subject to excise duty when it reaches the stage of manufacture mentioned in Schedule 1, Item 9 (presently, Item 4) of the Act. Even before it is converted into bidis it becomes excisable goods and liable to pay excise duty. The levy of such duty is not therefore in conflict with octroi duty. ('50) AIR 1950 SC 11 (14): 1950 SCR 15.

(2) Tariff of tax imposed by Cls. (5) and (6) are not discriminatory — Clause (6) cannot be impugned under Article 14. AIR 1962 SC 148 (150): (1962) 2 SCR 118.

(3) Price at which cheroots were sold by manufacturer to sole selling agents at factory — Cannot be basis for charging excise duty. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 281 (285): (1967) 1 Andh WR 20 (DB).

(4) Snuff falls within the definition of tobacco under Sch. I, Item 9 (Item 4 after amendment of 1960). (1966) 17 STC 116: ILR (1966) 1 Cal 274 * (1964) 68 Cal WN 19.

(5) Zarda is tobacco of the category of chewing tobacco within Item 9 (Item No. 4, presently). AIR 1965 Cal 498 (503).

(6) Where the curing was completed by a curer before the consignment reached the company's warehouse and the duty at that stage was payable on unmanufactured tobacco, the allowance of 1 per cent. on weight given by the excise authorities for loss of weight during the time that it was in the wholesale dealer's warehouse, must be held to have been done ex gratia and not as a matter of right. AIR 1959 Punj 357 (359, 360): 61 Pun LR 154.

| Item 4 (contd.) | Description of goods | Rate of duty |
|---|---|---|
| (1) | (2) | (3) |
| | (5) if other than flue cured and not actually used for the manufacture of (a) cigarettes or (b) smoking mixtures for pipes and cigarettes or (c) biris— | One rupee and seventy-five paise. |
| | (i) stems of tobacco larger than 6.35 millimetres in size, | |
| | (ii) dust of tobacco. | |
| | * * * | |
| | (iv) tobacco cured in whole leaf form and packed or tied in bundles, hanks or bunches or in the form of twists or coils. | |
| | * * * | |
| | (6) if other than flue cured and not otherwise specified. | Two rupees and fifty paise. |
| | (7) if used for agricultural purposes. | Nil. |
| | (8) stalks. | Twenty-five paise. |
| II. | Manufactured tobacco— | Per hundred. |
| | (1) Cigars and cheroots of which the value— | |
| | (i) exceeds Rs. 25 a hundred. | Twenty-one rupees. |
| | (ii) exceeds Rs. 15 a hundred, but does not exceed Rs. 25 a hundred. | Twelve rupees and seventy-five paise. |
| | (iii) exceeds Rs. 5 a hundred, but does not exceed Rs. 15 a hundred. | Four rupees and fifty paise. |
| | (iv) exceeds Rs. 1·25 a hundred, but does not exceed Rs. 5 a hundred. | One rupee and twenty Paise. |
| | (2) Cigarettes | Per thousand. |
| | | One hundred per cent. ad valorem. |
| | (3) Biris in the manufacture of which any process has been conducted with the aid of machines operated with or without the aid of power. | Three rupees per thousand. |
| | Crude materials, except fuels | |
| 5 | SALT— | |
| | "Salt" includes swamp salt, spontaneous salt, and salt, or saline solutions made or produced from any saline substance or from salt earth. | The rate fixed annually by a Central Act. |
| | Mineral fuels, Lubricants and related materials | |
| 6 | MOTOR SPIRIT— | |
| | Motor spirit, that is to say— | |
| | (i) any mineral oil (excluding crude mineral oil) which has its flashing point below seventy-six degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer, and which, either by itself or in admixture with any other substance, is suitable for use as fuel for internal combustion engines; and | Five hundred and fifty rupees per kilolitre at fifteen degrees of Centigrade thermometer. |
| | (ii) power alcohol, that is to say, ethyl alcohol of any grade (including such alcohol when denatured or otherwise treated which, either by itself or in admixture with any other substance, is suitable for being used as aforesaid. | |
| | Explanation I.—"Mineral oil" means an oil consisting of a single liquid hydrocarbon or a liquid mixture of hydrocarbons (except for associated impurities) derived from petroleum, coal shale, peat or any other bituminous substance, and includes any similar oil produced by synthesis or otherwise. | |
| | Explanation II.—"Flashing point" shall be determined in accordance with the tests specified in this behalf in the rules made under the Petroleum Act, 1934 (30 of 1934). | |
| 7 | KEROSENE— | |
| | Kerosene, that is to say, any mineral oil (excluding mineral colza oil and turpentine substitute) which has a flame height of eighteen millimetres or more and is ordinarily used as an illuminant in oil burning lamps. | Two hundred and thirty-five rupees per kilolitre at fifteen degrees of Centigrade thermometer. |

| Item 7 (contd.) | Description of goods | Rate of duty |
|---|---|---|
| (1) | (2) | (3) |
| | Explanation I. — The expression "mineral oil" has the meaning assigned to it in Explanation I to Item No. 6. | |
| | Explanation II.—"Flame height" shall be determined in the apparatus known as the smoke point lamp in the manner prescribed in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette. | |
| 8 | REFINED DIESEL OILS AND VAPORIZING OIL— that is to say, any mineral oil (excluding mineral colza oil and turpentine substitute), which has its flashing point at or above seventy-six degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer, and satisfies either of the following requirements :— (i) the oil has a flame height of ten millimetres or more but less than eighteen millimetres ; or (ii) the oil has a flame height of less than ten millimetres but has a viscosity of less than one hundred seconds by Redwood I Viscometer at one hundred degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer, and contains less than one quarter of one per cent. by weight of any bituminous substance. | |
| | (a) Refined diesel oils. | Four hundred and eighty-nine rupees per kilolitre at fifteen degrees of Centigrade thermometer. |
| | (b) Vaporizing oil. | Four hundred and eighty-nine rupees per kilolitre at fifteen degrees of Centigrade thermometer. |
| | Explanation. — The expressions "mineral oil", "flashing point" and "flame height" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in Explanations I and II to Item No. 6 and in Explanation II to Item No. 7. | |
| 9 | DIESEL OIL, NOT OTHERWISE SPECIFIED, that is to say, any mineral oil which— | One hundred and sixty-eight rupees and twenty-five paise per kilolitre at fifteen degrees of Centigrade thermometer. |
| | (i) has a flame height of less than ten millimetres ; (ii) contains one quarter of one per cent. or more by weight of any bituminous substance ; and (iii) possesses a viscosity of less than one hundred seconds by Redwood I Viscometer at one hundred degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer. | |
| | Explanation. — The expressions "mineral oil" and "flame height" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in Explanation I to Item No. 6 and in Explanation II to Item No. 7. | |
| 10 | FURNACE OIL, that is to say, any mineral oil which— | Seventy-five rupees and forty-five paise per kilolitre at fifteen degrees of Centigrade thermometer. |
| | (i) has a flame height of less than ten millimetres ; (ii) contains one quarter of one per cent. or more by weight of any bituminous substance ; and (iii) possesses a viscosity of one hundred seconds or more by Redwood I Viscometer at one hundred degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer. | |
| | Explanation. — The expressions "mineral oil" and "flame height" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in Explanation I to Item No. 6 and in Explanation II to Item No. 7. | |

Sch. 1, Item 12 — Note 1

(1) All vegetable oils which are not essential oils may be classified as non-essential oils. (1965) 69 Cal WN 561.

(2) Mustard oil not being essential oil, it can be said to be non-essential oil. From point of view of user mustard oil may be treated as an essential cooking medium, but because that is so, it does not become chemically anything but non-essential oil. (1965) 69 Cal WN 561.

(3) Expression "non-essential oil" is not vague and incapable of being made applicable to fixed or fatty oil produced from mustard seeds. (1965) 69 Cal WN 561.

(4) As the raw oil though purified in the process of manufacturing Vanspati, is not deodorised before its hydrogenation, it does not become at any stage 'refined oil' as is known to the consumers and the commercial community and no excise duty is leviable on it under Item 12 (old Item 23) of Sch. I as 'refined oil'.

Further, the producers of Vanaspati cannot be held to manufacture some kind of 'non-essential vegetable oil' within Item 12 by applying to the raw material purchased by them, the processes of neutralisation by alkali and bleaching by activated earth and/or carbon. AIR 1963 SC 791 (793, 794, 795): 1963 SCD 524: (1963) Supp 1 SCR 586.

Sch. 1, Item 13 — Note 1

(1) There is no legal basis for the demand of excise duty on the manufacture of hydrogenated oil known as Vanaspati under Item No. 12 (old Item No. 23) of Sch. 1. AIR 1963 SC 791 (795).

| | (ii) other sorts. | Thirty eight rupees per quintal. |

Sch. 1, Item 14-H — Note 1

(1) Though in the process of manufacture of sugar by carbonisation process and of soda ash by solvay ammonia soda process the manufacturer does require carbon dioxide for the purpose of producing the two articles and sets up lime kiln for that purpose, the gas generated by the kilns is kiln gas and not carbon dioxide as known to the trade, i.e. to those who deal in it or who use it. The kiln gas in question therefore is neither carbon dioxide nor compressed carbon dioxide known as such to the commercial community and therefore cannot attract Item 14-H in the First Schedule. | | (1) Cotton fabrics, superfine— | |
| | that is to say, fabrics in which the average count of yarn is 48s or more. | Eighty paise per square metre. |
| | (2) Cotton fabrics, fine— | |
| | that is to say, fabrics in which the average count of yarn is 35s or more but is less than 48s. | Eighty paise per square metre. |
| | (3) Cotton fabrics, medium— | |
| | that is to say, fabrics in which the average count of yarn is 17s or more but is less than 35s. | Sixty paise per square metre. |
| | (4) Cotton fabrics, coarse— | |
| | that is to say, fabrics in which the average count of yarn is less than 17s. | Sixty paise per square metre. |
| | (5) Cotton fabrics, not otherwise specified. | Eighty paise per square metre. |
| | Explanation I. — "Count" means count of grey yarn. | |
| | Explanation II.—For the purpose of determining the average count of yarn, the following rules shall apply, namely:— | |
| | (a) Yarn used in the borders or selvedges shall be ignored. | |
| | (b) For multiple-fold yarn, the count of the basic single yarn shall be taken and the number of ends per 25.4 millimetres in the reed or the number of picks per 25.4 millimetres, as the case may be, shall be multiplied by the number of plies in the yarn. | |
| | (c) In the case of fabrics manufuctured from cotton and other yarns, the other yarns shall, for the aforesaid purpose, be deemed to be cotton yarn. | |
| | (d) The average count shall be obtained by applying the following formula, namely:— | |
| | "(Count of warp × number of ends per 25.4 millimetres in the reed) + (Count of weft × number of picks per 25.4 millimetres). | |

(Number of ends per 25-4 millimetres in the reed) + (Number of picks per 25.4 millimetres), the result being rounded off, wherever necessary by treating any fraction which is one-half or more as one, and disregarding any fraction which is less than one-half."

Sch. I, Item 26-A — Note 1

(1) The plaintiff carried on business of manufacturing Kansi and brass utensils, Kansi being an alloy of copper and tin, and brass of copper and zinc. The plaintiff, after melting the metals, prepared billets of Kansi and brass, and sent to the rolling mills for rolling into uncut circles. Subsequently these uncut circles were subjected to various manufacturing processes and ultimately assumed the shape of utensils.

Held, that when the billets of Kansi and brass were rolled into uncut circles, they did not lose their character as raw materials for the manufacture of utensils and had not undergone "any stage of manufacture," and so duty could not be levied under Item 26-A. (1968) 70 Pun LR 412.

SCHEDULE

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"At present security arrangements at important industrial undertakings in the public sector are handled by the Watch and Ward staff of the Organisation concerned. The watch and ward staff is generally engaged in guarding the entrances or the perimeter of the industrial undertaking and in preventing entries of unauthorised persons. Unplanned recruitment, inadequate supervision, training and discipline have made the existing watch and ward staff illequipped to discharge its responsibilities. It is considered necessary to strengthen the security arrangements in vital industrial undertakings. For that purpose it is proposed to constitute a centrally recruited, organised and trained Industrial Security Force. The Force will primarily be responsible for the watch and ward of industrial undertakings owned by the Central Government and may be deployed at the request and cost of managements, for security duties of industrial undertakings in public sector."

[THE] CENTRAL INDUSTRIAL SECURITY FORCE ACT, 1968
(ACT No. 50 OF 1968)[a]

[2nd December, 1968.]

An Act to provide for the constitution and regulation of a Force called the Central Industrial Security Force for the better protection and Security of certain industrial undertakings.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 2-8-1966, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext. page 435, and for Joint Committee Report, see Gaz. of Ind., 12-2-1968, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext., page 4.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENTRAL INDUSTRIAL SECURITY FORCE ACT, 1968.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date[a] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

[a] The Act came into force on 10-3-1969, see Gaz. of Ind., 3-3-69, Pt. II, S. 3 (ii), Ext., page 291.

2. Definitions.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Force" means the Central Industrial Security Force constituted under Section 3;

(b) "industrial undertaking" means any undertaking pertaining to a scheduled industry and includes an undertaking engaged in any other industry, or in any trade, business or service which may be regulated by Parliament by law;

(c) "industrial undertaking in public sector" means an industrial undertaking owned, controlled or managed by—

(i) a Government company as defined in Section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956,

(ii) a corporation established by or under a Central, Provincial or State Act, which is controlled or managed by the Government;

(d) "Inspector-General" means the Inspector-General of the Force appointed under Section 4;

(e) "Managing Director", in relation to an industrial undertaking, means a person (whether called a managing agent, general manager, manager, chief executive officer or by any other name) who exercises control over the affairs of that undertaking;

(f) "members of the Force" means a person appointed to the Force under this Act, other than a supervisory officer;

(g) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(h) "scheduled industry" means any industry engaged in the manufacture or production of the articles mentioned in the First Schedule to the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951;

(i) "supervisory officer means any of the officers appointed under Section 4 and includes any other officer appointed by the Central Government as a supervisory officer of the Force.

(2) Any reference in this Act to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.

3. Constitution of the Force.—(1) There shall be constituted and maintained by the Central Government a Force to be called the Central Industrial Security Force for the better protection and Security of Industrial undertakings owned by that Government.

(2) The Force shall be constituted in such manner shall consist of such number of supervisory officers and members of the Force who shall receive such pay and other remuneration as may be prescribed.

4. Appointment and powers of supervisory officers.—(1) The Central Government may appoint a person to be the Inspector-General of the Force and may appoint other persons to be Deputy Inspectors-General, Chief Security Officers or Security Officers of the Force.

(2) The Inspector-General ad every other supervisory officer so appointed shall have, and may exercise, such powers and authority as is provided by or under this Act.

5. Appointment of members of the Force.—The appointment of members of the Force shall rest with the Inspector-General who shall exercise that power in accordance with rules made under this Act.

Provided that the power of appointment under this section may also be exercised by such other supervisory officer as the Central Government may by order specify in this behalf.

6. Certificates of members of the Force.—(1) Every member of the Force shall receive on his appointment a certificate in the form specified in the Schedule, under the seal of the Inspector-General or such other supervisory officer as the Inspector-General may specify in this behalf, by virtue of which the person holding such certificate shall be vested with the powers of a member of the Force.

(2) Such certificate shall cease to have effect whenever the person named in it ceases for any reason to be a member of the Force.

7. Superintendence and administration of the Force.—(1) The superintendence of the Force shall vest in the Central Government, and subject thereto the administration of the Force shall vest in the Inspector-General and shall be carried on by him in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the administration of the Force within such local limits as may be prescribed shall be carried on by a Deputy Inspector-General, Chief Security Officer or Security Officer in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder and every supervisory officer placed in charge of the protection and security of an industrial undertaking shall, subject to any directions that may be given by the Central Government in this behalf, discharge his functions under the general supervision, direction and control of the Managing Director of that undertaking.

8. Dismissal, removal, etc., of members of the Force.—Subject to the provisions of Article 311 of the Constitution and to such rules as the Central Government may make under this Act, any supervisory officer may—

(i) dismiss, suspend or reduce in rank any member of the Force whom he thinks remiss or negligent in the discharge of his duty, or unfit for the same; or

(ii) award any one or more of the following punishments to any member of the Force who discharges his duty in a careless or negligent manner, or who by any act of his own renders himself unfit for the discharge thereof, namely:—

(a) fine to any amount not exceeding seven days' pay or reduction in pay scale;

(b) drill, extra guard, fatigue or other duty;

(c) removal from any office of distinction or deprivation of any special emolument.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Committee are of the opinion that there is no necessity for providing for punishment of 'confinement to quarters' in view of the various punishments laid down in the clause. Hence the words 'confinement to quarters for a period not exceeding fourteen days with or without punishment' have been omitted from sub-clause (b) of the clause".—J. C. R.

9. Appeal and revision.—(1) Any member of the Force aggrieved by an order made under Section 8 may, within thirty days from the date on which the order is communicated to him, prefer an appeal against the order to such authority as may be prescribed, and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), the decision of the said authority thereon shall be final:

Provided that the prescribed authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(2) In disposing of an appeal, the prescribed authority shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed.

(3) The Central Government may call for and examine the record of any proceeding under Section 8 or under sub-section (2) of this section and may make such inquiry or cause such inquiry to be made and subject to the provisions of this Act, may pass such order thereon as it thinks fit:

Provided that no order imposing an enhanced penalty under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) shall be made unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been given to the person affected by such order.

10. Duties of members of the Force.—It shall be the duty of every supervisory officer and member of the Force—

(a) promptly to obey and execute all orders lawfully issued to him by his superior authority;

(b) to protect and safeguard the industrial undertakings owned by the Central Government together with such other installations as are specified by that Government to be vital for the carrying on of work in those undertakings, situate within the local limits of his jurisdiction:

Provided that before any installation not owned or controlled by the Central Government is so specified, the Central Government shall obtain the consent of the Government of the State in which such installation is situate;

(c) to protect and safeguard such other industrial undertakings and installations for the protection and security of which he is deputed under Section 14;

(d) to do any other act conducive to the better protection and security of the industrial undertakings referred to in Clauses (b) and (c).

11. Power to arrest without warrant.—(1) Any supervisory officer or member of the Force may, without any order from a Magistrate and without a warrant arrest any person who has been concerned in, or against whom a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been concerned in or who is found taking precautions to conceal his presence under circumstances which afford reason to believe that he is taking such precautions with a view to committing, a cognizable offence relating to,—

(i) the property belonging to any industrial undertaking, or

(ii) the other installations, referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of Section 10.

(2) If any person is found trespassing on the premises of any industrial undertaking referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of Section 10, he may, without prejudice to any other proceedings which may be taken against him, be removed from such premises by any supervisory officer or member of the Force.

12. Power to search without warrant.—(1) Whenever any supervisory officer, or any member of the Force, not below the prescribed rank, has reason to believe that any such offence as is referred to in Section 11 has been or is being committed and that a search warrant cannot be obtained without affording the offender an opportunity of escaping or of concealing evidence of the offence, he may detain the offender and search his person and belongings forthwith and, if he thinks proper, arrest any person whom he has reason to believe to have committed the offence.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to searches under that Code shall, so far as may be, apply to searches under this section.

13. Procedure to be followed after arrest.—Any supervisory officer or member of the Force making an arrest under this Act, shall, without unnecessary delay, make over the person so arrested to a police officer, or, in the absence of a police officer, take such person or cause him to be taken to the nearest police station together with a report of the circumstances occasioning the arrest.

14. Deputation of the Force to industrial undertakings in public sector.—(1) Subject to any general directions which may be issued by the Central Government, it shall be lawful for the Inspector-General on a request received in this behalf from the Managing Director concerned of an industrial undertaking in public sector, showing the necessity thereof, to depute such number of supervisory officers and members of the Force as the Inspector-General may consider necessary for the protection and security of that industrial undertaking and any installations attached thereto and the officers and members of the Force so deputed shall be at the charge of the Managing Director :

Provided that in the case of an undertaking, owned, controlled or managed,—

(i) by a Government company of which the Central Government is not a member;

(ii) by a corporation established by or under a Provincial or State Act, no such request shall be entertained unless it is made with the consent of the Government of the State in which the undertaking is situate.

(2) If the Inspector-General is of the opinion that circumstances necessitating the deputation of the officers and members of the Force in relation to an industrial undertaking under sub-section (1) have ceased to exist, or for any other reason it is necessary so to do, he may, after informing the Managing Director of that industrial undertaking, withdraw the officers and members of the Force so deputed :

Provided that the Managing Director may, on giving one month's notice in writing to the Inspector-General require that the officers and members of the Force so deputed shall be withdrawn, and the Managing Director shall be relieved from the charge from the date of expiration of such notice or from any earlier date on which the Force is so withdrawn.

(3) Every officer and member of the Force, while discharging his functions during the period of deputation, shall continue to exercise the same powers and be subject to the same responsibilities, discipline and penalties as would have been applicable to him under this Act, if he had been discharging those functions in relation to an industrial undertaking owned by the Central Government.

15. Officers and members of the Force to be considered always on duty and liable to be employed anywhere in India.—(1) Every supervisory officer and member of the Force shall, for the purpose of this Act, be considered to be always on duty, and shall, at any time, be liable to be employed at any place within India.

(2) Save as provided in Section 14, no supervisory officer or members of the Force shall engage himself in any employment or office other than his duties under this Act.

16. Responsibilities of members of the Force during suspension.—A member of the Force shall not by reason of his suspension from office cease to be a member of the Force; and he shall during that period, be subject to the same responsibilities, discipline and penalties to which he would have been subject if he were on duty.

17. Surrender of certificate, arms, etc., by persons ceasing to be members of the Force.—(1) Every person who for any reason ceases to be a member of the Force, shall forthwith surrender to any supervisory officer empowered to receive the same, his certificate of appointment, the arms accoutrements, clothing and other articles which have been furnished to him for the performance of duties as a member of the Force.

(2) Any person who wilfully neglects or refuses to surrender his certificate of appointment or the arms, accoutrements, clothing and other articles furnished to him, as required by sub-section (1), shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to any article which, under the orders of the Inspector-General, has become the property of the person to whom the same was furnished.

18. Penalties for neglect of duty, etc.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in Section 8, every member of the Force who shall be guilty of any violation of duty or wilful breach or neglect of any rule or regulation or lawful order made by a supervisory officer, or who shall withdraw from the duties of his office without permission, or who, being absent on leave, fails, without reasonable cause, to report himself for duty on the expiration of the leave, or who engages himself without authority in any employment other than his duty as a member of the Force, or who shall be guilty of cowardice, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an offence punishable under this section shall be cognizable.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent, any member of the Force from being prosecuted under any other law for any offence made punishable by that law, or for being liable under any such law to any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for such offence by this section:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

19. Application of Act 22 of 1922 to officers and members of the Force.—The Police (Incitement to Disaffection) Act, 1922, shall apply to supervisory officers and members of the Force as it applies to members of a police force.

20. Certain Acts not to apply to members of the Force.—Nothing contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, or the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or the Factories Act, 1948, or any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State shall apply to members of the Force.

21. Protection of acts of officers and members of the Force.—(1) In any suit or proceeding against any supervisory officer or member of the Force for any act done by him in the discharge of his duties, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the orders of a competent authority.

(2) Any such plea may be proved by the production of the order directing the act, and if it is so proved, the supervisory officer or member of the Force shall thereupon be discharged from any liability in respect of the act so done by him, notwithstanding any defect in the jurisdiction of the authority which issued such order.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any legal proceeding, whether civil or criminal, which may lawfully be brought against any supervisory officer or member of the Force for anything done or intended to be done under the powers conferred by, or in pursuance of, any provision of this Act or the rules thereunder shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of shall have been committed and not otherwise; and notice in writing of such proceeding and of the cause thereof shall be given to the person concerned and his supervisory officer at least one month before the commencement of such proceeding.

22. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such rules may provide for—

(a) regulating the classes, ranks, grades, pay and remuneration of supervisory officers and members of the Force and their conditions of service in the Force;

(b) regulating the powers and duties of supervisory officers and members of the Force authorised to exercise any functions by or under this Act;

(c) fixing the period of service for supervisory officers and members of the Force;

(d) prescribing the description and quantity of arms, accoutrements, clothing and other necessary articles to be furnished to the members of the Force;

(e) prescribing the places of residence of members of the Force;

(f) institution, management and regulation of any fund for any purpose connected with the administration of the Force;

(g) regulating the punishments and prescribing authorities to whom appeals shall be preferred from orders of punishment; or remission of fines or other punishments, and the procedure to be followed for the disposal of such appeals;

(h) the terms and conditions subject to which supervisory officers and members of the Force may be deputed under Section 14 and the charges therefor; and

(i) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule, or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Committee feel that specific provision be made in the clause to provide for making of rules regarding the terms and conditions subject to which supervisory officers and members of the Force may be deputed for the protection of industrial undertakings in the public sector and for charges in respect thereof. A new paragraph (h) has accordingly been added to sub-clause (2) of the clause".—J. C. R.

[THE] CENTRAL LAWS (EXTENSION TO JAMMU AND KASHMIR) ACT, 1968

(ACT 25 OF 1968)[a]

[The text of the Act printed here is as on 15-4-1969.]

[24th May, 1968.]

An Act to provide for the extension of certain Central Laws to the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 19-7-1967, Pt. II, S. 2, Ext., p. 581.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENTRAL LAWS (EXTENSION TO JAMMU AND KASHMIR) ACT, 1968

(2) It shall come into force on such date[a] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

[a] The Act came into force on 15-8-1968, see Gaz. of Ind., 9-8-68, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), Ext. page 467.

2. Extension and amendment of certain laws.—(1) The Acts mentioned in the Schedule and all rules, orders and regulations made thereunder are hereby extended to, and shall be in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(2) With effect from the commencement of this Act, the Acts mentioned in the Schedule shall be amended as specified therein.

3. Construction of references to laws not in force in Jammu and Kashmir.—Any reference in any Act mentioned in the Schedule to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.

4. Construction of references to authorities where new authorities have been constituted.—Any reference by whatever form of words in any law for the time being in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir to any authority competent at the date of the passing of that law to exercise any powers or discharge any functions in that State shall, where a corresponding new authority has been constituted by or under any law now extended to that State, have effect as if it were a reference to the new authority.

5. Repeals and savings.—If immediately before the commencement of this Act there is in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir any law corresponding to any Act now extended to that State, that law shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, stand repealed on such commencement :

Provided that the repeal shall not affect—

(a) the previous operation of any law so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder,

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed,

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed, or

(b) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Act had not been passed :

Provided further that, subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made , notification, instruction or direction issued, form, bye-law or scheme framed, certificate obtained, permit or licence granted or registration effected) under any such law shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of the Act now extended to that State, and shall continue to be in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under the said Act.

6. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of any act now extended to the State of Jammu and Kashmir, the Central Government may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, make such provisions or give such directions as appear to it necessary for the removal of the difficulty.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, any such notified order may,—

(a) specify the corresponding authorities within the meaning of Section 4,

(b) provide for the transfer of any matter pending immediately before the commencement of this Act before any Court, tribunal or other authority, to any corresponding Court, tribunal or other authority for disposal,

(c) specify the areas or circumstances in which, or the extent to which, or the conditions subject to which, anything done or any action taken (including any of the matters specified in the second proviso to Section 5) under any law repealed by that section shall be recognised or given effect to under the corresponding provision of the Act now extended.

[THE] CENTRAL PROVINCES LAWS ACT, 1875
(ACT XX OF 1875)[a]

[9th December, 1875.]

An Act to declare and amend the law in force in the Central Provinces

Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient to declare and amend certain portions of the law in force in the Central Provinces; It is hereby enacted as follows:

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1875, Pt. V, page 159.

This Act is extended to the States merged in the former State of Madhya Pradesh by M. P. Act XII of 1950.

The Act is repealed in part in Sambalpur District by Act VII of 1905. Sambalpur District is in Orissa State.

1. Short title.—This Act may be called THE CENTRAL PROVINCES LAWS ACT, 1875;

Local extent.—It extends to the territories now under the administration of the State Government of the Central Provinces;

Commencement.—And it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

STATE ADAPTATIONS

Maharashtra

Vidarbha—In its application to the Vidarbha region of the State of Maharashtra, in Section 1, for the words "State Government of the Central Provinces", substitute the words "State Government of the area comprised within the districts of Nagpur, Wardha, Chanda and Bhandara."—The Bombay (Vidarbha Region) Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1956.

Madhya Pradesh

Mahakoshal—In its application to the Mahakoshal region of the State of Madhya Pradesh, in Section 1, for the words beginning with "It extends" and ending with the words "Central Provinces" substitute the words "It extends to the whole of the Mahakoshal region".

Note.—"Mahakoshal region" means the territories comprised within the districts of Jabalpur, Sagar, Damoh, Mandla, Hoshangabad, Narsimhapur, Chhindwara, Seoni, Betul, Nimar, Raipur, Bilaspur, Durg, Bastar, Surguja Raigarh and Balaghat of the State of Madhya Pradesh.—M.P. Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1956.

2. Repeal of enactments and rules.—On and from the date on which this Act comes into force, the following shall be repealed, that is to say,—

(a) all Bengal Regulations except the Regulations or parts of Regulations hereinafter declared to be in force;

(b) all [a][Central Acts], (except the Acts mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed) which do not expressly or by necessary implication extend to the said territories or any part thereof, and have not been extended thereto in exercise of a power conferred by a [b][Central Act];

(c) all rules, regulations and enactments not being Statutes, Bengal Regulations, [a][Central Acts], or rules or regulations made in exercise of a power conferred by a Statute, Bengal Regulation or [b][Central Act].

[c][ ° ° ° ° ° ° ° ]

[a] Substituted for "Acts of the Central Legislature" by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] Substituted for "Act of the Central Legislature", ibid.

[c] The proviso as to the law relating to land revenue and Courts of Wards was repealed by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).

3. Certain enactments to be deemed to be in force.—On and from the said date the enactments specified in the schedule hereto annexed shall be deemed to be in force throughout the said territories to the extent mentioned in the third column of the said schedule.

But the powers and duties incident to the operation of the same enactments, so far as such powers and duties are referred to in the fourth column of the said schedule, shall be exercised and performed by the authorities mentioned in that column.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the operation of any enactment not mentioned in the said schedule.

4. Confirmation of existing Acts.—Every [a][Central Act] which extends, or can by notification be extended, to the territories which were under the administration of the said State Government at the time of the passing thereof, shall extend, or may by notification be extended, as the case may be, to all the territories now under the administration of the said State Government.

[a] Substituted for "Act of the Central Legislature" by A.L.O., 1950.

STATE ADAPTATIONS

Madhya Pradesh

Mahakoshal—In its application to the Mahakoshal region of the State of Madhya Pradesh, Section 4 as adapted reads as follows:—

"4. Every Central Act which extends, or can by notification be extended, to the said territories at the time of the passing thereof, shall extend, or may by notification be extended, as the case may be, to all the said territories."—M.P. Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1956.

Maharashtra

Vidarbha region—In its application to the Vidarbha region of the State of Maharashtra, in Section 4—

(i) for the words "the territories" occurring twice, substitute the words "the said territories";

(ii) omit the words "which were under the administration of the said State Government" and "now under the administration of the said State Government".—Bombay (Vidarbha Region) Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1956.

[a]5. Rule of decision in cases of certain classes.—In questions regarding inheritance, special property of females, betrothal, marriage, dower, adoption, guardianship, minority, bastardy, family relations, wills, legacies, gifts, partitions or any religious usage or institution, the rule of decision shall be the Muhammadan Law in cases where the parties are Muhammadans, and the Hindu Law in cases where the parties are Hindus, except in so far as such law has been by the legislative enactment altered or abolished, or is opposed to the provisions of this Act:

Provided that when among any class or body of persons or among the members of any family any custom prevails which is inconsistent with the law applicable between such persons under this section, and which if not inconsistent with such law, would have been given effect to as legally binding, such custom shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, be given effect to.

[a] The provisions of this section have been repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1937 (XXVI of 1937)—see Section 6 of that Act.

6. Rules in cases not expressly provided for.—In cases not provided for by S. 5, or by any other law for the time being in force, the Courts shall act according to justice, equity and good conscience.

7. Articles exempt from attachment.[a].—Implements of husbandry and cattle for agricultural purposes and implements of trade are exempted from attachment and sale in execution of decrees of the Civil Courts.

[a] Cf. S. 60, Civil Procedure Code, 1908 (5 of 1908).

8. Power to make subsidiary rules.—The said State Government may from time to time make rules consistent with this Act as to the following matters:—

(a) the maintenance of watch and ward and the establishment of proper system of conservancy and sanitation at fairs and other large public assemblies;

---

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) If there were a system or body of law received and acknowledged by Gonds in general, the provisions of such law if proved might have some effect to cast doubt upon the truth of the recorded statements. They could be given effect. if proved, as a matter of justice, equity and good conscience under Section 5 of the C. P. Laws Act (20 of 1875). AIR 1943 PC 48 (52): ILR (1943) Kar (PC) 53.

(2) The term 'Hindu' in Section 5 refers to profess some form of Hindu religion, whatever be the branch, school sect, or off-shoot to which they belong, but it does not extend to persons who have never possessed any form of the Hindu religion or to those who have been converted from it to some entirely different religion. The word would apply to dissenters and non-conformists but not to apostates. Thus a Jain is a Hindu but a Brahmin converted to Buddhism or Islam is not. Gonds in the Central Provinces are not Hindus and they are not governed by the Hindu Law except when it is adopted by any family, sect or branch. AIR 1918 Nag 7 (11): 2 Nag LJ 129.

(3) Under Section 5, C. P. Laws Act, the burden of proving a custom at variance with and seeking to alter the personal law of the parties, lies heavily on the person relying on it. The custom should be ancient and invariable and such a custom must be established to be so by clear and unambiguous evidence. AIR 1933 Nag 16 (17) : 28 Nag LR 267(2).

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) In absence of specific provisions the Courts are entitled, under Section 6, to apply the principles of English Law, if applicable to Indian conditions, as rules of justice, equity and good conscience. AIR 1946 Nag 114 (116): 1945 Nag LJ 468.

(b) the imposition of taxes for the purposes mentioned in clause (a) of this section on persons holding or joining any of the assemblies therein referred to;

(c) the custody of judicial records, civil and criminal; [a][° ° °];

[b][(d)° ° ° °]

[a] The words "and the destruction from time to time of such of the said records as it may be deemed unnecessary to keep" were repealed by the Destruction of Records Act, 1879 (III of 1879).

[b] Clause (d) relating to the appointment, duties, punishment, suspension and dismissal of all ministerial officers was repealed by A.O., 1937.

9. Penalty for breach of rules. — The State Government may, in making any rule under this Act, attach to the breach of it, in addition to any other consequences that would ensue from such breach, a punishment, on conviction before a Magistrate, not exceeding one month's imprisonment, or two hundred rupees fine, or both.

10. Publication of Rules, Force of rules.—All rules made under this Act shall [a][° ° °] be published in the [b][Official Gazette] and shall thereupon have the force of law.

[a] The words "when sanctioned by the Governor-General in Council" were omitted by the Devolution Act, 1920 (XXXVIII of 1920), S. 2 and Sch. I.

[b] Substituted for "C.P. Gazette" by A.O., 1937.

[a][11. Local Repeal, in part, of Code of Civil Procedure.—Sections 184, 185 and 189 of the Code of Civil Procedure[b] are hereby repealed.]

[a] Inserted by the C.P. Laws Act, 1879 (II of 1879), S. 2.

[b] See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), Sch. I, O. XVIII, Rr. 8, 9 and 13.

[a][12. Sections substituted in same Code.—For Sections 182, 190 and 191 of the same Code[b] the following shall be substituted (namely):—

"182. Note of evidence taken.—A note of the essential points of the evidence of each witness shall be made at the time, and in the course of oral examination, by the Judge, in his own language, or in English if he is sufficiently acquainted with that language, and such notes shall be filed with, and form part of, the record of the case.

"190. Judge unable to make note to record reason of his inability.—If the Judge be prevented from making a note as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so, and shall cause such note to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court, and shall sign the same, and such note shall form part of the record.

"191. Power to use note made by Judge dying or removed before conclusion of suit.—When the Judge making a note of the evidence, or causing one to be made as above required, dies or is removed from the Court before the conclusion of the suit, his successor may, if he thinks fit, deal with such note as if he himself had made it or caused it to be made."]

[a] Inserted by the C.P. Laws Act, 1879 (II of 1879), S. 2.

[b] See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), Sch. I, O. XVIII, Rr. 5, 14 and 15.

THE SCHEDULE

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Crown Representative's Police Force" which was raised by the late Crown Representative as a reserve force to aid Indian States in the maintenance of law and order in times of emergency, has been retained as the Central Reserve Police Force even after the lapse of paramountcy.

2. The Crown Representative's Police Force Law, 1939, which was made under the Foreign (Jurisdiction) Order, 1937, to provide for the constitution and regulation of the Force, automatically ceased to have effect from the 15th August, 1947, but no enactment has been made for the regulation and control of this Force by the Government of India after the 15th August, 1947. The objects of the proposed Bill are to replace the old Crown Representative's Police Force Law, 1939, and thus provide for the organisation, control and regulation of the Central Reserve Police Force, by the Central Government. For the purposes of this Bill, this Force falls within the category of "any other armed forces raised or maintained by the Dominion" mentioned in Paragraph 1 of List 1 of the Seventh Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, as adapted."

[THE] CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE ACT, 1949

(ACT 66 OF 1949)[a]

[28th December, 1949.]

An Act to provide for the constitution and regulation of an armed Central Reserve Police Force.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the constitution and regulation of an armed Central Reserve Police Force;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 17-12-1949, Pt. V, p. 473.

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE ACT, 1949.

(2) It extends to the whole of India [a][ . . . . ] and applies to members of the Force, wherever they may be.

[a] The words "except the State of Hyderabad" inserted by A.L.O., 1950, were omitted by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. [1-4-1951.].

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "active duty" means the duty to restore and preserve order in any local area in the event of any disturbance therein;

(b) "close arrest" means confinement within the Force or a detachment of the Force or a post quarter-guard building or tent under charge of a guard;

(c) "the Force" means the Central Reserve Police Force;

(d) "member of the Force" means a person who has been appointed to the Force by the Commandant, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, and in Sections 1, 3, 6, 7, 16, 17, 18 and 19, includes also a person appointed to the Force by the Central Government, whether before or after such commencement;

(e) "open arrest" means confinement within the precincts of any barracks, lines or camp for the time being occupied by any part of the Force;

(f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(g) "subordinate officer" means a member of the Force of the rank of subedar-major, subedar, jemadar or sub-inspector;

(h) the expressions "assault", "criminal force" "fraudulently", "reason to believe" and "voluntarily causing hurt" have the meanings assigned to them respectively in the Indian Penal Code.

CONSTITUTION OF THE FORCE

3. Constitution of the Force.—(1) There shall continue to be an armed force maintained by the Central Government and called the Central Reserve Police Force.

(2) The Force shall be constituted in such manner, and the members of the Force shall receive such pay, pension and other remuneration, as may be prescribed.

4. Appointment and powers of superior officers.—(1) The Central Government may appoint to the Force a Commandant and such other persons as it thinks fit to be assistant commandants and company officers.

(2) The Commandant and every other officer so appointed shall have, and may exercise, such powers and authority as may be provided by or under this Act.

5. Enrolment.—Before a person is appointed to be a member of the Force, the statement contained in the recruiting roll set out in the Schedule shall be read out and, if necessary, explained to him in the presence of an officer appointed under sub-section (1) of Section 4, and shall be signed by such person in acknowledgment of its having been so read out to him:

Provided that any person who has for a period of six months served with the Force, shall, on appointment to the Force thereafter, be deemed to be a member of the Force notwithstanding that the provisions of this section have not been complied with in his case.

6. Resignation and withdrawal from the Force[a].—No member of the Force shall be at liberty to—

(a) resign his appointment during the term of his engagement, except before the expiration of the first three months of his service; or

(b) withdraw himself from all or any of the duties of his appointment, without the previous permission in writing of the Commandant or assistant commandant or any other officer authorised by the Commandant to grant such permission.

[a] Cf. S. 8 of the Border Security Force Act, 1968 (47 of 1968).

GENERAL DUTIES OF MEMBERS OF THE FORCE

7. General duties of members of the Force.—(1) It shall be the duty of every member of the Force promptly to obey and to execute all orders and warrants lawfully issued to him by any competent authority, to detect and bring offenders to justice and to apprehend all persons whom he is legally authorised to apprehend and for whose apprehension sufficient grounds exist.

(2) Every member of the Force shall be liable to serve without and beyond, as well as within, the territory of India.[a]

[a] See S. 7 of the Border Security Force Act, 1968 (47 of 1968).

SUPERINTENDENCE, CONTROL AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE FORCE

8. Superintendence, control and administration of the Force.—(1) The superintendence of, and control over, the Force shall vest in the Central Govern-

---

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) The members of the Central Reserve Police Force have a duty to detect and bring offenders to justice and, therefore, they are "police officers" within the meaning of Section 25, Evidence Act. AIR 1956 Kutch 1 (5): 1956 Cri LJ 217.

ment; and the Force shall be administered by the Central Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder through such officers as the Central Government may from time to time appoint in this behalf.

(2) The Headquarters of the Force shall be at Neemuch or at such other place as may from time to time be specified by the Central Government.

(3) While on active duty outside its headquarters, the Force shall be subject to the general control and direction of such authority or officer as may be prescribed or as may be specially appointed by the Central Government in this behalf.

OFFENCES AND PUNISHMENTS

9. More heinous offences[a].—Every member of the Force who—

(a) begins, excites, causes or conspires to cause or joins in any mutiny, or being present at any mutiny, does not use his utmost endeavour to suppress it, or knowing, or having reason to believe in, the existence of any mutiny, or of any intention or conspiracy to mutiny or of any conspiracy against the State does not, without delay, give information thereof to his superior officer; or

(b) uses, or attempts to use, criminal force to, or commits an assault on, his superior officer, whether on or off duty, knowing or having reason to believe him to be such; or

(c) shamefully abandons or delivers up any post or guard which is committed to his charge, or which it is his duty to defend; or

(d) directly or indirectly holds correspondence with, or assists or relieves any person in arms against the State or omits to discover immediately to his superior officer any such correspondence coming to his knowledge; or who, while on active duty,—

(e) disobeys the lawful command of his superior officer; or

(f) deserts the Force; or

(g) being a sentry, sleeps upon his post or quits it without being regularly relieved or without leave; or

(h) leaves his commanding officer, or his post or party, to go in search of plunder; or

(i) quits his guard, picquet, party or patrol without being regularly relieved or without leave; or

(j) uses criminal force to, or commits an assault on, any person bringing provisions or other necessaries to camp or quarters, or forces a safeguard or breaks into any house or other place for plunder, or plunders, destroys or damages property of any kind; or

(k) intentionally causes or spreads a false alarm in action or in camp, garrison or quarters; or

(l) displays cowardice in the execution of his duty, shall be punishable with transportation for life[b] for a term of not less than seven years or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years or with fine which may extend to three months' pay or with fine to that extent in addition to such sentence of transportation or imprisonment.

[a] Cf. Ss. 14 to 47 of the Border Security Force Act, 1968 (47 of 1968).

[b] For the construction of reference to transportation, now see S. 53A of the Penal Code, 1860.

10. Less heinous offences.—Every member of the Force who—

(a) is in a state of intoxication when on, or after having been warned for, any duty or on parade or on the line of march; or

(b) strikes or attempts to force any sentry; or

(c) being in command of a guard, picquet or patrol, refuses to receive any prisoner or person duly committed to his charge, or without proper authority releases any person or prisoner placed under his charge, or negligently suffers any such prisoner or person to escape; or

(d) being under arrest or in confinement, leaves his arrest or confinement, before he is set at liberty by lawful authority; or

(e) is grossly insubordinate or insolent to his superior officer in the execution of his office; or

(f) refuses to superintend or assist in the making of any field-work or other work of any description ordered to be made either in quarters or in the field; or

(g) strikes or otherwise ill-uses any member of the Force subordinate to him in rank or position; or

(h) designedly or through neglect injures or loses or fraudulently disposes of his arms, clothes, tools, equipments, ammunition or accoutrements, or any such articles entrusted to him or belonging to any other person; or

(i) malingers or feigns or produces disease or infirmity in himself, or intentionally delays his cure, or aggravates his disease or infirmity; or

(j) with intent to render himself or any other person unfit for service, voluntarily causes hurt to himself or any other person; or

(k) does not, when called upon by his superior officer so to do or upon ceasing to be a member of the Force forthwith deliver up, or duly account for, all or any arms, ammunition, stores, accoutrements or other property issued or supplied to him or in his custody or possession as such member; or

(l) knowingly furnishes a false return or report of the number or state of any men under his command or charge or of any money, arms, ammunition, clothing, equipments, stores or other property in his charge, whether belonging to such men or to the Government or to any member of, or any person attached to the Force, or who, through design or culpable neglect, omits or refuses to make or send any return or report of the matters aforesaid; or

(m) absents himself without leave, or without sufficient cause over-stays leave granted to him; or

(n) is guilty of any act or omission which, though not specified in this Act, is prejudicial to good order and discipline; or

(o) contravenes any provision of this Act for which no punishment is expressly provided; or who, while not on active duty,—

(p) commits any of the offences specified in clauses (e) to (l) (both inclusive) of Section 9, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to three months' pay, or with both.

11. Minor punishments.—(1) The Commandant or any other authority or officer as may be prescribed, may, subject to any rules made under this Act, award in lieu of, or in addition to, suspension or dismissal any one or more of the following punishments to any member of the Force whom he considers to be guilty of disobedience, neglect of duty, or remissness in the discharge of any duty or of other misconduct in his capacity as a member of the Force, that is to say,—

(a) reduction in rank;

(b) fine of any amount not exceeding one month's pay and allowances;

(c) confinement to quarters, lines or camp for a term not exceeding one month;

(d) confinement in the quarter-guard for not more than twenty-eight days; with or without punishment drill or extra guard, fatigue or other duty, and

(e) removal from any office of distinction or special emolument in the Force.

(2) Any punishment specified in clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) may be awarded by any gazetted officer when in command of any detachment of the Force away from headquarters, provided he is specially authorised in this behalf by the Commandant.

(3) The assistant commandant, a company officer or a subordinate officer, not being below the rank of subedar or inspector, commanding a separate detachment or an outpost or in temporary command at the headquarters of the Force, may, without a formal trial, award to any member of the Force who is for the time being subject to his authority any one or more of the following punishments for the commission of any petty offence against discipline which is not otherwise provided for in this Act, or which is not of a sufficiently serious nature to require prosecution before a Criminal Court, that is to say,—

(a) confinement for not more than seven days in the quarter-guard or such other place as may be considered suitable, with forfeiture of all pay and allowances during its continuance;

(b) punishment drill, or extra guard, fatigue or other duty, for not more than thirty days, with or without confinement to quarters, lines or camp;

(c) censure or severe censure: provided that this punishment may be awarded to a subordinate officer only by the Commandant.

(4) A jemadar or sub-inspector who is temporarily in command of a detachment or an outpost may, in like manner and for the commission of any like offence, award to any member of the Force for the time being subject to his authority any of the punishments specified in clause (b) of sub-section (3) for not more than fifteen days.

12. Place of imprisonment and liability to dismissal on imprisonment.—(1) Every person sentenced under this Act to imprisonment may be dismissed from

---

Section 11 — Note 1

(1) Section 11 deals with only minor punishments. A plain reading of S. 11 makes it clear that a punishment of dismissal can be awarded thereunder even if the delinquent is not prosecuted for an offence under S. 10 (m). AIR 1965 Raj 140 (141, 142): 1965 Raj LW 26.

Section 12 — Note 1

(1) Punishment of dismissal may be given to a delinquent in addition to the sentence awarded to him. On conviction it is not necessary to hold a regular enquiry if the authorities mean to proceed under Section 12. Section does not not lay down that a person should not be liable to dismissal if he is not con-

the Force. and shall further be liable to forfeiture of pay, allowance and any other moneys due to him, as well as of any medals and decorations received by him.

(2) Every such person shall, if he is so dismissed, be imprisoned in the prescribed prison, but if he is not also dismissed from the Force, he may, if the Court or the Commandant so directs, be confined in the quarter-guard or such other place as the Court or the Commandant may consider suitable.

13. Deductions from pay and allowances.—The following penal deductions may be made from the pay and allowances of a member of the Force by his company officer, that is to say,—

(a) all pay and allowances for every day of absence either on desertion or without leave and for every day of imprisonment awarded by a Criminal Court or of confinement awarded under Section 11;

(b) all pay and allowances for every day whilst he is in custody on a charge for an offence of which he is afterwards convicted;

(c) all pay and allowances for every day on which he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the medical officer attending on him at the hospital to have been caused by an offence committed by him under this Act;

(d) all pay and allowances ordered to be forfeited under Section 11; and

(e) such sum as may be ordered by the Commandant or assistant commandant in order to make good any expenses caused by the member of the Force, or any loss of, or damage or destruction done by him to, any arms, ammunition equipment, clothing, instrument or decorations belonging to the Force or to any buildings or property.

14 Collective fines.—Whenever any weapon, part of a weapon or ammunition, forming part of the equipment of a company or other similar unit of the Force, is lost or stolen, the Commandant may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit and subject to such rules as may be prescribed, impose a collective fine upon the subordinate officers and men of such unit, or upon so many of them as, in his judgment, should be held responsible for such loss or theft.

ARREST

15. Arrest.—(1) Any member of the Force who commits any offence specified in Section 9 or Section 10 may be placed on open or close arrest by any officer of the Force.

(2) Where any subordinate officer orders an arrest under sub-section (1), he shall forthwith or at the earliest opportunity report the arrest to his company or detachment commander who shall after investigating the case order the release or the continued arrest of the member of the Force arrested.

MISCELLANEOUS

16. Powers and duties conferrable and imposable on members of the Force.—(1) The Central Government may, by general or special order, confer or impose upon any member of the Force any of the powers or duties conferred or imposed on a police officer of any class or grade by any law for the time being in force.

victed and sentenced under the Act. AIR 1965 Raj 140 (141): 1965 Raj LW 26 (DB).

Section 16 — Note 1

(1) Merely because some special powers or duties of police officers are not conferred or imposed on the members of the Central Reserve Police Force under Section 16 it would not mean that they are not "police officers" within the meaning of Section 25, Evidence Act. AIR 1953 Kutch 1 (4): 1956 Cri LJ 217.

(2) The act of the Central Government investing any commandant or Asst. Commandant with the powers of a magistrate, does not create any special class of Courts. Such magistrates have to look to Criminal P. C. for guidance in all matters of procedure including questions of right and forum of appeal. 1960 Raj LW 620.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the Central Government may invest the Commandant or an assistant commandant with the powers of a Magistrate of any class for the purpose of inquiring into or trying any offence committed by a member of the Force and punishable under this Act, or any offence committed by a member of the Force against the person or property of another member:

Provided that—

(i) when the offender is on leave or absent from duty, or

(ii) when the offence is not connected with the offender's duties as a member of the Force, or

(iii) when it is a petty offence, even if connected with the offender's duties as a member of the Force, the offence may, if the prescribed authority within the limits of whose jurisdiction the offence has been committed, so directs, be inquired into or tried by an ordinary Criminal Court having jurisdiction in the matter.

17. Protection for acts of members of the Force.—(1) In any suit or proceeding against any member of the Force for any act done by him in pursuance of a warrant or order of a competent authority, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of such warrant or order.

(2) Any such plea may be proved by the production of the warrant or order directing the act, and if it is so proved, the member of the Force shall thereupon be discharged from liability in respect of the act so done by him, notwithstanding any defect in the jurisdiction of the authority which issued such warrant or order.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any legal proceeding (whether civil or criminal) which may lawfully be brought against any member of the Force for anything done or intended to be done under the powers conferred by, or in pursuance of, any provision of this Act or the rules thereunder, shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of was committed and not otherwise, and notice in writing of such proceeding and of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant or his superior officer at least one month before the commencement of such proceeding.

18. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules[a] for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) regulating the classes and grades of, and the pay, pension and other remuneration of, members of the Force, and their conditions of service in the Force;

(b) regulating the powers and duties of officers authorised to exercise any functions by or under this Act;

(c) fixing the period of service for members of the Force;

(d) regulating the award of minor punishments under Section 11, and providing for appeals from, or the revision of, orders under that section, or the remission of fines imposed under that section, and the remission of deductions made under Section 13;

(e) regulating the several or collective liability of members of the Force in the case of the loss or theft of weapons and ammunition;

(f) for the disposal of criminal cases arising under this Act and for specifying the prison in which a person convicted in any such case may be confined.

[a] For the Central Reserve Police Force Rules, 1955, see S.R.O. 499 published in Gazette of India, 1955, Pt. II, Section 3, p. 393 [1-7-1955].

19. Validation of acts done before commencement of Act.—Any order made, thing done, or action taken by or in relation to a member of the Force, on or after the 15th day of August, 1947, but before the commencement of this Act, shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been made, done or taken under this Act as if this Act were in force on the day on which such order was made, thing was done or action was taken.

THE SCHEDULE

RECRUITING ROLL

(See Section 5)

After you have served in the Force for such period as the Central Government may prescribe, you may, at any time when not on active duty, apply for discharge, through the officer to whom you may be subordinate, to the Commandant, and you will be granted your discharge after two months from the date of your application, unless your discharge would cause the vacancies in the Force to exceed one-tenth of the sanctioned strength in which case you shall be bound to remain until this objection is waived or removed. But when on active duty, you shall have no claim to a discharge, and you shall be bound to remain to do your duty until the necessity for retaining you in the Force ceases when you may make your application in the above-mentioned manner:

Provided that, if you wish to withdraw from the Force, you may submit your resignation at any time before the expiration of the first three months of your service, but not afterwards until the completion of the period prescribed as aforesaid; the Commandant may either accept your resignation forthwith or at the end of three months from the date of its receipt:

Provided, also, that the Commandant may, if he thinks fit, allow you to resign at any time on your giving three months' notice of your wish to do so.

Signature of the member of the force in acknowledgment of the above having been read out to him.

Space for impression of the member's left thumb to be taken in the presence of the enrolling officer.

Signed in my presence after I had ascertained that the candidate understood the purport of what he signed.

16. Repeal (Rep. by Act 58 of 1960, S. 2).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"In the interest of the national economy of India certain amendments were undertaken in the Constitution by the Constitution (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1956, whereby—

(a) taxes on sales or purchases of goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce were brought expressly within the purview of the legislative jurisdiction of Parliament;

(b) restrictions could be imposed on the powers of State legislatures with respect to the levy of taxes on the sale or purchase of goods within the State where the goods are of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce.

The amendments at the same time authorised Parliament to formulate principles for determining when a sale or purchase takes place in the course of inter-State trade or commerce or in the course of export or import or outside a State in order that the legislative spheres of Parliament and the State legislatures becomes clearly demarcated. In the case of goods of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce, a law of Parliament is to lay down the restrictions and conditions subject to which any State law may regulate the tax on sales or purchases of such goods in the State.

2. This Bill seeks to provide for the legislation authorised by the Constitution as amended above with a view to enabling the State Governments to raise additional revenues by levying tax on inter-State transactions which are at present immune from tax under their respective sales tax laws. After taking into account the recommendations of the Taxation Enquiry Commission and in consultation with the States, the Government of India are of the view that the following principles should govern the scheme of the detailed legislation on the three interrelated subjects:

(i) The Central Government should authorise the State Governments to impose on behalf of the Central Government tax on the sale or purchase of goods in the ccurse of inter-State trade or commerce. The Central legislation should aiso delegate to the States the Central Government's power to levy and collect the tax and for this purpose prescribe the same system of registration, assessment, etc., as prevails in the States concerned under their own sales-tax system.

(ii) An important aspect of the Central legislation will be concerned with the definition of the locale of sales for the purpose of defining in detail the relative jurisdiction, firstly of the Union and the States, and secondly, of the States inter se. It is therefore, necessary that the law should define clearly, with specific reference to sales tax the circumstances in which a sale or purchase becomes taxable by a particular State and no other. It should also define for the purpose of the Constitutional restrictions on the State's power to impose a tax under item 54 of the State list, when a sale or purchase of goods may be said to take place:

(a) in the course of export out of India,

(b) in the course of import into India, and

(c) in the course of inter-State trade or commerce.

(iii) The Central legislation should provide for the declaration of certain commodities which are in the nature of raw materials and of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce and lay down the restrictions and conditions as to the rate, system of levy and other incidents of tax subject to which the States may impose tax on the sale or purchase thereof.

3. Necessary provisions have, therefore, been made in the different Chapters of this Bill incorporating the principles stated above". — Gaz. of India, Extra, 21-11-1956, Pt. II-S. 1, p. 857.

ACT HOW AFFECTED BY SUBSEQUENT LEGISLATION

—Amended by Acts 16 of 1957; 5 of 1958; 31 of 1958; 14 of 1961; 8 of 1963; 13 of 1966; 19 of 1968.

[THE] CENTRAL SALES TAX ACT, 1956
(ACT LXXIV OF 1956)[a]

[21st December, 1956.]

An Act to formulate principles for determining when a sale or purchase of goods takes place in the course of inter-State trade or commerce or outside a State or in the course of import into or export from India, to provide for the levy, collection and distribution of taxes on sales of goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce and to declare certain goods to be of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce and specify the restrictions and conditions to which State laws imposing taxes on the sale or purchase of such goods of special importance shall be subject.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

(2) It extends to the whole of India [a][* * *].

(3) It shall come into force on such date[b] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act.

[a] The words "except the State of Jammu and Kashmir" were omitted by the Central Sales Tax (Amendment) Act, 1958 (5 of 1958), S. 2 [13-3-1958].

[b] The whole of the Act, except S. 15 came into force on 5-1-57: see S.R.O., 78 published in Gaz. of Ind., Pt. II, S. 3, Extra., p. 57, S. 15, as amended in 1958 was enforced on 1-10-1958; see G.S.R. 897, Gaz. of Ind., 1-10-1958, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), Ext., p. 476.

The Act has been extended to the Union Territory of—(1) Goa, Daman and Diu by Reg. 12 of 1962 [w. e. f. 21-1-1963]; (2) Pondicherry by G. S. R. 132 of 1963, Gaz. Ind., 26-1-1963, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), p. 139 (w.e.f. 3-6-1963).

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) An Act which is merely enacted for the purpose of imposing tax which is to be collected and to be retained by the State does not amount to law giving, or authorising the giving of, any preference to one State over another, or making or authorising the making of, any discrimination between one State and another, merely because of varying rates of tax prevailing in different States. AIR 1969 SC 147 (156, 158): (1969) 1 SCJ 318.

(2) A measure which is intended to check evasion of tax is undoubtedly a valid measure. It is in public interest to see that in the guise of freedom of trade, they do not evade the payment of tax. AIR 1969 SC 147 (163): (1969) 1 SCJ 318.

(3) Normally a law imposing a tax on Intra-State Sales does not offend Art. 301. The Central Sales-tax Act, 1956 is no exception to this rule. Even assuming that the Act is within the mischief of Article 301, it is certainly a law made by Parliament in public interest and is saved by Article 302. There is nothing in the Act which offends Article 303 (1). AIR 1969 SC 147 (161): (1969) 1 SCJ 318.

(4) One of the purposes sought to be achieved by the Act is to specify the restrictions and conditions to which State laws, imposing taxes on the sale or purchase of certain goods which are declared to be of special importance, shall be subject. AIR 1967 SC 1618 (1620): (1967) 3 SCR 577.

(5) The Act was passed to levy and collect sales tax on inter-State sales to avoid confusion and conflict of jurisdictions; the tax is also collected only for the benefit of the States. (Per Subba Rao and Sirki JJ.) AIR 1965 SC 1510 (1514): (1965) 2 SCR 129.

(6) There is nothing in the subject-matter of the Central Sales Tax Act or in the mode of dealing with it which savours of discrimination between the citizens of one State and those of another. It enunciates one common and uniform principle applicable to all states viz., that any class of goods which was immune from taxation in any State is exempted under Section 8. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 204 (208): (1961) 2

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "appropriate State" means—

(i) in relation to a dealer who has one or more places of business situate in the same State, that State;

(ii) in relation to a dealer who has [a][° ° °] places of business situate in different States, every such State with respect to the place or places of business situate within its territory;

[a][° ° ° ° °]

(b) "dealer" means any person who carries on the business of [b][buying or selling goods], and includes a Government which carries on such business;

Section 1 — Note 1 (contd.)

Andh WR 344. (Section 8 is not violative of Article 14 of Constitution.)

(7) Act though not extended to State of J. and K. Article 1 read with Entry 15 of Schedule 1 of Constitution indicates that J. and K. is one of States in Union of India. For liability to Central Sales Tax movement of goods need not neecssarily terminate in State where Central Sales Tax Act is applicable. (1965) 67 Pun LR 891: 1965 Cur LJ 737.

(8) Notification issued by Central Government bringing into force Section 6, the charging section, as and from 1-7-1957 is not invalid in so far as it relates to declared goods until such date as the relevant provisions of Section 15 are also brought into force. Under Section 1 (3), the Act empowers Central Government to appoint different dates for bringing into force different provisions of the Act. AIR 1962 Mad 42 (44, 45) (DB).

(9) Central Sales Tax (Amendment) Ordinance came into effect immediately on 9-6-1969 with retrospective effect and sought to validate past levies and collections. P. T. I. — Nagpur Times, Dated 10-6-1969.

Section 2 (a) — Note 1

(1) The dealer is liable under Section 6 (1) to pay tax under the Act on all sales effected by him in the course of inter-State trade. Under Section 7 the dealer liable to pay tax has to apply for registration to the specified authority in the Appropriate State and the "appropriate State" under Section 2 (a) is defined in relation to the dealer's place of business. (1965) 67 Pun LR 891 (894): 1965 Cur LJ 737 (DB).

(2) A sale contemplated by Section 3 (b) is effected within the State in which the documents of title to the goods sold are transferred resulting in a transfer of the property in them; that state is the "appropriate state" in respect of such sale, within the meaning of Clause (ii) of Explanation to Section 2 (a). (Prior to amendment of 1958 — See now Section 2 (dd) (ii).) AIR 1961 SC 65 (80): (1961) 1 SCR 379 * AIR 1968 Delhi 211 (214): 21 STC 437. (Inter-state sales — Appropriate State would be the State in which the sale is effected.)

Section 2 (b) — Note 1

(1) A person can be held to be a dealer, if he engages himself in a course of dealings, buying, selling and supplying goods and commodities with the object of making a profit. Where a person in the course of carrying on the business is required to dispose of what may be called his fixed assets or his discarded goods acquired in the course of business, an inference that he desires to carry on the business of selling his fixed assets or discarded goods will not ordinarily arise. AIR 1969 SC 348 (351): (1969) 1 SCJ 376. (Assessee's main business, manufacture and sale of heavy machinery — Arc furnaces purchased for being installed in the foundry, found unsuitable for the purpose — Disposal thereof by sale 6 years later at a profit — Assessee, held not to be a dealer within Section 2 (b) in relation to this sale.)

(2) Electricity is "goods" for the purpose of the Central Sales Tax Act and the Madras General Sales Tax Act. A distributor of electricity who purchases electricity and distributes it to its local consumers in a specified area and who is required to purchase certain goods from out of the State dealers for the purpose of distributing electricity, has to be treated as a dealer and is entitled to be registered under S. 7 (2) of the Central Sales Tax Act. AIR 1964 Mad 477 (479): (1963) 2 Mad LJ 225.

(3) A person converting latex tapped from rubber trees into sheets and effecting a sale of them is not a dealer within the meaning of Section 2 (b). The usual method of selling latex is to convert it into sheets and the conversion is not a manufacturing process but a process essential for the transport and marketing of the produce concerned. AIR 1965 Ker 71 (71): 1964 Ker LJ 534 (DB).

(4) The burden of proving that the assesse was carrying on business of buying and selling goods and hence a "dealer" as defined in S. 2 (b) of the Act lay upon the Sales-tax Authorities. (1968) 1 SCJ 281 (285): (1968) 1 ITJ 103.

(5) A person coming within definition of "dealer" as defined in Section 2 (b) of Central Act need not necessarily be a dealer as defined in Sales Tax Act of a State. AIR 1962 Ker 264 (265): (1962) 13 STC 832 (DB).

(c) "declared goods" means goods declared under Sec. 14 to be of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce;

(d) "goods" includes all materials, articles, commodities and all other kinds of moveable property, but does not include [a][newspapers], actionable claims, stocks, shares and securities;

[a][(dd) "place of business" includes—

(i) in any case where a dealer carries on business through an agent (by whatever name called), the place of business of such agent;

(ii) a warehouse, godown or other place where a dealer stores his goods and

(iii) a place where a dealer keeps his books of account;]

(e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(f) "registered dealer" means a dealer who is registered under Section 7;

(g) "sale", with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, means any transfer of property in goods by one person to another for cash or for deferred payment or for any other valuable consideration, and includes a transfer of goods on the hire-purchase or other system of payment by instalments, but does not include a mortgage or hypothecation of or a charge or pledge on goods;

(h) "sale price" means the amount payable to a dealer as consideration for the sale of any goods, less any sum allowed as such discount according to the practice normally prevailing in the trade, but inclusive of any sum charged for anything done by the dealer in respect of the goods at the time of or before the delivery thereof other than the cost of freight or delivery or the cost of installation in cases where such cost is separately charged;

Section 2 (c) — Note 1

(1) It is only by a manufacturing process that the cotton and seed are separated and it is not correct to say that the seed so separated is cotton itself, or part of the cotton. They are two distinct goods though before the manufacturing process the seed might have been a part of the cotton itself. Therefore there is no taxation of the same goods both at the purchase point and the sale point. (1952) 13 STC 709 (713) (DB) (Andh Pra).

Section 2 (d) — Note 1

(1) Animals and birds in captivity are movable property and therefore goods within Section 2 (d). Even assuming that they do not fall within definition of goods in Article 366 (12) of the Constitution sale of such things will fall within List I, Entry 97 and not under List II, Entry 54 or List I, Entry 92-A of the Constitution. Levy of tax on such sales is within competence of Parliament. AIR 1960 Ker 360 (360): 1960 Ker LJ 531.

Section 2 (g) — Note 1

(1) To constitute a sale there must be two different persons in the ordinary sense of the term 'person.' When one partnership has transferred goods to another partnership and the partners of the two firms are identical, it will be really a case of one person transferring goods to himself. There is, therefore, no "sale" so far as the definition of 'sale' is concerned, whether it be under the Madras General Sales Tax Act or the Central Sales Tax Act. AIR 1968 Mad 241 (243): 21 STC 72 * ILR (1966) 1 All 81: 17 STC 10. (Interpretation of 'sale' under U. P. Sales Tax Act)

(2) Word "sale" includes purchase also. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 29 (31): (1962) 13 STC 779 (DB).

Section 2 (h) — Note 1

(1) Where the cost of freight or delivery is separately charged it does not under Section 2 (h) form part of sale price. From this it is clear that unless freight has been separately charged to the knowledge of the buyer, the cost of the freight cannot be deducted from the sale price. AIR 1962 Mad 290 (296): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 302 (DB).

(2) Under the definition of 'sale price' in Section 2 (h) any amount, whether it be tax or excise duty which is payable to the dealer as a consideration for the sale of the goods, makes up the sale price in respect of the transaction. Thus, where it is an integral part of an agreement between the dealer and his buyer that the buyer should bear the burden of the excise duty paid by the seller the excise duty forms part of the sale price of the goods. AIR 1962 Mad 290 (296): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 302.

(3) A dealer is not entitled to deduct the excise duty paid in respect of goods sold by him in determining the turnover liable to assessment under the Act. AIR 1964 Mys 212 (214): (1964) 15 STC 176 (DB).

(i) "sales tax law" means any law for the time being in force in any State or part thereof which provides for the levy of taxes on the sale or purchase of goods generally or on any specified goods expressly mentioned in that behalf, and "general sales tax law" means the law for the time being in force in any State or part thereof which provides for the levy of tax on the sale or purchase of goods generally;

(j) "turnover' used in relation to any dealer liable to tax under this Act means the aggregate of the sale prices received and receivable by him in respect of sales of any goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce made during any prescribed period and determined in the prescribed manner;

(k) "year", in relation to a dealer, means the year applicable in relation to him under the general sales tax law of the appropriate State, and where there is no such year applicable, the financial year.

[a] The words "one or more" in sub-clause (ii) and the Explanation were omitted by the Central Sales Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 1958 (31 of 1958), S. 2 [1-10-1958].

[b] Substituted for the words "selling goods", ibid.

[c] Inserted, ibid.

CHAPTER II

FORMULATION OF PRINCIPLES FOR DETERMINING WHEN A SALE OR PURCHASE OF GOODS TAKES PLACE IN THE COURSE OF INTER-STATE TRADE OR COMMERCE OR OUTSIDE A STATE OR IN THE COURSE OF IMPORE OR EXPORT

3. When is a sale or purchase of goods said to take place in the course of inter-State trade or commerce.—A sale or purchase of goods shall be deemed to take place in the course of inter-State trade or commerce if the sale or purchase—

(a) occasions the movement of goods from one State to another; or

---

Section 2 (h) — Note 1 (contd.)

(4) Excise duty collected by seller from his customers forms part of assessable turnover. It is part of the considerations for the sale of the goods. 1962 Ker LT 710 (711) (DB).

(5) Any amount received by a dealer as consideration for the sale of any goods has to be included in the turnover of the dealer. What the assessee received from the purchasers on account of Adat, dalali, bank commission, charity and insurance was a part of the price paid by the purchasers. The payment of the amounts must be regarded as part of the consideration for the sales. The burden of proving that these charges did not form any part of the consideration for the sales was on the assessee. 1968 MPLJ 665 (666, 667): 22 STC 22 (DB).

(6) Where an assessee sells compressed cotton, packed in bales, covered with Hessian cloth and fastened with iron hoops, there is an implied contract of sale of packing material also. The price charged is a consolidated price and the assessee is liable to pay tax on the turnover relating to packing material also. The mere fact that price of the packing material was not separately fixed makes no difference to assessment as there is an implied contractor for its sale. 1968 MPLJ 665 (666, 667): 22 STC 22 (DB).

Section 2 (j) — Note 1

(1) Where turnover has been defined to mean the aggregate of the sale prices in respect of sales made during any prescribed period and determined in the prescribed manner, the turnover that would be liable to tax under Section 8 of the Act cannot come into existence un'ess the manner of its determination is provided for by the rules and it is so determined. AIR 1962 Mad 290 (292): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 302 (DB).

(2) Any amount received by a dealer as consideration for the sale of any goods has to be included in the turnover of the dealer. 1968 MPLJ 665 (666-667): 22 STC 22 (DB).

(3) A dealer is not entitled to deduct the excise duty paid in respect of goods sold by him in determining the turnover liable to assessment under the Act. AIR 1964 Mys 212 (214): (1964) 15 STC 176 (DB).

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) (Case prior to amendment in 1958). In interpreting definition clauses in Ss. 3, 4 and 5, it would be inappropriate to requisition in aid the observations made in decisions in ascertaining the true nature and incidents without the assistance of any definition clause of "sales out side the State" and "sales in the course of import

(b) is effected by a transfer of documents of title to the goods during their movement from one State to another.

Explanation 1. — Where goods are delivered to a carrier or other bailee for transmission, the movement of the goods shall, for the purposes of Cl. (b), be deemed to commence at the time of such delivery and terminate at the time when delivery is taken from such carrier or bailee.

Explanation 2. — Where the movement of goods commences and terminates in the same State it shall not be deemed to be a movement of goods from one State to another by reason merely of the fact that in the course of such movement the goods pass through the territory of any other State.

or export" and "sales in the course of inter-State trade or commerce" used in Article 286. AIR 1961 SC 65 (72): (1961) 1 SCR 379.

(2) Inter-State sales contemplated by Article 286 (2) (before its amendment by Constitution (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1956) were the same as those defined in Section 3 (a) AIR 1967 SC 585 (586, 587): (1963) 14 STC 416.

(3) (Case prior to amendment in 1958). Sales effected in Punjab State occassioning movement of goods sold to State of Jammu and Kashmir are inter-State sales and liable to tax. For liability to Central Sales Tax movement of goods need not necessarily terminate in State where Central Sales Tax Act is applicable. (1965) 67 Pun LR 891: 1965 Cur LJ 737 (DB) * AIR 1962 Mad 290 (297): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 302. (Goods sold to dealer in State of Jammu and Kashmir — Non-applicability of Act to that State in 1957 — Its effect on sale of goods by dealer in State of Madras — Sale being inter-State is liable to tax.)

[See also AIR 1963 Pat 359 (361): 1964 BLJR 3 (DB). (Dealer in India selling goods to buyer in Nepal — Sale involving series of integrated activities ending in delivery of goods — Dealer held entitled to exemption.)]

(4) A sale becomes taxable under Section 3 (a) if the movement of goods from one State to another is under a covenant or incident of the contract of sale, and the property in the goods passes to the purchaser otherwise than by transfer of documents of title when the goods are in movement from one State to another. In respect of an inter-State sale, the tax is leviable only once and the two clauses of Section 3 are mutually exclusive. A sale taxable as falling within Clause (a) of Section 3 will be excluded from the purview of Clause (b) of Section 3. AIR 1961 SC 65 (71, 78): (1961) 1 SCR 379. (Assessee having factory in Bihar — Head Office in West Bengal — Movement of goods from Bihar to West Bengal under contract of sale — Transfer of document of title in West Bengal — Government of West Bengal has no powers to tax such sales.) * AIR 1963 SC 548 (549): (1963) 3 SCR 792. (Where certain contracts of sale of cement contained covenants that goods were to be moved from place outside Mysore State into State of Mysore, sales effected in pursuance of such contract are inter-State sales within Section 3 (a).)

[See also AIR 1966 SC 1216 (1220): (1966) 3 SCR 352. (Sale in course of import — Movement of goods must be result of covenant or incident of contract of sale — Sale need not precede import.)]

(5) Where Coal was transported from the colliery of the assessee Company to the consumers outside the taxing State, as a result of the covenant or incident of the contract of sale, the sale must be regarded as an inter-State sale and not liable to be taxed under the Hyderabad General Sales Tax Act, 1950. AIR 1966 SC 563 (569 570): (1966) 2 SCR 190. (AIR 1962 Andh Pra 75 (DB), Reversed.) * AIR 1966 Madh Pra 215 (219, 220): 1967 Jab LJ 124 (DB) (Despatch of coal outside M. P. to various consumers including railway administrations in pursuance of allotment order issued by Coal Controller in exercise of powers under control order — Sales are inter-State sales.)

(6) In order to be an inter-State sale, there must be movement of goods in connection with the sale. Two things must co-exist, a sale of goods and the movement of goods from one State to another. Whether the goods move before or after the sale is completed is not material. AIR 1967 Punj 130 (131, 132): 69 Pun LR 130 (DB) * AIR 1968 Madh Pra 135 (136): 1968 Jab LJ 410 (DB) * (1968) 21 STC 417 (Madh Pra) * 1967 Ker LT 623: 1967 Ker LJ 17. longer good law in view of AIR 1966 SC 1216.)

(8) When the movement is not under the contract but due to reasons extraneous to the obligations under the contract, it cannot be said to be a movement in the course of inter-State trade or commerce. (1957) 20 STC 345 (Cal) (DB).

(9) Delivery of goods outside the State should be pursuant to contractual obligations and not otherwise in order to impress sale with character of inter-State sale. AIR 1968 MP 135 (137): 1968 Jab LJ 410 (DB).

(10) A sale contemplated by Section 3 (b) is effected within the State in which documents of title to the goods sold are transferred resulting in a transfer of the property in them. That state is the "appropriate State" within Section 2 (a), Expln., Clause (ii). No question of resorting to Section 4 (2) for fixing the place where a sale under Section 3 (b) is effected, arises. AIR 1961 SC 65 (80, 81): (1961) 1 SCR 379 * AIR 1968 Mad 407 (425) (DB). (For fixation of its situs for jurisdiction to tax Section 4 is relevant. * (1963) 2 Mad LJ 517: (1963) 14 STC 856 (DB) * AIR 1968 Delhi 211 (214): 21 STC 437.

(11) Where contract of sale of cotton bales was completely carried through within the Madras State itself wherein the price was received by the sellers and the cotton bales were delivered to the buyers, and the movement of cotton bales outside State was by the buyers themselves after property in them had passed to them, these sales were not sales in the course of inter-State trade. AIR 1967 SC 1131 (1133): (1967) 1 SCR 627.

(12) Mere contemplation of movement at the time of sale without there being an actual movement or movements immediately after completion of sale will not however make the sale an inter-State sale. AIR 1963 Cal 442 (450, 453, 455). (Under terms of contract, goods intended to be moved from Calcutta to Jamshedpur — Fact that purchaser arranged for lorry in Calcutta in which seller could load goods or fact that seller was liable for loss or damages till delivery at delivery point did not make transaction any-the-less inter-State trade.)

[See AIR 1963 Ker 178 (179): 1963 Ker LJ 437. (Purchases of goods made in local market before despatch, after receipt of orders for those goods from buyers in other States or outside this country — Fact not sufficient for earning exemption under Sections 3 and 5.)]

(13) Case under second schedule to Madras General Sales Tax Act (1 of 1959). Where the terms of a first sale are such that it may well be said to be an inside sale, but it bears also the characteristics of an inter-State sale and, therefore, it has been taxed under the Central Act, that sale being physically a first sale inside the State out of which the inter-State sale has been carved out, the tax levied on inter-State sale must prevail and there will be no tax liability on the same sale under local Act on ground that it is an inside sale. (1968) 1 Mad LJ 344: 21 STC 163 (DB).

(14) The conclusion, as to the inter-State character of the transaction of sale or purchase, can legitimately be arrived at only after ascertaining the terms of the contract of sale which must comply with Sections 3 and 4. The production by assessee of declarations in form 'C' from out of State buyers does not by itself prove that the sale is in the course of inter-State trade. (1968) 21 STC 350 (Mad) (DB).

(15) To be regarded as within the course of export a sale or purchase must be inextricably bound up with the export. AIR 1962 Ker 66 (67, 68): 1961 Ker LT 832 (DB).

(16) The mere fact that parties to a contract are residents of the same State, does not prevent their act of making it from being inter-State sale. The true test, is to determine whether the contract of sale could have been effectuated without movement of the goods across the State border. AIR 1965 Mys 240 (243): (1964) 2 Mys LJ 316 (DB).

(17) Section 9 (1) so far as it is concerned with the first sale under Section 3 (b) has the effect of being a proviso to Section 4 (2) and treating such sale or purchase as sale or purchase inside the State from which the goods moved. AIR 1968 Mad 407 (428): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB).

(18) In both the classes of inter-State sales or purchases under Section 3 (a) and (b), what is contemplated is completed sales. But how the sales or purchases under Section 3 (a) or 3 (b) are completed and where are irrelevant for purposes of Sections 3 (a) and 3 (b). AIR 1968 Mad 407 (427): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB). * (1963) 77 Mad LW 111: (1963) 14 STC 899 (DB).

(19) (Case under Section 6 of A. P. General Sales Tax Act (6 of 1957)). Where skin merchant in Madras purchased raw skins in Andhra Pradesh and delivered them in Madras State, sales did not come under Section 3 (a). (1964) 15 STC 828 (Andh Pra) (DB).

(1) In determining definition clauses in Sections 3, 4 and 5 it will be inappropriate to requisition in aid the observations

4. When is a sale or purchase of goods said to take place outside a State.— (1) Subject to the provisions contained in Sec. 3, when a sale or purchase of goods is determined in accordance with sub-section (2) to take place inside a State, such sale or purchase shall be deemed to have taken place outside all other States.

(2) A sale or purchase of goods shall be deemed to take place inside a State if the goods are within the State—

(a) in the case of specific or ascertained goods, at the time the contract of sale is made; and

(b) in the case of unascertained or future goods, at the time of their appropriation to the contract of sale by the seller or by the buyer, whether assent of the other party is prior or subsequent to such appropriation.

Explanation. — Where there is a single contract of sale or purchase of goods situated at more places than one, the provisions of this sub-section shall apply as if there were separate contracts in respect of the goods at each of such places.

made in decisions in ascertaining the true nature and incidents without the assistance of Article 286 of Constitution. AIR 1961 SC 65 (72): (1961) 1 SCR 379.

(2) Section 4 (2) defines what sales or purchases shall be deemed to take place inside a State. Section 4 (1) having been made subject to the provisions contained in Section 3, only those sales which are not in the course of inter-State trade or commerce should be determined under Section 4 (1) as having taken place outside a State. Section 4 does only seek to define "ouside sales", but also intends to locate the place where a sale is effected. AIR 1961 SC 65 (74, 75): (1961) 1 SCR 379.

(3) Section 4 is concerned only with sales outside the State and not concerned with the export sales. It is not within the competence of a state to levy, a tax on sales occurring in the course of export or import as in the case of inter-State trade or commerce. (1964) 15 STC 299: ILR (1964) Andh Pra 849 (DB).

(4) The whole object of Chapter II is to lay down principles as to where an inter-State sale takes place, and when a sale can be taken to be of an inter-State character. Section 4 (2) fixes the situs of sale Clause (a) to sub-section (2) will apply with reference to the time of the contract of sale and Clause (b) with reference to the time of appropriation of the goods to the contract by the seller or by the buyer with or without the assent of one or the other. AIR 1968 Mad 348 (349): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 436 (DB).

(5) By Section 4 (2) lex situs is made the basis for deciding which sale would be "inside". (1961) ILR (1961) 2 Ker 116 (DB). (Section 2 (j) of Travancore-Cochin Act 11 of 1162 not unconstitutional.)

(6) For determination of the question whether a dealer in cotton yarn was first seller in the State, situs of inter-State sale must be determined with light of Section 4 (2). AIR 1964 Ker 184 (185): 1963 Ker LT 82 (FB).

(7) Before a sale or purchase is taxed by a State as of an inter-State character, it must first be satisfied that the tests under Section 4 (2) are fulfilled and then it must be examined whether the transaction answers the requirements of Section 3 (a) or (b). (1968) 21 STC 350 (DB) (Mad).

(8) Once the tests under Section 4 (2) are answered in favour of a State, that becomes the appropriate State having jurisdiction to tax the sale or purchase and no other State will have power to tax the same transaction. The contract of sale or purchase is given a situs at the dealers place by business where he sells. AIR 1968 Mad 407 (425): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB).

(9) Appropriation in respect of sale of unascertained goods as contemplated by Section 4 (2) (b) connotes the setting apart of goods as specific goods to be delivered under the contract of sale and is not an appropriation linked with passing of property. Section 4 (2) (b) does not require an unconditional appropriation as required by Section 23 of the Sales of Goods Act. AIR 1968 Delhi 211 (214): 21 STC 437.

(10) The appropriation for purposes of Section 4 (2) need not necessarily be accompanied by the assent of the party concerned, but it must be a final one so far as the seller or the buyer as the case may be who makes the appropriation is concerned. Considerations based on Sections 39 and 51 of Sale of Goods Act may have no bearing in application of Section 4 (2) (b). AIR 1968 Mad 407 (427): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB).

(11) A sale contemplated by Section 3 (b) is effected within the State in which the documents of title to the goods sold are transferred resulting in transfer of property in them that State is the appropriate State within Clause (ii) of Expln. to Section 2 (a). No question of resorting to Section 4 (2) for fixing the place where a sale under Section 3 (b) arises. AIR 1961 SC 65 (80-81): (1961) 1 SCR 379.

When is a sale or purchase of goods said to take place in the course of import or export.—(1) A sale or purchase of goods shall be deemed to take place in the course of the export of the goods out of the territory of India only if the sale or purchase either occasions such export or is effected by a transfer of documents of title to the goods after the goods have crossed the customs frontiers of India.

(2) A sale or purchase of goods shall be deemed to take place in the course of the import of the goods into the territory of India only if the sale or purchase either occasions such import or is effected by a transfer of documents of title to the goods before the goods have crossed the customs frontiers of India.

(12) Section 4 (2) cannot be taken in aid for determining an appropriate State to collect the tax in the case of a sale falling under Clause (b) of Section 3. (1963) 2 Mad LJ 517: (1963) 14 STC 856.

(13) Section 9 (1) so far as it is concerned with the first sale under Section 3 (b) has the effect of being a proviso to Section 4 (2) and treating such sale or purchase as sale or purchase inside the State from which the goods moved. AIR 1968 Mad 407 (428): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB).

(14) Where in a contract for import and supply of certain generators and other electrical machinery to Punjab Government (buyer), the assent of the buyer was reserved until erection of the plant, but so far as the seller was concerned there was an unconditional appropriation by delivering the goods at Calcutta, the goods being within West Bengal at the time of appropriation, the State had jurisdiction to tax. AIR 1965 Cal 236 (241): 68 Cal WN 776. (Section 4 (2) is substantially reproduced in Expln. 2 to Section 2 (g) of Bengal Finance Sales Tax Act (6 of 1941).)

(15) Where the assessee to a sales was proceedings claimed exemption in respect of sales effected from their stock yards in the various States, asserting that the goods in the stockyards were still those of the assessee and that neither the property in them had passed to any one, nor had they been appropriated to contract of sale, the Assistant Commissioner of Sales Tax must give an opportunity to the assessee before disallowing the exemption. AIR 1967 SC 1401 (1403): (1967) 2 SCR 751.

(16) Where the contracts for sale of cotton between the assessee and certain Mill at Adoni in Andhra Pradesh disclose that weight of cotton was to be determined on actual weighment at the mills in Bombay State, and that payment was to be made against such weighment testing etc., and the final invoices were to be prepared by the buyers at the head office at Bombay, the sales were not within the State. (1962) 13 STC 709 (AP).

(17) When goods pursuant to the inter-State sale have been delivered outside the State but brought back into the State and then sold, that sale cannot be regarded as the first sale within the meaning of second schedule of Madras General Sales Tax Act (1 of 1959). (1968) 1 Mad LJ 344: 21 STC 163 (DB).

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) In order that a sale may qualify for exemption under Article 286 (1) (b) of Constitution, as being a sale in the course of export, the sale must occasion the export, the exportation must be a part of the contract of sale or must be a necessary incidence thereof. AIR 1969 All 205 (208): 1968 All LJ 497 (FB).

(2) To constitute a sale in the course of export there must be an intention on the part of both the buyer and the seller to export, there must be an obligation to export, and there must be an actual export. The obligation may arise by reason of statute, contract between the parties or from mutual understanding or agreement between them, or even from the nature of the transaction which links the sale to export. AIR 1964 SC 1752 (1755): (1964) 7 SCR 706.

(3) For a transaction to be a sale in the course of export out of territory of India, it must contain a common intention to export, actual exportation and an obligation to export goods. Mere proximity of time between acts connected with sale and acts connected with export is not a decisive test. AIR 1968 Pat 329 (332-335 336): 1968 BLJR 747 (FB) * (1967) 20 STC 345 (DB) (Cal). (The principles which apply to the expression "if the sale . . . . . occasions such import" in Section 5 (2) will also apply to the expression "occasions the movement" in Section 3 (a).) * AIR 1968 Mad 407 (425): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB). * (1964) 15 STC 299 (DB) (Andh Pra). ## CHAPTER III

INTER-STATE SALES TAX

6. Liability to tax on inter-State sales.—[a][(1)] Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, every dealer shall, with effect from such date[b] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, not being earlier than thirty days from the date of such notification, be liable to pay tax under this Act on all sales effected by him in the course of inter-State trade or commerce during any year on and from the date so notified.

[c][(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where a sale in the course of inter-State trade or commerce of goods of the description referred to in sub-section (3) of Section 8—

(a) has occasioned the movement of such goods from one State to another; or

(b) has been effected by a transfer of documents of title to such goods during their movement from one State to another;

by the buyer at their convenience and after verification of goods — Held, that all these sales were in the course of export of cotton out of the territory of India.) * (1965) 16 STC 534: (1965) 67 Pun Lr 155.

(3-A) Words "customs frontiers" in Section 5 should be construed as "customs barriers". (1963) 14 STC 904: ILR (1964) 1 Mad 367 (DB).

(4) In general, where the sale is effected by the seller and it is not connected with the export which actually takes place, it is a sale for export. Where the export is the result of sale, the export being inextricably linked up with the sale so that the bond cannot be dissociated without a breach of the obligation arising by a statute, contract or mutual understanding between the parties arising from the nature of the transaction, the sale is in the course of export. AIR 1964 SC 1752 (1755, 1756): (1964) 7 SCR 706. (Sale of tea by auction to agents of foreign buyers — Held, sale and export did not form part of single transaction — Sales were for export but not in the course of export.)

(5) Purchase must occasion export to constitute as a purchase in the course of export. AIR 1967 Madh Pra 210 (211): 1967 Jab LJ 322. (Case under Sections 7 and 50 (i) (iii) of M. P. General Sales Tax Act (2 of 1959) — Purchase held liable to pay purchase tax.) * (1961) ILR (1961) 2 Ker 698 (DB).

(6) The expression "occasions the movement of goods" occurring in Section 3 (a) and Section 5 (2) must have the same meaning. A sale occasions the movement of goods from one State to another within Section 3 (a) or an import within Section 5 (2) when the movement is the result of a convenant or incident of the contract of sale. It is wrong to hold that before a sale could be said to have occasioned import the sale should have preceded the import. AIR 1966 SC 1216 (1220): (1966) 3 SCR 351.

(7) The true test is whether the sale and the export involves a series of integrated activities commencing from the agreement of sale with a foreign buyer for transport out of the Country by land or sea. AIR 1969 All 205 (209): 1968 All LJ 497 (FB).

(8) Delivery of goods to foreign buyer within State is not per se conclusive to show that sale was not in the course of export of goods. 1967 All LJ 568 (DB).

(9) Fact that purchases of goods were made in local market before despatch after receipt of orders for those goods from buyers in other states or outside this country is not sufficient for earning exemption under Sections 3 and 5. AIR 1963 Ker 178 (179): 1963 Ker LT 196 (FB).

(10) It is proper to construe the words Customs frontiers as customs barriers in the Central Sales Tax Act. Where the property in goods is transferred by an importer to the Government while the goods were on the high seas, by delivery of documents of title against payment of price, the sale is a sale in the course of an import within the meaning of Section 5. (1963) 14 STC 904: ILR (1964) 1 Mad 383 (DB). (AIR 1960 Andh Pra 619, Dissented from.)

(11) Where movement of goods was from dealer C at place Z in one State to dealer A in another State and A sold goods to B in A's State, the property in goods passed to A when goods were unconditionally appropriated by C at Z and to B from A after invoices were received by B from A. Sales by B to his customers not being first sales were not liable to be taxed under Sections 5 and 8 of Kerala General Sales Tax Act. 1967 Ker LT 623: 1967 Ker LJ 17.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Section 6 of the Central Act is the charging section. Subject to the other provisions contained in the Act, every dealer is liable to pay tax under the Act on all sales effected by him. If the effect of another provision is to take away the liability, effect will have to be given to it. Thus, notwithstanding Section 6 the dealer may not be liable to pay any tax any subsequent sale to a registered dealer during such movement effected by a transfer of documents of title to such goods shall not be subject to tax under this Act :

Provided that no such subsequent sale shall be exempt from tax under this sub-section unless the dealer effecting the sale furnishes to the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner a certificate duly filled and signed by the registered dealer from whom the goods were purchased, containing the prescribed particulars.]

if he comes within the proviso to Section 8 (1). The Scheme of the Act is not that every transaction in inter-State trade must bear some tax. AIR 1965 SC 1510 (1511 to 1514): (1965) 2 SCR 129. (2) The notification issued by the Central Government bringing into force Section 6 of the Act, the charging section, as and from 1st July 1957 is not invalid in so far as it relates to declared goods until such date as the relevant provisions of Section 15 are also brought into force, AIR 1963 Mad 42 (44): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 327 (DB).

(3) Where intra-State sales in question exempted by notification issued under Section 6, Kerala General Sales Tax Act, an assessee is not liable to be assessed for inter-State sales under Central Sales Tax Act. AIR 1966 Ker 60 (61, 62): 1965 Ker LT 862.

(5) It is only the last purchase that is taxable under the Madras General Sales Tax Act, turnover representing purchases not answering that description cannot be taxed under Section 6 of the Central Act. AIR 1966 Mad 404 (405, 406): (1966) 1 Mad LJ 127 (DB). (AIR 1962 Mad 457, Held, overruled by AIR 1965 SC 1510.)

(7) If the test of appropriation is applied (Section 4 (2) (b)) the competition of the inter-State sale cannot be determined with reference to the delivery but only with reference to the appropriation itself. AIR 1968 Mad 348 (348, 349): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 436 (DB).

(8) Ban imposed by Section 26 of Trav-Co. General Sales Tax Act (as amended in 1951) having been lifted by Sales Tax Laws Validation Act (7 of 1956), State was competent to collect all taxes in respect of Sales in the course of inter-State and commerce upto 5-9-1955. AIR 1968 SC 389 (393): (1968) 1 SCR 415.

(9) In view of Section 15 (amended in 1958), where sales of declared goods are to be taxed only at a single point under the legislative policy of the State the levy at the stage of inter-State Sales should prevail and the buyer at the earlier stage should be refunded. (1966) 1 Mad LJ 541: ILR (1967) 1 Mad 709 (DB). (Turnover of a dealer in Madras chargeable to inter-State Sales under Central Act; excise duty cannot be deducted.)

(10) When goods are sent from State by V. P. P. and buyer in another State accepts them by paying the postal parcel, sale becomes complete and amounts to inter-State Sale. Sale is liable to Central Sales Tax and such tax is leviable by the first State. AIR 1967 Punj 130 (131, 132): 69 Punj LR 130 (DB).

(11) When the goods pursuant to the inter-State Sale have been delivered outside the State, but brought back in the State and then sold, that sale cannot be regarded as first sale within the meaning of Second Schedule to Madras General Sales Tax Act (1 of 1959). 7. Registration of dealers.—(1) Every dealer liable to pay tax under this Act shall, within such time as may be prescribed for the purpose, make an application for registration under this Act to such authority in the appropriate State as the Central Government may, by general or special order, specify, and every such application shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

[a][(2) Any dealer liable to pay tax under the sales tax law of the appropriate State, or where there is no such law in force in the appropriate State or any part thereof, any dealer having a place of business in that State or part, as the case may be, may, notwithstanding that he is not liable to pay tax under this Act, apply for registration under this Act to the authority referred to in sub-section (1), and every such application shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, a dealer shall be deemed to be liable to pay tax under the sales tax law of the appropriate State notwithstanding that under such law a sale or purchase made by him is exempt from tax or a refund or rebate of tax is admissible in respect thereof.]

(3) If the authority to whom an application under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) is made is satisfied that the application is in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, he shall register the applicant and grant to him a certificate of registration in the prescribed form which shall specify the class or classes of goods for the purposes of sub-section (1) of Sec. 8.

that contract the movement of goods took place, the sale to Government was really inter-State Sales and the Sales to dealers within the State being first sales in the State the recovery of sales tax from them was not illegal. 1966 Ker LJ 998: 20 STC 82.

(13) Central Government has to collect tax on such sales in the appropriate State. Authorities in one State must refer to their counterparts in other States to avoid conflicting orders. (1967) 21 STC 378 (Mad) (DB).

(14) Appellate Assistant Commissioner has power to extend time for production of E forms. (1967) 2 Mad LJ 365: (1967) 20 STC 266 (DB).

(15) Sub-rule (5) of Rule 9-B of Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules (1957) is ultra vires the rule-making power of the State Government if production of form "C" declaration cannot be insisted upon to claim exemption under Section 6 (2). (1967) 20 STC 263: ILR (1968) 2 Mad 116 (DB).

(16) (Case under Section 13 (2) of Mysore Sales Tax Act (25 of 1952)). A dealer under the Central Act who defaults in making payment of the tax payable under the Act within such time as may be prescribed becomes liable to pay the penalty as provided in the State Act. (1963) 14 STC 587 (Mys).

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) Under Section 7, the dealer liable to pay tax has to apply for registration to the specified authority in the appropriate State and the "appropriate State" under Section 2 (a) is defined in relation to dealer's place of business. So far liability to Central Sales Tax movement of goods need not necessarily terminate in the State where Act is applicable. (1965) 67 Pun LR 891: 1965 Cur LJ 737 (DB).

(2) The fiction created under the Explanation to Section 7 (2) entitles a dealer to get a certificate of registration even though he may not be actually paying sales tax at the particular time under the sales tax law of the appropriate State. The explanation cannot be invoked for the purpose of Section 7 (4) (b) of the Act. 1963 Ker LJ 800: (1963) 14 STC 1060.

(3) Explanation to sub-section (2) of Section 7 is not exception but deeming provision. Thus, dealers exempted from tax under State law can get themselves registered under Section 7 (2) of Act. AIR 1965 Ker 57 (58): 1964 Ker LJ 685.

(4) Distributor of electricity is a 'dealer' entitled to registration under Section 7 (2). AIR 1964 Mad 477 (479): (1963) 2 Mad LJ 225.

(5) The Act and the Rules do not impose an obligation upon the purchasing dealer to declare that the goods purchased by him are intended to be used for one purpose only even though under a certificate of registration he is entitled to purchase goods of the classes mentioned in Section 8 (3) (b) for more purposes than one. (b) be cancelled by the authority granting it where he is satisfied, after due notice to the dealer to whom it has been granted, that he has ceased to carry on business or has ceased to exist, or in the case of a dealer registered under sub-section (2) has ceased to be liable to pay tax under the sales tax law of the appropriate State or for any other sufficient reason.]

(5) A registered dealer may apply in the prescribed manner not later than six months before the end of a year to the authority which granted his certificate of registration for the cancellation of such registration, and the authority shall, unless the dealer is liable to pay tax under this Act, cancel the registration accordingly, and where he does so, the cancellation shall take effect from the end of the year.

(Ground that dealer was making bogus and false sales to different registered dealers thereby evading tax falls within the ambit of the phrase "or for any other sufficient reason" in Section 7 (4).)

(10) A certificate of registration can be cancelled only after the dealer has been given a proper opportunity of showing cause why it should not be cancelled. (1963) 14 STC 549 (Punj).

(11) Certificate of registration under Section 7 cannot override the provisions of the concerned statute. 1964 Ker LJ 70.

(12) The expression "in mining" in R. 13 of Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules do not mean the business of mining. The expression cannot be extended to include delivering the coal to a siding at Railway Station. The certificate cannot include motor trucks, spare parts of motor vehicles, furniture and sanitary fittings. 1967 MPLJ 131 (133): (1966) 17 STC 510 (SC).

(13) A dealer registered under Section 7 filing petition under Article 226 of constitution against rejection of his application for specification of certain goods in his certificate must accept the position that Sections 7 (3) and 8 (3) are valid. AIR 1962 Madh Pra 128 (130): 1962 Jab LJ 349 (DB).

(14) Correctness or propriety of satisfaction of the notified authority in enquiry under Rule 5 (1) of Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules (1957) in issuing the certificate in Form 'B' that the goods are likely to be required for the purposes of the business will not be open to challenge before another taxing authority in proceeding for assessment of tax. Such satisfaction is however, open to challenge before the High Court and the Supreme Court. AIR 1967 SC 234 (239, 240): (1966) Supp SCR 198.

1. Scope. — (1) The Act was intended to restrict the imposition of multiple taxation on a single inter-State transaction by different States, each State relying upon some territorial nexus between the State and the Sale. AIR 1969 SC 147 (153, 154): (1969) 1 SCJ 318.

(2) Sales effected in Punjab State occasioning movement of goods sold to State of Jammu and Kashmir are inter-State Sales and liable to tax. (1965) 67 Pun LR 891: 1965 Cur LJ 737 (DB).

(3) A turnover that will be liable to tax under Section 8 cannot come into existence unless the manner of its determination is provided for by the rules and it is so determined. AIR 1962 Mad 290 (293): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 302.

(4) License fee levied on dealer under Mysore Sales Tax Act (66 of 1948) is tax as contemplated in Section 8. ('62) Mys LJ 577 (DB). (On appeal, see AIR 1965 SC 1510.)

(5) Central Sales Tax (Amendment) Ordinance came into effect on 9-6-69 with retrospective effect and sought to validate

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section a sale or purchase of goods shall not be deemed to be exempt from tax generally under the sales tax law of the appropriate State if under that law it is exempt only in specified circumstances or under specified conditions or in relation to which the tax is levied at specified stages or otherwise than with reference to the turnover of the goods.

(3) The goods referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1)—

(a) [1][° ° ° ° °]

(b) [1][° ° °] are goods of the class or classes specified in the certificate of registration of the registered dealer purchasing the goods as being intended for re-sale by him or subject to any rules made by the Central Government in this behalf, for use by him in the manufacture or processing of goods for sale or in mining or in the generation or distribution of electricity or any other form of power;

(c) are containers or other materials specified in the certificate of registration of the registered dealer purchasing the goods, being containers or materials intended for being used for the packing of goods for sale;

(d) are containers or other materials used for the packing of any goods or classes of goods specified in the certificate of registration referred to in [1][° ° °] clause (b) or for the packing of any containers or other materials specified in the certificate of registration referred to in clause (c).

(4) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to any sale in the course of inter-State trade or commerce, unless the dealer selling the goods furnishes to the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner—

(a) a declaration duly filled and signed by the registered dealer to whom the goods are sold containing the prescribed particulars in a prescribed form obtained from the prescribed authority; or past levies and collections P. T. I. Nagpur Times D/- 10-6-1969.

2. Constitutional validity. — (1) Section 8 is not violative of Article 14 of Constitution. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 204 (207 to 210): (1961) 2 Andh WR 344 (DB) * AIR 1962 Mad 457 (461): (1962) 13 STC 433 (DB) (Held overruled on another point by AIR 1965 SC 1510 in AIR 1966 Mad 404).

(2) Sections 8 (2), 8 (2-A), 8 (5) are intra vires Arts. 301 and 303 (1) of Constitution. AIR 1969 SC 147 (160, 161): (1959) 1 SCJ 318.

[But see AIR 1968 Mad 407 (419): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB) (Ss. 8 (2), 8 (2-A) and 8 (5) are unconstitutional and void as offending Articles 301 and 303 (1) of Constitution — Note must be treated as impliedly overruled in AIR 1969 SC 147.)]

(3) Article 303 cannot be invoked to strike down Section 8 of the Act as discriminating between dealers of different States in the matter of granting exemption. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 204 (212): (1961) 2 Andh WR 344.

3. Concessional rate — Sub-sec. (1). — (1) Section 8 (1), being of the nature of an exception to normal taxation, has to be construed strictly. 1964 Ker LJ 70.

(2) The very purpose of the Act being to treat declared and other than declared goods forming the subject-matter of inter-State sales differently different mode of taxation of such sales are provided for by Section 8 (1) and (2) of the Act. They cannot be attacked on the basis that the classification has no just relation to the purpose of the Act. AIR 1962 Mad 457 (461): (1962) 13 STC (433) (DB). (Held overruled on another point by AIR 1965 SC 1510 in AIR 1966 Mad 404.)

(3) The purpose of Section 8 being only the bringing out charge on the turnover which will be assessable, Rule 11 (2) of the (Madras) General Sales Tax Act (Registration and Turnover) Rules (1957) when applied, results in "determining" the turnover as defined in S. 2 (j). AIR 1962 Mad 290 (293): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 302 (DB).

4. Turnover not falling within sub-sec. (1) — Sub-sec. (2). — (1) If a registered selling dealer fails to furnish to the prescribed authority a declaration duly filled and signed by him in Form "C", he is liable to pay tax at higher rate under Section 8 (2). AIR 1967 SC 1758 (1759, 1761): (1967) 3 SCR 645.

(2) The function of Section 8 (2) is to prescribe the rate and the manner of calculation of tax; it is not intended to incorporate the entire procedural and substantive State law relating to tax. (Per Shah J.) AIR 1965 SC 1510 (1511): (1965) 2 SCR 129.

(3) (Case under Mysore Sales Tax 25 of 1957) — Under Section 8 (2), the tax shall be calculated at the same rates and

(b) if the goods are sold to the Government, not being a registered dealer, a certificate in the prescribed form duly filled and signed by a duly authorised officer of the Government.]

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, [b][the State Government] may, if it is satisfied that it is necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that in respect of such goods or classes of goods as may be mentioned in the notification and subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, no tax under this Act shall be payable by any dealer having his place of business in [c][the State] in respect of the sale by him from any such place of business of any such goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce or that the tax on such sales shall be calculated at such lower rates than those specified in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) as may be mentioned in the notification.

6. Goods Referred to in Cl. (b) of Sub-section (3).—(1) The expression 'in the manufacture of goods' in S. 8(3)(b) should normally encompass the entire process carried on by the dealer of converting raw materials into finished goods. Where any particular process is so integrally connected with the ultimate production of goods that Drawing and photographic materials for designing cloth and humidifiers, exhaust fans and similar electrical equipments are goods intended for use "in the manufacture of goods" in factory manufacturing cotton and other textiles. But building materials including lime and cement not required in manufacture of tiles for sale cannot be so regarded. AIR 1965 SC 1310 (1312, 1313) : (1965) SCR 900.

(2) A dealer engaged both in mining operations and in manufacturing process is entitled to include in the specification (i) locomotives and motor vehicles which are used in carrying raw materials and removing materials during the process of manufacture and thereafter to different places and are also used both underground and on the surface in mining operations and in transport of crude ore and stores for mining operations, (ii) accessories and spare parts for locomotives and motor vehicles which are necessary for maintaining and ensuring continuous operation of the locomotives and motor vehicles and (iii) tyres and tubes which are necessary for the maintenance of motor vehicles set out in Item (i). AIR 1965 SC 891 (894, 895): (1965) 2 SCJ 668 (AIR 1962 Patna 366, Partly reversed.)

(3) The goods must be intended for use only in the actual activity of mining which would include raising the coal and storing it in heaps or in ware-houses. Spare parts of motor vehicles including tyres and tubes, and motor trucks cannot be included in the certificate of a company who is owner of a colliery and carrying on business of mining coal and trading in coal and coke. 1967 MPLJ 131: (1966) 17 STC 510 (SC).

(4) The cane baskets which are intended to be used by the sanitary department cannot be specified in the certificate, of registration. But the cane baskets required for carrying ore and other materials used in mining or in the manufacture of goods can be specified in the certificate. AIR 1965 SC 891 (895) : (1965) 2 SCJ 668. (AIR 1962 Pat 300, Partly Reversed.)

(5) Stationery is not intended for use in the manufacture of processing of goods for sale or for mining operations, cannot be allowed to be specified. AIR 1965 SC 891 (895) : (1965) 2 SCJ 668.

(6) Laboratory fittings which are essential for sampling and analysis of ore and other raw materials in mining operations and in the process of manufacture can be specified. AIR 1965 SC 891 (895): (1965) 2 SCJ 668. (AIR 1962 Pat 366, Partly Reversed.)

(7) Goods purchased for the hospital such as equipment, furnishings and fittings are not intended for use in the manufacture or processing of goods for sale or in the mining operations. AIR 1965 SC 891 (894) : (1965) 2 SCJ 668 * 1967 MPLJ 131: (1966) 17 STC 510 (SC).

(8) The production or storage of raw materials for manufacture is not manufacture itself. It may be an essential preclude to manufacture, but not a part of the process of manufacture as such manufacture starts only after the raw materials have been collected at the factory. 1964 Ker LJ 70. (Manure, rice, jaggery and items of general stores are not goods for use in the manufacture or processing of tea for sale.)

(9) The expressions "container" and "materials intended for being used for the packing of goods" as used in Section 8(3)(c) is deliberately couched in a language which bring within its scope all kinds of ready-made receptacles or other materials which are intended or by a slight alteration or fabrication can be converted into such receptacles for the purpose of storage of goods provided the use to which those receptacles for storage or transportation of goods contained therein for sale. of S. 10(d). AIR 1965 Mad 407 (409) : (1965) 16 STC 125 (DB).

(13) The Act and the Rules do not impose an obligation upon the purchasing dealer to declare that the goods purchased by him are intended to be used for one purpose only even though under a certificate of registration he is entitled to purchase goods of the classes mentioned in S. 8(3)(b) for more purposes than one. AIR 1967 SC 234 (239) : (1966) Supp SCR 198.

(14) The possible misuse of 'the' certificate cannot, in absence of any provision in the Act or rules framed thereunder afford any justification for putting a restriction on the number of goods the dealer can purchase. AIR 1969 Madh Pra 53 (55) : 1969 Jab LJ 20 (DB).

(15) Where after purchasing the goods for any of the purposes under S. 8(3)(b), purchaser failed to make use of the goods for any such purpose, offence under Section 10(d) is made out. AIR 1967 Ker 221 (222) : 1967 Ker LR 209 (DB).

(16) It is only where after purchase of any goods for any of the purposes specified in S. 8(3)(b), the purchaser fails, without any reasonable excuse, to make use of goods for any such purpose that he will be liable to penalty under S. 10(d). (1968) 1 Mad LJ 455 : 22 STC 17 (DB).

(17) Where purchasing dealer applies for amendment of registration certificate, it is the date on which he makes the application for amendment that should be taken as the date of effectiveness of the amendment, if it is allowed. AIR 1969 Madh Pra 53 (55) : 1969 Jab LJ 20 (DB).

(18) In writ petition by a Company against the order of Sales Tax Officer under S. 8(3)(b), read with R. 13 it is not open to High Court to deal with matters not in issue or to decide that other categories of goods which Sales Tax Officer had not ordered to be deleted did not fall within the terms of Section 8(3)(b), read with R. 13. AIR 1965 SC 1310 (1312) : (1965) 1 SCR 900.

(19) Where a dealer registered under S. 7 applied before Sales Tax Authority for specification of certain goods in his certificate of registration under S. 8(3), and on registration of his application and the revision therefrom he files petition under Art. 226 of Constitution, he must accept the position that Ss. 7(3) and 8(3) under which he was seeking the relief of specification were valid. AIR 1962 Madh Pra 128 (130) : 1962 Jab LJ 349 (DB).

7. Declaration to be furnished — Sub-section (4).—(1) For being qualified to pay tax at lower rate under S. 8(1), a registered selling dealer must furnish to the prescribed authority a declaration duly filled and signed by him in for "C". If he fails to do so, he is liable to pay tax at higher rate mentioned in S. 8(2). AIR 1967 SC 1758 (1759, 1761) : (1967) 3 SCR 645. (Rule 10(1) of Central Sales Tax (Mad.) Rules (1957) providing that declaration shall not contain more than one transaction is invalid.)

(2) It is not open to the Sales Tax authority, under the Act, to deny to the selling dealer the benefit of concessional rate under S. 8(1) on the ground that the certificate Form "C" mentions more purposes than one for which the goods are intended to be used or that the goods are incapable of being used for the purpose for which they are declared to be purchased, or that the goods are applied for some other purpose not mentioned in the certificate in Form "C". AIR 1967 SC 234 (239, 240) : 1966 Supp SCR 198.

(3) The Phrase in the prescribed manner occurring in S. 8 (4) of the Act only confers power on the rule making authority to prescribe a rule stating what particulars are to be mentioned in the prescribed form, the nature and value of the goods sold, the parties to whom they are sold. and to which authority the form is to be furnished. But it does not authorise the rule-making authority to prescribe a time-limit within which the declaration is to be filed by the registered dealer. Thus, the third proviso to R. 6(1) of the Central Sales Tax (Kerala) Rules, 1967 is ultra vires the rule making power under S. 8(4) read with S. 13(4)(c). AIR 1967 SC 1823 (1825, 1826) : (1967) 3 SCR 518.

(4) Rule 8(2) of Central Sales Tax (U. P.) Rules prescribing time limit for submission of "C" forms is repugnant to S. 8(4) of the Act and is inconsistent with R. 5-A of the above Rules. State Government has no power, either under S. 8(4) or under S. 13(4)(e) to prescribe such time limit. AIR 1965 All 483 (485, 486) : (1965) 16 STC 21.

(5) Rule 14-A as framed by Government of Andhra Pradesh prescribing period for furnishing declaration is not ultra vires its powers and does not go beyond the scope of Sec. 8 (4). AIR 1962 Andh Pra 204 (210) : (1961) 2 Andh WR 344 (DB). (No longer good law in view of AIR 1967 SC 1823).

(6) As per decision of Supreme Court in State of Madras v. R. Nandlal and Co. (AIR 1967 SC 1758), R. 8(1) of M. P. Sales Tax (Central) Rules (1957) is unenforceable. (1968) 21 STC 360 : 1968 MPLJ 463 (DB). (Goods sent from different places — Sales however, one transaction — Submission of one "C" form is enough — Dealer held entitled to lower rate of tax.)

(7) Rule 8(2) of M. P. Sales Tax (Central) Rules (1957) providing that the declaration must be attached to the return is invalid — It has no mandatory force so as to deprive a dealer of the benefit of S. 8(1) if he omits to attach to his return the declaration but files it before assessment. AIR 1967 Madh Pra 124 (125) : 1966 Jab LJ 1063 (DB).

(8) Rule 5(1) of the Central Sales Tax (Madras) Rules, is so far as it prescribes a time-limit, is invalid as being in excess of the rule-making power of the State Government. AIR 1968 Mad 311 (314) : (1968) 1 Mad LJ 174 (DB). (AIR 1963 Mad 125 and AIR 1962 Mad 410, held no longer good law in view of AIR 1967 SC 1823.)

(9) Rules 9(2)(a) and 9-B (3)(a) of Central Sales Tax (Bihar) Rules (1957) imposing rigid time limit for filing of declaration in Form "C" and Certificates in Form "D" are ultra vires rule-making power of State Government. AIR 1969 Pat 42 (45, 46, 47) : 23 STC 142 (DB).

(10) Rule 7(2A) of the Central Sales Tax (Punjab) Rules (1957) is consistent with S. 8(4) or any provision of Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules (1957). (1966) 17 STC 185 : ILR (1966) 2 Punj 311 (DB).

(11) The time factor in filing the "C" forms should be understood not in the sense of a strict limitation for the purpose, but it would be necessary to file such forms within a reasonable time even though before Appellate Assistant Commissioner. (1967) 2 Mad LJ 432 : 80 Mad LW 551 (DB). * AIR 1968 Mad 311 (314, 315) : (1968) 1 Mad LJ 174 (DB). (What will be "reasonable time" in a given case will depend upon circumstances of each case.)

(12) Appellate Assistant Commissioner has power to extend time for production of E forms. (1967) 20 STC 266 : (1967) 2 Mad LJ 365 (DB).

(13) Where the assessee complains before the appellate authority that the original authority has not given him sufficient opportunity to produce form "C", in absence of proof of any laches on part of assessee appellate authority can permit assessee to produce the said form even at appellate stage. (1967) 1 Mys LJ 218 (221, 222) : 9 Law Rep 414 (DB).

(14) Non-submission of Form "does not vitiate return" AIR 1962 Mad 410 (412): 1963 Mad WN 484. (Note — Held no longer good law on another point in AIR 1968 Mad 311 in view of AIR 1967 SC 1823).

(15) When the purchasing dealer declares that the subject matter of sale is listed in his Certificate of registration in form "B" as required for that purpose and furnishes declaration in form "C" the selling dealer is not bound to enter into any examination of the matter. This is sufficient compliance with the requirement of law and the selling dealer is entitled to lower rate of taxation. (1963) 14 STC 369 (Mad) (DB).

(16) Where the columns provided for purposes set out in S. 8(3)(b) is not struck out in form C the form is not rendered objective. AIR 1962 Mad 410 (413): 1963 Mad WN 484 (DB). (Note—Held no longer good law on another point in AIR 1968 Mad 311 in view of AIR 1967 SC 1823).

(17) Form C is defective if it lacks a material particular in not mentioning therein date of registration. AIR 1962 Mad 410 (413) : 1963 Mad WN 484 (DB). (Note—Held no longer good law on another point in AIR 1968 Mad 311 in view of AIR 1967 SC 1823).

(18) Where a dealer in Calcutta placed bulk orders with assessee at Ootacamund for purchase of Gramophone needles and even though the contract was silent about instalments, delivery of goods in instalments and payment of price in instalments against separate invoices were only resorted to by the parties for their own conveniences and any mutual agreement during course of fulfilment of contract, such a contract did not give rise to as many distinct sale transactions as there were deliveries by instalments followed by corresponding invoices. In such a case there can be no inference of a severable contract involving more than one transaction, requiring separate "C" Forms. Assessee is entitled to benefit of lower rate assessment. (1964) 15 STC 809 : (1964) 2 Mad LJ 504 (DB).

(19) Where the bills submitted to the purchaser in respect of certain transactions of sale, clearly showed the F. O. B. and shipping charges separately, such charges would not form part of the sale price and their non-inclusion in the C form declaration is not a vitiating circumstance which would disentitle the assessee to claim concessional rate under S. 8(1). AIR 1964 Mad 487 (487, 488) : (1963) 2 Mad LJ 240 (DB).

8. Power of State Government under sub-section (5).—(1) Sec. 8 (5) provides for giving individual exemptions in public interest. Such a power is there in all taxation measures. It is to provide for unforeseen contingencies. The power in question cannot be said to be bad. If there is any misuse of that power, the same can be challenged. AIR 1969 SC 147 : (1969) 1 SCJ 318.

SECTION 9 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. Constitutional validity.
3. Imposition of penalty.
4. "Assess, collect and enforce payment of any tax."

of Section 3) shall be levied and collected by the Government of India in the manner provided in sub-section (3) in the State from which the movement of the goods commenced :

Provided that, in the case of a sale of goods during their movement from one State to another being a sale subsequent to the first sale in respect of the same goods, the tax shall, where such sale does not fall within sub-section (2) of Section 6, be levied and collected in the State from which the registered dealer effecting the subsequent sale obtained the form prescribed for the purposes of clause (a) of sub-section (4) of Sec. 8 in connection with the purchase of such goods.

(2) The penalty imposed upon any dealer under Sec. 10A shall be collected by the Government of India in the manner provided in sub-section (3)—

(a) in the case of an offence falling under clause (b) or clause (d) of Sec. 10, in the State in which the person purchasing the goods obtained the form prescribed for the purposes of clause (a) and of sub-section (4) of Sec. 8, in connection with the purchase of such goods;

(b) in the case of an offence falling under clause (c) of Sec. 10, in the State in which the person purchasing the goods should have registered himself if the offence had not been committed.

Topic Indicator.

Object of section — See Note 1.
Prescribed authority in S. 8(4) — See Note 1.
Tax on animals and birds in captivity — See Note 2.
Sub-section (2) — See Note 3.
Sub-section (3) — See Notes 4 and 5.
Fresh assessment — See Note 4.
Appeal to Supreme Court — See note 4.

1. Scope — (1) In order to apply Section 9(1) it must be seen that all ingredients and requirements of the provisions are satisfied. 22 STC 285 (AP) (DB). (Consignments booked by first sellers in Mysore purchased in transit by assessee in Andhra and resold outside — 'C' form not obtained — State of Andhra can tax the assessees under Section 9 (1).

(2) Section 9(1) so far as it is concerned with the first sale under S. 3(b) has the effect of being a proviso to S. 4(2) and treating such sale or purchase inside the State from which the goods moved. AIR 1968 Mad 407 (428) : 20 STC 150 : (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 (DB).

(3) The effect of Ss. 8(2) and 9(1) was to assimilate the provisions of the State enactments even in respect of the manner of levy and not merely the rate. AIR 1966 Mad 404 (405) : (1965) 16 STC 1067 :(1966) 1 Mad LJ 127 (DB).

(4) Liability to pay tax accrued prior to 1st October, 1958 is not wiped out. AIR 1965 Punj 62 (65): 15 STC 746 (DB).

(5) The view that S. 8(4) does not authorise rule making authority to prescribe time limit within which declaration is to be filed by registered dealer, is also supported by the "Note" to the form of declaration — Form C prescribed by R. 12 of the Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules, 1957. AIR 1967 SC 1823 (1824). (Rule 6(1) Third proviso of Central Sales Tax (Kerala) Rules (1957) is ultra vires of S. 8 (4) read with S. 13 (4) (c) ).

(6) The expression "to the prescribed authority" in S. 8(4) means the prescribed authority under S. 9(2) who is empowered to assess the tax. Declaration by a dealer must be submitted before the taxing authority. Submission of declaration must be before and not after the assessment if the dealer claims the benefit of S. 8(1). AIR 1967 Madh Pra 124 (125): 19 STC 46 (DB).

(7) The expression "in the prescribed manner" in S. 8(4) empowers the Government to prescribe only the mode of filing a declaration under S. 8 (4). No time limit can be fixed for filing the declaration. AIR 1967 Madh Pra 124 (125): 1966 MPLJ 1115 : 19 STC 46 (DB).

(8) Appellate authority has no power to admit declaration at appellate stage. AIR 1962 Mad 410 (411, 412) (DB).

(9) The object of S. 9(3) is the effective realisation of the tax payable under the Central Act. (1963) 14 STC 587 (Mys).

(10) Where from facts of a case there can be no inference of a severable contract involving more than one transaction requiring separate "C" Forms, the fact that the delivery of goods in instalments and the payment of price in instalments are resorted to by the parties for their own convenience though not in contract, will not deprive the assessee of concessional rate of assessment . ILR (1965) 1 Mad 506 : (1964) 15 STC 809.

(11) Central Sales Tax (Amendment) Ordinance came into effect on 9-6-1969 with retrospective effect and sought to validate past levies and collections P. T. I. Nagpur Times D/- 10-6-1969.

(3) The authorities for the time being empowered to assess, collect and enforce payment of any tax under the general sales tax law of the appropriate State shall, on behalf of the Government of India and subject to any rules made under this Act, assess, collect and enforce payment of any tax, including any penalty, payable by a dealer under this Act in the same manner as the tax on the sale or purchase of goods under the general sales tax law of the State is assessed, paid and collected; and for this purpose they may exercise all or any of the powers they have under the general sales tax law of the State; and the provisions of such law, including provisions relating to returns, appeals, reviews, revisions references, penalties and compounding of offences, shall apply accordingly :

Provided that if in any State or part thereof there is no general sales tax law in force, the Central Government may, by rules made in this behalf, make necessary provision for all or any of the matters specified in this sub-section, and such rules may provide that a breach of any rule shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees; and where the offence is a continuing offence, with a daily fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day during which the offence continues.

(4) The proceeds in any financial year of any tax, including any penalty, levied and collected under this Act in any State (other than a Union territory) on behalf of the Government of India shall be assigned to that State and shall be retained and the proceeds attributable to Union territories shall form part of the Consolidated Fund of India.]

[a] Sections 9 and 9A were substituted for former Sec. 9 by the Central Sales Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 1958 (31 of 1958), S. 6 [1-10-1958].

Section 9 (contd.)

2. Constitutional validity. — (1) Threat to recover again sales tax on same turnover on behalf of Central Government by another State is infringement of fundamental right under Art. 19(1)(g) of Constitution. Aggrieved citizen is entitled to seek relief under Art. 226 of Constitution. AIR 1961 SC 65 (68, 69, 76) : (1961) 1 SCR 379 : (1960) 11 STC 655.

(2) Section 9(4) is in accordance with Art. 269 (1) (g) as introduced by Constitution (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1956. The distribution of revenue between the Union and the States is a different matter governed by the provisions of Part 12 of the Constitution. Different financial needs of several States will not be justification of discrimination or preference under Article 303 (1). AIR 1968 Mad 407 (419) : (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552 : 20 STC 150 (DB).

(3) Section 9 (4) not violative of Article 301 or 303 (1) of Constitution. AIR 1968 Mad 407 (420): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552: 20 STC 150 (DB). (Non-deductibility of Excise Duty Act makes no discrimination.

(4) The absence of common authority to resolve conflicting assessments does not affect the validity of S. 9 (3). Section 9 (3) is grounded on convenience and it is not open to challenge on ground of procedural restraint. AIR 1968 Mad 407 (419, 420): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 552: 20 STC 150 (DB).

(5) (Case under Section 16 of Madras Act 1 of 1959). Section 9 (3) is not unconstitutional on ground that it attracts for its purpose provisions of local sales tax law which was not existing when it was enacted. Section 9 (3) can be invoked to assess within limit escaped turnover by best judgment. AIR 1967 Mad 171 (174, 175) (DB). (1966) 2 MLJ 396: 18 STC 370 (DB).

(6) Animal and birds in captivity are movable property and therefore goods within Section 2 (d). Levy of tax on sales of such things is within competence of Parliament within Entry 97 of List 1 of Sch. 7 of Constitution. AIR 1960 Ker 360 (360).

3. Imposition of penalty. — (1) Even though Section 9 (3) of the Central Sales Tax Act incorporates by reference the provisions of the Madras General Sales Tax Act (IX of 1939), it cannot be said that the Central Act, enacted in 1956, has incorporated the subsequent amendment made in 1959 in the State Act prescribing levying of penalty, when, in fact, no such penalty was leviable under the Act of 1939. Thus penalty as contemplated under Section 16 (2) of Madras Act (1 of 1959) cannot be imposed by applying Section 9 (3). 22 STC 226 (Mad) (DB) * (1968) 22 STC 404 (Andh Pra) (DB) * (1967) 2 MLJ 261: 20 STC 146 (Mad) (DB).

(2) For late submission of return in Form V appended to M. P. Sales Tax (Central) Rules, penalty can be imposed under Section 17 (3) of State Act notwithstanding Rule 12 of the above Rules. AIR 1968 MP 20 (21, 22): 1967 MPLJ 347: 19 STC 377 (DB).

(3) The provisions of the general sales tax law of the State including provisions relating to penalties will be applicable to be entire process of assessment, payment, collection and recovery of the tax payable under the Central Act. That will be the true effect of the expression "shall apply accordingly." (1963) 14 STC 587: ILR (1963) Mys 561 (DB).

4. "Assess, collect and enforce payment of any tax". — (1) (Case under S. 13 (3) Mysore Sales Tax Act (25 of 1957) ). For purpose of assessing, collecting and enforcing payment of tax due under Central Sales Tax Act, authorities can exercise all or any of the powers which they have under general sales tax law of the State. (1965) 4 LR 444: (1965) 2 Mys LJ 712.

(2) The expression "in the same manner" as used in Section 9 (3) cannot be extended to any matter beyond the field of procedure as laid down in the general sales tax law of the concerned State and that too only to the extent as specified therein. Thus, the provision of rebate as made in Section 13 (8) of Orissa Sales Tax Act (14 of 1947) (as amended by Orissa Act 31 of 1962) is not applicable to payment of inter-State Sales Tax. ILR (1966) Cut 152: 33 Cut LT 20 (DB).

(3) Notice in connection with assessment under Central Sales Tax Act. is valid if assessee has no difficulty in understanding its purpose. 18 STC 87 (All).

(4) (Case prior to amendment in 1963). Section 9-A, Orissa Sales Tax Act also applies to Central Sales Tax collected by controlled stock-holder. ILR (1963) Cut 535.

(5) The provisions of Orissa Sales Tax Act (14 of 1947) will apply for collection of Central Sales-tax by virtue of S. 9 (3). Under normal circumstances the internal remedies provided by Statute should be exhausted in the first instance before approaching High Court under Article 226 of Constitution. ILR (1964) Cut 464 (DB).

(6) (Case prior to amendment in 1963). Sale Tax under Central Sales Tax Act received by dealer from customers while selling goods comes within definition given in Section 2 (i) of Orissa Sales Tax Act (14 of 1947). ILR (1963) Cut 535.

(7) Where a dealer in iron materials is authorised to realise tax so paid from customers and tax is credited into treasury after realisation, the dealer is entitled to deduct Central Sales Tax paid by him while making purchases of materials in returns for periods prior to amendments effected in 1958. ILR (1963) Cut 535.

(8) The question whether the original article has been converted into a commercially different article is a question essentially of fact and one which appropriately falls for consideration before the Sales Tax Officer. 18 STC 87 (All). (Case under U. P. Government Notification No. St.-1365/X-990-1956 dated 1-4-1960 specifying that turnover of glass bangles shall be liable to tax at a single point.)

(9) Fresh assessment by Sales Tax Officer as per directions of Sales Tax Appellate Tribunal which set aside the orders of assessing and revisional authorities, must be governed by Rule 33 (1) of Kerala General Sales Tax Rules (1950). (1964) 15 STC 711 (All).

(10) Coal agents who had been assessed under E. P. General Sales Tax Act (46 of 1948) and which assessment had become final could not get the benefit of decision of Supreme Court in AIR 1961 SC 1106 holding that coal agents were not "dealers" within the meaning of the Act. Previous assessments did not become without jurisdiction and such coal agents were not entitled for refund of tax paid. (1965) 67 Pun LR 1185.

(11) Bar imposed by Section 26 of Trav-Co. General Sales Tax Act (as amended in 1951) having been lifted by Sales-tax Laws Validation Act (7 of 1956), State was competent to collect all taxes in respect of sales in the course of inter-State and commerce upto 5-9-1955. AIR 1968 SC 389 (393): (1968) 1 SCR 415: 21 STC 403.

(12) An assessee who has been assessed to pay sales tax cannot go upto Supreme Court on a special leave directly against the judgment of the Assessing Authority functioning under Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 without exhausting all his remedies under that Act. AIR 1962 SC 1326 (1328, 1329): 13 STC 6: 1962 Supp (1) SCR 276.

5. Appropriate State. — (1) The words 'appropriate State' in Section 9 (3) means the State from which the goods moved pursuant to a sale. Central Government has to collect tax on such sales in the appropriate State. Authorities in one State must refer to their counterparts in other States to avoid conflicting orders. 21 STC 378 (Mad) (DB).

(2) Tax can be levied and collected only in State from where goods began to be moved. AIR 1965 Punj 62 (64): 66 Punj LR 978: 15 STC 746 (DB).

(3) (Case before amendment in 1958). Where assessee, paddy and rice merchant in Madras, transfers documents of title to the goods to the intending purchaser and the latter gets the documents on payment of money and subsequently takes delivery of goods, all these incidents having taken place in Kerala State it is the Kerala State which is appropriate State entitled to levy and collect the tax. 14 STC 856: (1963) 2 Mad LJ 517 (DB).

[9A. Collection of tax to be only by registered dealers.—No person who is not a registered dealer shall collect in respect of any sale by him of goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce any amount by way of tax under this Act, and no registered dealer shall make any such collection except in accordance with this Act and the rules made thereunder.]

[a] See remark (a) under Section 9.

10. Penalties.—If any person—

(a) fails to get himself registered as required by S. 7; or

(b) being a registered dealer, falsely represents when purchasing any class of goods that goods of such class are covered by his certificate of registration; or

Section 9 — Note 5 (contd.)

(4) Where an assessee purchased certain goods from certain registered dealers in Rajasthan, where the goods are exempt from sales-tax, and the goods were despatched by rail and during its transit the assessee transferred the documents of title to certain purchasers (who were also registered dealers) in the Madras State, the entire turnover will fall within the ambit of Section 9 (1) of the Central Sales Tax Act and the Madras State will be entitled to tax the subsequent sale. (1967) 2 MLJ 315 (DB).

6. Non-liability to taxation under State Act — Effect. — (1) Expression 'levied' in Section 9 (1) refers to 'levied' in Section 5 (3) (a) of Mysore Sales Tax Act (25 of 1957). Sales of powerloom cloth not taxable under State Act because of not being first sales, are also not taxable under Central Act. AIR 1965 SC 1510 (1514): (1965) 2 SCR 129: 16 STC 231 * (1966) 1 SCWR 466: (1966) 17 STC 309 * (1966) 1 SCWR 465: (1966) 17 STC (SC) 311.

(2) The non-liability to taxation under the State Act if the sales were in intra-State trade postulates a non-liability to taxation under the Central Act. AIR 1966 Ker 60 (62): 1965 Ker LT 862: 1965 Ker LJ 720: (1965) 16 STC 794 (DB). (Intra-State sale exempted by notification under Section 6, (Kerala) General Sales Tax Act (11 of 1125).)

(3) The phrase "in the same manner" occurring in Section 9 (3) cannot therefore, take in all exemptions and deductions contemplated under the local sales-tax law: AIR 1962 Mad 290 (294): (1962) 2 MLJ 302: 75 Mad LW 783: (1962) 13 STC 371 (DB).

(4) Transactions which are not taxable at the sale point under the State Sales Tax Act if can be taxed under the Central Sales Tax Act. (Quaere). 22 STC 285: (1969) 1 Andh LT 161 (DB).

(5) (Case under Section 5 (3) (b) of Mysore Sales Tax Act (25 of 1957) ). Though Section 8 referring merely to calculation due to amendment underwent many alterations, Section 9 relating to levy and collection of tax, in substance, remained unchanged. Under Section 9, sales could not have been taxed, as assessee would not have been liable to same under State Act had sales been intra-State sales. (1968) 16 LR 714: (1969) 1 Mys LJ 46. (Assessment of inter-State sales of "areca" under Central Act for assessment year 1959-60 and subsequent years — Held, Sections 8 and 9 as amended applied — Assessee held entitled to refund.)

(6) The expression "levied" in Section 9 (1) comprehends the point at which the tax is attracted under the State Act. Turnover representing purchases, not last purchases cannot be taxed under Central Act. AIR 1966 Mad 404 (405, 406): (1965) 16 STC 1067: (1966) 1 Mad LJ 127 (DB). (AIR 1962 Mad 457 Held Overruled by AIR 1965 SC 1510.) * (1966) 17 STC 396 (Mad).

7. Deductibility of excise duty paid. — (1) A dealer is not entitled to deduct the excise duty paid by him in respect of goods sold by him in determining the turnover liable to assessment under Central Sales Tax Act. AIR 1964 Mys 212 (213, 214): 15 STC 176: ILR (1965) Mys 1149 (DB) * (1966) 1 Mad LJ 541: ILR (1967) 1 Mad 709 (DB).

(2) Turnover represented by excise duty payable is to be deducted. Discount claimed under Rule 7 (a) of General Sales Tax Rules (1950) is also to be deducted. 1967 Ker LT 657: 1966 Ker LJ 1085 (DB). ( (1962) 13 STC 371, (1962) 13 STC 927 and (1964) 15 STC 176, held impliedly overruled by (1965) 16 STC 231 (SC).)

(3) The words "in same manner" in Section 9 (3) will not attract Rule 7 (1) of (Ker) General Sales Tax Rules (1950). Thus, excise duty collected by seller from his customers forms part of assessable turnover. Such duty is not an allowable deduction. 1962 Ker LT 710 (DB).

Section 9-A — Note 1

(1) Section 9-A Orissa Sales Tax Act also applies to Central Sales Tax collected by controlled stock-holder. ILR (1963) Cut 535.

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) Mens rea is an essential ingredient for the offence under Section 10 (b). Representation must have been made

(c) not being a registered dealer, falsely represents when purchasing goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce that he is a registered dealer; or

(d) after purchasing any goods for any of the purposes specified in Cl. (b) of sub-section (3) of Sec. 8 fails, without any reasonable excuse, to make use of the goods for any such purpose;

(e) has in his possession any form prescribed for the purpose of sub-section (4) of Section 8 which has not been obtained by him or by his principal or by his agent in accordance with the provisions of this Act or any rules made thereunder;

[a][(f) collects any amount by way of tax in contravention of the provisions contained in Sec. 9A;]

he shall be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both; and when the offence is a continuing offence; with a daily fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day during which the offence continues.

(5) Central Sales Tax (Punjab) Rules (1957), Rule 7 (2-A) — Rule 7 (2-A) is within the rule-making power of the State Government under Section 13 of the Central Sales Tax Act and is consistent with the Act as well as the Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules made by the Central Government under the Act. ILR (1966) 2 Punj 311: (1966) 17 STC 185 (DB).

(6) Central Sales Tax (Madras) Rules (1957), Rule 10 (1), Proviso — Even in proviso to Rule 10 (1) (prior to amendment in 1961), the term transaction of sale was equated to fulfilment of a given purchase order, even though it might have led the parties to the contract to arrange for the delivery of the goods and the payment of price in instalments. (1964) 15 STC 809 (Mad) (DB). (Each purchase order carried out in certain instalments — Separate invoices for each instalment — Payment also by instalments — Method of fulfilment adopted by parties for convenience though not in the contract — Held the contract did not involve more than one transaction of sale — Separate "C" Form for each instalment was not necessary.) * AIR 1964 Ker 131 (133) (FB).

(7) Central Sales Tax (Madras) Rules (1957), Rule 9-B (2) and (5) — Sub-r. (5) of Rule 9-B is ultra vires the rule-making power of the State Government. Production of form "C" declaration cannot be insisted upon to claim exemption under Section 6 (2). Sub-r. (2) is not mandatory. (1967) 20 STC 263: ILR (1968) 2 Mad 116 (DB).

(8) Central Sales Tax (Madras) Rules (1957), Rule 10 (1), Proviso — Where from facts of a case there can be no inference of a severable contract involving more than one transaction requiring separate "C" Form, the fact that the delivery of goods in instalment and the payment of price in instalments are resorted to by the parties for their own convenience though not in contract, will not deprive the assessee of concessional rate of assessment. ILR (1965) Mad 506: (1964) 15 STC 809 (DB).

(9) Central Sales Tax (Madras) Rules (1957), Rule 10 (1) — Rule 10 (1) applies to dealer wishing to purchase goods, but not to one wishing to sell goods. Rule has no application to purchasing dealer outside Madras State. Rule providing that declaration shall not contain more than one transaction, is inconsistent with Section 13 (1) (d). ## CHAPTER IV
GOODS OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE IN INTER-STATE TRADE OR COMMERCE

14. Certain goods to be of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce.—It is hereby declared that the following goods are of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce:—

Section 14 — Note 1

(1) Section 14 deals with declared goods in respect of which by Section 8 (1) read with Section 8 (3) (a), the concessional rate of tax applies when the goods are purchased as being intended for resale. AIR 1967 SC 234 (237): (1966) Supp SCR 198: (1966) 18 STC 222.

(i) coal, including coke in all its forms;
(ii) cotton, that is to say, all kinds of cotton (indigenous or imported) in its unmanufactured state, whether ginned or unginned, baled, pressed or otherwise, but not including cotton waste;
[a][(iia) cotton fabrics, as defined in Item No. 12 of the First Schedule to the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944;
(iib) cotton yarn, but not including cotton yarn waste;]
(iii) hides and skins, whether in a raw or dressed state;
(iv) iron and steel, that is to say,—
(a) pig iron and iron scrap;
(b) iron plates sold in the same form in which they are directly produced by the rolling mill;
(c) steel scrap, steel ingots, steel billets, steel bars and rods;
(d) (i) steel plates,
(ii) steel sheets,
(iii) sheet bars and tin bars,
(iv) rolled steel sections,
(v) tool alloy steel,
} Sold in the same form in which they are directly produced by the rolling mill;
(v) jute, that is to say, the fibre extracted from plants belonging to the species corchorus capsularis and corchorus oliorious and the fibre known as mesta or bimli extracted from plants of the species hibiscus cannapinus and hibiscus sab-dariffa-var altissima whether baled or otherwise;
(vi) oil-seeds, that is to say, seeds yielding non-volatile oils used for human consumption, or in industry, or in the manufacture of varnishes, soaps and the like, or in lubrication, and volatile oils used chiefly in medicines, perfumes, cosmetics and the like;
[b][(vii) rayon or artificial silk fabrics, as defined in Item No. 12A of the First Schedule to the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944;

Section 14 — Note 1 (contd.)

(2) The effect of Ss. 14 and 15 of Central Sales Tax Act read with Article 286 (3) of the Constitution is that it is not competent for the State to demand a tax in respect of the sale or purchase of declared goods in excess of two per cent of the sale or purchase price. AIR 1962 Mys 1 (2, 3): 39 Mys LJ 518: (1961) 12 STC 629.

(3) Section 14 enumerates the various goods which are declared to be special importance in inter-State trade or commerce. One of the items so declared, is "cotton". AIR 1967 SC 1616 (1620): (1967) 3 SCR 577: 20 STC 290. (Section 5 (1), Second Proviso and Section 5 (2) (a) (vi) of Punjab Act 46 of 1948 are opposed to Section 15 (a) of Central Act — Levy of purchase tax on cotton held not valid.)

(4) Ginned and unginned cotton are the same commodity and a person who buys unginned cotton gins it and then sells ginned cotton is dealing only in one commodity. This commodity has been declared to be one of goods of special importance in inter State trade. A person dealing in it is entitled to benefit of Section 15. ILR (1960) Punj 852 (DB). (E. P. General Sales Tax Act (46 of 1948) (as amended by Punjab Act (7 of 1958) is invalid.)

(5) Under Section 14, sugar is declared to be of "special importance in inter-State trade or commerce". Section 14 was enacted in order to enable Parliament to impose in exercise of powers conferred under Article 286 (3), restriction and conditions in regard to the system of levy, rates and other incidents of sales tax imposed on sale of sugar by a State Sales Tax Act. 1966 All LJ 815: 19 STC 241 (DB).

(6) The expression "Oil seeds" in Section 14 (vi) includes coconut and copra. AIR 1962 Mys 1 (2, 3): 39 Mys LJ 518: (1961) 12 STC 629 (DB).

(7) Gingely seeds and mustard seeds are oil seeds within the meaning of Section 14 (vi). AIR 1968 Ker 193 (196): 1967 Ker LT 731: 20 STC 470. ((1961) 12 STC 795 (Andh Pra), Dissented from.)

(8) Copra is oil seed within Section 14 (vi) and as a result Section 15 comes into operation. (1966) 18 STC 464: 1965 Ker LT 1223 (DB).

(9) Cess imposed by Market Committee under Madras Commercial Crops Market Act (20 of 1933) (as amended in 1958) is in the nature of Sales Tax and imposition is in contravention of Sections 14 and 15 of Central Sales Tax Act read with Entry 5 (a) of IVth Schedule to Mysore Sales Tax Act and Section 5 (4) thereof. 13 Law Rep 327 (DB).

(viii) sugar, as defined in Item No. 8 of the First Schedule to the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944;

(ix) tobacco, as defined in Item No. 9 of the First Schedule to the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944;

(x) wollen fabrics, as defined in Item No. 12B of the First Schedule to the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944.]

[15. Restrictions and conditions in regard to tax on sale or purchase of declared goods within a State.—Every sales tax law of a State shall, in so far as it imposes or authorises the imposition of a tax on the sale or purchase of declared goods, be subject to the following restrictions and conditions, namely:—

(a) the tax payable under that law in respect of any sale or purchase of such goods inside the State shall not exceed [b][three per cent] of the sale or purchase price thereof, and such tax shall not be levied at more than one stage;

(b) where a tax has been levied under that law in respect of the sale or purchase inside the State of any declared goods and such goods are sold in the course of inter-State trade or commerce, the tax so levied shall be refunded to such person in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be provided in any law in force in that State.]

[a] Substituted by the Central Sales Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 1958 (31 of 1958), S. 11 (1-10-1958). Section so amended came into force on 1-10-1958—see Gazette of India, 1-10-1958, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), Ext., p. 476. Original section was enforced on 1-5-1957—see Gazette of India, 28-2-1957, Pt. II, S. 3, Ext., p. 1037.

[b] Substituted for the words "two per cent" by the Finance Act, 1966 (13 of 1966), S. 51 (b) (with effect from 1-7-1966).

SECTION 15 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. Imposition of tax under State Laws.
3. Effect of Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act (1957).
4. Sale or purchase inside the State.
5. Claim for refund.

Topic Indicator

Clause (a) — See Note 2.
Clause (b) — See Notes 4 and 5.

1. Scope. — (1) Article 286 (3) of Constitution only modifies charging section of State Act in accordance with S. 15 (a). The effect of Article 286 (3) is brought out by second proviso to Section 5 (1) of East Punjab General Sales Tax Act (46 of 1948). AIR 1965 SC 957 (961): (1965) 1 SCR 592: (1965) 16 STC 310.

(2) Notification issued by Central Government bringing into force Section 6, the charging section as from 1-7-1957 is not invalid in so far as it relates to declared goods until such date as relevant provisions of Section 15 are also brought into force. AIR 1963 Mad 42 (44, 45): (1962) 2 Mad LJ 327: (1962) 13 STC 425 (DB).

(3) Though Section 15 had not in fact been brought into force. when, with that knowledge, the Parliament expressly stated in Section 7 that the restriction imposed by Section 15 shall apply on 1st April, 1958, the ordinary rule of construction would be that those restrictions would apply irrespective of whether Section 15 was actually brought into force on 1st April, 1958 or not. AIR 1963 Orissa 185: 30 Cut LT 142: (1963) 14 STC 512 (DB).

(4) Section 15 contains an absolute direction that the State-law in respect of declared goods, shall make provision for levy of sales-tax at only one point. AIR 1965 Mad 360 (362): ILR (1965) 2 Mad 83: (1965) 16 STC 29 (DB).

(5) Section 15 (b) is independent of Section 15 (a) and imposes an additional condition. Section 15 (b) does not mean that the violation of any of the prohibitions, which are mandatory, shall not render the imposition ultra vires so as to enable an aggrieved assessee to seek relief from the Court to restrain the proceedings for any such assessment. AIR 1965 Cal 498 (504).

2. Imposition of tax under State Laws. — (1) Kerala — Gingely seeds and mustard seeds are oil seeds within the meaning of Section 14 (vi). The dealer in these goods is, therefore, entitled to exemption in respect of them if he is not the first seller of these goods in the State, and is liable to be taxed only at two per cent., if he is the first seller. AIR 1968 Ker 193 (196): 1967 Ker LT 731: 20 STC 470. ((1961) 12 STC 795 (Andh Pra) Dissented from.)

(2) Copra is an oil seed within the meaning of Section 14 (vi) and as a result Section 15 comes into operation. Thus, assessment thereon has to be made under Section 3 of Trav-Co. General Sales Tax Act (1125) read with S. 15 of the Central Act. 1965 Ker LT 1223: (1966) 18 STC 464 (DB).

(3) Madras — Though the levy may be under two different enactments both should be regarded as one for purposes of Section 15 of the Central Sales Tax Act. Subject to the requirement that the levy should be at identical point at a fixed stage in the series of transactions, there is nothing in Sec. 15 of the Central Sales Tax Act which forbids multiple levy of rates amounting to two per cent or below in the aggregate on such identical point. AIR 1968 Mad 90 (93): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 146 (DB).

(4) Cess imposed by Market Committee under Madras Commercial Crops Market Act (20 of 1933) is in the nature of Sales Tax and imposition is in contravention of Sections 14 and 15 of Central Sales Tax Act read with Entry 5 (a) of IVth Schedule to Mysore Sales Tax Act and Section 5 (4) thereof. (1968) 13 Law Rep 327.

(5) Mysore — The effect of Ss. 14 and 15 of Central Tax Act read with Article 286 (3) of the Constitution is that it is not competent for the State to demand a tax in respect of the sale or purchase of declared goods in excess of two per cent of the sale or purchase price thereof. AIR 1962 Mys 1 (2, 3): 39 Mys LJ 518: (1961) 12 STC 629 (DB). (Further impost on sales and purchase of "oil seeds" in Mysore State under Section 11, Madras Commercial Crops Markets Act is invalid.)

(6) The Fourth Schedule to Mysore Sales Tax Act (25 of 1957) imposing sales tax only at 2 per cent of the turnover relating to groundnuts does not violate Section 15 of the Central Sales Tax Act. (1962) 40 Mys LJ 631 (DB).

(7) Punjab — Provisions of Punjab General Sales Tax Act 46 of 1948 especially those of Section 5 (1), Second Proviso and Section 5 (2) (a) (vi) are invalid as being opposed to those of Central Sales Tax Act. AIR 1967 SC 1616 (1624, 1626): (1967) 3 SCR 577: 20 STC 290. (Levy of purchase tax on cotton held to be not valid.)

(8) In absence of proof that any declared goods have been subjected to a tax exceeding two per cent or that the sale or purchase tax has been levied at more than one stage, the imposition of purchase tax on goods purchased before their use in manufacture and that of manufactured goods do not offend Section 15. AIR 1963 Punj 549 (554): 65 Pun LR 515: 14 STC 559 (DB).

(9) A person, who buys unginned cotton gins it and then sells ginned cotton, is dealing only in one commodity. A person dealing in it is entitled to benefit of Section 15. In as much as under East Punjab General Sales Tax Act (46 of 1948) (as amended in 1958), he has to pay additional tax, the law imposing that tax is invalid. ILR (1960) 1 Punj 852 (DB).

(10) Dealers in oil seeds and pressing oil and dealers in non-ferrous metals do not come within the purview of S. 15. ILR (1960) 1 Punj 852 (DB).

(11) Uttar Pradesh — Imposition of tax by U. P. Government on khandsari sugar for periods 1-4-1958 to 30-9-1958 and 1-10-1958 to 28-2-1959 is legal in view of Sections 14, 15 of Central Sales Tax Act (1956), Section 7 of Addl. Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act (1957) and definition of sugar as given in Central Excises and Salt Act (1944). 1966 All LJ 815: 19 STC 241 (DB).

(12) West Bengal — A violation of any of the conditions prescribed under Section 15 (as amended in 1958) will render the taxation of a declared goods ultra vires whether, in fact, it is sold in the course of inter-State trade or not. AIR 1965 Cal 498 (504).

(13) Sec. 15 came into force on 1-10-1958. Thus tax levied by Bengal Act of 1941 on sale of tobacco after 1-10-59 is valid but tax in excess of 2 per cent levied before 28th October 1959 is not valid. AIR 1965 Cal 498 (504).

(14) Imposition of sales tax on Cotton fabrics under Section 5 (1) of Bengal Act 6 of 1941 as it stood prior to amendment of West Bengal Act (13 of 1959) in excess of 2 per cent, laid down in Section 15 of Central Act, was ultra vires, till the time the former section was amended to conform with latter section. AIR 1965 Cal 203 (205. 206).

3. Effect of Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act (1957). — (1) The sale of a thing "in the course of inter-State trade or Commerce" and the intra-State sale of a thing which is of special importance to inter-State trade or commerce are not identical transactions. Central Act, 58 of 1957 does not take away power of States to levy sales tax on intra-State sales of tobacco. AIR 1965 Cal 498 (505, 506).

16. Repeal of Act 52 of 1952.—[Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1960 (58 of 1960), S. 2 and First Schedule.

Section 15 — Note 3 (contd.)

(2) Excise duty does not amount to tax on sale or purchase of goods merely because an excise duty is intended to replace a sale or purchase tax does not convert the former into latter. (1966) 68 Punj LR 440: (1966) 18 STC 69 (DB). (Case under Section 3 Addl. Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act, 1957.)

(3) What Section 15 of the Central Sales Tax Act (as it stands after the amendment in 1958) prohibits is the imposition of the sales tax at two stages of the same transaction and not the imposition of two different duties on two different transactions. AIR 1965 Cal 498 (505). (Levy of excise duty on tobacco and sales tax under State Act on Zarda manufactured therefrom — Section 15 (a) not infringed.)

4. Sale or purchase inside the State. — (1) Section 15 (a) makes it mandatory that the tax shall not be levied at more than one stage. AIR 1957 SC 1616 (1622, 1623): (1967) 3 SCR 577: 20 STC 290.

(2) The Punjab General Sales Tax Act (46 of 1948) (as amended in 1958 and 1959) in terms fixed a stage for taxation i. e. the stage of purchase by dealer for use in manufacturing goods and as such the Act is not in conflict with S. 15. AIR 1967 SC 1895 (1906): (1967) 3 SCR 557: 20 STC 430.

(3) By introducing the definition of purchase in Section 2 (ff) (as inserted in 1958 and as amended in 1959) of the Punjab General Sales Tax Act (46 of 1948), the State is not enabled to tax the same goods at the purchase point and at the sale point. Goods purchased and goods sold are not identical once Manufacture changes the identity. Therefore, the same goods are not taxed at two stages. AIR 1967 SC 1895 (1905): (1967) 3 SCR 557: 20 STC 430.

(4) Section 15 itself beyond saying that the levy can only be at one stage, does not prescribe any particular point in the series of sales or purchases. The fixation of the point in conformity with Section 15 is left to the particular State Legislature. AIR 1968 Mad 90 (93, 94): (1967) 2 Mad LJ 146 (DB). (Byelaw made by Market Committee fixing the single point in series of sales is unauthorised in view of Section 18 of Madras Act 23 of 1959.)

(5) The object of single point levy for declared goods, together with the fixation of upper limit in the rate of tax, is to ensure that the price of such goods to the manufacturer or consumer, is not unduly enhanced by the multy-point levy of tax at different stages and also at variable and high rates of assessment by different States. Last stage is reached when goods go out of State or go to manufacturer. AIR 1965 Mad 360 (362, 363): ILR (1965) 2 Mad 83: (1965) 16 STC 29 (DB).

(6) Section 15 of the Central Act is not violated where an assessee being last purchaser in assessment year is assessed on purchase turnover in his hands under Section 5 (4) of Mysore Sales Tax Act (25 of 1957). (1962) 40 Mys LJ 631 (DB).

(7) Fact that a sale is first sale does not prevent its being the last sale. Hence, if sales by assessee were the only sales in the State, they were the first sales but they were also last sales in State and could be taxed. 1966 All LJ 815: 19 STC 241 (DB).

(8) When the declared goods pursuant to inter-State sale have been delivered outside the State, but brought back into the State and then sold, that sale, in fact or in law, cannot be regarded as the first sale within the meaning of Second Schedule to the Madras General Sales Tax Act (1 of 1959). (1968) 1 Mad LJ 344: 21 STC 163 (DB).

5. Claim for refund.— (1) Where sales of declared goods were to be taxed only at a single point under the legislative policy of the State, the levy at the stage of inter-State sales should prevail and the levy at the earlier stage should be refunded. (1966) 1 Mad LJ 541: ILR (1967) 1 Mad 709: (1966) 17 STC 396 (DB).

(2) (Case under Section 5-A (5) of Madras General Sales Tax Act, 9 of 1939). If a transaction inside the State has attracted the levy of tax and a subsequent inter-State transaction has entitled the assessee to the refund of the State Sales Tax, he has to furnish the necessary statement as prescribed, and unless the conditions prescribed are complied with, the claim to refund has to fail. Assessee should not wait till assessment is actually made under State law. (1963) 14 STC 794 (Mad) (DB).

(3) The liability under the A. P. General Sales Tax Act (6 of 1957) Act arises the moment there is a transaction in which the assessee was the last purchaser of declared goods, and that liability is not affected by reason of the benefit of refund allowed by Section 15 (b) of the Central Sales Tax Act or proviso to Section 6 of the A. P. General Sales Tax Act. (1967) 1 Andh WR 215.

(4) Refund of State-tax paid on declared goods sold in inter-State trade is not dependent upon actual payment of the Central Sales-tax. Portion of R. 39-A (I) framed under Mysore Act (XXV of 1957) laying such additional condition and portion of Section 5 (4). (1967) 1 Mys LJ 432: 9 Law Rep 805: 20 STC 89.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Report of the Silk Panel appointed by the Government recommended—

(a) improvement of mulberry cultivation, adequate supplies of disease free seed, and improvement of rearing and reeling, and

(b) expansion of the industry's present capacity of about 2 million pounds a year to 4 million pounds a year.

To implement these recommendations it has been decided to set up a Central Silk Board. The functions of the Board would be to advise Government generally on matters relating to silk, e.g., on import, export and tariff policy; to supervise the expansion of the silk industry; and to improve the quality standards of the industry and the processing of cocoons and by-products.

The proposed Bill is designed to give effect to this decision".

[THE] CENTRAL SILK BOARD ACT, 1948
(ACT 61 OF 1948)[a]

[20th September, 1948.]

An Act to provide for the development under Central control of the [b][°] silk industry and for that purpose to establish a Central Silk Board.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the development under Central control of the [b][°] silk industry and for that purpose to establish a Central Silk Board;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 1948, Pt. V, page 449; and for Report of Select Committee, see Gazette of India, Pt. V, page 645.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—see Act 37 of 1956 S. 9(1)(e). The Act has been extended to the Union Territory of :—(i) Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Reg. 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-7-1965]; (ii) Pondicherry by Reg. 7 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-10-1963].

[b] The word "raw" was omitted by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 2 [25-3-1954].

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CENTRAL SILK BOARD ACT, 1948.

[a][(2) It extends to the whole of India [b][except the State of Jammu and Kashmir].]

[a] Substituted for old sub-section (2), by A. L. O., 1950.
[b] Substituted for the words "except the States of Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Mysore and Travancore-Cochin", by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule, [1-4-1951].

[a][2. Declaration as to expediency of Union control.—It is hereby declared that it is expedient in the public interest that the Union should take under its control the silk industry.]

[a] Substituted for former S. 2 by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 3 [25-3-1954].

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Board" means the Central Silk Board constituted under this Act;

(b) "charkha raw silk" means raw silk reeled from silk worm cocoons with the help of any instrument not worked by power;

(c) "filature raw silk" means raw silk reeled from silk worm cocoons with the help of any instrument worked by power;

(d) "power" means any form of energy which is mechanically transmitted and is not generated by human or animal agency, and includes electrical energy;

(e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(f) "spun silk" means silk yarn spun from pierced or spoilt cocoons, fluff from cocoons, pieces of silk, noils, or other silk waste;

(g) "Standing Committee" means the Standing Committee of the Board constituted under sub-section (2) of Section 6.

4. Constitution of the Board.—(1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute for the purposes of this Act a Board to be called the Central Silk Board.

(2) The Board shall be a body corporate by the name aforesaid, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to contract, and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

[a][(3) The Board shall consist of the following members, namely :—

(a) a Chairman to be appointed by the Central Government;

(b) not more than three officials to be nominated by the Central Government :

Provided that it shall be lawful for any such official to depute in the prescribed circumstances another official to attend any meeting of the Board on his behalf;

(c) six persons to be elected by Parliament, four from the House of the People by the members of the House of the People and two from the Council of States by the members of the Council of States;

(d) [b][five persons] to be nominated by the Government of Mysore, one of whom shall represent the filature raw silk industry and two shall represent the rest of the sericulture industry;

(e) [c][one person] to be nominated by the Government of Madras;

(f) two persons to be nominated by the Governor of West Bengal;

(g) one person to be nominated by each of the Governments of [d][Andhra Pradesh,] Assam, Bihar, Bombay, [e][* *] Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh;

(h) one person to be nominated by the Government of Jammu and Kashmir;

(i) not more than three persons to be nominated by the Central Government to represent the producers of raw silk and areas other than the States specified in clauses (d) to (g) inclusive;

(j) eight persons to be nominated by the Central Government, of whom one shall represent the spun silk industry, one the silk throwing and twisting industry, one the silk weaving industry, one labour; and two of them shall be experts in sericulture.]

(4) The members of the Board shall receive from its funds such travelling and other allowances as may be prescribed.

[a] Substituted for sub-section (3) by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 4 [25-3-1954].
[b] Substituted for the words "four persons" by 3 A. L. O., 1956.
[c] Substituted for the words "two persons," ibid.
[d] Substituted for the word "Andhra," ibid.
[e] The words "Madhya Bharat" omitted, ibid.

STATE ADAPTATIONS

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, in clause (g) of sub-section (3) of S. 4, for "Bombay", substitute "Gujarat".—Guj. A. L. O., 1961.

Maharashtra

In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in Clause (g) of sub-section (3) of S. 4, for 'Bombay' substitute "Maharashtra".—Maha. A. L. O., 1961.

5. Power of the Central Government in default of nominations.—(1) If any Government other than the Central Government fails to make any nomination which it is entitled to make under sub-section (3) of S. 4 within the time prescribed in that behalf, the Central Government may make the nomination itself.

(2) Where a member of the Board dies, resigns, is removed, ceases to reside in India, or becomes incapable of acting, the authority or body entitled to nominate the member under sub-section (3) of Sec. 4 may nominate a person to fill the vacancy; and where such nomination is not made within the time prescribed in that behalf, the Central Government on its own initiative, may make the nomination itself.

(3) No act done by the Board shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Board.

6. Vice-Chairman and Standing Committee.—(1) [a][The Central Government shall appoint from among the members of the Board] a Vice-Chairman who shall exercise such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the Chairman as may be prescribed or as may be delegated to him by the Chairman.

(2) The Board may, in its discretion, constitute a Standing Committee for the purpose of exercising such of its powers and performing such of its duties as may be delegated by it not being powers or duties the delegation of which is prohibited by rules made under this Act.

(3) The Standing Committee shall consist of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, and five others elected by the Board from among its members.

[a] Substituted for "The Board shall elect from among its members" by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1952 (56 of 1952), S. 3 [9-8-1952].

7. Secretary of the Board.—The Central Government shall [a][° ° °] appoint a Secretary to the Board who shall, under the control and direction of the Board, exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed or as may be delegated to him by the Board or the Chairman.

[a] The words "in consultation with the Board" were omitted by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 5 [25-3-1954].

8. Functions of the Board.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Board to promote the development of the [a][°] silk industry by such measures as it thinks fit.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the measures referred to therein may provide for—

(a) undertaking, assisting or encouraging scientific, technological and economic research;

(b) devising means for improved methods of mulberry cultivation rearing, developing and distributing healthy silkworm seeds, reeling of silkworm cocoons, improving the quality and production of raw silk, if necessary, by making it compulsory for all raw silk to be marketed only after the same has been tested and graded in properly equipped raw silk conditioning houses;

(c) the supply of technical advice to filature charkha reelers;

(d) improving the marketing of raw silk;

(e) the collection of statistics from such persons as may be prescribed;

[b][(f) carrying out any other duties which may be vested in the Board under rules made under this Act.]

(3) It shall also be the duty of the Board—

(a) to advise the Central Government on all matters relating to the development of the raw silk industry, including the import and export of raw silk;

(b) to submit to the Central Government and such other authorities as may be prescribed half-yearly reports on its activities and the working of this Act;

(c) to prepare and furnish such other reports relating to the [a][° °] silk industry as may be required by the Central Government from time to time.

[a] The word "raw" was omitted by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 6 [25-3-1954].

[b] Inserted, ibid.

9. Funds of the Board.—(1) The Central Government shall from time to time make grants to the Board of such sums as the Central Government may consider necessary for enabling the Board to exercise its powers and discharge its duties under this Act.

(2) The funds of the Board shall be kept in such bank, or invested in such manner, as may be prescribed and shall be expended by the Board only in the performance of its functions under this Act or for meeting such expenses as are authorised by this Act or by rules made thereunder.

10. Imposition of cess on certain kinds of silk.—(1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint, there shall be levied and collected as a cess for the purposes of this Act a duty of excise on all filature raw silk, and on all spun silk, reeled in the territories to which this Act for the time being extends at such rate as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, from time to time fix.

(2) The said duty of excise shall be payable by the reelers of filature raw silk or spun silk and shall be paid by them to the Board within one month from the date of the receipt of the notice of demand from the Board in that behalf.

(3) The said duty of excise may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(4) For the purpose of enabling the Board to assess the amount of the duty of excise payable under this section by the reelers of filature raw silk or spun silk,—

(a) the Board shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix the period in respect of which assessments shall be made, and

(b) every reeler of filature raw silk or spun silk shall furnish to the Board within the prescribed time a return specifying the total amount of filature raw silk or spun silk reeled during such period.

(5) If any reeler of filature raw silk or spun silk fails to furnish such return within the prescribed time or furnishes a return which the Board has reason to believe to be incorrect or defective, the Board may assess the amount payable by such reeler in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) Any reeler feeling himself aggrieved by an assessment made under this section may, within three months of the receipt of the notice under sub-section (2), apply to the District Judge or such other civil judicial officer as may be prescribed, for the cancellation or modification of the assessment; and such District Judge or judicial officer shall after giving the Board an opportunity of being heard, pass such order as he thinks proper; and such order shall be final.

[a][(7) The proceeds of the duties of excise paid to the Board shall first be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India and the Central Government may, thereafter, from time to time, pay to the Board from and out of such proceeds such sums of money as it may think fit.]

[a] Inserted by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 7 [25-3-1954].

11. Control by the Central Government.—(1) All acts of the Board shall be subject to the control of the Central Government which may cancel, suspend or modify as it thinks fit any action taken or order passed, by the Board.

(2) The records of the Board shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any officer authorised in this behalf by the Central Government.

12. Accounts of the Board.—(1) The Board shall keep such accounts, and in such manner and form, as may be prescribed, in respect of all moneys received and expended by it.

(2) The Board shall cause the accounts to be audited annually by auditors appointed by the Central Government, and the auditors shall have the power to disallow any item of expenditure which in their opinion has not been properly incurred for the purposes of this Act.

(3) The Central Government may, on the application of the Board, allow any item of expenditure disallowed by the auditors under sub-section (2).

13. Power of Central Government to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules[a] to carry out the purposes of this Act.

[b][(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this section may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(i) the term of office of members of the Board, the circumstances in which and the authority by which members may be removed and the filling of casual vacancies in the Board;

(ii) the procedure to be followed at meetings of the Board and at the standing committee for the conduct of business and the number of members which shall form a quorum at any meeting;

(iii) the maintenance by the Board of records of business transacted by the Board and the submission of copies thereof to the Central Government;

(iv) the holding of a minimum number of meetings every year;

(v) the power of the Board, its Chairman and Standing Committe with respect to the incurring of expenditure;

(vi) the conditions subject to which the Board may incur expenditure outside India;

(vii) the preparation of budget estimates of receipts and expenditure of the Board and the authority by which the estimates are to be sanctioned;

(viii) the maintenance of the accounts of income and expenditure of the Board and the audit of such accounts;

(ix) the deposit of the funds of the Board in bank and the investment of such funds;

(x) the re-appropriation of estimated savings from one budget head to any other budget head;

(xi) the conditions subject to which the Board may borrow funds;

(xii) the conditions subject to which and the manner in which contracts may be entered into by or on behalf of the Board;

(xiii) the delegation to the Standing Committee or the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman or members or officers of the Board of any of the powers and duties of the Board under this Act;

(xiv) the staff which may be employed by the Board and the pay and allowances, leave and other conditions of service of officers and other employees of the Board;

(xv) the travelling and other allowances of members of the Board and of the Standing Committee;

(xvi) the purposes for which funds of the Board may be expended;

(xvii) the maintenance of the registers and other records of the Board and of its Standing Committee;

(xviii) the collection of any information or statistics in respect of raw silk or any product of silk;

(xix) the manner in which raw silk shall be graded and marketed;

(xx) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be, before Parliament.]

[b] Substituted for sub-section (2) by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 8 [25-3-1954].

14. Penalties.—[a][(1)] If any person—

(a) in any return to be furnished under this Act makes any statement which is false and which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true, or

(b) obstructs any officer of the Board in the exercise of any power, conferred, or the discharge of any duty imposed, on him by or under this Act, or

(c) having the control or custody of any account book or other record, fails to produce such book or record when required so to do under this Act, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

[b][(2) If the person committing any offence specified in sub-section (1) is a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), where an offence under sub-section (1) has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.]

[a] Section 14 was re-numbered as Sec. 14 (1) by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 9 [25-3-1954].

[b] Inserted, ibid.

15. Prosecution to be with consent of Central Government.—No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Act shall be instituted except by, or with the consent of, the Central Government.

[a][15A. Jurisdiction of Courts.—No Court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under Section 14.]

[a] Inserted by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 10 [25-3-1954].

16. Bar of legal proceedings.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Board, or any member or officer of the Board, for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

17. Temporary powers of the Central Government.—[Repealed by the Central Silk Board (Amendment) Act, 1953 (31 of 1953), S. 11 [25-3-1954].]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

On 8th June 1948, the Government of the French Republic, in agreement with the Government of India, declared that "it intends to leave to the populations of the French Establishments in India themselves the right to pronounce their future fate and future status". In the referendum held on 19th June 1949, the citizens of Chandernagore voted in favour of merger of the territory with India. On 2nd May 1950, the de facto administration of Chandernagore was transferred to the Government of India. On 2nd February 1951, the Treaty of Cession of the Territory of the Free Town of Chandernagore was signed at Paris between the Presidents of India and the French Republic. On 9th June 1952 Chandernagore was transferred de jure to the Government of India.

2. On 27th October 1949, in a Press Note about the future status of Chandernagore, the Government of India had declared:

'Any changes in the administrative set up will be carried out only, after consulting local public opinion'

3. On 19th November 1953, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 3 of the Commission of Inquiry Act, 1952 (60 of 1952), the Central Government appointed a Commission consisting of Dr. Amarnath Jha to inquire into and ascertain the wishes of the citizens of Chandernagore in regard to its future administration. The Commission submitted its report on 18th December 1953, recommending inter alia merger of Chandernagore with the State of West Bengal. After consideration of the report and consultation with the Government of the State of West Bengal the Government of India announced their decision in Parliament on the 8th May. This has been embodied in the present Bill which provides for the merger of Chandernagore with West Bengal and consequential changes.

4. Under Article 3 of the Constitution, the Legislature of West Bengal has been consulted on this Bill and has given approval to both its provisions and its introduction in Parliament. The recommendation of the President has also been obtained — Gaz. of Ind., Extra., 15-9-1954, Pt. II-Sec. 2, page 585.

[THE] CHANDERNAGORE (MERGER) ACT, 1954

(ACT XXXVI OF 1954)[a]

[29th September 1954.]

An Act to provide for the merger of Chandernagore into the State of West Bengal and for matters connected therewith .

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fifth Year of Republic of India as follows:

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of India Extra., 15-9-1954. Pt. II, Sec. 2, page 585.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHANDERNAGORE (MERGER) ACT, 1954.

(2) It shall come into force on the 2nd day of October, 1954.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "appointed day" means the 2nd day of October, 1954;

(b) "Assembly constituency", "Council constituency"" and "Parliamentary constituency" have the same meanings as in the Representation of the People Act, 1950;

(c) "Chandernagore" means the whole of the territory which immediately before the 9th day of June, 1952 was comprised in the Free Town of Chandernagore;

(d) "law" means so much of any enactment, Ordinance, Regulation, order, rule, scheme, notification, bye-law or any other instrument having the force of law as relates to matters enumerated in List I and List III in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution;

(e) "sitting member", in relation to the House of the People or either House of the Legislature of the State of West Bengal, means a person who immediately before the appointed day is a member of the House;

(f) "State Government" means the Government of West Bengal;

(g) "Union purposes" mean the purposes of Government relatable to any of the matters mentioned in the Union List in the Schedule to the Constitution.

3. Chandernagore to form part of West Bengal.—(1) As from the appointed day Chandernagore shall form part of the State of West Bengal and the boundaries of that State shall be so altered as to comprise within them the territory of Chandernagore.

(2) Without prejudice to the power of the State Government to alter hereafter the extent, limits and names of districts and sub-divisions, Chandernagore shall form part of the district of Hooghly in the State of West Bengal and the State Government shall, by order in the Official Gazette, provide for the administration of Chandernagore by constituting it into a new sub-division of the said district whether with the addition of such areas of that district as may be specified in the order or without such addition.

4. Amendment of the First Schedule to the Constitution.—In the First Schedule to the Constitution, in Part A, in the description of the territories of States, in the last paragraph, after the words, "as if they formed part of that Province", the following shall be inserted, namely :—

"and in the case of the State of West Bengal shall also comprise the territory of Chandernagore as defined in clause (c) of Section 2 of the Chandernagore (Merger) Act, 1954,".

5. Representation of Chandernagore in the House of the People.—(1) Until otherwise provided by law, as from the appointed day—

(a) Chandernagore shall be included in, and become part of, the Hooghly Parliamentary constituency formed by the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies (West Bengal) Order, 1951 and that Order shall have effect subject to the following modifications, namely :—

In Table A—

(i) for the entry in column 2 relating to Serampore constituency, the following entry shall be substituted, namely :—

"Bhadreswar, Singur, Serampore, Uttarpara, Chanditala and Jangipara police stations of Hooghly District and Domjur and Bally police stations of Howrah District.";

(ii) for the entry in column 2 relating to Hooghly constituency, the following entry shall be substituted, namely :—

"Pandua, Dhaniakhali, Chinsura (excluding Ward No. 1 of Bansbaria Municipality), Polba, Haripal, Tarakeswar, Arambagh, Khanakul and Pursura police stations of Hooghly District and Chandernagore.";

(b) the sitting member of the House of the People representing the Hooghly Parliamentary constituency shall be deemed to have been elected by that constituency as modified by this Act.

(2) As soon as may be after the appointed day, the electoral roll of the Hooghly Parliamentary constituency shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Representation of People Act, 1950, and the rules made thereunder and the roll so prepared shall come into force immediately upon its final publication.

6. Representation of Chandernagore in the Legislative Assembly of West Bengal.—Until otherwise provided by law,—

(a) there shall be an additional constituency of the Legislative Assembly of West Bengal (to be known as the Chandernagore Assembly constituency) comprising the entire area of Chandernagore, whether with the addition of such areas of other constituencies as may be determined by the President or without such addition and the said constituency shall be represented in that Assembly by one member to be chosen by direct election;

(b) the President shall, as soon as may be after the appointed day and after consulting the Election Commission, amend by order the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies (West Bengal), Order, 1951 so as to include therein the Chandernagore Assembly constituency and the particulars relating thereto as required by Section 9 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950;

(c) the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in the Legislative Assembly of West Bengal shall be increased from 238 to 239;

(d) in the Second Schedule to the Representation of the People Act, 1950, in the part relating to Part A States for the entry in column 2 against 'West Bengal', the entry '239' shall be substituted.

7. Electoral roll of the Chandernagore Assembly constituency.—The electoral roll of the Chandernagore Assembly constituency shall be prepared and published in accordance with the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1950, and the rules made thereunder and come into force immediately upon its final publication.

8. Election to fill the seat allotted to the Chandernagore Assembly constituency.—As soon as may be after the delimitation of the Chandernagore Assembly constituency under the provisions of clause (b) of Section 6, there shall be held an election to fill the seat allotted to the Chandernagore Assembly constituency in the Legislative Assembly of West Bengal; and for that purpose the Election Commission shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, call upon the Chandernagore Assembly constituency to elect a person for the purpose of filling that seat before such date as may be specified in the notification and the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and the rules and orders made thereunder shall apply, as far as may be, in relation to such election.

9. Consequences of alteration in the extent of certain Assembly constituencies.—If in consequence of the addition of areas to Chandernagore for the purpose of constituting the Chandernagore Assembly constituency, the extent of any existing Assembly constituency is altered, then—

(a) the electoral roll of the existing Assembly constituency as so altered shall, until it is prepared afresh in accordance with the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1950, and the rules made thereunder, be deemed to consist of so much of the electoral roll as relates to the areas comprised within that constituency as so altered;

(b) every sitting member of the Legislative Assembly of West Bengal representing the existing Assembly constituency shall be deemed to have been elected to that Assembly by that constituency as so altered.

10. Representation of Chandernagore in the Legislative Council of West Bengal.—(1) Until otherwise provided by law, as from the appointed day—

(a) Chandernagore shall be included in, and become part of, the following Council constituencies formed by the Delimitation of Council Constituencies (West Bengal) Order, 1951,[a] namely:—

(i) the West Bengal South (Graduates) constituency;

(ii) the Burdwan Division (Teachers) constituency;

(iii) the Hooghly-Howrah (Local Authorities) constituency;

(b) any reference in the said order to West Bengal, Burdwan Division or Hooghly District shall be construed as including therein Chandernagore;

(c) every sitting member of the West Bengal South (Graduates) constituency, the Burdwan Division (Teachers) constituency or the Hooghly-Howrah (Local Authorities) constituency, the extent of which is by virtue of the provisions of clause (a) altered, shall be deemed to have been elected to the said Council by that constituency as so altered.

(2) As soon as may be after the appointed day, the electoral rolls of the West Bengal South (Graduates) constituency, the Burdwan Division (Teachers) constituency and the Hooghly-Howrah (Local Authorities) constituency shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1950, and the rules made thereunder and the rolls so prepared shall come into force immediately upon their final publication.

[a] See S.R.O. 1415, published in Gazette of India, Extraordinary, 19-9-1951, Pt. II, Sec. 3, p. 1157.

11. Amendment of Section 9, Act LXXXI of 1952.—In Section 9 of the Delimitation Commission Act, 1952, in sub-section (3), for the words "and the orders made under any of the said Acts", the words, brackets and figures "the Chandernagore (Merger) Act, 1954 and the orders made under any of the said Acts" shall be substituted.

12. Conferment of Indian citizenship on French citizens domiciled in Chandernagore.—Subject to the provisions of Article III of the Treaty of Cession of the Territory of the Free Town of Chandernagore, all French subjects and citizens of the French Union domiciled in the said Territory on the 9th day of June, 1952, shall be deemed to have become citizens of India on that day.

13. Property and assets.—(1) All property and assets within Chandernagore which, immediately before the appointed day, are vested in the Central Government for the purposes of the administration of Chandernagore shall, as from that day, vest in the State Government unless the purposes for which such property or assets are held immediately before that day, are Union purposes.

(2) A certificate of the Central Government signed by a Secretary to that Government shall be conclusive as to whether the purposes for which any property or assets are held immediately before the appointed day are Union purposes.

14. Rights, liabilities and obligations.—(1) All rights, liabilities and obligations of the Central Government arising out of, or in relation to, the administration of Chandernagore shall, as from the appointed day, be rights, liabilities and obligations of the State Government unless such rights, liabilities and obligations are relatable to Union purposes.

(2) A certificate of the Central Government signed by a Secretary to that Government shall be conclusive as to whether any rights, liabilities or obligations arising out of, or in relation to, the administration of Chandernagore are relatable to Union purposes.

15. Subordinate Courts.—All Courts which, immediately before the appointed day, are exercising lawful power, authority and jurisdiction in Chandernagore under the superintendence and control of the High Court at Calcutta shall, until further provision is made by a competent Legislature or authority, continue to exercise their respective powers, authority and jurisdiction in Chandernagore under the superintendence and control of that High Court.

16. Existing authorities and officers to continue in Chandernagore.—Without prejudice to the powers of the State Government to appoint from time to time, such officers as may be necessary for the administration of Chandernagore, the Administrator of Chandernagore, all Judges, Magistrates and other officers of Chandernagore who, immediately before the appointed day, are exercising lawful functions in Chandernagore or any part thereof, shall, until other provision is made by the State Government, continue to exercise in connection with the administration of Chandernagore their respective functions in the same manner and to the same extent as before the appointed day.

17. Extension of laws to Chandernagore.—All laws which, immediately before the appointed day, extend to, or are in force in the State of West Bengal generally shall, as from that day, extend to, or, as the case may be, come into force in, Chandernagore.

18. Repeal of corresponding laws and savings.—(1) Any law in force in Chandernagore immediately before the appointed day (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "corresponding law") which corresponds to any law referred to in Section 17, whether such corresponding law is in force in Chandernagore by virtue of the Chandernagore (Application of Laws) Order, 1950, or by virtue of any notification issued under the Chandernagore (Administration) Regulation, 1952 or otherwise, shall, as from that day, stand repealed in Chandernagore.

(2) The repeal by sub-section (1) of any corresponding law shall not affect—

(a) the previous operation of any such law; or

(b) any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under such law; or

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any such law; or

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture, or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

---

Section 17 — Note 1

(1) Laws contemplated by S. 17 are such laws as were applicable all over West Bengal without any exception — Neither the Calcutta Thika Tenancy Act of 1949 nor the West Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Act is an Act applicable generally all over West Bengal. Both are limited in their application to parts of West Bengal though the Calcutta Thika Tenancy Act covers a much smaller area than the West Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Act. In this view, the West Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Act cannot be said to have been extended by reason of Section 17. ('58) 1958-1 Cal LJ 149 (156).

(2) Estate Duty Act (1953) which was in force in West Bengal State prior to the merger of Chandernagore in that State became applicable to the merged area under S. 17. Therefore where a gift was made by a resident of Chandernagore two years before his death, which occurred subsequent to the merger, property gifted became liable to tax. AIR 1962 Cal 248 (249): (1961) 43 ITR (ED) 59.

(3) Reading Sections 17 and 18 of the Chandernagore (Merger) Act together it becomes clear that West Bengal statutes were extended to Chandernagore and the existing Chandernagore corresponding laws were repealed. The West Bengal Land (Requisition and Acquisition) Act, 1948 which extends to the whole of West Bengal does answer the test of the word 'generally' used in Section 17. The Act being a general law in force in West Bengal immediately before the appointed date, viz., 2-10-1954 applies to Chandernagore on its merger with West Bengal. The argument that a statute which is not only limited in area but also limited in time is outside the purview of Section 17 and does not answer the test of the word 'generally' used there cannot be accepted.

When every district of West Bengal comes within the operation of the West Bengal Land (Requisition and Acquisition) Act, 1948 there is no rational or intelligible principle to exclude Chandernagore. AIR 1963 Cal 373 (375, 376, 377, 378).

Section 18 — Note 1

(1) The Calcutta Thika Tenancy Act of 1949 does not stand repealed under Section 18 (1). ('58) 1958-1 Cal LJ 149 (156).

(2) The law mentioned in Section 18 (2) does not apply to private agreements or private contracts by reason of the special definition of law contained in Section 2 (d). (1959) 63 Cal WN 947.

(3) The Chandernagore (Application of Laws) Order, 1950, made the French procedural law ineffective and inapplicable. Decret of 1887 under which Grosses copie of mortgages used to be made, bearing on the organisation of the profession of a notary, was neither repealed nor made ineffective by the said Order. The said Decret was repealed by Section 18 of the Chandernagore (Merger) Act, 1954. The right and the remedy conferred on the mortgagee, under Grosses copie of the mortgage, were expressly preserved

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made, notification, order, instruction or direction issued, rule, form, bye-law or scheme framed, certificate, patent, permit, or licence granted, or registration effected), under such corresponding law shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of the law as extended to, or in force in, Chandernagore on and from the appointed day and shall continue in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under such law.

19. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in relation to the transition from any corresponding law to any law by virtue of Section 17 shall, as from the appointed day, extend to, or come into force in, Chandernagore, the Central Government may, by order in the Official Gazette, make such provisions as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act (otherwise than in relation to the transition from any corresponding law) or in connection with the administration of Chandernagore as a part of West Bengal, the State Government may, by order in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(3) No power under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be exercised by the Central Government, or, as the case may be, the State Government after the expiry of three years from the appointed day.

(4) Any order made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may be made so as to be retrospective to any date not earlier than the appointed day.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Religious Endowments Act, 1863 (XX of 1863), was the result of the decision of the Government to divest its officers of all direct superintendence and control of religious and charitable endowments in India, transferring their functions to manager or managing committees and merely making provision for intervention by the Civil Courts on application made by any person interested in a particular institution. This policy, however, did not long remain unchallenged, and since 1866 and continued under the provisions of Section 18 (2) of the Chandernagore (Merger) Act. Such right however, could no longer be enforced under the provisions of the French Civil Procedure Code but could be enforced under the corresponding provisions of the Indian Civil Procedure Code, for execution of an order having the force of a decree. (1959) 63 Cal WN 961.

(4) On reading Sections 18 and 17 together it becomes clear that West Bengal Land (Requisition and Acquisition) Act 1948 being a general law became applicable to the merged area. AIR 1963 Cal 373 (377).

Section 19 — Note 1

(1) Where there was no case for "removal of difficulty" with regards to application of Estate Duty Act to Chandernagore, payment of tax in the absence of removal of difficulty order under Section 19 is not illegal. AIR 1962 Cal 248 (251): (1961) 43 ITR (ED) 59.

there have been constant complaints, especially in the Madras Presidency, as to the inefficacy of the Act to prevent the squandering or misappropriation of the funds of such endowments, and suggestions for its amendment have from time to time been made to the Government of India. Mr. Ananda Charlu in 1897, Mr. Srinivasa Rao in 1903 and Dr. (now Sir) Rash Behari Ghosh in 1908, for example, promoted amending Bills, but none of them became law. More recently in 1911, a private Bill was introduced in Bombay Legislative Council by the Hon'ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola, to provide for the registration of all charitable trusts exceeding a certain value and for the annual audit of the accounts of such trusts by auditors approved by Government. Endowments of a purely religious nature were not included but the contents of the Bill made it clear that the ultimate object was to press for legislation for religious as well as secular trusts. About the same time a private Bill was promoted by two non-official members of the Madras Legislative Council to provide for the regular publication of the accounts of all religious endowments above a certain value and for their audit by an officer to be appointed by the District Judge. These proposals led the Government of India to reconsider the policy in force since 1863. In March 1914, the whole subject was discussed at a mixed conference of official and non-official gentlemen representing the Hindu, Muhammadan, Sikh and Buddhist communities. The present Bill, which is the outcome of the deliberations of that conference, has as its objects the simplification and cheapening of the legal processes by which persons interested can obtain information regarding the working of both religious and charitable trusts, and the exercise of a more efficient control over the action of trustees. The Bill provides that any person interested in a trust may apply by petition to the District Judge for an order directing the trustee to furnish him with information as to the nature and objects of the trust and of the value, condition, management and application of the subject-matter of the trust, and of the income belonging thereto, or as to any of these matters, and also directing that the accounts of the trust shall be examined and audited. Failure to comply with such an order of the Court would be deemed a breach of trust. In order, however, that such applications should not lead to protracted and contentious litigation, the Court is debarred from trying any question of title between the petitioner and any person claiming title to the trust, or any question as to the existence or extent of any trust. Under the Bill, it will be left to those interested to move in the matter; the intiative will not rest with Government, nor will anything be done where no one is sufficiently interested to take action. When the Court is moved the proceedings will be simple and expeditious; they will be held in the presence of all parties, and the order passed will be a judicial order of the Court. Further, in order to meet the objection that recourse to Section 14 of the Act of 1863 or Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure 1908, involves expensive litigation the Court is authorised, on the application of the plaintiff and after the defendant is heard, to direct the defendant either to furnish security for the expenditure incurred or likely to be incurred in bringing and maintaining the suit or to deposit in Court an amount sufficient to meet such expenditure.

It will be observed that the draft Bill only embodies general principles. It is intended that such details as the institution of some public record of the facts regarding these trusts, the publication of audited accounts, and the relaxation of some of the conditions governing committees constituted under the Act of 1863, e. g., the tenure of the membership of such committee, should be left to Provincial Legislatures".

[THE] CHARITABLE AND RELIGIOUS TRUSTS ACT, 1920
(ACT XIV OF 1920)[a]

[20th March, 1920.]

An Act to provide more effectual control over the administration of Charitable and Religious Trusts.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide facilities for the obtaining of information regarding trusts created for public purposes of a charitable or religious nature, and to enable the trustees of such trusts to obtain the directions of a Court on certain matters, and to make special provision for the payment of the expenditure incurred in certain suits against the trustees of such trusts; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Report of Select Committee, see Gazette of India, 1920, Pt. V, p. 85 and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid., 1919, Pt. VI, p. 879, and ibid., 1920, Pt. VI, pp. 49 and 787.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of Madhya Pradesh—see Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

The Act has been partially extended to Berar by Berar Laws Act, 1941 (4 of 1941).

It has been extended also to—

Dadra and Nagar Haveli, by Regn. 6 of 1963 (1-7-1965);
Pondicherry, by Regn. 7 of 1963 (1-10-1963); and
Goa, Daman and Diu, by Regn. 11 of 1963 (1-2-1965).

This Act applies to the States merged in the States of—
Bombay: See Bombay Act 4 of 1950;
Madras: see Madras Act 35 of 1949;
Punjab: see Punjab Act 5 of 1950.

The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any Goshala registered under :—
Bihar Goshala Act, 1950 (28 of 1950): see Bih. Act 28 of 1950, S. 19;
Orissa Goshala Act, 1962 (1 of 1962), see Orissa Act 1 of 1962, S. 19;
Rajasthan Goshala Act, 1960 (24 of 1960), see Raj. Act 24 of 1960, S. 15.
Uttar Pradesh Goshala Adhiniyam, 1964 (10 of 1964), see U. P. Act (10 of 1964), S. 22.

The Act also does not apply to Waqfs to which the Wakf Act 1954 (29 of 1954) applies; see S. 69 (4) of the Wakf Act, 1954 (29 of 1954).

On the application of the provisions of the Bombay Public Trusts Act, 1950 (29 of 1950) to any public trust or class of public trusts, the provisions of the Charitable and Religious Trusts Act, 1920, which apply to such trust or class of trusts shall cease to apply to such trust or class of trusts — See Bom. Act 29 of 1950, S. 85 (2) as amended by Bombay Public Trusts (Unification and Amendment) Act, 1960 (6 of 1960). The provisions of this Act shall not apply in the State of Rajasthan to public trusts covered by the Rajasthan Public Trusts Act, w. e. f. 1-7-1962—See Rajasthan Public Trusts Act, 1959 (Raj. Act 42 of 1959), S. 81. Said Act also does not apply to Muslim Wakfs in Rajasthan governed by the Wakfs Act, 1954 (29 of 1954)—See S. 80, ibid. [1-7-1962].

Preamble — Note 1

(1) This Act is intended to provide more effectual control over the administration of charitable and religious trusts. AIR 1927 Pat 189 (190).

(2) The Charitable and Religious Trusts Act of 1920 applies only to trusts of a charitable and religious nature and not to private trusts. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (137): 21 Pat 815.

This Act shall cease to apply to charitable institutions and Hindu religious institutions and endowments in the :—

(i) State of Andhra Pradesh: see Andhra Pradesh Charitable and Hindu Religious Institutions and Endowments Act, 1966 (17 of 1966), S. 110 (d), [26-1-1967];

(ii) State of Madras: see Madras Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959 (22 of 1959), S. 5 (d) [1-1-1960].

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHARITABLE AND RELIGIOUS TRUSTS ACT, 1920.

(2) It extends[a] to °[the whole of India [b][except the State of Jammu and Kashmir]] :

Provided that the °[Government of any State] may, by notification in the °[Official Gazette] direct that this Act, or any specified part thereof, shall not extend to °[that °[State] or any specified area therein] or to any specified trust or class of trusts.

[a] This Act has been declared to be in force in the Khondmals District by the Khondmals Laws Regulation, 1936 (4 of 1936), S. 3 and Sch.

[b] Substituted for "except Part B States" by Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule [1-4-1951].

[c] Substituted for "any specified Province or area" by A. O. 1937.

2. Interpretation.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "the Court" means the Court of the District Judge [a][or any other Court empowered in that behalf by the [b][State Government]] and includes the High Court in the exercise of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction.

[a] Inserted by the Charitable and Religious Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1923 (41 of 1923), S. 2.

[b] Substituted by A. L. O. 1950.

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) "We have added a proviso to sub-clause (2) of Clause 1 which will enable any Province or part of a Province to be excluded from the operation of the Act if it is found to be unsuited to special local conditions. As it appears that there are certain trusts within the scope of the Act which are subject to a satisfactory system of management and control, we have at the same time provided that the operation of the Act may be barred in the case of any particular trust or class of trusts." — Select Committee Report.

(2) The provisions of this Act are not repealed by the Madras Religious Endowments Act (2 of 1927). AIR 1935 Mad 56 (56).

(3) The Charitable and Religious Trusts Act was passed earlier than Mussalman Wakf Act of 1923 and is applicable to persons of all creed, unlike the latter Act. The Act is not to be interpreted in the light of the Mussalman Wakf Act. AIR 1937 All 786 (789): ILR (1938) All 1.

(4) The mere fact that this Act and the Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923, contain substantial provisions overlapping each other can in no way derogate from the provisions of this Act. Nor are the two Acts mutually exclusive or superfluous. AIR 1937 All 786 (789): ILR (1938) All 1.

(5) Provisions under this Act are wider than those of the Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923. AIR 1944 Nag 190 (191): ILR (1944) Nag 775.

(6) Whereas the Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923, deals with a trust by a Muhammadan whatever its purpose, public or private or partly public and partly private, the Charitable and Religious Trusts Act, 1920, covers such trusts as are created or exist for a public purpose only. AIR 1929 Oudh 225 (228): 4 Luck 429 (FB).

(7) The Act applies to all trusts created for public purposes of a charitable or religious nature without any distinction of caste or creed of the author of the trust. The Act is one of the enactments saved by Section 12, Mussalman Wakf Act and applies to trusts by Muslims. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (185): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Under this Act District Judge acts as a Court of law and not as a persona designata: District Judge's Court is a Court subordinate to the High Court. AIR 1929 All 581 (583): 51 All 957.

3. Power to apply to the Court in respect of trusts of a charitable or religious nature.—Save as hereinafter provided in this Act, any person having an interest in any express or constructive trust created or existing for a public purpose of a charitable or religious nature may apply by petition to the Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any substantial part of the subject-matter of the trust is situate to obtain an order embodying all or any of the following directions, namely :—

(1) directing the trustee to furnish the petitioner through the Court with particulars as to the nature and objects of the trust, and of the value, condition, management and application of the subject-matter of the trust, and of the income belonging thereto, or as to any of these matters, and

(2) directing that the accounts of the trust shall be examined and audited :

Provided that no person shall apply for any such direction in respect of accounts relating to a period more than three years prior to the date of the petition.

1. Appeal or revision.— See Section 12.

2. Applicability and scope. — (1) A trust partly for public and charitable purposes and partly for private purposes falls under the Act and Section 3 can be applied to it. AIR 1936 All 411 (412) * AIR 1937 All 786 (789): ILR (1938) All 1 * AIR 1937 Cal 313 (314). (Under a wakf certain properties were dedicated for the benefit of the heirs of the wakif and others were dedicated in the name of God in order that poor relations and helpless widows in the neighbourhood may get something: Held Section 3 would apply to the wakf.)

[See however AIR 1929 Oudh 225 (229): 4 Luck 429 (FB). (The Act of 1920 applies to those cases where the benefit under the entire "wakf" or trust is allotted for public purposes.)]

(2) Trust (Wakf) partly private and partly public — Interested person can apply under Section 4, Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923, and not under Section 3, Charitable and Religious Trusts Act. AIR 1929 Oudh 225 (229): 4 Luck 429 (FB).

(3) Land given to a Mahant and his heirs as occupancy tenants under a settlement decree without a right of transfer with condition that the grant to last so long as temple would be in existence — No condition of income being devoted to expenses of the temple — Grant is not for temple but is personal — Land covered by settlement decree is not wakf property — This Act does not apply. AIR 1928 Oudh 241 (244, 246): 3 Luck 392.

(4) Remedy of a mutwalli against a person claiming adversely to trust is to sue for ejectment. He cannot apply under the Act. AIR 1944 Nag 190 (191): ILR (1944) Nag 775.

(5) A perusal of Section 3 would show that the Act though it applies to religious trusts is confined to a very limited purpose. AIR 1963 SC 853 (860): (1963) Supp 1 SCR 844.

3. Essentials of trust. — (1) The term "trust" as used in Section 3 must be taken in a wider sense than the strict meaning of it under English law and must be deemed to include wakfs created for public purposes of a charitable or religious nature. ('31) AIR 1931 Pat 354 (355): 10 Pat 506.

(2) The trust to which the Act applies need not be an express trust. The Act applies also to a trust which on the construction of the deed may be held to be created for a public purpose of a charitable or religious nature. ('36) AIR 1936 All 411 (412).

(3) Per Wazir Hasan J. — The essence of a trust of a public or a religious purpose lies in its characteristic of permanency. So where a tenure can come to an end on default or even on the volition of the trustee the possibility of such a trust cannot be conceived. ('28) AIR 1928 Oudh 241 (246): 3 Luck 392.

(4) To constitute a trust "created or existing for a public purpose of a charitable or religious nature" the author or authors of the trust must be ascertained, and the intention to create a trust must be indicated by words or acts with reasonable certainty. Moreover, the purpose of the trust, the trust property and the beneficiaries must be indicated so as to enable the Court to administer the trust if required. AIR 1938 PC 195 (198): 65 Ind App 252: ILR (1938) Lah 453: 32 Sind LR 821 * AIR 1935 PC 97 (102): 62 Ind App 146: 57 All 330 * AIR 1951 Pat 340 (347): 28 Pat 890 (DB).

(5) The substance of a trust must be looked into to determine its character. Therefore, where a trust is in substance a public one the fact that a part of the income has been allotted for a private purpose cannot alter its character. Similarly, where it is private the fact that a negligible portion of the income is dedicated to public purposes cannot make it a public trust. AIR 1937 All 786 (789): ILR (1938) All 1.

Proof. — (6) Before a private grant can be treated as public endowment very strong evidence is necessary to prove it. Unfettered and unrestricted user by the public must be proved. AIR 1930 Oudh 96 (106).

(7) If the public were concerned in the election of a new mahant it would be evidence that the public were intimately concerned with the trust and would suggest that the trust was for public purposes. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (141): 21 Pat 815.

(8) The public nature of a trust must not be too readily inferred from the fact that worship by the public has not been interfered with or discouraged and offerings by the public even accepted. but that is also one of the factors to be considered. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (141): 21 Pat 815.

(9) To constitute a valid public trust or endowment there must be proof of a grant with the intention that profits should be utilised for the services of the idol, and that the members of the family of the founder had not treated the property as their own personal property. AIR 1935 Oudh 96 (103, 104).

(10) There is nothing in the word 'Bishnuprit' to indicate that the property referred to as such is gifted to the idol for public purposes. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (139): 21 Pat 815 * AIR 1951 Pat 340 (347): 28 Pat 890 (DB).

(11) Performance of the ceremony known as 'prasad utsarga' betokens the relinquishment of private property rights of the founder of the endowment and the dedication of the property to the idol in whose favour the property is given up. AIR 1935 Oudh 96 (106).

(12) By mere acquisition by a mahant, a property does not lose its secular character and assume a religious character. The descent from guru to chela does not warrant the presumption that it is religious property. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (138): 21 Pat 815.

(13) The feeding of sadhus and the distribution of alms and the entertainment of guests which are inevitable in a temple are merely incidental to the worship of the deities and would not make the institution a 'public trust' of the nature contemplated by the Act. Nor would the mere fact that the property has descended from Guru to Chela warrant a presumption that it is a religious property. AIR 1951 Pat 340 (347): 28 Pat 890 (DB).

(14) It is not necessary to establish the fact of dedication or the appointment of a particular person as mutawalli by direct evidence. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (186): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

(15) A trust for charitable purpose does not become invalid, if the choice of the specific charitable objects to be benefited is left to the trustees, nor is it to be condemned as invalid or illusory if, by the language of the deed, the trustees are given an absolute discretion to apply the fund at such time as they may think fit or retain it so long as they choose. AIR 1956 Cal 164 (168) (DB).

(16) Though the origin of a trust may not be known or may have become incapable of determination yet the nature of the property and its user and mode of its management are the usual and satisfactory modes of determining whether it is the property of a public trust A garden with a well, dharmsala, and chatri of an idol used by sadhus for a long time can be held to be a public trust until the contrary is proved. AIR 1968 Raj 314 (319): 1968 Raj LW 347

4. "Examined and audited." — (1) Under Section 3, Clause (2), the Court is enabled to direct the examination and audit of the accounts in whosoever's hands the funds or the properties may be. AIR 1938 Pat 280 (281).

5. Jurisdiction of Court. — (1) The existence of a public trust is the foundation for all proceedings authorized by Section 3 of the Act. AIR 1940 PC 7 (9): 67 Ind App 1: 15 Luck 1: ILR (1940) Kar PC 25.

(2) The District Judge has jurisdiction in respect of a wakf the bulk of the income of which is devoted to public and charitable purposes. AIR 1931 Pat 354 (356): 10 Pat 506.

(3) Mere denial of trust by a non-applicant or the setting up of an adverse title cannot oust the jurisdiction of the Court. AIR 1944 Nag 190 (191): ILR (1944) Nag 775 * AIR 1948 Nag 183 (185): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

take action under this Act in respect of a religious endowment. The failure of the Hindu Religious Endowments Board is a good reason for his taking action. AIR 1935 Mad 56 (56).

(5) The District Judge has jurisdiction to entertain and decide an application under Section 3 of the Charitable and Religious Trusts Act for an order calling upon the trustees of a Muslim trust property to furnish accounts. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (185): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

6. Nature of proceeding. — See Section 5.

7. "Person having an interest." — (1) "We have considered a number of suggestions that the word 'interest" in this clause should be defined, but as the expression is not defined in Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to which this Bill is merely ancillary, we have decided not to attempt a definition." — Select Committee Report.

(2) The words "having an interest in trust" must in each case depend upon the nature of the trust. AIR 1928 All 758 (759): 50 All 880.

(3) Members of the general public who worship at religious institutions are interested in the public trust for purposes of the Act. AIR 1934 Lah 949 (958).

(4) Secretary or another public institution is, as such and as one entitled to stay in Dharmsala created by trust, interested in such trust. AIR 1928 All 758 (759): 50 All 880.

8. Proper party. — See Section 5.

9. Proviso. — (1) "We consider that no claim for accounts should be allowed to relate back for more than three years from the date of the presentation of the petition and have provided accordingly." — Select Committee Report.

10. "Public purpose." — (1) The substance of the trust and primary intention of creator must be seen. AIR 1929 Oudh 225 (228): 4 Luck 429.

(2) The Court has to look to the original grant to determine its nature and purpose; subsequent events and actions or inaction of individuals or of the community cannot change the nature and purpose of the original grant. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (188, 189): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

(3) A grant does not cease to be a public grant merely because a care-taker of the property maintains himself out of the income of the grant. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (186): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

(4) The mere fact that the mutawalli was maintaining himself out of the income of the property granted does not make the grant a private or a conditional one. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (188): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

(5) A grant which is initially a public grant by the founder cannot be turned into a private grant merely by the wrongful acts of the care-takers or mutawallies. AIR 1948 Nag 183 (188): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

(6) Benefit of specified person or class of persons such as kindreds, dependants and others is not a public purpose. AIR 1929 Oudh 225 (227): 4 Luck 429 (FB).

(7) A gift which benefits only a small section of the public may be a public trust. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (140): 21 Pat 815.

(8) Where a substantial portion of the profits of the endowed property is earmarked for the support of relations of settlor and remaining portion for public of Shia community, the wakf is not wholly for public purposes. AIR 1930 Oudh 53 (54).

(9) A trust providing for "sadabarat" and for contribution towards marriages and education of Brahmin children is a public trust though the deity to which the property was endowed may be installed in a private temple which is open to public. AIR 1929 Pat 723 (728).

(10) Dedication of property to idol is a trust of religious nature which this Act is intended to cover. AIR 1941 Nag 317 (319): ILR (1942) Nag 468.

(11) A mosque built with public subscriptions and used by Muhammdan public for offering prayers was held a "religious trust" within the meaning of Section 3. AIR 1936 Lah 695 (696): 17 Lah 768.

(2) On the date fixed for the hearing of the petition, or on any subsequent date to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Court shall proceed to hear the petitioner and the trustee, if he appears, and any other person who has appeared in consequence of the notice, or who it considers ought to be heard, and shall make such further inquiries, if any, as it thinks fit. The trustee may and, if so required by the Court, shall, at the time of the first hearing or within such time as the Court may permit, present a written statement of his case. If he does present a written statement, the statement shall be signed and verified in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for signing and verifying pleadings.

(3) If any person appears at the hearing of the petition and either denies the existence of the trust or denies that it is a trust to which this Act applies, and undertakes to institute within three months a suit for a declaration to that effect and for any other appropriate relief, the Court shall order a stay of the proceedings and, if such suit is so instituted, shall continue the stay, until the suit is finally decided.

Section 5 — Note 1 (contd.)

"Further inquiries." — (2) Before passing an order under Section 5 the Court to which an application is presented under Section 3 must determine whether there is a trust to which the Act applies and also whether the petitioner is a person interested in the trust. It cannot pass an order without enquiry. 1934 Mad WN 205 (206).

(3) Where on an application the other party objects on the ground that recourse to the Act was barred by an award in arbitration, the District Judge has jurisdiction to decide whether the trust was one to which the Act applies. AIR 1942 Oudh 387 (387).

"If no such undertaking is given".— (4) Where no undertaking required by Section 5 (3) is given, the District Judge himself can decide whether the trust is one to which the Act applies. AIR 1938 Oudh 262 (262, 263).

Nature of proceeding. — (5) The decision of the Court under this Act, a decision from which by Section 12 there is no appeal, is a decision in a summary proceeding which is not a suit nor of the same character as a suit. AIR 1940 PC 7 (9): 67 Ind App 1: 15 Luck 1: ILR (1940) Kar PC 25. (Doctrine of res judicata does not apply.) * AIR 1944 Nag 190 (191): ILR (1944) Nag 775 *· AIR 1948 Nag 183 (189): ILR (1947) Nag 538.

Proper party.— (6) Application under S. 3 — All the trustees of a temple should be made parties and given notice. AIR 1925 Mad 135 (136).

(7) In a suit under Section 5 (3) for a declaration that the deity and properties attached to a temple were the private properties of the plaintiff and that the entire Hindu Community represented through the defendants had no right thereto, it was necessary that the deity should be joined as a proper party to the suit. AIR 1960 SC 100 (113): (1960) 1 SCR 773.

(8) A person who has claims adverse to the trust and who is not liable under Section 3 is not proper party. AIR 1925 Cal 537 (538).

"Question of title." — (9) The Court while deciding the question as to the existence of the trust cannot try or determine any question of title as between the petitioner and any person claiming adverse to the trust. AIR 1934 Bom 343 (344): 58 Bom 623.

(10) The inhibition against trying or determining questions of title in S. 5 (6) is not absolute but is subject to sub-sections (3) and (4) of Section 5. A claim of title adverse to the trust is in effect a denial of the existence of the trust. The court dealing with a petition properly filed under Section 3 is charged with the duty of itself deciding that dispute, if the person setting up adverse title does not avail of sub-section (3) of Section 5 and have recourse to a separate suit. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 936 (937).

Res judicata. — (11) A person aggrieved with an order passed under this Act holding a trust as public can institute a separate suit to have it declared otherwise. The order passed being one in a summary proceeding does not operate as res judicata even though he was a party to the proceedings. AIR 1940 PC 7 (9): 67 Ind App 1: 15 Luck 1: ILR (1940) Kar PC 25 * AIR 1947 PC 88 (89) * AIR 1929 All 506 (508): 51 All 805. (Per Niamatullah J.) * AIR 1934 Bom 343 (345): 58 Bom 623 * AIR 1934 Lah 771 (773): 16 Lah 85 * AIR 1944 Nag

(4) If no such undertaking is given, or if after the expiry of the three months no such suit has been instituted, the Court shall itself decide the question.

(5) On completion of the inquiry provided for in sub-section (2), the Court shall either dismiss the petition or pass thereon such other order as it thinks fit:

Provided that, where a suit has been instituted in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3), no order shall be passed by the Court which conflicts with the final decision therein.

(6) Save as provided in this section, the Court shall not try or determine any question of title between the petitioner and any person claiming title adversely to the trust.

6. Failure of trustee to comply with order under Section 5.—If a trustee without reasonable excuse fails to comply with an order made under sub-sec. (5) of Section 5, such trustee shall, without prejudice to any other penalty or liability which he may incur under any law for the time being in force, be deemed to have committed a breach of trust affording ground for a suit under the provisions of Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908; and any such suit may, so far as it is based on such failure, be instituted without the previous consent of the Advocate-General.

190 (191): ILR (1944) Nag 775 * AIR 1935 Oudh 96 (106).

Suit for declaration. — (12) In a suit by a trustee under Section 5 (3) of the Act that the trust is not a public trust and the Act does not apply hereto, the onus is on the party who alleges that the property is trust property held for public purpose. AIR 1943 Pat 135 (137): 21 Pat 815.

(13) In a suit for declaration that the temple, deity and plaint properties were all of private ownership the Courts below might refrain from pronouncing upon the rights of the defendants, because all that they had to do is to decide whether the property is trust of a public nature. AIR 1960 SC 100 (114, 115): (1960) 1 SCR 773.

(14) As to whether an appeal or revision lies from an order passed under this section, see Section 12.

(15) Where a fund given in charity is not exhausted for the purpose specified by the donor, and no general charitable intention on the part of the donor is disclosed, the donor must be regarded to have left the surplus undisposed, and doctrine of 'cy pres' will have no application. AIR 1967 Mad 175 (179): (1965) 2 Mad LJ 173 (DB).

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Under Section 6 once the breach is committed by disobedience of orders to produce accounts a suit under S. 92, Civil P. C. can be filed without sanction from the Advocate-General. AIR 1933 Mad 854 (854, 855): 57 Mad 153.

(2) Once a breach of trust has been committed by a trustee by his refusal to produce the accounts, any person (who need not be the person who obtained permission from the Court) can institute the suit under Section 92, Civil P. C., though he may not be interested in the trust. AIR 1933 Mad 854 (854): 57 Mad 153.

(3) A suit under S. 92, Civil P. C., for a breach of trust under Section 6 of this Act, can be prosecuted by the remaining plaintiffs though some of the plaintiffs happen to drop out and even though they happen to be the persons who obtained the permission to file the suit. AIR 1933 Mad 854 (855): 57 Mad 153.

(4) In a suit under Section 92, Civil P. C., for breach of trust by virtue of Section 6, the reliefs claimed must be confined to those which arise out of the failure to produce the accounts and are connected with it. AIR 1933 Mad 854 (855): 57 Mad 153.

[See however AIR 1930 All 582 (583): 52 All 863. (The District Judge can grant any relief under Section 92 (1), Civil P. C.)]

(5) The terms of Section 6 are intended to define the consequences of the orders made by the District Judge. But the words "if a trustee without reasonable cause fails to comply" in the section cannot be read to exclude a contention in a regular suit that the plaintiff is not a trustee or to prevent a similar contention being raised by a defendant to a suit under Section 92, Civil P. C. AIR 1940 PC 7 (9): 67 Ind App 1: 15 Luck 1: ILR (1940) Kar PC 25.

(6) In a suit under Section 92, Civil P. C., instituted on the basis of S. 6 of the Act, a wholesale enquiry into the general misconduct of the defendant or his negligence cannot be made. AIR 1930 All 582 (584): 52 All 863.

(7) Suit on basis of Section 6 filed — Accounts for whole period of trusteeship can be ordered. AIR 1930 All 582 (584): 52 All 863.

7. Powers of trustee to apply for directions.—(1) Save as hereinafter provided in this Act, any trustee of an express or constructive trust created or existing for public purpose of a charitable or religious nature may apply by petition to the Court, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any substantial part of the subject-matter of the trust is situate, for the opinion, advice or direction of the Court on any question affecting the management or administration of the trust property, and the Court shall give its opinion, advice or direction, as the case may be, thereon :

Provided that the Court shall not be bound to give such opinion, advice or direction on any question which it considers to be a question not proper for summary disposal.

(2) The Court on a petition under sub-section (1), may either give its opinion, advice or direction thereon forthwith, or fix a date for the hearing of the petition, and may direct a copy thereof, together with notice of the date so fixed, to be served on such of the persons interested in the trust, or to be published for information in such manner, as it thinks fit.

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) A trustee can apply to the Civil Court, within whose jurisdiction a substantial part of the subject-matter of the trust is situate, for advice, opinion or direction, with respect to administration or management of the trust property. AIR 1935 All 360 (361).

(2) The Court under the section exercises its consultative jurisdiction, giving guidance to the trustee. It is not to grant sanction merely because it is applied for. The limitation is that the Court will refuse to consider the matter if in its opinion the question is one not capable of summary disposal, e. g., if it is one of detail or difficulty. In any event the Court will consider judicially the matters placed before it before disposing of the matter. AIR 1957 Ker 171 (172): ILR (1957) Ker 381 (DB).

(3) Where a case presented problems of some difficulty and great nicety touching not alone the disposal of property but the disposition of human being as well — Held that the questions could not be disposed of in a summary manner within the meaning of the proviso in Section 7 (1). Therefore, the motion did not admit of proper consideration and disposal under Section 7. AIR 1957 Ker 171 (174): ILR (1957) Ker 381 (DB).

(4) A trustee is entitled to seek advice for his own protection and if he follows that advice he is protected, but if he does not choose to follow it he cannot be compelled to do so although failure to follow will be at his own risk. AIR 1936 All 801 (802) * ('49) ILR (1949) 1 Cal 461 (469).

(5) The District Judge should not express an opinion without allowing the parties to produce evidence and without going into the points in controversy and where he does so it constitutes material irregularity in the exercise of jurisdiction. AIR 1935 All 147 (147).

(6) The only difference between Section 7 of the Act and Section 92 of Civil P. C., is that Section 92 mentions expressly the appointment of new trustees as a relief to be had while Section 7 is silent on the point. But the jurisdiction of the Court is exercisable only for the proper management of the trust. When there is no dispute which normally calls for adjudication by way of a suit, Section 7 is the more appropriate provision of law. ('57) 99 Cal LJ 161 (164).

(7) Where the trustees of a charitable trust, finding it impossible, in view of the very large aggrandisement of the trust funds and of the different schemes which were being adopted by them, to manage its affairs by five persons only and they want to increase the number of trustees, the proper procedure is to apply under Section 7 for a direction to that effect. Section 92, Civil P. C., does not apply as there is neither a dispute nor a breach of trust so as to entitle any person to file a suit. ('57) 99 Cal LJ 161 (164).

(8) When a trustee makes an application to the District Judge to obtain his advice or opinion, a case is presented before him for decision. AIR 1929 All 581 (583): 51 All 957.

[See also AIR 1917 PC 71 (74): 44 Ind App 261: 40 Mad 793. (The word 'case' cannot be confined to a litigation in which there is a plaintiff who seeks to obtain particular relief as damages or otherwise against a defendant who is before the Court. It includes an ex parte application also and the matter adjudicated upon is a case — Case under the Bengal and Madras Native Religious Endowments Act, 1863.)]

(9) Order of District Judge on an application under Section 7 cannot be treated as a decree nor can it be regarded as an appealable order. AIR 1935 All 147 (148).

(10) Against an order passed under Section 7 an approach in the High Court in revision, in proper cases, e. g., lack of jurisdiction, illegal procedure etc., is

(3) On any date fixed under sub-section (2) or on any subsequent date to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Court, before giving any opinion, advice or direction, shall afford a reasonable opportunity of being heard to all persons appearing in connection with the petition.

(4) A trustee stating in good faith the facts of any matter relating to the trust in a petition under sub-section (1), and acting upon the opinion, advice or direction of the Court given thereon, shall be deemed, as far as his own responsibility is concerned, to have discharged his duty as such trustee in the matter in respect of which the petition was made.

8. Costs of petition under this Act.—The costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to any petition, and all proceedings in connection therewith, under the foregoing provisions of this Act, shall be in the discretion of the Court, which may direct the whole or any part of any such costs, charges and expenses to be met from the property or income of the trust in respect of which the petition is made, or to be borne and paid in such manner and by such persons as it thinks fit:

Provided that no such order shall be made against any person (other than the petitioner) who has not received notice of the petition and had a reasonable opportunity of being heard thereon.

9. Savings.—No petition under the foregoing provisions of this Act in relation to any trust shall be entertained in any of the following circumstances, namely:—

(a) if a suit instituted in accordance with the provisions of Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is pending in respect of the trust in question;

(b) if the trust property is vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments, the Administrator-General, the Official Trustee, or any Society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860; or

(c) if a scheme for the administration of the trust property has been settled or approved by any Court of competent jurisdiction, or by any other authority acting under the provisions of any enactment.

10. Power of Courts as to costs in certain suits against trustees of charitable and religious trusts.—(1) In any suit instituted under Section 14 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863, or under Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908[a], the Court trying such suit may, if, on application of the plaintiff and after hearing the defendant and making such inquiry as it thinks fit, it is satisfied that such an order is necessary in the public interest, direct the defendant either to furnish

(11) Where there has been a material irregularity in the exercise of jurisdiction and the case has been decided the High Court has powers to interfere in revision. AIR 1935 All 147 (148).

(12) An order passed by the District Judge under Section 7 approving the appointment of a person as a Sarbarkhar of a trust is a case decided within the meaning of Section 115, Civil P. C. ('57) 1957 All WR (HC) 157 (158).

(13) A District Judge passing an order under Section 7 does so as a Court subordinate to High Court against which revision lies to High Court. ('57) 1957 All WR (HC) 157 (158).

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) The object of Section 10 is to help the plaintiff who has no personal interest in the litigation to carry it on in the interest of the public. But for such help the interest of the public might suffer, as the relators might not have funds enough to prosecute the suit till the end. But once the suit has ended, Section 10 has no application. The proper order to be made at that time is one for costs to be embodied in the final decree by which the successful plaintiff may be allowed not merely the costs between party and party but as between solicitor and client. ('48) ILR (1948) 1 Cal 315 (319) (DB).

(2) Defendant may either furnish security or deposit money and the Court cannot specify which he is to do. AIR 1924 Lah 408 (409).

security for any expenditure incurred or likely to be incurred by the plaintiff in instituting and maintaining such suit, or to deposit from any money in his hands as trustees of the trust to which the suit relates such sum as such Court considers sufficient to meet such expenditure in whole or in part.

(2) When any money has been deposited in accordance with an order made under sub-section (1), the Court may make over to the plaintiff the whole or any part of such sum for the conduct of the suit. Before making over any sum to the plaintiff, the Court shall take security from the plaintiff for the refund of the same in the event of such refund being subsequently ordered by the Court.

11. Provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure to apply.—(1) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, relating to—

(a) the proof of facts by affidavit,

(b) the enforcing of the attendance of any person and his examination on oath,

(c) the enforcing of the production of documents, and

(d) the issuing of commissions,

shall apply to all proceedings under this Act, and the provisions relating to the service of summonses shall apply to the service of notices thereunder.

(2) The provisions of the said Code relating to the execution of decrees shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to the execution of orders under this Act.

12. Barring of appeals.—No appeal shall lie from any order passed or against any opinion, advice or direction given under this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"On many occasions the want has been felt in India of an official capable of discharging the functions which are discharged in England by the Official Trustee of Charity Lands and the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds. The object of this Bill is to meet that want.

2. Much property has from time to time in different parts of India been vested by founders in public servants, such as the Collector, Director of Public Instruction, Accountant-General and Divisional Commissioner. With respect to a case in which an Accountant-General and a Divisional Commissioner had been named as trustees, the Officiating Advocate-General of Bengal and the Officiating Standing Counsel stated in a joint opinion in 1885 that persons cannot, as holders of certain posts, be appointed trustees "unless these posts are corporate ones". Neither the "office of the Accountant-General nor that of the Commissioner" they observed, "is a corporate office; and even if appointed by the designation of their office only, and not by name the trust-fund would vest in them as individuals, and they would remain trustees until they themselves appointed others to succeed them or until they died".

3. There is a difficulty in India in finding any corporation capable of acting as a trustee in such cases as this Bill is designed to meet. The Secretary of State for India in Council and the Governor-General in Council are incapable of being trustees (L. R. 15 Ch. D. 9). It has also been held that Anglican Bishops and Archdeacons in India, who have been constituted by Letters Patent to be perpetual corporations, with power to take and hold property under grant or licence from the Crown, are not capable of acting as trustees in some of the cases for which this Bill is intended to provide. To the question whether the Lord Bishop of Calcutta in his corporate capacity might not, under the Letters Patent for the Bishopric of Calcutta, bearing date the 14th May 1814, hold land upon trust for a Dioceasan School so that, upon his ceasing to be Bishop, it would devolve without a deed upon his successor in the Bishopric, an eminent counsel in England, to whom the question was referred, has replied in the negative. "It is quite true", he remarks, "that the Bishop is a corporation sole, and in that capacity can hold the lands belonging to his See. He may, however, only hold such lands as by grant or licence from the Company (now Her Majesty) he is authorised to take, hold and enjoy. I think it is clear that the Letters Patent only refer to lands belonging to, or purchased out of moneys belonging to, the Bishopric . . . . . on the whole. I am of opinion that, if the land in question was conveyed to the Bishop as a trustee, it would pass on his death not to his successor but to his executors".

4. The Bill, it will be observed, is of a purely permissive character. The Government will be unable to make a vesting order or frame a scheme except on application for that purpose, and may, if it sees fit, refuse to act. The corporation sole in whom as Treasurer of Charitable Endowments property may be vested is, except as regards the disposal of any property by direction of the Government, to have nothing to do with the administartion of the property. He is to be a bare trustee, the object of vesting the property in him by his name of office as a corporation sole being to secure the holding of the property by some one always present, and to avoid the difficulty and expense of appointing a new trustee on the retirement or death of any incumbent of the trust".

(ACT VI OF 1890)[a]

[7th March, 1890.]

An Act to provide for the Vesting and Administration of Property held in trust for charitable purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the vesting and administration of property held in trust for charitable purposes; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 1889, Pt. V, p. 137. For Report of the Select Committee, see Gaz. of Ind., 1890, p. 65; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid., 1889, Pt. VI, pp. 117 and 190, and ibid, 1890 Pt. VI, p. 37.

This Act has been declared to be in force in the Sonthal Parganas by the Sonthal Parganas Settlement Regulation (3 of 1872), S. 3 as amended by Reg. 3 of 1899, S. 3; in the Khondmals District by the Khondmals Laws Regulation, 1936 (4 of 1936), S. 3 and Sch.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of M. P. — See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

It has been partially extended to Berar by Act 4 of 1941.

It has been extended also to—

Dadra and Nagar Haveli: see Regulation 6 of 1963 [1-7-1965];
Goa, Daman and Diu: see Regulation 11 of 1963 [1-2-1965];
Pondicherry: see Regulation 7 of 1963; [1-10-1963];
Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands: see Regulation 8 of 1965.

This Act applies to the States merged in the States of—

Bombay: see Bom. Act 4 of 1950;
Madhya Pradesh: see M. P. Act 12 of 1950;
Madras: see Mad. Act 35 cf 1949;
Punjab: Punjab Act 5 of 1950.

For the ceasing of the Act to apply to—

Muslim Wakfs: see Central Act 29 of 1954, S. 69 (1);
Hindu Religious Institutions and Endowments in Andhra Pradesh: see Andhra Pradesh Act 17 of 1966, S. 110 [26-1-1967]; Madras: see Mad. Act 22 of 1959, S. 5 (c) [1-1-1960]; and Rajasthan: see Raj. Act 42 of 1959, S. 81 [1-7-1962].

1. Title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHARITABLE ENDOWMENTS ACT, 1890.

(2) It extends to °[the whole of India ª[except the State of Jammu and Kashmir] ] and

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of October, 1890.

[a] Substituted for "except Part B States" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. [1-4-1951].

2. Definition.—In this Act "charitable purpose" includes relief of the poor education, medical relief and the advancement of any other object of general public utility, but does not include a purpose which relates exclusively to religious teaching or worship.

---

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) In consequence of the extension of Charitable Endowments Act 1890, and Charitable and Religious Trusts Act, 1920, to Part B State of Hyderabad the Hyderabad Endowments Regulations, 1940, in so far as they apply to religious trusts cannot be deemed to have been repealed in view of Section 6 of Part B States (Laws) Act. AIR 1963 SC 853 (860): (1963) Supp 1 SCR 844.

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) There are four heads which can fall under the word "charitable" namely (1) religion (2) poverty (3) education and (4) other purposes beneficial to the community. But at the same time it is not every object which comes within one or other of these categories is charitable although an object to rank as charitable must either fit into one or more of the first three categories or if not must be of general public utility. 1957-1 All ER 745 (752): 1957-1 WLR 729.

(2) In determining the purpose of a trust regard must be had not only to the language in which the purpose is expressed but also to the means which are indicated for achieving that purpose. 1957-1 All ER 854 (856).

(3) The Court is not bound to be guided either by the conviction of the testator that the reform for the promotion of which he has created the trust is beneficial or by his description of the trust as charitable. 1957-1 All ER 745 (755): (1957) 1 WLR 729.

(4) A charitable trust must not have inherent in it the potentiality of individual profit for a non-charitable beneficiary. 1957-1 All ER 854 (858, 859).

(5) The word "charitable" excludes benevolent or philanthropic activities which the layman would consider to be covered by the expression. 1957-1 All ER 745 (752): 1957-1 WLR 729.

(6) Trust for political purposes, which advocate changes in law, are not considered charitable. 1957-1 All ER 745 (756): 1957-1 WLR 729.

3. Appointment and incorporation of Treasurer of Charitable Endowments.—[a][(1) The Central Government may appoint an officer of the Government by the name of his office to be Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for India, and the Government of any °[State] may appoint an officer of the Government by the name of his office to be Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for the °[State.]]

(2) Such Treasurer shall, for the purposes of taking, holding and transferring moveable or immoveable property under the authority of this Act, be a corporation sole by the name of the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for [b][India or, as the case may be, the °[State]] and, as such Treasurer, shall have perpetual succession and a corporate seal, and may sue and be sued in his corporate name.

[a] Substituted by A. O., 1937, for the original sub-section (1).

[b] Substituted by A. O., 1937, for "the territories subject to the Local Government".

[a][3A. Definition of "appropriate Government" etc.—In the subsequent provisions of this Act "the appropriate Government" means, as respects a charitable endowment, the objects of which do not extend beyond a single °[State] and are not objects to which the executive authority of the Central Government extends, the Government of the °[State] and as respects any other charitable endowment the Central Government.]

[a] Inserted by A. O., 1937.

4. Orders vesting property in Treasurer.—(1) Where any property is held or is to be applied in trust for a charitable purpose, the [a][appropriate Government], if it thinks fit, may, on application made as hereinafter mentioned, and subject to the other provisions of this section, order, by notification in the Official Gazette that the property be vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments on such terms as to the application of the property or the income thereof as may be agreed on between the [a][appropriate Government] and the person or persons making the application, and the property shall thereupon so vest accordingly.

Section 2 — Note 1 (contd.)

(7) A College Committee formed with the object of promoting education comes within the ambit of the definition contained in the Act. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (776).

(8) Education is not confined to teaching by a master in a class. A body of persons established for the purpose of raising the artistic taste of the country and established by an appropriate document which confines them to that purpose, is established for educational purposes. 1957-1 All ER 854 (857).

(9) The point that the trust is not for the promotion of music in general but for the promotion of the music of a particular individual composer, does not vitiate the charitable nature of the trust created for advancement of music. 1957-1 All ER 854 (857).

(10) Because there is an element of pleasure, inherent in music, that in itself cannot destroy the charitable character of a bequest for advancement of the music. The pleasure is not the purpose but only the by-product which is in the process of educating in music. 1957-1 All ER 854 (857).

(11) Research and propaganda which merely tend to increase public knowledge is not "education" when the element of teaching is not combined with them. 1957-1 All ER 745 (753): 1957-1 WLR 729.

(12) The object of a trust may be of public general utility but still it cannot be regarded as charitable unless it is beneficial to the public in a manner which the law will regard as charitable. 1957-1 All ER 745 (753): 1957-1 WLR 729.

(13) It is very important to distinguish motive from purpose. Motive is not relevant except in so far as it is incorporated into the purpose of the trust. 1957-1 All ER 854 (858).

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) "We have made it clear that a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments is not to be an administering trustee of property vested in him as such Treasurer". — Select Committee Report.

(2) The vesting contemplated by the section is for limited purpose only, namely the management of the property. It does not result in any divestment of the society and the transference of the property to the appointed trustee. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (777, 778).

(3) The Act leaves the question of vesting to the subjective satisfaction of the Government. The High Court will not interfere with the Government's opinion regarding existence of necessity for the appointment of a treasurer ex-

(2) When any property has vested under this section in a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments, he is entitled to all documents of title relating thereto.

[b][° ° ° ° °]

(4) An order under this section vesting property in a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments shall not require or be deemed to require him to administer the property, or impose or be deemed to impose upon him the duty of a trustee with respect to the administration thereof.

[a] Substituted by A. O., 1937 for "Local Government".
[b] Sub-section (3) was repealed by A. O., 1937.

5. Schemes for administration of property vested in the Treasurer.—(1) On application made as hereinafter mentioned, and with the concurrence of the person or persons making the application, the [a][appropriate Government], if it thinks fit, may settle a scheme for the administration of any property which has been or is to be vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments, and may in such scheme appoint, by name or office, a person or persons, not being or including such Treasurer, to administer the property.

(2) On application made as hereinafter mentioned, and with the concurrence of the person or persons making the application, the [a][appropriate Government] may, if it thinks fit, modify any scheme settled under this section or substitute another scheme in its stead.

(3) A scheme settled, modified or substituted under this section shall, subject to the other provisions of this section, come into operation on a day to be appointed by the [a][appropriate Government] in this behalf, and shall remain in force so long as the property to which it relates continues to be vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments or until it has been modified or another such scheme has been substituted in its stead.

(4) Such a scheme, when it comes into operation, shall supersede any decree or direction relating to the subject-matter thereof in so far as such decree or direction is in any way repugnant thereto, and its validity shall not be questioned in any Court, nor shall any Court give, in contravention of the provisions of the scheme or in any way contrary or in addition thereto, a decree or direction regarding the administration of the property to which the scheme relates:

[b][Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as precluding a Court from inquiring whether the Government by which a scheme was made was the appropriate Government.]

(5) In the settlement of such a scheme effect shall be given to the wishes of the author of the trust so far as they can be ascertained, and, in the opinion of the [b][appropriate Government], effect can reasonably be given to them.

(6) Where a scheme has been settled under this section for the administration of the property not already vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments. it shall not come into operation until the property has become so vested.

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "Local Government".
[b] Inserted by A.O., 1937.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Bihar

To Section 5, the following Proviso shall be added—

"Provided that the powers of the State Government under this section for the settlement, modification or substitution of a scheme for the administration of any property shall, in respect of any waqf property within the cept when the Government is shown to have been influenced by extraneous considerations or had acted mala fide in coming to the decision. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (778).

(4) The appointment of a treasurer and the vesting of properties in him for the purposes specified in the Act, would not offend the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 19 and 31 of meaning of the Bihar Waqfs Act, 1947, or trust property within the meaning of the Bihar Hindu Religious Trusts Act, 1950, be exercised subject to the approval of the State Government, by the Majlis established under the first mentioned Act, or, as the case may be, by the Board established under the last mentioned Act." —Bihar Acts 8 of 1948, Ss. 4 (3) and 1 of 1951, S. 4 (3) (as substituted by Bihar Act 16 of 1954, S. 41).

West Bengal

To Section 5 the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that the powers of the State Government under this section for the settlement, modification or substitution of a scheme for the administration of any property shall, in respect of any wakf property in West Bengal, be exercised, subject to the approval of the State Government, by the Board of Waqfs appointed under the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934."

—Bengal Act 13 of 1934, S. 79.

Note.—In the light of the provision contained in sub-section (2) of S. 69 of the Muslim Wakfs Act, 1954 (29 of 1954), the Bihar Waqfs Act, 1948 (Bihar Act 8 of 1948) and the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934 (Bengal Act 13 of 1934), should be taken to have been repealed.

6. Mode of applying for vesting orders and schemes.—(1) The application referred to in the two last foregoing sections must be made,—

(a) if the property is already held in trust for a charitable purpose, then by the person acting in the administration of the trust, or, where there are more persons than one so acting, then by those persons or a majority of them; and

(b) if the property is to be applied in trust for such a purpose, then by the person or persons proposing so to apply it.

(2) For the purposes of this section the executor or administrator of a deceased trustee of property held in trust for a charitable purpose shall be deemed to be a person acting in the administration of the trust.

STATE AMENDMENTS

West Bengal

After Section 6, the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(3) An application for the vesting of any property of the nature specified in sub-section (3) of Section 4 may, notwithstanding anything contained in this section, be made by the Commissioner of Wakfs appointed under the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934, where such property is under the administration of an official mutawalli or of a mutawalli appointed under Sec. 40 of that Act."

—Bengal Act, 13 of 1934, S. 80.

Note.—In the light of the provision contained in sub-section (2) of Section 69 of the Muslim Wakfs Act, 1954 (29 of 1954), the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934 (Bengal Act 13 of 1934), should be taken to have been repealed.

the Constitution. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (779).

(5) It is not illegal and improper to make an order for vesting on an application under Section 4 even though the application was made on Government persuasion containing a threat. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (778).

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) "We have provided more fully here for the appointment of administering trustees, and the revision and protection of schemes settled under the section." — Select Committee Report.

(2) An application made under Section 4 and Section 5 (1) of the Act, is not irregular merely because the suggestion made by the Government to a society to apply under Section 4 is also accompanied by a threat. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (778).

Section 6A
Uttar Pradesh

In its application to Uttar Pradesh, after Section 6, the following shall be inserted as Section 6A:—

"6A. (1) If the State Government is satisfied upon representation made or otherwise, that in any case, where any property has already vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments under Section 4 and a scheme has been settled under Section 5 that the person or persons acting in the administration thereof are wasting or maladministering the same, it may by notice require the person or persons to show cause why the scheme settled for administration be not modified or substituted by another scheme.

(2) The notice under sub-section (1) shall be served in such manner as may be specified.

(3) Where the person or persons served with the notice fail to show cause within the time allowed or the Government is satisfied after considering their explanation, if any, and making such enquiry as it may deem necessary that the property is being wasted or maladministered, it may, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 5 or 6, modify the scheme or substitute another scheme in its place." — U. P. Act 37 of 1952, S. 2 [15-12-1952].

7. Exercise by Governor-General in Council of powers of Local Government. [Repealed by A.O., 1937.]

8. Bare trusteeship of Treasurer.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments shall not, as such Treasurer, act in the administration of any trust whereof any of the property is for the time being vested in him under this Act.

(2) Such Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each property for the time being so vested in so far as the property consists of securities for money, and shall apply the property or the income thereof in accordance with the provision made in that behalf in the vesting order under Section 4 or in the scheme, if any, under Section 5, or in both those documents.

(3) In the case of any property so vested other than securities for money, such Treasurer shall, subject to any special order which he may receive from the authority by whose order the property became vested in him, permit the persons acting in the administration of the trust to have the possession, management and control of the property, and the application of the income thereof, as if the property had been vested in them.

9. Annual publication of list of properties vested in Treasurer.—A Treasurer of Charitable Endowments shall cause to be published annually in the [a][Official Gazette], at such time as the [a][appropriate Government] may direct, a list of all properties for the time being vested in him under this Act and an abstract of all accounts kept by him under sub-section (2) of the last foregoing section.

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "Local Government".

10. Limitation of functions and powers of Treasurer.—(1) A Treasurer of Charitable Endowments shall always be a sole trustee, and shall not, as such

---

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) Appointment of a treasurer under Section 4 does not divest a society of its property neither is there any transference of any property from the society to the treasurer. Appointment of a treasurer and the vesting of the property in him for the purposes specified in the Act would not offend fundamental rights of the members of a society either under Article 19 or Article 31 of the Constitution. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (779): (1958) 2 Andh WR 580.

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) "We have provided for the vesting in administering trustees of property of which a Treasurer of Chartiable Endowments has been divested by a direction of the Government." — Select Committee Report.

(2) The vesting under the Act does not create any proprietary right over the property in favour of the trustee. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 773 (777).

Treasurer, take or hold any property otherwise than under the provisions of this Act, or subject to those provisions transfer any property vested in him except in obedience to a decree divesting him of the property, or in compliance with a direction in that behalf issuing from the authority by whose order the property became vested in him.

(2) Such a direction may require the Treasurer to sell or otherwise dispose of any property vested in him, and, with the sanction of the authority issuing the direction, to invest the proceeds of the sale or other disposal of the property in any such security for money as is [a][specified in the direction], or in the purchase of immovable property.

(3) When a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments is divested, by a direction of [b][the appropriate Government] under this section, of any property, it shall vest in the person or persons acting in the administration thereof and be held by him or them on the same trust as those on which it was held by such Treasurer.

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "mentioned in Section 4, sub-section (3), clause (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e)".

[b] Substituted by A.O., 1937, fir "the Local Government or the Governor-General in Council".

11. Provisions for continuance of office of Treasurer in certain contingencies.— If the office held by an officer of the Government who has been appointed to be a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments is abolished or its name is changed, the [a][appropriate Government] may appoint the same or another officer of the Government by name of his office to be such Treasurer, and thereupon the holder of the latter office shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the successor-in-office of the holder of the former office.

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "Local Government" which had been substituted for "Governor-General in Council" by the Devolution Act, 1920 (38 of 1920), S. 2 and Schedule I.

[a][12. Transfer of property from one Treasurer to another.—If by reason of any alteration of areas or by reason of the appointment of a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for India or for any [b][State] for which such a Treasurer has not previously been appointed or for any other reason it appears to the Central Government that any property vested in a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments should be vested in another such Treasurer, that Government may direct that the property shall be so vested and thereupon it shall vest in that other Treasurer and his successors as fully and effectually for the purposes of this Act, as if it had been originally vested in him under this Act.]

[a] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for the original Section 12.

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

[a][13. The power to frame forms and make rules.—[b][ ° ° ° ]

(2) The [a][appropriate Government] may make rules consistent with this Act for,—

(a) prescribing the fees to be paid to the Government in respect of any property vested under this Act in a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments.

(b) regulating the cases and the mode in which schemes or any modification thereof are to be published before they are settled or made under Section 5;

(c) prescribing the forms in which accounts are to be kept by Treasurers of Charitable Endowments and the mode in which such accounts are to be audited; and

(d) generally carrying into effect the purposes of this Act.]

[a] Substituted by the Devolution Act, 1920 (38 of 1920), S. 2 and Schedule I, for the original section.

[b] Sub-section (1) was omitted by A.O., 1937.

[c] Substituted by A.O., 1937, for "Local Government".

14. Indemnity to Government and Treasurer.—No suit shall be instituted against the °[Government] in respect of anything done or purporting to be done under this Act, or in respect of any alleged neglect or omission to perform any duty devolving on the Government under this Act, or in respect of the exercise of, or the failure to exercise, any power conferred by this Act on the Government, nor shall any suit be instituted against a Treasurer of Charitable Endowments except for divesting him of property on the ground of its not being subject to a trust for a charitable purpose, or for making him chargeable with or accountable for the loss or misapplication of any property vested in him, or the income thereof, where the loss or misapplication has been occasioned by or through his wilful neglect or default.

15. Saving with respect to Advocate-General and Official Trustee.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed to impair the operation ª[of any enactment] for the time being in force, respecting the authority of an Advocate-General ᵇ[° ° °] to act with respect to any charity, °[or of the Official Trustees Act, 1913] respecting the vesting of property in trust for a charitable purpose in an Official Trustee.

[a] Substituted for the words and figures "of Section III of the Statute 53, George III, Chapter 155, or of any other enactment" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1960 (58 of 1960), S. 3 and Schedule II [26-12-1960].

[b] The words "at a presidency" were omitted, ibid.

[c] Substituted for the expression "or of Sections 8, 9, 10 and 11 of Act No. XVII of 1864 (An Act to constitute an office of Official Trustee)", ibid.

16. General controlling authority of Governor-General in Council.—[Repealed by the Devolution Act, 1920 (XXXVIII of 1920), S. 2 and Schedule I, Pt. I.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The accountancy profession in India is at present regulated by the Auditors Certificates Rules framed in 1932 in exercise of the powers conferred on the Government of India by Section 144 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, and the Indian Accountancy Board advises Government in all matters relating to the profession and assists it in maintaining the standards of the professional qualifications and conduct required of the members of the profession. The majority of the Board's members are elected by Registered Accountants, members of the profession from all parts of India. These arrangements have, however, all along been intended to be only transitional, to lead up to a system in which such accountants will, in autonomous association of themselves, largely assume the responsibilities involved in the discharge of their public duties by securing maintenance of the requisite standard of professional qualifications, discipline and conduct, the control of the Central Government being confined to a very few specified matters.

2. The Bill seeks to authorise the incorporation by statute of such an autonomous professional body and embodies a scheme which is largely the result of a detailed examination of the whole position by an ad hoc expert body constituted for the purpose, after taking into account the views expressed by the various Provincial Governments and public bodies concerned".

[THE] CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS ACT, 1949
(ACT XXXVIII OF 1949)[a]

[1st May 1949.]

An Act to make provision for the regulation of the [b][profession of chartered accountants].

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for the regulation of the [b][profession of chartered accountants] and for that purpose to establish an Institute of Chartered Accountants;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, dated 11-9-1948, Pt. V, p. 709.

---

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The Act appears to be an extremely ill-drafted one and no proper regard seems to have been paid to the necessity of providing for grades of misconduct and graduated forms of punishment

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—see Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e) [1-11-1956].

It has also been extended to—

Dadra and Nagar Haveli, by Regn. 6 of 1963 as amended by Regn. 2 of 1965 [1-7-1965];

Pondicherry, by Regn. 7 of 1963 [1-10-1963];

Goa, Daman and Diu, by Regn. 11 of 1963 [1-2-1965];

Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands, by Regn. 8 of 1965; and Jammu and Kashmir, by Act 25 of 1968 [15-8-1968].

[b] Substituted for "profession of accountants" by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 2.

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS ACT, 1949.

[a][(2) It extends to the whole of India [b][ ° ° ° ].]

(3) It shall come into force on such date[c] as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

[a] Substituted for sub-section (2) by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] The words "except the State of Jammu and Kashmir" which were substituted by Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), were omitted by Central Laws (Extension to Jammu and Kashmir) Act, 1968 (25 of 1968), S. 2 and Schedule [15-8-1968].

[c] The Act came into force on 1-7-1949—See Notification No. 10-A (4)/49 dated 1-6-1949, published in Gazette of India, dated 1-6-1949, Extraordinary, page 904.

2. Interpretation.—(1) In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "associate" means an associate member of the Institute;

(b) "chartered accountant" means a person who is a member of the Institute [a][ ° ° ° ]; appropriate thereto. AIR 1954 Cal 299 (300) (DB).

(2) The Chartered Accountants Act is a self-contained code of conduct of the Chartered Accountants. The aim of the Act was mainly to protect the public from unscrupulous, negligent or dishonest accountants; but for any or every unworthy or merely blameworthy conduct of a Chartered Accountant, action cannot be taken under the Act. The ends of justice require that the principles laid down and the directions given regarding complaint and prima facie opinion, charges, enquiry, quorum, report and penalty should be followed by the authorities as guide lines. AIR 1964 Cal 131 (139, 141) : 67 Cal WN 772 (DB).

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) As the object of the Act is not to inflict punishment on anyone but to protect the public from undesirable persons, namely unscrupulous, negligent or dishonest accountants bearing the stigma of a conviction or misconduct on their character the ordinary rule of construction in favour of the prospective applicability and against retrospective operation of a penal statute does not apply to its construction. The applicability of the Act to a misconduct proved to have been committed prior to its enactment is not therefore excluded. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (38, 39) (DB).

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) The words "to be in practice" have an extended meaning given to it by subsection (2) cl. (iv) the effect of which is to bring within the disciplinary jurisdiction of the council the conduct of Chartered Accountants even while they are rendering services otherwise than as

(c) "Council" means the Council of the Institute;

(d) "holder of a restricted certificate" means a person holding a permanent or temporary restricted certificate granted by °[State] Government under the Restricted Certificates Rules, 1932;

(e) "Institute" means the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India constituted under this Act;

(f) "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations made under this Act;

(g) "Register" means the Register of Members maintained under this Act;

(h) "registered accountant" means any person who has been enrolled on the Register of Accountants maintained by the Central Government under the Auditor's Certificates Rules, 1932;

(i) "year" means the period commencing on the 1st day of April of any year and ending on the 31st day of March of the succeeding year.

(2) A member of the Institute shall be deemed "to be in practice", when individually or in partnership with chartered accountants [b][in practice], he, in consideration of remuneration received or to be received,—

(i) engages himself in the practice of accountancy; or

(ii) offers to perform or performs services involving the auditing or verification of financial transactions, books, accounts, or records or the preparation, verification or certification of financial accounting and related statements or holds himself out to the public as an accountant; or

(iii) renders professional services or assistance in or about matters of principle or detail relating to accounting procedure or the recording, presentation or certification of financial facts or data; or

(iv) renders such other services as, in the opinion of the Council, are or may be rendered by a chartered accountant [b][in practice]; and the words "to be in practice" with their grammatical variations and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.

Explanation.—An associate or a fellow of the Institute who is a salaried employee of a chartered accountant [b][in practice] or °[a firm of such chartered accountants] [b][in practice] shall, notwithstanding such employment, be deemed to be in practice for the limited purpose of the training of articled clerks.

[a] The words "and who is in practice" were omitted by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 3 (i) (w.e.f. 1-7-1959).

[b] Inserted, ibid, S. 3 (ii) (a) (w.e.f. 1-7-1959).

[c] Substituted for "a firm of chartered accountants", ibid, S. 3 (ii) (b) (with effect from 1-7-1959).

CHAPTER II

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA

3. Incorporation of the Institute.—(1) All persons whose names are entered in the Register at the commencement of this Act and all persons who may hereafter have their names entered in the Register under the provisions of this Act, so long as they continue to have their names borne on the said Register, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, and all such persons shall be known as members of the Institute.

Section 2 — Note 1 (contd.)

a Chartered Accountants properly so called. AIR 1958 SC 72 (76, 77): 1958 SCR 371. (60 Cal WN 91, Reversed.)

(2) A Chartered Accountant who works as a liquidator under an order of the High Court must be deemed to be "in practice" in view of Reg. 78 read with sub-section (2)(iv) of this section. Therefore whatever he does as such liquidator is his conduct as a Chartered Accountant in the course of his practice. AIR 1958 SC 72 (76) : 1958 SCR 371. (60 Cal WN 91, Reversed.)

(2) The Institute shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and shall by its name sue or be sued.

4. Entry of names in the Register.—(1) Any of the following persons shall be entitled to have his name entered in the Register, namely,—

(i) any person who is a registered accountant or a holder of a restricted certificate at the commencement of this Act;

(ii) any person who has passed such examination and completed such training as may be prescribed for members of the Institute;

(iii) any person who has passed the examination for the Government Diploma in Accountancy or an examination recognised as equivalent thereto by the rules for the award of the Government Diploma in Accountancy before the commencement of this Act, and who, although not duly qualified to be registered as an accountant under the Auditors' Certificates Rules, 1932, fulfils such conditions as the Central Government may specify in this behalf;

(iv) any person who, at the commencement of this Act, is engaged in the practice of accountancy in the °[Part B] State and who, although not possessing the requisite qualifications to be registered as an accountant under the Auditors' Certificates Rules, 1932, fulfils such conditions as the Central Government may specify in this behalf;

*[(v) any person who has passed such other examination and completed such other training without India as is recognised by the Central Government or the Council as being equivalent to the examination and training prescribed for members of the Institute:

Provided that in the case of any person who is not permanently residing in India, the Central Government or the Council, as the case may be, may impose such further conditions as it may deem fit;]

(vi) any person domiciled in India, who at the commencement of this Act is studying for any foreign examination and is at the same time undergoing training, whether within or without India or, who, having passed such foreign examination, is at the commencement of this Act undergoing training, whether within or without India:

Provided that any such examination or training was recognised before the commencement of this Act for the purpose of conferring the right to be registered as an accountant under the Auditors' Certificates Rules, 1932, and provided further that such person passes the examination or completes the training within five years after the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every person belonging to the class mentioned in clause (i) of sub-section (1) shall have his name entered in the Register without the payment of any entrance fee.

(3) Every person belonging to any of the classes mentioned in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) of sub-section (1) shall have his name entered in the Register on application being made and granted in the prescribed manner and on payment of the prescribed fee, which shall not exceed rupees three hundred in any case.

(4) The Central Government shall take such steps as may be necessary for the purpose of having the names of all persons belonging to the class mentioned in clause (i) of sub-section (1) entered in the Register.

[a] Substituted for clause (v) of sub-section (1) by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1955 (40 of 1955), Sec. 2 (21-10-1955).

---

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) The name of a person to whom S. 4(1) applies is liable to be removed if it is found that he was, when his name was registered, subject to a disability although such disability related to a period prior to the passing of the Act. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (39) (DB).

5. Fellows and associates.—(1) The members of the Institute shall be divided into two classes designated respectively as associates and fellows.

(2) Any person shall, on his name being entered in the Register, be deemed to have become an associate member of the Institute and be entitled to use the letters A.C.A. after his name to indicate that he is an associate member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants.

[a][(3) A member, being an associate who has been in continuous practice in India for at least five years, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, or whether partly before and partly after the commencement of this Act, and a member who has been an associate for a continuous period of not less than five years and who possesses such qualifications as the council may prescribe with a view to ensuring that he has experience equivalent to the experience normally acquired as a result of continuous practice for a period of five years as a chartered accountant shall, on payment of the prescribed entrance fee, which shall not exceed rupees two hundred in any case, and on application made and granted in the prescribed manner, be entered in the Register as a fellow of the Institute and shall be entitled to use the letters F.C.A. after his name to indicate that he is a fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants.]

[a] Substituted for sub-section (3) by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 4 [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

6. Certificate of practice.—(1) No member of the Institute shall be entitled to practice [a][whether in India or elsewhere] unless he has obtained from the Council a certificate of practice:

[b][ ° ° ° ° ].

[c][(2) Every such member shall pay such annual fee for his certificate as may be prescribed, and such fee shall be payable on or before the 1st day of April in each year.]

[a] Inserted by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 5 (i).

[b] Proviso was added by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Ordinance, 1949 (No. XV of 1949), S. 2 [1-7-1949] which has expired. [The Proviso was to be deemed always to have been added.] The Proviso was as follows:—

"Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any person who immediately before the commencement of this Act, has been in practice as a registered accountant or a holder of a restricted certificate until one month has elapsed from the date of the first meeting of the Council."

[c] Substituted for sub-section (2) by Act 15 of 1959, S. 5 (ii) (w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

7. Members to be known as Chartered Accountants.—[a][Every member of the Institute in practice shall, and any other member may, use the designation of a chartered accountant and no member using such designation shall use any other description, whether in addition thereto or in substitution therefor]:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any such person from adding any other description or letters to his name, if entitled thereto, to indicate membership of such other Institute of Accountancy, whether in India or elsewhere, as may be recognised in this behalf by the Council, or any other qualification that he may possess, or to prohibit a firm, all the partners of which are members of the Institute and in practice, from being known by its firm name as Chartered Accountants.

[a] Substituted by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 6 [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

8. Disabilities.—Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 4, a person shall not be entitled to have his name entered in or borne on the Register if he—

(i) has not attained the age of twenty-one years at the time of his application for the entry of his name in the Register; or

[a][(ii) is of unsound mind and stands so adjudged by a competent Court; or]

(iii) is an undischarged insolvent; or

(iv) being a discharged insolvent, has not obtained from the Court a certificate stating that his insolvency was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part; or

(v) has been convicted by a competent Court, whether within or without India, of an offence involving moral turpitude and punishable with transportation or imprisonment or of an offence, not of a technical nature, committed by him in his professional capacity unless in respect of the offence committed he has either been granted a pardon or, on an application made by him in this behalf, the Central Government has, by an order in writing, removed the disability; or

[b][(vi) has been removed from membership of the Institute on being found on inquiry to have been guilty of professional or other misconduct:

Provided that a person who has been removed from membership for a specified period, shall not be entitled to have his name entered in the Register until the expiry of such period.]

[a] Substituted for the original clause (ii) by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 7 (i) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

[b] Substituted for clause (vi), ibid, S. 7 (ii) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

CHAPTER III

COUNCIL OF THE INSTITUTE

9. Constitution of the Council of the Institute.—(1) There shall be a Council of the Institute for the management of the affairs of the Institute and for discharging the functions assigned to it under this Act.

(2) The Council shall be composed of the following persons, namely:—

(a) [a][not more than twenty-four persons elected by members of the Institute] from amongst the fellows of the Institute chosen in such manner and from such regional constituencies as may be specified in this be-

---

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) Section 8, sub-sections (v) and (vi) lend support to the conclusion that disciplinary jurisdiction can be exercised against a Chartered Accountant even in respect of conduct which may not fall expressly within the inclusive definition contained in S. 22. AIR 1958 SC 72 (77): 1958 SCR 371.

(2) In the case of persons who under S. 4 are intended to have their names immediately and automatically registered after the commencement of the Act without any application and without payment of fees, the disqualification prescribed by cl. (v) must necessarily be a pre-Act conviction. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (39) (DB).

(3) Clause (vi) contemplates only that the persons concerned should have been guilty of conduct. which renders him unfit to be a member of the Institute. For its purpose the consideration where the person concerned had been guilty of such conduct and when the guilt was discovered is irrelevant. The provision contains no limitation as to the time when the conduct should take place or the time when an enquiry should take place or the guilt discovered and therefore it covers pre-Act misconduct as well. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (40) (DB).

(4) Where a member's name has been ordered by the High Court to be removed from the register that member becomes disentitled to have his name borne on the register or re-entered in it unless permitted by the Court. Clause (vi) of this section and S. 20(2) have not the effect of limiting the powers of the High Court in disciplinary matters but they only prescribe the duty of the council to carry out the orders of the Court and the right of the members to be readmitted in accordance with the order of the Court. half by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette; and

(b) [b][six persons] nominated by the Central Government.

[a] Substituted for "persons elected by members of the Institute" by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 8 (i) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

[b] Substituted for "five persons", ibid, S. 8 (ii) [w. e. f. 1-7-1959].

[a][10. Mode of Election to the Council.—(1) Elections under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of Section 9 shall be conducted in the prescribed manner.

(2) Where any dispute arises regarding any such election, the matter shall be referred by the Council to a Tribunal appointed by the Central Government in this behalf and the decision of such Tribunal shall be final:

Provided that no such reference shall be made except on an application made to the Council by an aggrieved party within thirty days from the date of the declaration of the result of the election.

(3) The expenses of the Tribunal shall be borne by the Council.]

[a] Substituted for the original section 10 by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 9 [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

11. Nomination in default of election or nomination.—If any body of persons referred to in Section 9 fails to elect any of the members of the Council which it is empowered under that section to elect, the Central Government may nominate a person duly qualified to fill the vacancy, and any person so nominated shall be deemed to be a member of the Council as if he had been duly elected.

12. President and Vice-President.—(1) The Council at its first meeting shall elect two of its members to be respectively the President and Vice-President thereof, and so often as the office of the President or the Vice-President becomes vacant the Council shall choose another person to be the President or the Vice-President as the case may be:

Provided that on the first constitution of the Council a member of the Council nominated in this behalf by the Central Government shall discharge the functions of the President, until such time as a President is elected under the provisions of this sub-section.

(2) The President shall be the Chief Executive Authority of the Council.

(3) The President or the Vice-President shall hold office for a period of one year from the date on which he is chosen but so as not to extend beyond his term of office as a member of the Council, and, subject to his being a member of the Council at the relevant time, he shall be eligible for re-election.

(4) [a][On the expiration of the duration of the Council, the President of the Council at the time of such expiration] shall continue to hold office and discharge such administrative and other duties as may be prescribed until such time as a new President shall have been elected and shall have taken over charge of his duties.

[a] Substituted for the words "On the dissolution of the Council, the President of the Council at the time of such dissolution" by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 10 [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

13. Resignation of membership and casual vacancies.—(1) Any member of the Council may at any time resign his membership by writing under his hand addressed to the President, and the seat of such member shall become vacant when such resignation is notified in the Official Gazette.

(2) A member of the Council shall be deemed to have vacated his seat if he is declared by the Council to have been absent without sufficient excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Council, or if his name is, for any cause, removed from the Register under the provisions of Section 20.

(2) A casual vacancy in the Council shall be filled by fresh election from the constituency concerned or by nomination by the Central Government, as the case may be, and the person elected or nominated to fill the vacancy shall hold office until the dissolution of the Council:

[a][Provided that no election shall be held to fill a casual vacancy occurring within six months prior to the date of the expiration of the duration of the Council, but such a vacancy may be filled by nomination by the Central Government after consultation with the President of the Council.]

(4) No act done by the Council shall be called in question on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Council.

[a] Proviso to sub-section (3) was added by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 11 [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

14. Duration and dissolution of Council.—[a][(1)] The duration of any Council constituted under this Act shall be three years from the date of its first meeting, on the expiry of which it shall stand dissolved and a new Council constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

[b][(2) Notwithstanding the expiration of the duration of a Council (hereinafter referred to as the former Council), the former Council shall continue to exercise its functions until a new Council is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and on such constitution, the former Council shall stand dissolved.]

[a] Section 14 was renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 12 [1-7-1959].

[b] Inserted, ibid [1-7-1959].

15. Functions of the Council.—(1) The duty of carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be vested in the Council.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the duties of the Council shall include—

(a) the examination of candidates for enrolment and the prescribing of fees therefor;

(b) the regulation of the engagement and training of [a][articled and audit clerks];

(c) the prescribing of qualifications for entry in the Register;

(d) the recognition of foreign qualifications and training for purposes of enrolment;

(e) the granting or refusal of certificates of practice under this Act;

(f) the maintenance and publication of a Register of persons qualified to practise as chartered accountants;

(g) the levy and collection of fees from [b][ ° ° ° ] members, examinees and other persons;

(h) the removal of names from the Register and the restoration to the Register of names which have been removed;

(i) the regulation and maintenance of the status and standard of professional qualifications of [c][members of the Institute];

(j) the carrying out, by financial assistance to persons other than members of the Council or in any other manner, of research in accountancy;

(k) the maintenance of a library and publication of books and periodicals relating to accountancy; and

(l) the exercise of disciplinary powers conferred by this Act.

[a] Substituted for the words "articled clerks" by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 13 (i) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

[b] The words "chartered accountants, associates" were omitted, ibid, S. 13 (ii) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

[c] Substituted for the words "chartered accountants", ibid, S. 13 (iii) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

16. Staff, remuneration and allowances.—(1) For the efficient performance of its duties, the Council may—

(a) appoint a Secretary who may also, if so decided by the Council, act as Treasurer;

(b) appoint such other officers and servants as it deems necessary;

(c) require and take from the Secretary or from any other officer or servant of the Council such security for the due performance of his duties, as the Council considers necessary;

(d) fix the salaries, fees, allowances and other conditions of service of the officers and servants of the Council;

(e) with the previous sanction of the Central Government, fix the allowances of the President, Vice-President and other members of the Council [a][and members of its committees];

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), on the first constitution of the Council the Secretary shall be a person appointed by the Central Government in consultation with the Council, and he shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government, but so as not to exceed a period of three years from the date of his appointment.

[b][(3) The Secretary of the Council shall be entitled to participate in the meetings of the Council but shall not be entitled to vote thereat.]

[a] Inserted by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 14 (i) [w. e. f. 1-7-1959].

[b] Inserted, ibid, S. 14 (ii) [w.e.f. 1-7-1959].

17. Committees of the Council.—(1) The Council shall constitute from amongst its members the following Standing Committees, namely :—

(i) an Executive Committee,

(ii) an Examination Committee, and

(iii) a Disciplinary Committee.

[a][(2) The Council may also form such other committees from amongst its members as it deems necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, and any committee so formed may, with the sanction of the Council, co-opt such other members of the Institute not exceeding two-thirds of the members of the committee as the committee thinks fit, and any member so co-opted shall be entitled to exercise all the rights of a member of the committee.]

---

Section 17 — Note 1

(1) The Disciplinary Committee being a business committee is validly constituted if it has a quorum of three members as required by R. 62 (b) of the Chartered Accountants Regulation. It is not necessary that all the members of the committee including the member nominated by the Government should be present. ('56) AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (207) : ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB).

(2) Where four members of Disciplinary Committee attended the first meeting at which the matter in dispute was taken up and those very members sat throughout the proceedings, completed the enquiry and made their report, there is no defect in the constitution of the Committee and no irregularity in its proceedings. It is not necessasy that the enquiry should be held by all the members of the Disciplinary Committee. AIR 1957 Cal 387 (389) (DB).

(3) Where the Disciplinary Committee in fact has five members but a report submitted by it is not signed by one of them it cannot be said that the report is a proper report. ('55) 59 Cal WN 969 (972) (DB).

[But see AIR 1964 Cal 131 (135, 136) : 67 Cal WN 772 (DB).]

(4) Where the enquiry was actually held by a Disciplinary Committee of a certain composition but the report was made by a committee which owing to the intervening re-constitution was of a totally different composition except as to one of its members if was held that the report was not a proper report on the basis of which the council could act. ('55) 59 Cal WN 969 (973) (DB).

(3) Each of the Standing Committees shall consist of the President and the Vice-President, ex officio, and three other members of the Council elected by the Council :

Provided that in the case of the Disciplinary Committee, out of the members to be elected, two shall be elected by the Council, and the third nominated by the Central Government from amongst the persons nominated to the Council by the Central Government.

(4) The President and the Vice-President of the Council shall be the Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively of each of the Standing Committees.

(5) Every member of the Standing Committee other than the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman shall hold office for one year from the date of his election, but subject to being a member of the Council, he shall be eligible for re-election.

(6) The Standing Committees shall exercise such functions and be subject to such conditions in the exercise thereof as may be prescribed.

[a] Substituted for sub-section (2), by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 15 [w. e. f. 1-7-1959].

18. Finance of the Council.—(1) There shall be established a fund under the management and control of the Council into which shall be paid all monies received by the Council and out of which shall be met all expenses and liabilities properly incurred by the Council.

(2) The Council may invest any money for the time being standing to the credit of the fund in any Government security or in any other security approved by the Central Government.

(3) The Council shall keep proper accounts of the fund distinguishing captial from revenue.

(4) The annual accounts of the Council shall be subject to audit by a chartered accountant [a][in practice] to be appointed annually by the Council :

Provided that no member of the Council or a person who is in partnership with such member shall be eligible for appointment as an auditor under this sub-section.

(5) As soon as may be practicable at the end of each year, but not later than the 30th day of September of the year next following, the Council shall cause to be published in the Gazette of India a copy of the audited accounts and the Report of the Council for that year, and copies of the said accounts and Report shall be forwarded to the Central Government and to all the members of the Institute.

(6) The Council may borrow from a scheduled bank, as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (II of 1934), or from the Central Government—

(a) any money required for meeting its liabilities on capital account on the security of the fund or on the security of any other assets for the time being belonging to it, or

(b) for the purpose of meeting current liabilities pending the receipt of income by way of temporary loan or overdraft.

[a] Inserted by the Chartered Accountants (Amendment) Act, 1959 (15 of 1959), S. 16 [w. e. f. 1-7-1959].

CHAPTER IV
REGISTER OF MEMBERS

19. Register.—(1) The Council shall maintain in the prescribed manner a Register of the Members of the Institute.

(2) The Register shall include the following particulars about every member of the Institute, namely,—

(a) his full name, date of birth, domicile, residential and professional addresses;

(b) the date on which his name is entered in the Register;
(c) his qualifications;
(d) whether he holds a certificate of practice; and

(a) who is dead; or
(b) from whom a request has been received to that effect; or
(c) who has not paid any prescribed fee required to be paid by him; or
(d) who is found to have been subject at the time when his name was entered in the Register, or who at any time thereafter has become subject, to any of the disabilities mentioned in Section 8, or who for any other reason has ceased to be entitled to have his name borne on the Register.

(2) The Council shall remove from the Register the name of any member in respect of whom an order has been passed under this Act removing him from membership of the Institute.]

Section 20 — Note 1

(1) Mere non-payment of subscription in the absence of an order by the council is not sufficient to bring about removal of member's name from list of members. ('54) 58 Cal WN 950 (951) (DB).

(2) If the Chartered Accountant was under a disability contemplated by S. 8 at the time of his registration his name can be removed from the register irrespective of the fact that the disability occurred before the commencement of the Act. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (39) (DB).

(3) Section 20 (1) (c) read with item (vi) of S. 8 clearly shows that the Act is not limited to post-Act conduct alone but to the misconduct committed before or after the Act. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (40) (DB).

(4) The words "found by the High Court to have been guilty of conduct which renders him unfit to be a member of the institute" in sub-section (2) refers to the actual order made by the High Court in exercise of its discretion on its own view of the fitness of the Chartered Accountant to remain a member of the institute and not to any finding by it of the Accountant's guilt in regard to some act or omission carrying with it a liability for removal from membership under the provisions of the Act. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (425) (DB).

(5) Sub-section (2) must be read subject to the powers of the High Court under S. 21(3). It does not limit the powers of the High Court to passing only an order for removal and not for any lesser punishment whatever may be degree of the gravity of the misconduct. ## MISCONDUCT

21. Procedure in inquiries relating to misconduct of members of Institute.— (1) Where on receipt of information by, or of a complaint made to, it, the Council is prima facie of opinion that any member of the Institute has been guilty of any professional or other misconduct, the Council shall refer the case to the Disciplinary Committee, and the Disciplinary Committee shall thereupon hold such inquiry and in such manner as may be prescribed, and shall report the result of its inquiry to the Council.

(2) If on receipt of such report the Council finds that the member of the Institute is not guilty of any professional or other misconduct, it shall record its finding accordingly and direct that the proceedings shall be filed or the complaint shall be dismissed, as the case may be.

(3) If on receipt of such report the Council finds that the member of the Institute is guilty of any professional or other misconduct, it shall record a finding accordingly and shall proceed in the manner laid down in the succeeding sub-sections.

(4) Where the finding is that a member of the Institute has been guilty of a professional misconduct specified in the First Schedule, the Council shall afford to the member an opportunity of being heard before orders are passed against him on the case, and may thereafter make any of the following orders, namely :—

(a) reprimand the member;

(b) remove the name of the member from the Register for such period, not exceeding five years, as the Council thinks fit :

Provided that where it appears to the Council that the case is one in which the name of the member ought to be removed from the Register for a period

2. Proceedings of disciplinary committee.
3. Findings of the Council.
4. Powers of the High Court.
5. Orders that High Court can pass.
6. Mitigating circumstances.
7. Appeal against order of High Court.

Topic Indicator

Professional misconduct — See S. 22 and Sch. I.
Scope of enquiry — See Note 1.
New charge by Disciplinary Committee — See Note 2.
"Final order" under sub-section (3) of the section, as it stood before amendment by Act 15 of 1959 — See Note 5.
Sub-section (6) — See Note 5.

1. "Cause an enquiry to be held". — (1) The object of the proceedings contemplated by the Act is to test the fitness of the person to continue in the profession when allegations have been made against his conduct. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (44) (DB).

(2) In view of S. 61 (3) of the Income-tax Act the Chartered Accountant representing an assessee before the Income-tax Tribunal functions as a Chartered Accountant and, therefore, can be proceeded against under this Act for any misconduct connected with such work. AIR 1957 Cal 449 (457) (DB).

(3) A Chartered Accountant has a statutory right to an enquiry by the Council if he is charged with misconduct. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (134) (DB) (Bom).

(4) The power of the Institute to enquire with regard to misconduct is not limited to the instances and circumstances mentioned in the schedule but extends to any conduct which in its opinion renders a member unfit to continue as such. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (134) (DB) (Bom) * AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (207) : ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB) * AIR 1968 Delhi 283 (290) (DB) * (1967) 2 Mad LW 450 (451) : 80 Mad LW 608 (DB). (The definition of professional misconduct under S. 22 is not an exhaustive one and acts of omission and commission specified in the schedule are only illustrative).

(5) An enquiry may be held by the Council both when it thinks that a member has been guilty of such conduct as, if proved, will render him unfit to be a member and when it thinks that a member has been guilty of a lesser degree of misconduct. AIR 1954 Cal 299 (300) (DB).

(6) The Council as a condition precedent to directing an enquiry has to form only an opinion that the allegation if proved would amount to a miscnduct exceeding five years or permanently, it shall not make any order referred to in clause (a) or clause (b), but shall forward the case to the High Court with its recommendations thereon.

(5) Where the misconduct in respect of which the Council has found any member of the Institute guilty is misconduct other than any such misconduct as is referred to in sub-section (4), it shall forward the case to the High Court with its recommendations thereon.

(6) On receipt of any case under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5), the High Court shall fix a date for the hearing of the case and shall cause notice of the date so fixed to be given to the member of the Institute concerned, the Council and to the Central Government, and shall afford such member, the Council and the Central Government an opportunity of being heard, and may thereafter make any of the following orders, namely :—

(a) direct that the proceedings be filed, or dismiss the complaint, as the case may be;

(b) reprimand the member;

(c) remove him from membership of the Institute either permanently or for such period as the High Court thinks fit;

(d) refer the case to the Council for further inquiry and report.

(7) Where it appears to the High Court that the transfer of any case pending before it to another High Court, will promote the ends of justice or tend to the general convenience of the parties, it may so transfer the case, subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit to impose, and the High Court to which such case is transferred shall deal with it as if the case had been forwarded to it by the Council.

and not as to the guilt of the Accountant as to the misconduct itself. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (424) (DB) * AIR 1965 Punj 295 (303) : ILR (1965) 1 Punj 220.

(7) In an enquiry commenced upon information before Reg. 11A was added all that was necessary was to observe the principles of natural justice. Therefore, where the Accountant had notice of the charges and also a proper hearing there was sufficient compliance with law and the proceedings are not vitiated by the failure to give 14 days time for filing written statement as required by Reg. 11 which applies only to inquiries started on complaints. AIR 1953 Mad 310 (311) : ILR (1953) Mad 357 (DB).

(8) The withdrawal of an allegation against a chartered accountant is not always a reason for not pursuing the enquiry started against him. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (44) (DB) * AIR 1966 Cal 468 (472) : (1965) 11 Fac LR 167 (DB).

(9) The Institute can start enquiry against an Accountant for the conduct done before the passing of the Chartered Accountants Act, if such conduct if proved, would amount to misconduct under the law in force even before the passing of the Act. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (44) (DB).

(10) Proceedings under the section can be initiated against a past member also because what is essential is the membership of the person at the time of the commission of the misconduct and not at the time when proceedings are taken. ('54) 58 Cal WN 950 (951, 952) (DB).

(11) Council has jurisdiction to call for written statement of the Chartered Accountant concerned before referring case to Disciplinary Committee for purpose of forming prima facie opinion as contemplated by S. 21(1). Formation of prima facie opinion is implicit in decision of Council to refer the case for enquiry to Disciplinary Committee. AIR 1964 Cal 131 (134) : 67 Cal WN 772.

2. Proceedings of Disciplinary Committee.—(1) An inquiry made by the Disciplinary Committee with the proper quorum prescribed by the Regulations is not vitiated by the absence of the member nominated by the Government. AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (207) : ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB).

(2) A finding given by a disciplinary committee of a different composition from the one which held the enquiry and heard the witnesses is not a proper finding. (1955) 59 Cal WN 969 (973, 974) (DB).

(3) Procedure in inquiries relating to misconduct of members — Duties and functions of Council and Disciplinary Committee — Principles fully indicated AIR 1964 Cal 134 (139, 140, 141): 67 Cal WN 772 (DB) * AIR 1964 Mad 398 (400, 401): 77 Mad LW 207.

(4) A misconduct for which a disciplinary committee investigates must be basically a misconduct. It is not necessary nor it is proper to attempt to make any rigid distinction of the word 'misconduct' under the Act and the First and Second Schedules given thereunder.

Explanation I.—In this section "High Court" means the highest civil Court of appeal, not including the Supreme Court, exercising jurisdiction in the area in which the person whose conduct is being inquired into carries on business, or has his principal place of business at the commencement of the inquiry:

Provided that where the cases relating to two or more members of the Institute have to be forwarded by the Council to different High Courts, the Central Government shall, having regard to the ends of justice and the general convenience of the parties, determine which of the High Courts to the exclusion of others shall hear the cases against all the members.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this section "member of the Institute" includes a person who was a member of the Institute on the date of the alleged misconduct although he has ceased to be a member of the Institute at the time of the inquiry.

(8) For the purposes of any inquiry under this section, the Council and the Disciplinary Committee shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely :—

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) the discovery and production of any document; and

(c) receiving evidence on affidavit.]

(5) If there is no charge, against Chartered Accountant then it is not for the Disciplinary Committee to make general or roving investigation on some other points and hold him guilty on that ground. (1962-63) 67 Cal WN 475: (1963) 6 Fac LR 153.

(6) Disciplinary Committee can add new charges only on basis of material referred to it by Council and they must be clear and specific. AIR 1965 Punj 295 (303): ILR (1965) 1 Punj 220 (DB).

(7) Reference made by Council to Disciplinary Committee should be made part of record. AIR 1965 Punj 295 (300, 302): ILR (1965) 1 Punj 220 (DB).

3. Findings of the Council. — (1) In giving finding the Council must determine which of the specific varieties of misconduct as stated in the Act, a member has been guilty of. ('57) 1957-27 Com Cas 59 (63) (DB) (Cal).

(2) A bald statement that the Accountant is guilty of misconduct within the meaning of S. 22 without specifying the type and variety of the misconduct with reference to the clauses of the Schedule or the items added to it by the Council is not a complete finding. AIR 1957 Cal 387 (389) (DB) * AIR 1957 Cal 449 (453) (DB).

(3) Where the Council is unable to accept the view of the Disciplinary Committee and comes to a different conclusion to the High Court to give its own reasons for taking a different view. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (44) (DB).

(4) The charge of professional misconduct must be clearly proved and should not be inferred from mere ground for suspiction however reasonable, or what may be mere error or indiscretion the enquiry in a serious cases of professional misconduct should proceed on formulated charges not only in fairness to the person charged but in order that evidence may relatively bear on the particular issue and the evidence should be carefully taken and judged according to the ordinary standard of proof. AIR 1968 Delhi 283 (290, 291) (DB).

4. Powers of the High Court. — (1) Unless, there is a gross violation or disregard of the provisions of Chartered Accountants Act or the Regulations made thereunder or a gross and utter disregard of certain well-known principles of natural justice and fairness or obvious disregard of essential considerations of law or fact, the High Court should not be too eager to interfere with the findings of professional bodies like the Council of the Chartered Accountants of India and its Disciplinary Committee. AIR 1964 Cal 178 (181) : (1963) 6 Fac LR 273 (DB).

(2) The powers of the High Court under Section 21, sub-section (3) (as it stood before amendment by Act 15 of 1959) are wide enough to enable the High Court to adopt any course which in its opinion will enable the High Court to do complete justice between the parties. AIR 1958 SC 72 (77, 78): 1958 SCR 371.

(3) The section does not curtail or take away any right which an Accountant had under the Auditor's Certificate Rules. On the other hand, it has enhanced those rights by prescribing a judicial enquiry with a statutory right to be heard before final orders are passed in place of the mere administrative enquiry provided by the Rules. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (134, 135) (DB) (Bom).

(3) The High Court under Section 21, sub-section (3) can take action against a member who is guilty of conduct which renders him unfit to be a member of the Institute, even though such conduct may not attract any provisions of the schedule. AIR 1958 SC 72 (77): 1958 SCR 371.

(5) A Chartered Accountant can be removed by the High Court in respect of a misconduct committed before the passing of the Act. The Accountant has no vested right for a trial by the Central Government under the Auditors' Certificate Rules which was in force at the time of the commission of the misconduct. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (135) (DB) (Bom).

(6) Chartered Accountant misappropriating funds of company in liquidation. — Proper forum for action is normally the High Court under Companies Act and not Disciplinary Committee under Chartered Accountants Act. AIR 1966 Cal 468 (469): (1965) 11 Fac LR 167.

(7) Misconduct while working as a liquidator will amount to professional misconduct on the part of the Chartered Accountant even in the narrow and restricted sense and he can be dealt with on that basis and the High Court can pass order under Section 21, sub-s. (3). ('58) AIR 1958 SC 72 (76): 1968 SCR 371 * (1961) 31 Com Cas 271 (273) (Punj).

(8) Where the specific misconduct alleged is not established and in respect of a different type of misconduct there is neither a charge nor was there an enquiry by the council the Accountant cannot be found guilty of the misconduct not alleged even if on the facts found such a misconduct could be established. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (44) (DB).

(9) The fresh plea, that the Accountant appeared before the Income-tax Tribunal not in the capacity of an Accountant but in the capacity of an Income-tax practitioner, which plea was not raised before the Institute or Disciplinary Committee cannot be allowed in the enquiry before a High Court, in a reference under Section 21 (1). AIR 1957 Cal 449 (457) (DB).

(10) Council of Institute of Chartered Accountants or its Disciplinary Committee should be allowed to appear and given a hearing. AIR 1964 Cal 131 (134): 67 Cal WN 772 (DB).

5. Orders that High Court can pass. — (1) Under the section as it stood before its amendment by Act 15 of 1959, it was open to the High Court on a reference under Section 21 to pass such order as appears to the Court to be fit and proper having regard to the circumstances of the case. It was not bound whenever it found an accountant guilty of misconduct, to order his removal. S. 20 (2) of the Act must be read subject to the powers of the High Courts under Section 21 (3) of the Act. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 303 (305) (DB) (Mad) * AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (208): ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB) * ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (135) (DB) (Bom) * AIR 1960 Mad 122 (123, 124): 1960 Cri LJ 356: (1959) 2 Mad LJ 542 (DB).

(2) The High Court is entitled to impose penalties less severe than removal from the membership register in cases where the misconduct is not of a sufficient gravity so as to entail such removal. AIR 1954 Cal 299 (300) (DB) * (1960) 2 Orissa JD 122 : ILR (1960) Cut 217. (The High Court is competent to pass orders appropriate to the circumstances of the case without directing the permanent removal of the name of the respondent from the register of the Institute.)

(3) The power of the High Court under sub-section (3) (before amendment by Act 15 of 1957) can be exercised to award punishment by way of censure, reprimand, suspension or removal of a member. AIR 1952 Nag 393 (394, 395): ILR (1953) Nag 324: 1953 Cri LJ 46 (DB) * AIR 1953 Mad 310 (312): ILR (1953) Mad 357 (DB) * ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (135) (DB) (Bom).

(4) The power of the High Court to impose lesser penalty can be exercised even in cases in which the misconduct is of the kind enumerated in the schedule as meriting removal. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (425) (DB) * AIR 1968 SC 1104: (1968) 2 SCJ 785. (AIR 1964 Cal 131, Reversed.) * AIR 1963 Mad 99: 1963 (1) Cri LJ 302: (1963) 2 Mad LJ 42 (DB).

(5) The temporary removal of an accountant who has not only made a false statement but without contrition persisted in defending the statement as true is justified. AIR 1952 Punj 259 (261) (DB).

(6) An order imposing a lesser punishment can be taken as a finding by the High Court of its view on the question of the fitness of the Chartered Accountant to be a member rather than as a finding of his liability in regard to some act or omission which carries with it under the Act the consequence of removal. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (424) (DB).

[a][22. Professional misconduct defined.—For the purposes of this Act, the expression "professional misconduct" shall be deemed to include any act or omission specified in any of the Schedules, but nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or abridge in any way the power conferred or duty cast on the Council under sub-section (1) of Section 21 to inquire into the conduct of any member of the Institute under any other circumstances.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 21.

Section 21 — Note 5 (contd.)

(7) Section 20 (2) when read with Section 21 (3) (as it stood before amendment by Act 15 of 1959) only prescribe the duty of the Council to carry out the order of the High Court and the right of a member to be readmitted in accordance with the order of the High Court. AIR 1952 Nag 393 (394): ILR (1953) Nag 324: 1953 Cri LJ 46 (DB).

(8) The word 'final' in Section 21 (3) (as it stood before amendment by Act 15 of 1959) and the procedure mentioned in (a), (b) and (c) of Section 20 (1) suggest that there should be no undue or unreasonable delay by the office of the High Court in disposing of references made under Section 21. AIR 1964 Cal 178 (181): (1963) 6 Fac LR 273 (DB).

(9) Complaint alleging contravention of Section 27 — Report of Disciplinary Committee that charges were not proved — On reference to High Court under Section 21 none present on behalf of Government on date of hearing — Finding of Committee accepted and charges held not proved. (1955) Madh BLR (Civ) 633: 1956 Madh BLJ 61.

6. Mitigating circumstances. — (1) The ends of justice require that some penalty should be inflicted upon a person for professional misconduct, but at the same time it may be satisfied by the infliction of a moderate punishment. AIR 1957 Cal 449 (458) (DB).

(2) The young age of the accountant that he had been aided and abetted by the complainant himself and that if a severe punishment were imposed it would altogether blast the career of the accountant are considerations which the Count can take into account in favour of the accountant. AIR 1957 Cal 449 (458) (DB).

(3) Where the facts showed that there had been only an error of judgment which amounted to a technical misconduct and that the record of the accountant was blemishless and there had been no mercenary consideration it was held that a mere warning was sufficient to meet the necessities of the case. AIR 1953 Mad 310 (313): ILR (1953) Mad 357 (DB).

(4) That the act amounting to misconduct was not induced by monetary consideration and further had been done by inexperienced accountant within a very short time after the application of the Act to Hyderabad were taken into consideration to let off the accountant with a warning. AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (208): ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB).

(5) Where a person signed a certificate as an accountant even before his enrolment impelled by a desire to oblige a relative and not for enriching himself it was held that his case could be viewed leniently. AIR 1955 Punj 244 (245) (DB).

(6) That the irregularity not detected is not likely to result in serious consequences and that the auditor in default has an unblemished record are sufficient justification for viewing his lapse leniently. AIR 1957 Cal 387 (393) (DB).

(7) Where an accountant does something which is improper and contrary to the traditions of the profession motivated by mercenary considerations the facts that he is long in practice and that it is his first misconduct and that his carrer will be blasted are not sufficient to take a lenient view. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (137, 138) (DB) (Bom).

(8) When an accountant has proved himself to be capable of such infamous conduct by which he will be a constant danger to the public as also to young men aspiring to enter the profession of accounts, the Court cannot let him go with anything less than the maximum punishment of removing his name from the Register and debarr him permanently from practising. ('57) 1957-27 Com Cas 59 (64) (Cal).

(9) A mere warning is not sufficient for a Chartered Accountant who is capable of making misstatement to his own Institute in regard to the discharge of his professional duties in the interest of a friend or a protege but an order of suspension is precisely the kind of penalty which would meet the ends of justice in such a case. AIR 1954 Cal 299 (301) (DB).

7. Appeal against order of High Court. — (1) An order passed by the High Court upon a reference under this section is not open to appeal to the Supreme Court. AIR 1953 Mad 79 (80): ILR (1953) Mad 862 (DB).

Section 22 — Note 1

(1) The section contemplates by the use of the word "include" also cases of misconduct consisting of acts and omissions which are not covered by the clauses of the Schedule. (A Chartered Accountant who has completely abdicated his duty in having failed to verify the basis of the transfer of a large sum from one account to another and has not cared to ascertain the effect it would have on the recovery of the debt is guilty of gross negligence.)

(2) In respect of matters which are not specified in the schedule, it will be for the Council and ultimately for the Court to decide whether the acts or omissions complained of are such as to render a delinquent unfit to be a member of the Institute. AIR 1953 Mad 310 (311, 312): ILR (1953) Mad 357 (DB) * AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (207): ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB) * ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 130 (134) (DB) (Bom).

(3) The larger powers and jurisdiction conferred by Section 21 (1) can be invoked by the Council to hold enquiries into the conduct of the Accountant even when the conduct may not fall expressly within the inclusive definition contained in the earlier part of this section. AIR 1958 SC 72 (77): 1958 SCR 371.

(4) The condition that some one or other should have a relief against the auditor for a breach of duty owed to him is not a sine qua non of actions amounting to professional misconduct under Section 22, Chartered Accountants Act. AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (207, 208): ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB).

Section 30 — Note 1

(1) Clause (J) of sub-section (2) does not by itself create a right in the Chartered Accountants to charge premia from articled clerks but only provides the council with the power, if a provision is otherwise made for charging premia or even if a practice of charging such premia grows up, to regulate the premia that may become chargeable by fixing its upper and lower limits. Therefore, in the absence of any right conferred by the Act itself it cannot be said that a regulation which provides for the refund of the premia is one contrary to the provisions of Clause (J) of Sub-section (2).

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters :—

(a) the standard and conduct of examinations under this Act;

(b) the qualifications for the entry of the name of any person in the Register as a member of the Institute;

(c) the conditions under which any examination or training may be treated as equivalent to the examination and training prescribed for members of the Institute;

(d) the conditions under which any foreign qualification may be recognised;

(e) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which applications for entry in the Register may be made;

(f) the fees payable for membership of the Institute and the annual fees payable by associates and fellows of the Institute in respect of their certificates;

(g) the manner in which elections to the Council and the Regional Councils may be held;

(h) the particulars to be entered in the Register;

(i) the functions of Regional Councils;

[b][(j) the training of articled and audit clerks, the fixations of limits within which premia may be charged from articled clerks and the cancellation of articles and termination of audit service for misconduct or for any other sufficient cause];

(k) the regulation and maintenance of the status and standard of professional qualifications of members of the Institute;

(l) the carrying out of research in accountancy;

(m) the maintenance of a library and publication of books and periodicals on accountancy;

(n) the management of the property of the Council and the maintenance and audit of its accounts;

(o) the summoning and holding of meetings of the Council, the times and places of such meetings, the conduct of business thereat and the number of members necessary to form a quorum;

(p) the powers, duties and functions of the President and the Vice-President of the Council;

(q) the functions of the Standing and other committees and the conditions subject to which such functions shall be discharged;

(r) the terms of office, and the powers, duties and functions of the Secretary and other officers and servants of the Council;

(s) the exercise of disciplinary powers conferred by this Act, and

PART I

PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT IN RELATION TO CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS IN PRACTICE

A chartered accountant in practise shall be deemed to be guilty of professional misconduct, if he—

(1) allows any person to practise in his name as a chartered accountant unless such person is also a chartered accountant in practice and is in partnership with or employed by himself;

(2) pays or allows or agrees to pay or allow, directly or indirectly, any share, commission or brokerage in the fees or profits of his professional business, to any person other than a member of the Institute or a partner or a retired partner or the legal representative of a deceased partner;

Explanation.—In this item "partner" includes a person residing outside India with whom a chartered accountant in practice has entered into partnership which is not in contravention of Item (4) of this Part.

(3) accepts or agrees to accept any part of the profits of the professional work of a lawyer, auctioneer, broker or other agent who is not a member of the institute;

(4) enters into partnership with any person other than a chartered accountant in practice or a person resident without India who but for his residence abroad would be entitled to be registered as a member under clause (v) of sub-section (1) of Section 4 or whose qualifications are recognised by the Central Government or the Council for the purpose of permitting such partnerships, provided that the chartered accountant shares in the fees or profits of the business of the partnership both within and without India;

(5) secures, either through the services of a person not qualified to be his partner or by means which are not open to a chartered accountant, any professional business;

(6) solicits clients or professional work either directly or indirectly, by circular, advertisement, personal communication or interview or by any other means;

(7) advertises his professional attainments or services, or uses any designation or expressions other than chartered accountant on professional documents, visiting cards, letter heads or sign boards, unless it be a degree of a University established by law in India or recognised by the Central Government or a title indicating membership of the Institute of Chartered Accountants or of any other institution that has been recognised by the Central Government or may be recognised by the Council;

SCHEDULE I

[Note:— The case law given below is under the old Schedule as it stood before its amendment by Act 15 of 1959.]

Sch. I, Part I, Cl. (3) — Note 1

(1) Chartered Accountant is not guilty of misconduct under Clause (c) (of old Schedule) by entrusting the conduct of the Income-tax cases of his clients to an employee who is in his pay. The mere fact that the employee is described in the authorisation to appear as Income-tax practitioner for the purpose of Section 61, Income-tax Act does not make him a lawyer looking to the assessee for fees. Hence neither in fact nor in law can there be any agreement between him and his master for sharing of the fees. ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 346 (347).

(8) accepts a position as auditor previously held by another chartered accountant or a restricted State auditor without first communicating with him in writing;

(9) accepts an appointment as auditor of a company without first ascertaining from it whether the requirements of Section [a][225] of the Companies Act, 1956, in respect of such appointment have been duly complied with;

(10) charges or offers to charge, accepts or offers to accept in respect of any professional employment fees which are based on a percentage of profits or which are contingent upon the findings or results of such employment, except in cases which are permitted under any regulations made under this Act;

(11) engages in any business or occupation other than the profession of chartered accountants unless permitted by the Council so to engage:

Provided that nothing containing herein shall disentitle a chartered accountant from being a director of a company, unless he or any of his partners is interested in such company as an auditor;

(12) accepts a position as auditor previously held by some other chartered accountant or a restricted State auditor in such conditions as to constitute under-cutting;

(13) allows a person not being a member of the Institute or a member not being his partner to sign on his behalf or on behalf of his firm, any balance-sheet, profit and loss account report or financial statements.

[a] Substituted for the Figures 226 by the Repealing and Amending Act 1964 (52 of 1964), S. 3 and Sch. II [28-12-1964].

PART II

PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT IN RELATION TO MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE IN SERVICE

A member of the Institute (other than a member in practice) shall be deemed to be guilty of professional misconduct, if he being an employee of any company, firm or person—

(a) pays or allows or agrees to pay directly or indirectly to any person any share in the emoluments of the employment undertaken by the member;

(b) accepts or agrees to accept any part of fees, profits or gains from a lawyer, a chartered accountant or broker engaged by such company, firm or person or agent or customer of such company, firm or person by way of commission or gratification;

(c) discloses confidential information acquired in the course of his employment except as and when required by law or except as permitted by the employer.

Sch. I, Part I, Cl. (8) — Note 1

(1) Clause (h) (of old Schedule) is not confined only to the acceptance without notice of the position of the auditor before the expiry of the year of office of another auditor but extends also to such acceptance after the expiry of the year for a subsequent year. As the words "position as auditor" are of general character it cannot be said that each year's tenure is independant of the office during other years. ('52) 1952-22 Com Cas 303 (305) (DB) (Mad).

Sch. I, Part I, Cl. (10) — Note 1

(1) An agreement that the accountant would be paid ten percent of the amount obtained as relief in a pending Income-tax appeal, even on the assumption that it includes the fee payable to the Counsel, offends Cl. (m) inasmucb as the fees payable to him after deducting the Counsel's fee will be an amount computed on a percentage basis. AIR 1957 Cal 449 (456) (DB).

PART III

PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT IN RELATION TO MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE GENERALLY

A member of the Institute, whether in practice or not, shall be deemed to be guilty of professional misconduct, if he—

(1) includes in any statement return or form to be submitted to the Council any particulars knowing them to be false;

(2) not being a fellow styles himself as a fellow;

(3) does not supply the information called for, or does not comply with the requirements asked for, by the Council or any of its Committees.

Sch. II, Part I, Cl. (7) — Note 1

(1) In auditing the accounts of a Joint Stock Company the Accountant has a duty to investigate whether the accounts are correct, as in such a case the audit is intended for the protection of share-holders. AIR 1953 Mad 152 (163, 164): ILR (1953) Mad 534 (DB) * AIR 1956 Cal 414 (419, 420) (DB).

(2) An Accountant if he does not take reasonable care and skill before he comes to believe that what he cretifies is true must be held to have been negligent. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (420) (DB).

(3) What is reasonable care and skill must depend on the circumstances of each case. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (420) (DB).

(4) An accountant even when he generally displays highest degree of care and skill but falls short of the strict duty even in one instance he is guilty of negligence. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (420) (DB).

(5) In judging whether a Chartered Accountant auditing a company's accounts exercised reasonable care and skill, matters which have subsequently transpired are not relevant. All that has to be seen is how the matters appeared or ought to have appeared to a man of reasonable care and skill at the time the accounts were audited by him. ('56) AIR 1956 Cal 414 (420) (DB).

(6) Reasonable skill and care in the case of a company auditor do not require him to begin with suspicion and proceed to detect fraud or lie unless some information has reached him exciting his suspicion or which ought to excite his suspicion as a professional man of reasonable competence. ('56) AIR 1956 Cal 414 (419) (DB) * ('54) AIR 1954 Mad 1080 (1083, 1084): 1954 Cri LJ 1634 (DB).

(7) The Auditor is guilty of gross negligence in the conduct of his professional duties when he does not make enquiries although there is enough appearing on the face of the accounts to provoke suspicion. AIR 1954 Mad 1080 (1084): 1954 Cri LJ 1634 (DB).

(8) An accountant auditing a company's account fails to exercise skill or care of any kind where he without scrutiny of the books of the company passes the accounts, accepting the statements of the management for them. AIR 1957 Cal 387 (393) (DB) * AIR 1963 Mad 99 (102): 1963 (1) Cri LJ 302: (1963) 2 Mad LJ 42 (DB) * AIR 1960 Mad 122 (123): 1960 Cri LJ 356: (1959) 2 MLJ 542 (DB). (Auditor himself to verify assets of Company and not to rely on verification done by special examiners appointed by Company.)

(9) If the subject-matter is not capable of direct verification and to verify properly the result presented in the balance sheet of a company would require investigation rather than checking and there is nothing to excite the suspicion of the accountant auditing the accounts he can rely upon the statements of the management. If in doing so he is himself deceived he cannot be held to have failed in his duty. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (420) (DB).

(10) Where the auditor, after feeling the necessity of confirmation of cash balance and asking for it, from the branches of a bank hurried to certify the balance sheet before the confirmation was received, the auditor is guilty of negligence. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (423) (DB).

(11) An accountant auditing a company's accounts is at least guilty of negligence when, to inform the share-holders of suspicious facts, he employs an ambiguous language not capable of conveying definite information. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (422) (DB).

(12) The duty that an accountant owes is to all who might act upon the strength of his statement and whom he should have in his contemplation when

(8) fails to obtain sufficient information to warrant the expression of an opinion or his exceptions are sufficiently material to negate the expression of an opinion;

(9) fails to invite attention to any material departure from the generally accepted procedure of audit applicable to the circumstances;

(10) fails to keep moneys of his client in a separate banking account or to use such moneys for purposes for which they are intended.

he makes his statement. Therefore when he certifies the sales of a newspaper without checking up the facts with reference to the accounts to boost up the sales of his client he is guilty of gross negligence. AIR 1956 Hyd 205 (207): ILR (1956) Hyd 591 (DB).

(13) Where a matter is outside the province of accountancy and an auditor acting with reasonable care would have asked for information and explanation and would have sought legal opinion, the failure to do so betrays negligence. AIR 1957 Cal 33 (42) (DB).

(14) An auditor representing an assessee owes no duty to the Income-tax department and therefore is not guilty of any negligence in not investigating himself into the correctness of the accounts produced by the assessee. AIR 1953 Mad 152 (153, 154): ILR (1953) Mad 534 (DB).

(15) An accountant under an engagement to appear in an Income-tax case is guilty of negligence if he fails to appear and makes no other arrangement for appearance in the case. No such result follows where he has been thrown over by the assessee himself. AIR 1957 Cal 449 (454) (DB).

(16) The business of a Chartered Accountant as an auditor includes the work before the Income-tax Tribunals. Therefore such work is within the scope of the duties of an articled clerk under him and so the Accountant cannot be said to have violated either Rule 44 or Reg. 38 in engaging the articled clerk to conduct the proceedings in Income-tax cases. AIR 1953 Mad 346 (348) (DB).

(17) Misconduct implies failure to act honestly and reasonably either according to the ordinary and natural standard or according to the standards of a particular profession, but error or misinterpretation of law and specially holding one view or another over a debatable construction cannot be a ground for the allegation of professional misconduct. (1963) 67 Cal WN 475.

(18) Remuneration paid to Managing Director — Practice of Company to include it in establishment charges — No concealment to share-holders that remuneration was being paid to the Managing Director — Failure of Chartered Accountant to show, such remuneration in balance sheet separately — Chartered Accountant held could not be said to be guilty of any misconduct within meaning of schedule. (1963) 67 Cal WN 475.

Sch. II, Part I, Cl. (8) — Note 1

(1) An auditor before certifying a balance sheet has to verify its substantial accuracy in accordance with the particulars specified in the Articles of Association and not merely its arithmetical accuracy on the basis of a tally made with the figures in the books of account. AIR 1954 Mad 1080 (1083, 1084): 1954 Cri LJ 1634 (DB).

(2) When the accounts on the face of it provoke suspicion the auditor is bound to make enquiries. AIR 1954 Mad 1080 (1084): 1954 Cri LJ 1634 (DB).

(3) An auditor who certifies an account accepting the statement of the management even in regard to matters which are capable of direct verification commits a flagrant breach of duties. AIR 1957 Cal 387 (390).

(4) Failure to verify the cash balance as stated in the balance sheet on material dates, and also subsequent omission at the time of next inspection, to examine the intermediate transactions, is misconduct within the meaning of Clause (r) (of old Schedule). AIR 1954 Mad 1080 (1082): 1954 Cri LJ 1634 (DB).

(5) Although duties of an auditor auditing a banking company are to verify cash balance, ascertain the bank balance with reference to pass books etc. and to confirm the existence of securities, assets, still he can rely upon the certificate of the trustworthy custodian, where such securities are within the custodian, consistent with the commerce practices. AIR 1956 Cal 414 (419, 420, 421, 423) (DB).

(6) Auditor appointed by company basing his report filed under Section 227, Companies Act on work done by internal auditor of the Company who was a Chartered Accountant in practice — Auditor also mentioning that fact in his report — Chargé of professional misconduct under Clauses (2) and (8) — Disciplinary Committee exonerating him of charge under Cl. # [THE] CHILD MARRIAGE RESTRAINT ACT, 1929
(ACT XIX OF 1929)[a]

[1st October, 1929.]

An Act to restrain the solemnisation of child marriages.

WHEREAS it is expedient to restrain the solemnisation of child marriages; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1927, Pt. V, p. 28; for Reports of Select Committees, see ibid., 1928, Pt. V, pp. 111 and 165.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh — See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

This Act has been extended to States Merged in the State of Bombay: see Bom. Act 4 of 1950.

The Act now extends to the Union territories of—

(1) Goa, Daman and Diu — See Reg. 11 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-2-1965];
(2) Dadra and Nagar Haveli — See Reg. 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-7-1965];
(3) Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands — See Reg. 8 of 1965 [w.e.f. 1-10-1967];
(4) Pondicherry—Act 26 of 1968 [w. e. f. 15-8-1968].

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHILD MARRIAGE RESTRAINT ACT, [a][1929].

[b][(2) It extends to the whole of India [c][except the State of Jammu and Kashmir]; and it applies also to all citizens of India without and beyond India.]

[d][Provided that nothing contained in the Act shall apply to the Renoncants of the Union Territory of Pondicherry.]

Preamble — Note 1

(1) This Act aims at the restraint of performance of certain marriages. The question of validity of the marriages is beyond the scopse of this Act. AIR 1936 All 11 (12) : 36 Cri LJ 1483 : 58 All 402* AIR 1939 All 340 (340) * AIR 1936 All 852 (853) : 38 Cri LJ 301 * AIR 1962 Mad 400 (401): 75 Mad LW 161.

(2) Husband's obtaining possession of wife below 14 years is against policy of this Act. His right to possession may be enforced by recourse to the Court but not by use of force. AIR 1935 All 916 (917) : 37 Cri LJ 35.

(3) There is no rule of Hindu Law sanctioning early marriage. Sanction by usage also is disapproved by the Act. (1937) ILR (1937) 2 Cal 764 (766).

(4) Where mother of a Rajput girl of seven, bridegroom and priest were convicted under Ss. 6, 4 and 5, respectively and in revision it was urged that this Act was ultra vires as previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council was not given to the Bill as passed, it was held that the contracting parties being Hindus came within the scope of the original Bill; and that changes made by the Select Committee did not render inadequate the "previous sanction" accorded. AIR 1933 Pat 471 (472) : 35 Cri LJ 20.

(5) In a case under this Act the Court should not apply strictly the principles with regard to setting aside of acquittals. It should derogate from the usual practice of not setting aside acquittals except in exceptional cases. AIR 1935 Pat 474 (476): 37 Cri LJ 227.

(6) Money borrowed for celebrating marriage of minor daughter — Creditor suing for recovery cannot be non-suited unless he is shown to have had knowledge that the loan which he was advancing was for purpose of celebrating marriage in contravention of provisions of Act. AIR 1967 Andh Pra 83 (85, 86) : (1966) 1 Andh WR 209.

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) Clauses (a) and (b) were added to sub-section (2) by Act 7 of 1938. This addition has the effect of making this Act applicable to the persons mentioned therein irrespective of the place where marriage is celebrated. There was a conflict of decisions as to the applicability of this Act in such a case prior to the above amendment for which see the following cases. AIR 1937 Mad 273 (274): 38 Cri LJ 587. (Act applies to marriages celebrated outside British India.) * AIR 1938 Nag 235 (237) : 39 Cri LJ 651 : ILR (1939) Nag 241. (Solemnization of child marriage outside British India is not an

[b] Substituted for sub-section (2), by A. L. O., 1950.
[c] Substituted for the words "except Part B States" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch., [1-4-1951].
[d] Proviso inserted by the Pondicherry (Extension of Laws) Act, 1968 (26 of 1968) S. 3 (1) and Sch., Pt. I [15-8-1968].

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "child" means a person who, if a male, is under eighteen years of age, and if a female, is under [a][fifteen] years of age;

(b) "child marriage" means a marriage to which either of the contracting parties is a child;

(c) "contracting party" to a marriage means either of the parties whose marriage is [b][or is about to be] thereby solemnised; and

(d) "minor" means a person of either sex who is under eighteen years of age.

[a] Substituted for "fourteen" by the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act, 1949 (41 of 1949), S. 2 [15-7-1949].
[b] Inserted by the Child Marriage Restraint (Second Amendment) Act, 1938 (19 of 1938), S. 2 [9-4-1938].

3. Punishment for male adult below twenty-one years of age marrying a child.—Whoever, being a male above eighteen years of age and below twenty-one, contracts a child marriage [a][shall be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to fifteen days, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both].

[a] Substituted for the words "shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees", by the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act, 1949 (41 of 1949), S. 3 [15-7-1949].

(2) In a case of complaint under Ss. 3, 5 and 6 it was held the presumption was that the accused were British subjects and that as the place of birth was within their special knowledge, it was for them to rebut the presumption. AIR 1940 Nag 245 (246) : 41 Cri LJ 645.

(3) Minor's estate in hands of receiver — Marriage in contravention of Act performed at place where it is not prohibited — Court cannot sanction expenditure. AIR 1937 Cal 257 (258, 259) : 63 Cal 1153.

(4) An application in an administration suit for liberty to spend certain sum for a marriage in contravention of this Act but outside India; where it is not prohibited, cannot be granted. AIR 1941 Cal 244 (245).

(5) Mortgage effected by a manager of a joint Hindu family for the performance of the marriage of a minor in contravention of the provisions of this Act cannot be said to be for a necessary purpose and hence is not binding on the minor. ('41) 1941 Nag LJ 282 (283).

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Certificate of birth of a person is conclusive evidence of his age so long as it is not disproved by evidence of the party denying its correctness. AIR 1935 Pat 474 (476) : 37 Cri LJ 227.

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) A Court sentencing an offender under S. 3 cannot direct that, in default of payment of the fine imposed, he shall undergo any term of imprisonment. See S. 7.

(2) The Act does not affect the validity of the marriage even though it may be in contravention of the Act. In spite of the marriage being valid, the legislature disapproves of such marriages and makes the performance of such marriage punishable under the law. AIR 1961 Orissa 104 (105) : 26 Cut LT 431.

marriage shall be punishable with [a][simple imprisonment which may extend to three months and shall also be liable to fine.]

[a] Substituted for the words "simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both" occurring in Sections 4, 5 and 6 by the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act, 1949 (41 of 1949), S. 4 [15-7-1949].

5. Punishment for solemnising a child marriage.—Whoever performs, conducts or directs any child marriage shall be punishable with [a][simple imprisonment which may extend to three months and shall also be liable to fine], unless he proves that he had reason to believe that the marriage was not a child marriage.

SECTION 5 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. "Perform, conduct or direct."
3. Sentence.
4. Practice and Procedure.

Topic Indicator

Applicability to foreigners — See Note 1.
Liability of guardian — See Note 1 and Section 6.
Enquiry before performing marriage — See Note 1.
Duty of trying magistrate — See Note 1.
Liability of guest attending child marriage — See Note 2.
Summary trial — See Note 4.
Punishment for parents or guardian — See Section 6.
"Reason to believe" — See Note 1.
Marriage — See Note 2.
Kanyadan whether offence — See Note 2.
Advancing money for performance of child marriage — See Note 2.

1. Scope.—(1) This Act is a penal statute and is applicable to all crimes committed under it in British India. The fact that the accused are, foreigners makes no difference even if such an act is not an offence in the foreign place. ('36) 37 Cri LJ 757 (757) (Cal).

(2) Consummation or Gauna is not part of marriage ceremony. The marriage being complete before the consummation, a person may be convicted under this Act though consummation has not taken place. AIR 1936 All 11 (11, 12) : 36 Cri LJ 1483 : 58 All 402.

(3) Section 5 applies only to solemnisation of marriage by others than parents and hence S. 6 alone applies to parents who participate in child marriage. AIR 1937 Mad 490 (491) : 38 Cri LJ 594 : ILR (1937) Mad 854 * AIR 1932 Nag 174 (177) : 28 Nag LR 302 : 34 Cri LJ 311 * ILR (1962) Cut 825 : 29 Cut LT 71. (Groom not shown to be child—Father cannot be convicted either under S. 5 or Section 6.)
[But see AIR 1936 All 11 (12): 58 All 402: 36 Cri LJ 1483.]

(4) A Hindu parent or guardian taking part in a child marriage is liable to punishment only under S. 6 and not for two offences under Ss. 5 and 6 respectively. AIR 1932 Nag 174 (177) : 28 Nag LR 302 : 34 Cri LJ 311.

(5) Section 5 contemplates that purohit who solemnises marriage must make some reasonable enquiry as to the ages and satisfy himself that neither of the participants is a child. AIR 1937 Mad 490 (492) : ILR (1937) Mad 854 : 38 Cri LJ 594.

(6) Where the person conducting the marriage of a minor has acted upon the certificate about the age from a person of qualifications lower than that of Civil Surgeon, it cannot be said that the person has acted in good faith. AIR 1934 All 331 (332) : 35 Cri LJ 677.

(7) In the case of complaint under Ss. 5 and 6 it is essential that the trying Magistrate should find definitely that either or both of the contracting parties to the marriage were infants, that is, the bridegroom was under the age of 18 or that the bride was under the age of 14. AIR 1939 Cal 288 (288) : 40 Cri LJ 605.

(8) Raising money for minor's marriage is not necessary purpose because it is against provision of statute law, viz., Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929. 1967 Cri LJ 303 : 69 Punj LR 293.

2. "Perform, conduct or direct." — (1) The words 'perform, conduct or direct' mean completing union and indicate solemnization of marriage. AIR 1940 Bom 363 (364) : 42 Cri LJ 62 : ILR (1940) Bom 709 * (1965) 1 Mad LJ 172 : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 167. (Woman attending child marriage as guest, escorting bride to marriage spot and reminding women present to raise customary chorus — She cannot be said to perform, conduct or direct marriage.)

(2) Negotiation, preparation or any other preliminary acts do not come within the mischief of section. AIR 1938 Nag 235 (236) : 39 Cri LJ 651 : ILR (1939) Nag 241.

(3) Mere participation by parent by Kanyadan is not an offence under the Act. AIR 1940 Bom 363 (364) : 42 Cri LJ 62 : ILR (1940) Bom 709.

(4) Merely applying for permission for conducting festivities on occasion of marriage does not amount to 'performing, conducting or directing a child marriage" and clearly is no offence under

6. Punishment for parent or guardian concerned in a child marriage.—(1) Where a minor contracts a chlid marriage, any person having charge of the minor, whether as parent or guardian or in any other capacity, lawful or unlawful, who does any act to promote the marriage or permits it to be solemnised, or negligently fails to prevent it from being solemnised, shall be punishable with [a][simple imprisonment which may extend to three months and shall also be liable to fine]:

Provided that no woman shall be punishable with imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of this section, it shall be presumed, unless and until the contrary is proved, that where a minor has contracted a child marriage, the person having charge of such minor has negligently failed to prevent the marriage from being solemnised.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Section 6 can come into play only where a child marriage has been performed and not before. ('57) AIR 1957 Raj 359 (359) : ILR (1957) 7 Raj 567 : 1957 Cri LJ 1317.

(2) Section 6 alone applies to parents who promote child marriage or permit it or negligently fail to prevent it. AIR 1937 Mad 490 (491) : ILR (1937) Mad 854 : 38 Cri LJ 594.

(3) Section 6 has reference only to promotion of prohibited marriage referred to in Ss. 4 and 5. AIR 1938 Mad 235 (237) : 39 Cri LJ 651 : ILR (1939) Nag 241.

(4) When the marriage is not penal, under the preceding sections permitting such a marriage is not punishable. AIR 1935 Bom 437 (438) : 59 Bom 745 : 37 Cri LJ 211.

(5) The parent or guardian will be liable for the marriage of the minor even if the minor child has not directly entered into the agreement for the marriage and the agreement and arrangement had been made by some other person. AIR 1945 All 306 (306) : ILR (1945) All 272 : 47 Cri LJ 43.

(6) Minors are incapable of entering into any valid contract and marriage under Hindu Law is no contract. So the words "where a minor contracts a child marriage" in S. 6(1) ought not to be literally interpreted but ought to be understood meaning "where a child marraige" takes place or where a minor enters into a child marriage. AIR 1956 Andhra 51 (52) : 1956 Cri LJ 196.

(7) Expression "when a minor contracts a child marriage" in S. 6 is wide enough to cover a case of marriage to which both parties are minors as well as to one to which one party is minor. AIR 1932 Nag 174 (177) : 34 Cri LJ 311 : 28 Nag LR 302.

(8) Parents of bridegroom cannot be convicted under the section merely because the bride was under 14 years of age. AIR 1937 Mad 490 (491) : ILR (1937) Sind 854 : 38 Cri LJ 594 * ('62) ILR (1962) Cut 825 : 29 Cut LT 71.

(9) When the father is alive and is in charge of minor daughter, the grandfather cannot be convicted for her marriage. AIR 1945 All 306 (307) : ILR (1945) All 272 : 47 Cri LJ 43.

(10) The mother of a minor bridegroom not in actual charge of the minor and not able to prevent the marriage commits no offence by mere participation. AIR 1937 Mad 490 (492) : ILR (1937) Mad 854 : 38 Cri LJ 594.

(11) An intention to give a child in marriage in contravention of this Act is an "unlawful purpose" within the meaning of Section 361, Penal Code. AIR 1933 Rang 98 (100) : 11 Rang 213 : 34 Cri LJ 696 (FB).

(12) This Act does not mention the offence of abetting but under the Penal Code there may be a prosecution for the abetment of an offence under this Act. A person may be convicted of abetting an accused who is not the father of a minor who is married, so long as the other party to the marriage is a minor. AIR 1935 Pat 474 (475) : 37 Cri LJ 227.

7. Imprisonment not to be awarded for offences under Section 3.—[Repealed by the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act, 1949 (41 of 1949), S. 5, [15-7-1949].]

STATE AMENDMENT

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, after S. 6, insert S. 7 as follows :—

"7. Offences to be cognisable—

Nothwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an offence punishable under this Act shall be deemed to be a cognisable offence within the meaning of that Code".—Guj. Act 11 of 1964, S. 3 [15-7-1964].

8. Jurisdiction under this Act.—Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, no Court other than that of a Presidency Magistrate or a [a][Magistrate of the first class] shall take cognizance of, or try, any offence under this Act.

[a] These words were substituted for the words "District Magistrate" by the Child Marriage Restraint (Second Amendment) Act, 1938 (19 of 1938), S. 3 [9-4-1938].

STATE AMENDMENTS

Punjab

In its application to the State of Punjab, in S. 8, for the words 'a Magistrate' substitute the words "a Judicial Magistrate" — Punj. Act 25 of 1964, S. 2 and Sch. Pt. II [2-10-1964].

Section 6 — Note 1 (contd.)

(13) A report by Magistrate conducting local investigation, recommending prosecution of complainant also under S. 6, constitutes a complaint under S. 4 (1) (h), Criminal P. C. AIR 1933 Pat 87 (88) : 34 Cri LJ 237.

(14) A case under the section can be tried summarily. AIR 1956 Andhra 51 (52) : 1956 Cri LJ 196.

(15) See also Section 5 Note 1.

Money lent for marriage of minor.—(16) The lending of money to a guardian for the marriage of her minor child is for the purpose not only prohibited by law but is made an offence under Ss. 5 and 6, Child Marriage Restraint Act and hence the purpose of borrowing is unlawful and against the public policy. AIR 1952 Mad 579 (582)*('56) AIR 1956 Bom 250 (251).

[See also AIR 1949 East Punj 354 (355).]

(17) A creditor who lends money without being aware of the purpose for which the debt is contracted is not affected by the illegality. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 145 (146) (DB).

(18) Where the High Court under Section 439 (1), Criminal Procedure Code is called upon to deal with a reduction of sentence effected by the Court of appeal, in reaching the conclusion as to whether it should exercise its powers of interference, the High Court must take into consideration the reasons given by the Sessions Judge in appeal for reducing the sentence. An offence under the Act may be committed for an altogether sordid motive such as love or lucre or it may have been committed under a superstitious belief that the marriage confers religious merit upon the parent. The prosecution for an offence too might be tainted by an indirect and unworthy motive. The Court would not be wrong when deciding upon the sentence to be imposed in a particular case in taking such factors into consideration. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 302 (305) : 1960 Cri LJ 784 : (1960) 1 Andh WR 167.

(19) Complaint under Child Marriage Restraint Act — Acquittal on ground of failure to prove marriage — Conclusion based solely on absence of evidence as to vivah hom and kanyadan — Case held fit for grant of special leave to appeal under S. 417 (3) of Criminal P. C. AIR 1963 Madh Pra 126 (127): 1963 (1) Cri LJ 444.

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) The words "Magistrate" of the first class" as inserted in S. 8 by the Amending Act (19 of 1938) continue to be effective notwithstanding the repeal of the Amending Act by the Repealing Act (25 of 1942) by virtue of the saving clause in S. 4 of the latter Act. AIR 1947 Nag 79 (80) : ILR (1947) Nag 80 : 47 Cri LJ 794.

(2) Additional District Magistrate with powers of District Magistrate is empowered to try case under the Act. AIR 1937 Mad 637 (638) : 38 Cri LJ 664 : ILR (1937) Mad 1034. (Case before amendment of section in 1938).

(3) For fixing up the place of trial for the offence under S. 5 it is immaterial where the tilak ceremony took place. It is the place where the marriage cremony was solemnized that fixes the place of trial. AIR 1934 All 829 (829) : 57 All 83: 35 Cri LJ 1175.

(4) A trial under this Act may be summary. The fact that the offences are to be tried only by the Magistrate mention-

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) Offence under S. 5 is not cognizable. So when such a case is forwarded to an Assistant Superintendent of Police for investigation a letter from him to the District Magistrate is a "Police report" and not a "complaint". AIR 1938 Rang 257 (258) : 39 Cri LJ 776 : 1938 Rang LR 150.

(2) The limitation prescribed in S. 9 being incorporated in the original Act by the Amending Act (19 of 1938) continues to be effective notwithstanding the repeal of the Amending Act by the Repealing Act 25 of 1942, by virtue of the saving clause contained in S. 4 of the Repealing Act. AIR 1947 Nag 79 (80) : ILR (1947) Nag 80 : 47 Cri LJ 794.

(3) Where a complaint to one Court is made prior to the expiry of one year from the date of the marriage and another complaint is made to a different Court after the expiry of the period of one year the latter complaint is barred by time. Section 14, Limitation Act, which applies to civil proceedings only, cannot validate the latter complaint on the strength of the former complaint made in time. AIR 1939 Mad 512 (513) : 40 Cri LJ 816.

(4) Section 10 compels a preliminary enquiry. Even when a Magistrate upon receiving a complaint under the Act does not dismiss the complaint but decides upon the necessary preliminary enquiry, he is taking recognizance of the offence complained against and it cannot be said that he takes cognizance, only when he directs the issue of process to the accused. (1939) 1 Mad LJ 900, Diss from. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 302 (304) : 1960 Cri LJ 784 : (1960) 1 Andh WR 167 (DB).

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) Section 10 comes into play only when a Court takes cognizance of an offence under the Act and not where merely an application has been made to prevent a child marriage from being performed under S. 12. ('57) AIR 1957 Raj 359 (359, 360) : ILR (1957) 7 Raj 567 : 1957 Cri LJ 1317.

(2) A preliminary inquiry under this Section is absolutely essential before the Court can take cognizance of an offence under this Act. ('39) AIR 1939 Mad 530 (531) : 40 Cri LJ 818 * ('34) AIR 1934 Lah 155 (155): 15 Lah 63: 35 Cri LJ 1436 * ('31) AIR 1931 Lah 56 (56) : 32 Cri LJ 616 : 12 Lah 383.

decides upon the preliminary enquiry, he is taking cognizance of the offence complained against and it cannot be said that he takes cognizance only when he directs the issue of process to accused. AIR 1939 Mad 530, Diss. from.) ]

(3) Making of a preliminary enquiry under S. 10 is mandatory and non-compliance thereof makes the trial illegal from its inception. ('53) 6 Sau LR 252 (253) (DB).

(4) Omission to hold preliminary inquiry under S. 202, Criminal P. C., vitiates later proceedings. ('40) AIR 1940 Sind 213 (214): ILR (1940) Kar 442 : 42 Cri LJ 83 * ('37) 20 Nag LJ 115 (116). (Section 537, Criminal P. C., does not cure the defect.) * ILR (1962) Cut 825 : 29 Cut LT 71.

(5) Object of the preliminary enquiry is to inquire whether there is a prima facie case or not. If the accused objects to his trial without an inquiry and the Magistrate proceeds in disregard of the objection of the accused, his order would be set aside. But where the accused makes no objection to the trial, he cannot raise it subsequently if there was a substantive case against him. AIR 1939 Pat 525 (525, 526) : 40 Cri LJ 887.

(6) It is proper in revision to send a case back for correction of illegality such as omission to hold preliminary enquiry provided under S. 10, when that can be done before the case is tried, but after judgment, the case should not be remanded, unless there is a failure of justice. Where the Court had decided the case without objection, mere omission to comply with S. 10 is irregularity curable under S. 537, Criminal P. C. High Court will not in such a case interfere under S. 439, Criminal P. C. ('40) AIR 1940 Nag 375 (377) : 42 Cri LJ 37 : ILR (1940) Nag 488 * ILR (1962) Cut 825 : 29 Cut LT 71.

(7) An order of dismissal of a complaint under the Act without holding a preliminary enquiry under S. 202, Criminal P. C. is illegal and the dismissal must be set aside. ('54) AIR 1954 Mad 889 (889) : 1954 Cri LJ 1344.

Section 11 — Note 1

(1) A complainant should not be exempted from giving a security bond except for reasons to be recorded in writing. Giving security bond without assigning reasons is an irregularity which cannot be cured by S. 537, Criminal P. C. ('37) 20 Nag LJ 115 (116) * AIR 1933 Cal 433 (433) : 34 Cri LJ 554.

(2) If complaint is by Judicial Officer, omission to record reasons for not requiring him to execute bond cannot vitiate proceedings. AIR 1933 Pat 87 (88) : 34 Cri LJ 237 * AIR 1936 Oudh 311 (312): 12 Luck 263 : 37 Cri LJ 616.

(3) The mere fact that the security bond furnished by the complainant was defective will not vitiate the trial. AIR 1936 Oudh 311 (312) : 12 Luck 263 : 37 Cri LJ 616.

(4) In a prosecution under this Act the prosecution has to prove that the marriage was of a minor. But for compensation under S. 250, Criminal P. C., the position is the reverse. It must be proved that the complainant's allegation regarding the minority was false. Where there is merely lack of evidence as regards the age of the party alleged to be a minor, it does not necessarily follow that the allegation was false. AIR 1936 All 363 (364) : 37 Cri LJ 424 (2).

Section 12 — Note 1

(1) Section 12 is a self-contained provision and its main object is prevention, that is, to prevent child marriages from being performed. ('57) AIR 1957 Raj 359 (359) : ILR (1957) 7 Raj 567 : 1957 Cri LJ 1317.

(2) In a proceeding under S. 12 of the Child Marriage Restraint Act, the Magistrate cannot compel the person complained against to put in his personal appearance as he is allowed to appear either personally or by a pleader. AIR 1957 Raj 359 (360) : ILR (1957) 7 Raj 567 : 1957 Cri LJ 1317.

(3) Where a father gives his minor daughter in marriage after an injunction of the Court against him was passed, he is entitled to an opportunity to show that he had no notice of the injunction before he is punished. AIR 1932 Cal 719 (720).

(4) Section 12 (2) does not contemplate injunction prohibiting child mar-

(3) The Court may either on its own motion or on the application of any person aggrieved rescind or alter any order made under sub-section (1).

(4) Where such an application is received, the Court shall afford the applicant an early opportunity of appearing before it either in person or by pleader; and if the Court rejects the application wholly or in part, it shall record in writing its reasons for so doing.

(5) Whoever knowing that an injunction has been issued against him under sub-section (1) of this section disobeys such injunction shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both:

Provided that no woman shall be punishable with imprisonment.]

[a] This section was inserted after S. 11 by the Child Marriage Restraint (Second Amendment) Act, 1938 (19 of 1938), S. 6 [9-4-1938].

STATE AMENDMENT

Sections 13 and 14

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, after Section 12, the following sections shall be added, namely:—

"13. Child Marriage Prevention Officers.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint for the whole State or for such part thereof as may be specified in that notification, an officer to be known as Child Marriage Prevention Officer.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Child Marriage Prevention Officer—

(i) to prevent marriages being performed in contravention of the provisions of this Act by taking such action under this Act as he deems fit;

(ii) to collect evidence for the effective prosecutions of persons contravening provisions of this Act; and

(iii) to discharge such other functions as may be assigned to him by the State Government.

(3) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, invest the Child Marriage Prevention Officer with such powers of a Police Officer as may be specified in the notification and the Child Marriage Prevention Officer shall exercise his powers subject to such limitations and conditions as may be specified in the notification.

(4) The State Government may associate with each Child Marriage Prevention Officer a non-official advisory body consisting of not more than five social welfare workers, of whom at least two shall be women workers known in the area within the jurisdiction of the officer for the purposes of advising and assisting him in the performance of his functions under this Act.

(5) The terms and conditions of appointment of persons on the advisory body shall be such as may be prescribed by rules.

14. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules, for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such rules may provide for all matters expressly required or allowed by this Act to be prescribed by rules.

Section 12 — Note 1 (contd.)

riage generally irrespective of such marriages being under contemplation or not. Once a child marriage is prohibited under S. 12(1) and is not celebrated in pursuance of an injunction the matter only ends there. If subsequently again a child marriage is arranged or is about to be solemnized a fresh cause of action arises and the Court is competent to issue a fresh injunction prohibiting such a marriage. The Act does not envisage the issue of an injunction generally to prohibit any marriage at any time.

Thus a Court while issuing an injunction prohibiting a child marriage cannot issue a direction that the marriage of the child shall not be brought about within six to eight years in future. 1964 Raj LW 616 : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 836.

(3) The power to make rules conferred by this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

(4) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as possible after they are made, and shall be subject to rescission by the State Legislature or to such modifications as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

(5) Any rescission or modification so made by the State Legislature shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon take effect."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Children are the most vulnerable group in any population and in need of the greatest social care. On account of their vulnerability and dependence they can be exploited, ill-treated and directed into undesirable channels by anti-social elements in the community. The State has the duty of according proper care and protection to children at all times, as it is on their physical and mental well being that the future of the nation depends. With increased industrialisation and urbanisation, the State needs to be even more alert and vigilant in this respect. This Bill provides for the care, protection, maintenance, welfare, training, education and rehabilitation of neglected or delinquent children and for the trial of delinquent children in the Union Territories for which the Central Government has direct responsibility.

It should also be remembered that the children often become delinquent by force of circumstances and not by choice. By improving the unfavourable environment and giving suitable training, it is possible to reform his anti-social attitudes and to mould him into a responsible citizen. Measures for juvenile delinquents should, therefore, aim at rehabilitation rather than punishment. The programmes propose to be undertaken under this Bill are meant to be of a positive character.

At present the Bombay Children Act, 1924, is in force in Delhi. It was considered whether a replacement of this outmoded Act by the Bombay Children Act, 1948 would not achieve the aims and objects referred to above. It was found that the Bombay Children Act 1948 or any other State Act for that matter would not fully meet the needs of the Union Territories. As such the present Bill which takes into account the Special needs of the Union Territories has been prepared". —Gaz. of Ind., 1959, Ext., Pt. II-Sec. 2, p. 1487.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHILDREN ACT, 1960.

(2) It extends[a] to all the Union Territories.

(3) It shall come into force in any Union Territory[c] on such date[b] as the Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different areas thereof.

[a] The Act has been extended to—

Goa, Daman and Diu: see Regn. 12 of 1962 (w.e.f. 1-1-1964).

Dadra and Nagar Haveli: see Regn. 6 of 1963 as amended by Regn. 2 of 1965 (1-7-1965).

Pondicherry: see Regn. 7 of 1963 (1-10-1963).

[b] The Act was enforced in Himachal Pradesh by Notifn. No. 9-21/60-Wel (with effect from 2-10-1962): See Himachal Pradesh Gazette, 29-9-1962, Pt. I, p. 565.

[c] The following are the Union Territories:—

Delhi, Manipur, Tripura, Andaman and Nicobar Islands; Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands; Goa, Daman and Diu; Dadra and Nagar Haveli; Pondicherry, Himachal Pradesh and Chandigarh.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(r) "supervision", in relation to a child placed under the care of any parent, guardian or other fit person under this Act, means the supervision of that child by a Probation Officer for the purpose of ensuring that the child is properly looked after and that the conditions imposed by the competent authority are complied with;

(s) all words and expressions used but not defined in this Act and defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall have the meanings assigned to them in that Code.

3. Continuation of inquiry in respect of child who had ceased to be child.—Where an inquiry has been initiated against a child and during the course of such inquiry the child ceases to be such, then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, the inquiry may be continued and orders may be made in respect of such person as if such person had continued to be a child.

CHAPTER II

COMPETENT AUTHORITIES AND INSTITUTIONS FOR CHILDREN

4. Child Welfare Boards.—(1) The Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute for any area specified in the notification, one or more Child Welfare Boards for exercising the powers and discharging the duties conferred or imposed on such Board in relation to neglected children under this Act.

(2) A Board shall consist of a Chairman and such other members as the Administrator thinks fit to appoint, of whom not less than one shall be a woman; and every such member shall be vested with the powers of a Magistrate under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

(3) The Board shall function as a Bench of Magistrates and shall have the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, on a Magistrate of the first class.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Under the existing provisions of the Bill, all children, whether they are delinquent or neglected, are to be dealt with by children's courts though the procedure for dealing with them is different. The Committee, however, are of opinion that there should be two entirely different machineries for dealing with neglected and delinquent children. The Committee feel that Child Welfare Boards should be set up for dealing with neglected children while children's courts may continue to deal with delinquent children. They further feel that there should be at least one woman member in every Child Welfare Board. This clause has, accordingly, been inserted to provide for the constitution, functions and duties of Child Welfare Boards."—J.C.R.

5. Children's Courts.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute for any area specified in the notification, one or more children's Courts for exercising the powers and discharging the duties conferred or imposed on such Court in relation to delinquent children under this Act.

(2) A children's Court shall consist of such number of magistrates forming a Bench as the Administrator thinks fit to appoint, of whom one shall be designated as the senior magistrate and not less than one shall be a woman; and every such Bench shall have the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, on a magistrate of the first class.

6. Procedure, etc., in relation to Boards and Children's Courts.—(1) In the event of any difference of opinion among the members of a Board or among the magistrates of a Children's Court, the opinion of the majority shall prevail, but where there is no such majority, the opinion of the chairman or of the senior magistrate, as the case may be, shall prevail.

(2) A Board or Children's Court may act notwithstanding the absence of any member of the Board or, as the case may be, any magistrate of the Children's Court, and no order made by the Board or Children's Court shall be invalid by reason only of the absence of any member or magistrate, as the case may be, during any stage of the proceeding.

(3) No person shall be appointed as a member of the Board or as a magistrate in the Children's Court unless he has, in the opinion of the Administrator, special knowledge of child psychology and child welfare.

7. Power of Board and Children's Court.—(1) Where a Board or a Children's Court has been constituted for any area, such Board or Court shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force but save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, have power to deal exclusively with all proceedings under this Act relating to neglected children or delinquent children, as the case may be.

(2) Where no Board or Children's Court has been constituted for any area, the powers conferred on the Board or the Children's Court by or under this Act shall be exercised in that area, only by the following, namely:—

(a) the district magistrate; or

(b) the sub-divisional magistrate; or

(c) any magistrate of the first class.

---

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) Court under it is criminal Court — Sessions Judge can transfer case pending in Children's Court under S. 528 (1-C) (as inserted by Act 26 of 1956), Cr. P. Code (1898). (1965) 67 Pun LR 149.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Order under S. 14, by President of Board — To pass valid order under Act it is not necessary that all members of Board be present. AIR 1965 Punj 384 (385) : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 407.

(3) The powers conferred on the Board or Children's Court by or under this Act may also be exercised by the High Court and the Court of Session, when the proceeding comes before them in appeal, revision or otherwise.

8. Procedure to be followed by a magistrate not empowered under the Act.—(1) When any magistrate not empowered to exercise the powers of a Board or a Children's Court under this Act is of opinion that a person brought before him under any of the provisions of this Act (otherwise than for the purpose of giving evidence) is a child, he shall record such opinion and forward the child and the record of the proceeding to the competent authority having jurisdiction over the proceeding.

(2) The competent authority to which the proceeding is forwarded under sub-section (1) shall hold the inquiry as if the child had originally been brought before it.

9. Children's homes.—(1) The Administrator may establish and maintain as many children's homes as may be necessary for the reception of neglected children under this Act.

(2) Where the Administrator is of opinion that any institution other than an institution established under sub-section (1) is fit for the reception of the neglected children to be sent there under this Act, he may certify such institution as a children's home for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Every children's home to which a neglected child is sent under this Act shall not only provide the child with accommodation, maintenance and facilities for education, but also provide him with facilities for the development of his character and abilities and give him necessary training for protecting himself against moral danger or exploitation and shall also perform such other functions as may be prescribed.

(4) The Administrator may, by rules made under this Act, provide for the management of children's homes and the circumstances under which, and the manner in which, the certificate of a children's home may be granted or withdrawn.

10. Special schools.—(1) The Administrator may establish and maintain as many special schools as may be necessary for the reception of delinquent children under this Act.

(2) Where the Administrator is of opinion that any institution other than an institution established under sub-section (1) is fit for the reception of the delinquent children to be sent there under this Act, he may certify such institution as a special school for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Every special school to which a delinquent child is sent under this Act shall not only provide the child with accommodation, maintenance and facilities for education but also provide him with facilities for the development of his character and abilities and give him necessary training for his reformation and shall also perform such other functions as may be prescribed.

(4) The Administrator may, by rules made under this Act, provide for the management of special schools and the circumstances under which, and the manner in which, the certificate of a special school may be granted or withdrawn.

11. Observation homes.—(1) The Administrator may establish and maintain as many observation homes as may be necessary for the temporary reception of children during the pendency of any inquiry regarding them under this Act.

(2) Where the Administrator is of opinion that any institution other than an institution established under sub-section (1) is fit for the temporary reception of children during the pendency of any inquiry regarding them under this Act, he may recognise such institution as an observation home for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Every observation home to which a child is sent under this Act shall not only provide the child with accommodation, maintenance and facilities for medical examination and treatment, but also provide him with facilities for useful occupation.

(4) The Administrator may, by rules made under this Act, provide for the management of observation homes and the circumstances under which, and the manner in which, an institution may be recognised as an observation home or the recognition may be withdrawn.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sub-section (3).—"The Committee are of the opinion that every observation home to which a child is sent should not only provide the child with accommodation, maintenance and facilities for medical examination and treatment but also provide him with facilities for useful occupation. Sub-clause (3) makes provision in this behalf."—J.C.R.

12. After-care organisations.—(1) The Administrator may, by rules made under this Act, provide for the establishment or recognition of after-care organisations and may vest them with such powers as may be necessary for effectively carrying out their functions under this Act.

(2) Every such organisation shall take care of the children when they leave children's homes or special schools and shall, for the purpose of enabling them to lead an honest, industrious and useful life, take all such measures as it may deem necessary or as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER III

NEGLECTED CHILDREN

13. Production of neglected children before Boards.—(1) If any police officer or any other person authorised by the Administrator in this behalf, by general or special order, is of opinion that a person is apparently a neglected child, such police officer or other person may take charge of that person for bringing him before a Board.

(2) When information is given to an officer-in-charge of the police station about any neglected child found within the limits of such station, he shall enter in a book to be kept for the purpose the substance of such information and take such action thereon as he deems fit and if such officer does not propose to take charge of the child, he shall forward a copy of the entry made to the Board.

(3) Every child taken charge of under sub-section (1) shall be brought before the Board within a period of twenty-four hours of such charge taken excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place where the child had been taken charge of to the Board.

(4) Every child taken charge of under sub-section (1) shall, unless he is kept with his parent or guardian, be sent to an observation home (but not to a police station or jail) until he can be brought before a Board.

14. Special procedure to be followed when neglected child has parent.—(1) If a person, who, in the opinion of the police officer or the authorised person, is a neglected child, has a parent or guardian who has the actual charge of, or control over, the child, the police officer or the authorised person may, instead of

Thereafter it is for Board to call child's parents to show cause and examine evidence, if necessary. AIR 1965 Punj 384 (385, 386) : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 407.

(2) Order under S. 14 by President of Board — To pass valid order under Act it is not necessary that all members of Board be present. AIR 1965 Punj 384 (385) : 1965 (2) Cri LJ 407.

(3) Report under by police officer — Board summoning parents of child under S. 14(2) — Names of prosecution witnesses not supplied by police officer to taking charge of the child, make a report to the Board for initiating an inquiry regarding that child.

(2) On receipt of a report under sub-section (1), the Board may call upon the parent or guardian to produce the child before it and to show cause why the child should not be dealt with as a neglected child under the provisions of this Act and if it appears to the Board that the child is likely to be removed from its jurisdiction or to be concealed, it may immediately order his removal (if necessary by issuing a search warrant for the immediate production of the child) to an observation home.

15. Inquiry by Board regarding neglected children.—(1) When a person alleged to be a neglected child is produced before a Board, it shall examine the police officer or the authorised person who brought the child or made the report and record the substance of such examination and hold the inquiry in the prescribed manner and may make such orders in relation to the child as it may deem fit.

(2) Where a Board is satisfied on inquiry that a child is a neglected child and that it is expedient so to deal with him, the Board may make an order directing the child to be sent to a children's home for the period until he ceases to be a child:

Provided that the Board may, for reasons to be recorded, extend the period of such stay, but in no case the period of stay shall extend beyond the time when the child attains the age of eighteen years, in the case of a boy, or twenty years, in the case of a girl:

Provided further that the Board may, if it is satisfied that having regard to the circumstances of the case it is expedient so to do, for reasons to be recorded, reduce the period of stay to such period as it thinks fit.

(3) During the pendency of any inquiry regarding a child, the child shall, unless he is kept with his parent or guardian, be sent to an observation home for such period as may be specified in the order of the Board:

Provided that no child shall be kept with his parent or guardian if, in the opinion of the Board, such parent or guardian is unfit to exercise or does not exercise proper care and control over the child.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sub-section (3).—"The Committee feel that during the pendency of an inquiry regarding a neglected child, such a child should not be kept with parents or guardians if in the opinion of the Board such parent or guardian is unfit to exercise or does not exercise proper care and control over the child. A Proviso to that effect has been added."—J.C.R.

16. Power to commit neglected child to suitable custody.—(1) If the Board so thinks fit, it may, instead of making an order under sub-section (2) of Section 15 for sending the child to a children's home, make an order placing the child under the care of a parent, guardian or other fit person, on such parent, guardian or fit person executing a bond with or without surety to be responsible for the good behaviour and well-being of the child and for the observance of such conditions as the Board may think fit to impose.

Section 15 — Note 1

(1) Application to Board by police officer — Subjective satisfaction of police officer that child is neglected child requiring protection is sufficient — Thereafter it is for Board to call child's parents to show cause and examine evidence if necessary. AIR 1965 Punj 384 (385, 386): 1965 (2) Cri LJ 407.

(2) At the time of making an order under sub-section (1) or at any time subsequently, the Board may, in addition, make an order that the child be placed under supervision for any period not exceeding three years in the first instance.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), if at any time it appears to the Board, on receiving a report from the probation officer or otherwise, that there has been a breach of any of the conditions imposed by it in respect of the child, it may, after making such inquiry as it deems fit, order the child to be sent to a children's home.

17. Uncontrollable children.—Where a parent or guardian of a child complains to the Board that he is not able to exercise proper care and control over the child and the Board is satisfied on inquiry that proceedings under this Act should be initiated regarding the child, it may send the child to an observation home and make such further inquiry as it may deem fit and the provisions of Section 15 and Section 16 shall, as far as may be, apply to such proceedings.

CHAPTER IV

DELINQUENT CHILDREN

18. Bail and custody of children.—(1) When any person accused of a bailable or non-bailable offence and apparently a child is arrested or detained or appears or is brought before a Children's Court, such person shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or in any other law for the time being in force, be released on bail with or without surety but he shall not be so released if there appear reasonable grounds for believing that the release is likely to bring him into association with any reputed criminal or expose him to moral danger or that his release would defeat the ends of justice.

(2) When such person having been arrested is not released on bail under sub-section (1) by the officer-in-charge of the police station, such officer shall cause him to be kept in an observation home in the prescribed manner (but not in a police station or jail) until he can be brought before Children's Court.

(3) When such person is not released on bail under sub-section (1) by the Children's Court, it shall, instead of committing him to prison, make an order sending him to an observation home for such period during the pendency of the inquiry regarding him as may be specified in the order.

19. Information to parent or guardian or probation officer.—Where a child is arrested, the officer-in-charge of the police station to which the child is brought shall, as soon as may be after the arrest, inform—

(a) the parent or guardian of the child, if he can be found, of such arrest and direct him to be present at the Children's Court before which the child will appear; and

(b) the probation officer of such arrest in order to enable him to obtain information regarding the antecedents and family history of the child and other material circumstances likely to be of assistance to the Children's Court for making the inquiry.

20. Inquiry by Children's Court regarding delinquent children.—Where a child having been charged with an offence appears or, is produced before a Children's Court, the Children's Court shall hold the inquiry in accordance with the provisions of Section 39 and may, subject to the provision of this Act, make such order in relation to the child as it deems fit.

21. Orders that may be passed regarding delinquent children.—(1) Where a Children's Court is satisfied on inquiry that a child has committed an offence, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Children's Court may, if it so thinks fit,—

(a) allow the child to go home after advice or admonition;

(b) direct the child to be released on probation of good conduct and placed under the care of any parent, guardian or other fit person on such parent, guardian or other fit person executing a bond, with or without surety as that Court may require for the good behaviour and well-being of the child for any period not exceeding three years;

(c) make an order directing the child to be sent to a special school,—

(i) in the case of a boy over fourteen years of age or of a girl over sixteen years of age, for a period of not less than three years;

(ii) in the case of any other child, for the period until he ceases to be a child:

Provided that the Children's Court may, if it is satisfied that having regard to the nature of the offence and the circumstances of the case it is expedient so to do, for reasons to be recorded, reduce the period of stay to such period as it thinks fit:

Provided further that the Children's Court may, for reasons to be recorded extend the period of such stay, but in no case the period of stay shall extend beyond the time when the child attains the age of eighteen years, in the case of a boy, or twenty years, in the case of a girl;

(d) order the child to pay a fine if he is over fourteen years of age and earns money;

(2) Where an order under clause (b) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) is made, the Children's Court may, if it is of opinion that in the interests of the child and of the public it is expedient so to do, in addition make an order that the delinquent child shall remain under the supervision of a probation officer named in the order during such period not exceeding three years as may be specified therein, and may in such supervision order impose such conditions as it deems necessary for the due supervision of the delinquent child:

Provided that if at any time afterwards it appears to the Children's Court on receiving a report from the probation officer or otherwise, that the delinquent child has not been of good behaviour during the period of supervision, it may, after making such inquiry as it deems fit, order the delinquent child to be sent to a special school.

(3) The Children's Court making a supervision order under sub-section (2) shall explain to the child and the parent, guardian or other fit person, as the case may be, under whose care the child has been placed, the terms and conditions of the order and shall forthwith furnish one copy of the supervision order to the child, the parent, guardian or other fit person, as the case may be, the sureties, if any, and the probation officer.

(4) In determining the special school, or any person to whose custody a child is to be committed or entrusted under this Act, the Court shall pay due regard to the religious denomination of the child to ensure that religious instruction contrary to the religious persuasion of the child is not imparted to him.

22. Orders that may not be passed against delinquent children.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, no delinquent child shall be sentenced to death or imprisonment or committed to prison in default of payment of fine, or in default of furnishing security:

Provided that where a child who has attained the age of fourteen years has committed an offence and the children's Court is satisfied that the offence committed is of so serious a nature or that his conduct and behaviour have been such that it would not be in his interest or in the interest of other children in a special school to send him to such special school and that none of the other measures provided under this Act is suitable or sufficient, the children's Court may order the delinquent child to be kept in safe custody in such place and manner as it thinks fit and shall report the case for the orders of the Administrator.

(2) On receipt of a report from a children's Court under sub-section (1), the Administrator may make such arrangement in respect of the child as he deems proper and may order such delinquent child to be detained at such place and on such conditions as he thinks fit :

Provided that the period of detention so ordered shall not exceed the maximum period of imprisonment to which the child could have been sentenced for the offence committed.

23. Proceeding under Chapter VIII of the Criminal Procedure Code not competent against child.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, no proceeding shall be instituted and no order shall be passed against a child under Chapter VIII of the said Code.

24. No joint trial of child and person not a child.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 239 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 or in any other law for the time being in force, no child shall be charged with or tried for, any offence together with a person who is not a child.

(2) If a child is accused of an offence for which under Section 239 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or any other law for the time being in force, such child and any person who is not a child would, but for the prohibition contained in sub-section (1), have been charged and tried together, the Court taking cognizance of that offence shall direct separate trials of the child and the other person.

25. Removal of disqualification attaching to conviction.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, a child who has committed an offence and has been dealt with under the provisions of this Act shall not suffer disqualification, if any, attaching to a conviction of an offence under such law.

26. Special provision in respect of pending cases.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, all proceedings in respect of a child pending in any Court in any area on the date on which this Act comes into force in that area, shall be continued in that Court as if this Act had not been passed and if the Court finds that the child has committed an offence, it shall record such finding and, instead of passing any sentence in respect of the child, forward the child to the children's Court which shall pass orders in respect of that child in accordance with the provisions of this Act as if it had been satisfied on inquiry under this Act that the child has committed the offence.

CHAPTER V

PROCEDURE OF COMPETENT AUTHORITIES GENERALLY AND APPEALS AND REVISION FROM ORDERS OF SUCH COURTS

27. Sittings etc., of Boards and children's Courts.—(1) A Board or a children's Court shall hold its sittings at such place, on such day and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) A Magistrate empowered to exercise the powers of a Board or, as the case may be, a children's Court under sub-section (2) of Section 7 shall, while holding any inquiry regarding a child under this Act, as far as practicable, sit in a building or room different from that in which the ordinary sittings of civil and criminal Courts are held, or on different days or at times different from those at which the ordinary sittings of such Courts are held.

28. Persons who may be present before competent authority.—(1) Save as provided in this Act, no person shall be present at any sitting of a competent authority, except—

(a) any officer of the competent authority, or

(b) the parties to the inquiry before the competent authority, the parent or guardian of the child and other persons directly concerned in the inquiry including police officers, and

(c) such other persons as the competent authority may permit to be present.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if at any stage during an inquiry, a competent authority considers it to be expedient in the interest of the child or on grounds of decency or morality that any person including the police officers, legal practitioners, the parent, guardian or the child himself should withdraw, the competent authority may give such direction, and if any person refuses to comply with such direction, the competent authority may have him removed and may, for this purpose, cause to be used such force as may be necessary.

(3) No legal practitioner shall be entitled to appear before a competent authority in any case or proceeding before it, except with the special permission of that authority.

29. Attendance of parent or guardian of child.—Any competent authority before which a child is brought under any of the provisions of this Act may, whenever it so thinks fit, require any parent or guardian having the actual charge of, or control over, the child to be present at any proceeding in respect of the child.

30. Dispensing with attendance of child.—If, at any stage during the course of an inquiry, a competent authority is satisfied that the attendance of the child is not essential for the purpose of the inquiry, the competent authority may dispense with his attendance and proceed with the inquiry in the absence of the child.

31. Committal to approved place of child suffering from dangerous disease and its future disposal.—(1) When a child who has been brought before a competent authority under this Act is found to be suffering from a disease requiring prolonged medical treatment or physical or mental complaint that will respond to treatment, the competent authority may send the child to any place recognised to be an approved place in accordance with the rules made under this Act for such period as it may think necessary for the required treatment.

(2) Where a child is found to be suffering from leprosy or is of unsound mind, he shall be dealt with under the provisions of the Lepers Act, 1898, or the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912, as the case may be.

(3) Where a competent authority has taken action under sub-section (1) in the case of a child suffering from an infectious or contagious disease, the competent authority before restoring the said child to his partner in marriage, if there has been such, or to the guardian, as the case may be, shall where it is satisfied that such action will be in the interest of the said child call upon his partner in marriage or the guardian, as the case may be, to satisfy the Court by submitting to medical examination that such partner or guardian will not re-infect the child in respect of whom the order has been passed.

32. Presumption and determination of age.—(1) Where it appears to a competent authority that a person brought before it under any of the provisions of this Act (otherwise than for the purpose of giving evidence) is a child, the competent authority shall make due inquiry as to the age of that person and for that purpose shall take such evidence as may be necessary and shall record a finding whether the person is a child or not, stating his age as nearly as may be.

(2) No order of a competent authority shall be deemed to have become invalid merely by any subsequent proof that the person in respect of whom the order has been made is not a child, and the age recorded by the competent authority to be the age of the person so brought before it shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the true age of that person.

33. Circumstances to be taken into consideration in making orders under the Act.—In making any order in respect of a child under this Act, a competent authority shall take into consideration the following circumstances, namely :—

(a) the age of the child;

(b) the circumstances in which the child is living;

(c) the reports made by the probation officer;

(d) the religious persuasion of the child;

(e) such other circumstances as may, in the opinion of the competent authority, require to be taken into consideration in the interests of the child:

Provided that in the case of a delinquent child, the above circumstances shall be taken into consideration after the children's Court has recorded a finding against the child that he has committed the offence :

Provided further that if no report of the probation officer is received within ten weeks of his being informed under Section 19, it shall be open to the children's Court to proceed without it.

34. Sending a child outside jurisdiction.—In the case of a neglected or delinquent child whose ordinary place of residence lies outside the jurisdiction of the competent authority before which he is brought, the competent authority may, if satisfied after due inquiry that it is expedient so to do, send the child back to a relative or other person who is fit and willing to receive him at his ordinary place of residence and exercise proper care and control over him, notwithstanding that such place of residence is outside the jurisdiction of the competent authority; and the competent authority exercising jurisdiction over the place to which the child is sent shall in respect of any matter arising subsequently have the same powers in relation to the child as if the original order had been passed by itself.

35. Reports to be treated as confidential.—The report of the probation officer or any circumstance considered by the competent authority under Section 33 shall be treated as confidential :

Provided that the competent authority may, if it so thinks fit communicate the substance thereof to the child or his parent or guardian and may give such child, parent or guardian an opportunity of producing such evidence as may be relevant to the matter stated in the report.

36. Prohibition of publication of names, etc., of children involved in any proceeding under the Act.—(1) No report in any newspaper, magazine or news sheet of any inquiry regarding a child under this Act shall disclose the name, address or school or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the child, nor shall any picture of any such child be published :

Provided that for reasons to be recorded in writing, the authority holding the inquiry may permit such disclosure if in its opinion such disclosure is in the interest of the child.

(2) Any person contravening the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

37. Appeals.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section any person aggrieved by an order made by a competent authority under this Act may, within thirty days from the date of such order prefer an appeal to the Court of Session:

Provided that the Court of Session may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(2) No appeal shall lie from—

(a) any order of acquittal by the children's Court in respect of a child alleged to have committed an offence; or

(b) any order made by a Board in respect of a finding that a person is not a neglected child.

(3) No second appeal shall lie from any order of the Court of Session passed in appeal under this section.

38. Revision.—The High Court may, at any time, either of its own motion or on an application received in this behalf, call for the record of any proceeding in which any competent authority or Court of Session has passed an order for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any such order and may pass such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit:

Provided that the High Court shall not pass an order under this section prejudicial to any person without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

39. Procedure in inquiries, appeals and revision proceedings.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, a competent authority while holding any inquiry under any of the provisions of this Act, shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed and subject thereto, shall follow, as far as may be, the procedure laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for trials in summons cases.

(2) Save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, the procedure to be followed in hearing appeals or revision proceedings under this Act shall be, as far as practicable, in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

40. Power to amend orders.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions for appeal and revision under this Act, any competent authority may, either on its own motion or on an application received in this behalf, amend any order as to the institution to which a child is to be sent or as to the person under whose care or supervision a child is to be placed under this Act.

(2) Clerical mistakes in orders passed by a competent authority or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission may, at any time, be corrected by the competent authority either on its own motion or on an application received in this behalf.

CHAPTER VI

SPECIAL OFFENCES IN RESPECT OF CHILDREN

41. Punishment for cruelty to child.—(1) Whoever, having the actual charge of, or control over, a child, assaults, abandons, exposes or wilfully neglects the child or causes or procures him to be assaulted, abandoned, expressed, or neglected in a manner likely to cause such child unnecessary mental and physical suffering shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(2) No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under sub-section (1) unless the complaint is filed with the previous sanction of the Administrator or an officer authorised by him in this behalf.

42. Employment of children for begging.—(1) Whoever employs or uses any child for the purposes of begging or causes any child to beg shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

(2) Whoever, having the actual charge of, or control over, a child, abets the commission of the offence punishable under sub-section (1), shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

(3) The offence punishable under this section shall be cognizable.

43. Penalty for giving intoxicating liquor or dangerous drug to a child.—Whoever gives, or causes to be given to any child any intoxicating liquor in a public place or any dangerous drug except upon the order of a duly qualified medical practitioner or in case of sickness or other urgent cause, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

44. Exploitation of child employees.—Whoever ostensibly procures a child for the purpose of any employment and withholds the earnings of the child or uses such earnings for his own purposes shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

CHAPTER VII
MISCELLANEOUS

45. Power of Administrator to discharge and transfer children.—(1) The Administrator may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, at any time, order a neglected or delinquent child to be discharged from the children's home or special school, either absolutely or on such conditions as he may think fit to impose.

(2) The Administrator may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, order—

(a) a neglected child to be transferred from one children's home to another;

(b) a delinquent child to be transferred from one special school to another or from a special school to a borstal school where such school exists or from a special school to a children's home;

(c) a child who has been released on licence which has been revoked or forfeited, to be sent to the special school or children's home from which he was released or to any other children's home or special school or borstal school:

Provided that the total period of the stay of the child in a children's home or a special school shall not be increased by such transfer.

(3) The Administrator may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, at any time, discharge a child from the care of any person under whom he was placed under this Act either absolutely or on such conditions as the Administrator may think fit to impose.

46. Transfers between children's homes, etc., under the Act, and children's homes, etc., of like nature in different parts of India.—(1) The Administrator of a Union territory may direct any neglected child or delinquent child to be transferred from any children's home or special school within the Union territory to any other children's home, special school or institution of a like nature in any other State with the consent of the Government of that State.

(2) The Administrator of a Union territory may, by general or special order, provide for the reception in a children's home or special school within the Union Territory of a neglected child or delinquent child detained in a children's home or special school or institution of a like nature in any other State where the Government of that State makes an order for such transfer, and upon such transfer the provisions of this Act shall apply to such child as if he had been originally ordered to be sent to such children's home or special school under this Act.

47. Transfer of children of unsound mind or suffering from leprosy.—(1) Where it appears to the Administrator that any child kept in a special school or children's home in pursuance of this Act is suffering from leprosy or is of unsound mind, the Administrator may order his removal to a leper asylum or mental hospital or other place of safe custody for being kept there for the remainder of the term for which he has to be kept in custody under the orders of the competent authority or for such further period as may be certified by a medical officer to be necessary for the proper treatment of the child.

(2) Where it appears to the Administrator that the child is cured of leprosy or of unsoundness of mind, he may, if the child is still liable to be kept in custody, order the person having charge of the child to send him to the special school or children's home from which he was removed or, if the child is no longer liable to be kept in custody, order him to be discharged.

48. Placing out on licence.—(1) When a child is kept in a children's home or special school, the Administrator may, if he so thinks fit, release the child from the children's home or special school and grant him a written licence for such period and on such conditions as may be specified in the licence permitting him to live with, or under the supervision of, any responsible person named in the licence willing to receive and take charge of him with a view to educate him and train him for some useful trade or calling.

(2) Any licence so granted under sub-section (1) shall be in force for the period specified in the licence or until revoked or forfeited by the breach of any of the conditions on which it was granted.

(3) The Administrator may, at any time, by order in writing revoke any such licence and order the child to return to the children's home or special school from which he was released or to any other children's home or special school, and shall do so at the desire of the person with whom or under whose supervision the child has been permitted to live in accordance with a licence granted under sub-section (1).

(4) When a licence has been revoked or forfeited and the child refuses or fails to return to the special school or children's home to which he was directed so to return, the Administrator may, if necessary, cause him to be taken charge of and to be taken back to the special school or children's home.

(5) The time during which a child is absent from a special school or children's home in pursuance of a licence granted under this section shall be deemed to be part of the time for which he is liable to be kept in custody in the special school or children's home:

Provided that when a child has failed to return to the special school or children's home on the licence being revoked or forteited, the time which elapses after his failure so to return shall be excluded in computing the time during which he is liable to be kept in custody.

49. Provision in respect of escaped children.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, any police officer may take charge without warrant of a child who has escaped from a special school or a children's home or from the care of a person under whom he was placed under this Act and shall send the child back to the special school or the children's home or that person, as the case may be; and no proceeding shall be instituted in respect of the child by reason of such escape but the special school, children's home or the person may, after giving the information to the competent authority which passed the order in respect of the child, take such steps against the child as may be deemed necessary.

50. Contribution by parents.—(1) The competent authority which makes an order for sending a neglected child or a delinquent child to a children's home, or a special school or placing the child under the care of a fit person may make an order requiring the parent or other person liable to maintain the child to contribute to his maintenance, if able to do so, in the prescribed manner.

(2) The competent authority before making any order under sub-section (1) shall inquire into the circumstances of the parent or other person liable to maintain the child and shall record evidence, if any, in the presence of the parent or such other person, as the case may be.

(3) The person liable to maintain a child shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), include in the case of illegitimacy, his putative father :

Provided that where the child is illegitimate and an order for his maintenance has been made under Section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the competent authority shall not ordinarily make an order for contribution against the putative father, but may order the whole or any part of the sums accruing due under the said order for maintenance to be paid to such person as may be named by the competent authority and such sum shall be paid by him towards the maintenance of the child.

(4) Any order made under this section may be enforced in the same manner as an order under Section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

51. Control of custodian over child.—Any person in whose custody a child is placed in pursuance of this Act shall, while the order is in force, have the like control over the child as he would have if he were his parent and shall be responsible for his maintenance, and the child shall continue in his custody for the period stated by the competent authority, notwithstanding that he is claimed by his parent or any other person :

Provided that no child while in such custody shall be married except with the permission of the competent authority.

52. Delinquent child undergoing sentence at commencement of the Act.—In any area in which this Act is brought into force, the Administrator may direct that a delinquent child who is undergoing any sentence of imprisonment at the commencement of this Act shall, in lieu of undergoing such sentence, be sent to a special school or be kept in safe custody in such place and manner as the Administrator thinks fit for the remainder of the period of the sentence, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to the child as if he had been ordered by a children's Court to be sent to such special school or, as the case may be, ordered to be detained under sub-section (2) of Section 22.

53. Appointment of officers.—(1) The Administrator may appoint as many probation officers, officers for the inspection of special schools, children's homes, observation homes or after-care organisations and such other officers as he may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) It shall be the duty of the probation officer—

(a) to inquire, in accordance with the direction of a competent authority, into the antecedents and family history of any child accused of an offence with a view to assist the authority in making the inquiry;

(b) to visit neglected and delinquent children at such intervals as the probation officer may think fit;

(c) to report to the competent authority as to the behaviour of any neglected or delinquent child;

(d) to advise and assist neglected or delinquent children and, if necessary, endeavour to find them suitable employment;

(e) where a neglected or delinquent child is placed under the care of any person on certain conditions, to see whether such conditions are being complied with; and

(f) to perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

(3) Any officer empowered in this behalf by the Administrator may enter any special school, children's home, observation home or after-care organisation and make a complete inspection thereof in all its departments and of all papers, registers and accounts relating thereto and shall submit the report of such inspection to the Administrator.

54. Officers appointed under the Act to be public servants.—Probation officers and other officers appointed in pursuance of this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

55. Procedure in respect of bonds.—The provisions of Chapter XLII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, as far as may be, apply to bonds taken under this Act.

56. Delegation of powers.—The Administrator may, by general or special order, direct that any power exercisable by him under this Act shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by an officer subordinate to the Administrator.

57. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Administrator or any probation officer or other officer appointed under this Act in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or of any rules or orders made thereunder.

58. Act VIII of 1897 and certain provisions of Act V of 1898 not to apply.—(1) The Reformatory Schools Act, 1897, and Section 29-B and Section 399 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall cease to apply to any area in which this Act has been brought into force.

(2) The Women's and Children's Institutions (Licensing) Act, 1956 shall not apply to any children's home, special school or observation home established and maintained under this Act.

59. Power to make rules[a].—(1) The Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the places at which, the days on which, the time at which, and the manner in which, a competent authority may hold its sittings;

(b) the procedure to be followed by a competent authority in holding inquiries under this Act; and the mode of dealing with children suffering from dangerous diseases or mental complaints;

(c) the circumstances in which, and the conditions subject to which, an institution may be certified as a special school or a children's home or recognised as an observation home, and the certification or recognition withdrawn;

(d) the internal management of special schools, children's home and observation homes;

(e) the functions and responsibilities of special schools, children's homes and observation homes;

(f) the inspection of special schools, children's homes, observation homes and after-care organisations;

(g) the establishment, management and functions of after-care organisations; the circumstances in which, and the conditions subject to which, an institution may be recognised as an after-care organisation;

(h) the qualifications and duties of probation officers;

(i) the recruitment and training of persons appointed to carry out the purposes of this Act and the terms and conditions of their service;

(j) the conditions subject to which a girl who is a neglected or delinquent child may be escorted from one place to another and the manner in which a child may be sent outside the jurisdiction of a competent authority;

(k) the manner in which contribution for the maintenance of a child may be ordered to be paid by a parent or guardian;

(l) the conditions under which a child may be placed out on licence and the form and conditions of such licence;

(m) the conditions subject to which children may be placed under the care of any parent, guardian or other fit person under this Act and the obligations of such persons towards the children so placed;

(n) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

[a] For Pondicherry Children Rules, 1966—See Pondi. Gaz., Ext., D/-3-12-1966, For Manipur Children Rules 1962—See Manipur Gaz., Ext., D/-22-6-1962.

60. Repeal and savings.—If, immediately before the date on which this Act comes into force in any area, there is in force in that area, any law corresponding to this Act, that law shall stand repealed on the said date :

Provided that the repeal shall not affect—

(a) the previous operation of any law so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed; or

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed; or

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Act had not been passed.

[THE] CHILDREN (PLEDGING OF LABOUR) ACT, 1933

(ACT II OF 1933)

[The text of the Act printed here is as on 1-5-1969.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Royal Commission of Labour found evidence in such widely separated areas as Amritsar, Ahmedabad and Madras of the practice of pledging child labour, that is, the taking of advances by parents or guardians on agreements, written or oral, pledging the labour of their children. In some cases, the children so pledged were subjected to particularly unsatisfactory working conditions. The Commission considered that the State would be justified in adopting strong measures to eradicate the evil, and the Bill seeks to do so by imposing penalties on parents by agreements pledging the labour of children and on person knowingly employing children whose labour has been pledged".

[THE] CHILDREN (PLEDGING OF LABOUR) ACT, 1933
(ACT II OF 1933)[a]

[24th February, 1933.]

An Act to prohibit the pledging of the labour of children.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prohibit the making of agreements to pledge the labour of children, and the employment of children whose labour has been pledged; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons: see Gaz. of Ind., 1932, Pt. V, p. 195.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the Union Territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh — See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e) [1-11-1956].

This Act has been extended to States Merged in the States of—
Bombay : see Bombay Act 4 of 1950.
Punjab : see Punjab Act 5 of 1950.

It has now been extended to the Union Territories of—
(1) Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Reg. 6 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-7-1965];
(2) Pondicherry by Reg. 7 of 1963 [w. e. f. 1-10-1963].

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHILDREN (PLEDGING OF LABOUR) ACT, 1933.

[a][(2) It extends to the whole of India [b][except the State of Jammu and Kashmir].]

(3) This section and Sections 2 and 3 shall come into force at once, and the remaining sections of this Act shall come into force on the first day of July, 1933.

[a] Substituted for sub-section (2) by A. L. O. 1950.
[b] Substituted for the words "except Part B States," by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. [1-4-1951].

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

"an agreement to pledge the labour of a child" means an agreement, written or oral, express or implied, whereby the parent or guardian of a child, in return for any payment or benefit received or to be received by him, undertakes to cause or allow the services of the child to be utilised in any employment :

Provided that an agreement made without detriment to a child, and not made in consideration of any benefit other than reasonable wages to be paid for the child's services, and terminable at not more than a week's notice, is not an agreement within the meaning of this definition;

"child" means a person who is under the age of fifteen years; and

"guardian" includes any person having legal custody of or control over a child.

3. Agreements contrary to the Act to be void.—An agreement to pledge the labour of a child shall be void.

4. Penalty for parent or guardian making agreement to pledge the labour of a child.—Whoever, being the parent or guardian of a child, makes an agreement to pledge the labour of that child, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

5. Penalty for making with a parent or guardian an agreement to pledge the labour of a child.—Whoever makes with the parent or guardian of a child an agreement whereby such parent or guardian pledges the labour of the child shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

6. Penalty for employing a child whose labour has been pledged.—Whoever, knowing or having reason to believe that an agreement has been made to pledge the labour of a child, in furtherance of such agreement employs such child, or permits such child to be employed in any premises or place under his control, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

STATEMENTS OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The law relating to solemnization in India of marriages of persons professing the Christian religion is at present distributed over two English Acts of Parliament and three Acts of the Indian Legislature.

The object of this Bill is to reduce into a smaller compass and simplify the existing law on this subject by the consolidation of the different enactments referred to, and at the same time to amend the law in those matters in which it has been shown to be defective.

For example, by Act V of 1865 it is provided that marriages between Native Christians shall be valid where the ages of the contracting parties are not less than sixteen and thirteen years, respectively, and where they do not stand in relation to each other within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity.

It has been very forcibly represented by the President and several members of the Bengal Christian Association that this provision of the law works injuriously by freeing the children of Native Christian parents from the control which all other parents can legally exercise over their sons and daughters ere the latter have attained their majority.

The Bill requires the consent of the parents or guardians of Native Christians to a marriage between them, where the age of either of the parties about to contract such marriage is less than eighteen years, except in cases in which the minors have been altogether separated from their parents or natural guardians, and by reason of such separation are not properly subject to their control.

There is also some ambiguity in regard to the provisions of the law respecting the submission of returns, and the disposal of the records of the registration of marriages solemnized between Native Christians.

The Bill lays down distinctly how such marriages are to be recorded in all cases, and provides for the disposal of the record. It also substitutes for the fixed rates of fees in respect of marriage solemnized by or before Marriage Registrars, a power to the Local Government to regulate such fees and their remission; and lastly, extends the Marriage law to all places within the territories of Native Princes in alliance with Her Majesty, in respect of marriages between British subjects professing the Christian religion".

[THE INDIAN] CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE ACT, 1872
(ACT XV OF 1872)[a]

[18th July, 1872.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the solemnization in India of the marriages of Christians.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the solemnization in India of the marriages of persons professing the Chirstian religion; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of India, 1871, Pt. V, p. 473. For Proceedings in Council, see Gazette of India, 1870. Supplement, p. 1077, ibid. 1871, Supplement, pp. 1426, 1643, ibid. 1872, Supplement, pp. 257, 728, 742, 805, 813 and 858.

This Act is based on 14 and 15 Vict., C. 40 and 58 Geo. III. C. 84 (both Statutes relate to marriages in India and are now no longer in force), and Acts 5 of 1852 and 5 of 1865; the last two Acts were repealed by this Act.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 [1-1-1950] and to the States of Tripura and Vindyha Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 [16-4-1950]. Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of M. P. State. It does not extend to the State of Manipur; see Foot-note (a) to S. 1.

This Act has been extended to States Merged in the State of Bombay : see Bom. Act 4 of 1950. The Bombay Registration of Marriages Act (Bom. Act 5 of 1954) does not apply to marriages contracted under this Act : see S. 14 of that Act.

The Act has been extended to the Union Territories of Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regn. 6 of 1963 (w. e. f. 1-7-1965) and Pondicherry by Act 26 of 1968, S. 3 and Sch. Pt. I.

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title.—This Act may be called THE INDIAN CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE ACT, 1872.

Extent

[a][It extends to the whole of India [b][except [c][the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in the States] of Travancore-Cochin, Manipur and Jammu and Kashmir].]

Commencement

[d][* * * *]

[a] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950, for the second paragraph as amended by A.O., 1937 and A.O., 1948.

---

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The Act is not only an amending but a consolidating Act and provides a Code in itself. The enactments which it repeals viz., 14 and 15 Vict C. 40 and Act 5 of 1865 were similar Codes. AIR 1951 All 529 (533): ILR (1951) 2 All 439 (DB).

(2) The object of this Act is not to prevent people from marrying as they wish but to enable them to protect themselves and their posterity by a lawful and binding marriage if they wish to be married as Christians. AIR 1918 All 168 (172): 40 All 393: 19 Cri LJ 615.

(3) This Act has to be so construed that no case is made to fall within its scope which does not fall both within the reasonable meaning of its terms and within the scope and spirit of the Act. Care must be taken to see that no case is brought under it which is not within its express language. AIR 1918 All 168 (169, 170): 40 All 393: 19 Cri LJ 615.

(4) There is nothing in this Act as regards the age of consent. The age of consent for a Christian marriage is determined according to the law in England at the time of the marriage. AIR 1933 All 135 (136): 55 All 243.

[b] Substituted for the words "except Part B States" by Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule [1-4-1951].
[c] Substituted for the words "the States" by 2 A.L.O., 1956.
[d] The commencement clause was repealed by the Repealing Act, 1874 (16 of 1874), S. 1 and Schedule.

Modification

In its application to Union Territory of Pondicherry, in S. 1 insert, at the end the following :—

"Provided that nothing contained in this Act shall apply to the Renoncant of the Union Territory of Pondicherry." — Act 26 of 1968, S. 3 and Sch., Pt. I.

2. Enactments repealed.—[Repealed by the Repealing Act, 1938 (1 of 1938), S. 2 and Schedule.]

3. Interpretation clause.—In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Church of England" and "Anglican" mean and apply to the Church of England as by law established;

"Church of Scotland" means the Church of Scotland as by law established;

"Church of Rome" and "Roman Catholic" mean and apply to the Church which regards the Pope of Rome as its spiritual head.

"Church" includes any chapel or other building generally used for public Christian worship;

[a]["India" means the [b][territories] to which this Act extends.]

"Minor" means a person who has not completed the age of twenty-one years and who is not a widower or a widow;

[c][ • • • • ]

the expression "Christians" means persons professing the Christian religion;

[d][and the expression "Indian Christians" includes the Christian descendants of natives of India converted to Christianity, as well as such converts];

[e]["Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages" means a Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages appointed under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886.]

[a] The definition of "India" was inserted by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule [1-4-1951].
[b] Substituted for the words "territory comprised in the States" by 2 A.L.O., 1956.
[c] The definition of "Native State" which read "Native State" means the territories of any Native Prince or State in alliance with Her Majesty" was repealed by A.O., 1937.
[d] Substituted for the original definition by A.L.O., 1950.
[e] Inserted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30.

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) The word "means" used in the definition of "Christians" is an inclusive term. ('18) AIR 1918 All 168 (170): 40 All 393: 19 Cri LJ 615. (See notes on Section 68.)

(2) Any person professing the Christian religion although he has not been baptised is a Christian for the purpose of the Act. ('53) AIR 1953 Orissa 10 (13): ILR (1952) Cut 511: 1953 Cri LJ 260.

(3) The words "person who professes the Christian religion" mean not only adults who profess that religion but also their children, who are presumed in law to follow their father's religion; and where the evidence is that the married child in question was baptized this Act would apply. ('94) 18 Mad 230 (232).

(4) A child in India is presumed to have its father's religion. AIR 1916 Lah 438 (439).

(5) Per Knox J. — Mere baptism as infant or attendance in a Christian school or dressing as a Christian is not sufficient to treat a person as one professing the Christian religion. One who performs Devi ka puja at the time of his marriage cannot be said to be a person professing the Christian religion. AIR 1918 All 168 (171): 19 Cri LJ 615: 40 All 393.

STATE AMENDMENT

Mysore

For the definition of "Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages", substitute the following:—

" 'Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages' means 'the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages appointed under the Mysore Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act, 1956'."—Mysore Act 20 of 1956. S. 10 [29-10-1956].

PART I

THE PERSONS BY WHOM MARRIAGES MAY BE SOLEMNIZED

4. Marriages to be solemnized according to Act.—Every marriage between persons, one or both of whom is [a][or are] a Christian or Christians, shall be solemnized in accordance with the provisions of the next following section; and any such marriage solemnized otherwise than in accordance with such provisions shall be void.

[a] Inserted by the Amending Act, 1891 (12 of 1891), S. 2 and Sch. II.

Section 3 — Note 1 (contd.)

(6) Per Walsh J. — A person, who on the eve of his marriage resists all persuasion and pressure to be married as a Christian, by the Christian ceremony and who having by birth and connexion other religious associations deliberately decides to marry a sweeper according to the sweeper rites and publicly worships Hindu Gods is not "a person professing the Christian religion." AIR 1918 All 168 (172): 40 All 393: 19 Cri LJ 615.

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) The High Court has jurisdiction to decide whether there has been a valid marriage under this Act. Section 4 of the Divorce Act does not stand in the way of this jurisdiction. AIR 1933 All 122 (123, 124): 55 All 185.

(2) This Act is intended to apply to the marriages of all Christians in India, including the marriages where one of the parties is a Christian. AIR 1918 Mad 601 (603): 18 Cri LJ 840: 40 Mad 1030 (FB).

(3) No valid marriage can be contracted between parties who are Christians according to Hindu rites. AIR 1955 Trav-Co 182 (182).

(4) The District Court has jurisdiction to entertain a petition praying for a decree of nullity of marriage on the ground that it is void under Section 4 of the Act. 9 Guj LR 511: ILR (1967) Guj 1003.

(5) Admissions of either of the spouses of the fact of marriage, evidence of eye witnesses to the marriage, subsequent conduct of the couple living as husband and wife and opinion expressed by conduct of others who had special means of knowledge can also be received in evidence to prove a marriage among Indian Christians as they can be in other cases. ('53) AIR 1953 Orissa 10 (11): ILR (1952) Cut 511: 1953 Cri LJ 260.

(6) In the teeth of the admissions of parties who are Roman Catholic Christians that the alleged marriage did not take place in a Church and no priest officiated at the ceremony a lawful marriage between them cannot be presumed because they lived together as husband and wife until the male died. AIR 1955 Trav-Co 182 (183).

(7) In regard to marriage among Indian Christians marriage performed according to the law of the land governing the parties will make the marriage valid and the offspring legitimate.

Though under the canon law a marriage performed by a Schismatic priest where the parties to the marriage are Roman Catholics will not be recognised as valid by the Catholic Church and the offspring will be described as illegitimate such marriage would be perfectly valid under Sections 4 and 5 of the Christian Marriage Act and the progeny perfectly legitimate.

Even if such a marriage is regarded as putative or invalid according to canon law, where at least one of the parties was in good faith, the offspring of such a marriage would be regarded as legitimate, entitled to succeed to the properties of the father. AIR 1960 Mad 430 (433, 434, 435): 1960 Mad WN 481.

(8) The Act requires a marriage to be performed in a particular form and a register of marriage to be maintained. Person setting up existence of valid marriage must establish such factum of marriage by producing such register. (1964) 2 Andh WR 136.

(9) As to when certain irregularities shall not render void a marriage solemnized in accordance with this section see Section 77.

5. Persons by whom marriages may be solemnized.—Marriages may be solemnized in [a][India]—

(1) by any person who has received episcopal ordination, provided that the marriage be solemnized according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of the Church of which he is a Minister;

(2) by any Clergyman of the Church of Scotland, provided that such marriage be solemnized according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of the Church of Scotland;

(3) by any Minister of Religion licensed under this Act to solemnize marriages;

(4) by, or in the presence of, a Marriage Registrar appointed under this Act;

(5) by any person licensed under this Act to grant certificates of marriage between [b][Indian Christians].

[a] Substituted for the words "Part A States and Part C States" by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule [1-4-1951].

[b] Substituted for "Native Christians" by A.L.O., 1950.

---

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) "Solemnized" in Section 5 means "celebrated" and refers to ceremonies only. ('18) AIR 1918 Low Bur 83 (85).

(2) Section 5 lays down certain classes of persons who can solemnize marriage between Indian Christians, but the Act nowhere provides that the marriage amongst the Indian Christians can be proved only in the manner as stated in Section 5 of the Act. The Evidence Act also does not lay down any special proof of a Christian Marriage. Hence the admission by either of the spouses of the fact of marriage and the subsequent conduct of the couple in living as husband and wife are some of the recognised modes of proof of marriage. Where the plaintiff files a suit for declaration that his marriage with the defendant was invalid, doubtless, the onus lies on him to prove that the marriage was not solemnized by any of the authorised persons prescribed in Section 5.

It may not be necessary to sign the marriage register under the Christian Marriage Act, if the marriage is held at the house of the defendant's (wife's) mother. AIR 1960 Orissa 164 (165): (1959) 1 Orissa JD 522.

(3) Section 5 deals only with the necessary preliminaries to the ceremony, the ceremony itstlf, and the person who performs it. It has nothing to do with Canon law. ('33) AIR 1933 All 122 (128): 55 All 185.

(4) Where during the lifetime of his lawfully wedded wife a Chiristian enters into a second marriage with another woman, the relationship between him and that woman is one of mere concubinage and the children born of that union are illegitimate. AIR 1953 Trav-Co 61 (62): 1952 Ker LT 595.

(5) Section 5 deals only with ceremony and the person who may perform it and not with the capacity of persons on whom it is performed or with the capacity of the person who performs it, save that he should have received episcopal ordination. ('18) AIR 1918 Low Bur 83 (85, 86).

(6) Personal law relating to christian in Travancore does not make a father legally liable to maintain his children whether they be legitimate or illegitimate. AIR 1953 Trav-Co 61 (62): 1952 Ker LT 595. (32 Cal 479, Diss.)

(7) If the Church lays down that the non-observance of some of its rules will not render the marriage void, there is nothing in Section 5 which invalidates a marriage in which such rules have not been observed. ('34) AIR 1934 All 273 (277): 56 All 428.

(8) According to personal law of Christians in Travancore-Cochin the husband has a legal obligation to maintain his wife. The wife can claim separate maintenance if there is justifiable cause for her refusal to live with him. AIR 1955 Trav-Co 255 (259): 1955 Ker LT 429 (FB). (Desertion by husband and habitual cruelty held justifiable causes.)

(9) A marriage between a Hindu and Christian performed before a Marriage Registrar under the Act would not be invalid merely because the rites and ceremonies prescribed by Hindu law have not been performed. AIR 1951 All 529 (534): ILR (1951) 2 All 439 (DB).

(10) As to when certain irregularities shall not render void a marriage solemnized in accordance with Section 5 see Section 77. As to registration of marriages between Native Christians by such persons are mentioned in clauses (1), (2) or (3) of this section, see Section 37; and for punishment for solemnizing marriage without due authority, see Section 68.

[a][6. Grant and revocation if licences to solemnize marriages.—The °[State] Government, so far as regards the territories under its administration [b][° ° °], may, by notification in the °[Official Gazette] [c][° ° °], grant licences to Ministers of Religion to solemnize marriages within such territories [d][° ° ° °] and may, by a like notification, revoke such licences.]

[b] The words "and the Central Government, so far as regards any Indian State" were repealed by A.L.O., 1950.

[c] The words "or in the Gazette of India, as the case may be," were repealed by A.O., 1937.

[d] The words "and State respectively" were omitted by A.L.O., 1950.

7. Marriage Registrars.—The °[State] Government may appoint one or more Christians, either by name or as holding any office for the time being, to be the Marriage Registrar or Marriage Registrars for any District subject to its administration.

Senior Marriage Registrar.—Where there are more Marriage Registrars than one in any district, the °[State] Government shall appoint one of them to be the Senior Marriage Registrar.

Magistrate when to be Marriage Registrar.— When there is only one Marriage Registrar in a district, and such Registrar is absent from such district, or ill, or when his office is temporarily vacant, the Magistrate of the district shall act as, and be, Marriage Registrar thereof during such absence, illness or temporary vacancy.

STATE AMENDMENT

Mysore

Substitute the words "District Magistrate" for the words "Magistrate of the district".—Code of Criminal Procedure (Mysore Amendment) Act (13 of 1965), S. 66 and Schedule [1-10-1965].

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Section 2 of the Secunderabad Marriage Validating Ordinance, 1945 (No. 30 of 1945), (1-9-1945), runs as follows :—

"2. Validation of a certain irregular marriage and the records thereof. — (1) The marriage solemnized in St. Andrew's Church at Secunderabad on the 20th day of April 1944 between persons being Christian but not Indian Christian, subjects of His Majesty by the Reverend Harold William Sibree Page, a Minister of the Methodist Church, shall be, and shall be deemed to have been with effect on and from the said date, as good and valid in law as if it had been solemnized under a licence granted under Section 6 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, authorising the solemnization of marriages between persons being Christian, but not necessarily Indian Christian, subjects of His Majesty in the Hyderabad State.

(2) Certificates of the marriage declared by sub-section (1) to be good and valid in law, and register books and certified copies of true and duly authenticated extracts therefrom, deposited in compliance with the provisions of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, in so far as the register-books and extracts relate to the said marriage, shall be received as evidence of the marriage as if it had been duly solemnized under Part I of the said Act."

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) As to the powers and functions exercisable by the Central Government as regards the Indian States, see S. 86.

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) The presence of a person licensed under this section is one of the conditions that has to be fulfilled for the validity of the marriage between Native Christians: See Section 60. As to the duties of a person licensed under this section with respect to the marriages solemnized under Part VI, see Ss. 61 and 62.

(2) For penalty for solemnizing an irregular marriage by a person licensed under this section, see Marriage Validation Act, 1892, S. 6.

[b] Substituted for "Native Christians", ibid.

PART II

TIME AND PLACE AT WHICH MARRIAGES MAY BE SOLEMNIZED

10. Time for solemnizing marriage.—Every marriage under this Act shall be solemnized between the hours of six in the morning and seven in the evening:

Exceptions

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to—

(1) a Clergyman of the Church of England solemnizing a marriage under a special licence permitting him to do so at any hour other than between six in the morning and seven in the evening, under the hand and seal of the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese or his Commissary, or

(2) a Clergyman of the Church of Rome solemnizing a marriage between the hours of seven in the evening and six in the morning, when he has received a general or special licence in that behalf from the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese or Vicariate in which such marriage is so solemnized, or from such person as the same Bishop has authorized to grant such licence, [a][or

(3) a Clergyman of the Church of Scotland solemnizing a marriage according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of the Church of Scotland].

[a] Inserted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 2.

11. Place for solemnizing marriage.—No Clergyman of the Church of England shall solemnize a marriage in any place other than a church [a][where worship is generally held according to the forms of the Church of England], unless there is no [a][such] church within five miles distance by the shortest road from such place, or unless he has received a special licence authorizing him to do so under the hand and seal of the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese or his Commissary.

Fee for special licence.—For such special licence, the Registrar of the Diocese may charge such additional fee as the said Bishop from time to time authorizes.

[a] Inserted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), Sec. 3.

PART III

MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED BY MINISTERS OF RELIGION LICENSED UNDER THIS ACT

12. Notice of intended marriage.—Whenever a marriage is intended to be solemnized by a Minister of Religion licensed to solemnize marriages under this Act—one of the persons intending marriage shall give notice in writing according to the form contained in the First Schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect,

---

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) As to what persons solemnizing marriage under the provisions of this section are exempt from punishment for solemnizing marriage out of proper time or without witnesses, see S. 69.

Section 12 — Note 1

(1) Part III of this Act applies only to the Minister of Religion whom he or she desires to solemnize the marriage, and shall state therein—

(a) the name and surname, and the profession or condition, of each of the persons intending marriage.
(b) the dwelling place of each of them,
(c) the time during which each has dwelt there, and
(d) the church or private dwelling in which the marriage is to be solemnized:

Provided that, if either of such persons has dwelt in the place mentioned in the notice during more than one month, it may be stated therein that he or she has dwelt there one month and upwards.

13. Publication of such notice.—If the persons intending marriage desire it to be solemnized in a particular church, and if the Minister of Religion to whom such notice has been delivered be entitled to officiate therein, he shall cause the notice to be affixed in some conspicuous part of such church.

Return or transfer of notice.—But if he is not entitled to officiate as a Minister in such church, he shall, at his option, either return the notice to the person who delivered it to him, or deliver it to some other Minister entitled to officiate therein, who shall thereupon cause the notice to be affixd as aforesaid.

14. Notice of intended marriage in private dwelling.—If it be intended that the marriage shall be solemnized in a private dwelling, the Minister of Religion, on receiving the notice prescribed in Section 12, shall forward it to the Marriage Registrar of the district, who shall affix the same to some conspicuous place in his own office.

15. Sending copy of notice to Marriage Registrar when one party is a minor.—When one of the persons intending marriage is a minor, every Minister receiving such notice shall, unless within twenty-four hours after its receipt he returns the same under the provisions of Section 13, send by the post or otherwise a copy of such notice to the Marriage Registrar of the district, or, if there be more than one Registrar of such district, to the Senior Marriage Registrar.

16. Procedure on receipt of notice.—The Marriage Registrar or Senior Marriage Registrar, as the case may be, on receiving any such notice, shall affix it to some conspicuous place in his own office, and the latter shall further cause a copy of the said notice to be sent to each of the other Marriage Registrars in the same district, who shall likewise publish the same in the manner above directed.

17. Issue of certificate of notice given and declaration made.—Any Minister of Religion consenting or intending to solemnize any such marriage as aforesaid, shall, on being required so to do by or on behalf of the person by whom the notice was given, and upon one of the persons intending marriage making the declaration hereinafter required, issue under his hand a certificate of such notice having been given and of such declaration having been made:

Proviso.

Provided—

(1) that no such certificate shall be issued until the expiration of four days after the date of the receipt of the notice by such Minister;
(2) that no lawful impediment be shown to his satisfaction why such certificate should not issue; and
(3) that the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden, in manner hereinafter mentioned, by any person authorized in that behalf.

---

to Ministers of religion licensed under this Act and not to be episcopally ordained persons. Hence the provisions with respect to notice of marriages or their publication would not apply in their case. (1896) 19 Mad 273 (281).

(2) As to notice of intended marriage in a private dwelling, see S. 14.

18. Declaration before issue of certificate.—The certificate mentioned in Section 17 shall not be issued until one of the persons intending marriage has appeared personally before the Minister and made a solemn declaration—and, when either or both of the parties is or are a minor or minors,

(a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or affinity or other lawful hindrance, to the said marriage.

(b) that the consent or consents required by law has or have been obtained thereto, or that there is no person resident in India having authority to give such consent, as the case may be.

19. Consent of father, or guardian, or mother.—The father, if living, of any minor, or, if the father be dead, the guardian of the person of such minor, and, in case there be no such guardian, then the mother of such minor, may give consent to the minor's marriage, and such consent is hereby required for the same marriage, unless no person authorized to give such consent be resident in India.

20. Power to prohibit by notice issue of certificate.—Every person whose consent to a marriage is required under Section 19 is hereby authorized to prohibit the issue of the certificate by any Minister, at any time before the issue of the same, by notice in writing to such Minister, subscribed by the person so authorized with his or her name and place of abode and position with respect to either of the persons intending marriage, by reason of which he or she is so authorized as aforesaid.

21. Procedure on receipt of notice.—If any such notice be received by such Minister, he shall not issue his certificate and shall not solemnize the said marriage until he has examined into the matter of the said prohibition, and is satisfied that the person prohibiting the marriage has no lawful authority for such prohibition, or until the said notice is withdrawn by the person who gave it.

22. Issue of certificate in case of minority.—When either of the persons intending marriage is a minor, and the Minister is not satisfied that the consent of the person whose consent to such marriage is required by Section 19 has been obtained, such Minister shall not issue such certificate until the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt by him of the notice of marriage.

23. Issue of certificates to [a][Indian] Christians.—When any [a][Indian] Christian about to be married takes a notice of marriage to a Minister of Religion, or applies for a certificate from such Minister under Section 17, such Minister shall, before issuing the certificate, ascertain whether such [a][Indian] Christian is cognizant of the purport and effect of the said notice or certificate, as the case may be, and, if not, shall translate or cause to be translated the notice or certificate to such [a][Indian] Christian into some language which he understands.

24. Form of certificate.—The certificate to be issued by such Minister shall be in the form contained in the second schedule thereto annexed, or to the like effect.

---

Section 18 — Note 1

(1) Section 18 imposes a declaration of belief only. It is sufficient if the declarer believes that there is no impediment though there may be one under the law. The maxim ignorantia juris non excusat is inapplicable in such cases. ('94) 16 All 212 (216).

Section 19 — Note 1

(1) It is doubtful whether the marriage of a minor girl whose father is dead could be validly solemnised, when there is no consent from an undoubted guardian, in the absence of her mother's consent. AIR 1952 Punj 277 (279).

(2) It is only when any person answering any of the three categories mentioned in the section is in existence and happens to be "not resident" in India that the latter part of Section 19 comes into operation and the consent of such guardian is dispensed with. It does not follow that if any of the persons answering any of the three categories mentioned is not in existence, a guardian has to be appointed for the purpose of giving such consent to the marriage of the minor. There is no provision in the Act for the appointment of such guardian. AIR 1946 Bom 129 (131).

25. Solemnization of marriage.—After the issue of the certificate by the Minister, marriage may be solemnized between the persons therein described according to such form or ceremony as the Minister thinks fit to adopt:

Provided that the marriage be solemnized in the presence of at least two witnesses besides the Minister.

26. Certificate void if marriage not solemnized within two months.—Whenever a marriage is not solemnized within two months after the date of the certificate issued by such Minister as aforesaid, such certificate and all proceedings (if any) thereon shall be void, and no person shall proceed to solemnize the said marriage until new notice has been given, and a certificate thereof issued in manner aforesaid.

PART IV

REGISTRATION OF MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED BY MINISTERS OF RELIGION

27. Marriages when to be registered.—All marriages hereafter solemnized in [a][India] between persons one or both of whom professes or profess the Christian religion, except marriages solemnized under Part V or Part VI of this Act, shall be registered[b] in manner hereinafter prescribed.

[a] Substituted for the words "a Part A State or a Part B State," by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule [1-4-1951].

[b] As to the establishment of general registry offices of birth, deaths and marriages, see the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), Chapter II.

28. Registration of marriages solemnized by Clergymen of Church of England.—Every Clergyman of the Church of England shall keep a register of marriages and shall register therein, according to the tabular form set forth in the Third Schedule hereto annexed, every marriage which he solemnizes under this Act.

29. Quarterly returns to Archdeaconry.—Every Clergyman of the Church of England shall send four times in every year returns in duplicate, authenticated by his signature, of the entries in the register of marriages solemnized at any place where he has any spiritual charge, to the Registrar of the Archdeaconry to which he is subject, or within the limits of which such place is situate.

Contents of returns.—Such quarterly returns shall contain all the entries of marriages contained in the said register from the first day of January to the thirty-first day of March, from the first day of April to the thirtieth day of June, from the first day of July to the thirtieth day of September, and from the first day of October to the thirty-first day of December, of each year respectively, and shall be sent by such Clergyman within two weeks from the expiration of each of the quarters above specified.

The said Registrar upon receiving the said returns shall send one copy thereof to the [a][Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages].

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for "Secretary to the Local Government".

30. Registration and returns of marriages solemnized by Clergymen of Church of Rome.—Every marriage solemnized by a Clergyman of the Church of Rome shall be registered by the person and according to the form directed in that behalf by the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese or Vicariate in which such marriage is solemnized, and such person shall forward quarterly to the [a][Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages] returns of the entries of all marriages registered by him during the three months next preceding.

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

31. Registration and returns of marriages solemnized by Clergymen of Church of Scotland.—Every Clergyman of the Church of Scotland shall keep a register of marriages, and shall register therein, according to the tabular form set forth in the Third Schedule hereto annexed, every marriage which he solemnizes under this Act, and shall forward quarterly to the [a][Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages], through the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, returns, similar to those prescribed in Section 29, of all such marriages.

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

32. Certain marriages to be registered in duplicate.—Every marriage solemnized by any person who has received episcopal ordination, but who is not a Clergyman of the Church of England, or of the Church of Rome, or by any Minister of Religion licensed under this Act to solemnize marriages, shall immediately after the solemnization thereof, be registered in duplicate by the person solemnizing the same; (that is to say) in a marriage-register book to be kept by him for that purpose, according to the form contained in the fourth schedule hereto annexed, and also in a certificate attached to the marriage-register book as a counterfoil.

33. Entries of such marriages to be signed and attested.—The entry of such marriage in both the certificate and marriage-register book shall be signed by the person solemnizing the marriage, and also by the persons married, and shall be attested by two credible witnesses, other than the person solemnizing the marriage, present at its solemnization.

Every such entry shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of the book, and the number of the certificate shall correspond with that of the entry in the marriage register book.

34. Certificate to be forwarded to Marriage Registrar, copied and sent to Registrar-General.—The person solemnizing the marriage shall forthwith separate the certificate from the marriage register book and send it, within one month from the time of the solemnization, to the Marriage Registrar of the District in which the marriage was solemnized, or, if there be more Marriage Registrars than one, to the Senior Marriage Registrar, who shall cause such certificate to be copied into a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall send all the certificates which he has received during the month, with such number and signature or initials added thereto as are hereinafter required, to the [a][Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages].

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

35. Copies of certificates to be entered and numbered.—Such copies shall be entered in order from the beginning to the end of the said book, and shall bear both the number of the certificate as copied, and also a number to be entered by the Marriage Registrar, indicating the number of the entry of the said copy in the said book, according to the order in which he receives each certificate.

36. Registrar to add number of entry to certificate, and send to Registrar-General.—The Marriage Registrar shall also add such last-mentioned number of the entry of the copy in the book to the certificate, with his signature or initials, and shall, at the end of every month, send the same to the [a][Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages].

[a] Substituted by S. 30 (b) of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

37. Registration of marriages between Indian Christians by persons referred to in clauses (1), (2) and (3) of Section 5.—When any marriage between [a][Indian] Christians is solemnized [b][by any such person, Clergyman or Minister of Religion as is referred to in clause (1), clause (2) or clause (3) of S. 5], the person solemnizing the same shall, instead of proceeding in the manner provided by Sections 28 to 36, both inclusive, register the marriage in a separate register-book, and shall keep it safely until it is filled, or, if he leaves the district in which he solemnized the marriage before the said book is filled, shall make over the same to the person succeeding to his duties in the said district.

Custody and disposal of register-book.—Whoever has the control of the book at the time when it is filled, shall send it to the Marriage Registrar of the District, or, if there be more Marriage Registrars than one, to the Senior Marriage Registrar, who shall send it to the [c][Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages] to be kept by him with the records of his office.

[a] Substituted for the word "Native Christians" by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1928 (18 of 1928), S. 2 and Sch. I, for "under Part I or Part III of this Act".

[c] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for "Secretary to the Local Government".

PART V

MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED BY, OR IN THE PRESENCE OF, A MARRIAGE REGISTRAR

38. Notice of intended marriage before Marriage Registrar.—When a marriage is intended to be solemnized by, or in the presence of, a Marriage Registrar, one of the parties to such marriage shall give notice in writing, in the form contained in the First Schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect, to any Marriage Registrar of the District within which the parties have dwelt; or, if the parties dwell in different districts, shall give the like notice to a Marriage Registrar of each district, and shall state therein the name and surname, and the profession or condition, of each of the parties intending marriage, the dwelling-place of each of them, the time during which each has dwelt therein and the place at which the marriage is to be solemnized:

Provided that, if either party has dwelt in the place stated in the notice for more than one month, it may be stated therein that he or she has dwelt there one month and upwards.

39. Publication of notice.—Every Marriage Registrar shall, on receiving any such notice, cause a copy thereof to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office.

When one of the parties intending marriage is a minor, every Marriage Registrar shall, within twenty-four hours after the receipt by him of the notice of such marriage, send, by post or otherwise, a copy of such notice to each of the other Marriage Registrars (if any) in the same district, who shall likewise affix the copy in some conspicuous place in his own office.

Section 37 — Note 1

(1) The registration of marriages between Native Christians is to be in conformity with the rules laid down by this section so far as they are applicable: see Section 59. As to the books in which marriages of Native Christians are to be registered, see S. 64.

Section 38 — Note 1

40. Notice to be filed and copy entered in Marriage Notice Book.—The Marriage Registrar shall file all such notices and keep them with the records of his office, and shall also forthwith enter a true copy of all such notices in a book to be furnished to him for that purpose by the °[State] Government and to be called the "Marriage Notice Book", and the Marriage Notice Book shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to all persons desirous of inspecting the same.

41. Certificate of notice given and oath made.—If the party by whom the notice was given requests the Marriage Registrar to issue the certificate next hereinafter mentioned, and if one of the parties intending marriage has made oath as hereinafter required, the Marriage Registrar shall issue under his hand a certificate of such notice having been given and of such oath having been made:

Proviso.

Provided—

that no lawful impediment be shown to his satisfaction why such certificate should not issue;

that the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden, in manner hereinafter mentioned, by any person authorized in that behalf by this Act; that four days after the receipt of the notice have expired; and further, that where, by such oath, it appears that one of the parties intending marriage is a minor, fourteen days after the entry of such notice have expired.

42. Oath before issue of certificate.—The certificate mentioned in Section 41 shall not be issued by any Marriage Registrar, until one of the parties intending marriage appears personally before such Marriage Registrar, and makes oath[a]—

(a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or affinity, or other lawful hindrance, to the said marriage, and

(b) that both the parties have, or (where they have dwelt in the districts of different Marriage Registrars) that the party making such oath has, had their, his or her usual place of abode within the district of such Marriage Registrar, and, where either or each of the parties is a minor,—

(c) that the consent or consents to such marriage required by law has or have been obtained thereto, or that there is no person resident in India authorized to give such consent, as the case may be.

[a] As to meaning of "oath", see the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), S. 3 (37) and Section 4.

43. Petition to High Court to order certificate in less than fourteen days.—When one of the parties intending marriage is a minor, and both such parties are at the time resident in any of the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, and are desirous of being married in less than fourteen days after the entry of such notice as aforesaid, they may apply by petition to a Judge of the High Court, for an order upon the Marriage Registrar to whom the notice of marriage has been

Section 40 — Note 1

(1) As to the effect of not solemnising the marriage within two months of the notice required by this section, see Section 52; and as to the punishment for solemnising a marriage after the expiration of two months, see S. 71.

Section 42 — Note 1

(1) False declaration by the bridegroom as to the age and residence of the bride does not make the marriage void under Section 4. ('37) AIR 1937 Mad 895 (897): ILR (1938) Mad 113.

(2) No question of consent being dispensed with arises in a case where the persons specified in Section 19 are not in existence at all. In such cases it is not necessary to appoint a guardian nor can the registrar insist on such appointment for the purpose of giving consent to the marriage. The Act has no provision for the appointment of such a guardian at all. AIR 1946 Bom 129 (131).

given, directing him to issue his certificate before the expiration of the said fourteen days required by Section 41.

Order on petition.—And, on sufficient cause being shown, the said Judge may, in his discretion, make an order upon such Marriage Registrar, directing him to issue his certificate at any time to be mentioned in the said order before the expiration of the fourteen days so required.

And the said Marriage Registrar, on receipt of the said order, shall issue his certificate in accordance therewith.

44. Consent of father or guardian.—The provisions of Section 19 apply to every marriage under this Part, either of the parties to which is a minor;

Protest against issue of certificate.—and any person whose consent to such marriage would be required thereunder may enter a protest against the issue of the Marriage Registrar's certificate, by writing, at any time before the issue of such certificate, the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the Marriage Notice Book, and by subscribing thereto his or her name and place of abode, and his or her position with respect to either of the parties, by reason of which he or she is so authorized.

Effect of protest.—When such protest has been entered, no certificate shall issue until the Marriage Registrar has examined into matter of the protest, and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate for the said marriage, or until the protest be withdrawn by the person who entered it.

45. Petition where person whose consent is necessary is insane.—If any person whose consent is necessary to any marriage under this Part is of unsound mind, or unjustly withholds consent;—or if any such person (other than the father) without just cause withholds his consent to the marriage, the parties intending marriage may apply by petition, where the person whose consent is necessary is resident within any of the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to a Judge of the High Court, or if he is not resident within any of the said towns, then to the District Judge:

Procedure on petition.—And the said Judge of the High Court, or District Judge, as the case may be, may examine the allegations of the petition in a summary way:

And, if upon examination such marriage appears proper, such Judge of the High Court or District Judge, as the case may be, shall declare the marriage to be a proper marriage.

Such declaration shall be as effectual as if the person whose consent was needed had consented to the marriage; and if he has forbidden the issue of the Marriage Registrar's certificate, such certificate shall be issued and the like proceedings may be had under this Part in relation to the marriage as if the issue of such certificate had not been forbidden.

46. Petition when Marriage Registrar refuses certificate.—Whenever a Marriage Registrar refuses to issue a certificate under this Part, either of the parties intending marriage may apply by petition, where the district of such Registrar is within any of the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to a Judge of the High Court, or if such district is not within any of the said towns, then to the District Judge.

Procedure on petition.—The said Judge of the High Court, or District Judge, as the case may be, may examine the allegations of the petition in a summary way, and shall decide thereon.

The decision of such Judge of the High Court or District Judge, as the case may be, shall be final, and the Marriage Registrar to whom the application for the issue of a certificate was originally made shall proceed in accordance therewith.

47. Petition when Marriage Registrar in Indian State refuses certificate.—[Omitted by A. L. O., 1950.]

48. Petition when Registrar doubts authority of person forbidding.—Whenever a Marriage Registrar, acting under the provisions of Section 44, is not satisfied that the person forbidding the issue of the certificate is authorized by law so to do, the said Marriage Registrar shall apply by petition, where his district is within any of the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to a Judge of the High Court, or, if such district be not within any of the said towns, then to the District Judge.

Procedure on petition.—The said petition shall state all the circumstances of the case, and pray for the order and direction of the Court concerning the same, and the said Judge of the High Court or District Judge, as the case may be, shall examine into the allegations of the petition and the circumstances of the case;

and if, upon such examination, it appears, that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorized by law so to do, such Judge of the High Court or District Judge, as the case may be, shall declare that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorized as atoresaid, and thereupon such certificate shall be issued, and the like proceedings may be had in relation to such marriage as if the issue had not been forbidden.

[a] The last three paras, beginning with the words "whenever a Marriage Registrar" and ending with the words "had not been forbidden" were omitted by A. L. O., 1950.

49. Liability for frivolous protest against issue of certificate.—Every person entering a protest with the Marriage Registrar, under this Part, against the issue of any certificate, on grounds which such Marriage Registrar, under Section 44, or a Judge of the High Court or the District Judge, under Section 45 or 46, declares to be frivolous and such as ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate, shall be liable for the costs of all proceedings in relation thereto and for damages, to be recovered by suit by the person against whose marriage such protest was entered.

50. Form of certificate.—The certificate to be issued by the Marriage Registrar under the provisions of Section 41 shall be in the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed or to the like effect, and the [a][State] Government shall furnish to every Marriage Registrar a sufficient number of forms of certificate.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

51. Solemnization of marriage after issue of certificate.—After the issue of the certificate of the Marriage Registrar, or, where notice is required to be given under this Act to the Marriage Registrars for different districts, after the issue of the certificates of the Marriage Registrars for such districts, marriage may, if there be no lawful impediment to the marriage of the parties described in such certificate or certificates, be solemnized between them, according to such form and ceremony as they think fit to adopt.

But every such marriage shall be solemnized in the presence of some Marriage Registrar (to whom shall be delivered such certificate or certificates as aforesaid), and of two or more credible witnesses besides the Marriage Registrar.

And in some part of the ceremony each of the parties shall declare as follows, or to the like effect :—

"I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D."

And each of the parties shall say to the other as follows or to the like effect — "I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, A. B., do take thee, C. D., to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband]."

52. When marriage not had within two months after notice, new notice required.—Whenever a marriage is not solemnized within two months after a copy of the notice has been entered by the Marriage Registrar, as required by Sec. 40, the notice and the certificate, if any, issued thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be void; and no person shall proceed to solemnize the marriage, nor shall any Marriage Registrar enter the same, until new notice has been given, and entry made, and certificate thereof given, at the time and in the manner aforesaid.

53. Marriage Registrar may ask for particulars to be registered.—A Marriage Registrar before whom any marriage is solemnized under this Part may ask of the persons to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching such marriage.

54. Registration of marriages solemnized under Part V.—After the solemnization of any marriage under this Part, the Marriage Registrar present at such solemnization shall forthwith register the marriage in duplicate; that is to say, in a marriage-register book, according to the form of the fourth schedule hereto annexed, and also in a certificate attached to the marriage register book as a counterfoil.

The entry of such marriage in both the certificate and the marriage-register book shall be signed by the person by or before whom the marriage has been solemnized, if there be any such person, and by the Marriage Registrar present at such marriage, whether or not it is solemnized by him, and also by the parties married, and attested by two credible witnesses other than the Marriage Registrar and person solemnizing the marriage.

Every such entry shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of the book, and the number of the certificate shall correspond with that of the entry in the marriage-register book.

55. Certificates to be sent monthly to Registrar General.—The Marriage Registrar shall forthwith separate the certificate from the marriage-register book and send it, at the end of every month, to the [a][Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages].

Custody of register-book.—The Marriage Registrar shall keep safely the said register-book until it is filled, and shall then send it to the [a][Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages], to be kept by him with the records of his office.

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

56. Officers to whom Registrars in Indian States shall send certificates.—[Omitted by A. L. O., 1950].

57. Registrars to ascertain that notice and certificate are understood by Indian Christians.—When any [a][Indian] Chirstian about to be married gives a notice of marriage, or applies for a certificate from a Marriage Registrar, such Marriage Registrar shall ascertain whether the said [a][Indian] Christian understands the English language, and, if he does not, the Marriage Registrar shall translate, or cause to be translated, such notice or certificate, or both of them, as the case may be, to such [a][Indian] Christian into a language which he understands; or the Marriage Registrar shall otherwise ascertain whether the [a][Indian] Christian is cognizant of the purport and effect of the said notice and certificate.

[a] Substituted for "Native", by A.L.O., 1950.

58. Indian Christians to be made to understand declarations.—When any [a][Indian] Christian is married under the provisions of this Part, the person solemnizing the marriage shall ascertain whether such [a][Indian] Christian understands the English language, and, if he does not, the person solemnizing the marriage shall, at the time of the solemnization, translate, or cause to be translated, to such [a][Indian] Christian, into a language which he understands, the declarations made at such marriage in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

[a] Substituted for "Native" by A.L.O., 1950.

59. Registration of marriages between Indian Christians.—The registration of marriages between [a][Indian] Christians under this Part shall be made in conformity with the rules laid down in Section 37 (so far as they are applicable), and not otherwise.

[a] Substituted for "Native", by A.L.O., 1950.

PART VI[a]

MARRIAGE OF [b][INDIAN] CHRISTIANS

60. On what conditions marriages of Indian Christians may be certified.—Every marriage between [b][Indian] Christians applying for a certificate, shall, without the preliminary notice required under Part III, be certified under this Part, if the following conditions be fulfilled, and not otherwise :—

(1) the age of the man intending to be married [c][shall not be under eighteen years], and the age of the woman intending to be married [d][shall not be under fifteen years];

(2) neither of the persons intending to be married shall have a wife or husband still living;

(3) in the presence of a person licensed under Section 9, and of at least two credible witnesses other than such person, each of the parties shall say to the other—

"I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, A. B., in the presence of Almighty God, and in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, do take thee C. D., to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband]" or words to the like effect :

Provided that no marriage shall be certified under this Part when either of the parties intending to be married has not completed his or her eighteenth year, unless such consent as is mentioned in Section 19 has been given to the intended marriage, or unless it appears that there is no person living authorized to give such consent.

[a] As to validation of past marriages solemnized under Part VI, between persons of whom one only was an Indian Christian, and penalty for solemnizing such marriages under Part VI in future, see the Marriage Validation Act, 1892 (2 of 1892).

[b] Substituted for "Native" by A.L.O., 1950.

[c] Substituted for the words "shall exceed sixteen years", by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1952 (48 of 1952), S. 3 and Schedule II, [2-8-1952].

[d] Substituted for the words "shall exceed thirteen years", ibid.

61. Grant of certificate.—When, in respect to any marriage solemnized under this Part, the conditions prescribed in Section 60 have been fulfilled, the person licensed as aforesaid, in whose presence the said declaration has been made, shall, on the application of either of the parties to such marriage, and on the payment of a fee of four annas, grant a certificate of the marriage.

The certificate shall be signed by such licensed person, and shall be received in any suit touching the validity of such marriage as conclusive proof of its having been performed.

[a][62. Keeping of register-book and deposit of extracts therefrom with Registrar General.—(1) Every person licensed under Section 9 shall keep in English, or in the vernacular language in ordinary use in the district or State in which the marriage was solemnized, and in such form as the [aa][State] Government by which he was licensed may from time to time prescribe,[b] a register-book of all marriages solemnized under this Part in his presence, and shall deposit in the office of the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages for the territories under the administration of the said [aa][State] Government in such form and at such intervals as that Government may prescribe, true and duly authenticated extracts from his register-book of all entries made therein since the last of those intervals.

[a] Substituted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 4, for the original S. 62.

[aa] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] For notifications issued by different Governments, see the different Local Rules and orders.

[c] Sub-section (2) of Section 62, was omitted by A. L. O., 1950.

63. Searches in register-book and copies of entries.—Every person licensed under this Act to grant certificates of marriage, and keeping a marriage register-book under Section 62, shall, at all reasonable times, allow search to be made in such book, and shall, on payment of the proper fee, give a copy, certified under his hand, or any entry therein.

64. Books in which marriages of Indian Christians under Part I or Part III are registered.—The provisions of Sections 62 and 63, as to the form of the register-book, depositing extracts therefrom, allowing searches thereof, and giving copies of the entries therein, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the books kept under Section 37.

65. Part VI not to apply to Roman Catholics.—This Part of this Act, except so much of Sections 62 and 63 as are referred to in Section 64, shall not apply to marriages between Roman Catholics.

Saving of certain marriages—But nothing herein contained shall invalidate any marriage celebrated between Roman Catholics under the provisions of Part V of Act No. 25 of 1864,[a] previous to the twenty-third day of February, 1865.

[a] Act 25 of 1864 was repealed by Act 5 of 1865 which was repealed by this Act.

PART VII
PENALTIES

[a][66. False oath, declaration notice or certificate for procuring marriage.—Whoever, for the purpose of procuring a marriage or licence of marriage, intentionally,—

(a) where an oath or declaration is required by this Act, or by any rule or custom of a Church according to the rites and ceremonies of which a marriage is intended to be solemnized, such Church being the Church of England or of Scotland or of Rome, makes a false oath or declaration, or,

(b) where a notice or certificate is required by this Act, signs a false notice or certificate, shall be deemed to have committed the offence punishable under Section 193 of the Indian Penal Code with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years and, at the discretion of the Court, with fine.]

[a] Substituted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872) Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 5 for original Section 66.

67. Forbidding, by false personation, issue of certificate by Marriage Registrar.—Whoever forbids the issue, by a Marriage Registrar, of a certificate, by falsely representing himself to be a person whose consent to the marriage is required by law, knowing or believing such representation to be false, or not having reason to believe it to be true, shall be deemed guilty of the offence described in Section 205 of the Indian Penal Code.

[a][68. Solemnizing marriage without due authority.—Whoever, not being authorized by Section 5 of this Act to solemnize marriages, solemnizes or professes to solemnize in the absence of a Marriage Registrar of the district in which the ceremony takes place, a marriage between persons one or both of whom is or are a Christian or Christians, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to ten years, or (in lieu of a sentence of imprisonment for seven years or upwards) with transportation for a term of not less than seven years, and not exceeding ten years, and shall also be liable to fine.]

[b][* * *]

[a] Substituted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 6 for the original Section 68.

[b] The second para of Sec. 68 was omitted by A. L. O., 1950.

---

Part VII — Note 1

(1) Sections 66 to 76 apply to all persons, who are not authorized to do so, solemnizing a marriage between Christians and do not apply simply to marriages that take place before the Marriage Registrar. ('71) 14 Mad 342 (351).

Section 66 — Note 1

(1) The making of a false oath under Section 66 must be intentional. Hence when a declaration is made under Section 18 that the deponent believed that there was no impediment, it must be satisfactorily proved that the deponent was conscious that he was making a false declaration. ('91) 16 All 212 (216).

Section 68 — Note 1

(1) The word "means" in Section 3 is an inclusive term and hence no person except one who professes Christian religion comes within the purview of Section 68. AIR 1918 All 168 (170): 40 All 393: 19 Cri LJ 615.

(2) There is no express prohibition preventing a person professing Christianity from marrying a non-Christian, by non-Christian ceremony, Section 68 does not make it penal for a professing Christian to marry by a ceremony which is void under Section 4. It refers to a class of persons who solemnize or profess to solemnize a Christian marriage under the Act not being authorized by Section 5 to do so. AIR 1918 All 168 (171): 19 Cri LJ 615: 40 All 393.

(3) A Hindu performing a marriage according to the Hindu rites between two persons one of whom is a Christian is guilty under Section 68. ('18) AIR 1918 Mad 601 (603): 18 Cri LJ 840: 40 Mad 1030 (FB). (20 Mad 12,, 6 Mad HCR (App) 20 and 17 Mad 391, Approved.)

(4) The presence of the Registrar at a marriage must be in his capacity of a Registrar and not in his private capacity. ('91) 14 Mad 342 (351).

(5) The present section was substituted by Act 2 of 1891 for the old section under which the words "knowingly solemnizes" were used. In the present section the word "knowingly" has been dropped. ('91) 14 Mad 342 (355).

69. Solemnizing marriage out of proper time, without witnesses.—Whoever knowingly and wilfully solemnizes a marriage between persons one or both of whom is or are a Christian or Christians, at any time other than between the hours of six in the morning and seven in the evening, or in the absence of at least two credible witnesses other than the person solemnizing the marriage, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Saving of marriages solemnized under special licence.—This section does not apply to marriages solemnized under special licences granted by the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese or by his Commissary, nor to marriages performed between the hours of seven in the evening and six in the morning by a Clergyman of the Church of Rome, when he has received the general or special licence in that behalf mentioned in Section 10.

[a][Nor does this section apply to marriages solemnized by a Clergyman of the Church of Scotland according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of the Church of Scotland.]

[a] Inserted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872) Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 7.

70. Solemnizing, without notice or within fourteen days after notice, marriage with minor.—Any Minister of Religion licensed to solemnize marriages under this Act, who, without a notice in writing, or, when one of the parties to the marriage is a minor and the required consent of the parents or guardians to such marriage has not been obtained, within fourteen days after the receipt by him of notice of such marriage, knowingly and wilfully solemnizes a marriage under Part III, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine.

71. Issuing certificate, or marrying without publication of notice.—A marriage Registrar under this Act, who commits any of the following offences :—

(1) knowingly and wilfully issues any certificate for marriage, or solemnizes any marriage, without publishing the notice of such marriage as directed by this Act;

marrying after expiry of notice;—[a][(2) after expiration of two months after the copy of the notice has been entered as required by Section 40 in respect of any marriage, solemnizes such marriage;]

solemnizing marriage with minor within fourteen days, without authority of Court, or without sending copy of notice;—(3) solemnizes, without an order of a competent Court authorizing him to do so, any marriage, when one of the parties is a minor, before the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt of the notice of such marriage, or without sending, by the post or otherwise, a copy of such notice to the Senior Marriage Registrar of the district if there be more Marriage Registrar of the district than one, and if he himself be not the Senior Marriage Registrar;

issuing certificate against authorized prohibition;—(4) issues any certificate the issue of wihch has been prohibited, as in this Act provided, by any person authorized to prohibit the issue thereof, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, and shall also be liable to fine.

[a] Substituted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 8 (1) for the original Cl. (2).

72. Issuing certificate after expiry of notice, or, in case of minor, within fourteen days after notice, or against authorized prohibition.—Any Marriage Registrar knowingly and wilfully issuing any certificate for marriage after the expiration of [a][two months] after the notice has been entered by him as aforesaid, or knowingly and wilfully issuing, without the order of a competent Court authorizing him so to do, any certificate for marriage, where one of the parties intending marriage is a minor, before the expiration of fourteen days after the entry of such notice, or any certificate the issue of which has been forbidden as aforesaid by any person authorized in this behalf, shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Section 166 of the Indian Penal Code.

[a] Substituted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 8 (2) for "three months".

73. Persons authorized to solemnize marriage (other than Clergy of Churches of England, Scotland or Rome).—Whoever, being authorized under this Act to solemnize a marriage, and not being a Clergyman of the Church of England solemnizing a marriage after due publication of banns, or under a licence from the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese or a Surrogate duly authorized in that behalf, or, not being a Clergyman of the Church of Scotland, solemnizing a marriage according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of that Church, or, not being a Clergyman of the Church of Rome, solemnizing a marriage according to the rites, rules, ceremonies and customs of that Church,

issuing certificate, or marrying, without publishing notice, or after expiry of certificates;—knowingly and wilfully issues any certificate for marriage under this Act, or solemnizes any marriage between such persons as aforesaid, without publishing or causing to be affixed, the notice of such marriage as directed in Part III of this Act, or after the expiration of two months after the certificate has been issued by him;

issuing certificate for, or solemnizing marriage with minor, within fourteen days after notice;—or knowingly and wilfully issues any certificate for marriage or solemnizes a marriage between such persons when one of the persons intending marriage is a minor, before the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt of notice of such marriage, or without sending, by the post or otherwise, a copy of such notice to the Marriage Registrar or, if there be more Marriage Registrars than one, to the Senior Marriage Registrar of the district;

issuing certificate authorizedly forbidden;—or knowingly and wilfully issues any certificate the issue of which has been forbidden, under this Act, by any person authorized to forbid the issue;

solemnizing marriage authorizedly forbidden—or knowingly and wilfully solemnizes any marriage forbidden by any person authorized to forbid the same; shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to four years, and shall also be liable to fine.

74. Unlicensed person granting certificate pretending to be licensed.—Whoever, not being licensed to grant a certificate of marriage under Part VI of this Act, grants such certificate intending thereby to make it appear that he is so licensed, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, and shall also be liable to fine.

[a][Whoever, being licensed to grant certificates of marriage under Part VI of this Act, without just cause refuses, or wilfully neglects or omits, to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by that Part shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.]

[a] Inserted by the Indian Christian Marriage Act (1872), Amendment Act, 1891 (2 of 1891), S. 9.

75. Destroying or falsifying register-books.—Whoever, by himself or another, wilfully destroys or injures any register-book or the counterfoil certificates thereof, or any part thereof, or any authenticated extract therefrom, or falsely makes or counterfeits any part of such register-book or counterfoil certificates, or wilfully inserts any false entry in any such register-book or counterfoil certificate or authenticated extract, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

76. Limitation of prosecutions under Act.—The prosecution for every offence punishable under this Act shall be commenced within two years after the offence is committed.

PART VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

77. What matters need not be proved in respect of marriage in accordance with Act.—Whenever any marriage has been solemnized in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4 and 5, it shall not be void merely on account of any irregularity in respect of any of the following matters, namely :—

(1) any statement made in regard to the dwelling of the persons married, or to the consent of any person whose consent to such marriage is required by law:

(2) the notice of the marriage:

(3) the certificate or translation thereof;

(4) the time and place at which the marriage has been solemnized:

(5) the registration of the marriage.

78. Corrections of errors.—Every person charged with the duty of registering any marriage, who discovers any error in the form or substance of any such entry, may, within one month next after the discovery of such error, in the presence of the persons married, or, in case of their death or absence, in the presence of two other credible witnesses, correct the error by entry in the margin, without any alteration of the original entry, and shall sign the marginal entry, and add thereto the date of such correction, and such person shall make the like marginal entry in the certificate thereof.

And every entry made under this section shall be attested by the witnesses in whose presence it was made.

And in case such certificate has been already sent to the [a][Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages], such person shall make and send in like manner a separate certificate of the original erroneous entry, and of the marginal correction therein made.

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

79. Searches and copies of entries.—Every person solemnizing a marriage under this Act, and hereby required to register the same, and every Marriage Registrar or [a][Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages] having the custody for the time being of any register of marriages, or of any certificate, or duplicate or copies of certificate, under this Act, shall, on payment of the proper fees, at all reasonable times, allow searches to be made in such register, or for such certificate, or duplicate or copies, and give a copy under his hand of any entry in the same.

[a] Substituted by the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (6 of 1886), S. 30 (b), for the words "Secretary to the Local Government".

80. Certified copy of entry in marriage-register, &c. to be evidence.—Every certified copy, purporting to be signed by the person entrusted under this Act with the custody of any marriage-register or certificate, or duplicate required to be kept or delivered under this Act, of any entry of a marriage in such register, or of any such certificate or duplicate, shall be received as evidence of the marriage purporting to be so entered, or of the facts purporting to be so certified therein, without further proof of such register or certificate, or duplicate, or of any entry therein, respectively, or of such copy.

[][81. Certificates of certain marriages to be sent to Central Government.—The Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages [b][° ° °] shall, at the end of every quarter in each year, select from the certificates of marriages forwarded to [c][him], during such quarter, the certificates of the marriages of which [d][the Government by whom he was appointed] may desire that evidence shall be transmitted to England, and shall send the same certificates, signed by [c][him], to the [][Central Government].]

[a] Substituted for original Section 81, by the Indian Christian Marriage (Amendment) Act, 1911 (13 of 1911), S. 2.

[b] The words "and the officers appointed under Section 56" were omitted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1952 (48 of 1952), S. 3 and Sch. II, [2-8-1952].

[c] Substituted for the words "them, respectively," ibid.

[d] Substituted for "the Governor-General in Council," by A. O. 1937.

[e] Substituted "Secretary of State for India" by A.O., 1948.

82. State Government to prescribe fees.—Fees shall be chargeable under this Act for—receiving and publishing notices of marriages; issuing [a][Certificates for marriage] by Marriage Registrars, and registering marriages by the same;

entering protests against, or prohibitions of, the issue of [b][certificates for marriage] by the said Registrars;

searching register-books or certificates, or duplicates of copies thereof; giving copies of entries in the same under Ss. 63 and 79.

The [c][State] Government shall fix the amount of such fees respectively, and may from time to time vary or remit them either generally or in special cases, as to it may seem fit.

[a] Substituted by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1903 (1 of 1903), S. 3 and Sch. II for "certificate of marriages".

[b] Substituted for "marriage certificates," ibid.

[c] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

83. Power to make rules.—The [a][State] Government may make rules[b] in regard to the disposal of the fees mentioned in Sec. 82, the supply of register-books, and the preparation and submission of returns of marriages solemnized under this Act.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

[b] For rules made under Sec. 83 by different Governments, see the different Local Rules and Orders.

84. Power to prescribe fees and rules for Indian States.—[Omitted by A.L.O., 1950.]

85. Power to declare who shall be District Judge.—The [a][State] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare who shall in any place to which this Act applies, be deemed to be the District Judge.

[a] Substituted by A. L. O., 1950.

86. Powers and functions exercisable as regards Indian States.—[Omitted by A. L. O., 1950.]

87. Saving of Consular marriages.—Nothing in this Act applies to any marriage performed by any Minister, Consul, or Consular Agent between subjects of the State which he represents and according to the laws of such State.

88. Non-validation of marriages within prohibited degrees.—Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to validate any marriage which the personal law applicable to either of the parties forbids him or her to enter into.

---

Section 88 — Note 1

(1) Section 88 does not validate a marriage which would be invalid elsewhere as being against the personal law. AIR 1937 Mad 565 (567, 568).

(2) The words "the personal law applicable to either parties" refer to the personal law of the religious community to which either of the parties belong. AIR 1930 Bom 105 (110): 54 Bom 288.

(3) The prohibitions of personal law referred to by the section are prohibitions which render the marriage inherently bad and not mere impediments which may be remedied at the will of the parties. AIR 1951 All 529 (539): ILR (1951) 2 All 439 (DB) * AIR 1951 Cal 293 (293): ILR (1950) 1 Cal 409 (DB) * AIR 1945 Mad 516 (519): ILR (1946) Mad 367: 47 Cri LJ 421.

(4) By the use of the word "forbid" the section connotes marriages against which there is specific injunction and not those marriages which are merely recognised" by the personal law. AIR 1951 All 529 (539): ILR (1951) 2 All 439 (DB).

(5) An impediment or incapacity which is dependent upon the fact that the marriage is a sacrament or on the form of marriage under the personal law is not what is referred to by the section. AIR 1951 Cal 293 (293): ILR (1950) 1 Cal 409 (DB) * AIR 1930 Bom 105 (111): 54 Bom 288.

(6) The prohibitions contemplated by the section are impediments such as prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity which would render the marriage a nullity. AIR 1945 Mad 516 (519): ILR (1946) Mad 367: 47 Cri LJ 421.

(7) A marriage between a Hindu male and a Christian woman performed under the Act is a valid and binding marriage there being nothing in Hindu Law absolutely forbidding such a marriage. AIR 1951 All 529 (539): ILR (1951) 2 All 439 (DB).

(8) A marriage between a Roman Catholic husband and a Jewish wife is not prohibited according to the personal law of the parties. AIR 1951 Cal 293 (293): ILR (1950) 1 Cal 409 (DB).

(9) The canon law which is the personal law of the Roman Catholics does not forbid a marriage between a Catholic and a protestant in the sense that such a marriage would be a nullity and therefore a marriage between them solemnised according to this Act is not a nullity. AIR 1945 Mad 516 (518, 519): ILR (1946) Mad 367: 47 Cri LJ 421.

(10) Divorced Jewes can marry a Christian. ('12) 15 Ind Cas 398 (399) (Cal).

(11) The personal law of a woman belonging to the Roman Catholic Church forbids her to enter into a contract of marriage with a Jew in India who is of the Sephardim and the marriage ceremony undergone by them under the provisions of this Act does not effect a valid marriage. AIR 1949 Cal 563 (565): ILR (1945) 2 Cal 462 .

[THE] CHURCH OF SCOTLAND KIRK SESSIONS ACT, 1899
(ACT XXIII OF 1899)[a]

[The text of the Act printed here is as on 1-5-1969.]

[27th September, 1899]

An Act to provide for the Incorporation of Kirk Sessions of the Church of Scotland in [b][India].

Whereas there are in [b][India] Kirk of Sessions of the Church of Scotland which have been duly constituted to be Church Courts for ecclesiastical purposes in pursuance of Acts of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland;

And whereas it is expedient that such Kirk Sessions and any others which may hereafter be so constituted, should be incorporated with the powers hereinafter provided;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1899, Pt. V, p. 79.

[b] Substituted for "the Provinces" by A.L.O., 1950 [26-1-1950].

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND KIRK SESSIONS ACT, 1899;

(2) It extends to the whole of India except [a][the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in Part B States] [b][° °].

[b][(3) ° ° °]

[a] Substituted for the "Part B States" by 2 A.L.O., 1956 [1-11-1956]. Immediately before the 1st November, 1956, the following were Part B States in India:—

Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepsu, Rajasthan, Saurashtra and Travancore-Cochin. Of these Part B States, Jammu and Kashmir, Mysore, Rajasthan and Travancore-Cochin, now known as Kerala, with some territories added to them, have become full-fledged States, while Hyderabad, Madhya Bharat, Pepsu and Saurashtra are now parts of the States of Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Punjab and Gujarat, respectively.

[b] The word "and" and sub-sec. (3) were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1914 (X of 1914), S. 3 and Sch. II.

2. Scotch Kirk Sessions to be bodies corporate.—(1) Every Kirk Sessions which has been, or may hereafter be, duly constituted to be a Church Court for ecclesiastical purposes in pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, is hereby declared to be, and the same shall be, a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal.

(2) A notification by the Central Government in the Official Gazette that a Kirk Session has been duly constituted[a] in pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland shall be conclusive proof that it has been so constituted.

[a] For notification declaring the Kirk Sessions at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad to be duly constituted, see Gazette of India, 1900, Pt. I, p. 484; for similar notifications in respect of the Kirk Session at Simla and the Kirk Session at Poona and Kotagiri, see ibid, 1904, Pt. I, p. 831, ibid, 1905, Pt. I, p. 706 and ibid, 1928, Pt. I, p. 632, respectively.

3. Power to hold and dispose of property.—(1) Every Kirk Session constituted as aforesaid shall, as a body corporate, have power to acquire and hold any property which has been, or may hereafter be, vested in it for the purposes of the Congregation for which it has been, or may hereafter be, constituted, or of any trust which may have been, or may hereafter be, accepted by it, to transfer the same to contract and to do all other things necessary for, or incidental to, the purposes of its constitution or of any such trust as aforesaid.

(2) The signature of the Moderator and Treasurer or Session-clerk for the time being of a Kirk Session constituted as aforesaid shall, if affixed on behalf and by order of the Kirk Session, be sufficient for all purposes for which the signature of the Kirk Session is required.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Bill is designed to ensure proper control of cinematograph exhibitions with particular regard to the safety of those attending them; and to prevent the presentation to the public of improper or objectionable films. The existing law of the country contains certain scattered provisions, affecting such exhibitions and certain local enactments also bear on the subject; but the rapid growth in the popularity of cinematograph and increasing number of such exhibitions in India have rendered these provisions inadequate for the protection of the public from indecent or otherwise objectionable representations. Further, the special danger from fire which attends cinematograph exhibitions, as has been illustrated by terrible catastrophes due to this cause in other countries, rendered it important to secure, in the interest of safety of spectators, a proper regard to the structural conditions of the premises utilised.

The Bill accordingly provides that no exhibition shall be given except in accordance with the conditions of a license granted by the prescribed authority. The license is intended to ensure that the intentions of the Act are complied with and that adequate precautions are taken for the safety of persons attending the exhibition which it covers. The Bill also provides for the constitution of an authority which will be required to pass all films intended for exhibition in this country and which will have power to refuse the necessary certificate in the case of any film, the production of which in public is open to objection for the reasons already given. The Bill includes the ordinary rule-making provision and enables the Local Governments to exempt any cinematograph exhibition or class of cinematograph exhibitions from any provisions of law. Finally it makes provision for the punishment of offences against the Act or the rules made thereunder."

[THE] CINEMATOGRAPH ACT, 1918 (ACT II OF 1918)[a]

[6th March, 1918.]

An Act to make provision for regulating exhibitions by means of Cinematographs.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for regulating exhibitions by means of cinematographs; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[a] For Report of Select Committee, see Gazette of India, 1918, Pt. V, p. 11; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, 1917, Pt. VI, p. 703, and ibid, 1918, Pt. VI, pp. 38, 94 and 275.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the Union territories of Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—see Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

This Act is extended to the States merged in the States of—
Bombay: see Bombay Act 4 of 1950;
Madhya Pradesh: see Madhya Pradesh Act 12 of 1950;
Tamil Nadu: see Madras Act 36 of 1949.

This Act is repealed by S. 18 of the Cinematograph Act, 1952 (37 of 1952): "Provided that in relation to Part A States and Part B States the repeal shall have effect only in so far as the said Act relates to the sanctioning of the cinematograph films for exhibition."

This Act, however, is applicable to the Union Territories only.

This Act, in so far as it relates to the regulation of exhibition by means of cinematograph (including licensing of places in which cinematograph films are exhibited) is repealed in its application to the State of—

Andhra Pradesh: see President's Act 4 of 1955 (as amended by Andhra Pradesh Act 23 of 1958), S. 13;
Assam: See Assam Act 14 of 1953, S. 12;
Bihar: see Bihar Act 15 of 1954, S. 11;
Gujarat: see Bombay Act 11 of 1953, S. 11 and Gujarat Act 40 of 1961;
Madhya Pradesh: see M.P. Act 17 of 1952, S. 11;
Madras: see Madras Act 9 of 1955, S. 12;
Maharashtra: See Bombay Act 11 of 1953, S. 11;
Orissa: See Orissa Act 2 of 1954, S. 11.
Punjab: See Punjab Act 11 of 1952, S. 11;

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The Act, strictly speaking, is not a criminal statute but is designed to regulate exhibition by means of cinematograph and the purpose is largely recreative or educational. AIR 1955 Cal 609 (611): 1955 Cri LJ 1579.

Haryana: see Act 31 of 1966, S. 88;
Uttar Pradesh: see Uttar Pradesh Act 3 of 1956, S. 12;
West Bengal: see West Bengal Act 39 of 1954, S. 13;
Union Territory of Chandigarh: see Act 31 of 1966, S. 88.
Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh—Added Territories—See Act 31 of 1966, Ss. 5 and 88.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CINEMATOGRAPH ACT, 1918.

[a][(2) It extends to all Part A States and Part C States, and also to every Part B State,[b] other than [c][° °] Jammu and Kashmir, in so far as it relates to sanctioning of cinematograph films for exhibition.[d]]

[a] Substituted for former sub-sections (2) and (3) by the Cinematograph (Second Amendment) Act, 1949 (62 of 1949), S. 2, as adapted by A.L.O., 1950.

[b] Immediately before the 1st of November, 1956, the following were the States in India:—

Part A States—Andhra, Assam, Bihar, Bombay, Madhya Pradesh, Madras, Orissa, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal; (Bombay has now been split up into two States, Maharashtra and Gujarat; whereas Punjab State now stands divided into two States of Punjab and Haryana and the Union Territory of Chandigarh; two districts of Lahaul and Spiti and few other areas have been transferred to the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh).

Part B States—Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepsu, Rajasthan, Saurashtra and Travancore and Cochin; of these Jammu and Kashmir, Mysore, Rajasthan and Travancore-Cochin (Kerala) are full-fledged States now while Pepsu is merged in Punjab, Madhya Bharat in Madhya Pradesh, Saurashtra with Gujarat and Hyderabad in Andhra Pradesh.

Part C States—Ajmer, Bhopal, Bilaspur, Coorg, Delhi, Himachal Pradesh, Kutch, Manipur, Tripura and Vindhya Pradesh. The Part C States are Union Territories now. Only Himachal Pradesh, Manipur, Delhi and Tripura are as such now, Bhopal and Vindhya Pradesh having gone to Madhya Pradesh State, Ajmer to Rajasthan, Coorg to Mysore, Kutch to Gujarat and Bilaspur has merged with Himachal Pradesh.

[c] The words "Hyderabad and" were omitted by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Schedule.

[d] For the State law relating to licensing and regulation of cinemas (a State subject under the Constitution of India), see the State Acts indicated in foot-note [a] under the Preamble of this Act.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

[a]["adult" means a person who has completed his eighteenth year;]

[b]["Authority" means the Authority constituted by the Central Government under Section 6;]

"cinematograph" includes any apparatus for the representation of moving pictures or series of pictures;

"place" includes also a house, building, [c][tent or any description of transport, whether by sea, land or air;] and

"prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

[a] Inserted by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1949 (39 of 1949), S. 2 [1-9-1949].

[b] Inserted by the Cinematograph (Second Amendment) Act, 1949 (62 of 1949), S. 3 (i) [15-1-1951].

[c] Substituted for "tent or vessel", ibid, S. 3 (ii).

[a][2A. Rule of construction in the application of Act to Part B States[c].—In the application of this Act to any [c][Part B State], unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

[b][(a) ° ° ° ° ]

(b) references to the District Magistrate shall be construed as references to the corresponding authority in the [c][Part B State]; and

[b][(c) ° ° ° ° ] ].

[a] Inserted by the Cinematograph (Second Amendment) Act, 1949 (62 of 1949), S. 4 (15-1-1951).

[b] Clauses (a) and (c) were omitted by A.L.O., 1950.

[c] There are no such States now.

3. Cinematograph exhibitions to be licensed.—Save as otherwise provided in this Act, no person shall give an exhibition by means of a cinematograph elsewhere than in a place licensed under this Act or otherwise than in compliance with any conditions and restrictions imposed by such licence.

4. Licensing authority.—The authority having power to grant licences under this Act (hereinafter referred to as the "licensing authority") shall be the District Magistrate, or, in a presidency town [a]° ° °, the Commissioner of Police:

Provided that the [b][State Government] may, by notification in the °[Official Gazette], constitute for the whole or any part of a °[State] such other authority as it may specify in the notification to be the licensing authority for the purposes of this Act.

[a] The words "or in the town of Rangoon" were repealed by A.O., 1937.

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

5. Restrictions on powers of licensing authority.—(1) The licensing authority shall not grant a licence under this Act, unless it is satisfied that—

(a) the rules made under the Act have been substantially complied with; and

(b) adequate precautions have been taken in the place in respect of which the licence is to be given to provide for the safety of persons attending exhibitions therein.

---

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) The prohibition in Section 3 that no person shall give an exhibition by means of cinematograph at any place other than a place licensed under this Act seems to be absolute and imperative and no one can be heard to say that although he did not have the necessary licence still he did not have the guilty mind when he gave or permitted the shows without a licence. AIR 1955 Cal 609 (611): 1955 Cri LJ 1579.

(2) The mere fact that a person was a licensee in respect of the talkie house or the fact that he had before the expiry of the last licence applied for its renewal or even the fact that somebody else as his lessee was in actual management of the show cannot be a valid defence or a plea in bar of a prosecution for contravention of the provisions of Section 3. AIR 1955 Cal 609 (611): 1955 Cri LJ 1579.

SECTION 5 — SYNOPSIS

1. "Subject to the control of the State Government."

2. Grant and cancellation of licenses.

1. "Subject to the control of the State Government." — (1) Section 5 (3) circumscribes the power of the licensing authority, and clearly lays down that such power is subject to the provisions of the section and the control of the State Government. The control of the "State Government" must have reference to the grant of the licences. AIR 1952 Mad 120 (121): ILR (1953) Mad 636 (DB).

(2) The power of control of the State Government extends over the whole range of the power to grant licences and the word "control" has a very wide connotation. The Statute does not in any way delimit the ambit of controlling power. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 513 (514): ILR (1956) Andh Pra 413 (DB).

(3) The word 'control' is not confined to mere regulation. It is more comprehensive and includes domination or command over an inferior. The 'control' envisaged in the section is not confined to the issuing of mere general directions; it includes an interference on the part of the State Government with the individual decision of a particular case by the District Magistrate. AIR 1956 All 99 (100): ILR (1956) 1 All 682 (DB).

(4) Anything ancillary to what has to be done by the licensing authority is

[a][(2) The grant of every licence shall be subject to the conditions that the licensee will not exhibit or permit to be exhibied, in such place—

(a) any film other than a film which has been certified by the Authority as suitable for unrestricted public exhibition or for public exhibition restricted to adults, and which, when exhibited, displays the prescribed mark of that Authority, and has not been altered or tampered with in any way since such mark was affixed thereto;

(b) any film which has been certified by the Authority as suitable for public exhibition restricted to adults to any person who is not an adult;

(c) any film contrary to any directions that may be issued from time to time in this behalf by the Central Government under sub-section (2A); and such conditions shall be deemed to be inserted in every licence.

(2A) The Central Government may from time to time issue directions to licensees generally, or to any licensee, in particular, for the purpose of regulating the exhibition of any film or class of films so that scientific films, films intended for educational purposes, films dealing with news and current events, documentary films or indigenous films secure an adequate opportunity of being exhibited.]

(3) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, and to the control of the [b][State Government], the licensing authority may grant licences under this Act to also within the scope of the control vested in the Government by Section 5 (3). AIR 1957 Mad 684 (686): 1957 Cri LJ 737. (The instructions given by the Government in their memorandum, dated 27-6-1950 were intra vires.)

(5) The words in Section 5 (3), "to such persons as it thinks fit" and "such terms and conditions and . . . . . such restrictions as it may determine" do not necessarily detract from the power of the State Government to give directions to the licensing authority in regard either to the "persons" or to the "terms, conditions and restrictions." AIR 1957 Andh Pra 513 (514): ILR (1956) Andh 413 (DB).

(6) The expression "subject to the control of the State Government" is wide enough to empower the Government to issue appropriate instructions to the licencing authority. But it is not within the competence of the State Government to issue an executive instruction which if it were issued as a statutory rule, would be beyond their rule-making power contained in S. 9(3). AIR 1955 Andh 123 (126, 127). (The executive instruction and R. 11-A in G. O. Ms. No. 734, dated 12th July, 1954, being integral parts of the same Order it was very difficult to separate the instruction from the rule and as the rule itself was ultra vires it could not operate as a valid instruction purporting to have been issued under S. 5(3).)

(7) Section 5(3) gives to the State Government a power to interfere after the District Magistrate has himself exercised his discretion. AIR 1956 All 99 (100) : ILR (1956) 1 All 682 (DB).

(8) The power of the licencing authority to issue licences under S. 5(3) being subject to the control of the State Government the latter has the power to direct the licensing authority to grant a licence to a particular individual. It may set aside the orders of the licencing authority and issue any directions in this respect which it may consider to be fit and proper. AIR 1955 All 82 (84, 85) : ILR (1955) 2 All 37.

(9) There is nothing which prevents the Government from issuing directions at variance with their own prior orders, when such orders do not constitute rules or regulations made under statutory authority. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 513 (515) : ILR (1956) Andh 413 (DB).

(10) The Act does not bind the State Government to issue notices to the parties before it exercises its control. The directions issued by the State Government are neither judicial nor quasi-judicial. They are purely administrative directions and unless the Statute required that it should exercise those powers after giving notice to the parties concerned it cannot be held that the action of the State Government was illegal or unauthorised. AIR 1956 All 99 (100) : ILR (1956) 1 All 682 (DB).

(11) Instructions issued by Government to licencing authorities to restrict number of touring cinemas in places where there were permanent cinemas in order to prevent unhealthy competition and to ensure public safety, held did not contravene Article 19 of the Constitution. AIR 1952 Mad 528 (529) (DB).

(12) An order directing that the cinema house should be closed at 12-30 A. M. and no show should be run beyond that hour does not amount to an unreasonable restriction on the right of the cinema exhibitor to carry on his business. ('55) 21 Cut LT 468 (469) (DB).

(13) An order relating to compulsory exhibition of approved films of a certain minimum length constitutes a serisuch persons as it thinks fit, and on such terms and conditions and subject to such restrictions as it may determine.

[a] Substituted for sub-secs. (2) and (2A) by the Cinematograph (Second Amendment) Act, 1949 (62 of 1949), S. 5 [15-1-1951].

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

[a][6. Certification of films.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute an Authority in the prescribed manner for the purpose of examining and certifying films as suitable for unrestricted public exhibition or for public exhibition restricted to adults, and prescribe the manner in which the Authority shall exercise the powers conferred on it by this Act.

(2) If the Authority after examination considers that a film is suitable for unrestricted public exhibition or that, although not suitable for such exhibition, it is suitable for public exhibition restricted to adults, it shall grant to the person applying for a certificate in respect of the film a "U" certificate in the former case and an "A" certificate in the latter case, and shall in either case cause the film to be so marked in the prescribed manner, and any such certificate shall, save as hereinafter provided, be valid throughout the territories to which this Act extends.

(3) If the Authority is of opinion that a film is neither suitable for unrestricted public exhibition nor for public exhibition restricted to adults, it shall inform the person applying for the certificate of its decision.

(4) Any person applying for a certificate, who is aggrieved by the decision of the Authority refusing to grant a certificate or to grant only an "A" certificate, may, within thirty days from the date of such decision, appeal to the Central Government, and the Central Government may, after such inquiry as it considers necessary, pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit.

(5) If the Central Government rejects an appeal on the ground that a film is neither suitable for unrestricted public exhibition nor for public exhibition restrict-ous encroachment on the right of the exhibitor of cinema to carry on his business. ('55) 21 Cut LT 468 (469) (DB).

(14) Section 5 of the Act generally corresponds with Section 5 of the Punjab Cinemas (Regulation) Act (11 of 1952). Under the provision it is the licensing authority that has to consider the applications for licenses and either to accept them or to reject them. State Government is only an appellate authority and has no jurisdiction to decide applications directly. AIR 1966 SC 1081 (1084).

(15) Section 5 of the Act corresponds with Section 5 of the Rajasthan Cinema Regulations Act (3 of 1952). State Government can direct grant of a licence in a specific case and it is obligatory on the licensing authority to carry out the order. ILR (1962) 12 Raj 44 (49).

2. Grant and cancellation of licences.—(1) In cases where a license is granted under the instructions of the State Government, it matters very little as to who signed the order or the actual license. The authority granting the license in such a case is really the State Government and the function of the licensing authority becomes merely a ministerial function. AIR 1955 All 82 (85): ILR (1955) 2 All 37.

(2) There is no statutory provision for a notice before the grant of a licence to a new entrant. There is also no reason why the State Government or the District Magistrate cannot exercise the power to grant a license to a new entrant without notice to the other licensees. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 513 (514): ILR (1956) Andhra 413 (DB).

(3) The order of the Government granting license is executive. It is not incumbent on State Government to hear persons who want licenses for running cinema houses. AIR 1955 All 82 (86): ILR (1955) 2 All 37.

(4) If a person has no right to obtain a license in his favour it is not for him to question whether the license actually issued to another person is valid or invalid. AIR 1956 All 99 (100): ILR (1956) 1 All 682 (DB).

(5) If there is an irregularity in the issuing of the license that can be cured at any time by the District Magistrate appending his signature thereto. AIR 1956 All 99 (100): ILR (1956) 1 All 682 (DB).

(6) A license, validly issued to the petitioners under S. 5 (3) by licensing authority when there was no rule or executive instruction or order of the nature contained in G. O. Ms. No. 734, dated 12th July, 1954, could not be cancelled because of the fact that the Government chose to issue instructions at a later date. ('55) AIR 1955 Andhra 123 (127).

ed to adults, it shall, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that the film shall be deemed to be an uncertified film in the whole of the territories to which this Act extends.

(6) For the purpose of disposing of any appeal under this section, the Central Government may demand the exhibition of any film before any authority specified in this behalf.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Central Government may, of its own motion, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that—

(a) a certified film shall be deemed to be an uncertified film in the whole or any part of the territories to which this Act extends, or

(b) a film in respect of which a "U" certificate has been granted shall be deemed to be a film in respect of which an "A" certificate has been granted.

Explanation.—The grant of an "A" certificate in respect of any film shall not be deemed to prohibit the exhibition thereof to children below the age of three].

[a] Sections 6 to 11 were substituted by the Cinematograph (Second Amendment) Act, 1949 (62 of 1949), S. 6 (15-1-1951).

[a][7. Power of [b][State] Government or local authority to suspend exhibition of films in certain cases.—(1) The [b][State] Government, in respect of the whole [b][State] or any part thereof, and the District Magistrate or the Commissioner of Police, in respect of the district or town within his jurisdiction, may, if it or he is of opinion that any film, which is being publicly exhibited, is likely to cause a breach of the peace, by order suspend the exhibition of any film, and during such suspension the film shall be deemed to be an uncertified film in the [b][State] or the district or town, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order under sub-section (1) has been issued by a District Magistrate or a Commissioner of Police, a copy thereof, together with a statement of reasons therefor, shall forthwith be forwarded by the person making the same to the [b][State] Government and the [b][State] Government may either confirm or discharge the order.

(3) No order made under this section shall remain in force for more than two months, but the [b][State] Government may, if it is of opinion that any such order should continue in force for a further period, refer the matter to the Central Government for decision.

(4) On receipt of any reference under sub-section (3), the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that the period of suspension shall be extended by such further period as it thinks fit or that the film shall be deemed to be an uncertified film in the whole or any part of the territories to which this Act extends].

[b] Substituted by A.L.O., 1950.

(1) No conditional order is contemplated by the section. Only an unqualified and absolute order of suspension of censor certificate can be passed by the Commissioner of Police. ('52) AIR 1952 Cal 653 (654).

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) If the owner suffered the shows to be held and did not take steps to prevent such shows he must be held to have permitted them within the meaning of Section 8; and the shows having been held at a place which was not licensed under Section 3 of the Act, the owner cannot possibly escape the consequence by pleading circumstances in exoneration which might suggest absence of guilty mind. The mere fact that somebody else was in actual charge or management of the shows cannot be pleaded in exoneration of the charge. ('55) AIR 1955 Cal 609 (612): 1955 Cri LJ 1579.

(2) Where a term of the licence for running a talkie is that it should not be assigned or transferred or sub-let, a partnership entered into with reference place to be used, in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, or of the conditions and restrictions upon, or subject to, which any licence has been granted under this Act, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which the offence continues, and his licence, if any, shall be liable to be revoked by the licensing authority.

(2) The exhibition of a film contrary to any order or direction under sub-section (5) or sub-section (7) of Section 6 or Section 7 shall, in the area to which such order or direction relates, be deemed to be a contravention of the conditions mentioned in sub-section (2) of Section 5 and shall be punishable as provided in this section.

(3) If any person is convicted of an offence punishable under this Act committed by him in respect of any film, the convicting Court may further direct that the film shall be forfeited to the Government.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under Section 6.

[a][9. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may make rules[b] for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this section may provide for—

(a) the manner in which the Authority shall be constituted;

(b) the delegation of any of the powers of the Authority to such person or persons as the Authority may nominate in this behalf;

(c) the procedure of the Authority for examining and certifying films as suitable for public exhibition, and all matters ancillary thereto and the fees to be levied by such Authority;

(d) the appointment of officers subordinate to the Authority and the regulation of the powers and duties of such officers;

(e) the conditions subject to which any certificate may be granted under this Act or the circumstances in which any certificate shall be refused;

(f) the manner in which any appeal under this Act may be preferred;

(g) any other matter which by this Act is to be prescribed.

to the subject-matter of the license is illegal by reason of such term even though it may not be punishable under Section 8. ('55) AIR 1955 Mad 536 (539): ILR (1954) Mad 1013 (DB).

(3) Where a licence for showing cinema films was revoked on the ground of breach of conditions of license but the conditions of which breach was complained were not stated nor was there any indication as to how the officer was satisfied that the breach had been committed and the licensee was not given any opportunity to be heard and there were also subsequent interpolations and additions in the license — Held, that the order revoking the license was unjust, illegal and without jurisdiction. AIR 1957 Assam 47 (49) (DB).

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) The conditions that the licensee should exhibit at each performance one or more approved films of such length and for such length of times as the Provincial Government or the Central Government may, by general or special order direct or the licensee should exhibit at the commencement of each performance not less than 2,000 ft. of one or more approved films do not amount to reasonable restrictions within the meaning of Article 19 (6) and are, therefore, void. AIR 1954 SC 747 (749): 1955 SCR 686. (AIR 1952 Mad 120, Reversed.)

(2) Even though Section 11, Bihar Cinemas (Regulation) Act, 1954, has repealed the Cinematograph Act, 1918 in its application to the State of Bihar, still the rules made by the State Government in exercise of the power conferred by Section 8 (2) (a) and (c) of the Cinematograph Act, 1918, (corresponding to Section 9) continue to have legal existence and validity because of the provisions of Section 27 of the Bihar and Orissa General Clauses Act. Hence it is open to the State Government to direct the District Magistrate under Rule 43 made under Section 8 (2) (a) and (c) of the Act of 1918 to grant a renewal to the petitioner of his licence beyond the period exceeding six months. AIR 1957 Pat 665 (666) (DB).

(3) The [c][State] Government may make rules to provide for the regulation of cinematograph exhibitions for securing the public safety.

(4) All rules made under this Act shall be published in the official Gazette, and on such publication shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

(5) All rules made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid before [d][Parliament] as soon as may be after they are made.]

(3) Instructions issued by the Government to licensing authorities to restrict number of touring cinemas do not amount to rules framed under Section 8 (corresponding to Section 9) and so the question whether they go beyond the rule-making power contained in S. 8 does not arise. AIR 1952 Mad 528 (529) (DB).

(4) The words "representation" "hearing" and "examine" in Rule 10 (3) make it clear that the duty of the Board is to determine and adjudge right of parties upon an examination of the facts and circumstances and upon hearing the parties affected. AIR 1952 Cal 653 (656).

(5) Rule 11-A is neither within the intendment of Section 9 (3), Cinematograph Act nor within the object of the Act as stated in the preamble. The rule is ultra vires the powers of the State Government and has not been validly made. Since the rule is bad as a statutory rule there can be no question of either its prospective or retrospective operation. AIR 1955 Andhra 123 (126).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Cinematograph Act, 1918 as it stands, is of mixed content, dealing with two separate matters, namely (a) examination and certification of films as suitable for public exhibition and (b) regulation of cinemas including their licensing. In the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution, "Sanctioning of cinematograph films for exhibition" has been included in Entry 60 of the Union List and "Cinemas, subject to the provisions of Entry 60 of List I" in Entry 33 of the State List. Some of the sections of the Cinematograph Act, therefore, concern the Central Government, some the State Governments and others both the Central and State Governments. Some sections of the Act were amended in 1949, but only for the introduction of "A" and "U" certificates and centralisation of censorship. In the absence of a clear demarcation of the respective provisions of the Act with which the Central and State Governments are concerned, various difficulties are arising in the administration of the Act. The purpose of the present Bill is to resolve the confusion by re-enacting the provisions of the Act of 1918, as amended in 1949, separating the provisions relating to the sanctioning of films for exhibition (a Union subject) from the provisions relating to licensing and regulation of cinemas (a State subject)".

[THE] CINEMATOGRAPH ACT, 1952
(ACT XXXVII OF 1952)[a]

[21st March, 1952.]

An Act to make provision for the certification of cinematograph films for exhibition and for regulating exhibitions by means of cinematographs.

Be it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1951, Pt. II, Sec. 2, p. 220.

PART I
PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CINEMATOGRAPH ACT, 1952.

---

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The Act is for regulating exhibitions by means of cinematographs. Permanent cinema-owner and touring cinema-owner are two distinct classes and in regulating them by two distinct sets of rules there can be no discrimination. A touring cinema owner cannot claim equality in all respects with a permanent cinema owner. However, prohibiting a touring cinema on the ground that there is a permanent cinema in the place, is extremely unreasonable and thwarts the provisions of the Act. AIR 1967 Punj 219 (223, 224).

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) Section 1 (2) shows that as far as granting of licenses is concerned this Act does not apply to U. P. which is Part A

(2) Parts I, II and IV extend to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir and Part III extends[a] to [b][the Union territories] only.

(3) This Act shall come into force on such date[c] as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

[a] The Act has been extended to the Union territories of Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Reg. 6 of 1963 (w.e.f. 1-7-1965) and to that of Goa, Daman and Diu, by Reg. 11 of 1963 (w.e.f. 10-7-1964).

[b] Substituted for "Part C States" by Act 3 of 1959, S. 2 (12-3-1959).

[c] The date so appointed is 28-7-1952; see S.R.O. 1066 published in Gazette of India, 1952, Pt. II, Sec. 3, p. 945.

[Note.—Sub-section (2) of Sec. 1 and Secs. 11, 12, 13, 16 and 17 were amended by Bombay A.L.O., 1957, so as to make Part III applicable to 'Kutch area' of that State. After Bombay Reorganisation, Kutch area had gone to the State of Gujarat. By Gujarat Act 40 of 1961 Bombay Cinema (Regulation) Act, 1953 (Bom. Act 11 of 1953), has been extended to the whole State of Gujarat and while doing so Part III of this Act which was made applicable to Kutch area by Bombay A.L.O., 1957, has been repealed from the date of extension of that Act, i.e., with effect from 10-12-1962. Similarly, Part III of the Act as extended to Coorg District which was merged with the State of Mysore has been repealed by the Mysore Act 23 of 1964, Section 23.]

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "adult" means a person who has completed his eighteenth year;

(b) "board" means the Board of Film Censors constituted by the Central Government under Section 3;

(c) "cinematograph" includes any apparatus for the representation of moving pictures or series of pictures;

(d) "district magistrate", in relation to a presidency-town, means the commissioner of police;

[a][(dd) "film" means a cinematograph film;]

(e) "place" includes a house, building, tent and any description of transport, whether by sea, land or air;

(f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

[a] Inserted by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1959 (3 of 1959), S. 3 [12-3-1959].

PART II

CERTIFICATION OF FILMS FOR PUBLIC EXHIBITION

[a][3. Board of Film Censors.—(1) For the purpose of sanctioning films for public exhibition, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute a Board to be called the Board of Film Censors which shall consist of a Chairman and not more than nine other members appointed by the Central Government.

(2) The Chairman of the Board shall receive such salary and allowances as may be determined by the Central Government, and the other members shall receive such allowances or fees for attending the meetings of the Board as may be prescribed.

(3) The other terms and conditions of service of the members of the Board shall be such as may be prescribed.]

[a] Substituted for Ss. 3, 4, 5 and 6 by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1959 (3 of 1959), S. 4 (12-3-1959).

Section 1 — Note 1 (contd.)

State. The scheme of the Act of 1952 shows that as far as the subject of the grant of the licenses to exhibit cinema shows is concerned the provisions of the old Act of 1918 are still in force in Part A and Part B States. The other provisions concerning the censorship of the films have been altered by the Act of 1952 and this alteration applies to the whole of India. AIR 1955 All 82 (85): ILR (1955) 2 All 37.

[a][4. Examination of films.—(1) Any person desiring to exhibit any film shall in the prescribed manner make an application to the Board for a certificate in respect thereof, and the Board may, after examining or having the film examined in the prescribed manner,—

(i) sanction the film for unrestricted public exhibition; or

(ii) sanction the film for public exhibition restricted to adults; or

(iii) direct the applicant to carry out such excisions or modifications in the film as it thinks necessary before sanctioning the film for unrestricted public exhibition or for public exhibition restricted to adults, as the case may be; or

(iv) refuse to sanction the film for public exhibition.

(2) No action under clause (ii), clause (iii) or clause (iv) of sub-section (1) shall be taken by the Board except after giving an opportunity to the applicant for representing his views in the matter.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under Section 3.

[a][5. Advisory panels.—(1) For the purpose of enabling the Board to efficiently discharge its functions under this Act, the Central Government may establish at such regional centres as it thinks fit, advisory panels each of which shall consist of such number of persons, being persons qualified in the opinion of the Central Government to judge the effect of films on the public, as the Central Government may think fit to appoint thereto.

(2) At each regional centre there shall be as many regional officers as the Central Government may think fit to appoint, and rules made in this behalf may provide for the association of regional officers in the examination of films.

(3) The Board may consult in such manner as may be prescribed any advisory panel in respect of any film for which an application for a certificate has been made.

(4) It shall be the duty of every such advisory panel, whether acting as a body or in committees as may be provided in the rules made in this behalf, to examine the film and to make such recommendations to the Board as it thinks fit.

(5) The members of the advisory panel shall not be entitled to any salary but shall receive such fees or allowances as may be prescribed.]

[a] See Foot-note [a] under Section 3.

[a][5A. Certification of films.—(1) If, after examining a film or having it examined in the manner provided in this Act, the Board considers that the film is suitable for unrestricted public exhibition or that, although not suitable for such exhibition, it is suitable for public exhibition restricted to adults, it shall grant to the person applying for a certificate in respect of a film a "U" certificate in the former case and an "A" certificate in the latter case, and shall in either case cause the film to be so marked in the prescribed manner.

(2) A certificate granted or an order refusing to grant a certificate in respect of any film shall be published in the Gazette of India.

(3) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, a certificate granted by the Board under this section shall be valid throughout India for a period of ten years.]

[a] See Foot-note [a] under Section 3.

[a][5B. Principles for guidance in certifying films.—(1) A film shall not be certified for public exhibition if, in the opinion of the authority competent to grant the certificate, the film or any part of it is against the interests of the security of the State, friendly relations with foreign States, public order, decency or morality, or involves defamation or contempt of Court or is likely to incite the commission of any offence.

(1) Order under Section 5 (4), by Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, New Delhi, served on petitioner in Bombay — Bombay High Court has no jurisdiction to entertain petition under Article 226. AIR 1955 Bom 381 (387): ILR (1955) Bom 346.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (1), the Central Government may issue such directions as it may think fit setting out the principles which shall guide the authority competent to grant certificates under this Act in sanctioning films for public exhibition.]

[a] See Foot-note [a] under Section 3.

[a][5C. Appeals.—Any person applying for a certificate in respect of a film who is aggrieved by any order of the Board—

(a) refusing to grant a certificate; or

(b) granting only an "A" certificate; or

(c) directing the applicant to carry out any excisions or modifications.

may, within thirty days from the date of such order, appeal to the Central Government, and the Central Government may, after such inquiry into the matter as it considers necessary and after giving the appellant an opportunity for representing his views in the matter, make such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit.]

[a] See Foot-note [a] under Section 3.

[a][6. Revisional powers of the Central Government.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, the Central Government may at any stage call for the record of any proceeding in relation to any film which is pending before, or has been decided by, the Board, and after such inquiry into the matter as it considers necessary, make such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit, and the Board shall dispose of the matter in conformity with such order :

Provided that no such order shall be made prejudicially affecting any person applying for a certificate or to whom a certificate has been granted, as the case may be, except after giving him an opportunity for representing his views in the matter.

(2) Without prejudice to the powers conferred on it under sub-section (1), the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that –

(a) a film which has been granted a certificate shall be deemed to be an uncertified film in the whole or any part of India; or

(b) a film which has been granted a "U" certificate shall be deemed to be a film in respect of which an "A" certificate has been granted; or

(c) the exhibition of any film be suspended for such period as may be specified in the direction :

Provided that no direction issued under Cl. (c) shall remain in force for more than two months from the date of the notification.

(3) No action shall be taken under Cl. (a) or Cl. (b) of sub-sec. (2) except after giving an opportunity to the person concerned for representing his views in the matter.

(4) During the period in which a film remains suspended under Cl. (c) of subsection (2), the film shall be deemed to be an uncertified film.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 3.

[a][6A. Information and documents to be given to distributors and exhibitors with respect to certified films.—Any person who delivers any certified film to any distributor or exhibitor shall, in such manner as may be prescribed, notify to the distributor or exhibitor as the case may be the title, the length of the film, the number and the nature of the certificate granted in respect thereof and the conditions, if any, subject to which it has been so granted, and any other particulars respecting the film which may be prescribed.]

[a] Inserted by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1953 (19 of 1953), S. 3 [16-5-1953].

7. Penalties for contravention of this Part.—[a][(1) If any person—

(a) exhibits or permits to be exhibited in any place—

(i) any film other than a film which has been certified by the Board as suitable for unrestricted public exhibition or for public exhibition restricted to adults and which, when exhibited, displays the prescribed mark of the Board and has not been altered or tampered with in any way since such mark was affixed thereto,

(ii) any film, which has been certified by the Board as suitable for public exhibition restricted to adults, to any person who is not an adult, or

(b) without lawful authority (the burden of proving which shall be on him), alters or tampers with in any way any film after it has been certified, or

(c) fails to comply with the provision contained in Section 6A or with any order made by the Central Government or by the Board in the exercise of any of the powers or functions conferred on it by this Act or the rules made thereunder, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for each day during which the offence continues.]

(2) If any person is convicted of an offence punishable under this section committed by him in respect of any film, the convicting Court may further direct that the film shall be forfeited to the Government.

(3) The exhibition of a film, in respect of which an "A" certificate has been granted, to children below the age of three years accompanying their parents or guardians shall not be deemed to be an offence within the meaning of this section.

[a] Sub-section (1) was substituted for old sub-section (1) by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1953 (19 of 1953), S. 4 [16-5-1953].

[a][7A. Power of seizure.—(1) Where a film in respect of which no certificate has been granted under this Act is exhibited, or a film certified as suitable for public exhibition restricted to adults is exhibited to any person who is not an adult or a film is exhibited in contravention of any of the other provisions contained in this Act or of any order made by the Central Government or the Board in the exercise of any of the powers conferred on it, any police officer may, in pursuance of an order made in this behalf by the District Magistrate or by any Magistrate of the first class empowered in this behalf by the District Magistrate, enter any place in which he has reason to believe that the film has been or is being or is likely to be exhibited, search it and seize the film.

(2) All searches under this Act shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to searches.]

[a] Sections 7A to 7F were inserted by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1959 (3 of 1959), S. 5 [12-3-1959].

[a][7B. Delegation of powers by Board.—The Central Government may, by general or special order, direct that any power, authority or jurisdiction exercisable by the Board under this Act shall, in relation to such matters and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by the Chairman or any other member of the Board, and anything done or action taken by the Chairman or other member specified in the order shall be deemed to be a thing done or action taken by the Board.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 7A.

[a][7C. Power to direct exhibition of films for examination.—For the purpose of exercising any of the powers conferred on it by this Act, the Central Government or the Board may require any film to be exhibited before it or before any person specified by it in this behalf.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 7A.

[a][7D. Vacancies, etc., not to invalidate proceeding.—No act or proceeding of the Board or of any advisory panel shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of a vacancy in, or any defect in, the constitution of the Board or panel, as the case may be.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 7A.

[a][7E. Members of the Board and advisory panels to be public servants.—All members of the Board and of any advisory panel shall, when acting or purporting to act in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 7A.

[a][7F. Bar of legal proceedings.—No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government, the Board, advisory panel or any officer or member of the Central Government Board or advisory panel, as the case may be, in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.]

[a] See foot-note [a] under S. 7A.

8. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules[a] for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Part.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this section may provide for—

(a) the number of persons who may constitute the Board and the manner in which the Board may exercise its powers, including the delegation of any of the powers of the Board to such person or persons as the Board may nominate in that behalf;
(b) the procedure of the Board for examining and certifying films as suitable for public exhibition and all matters ancillary thereto and the fees that may be levied by the Board;
(c) the appointment of officers subordinate to the Board and the regulation of the terms and conditions of service and the powers and duties of such officers;
(d) the conditions (including conditions relating to the length of films in general or any class of films, in particular) subject to which any certificate may be granted, or the circumstances in which any certificate shall be refused;
(e) the manner in which an appeal under this Part may be preferred;
(f) any other matter which by this Act is to be prescribed.

[b][(3) All rules made by the Central Government under this Part shall be laid for not less than thirty days before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.]

[a] For the Cinematograph (Censorship) Rules, 1958, see Gaz. of Ind., 1958, Pt. II-Sec. 3 (i), p. 920.
[b] Substituted for former sub-section (3) by the Cinematograph (Amendment) Act, 1959 (3 of 1959), S. 6 [12-3-1959].

9. Power to exempt.—The Central Government may, by order in writing exempt,[a] subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as it may impose, the exhibition of any film or class of films from any of the provisions of this Part or of any rules made thereunder.

[a] For exemptions see Gaz. of Ind., 1952, Pt. II-Sec. 3, pages 1578 to 1581.

PART III

REGULATION OF EXHIBITIONS BY MEANS OF CINEMATOGRAPHS

10. Cinematograph exhibitions to be licensed.—Save as otherwise provided in this Part, no person shall give an exhibition by means of a cinematograph elsewhere than in a place licensed under this Part or otherwise than in compliance with any conditions and restrictions imposed by such licence.

11. Licensing authority.[b]—The authority having power to grant licences under this Part (hereinafter referred to as the licensing authority) shall be the District Magistrate :

Provided that the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute, for the [a][whole or any part of a Union territory] such other authority as it may specify in the notification to be the licensing authority for the purposes of this Part.

[a] Substituted for the words "whole or any part of a Part C State" by the Repealing and Amending Act 1960 (58 of 1960), S. 3 and Sch. II [26-12-1960].

[b] For the State Amendments, see note under S. 1.

12. Restrictions on powers of licensing authority.[a]—(1) The licensing authority shall not grant a licence under this Part, unless it is satisfied that—

(a) the rules made under this Part have been substantially complied with, and

(b) adequate precautions have been taken in the place, in respect of which the licence is to be given, to provide for the safety of persons attending exhibitions therein.

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) As regards the production of the films for exhibition Court can take judicial notice of the fact that the completed production of a film is a highly technical and scientific process which requires the services of persons who are experts in that line — What is finally distributed to the various cinema houses for exhibition is not what existed at the initial stage but it is the story, the plot or the ideas that are worked up and knit into a continuous version that constitutes the entertainment that is catered to the public. ('53) AIR 1953 Mad 269 (271, 272): ILR (1953) Mad 775: 1953 Cri LJ 532 (DB).

Section 12 — Note 1

(1) Section 12 (4) comprises two categories of films, one consisting of films which may be called 'cultural films' and the other of 'indigenous films'. The policy underlying the enactment is to encourage exhibition of two classes of films (1), cultural and (2) indigenous. The words 'indigenous films' in Section 12 (4) include in their ordinary and accepted sense cultural as well as other films.

Where acting under Section 12 (4) of the Act, the Chief Commissioner of Ajmer issued a notification which, omitting what is not material, was as follows. (1) The licensee shall so regulate the exhibition of cinematograph films that at every performance open to the public, approved films are exhibited . . . . . (2) Only such films produced in India as are certified by the Central Government with the previous approval of the Film Advisory Board, Bombay, to be scientific films, films intended for education purposes, films dealing with news, current events or documentary films shall be deemed to be approved films for the purposes of these directions.

Held, that the words 'produced in India' in the impugned notification, was not to be read as a qualification annexed to the first category of films. but as referable to the second category, and would be perfectly intra vires under Section 12 (4) and that therefore the notification in so far as it requires that cultural films should have been produced in India was within Section 12 (4). AIR 1963 SC 408 (410, 411): (1963) 2 SCR 145. (ILR (1958) 8 Raj 1076, Partly Reversed.)

(2) Section 5 of the Punjab Cinema (Regulation) Act (2 of 1952) corresponds with Section 12 of the Cinematograph Act (1952). It is the licensing authority that has to consider the applications for licences and either to accept or to reject them. State Government in only an appellate authority and has no jurisdiction to decide applications directly. AIR 1966 SC 1081 (1084).

(3) An order rejecting an application for a licence is purely an administrative order and before an application is rejected it is not necessary to give an opportunity to an applicant to represent. AIR 1967 Goa 158 (168).

(4) No objective principles are outlined in Section 12 for the guidance of

(2) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section and to the control of the State Government, the licensing authority may grant licences under this Part to such persons as that authority thinks fit and on such terms and conditions and subject to such restrictions as it may determine.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of a licensing authority refusing to grant a licence under this Part may, within such time as may be prescribed, appeal to the State Government or to such officer as the State Government may specify in this behalf and the State Government or the officer, as the case may be, may make such order in the case as it or he thinks fit.

(4) The Central Government may, from time to time, issue directions to licensees generally or to any licensee in particular for the purpose of regulating the exhibition of any film or class of films, so that scientific films, films intended for educational purposes, films dealing with news and current events, documentary films or indigenous films secure an adequate opportunity of being exhibited, and where any such directions have been issued those directions shall be deemed to be additional conditions and restrictions subject to which the licence has been granted.

[a] For the State Amendment, see note under S. 1.

13. Power of Central Government or local authority to suspend exhibition of films in certain cases.[b]—(1) The Lieutenant Governor or, as the case may be, the Chief Commissioner, in respect of the [a][whole or any part of a Union[b] territory] and the District Magistrate in respect of the district within his jurisdiction, may, if he is of opinion that any film which is being publicly exhibited is likely to cause a breach of the peace, by order, suspend the exhibition of the film and during such suspension the film shall be deemed to be an uncertified film in the State, part or district, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order under sub-section (1) has been issued by the Chief Commissioner or a District Magistrate, as the case may be, a copy thereof, together with a statement of reasons therefor, shall forthwith be forwarded by the person making the same to the Central Government, and the Central Government may either confirm or discharge the order.

(3) An order made under this section shall remain in force for a period of two months from the date thereof, but the Central Government may, if it is of opinion that the order should continue in force, direct that the period of suspension shall be extended by such further period as it thinks fit.

[a] Substituted for the words "whole Part C State or any part thereof" by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1960 (58 of 1960), S. 3 and Sch. II [26-12-1960].

the licensing authority and the phraseology of Section 12 (2) indicates that the matter rests on the subjective discretion of that authority. Hence nothing laid down in the Act can lead one to conclude that the licensing authority has to act judicially. There is also nothing in the rules framed under the Act to suggest that the licensing authority is bound to act judicially in deciding application for a licence. AIR 1967 Goa 158 (167).

(5) If the licensing authority does not surrender its judgment to the Government, it is entitled in law to give due weight to the opinion of the Government. AIR 1967 Goa 158 (165).

provisions of this Part or of the rules made thereunder, or of the conditions and restrictions upon or subject to which any licence has been granted under this Part, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which the offence continues.

15. Power to revoke licence.—Where the holder of a licence has been convicted of an offence under Sec. 7 or Sec. 14, the licence may be revoked by the licensing authority.

16. Power to make rules.[a]—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules—

(a) prescribing the terms, conditions and restrictions, if any, subject to which licences may be granted under this part;

(b) providing for the regulation of cinematograph exhibitions for securing the public safety;

(c) prescribing the time within which and the conditions subject to which an appeal under sub-section (3) of Section 12 may be preferred.

[a] For the State Amendment, see note under S. 1.

17. Power to exempt.[a]—The Central Government may, by order in writing exempt[b], subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may impose, any cinematograph exhibition or class of cinematograph exhibitions from any of the provisions of this Part or of any rules made thereunder.

[a] For the State Amendment, see note under S. 1.

[b] For exemptions, see Gaz. of Ind., 1954, Pt. II-Sec. 3, page 240; ibid, 1955, Pt. II-Sec. 3, page 310.

PART IV

REPEAL

18. Repeal[a].—The Cinematogarph Act, 1918 (2 of 1918), is hereby repealed :

Provided that in relation to Part A States and Part B States the repeal shall have effect only in so far as the said Act relates to the sanctioning of cinematograph films for exhibition.

[a] Part III of the Act as in force in Kutch Area of the State of Gujarat is repealed with effect from 10-12-1962—Guj. Act 40 of 1961, S. 9. Part III of the Act as in force in Coorg district of Mysore State is repealed by Mys. Act 23 of 1964, S. 23 (5).

Section 16 — Note 1

(1) Rule 15 of Cinematograph Rules (1965) made under Section 16 does not offend Article 14 of the Constitution. AIR 1967 Goa 158 (168).

Section 17 — Note 1

(1) The exemptions authorised by the Notification of 1942 issued by the Chief Commissioner of Delhi under Section 9 of the Cinematograph Act of 1918 are not inconsistent with Section 17 of the present Act of 1952 which vests such power in the Central Government. ('57) AIR 1957 Punj 243 (244): ILR (1957) Punj 1373: 1957 Cri LJ 1172 (DB).

Section 18 — Note 1

(1) The wording of Section 18 shows that the repeal of the old Act of 1918 is confined to that portion of the old Act which is covered by Part II of the new Act. Section 6 is one of the repealed sections; but the issuing of licences and the procedure provided therefor cannot be said to come within the wording of the repealing section. ## STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Articles 5 to 9 of the Constitution determine who are Indian Citizens at the commencement of the Constitution and Article 10 provides for their continuance as such citizens subject to the provisions of any law that may be made by Parliament. The Constitution does not, however, make any provision with respect to the acquisition of citizenship after its commencement or the termination of citizenship or other matters relating to citizenship. Under Article 11, the Constitution expressly saves the power of Parliament to make a law to provide for such matters. It is obviously necessary to make such a law to supplement the provisions of the Constitution and this Bill seeks to achieve this object.

This Bill provides for the acquisition of citizenship, after the commencement of the Constitution, by birth, descent, registration, naturalisation and incorporation of territory. It also makes necessary provisions for the termination and deprivation of citizenship under certain circumstances. The Bill also seeks to formally recognise Commonwealth citizenship and permit the Central Government to extend on a reciprocal basis such rights of an Indian citizen as may be agreed upon to the citizens of other Commonwealth countries and the Republic of Ireland.

The notes on clauses appended to the Bill explain some of the important provisions thereof".

[THE] CITIZENSHIP ACT, 1955
(ACT LVII OF 1955)[a]

[30th December, 1955.]

An Act to provide for the acquisition and termination of Indian citizenship.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

[a] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, Extraordinary, 2-5-1955, Pt. II, Sec. 2, p. 232.

The Act has been extended to the Union Territory of—

(1) Goa, Daman and Diu by S.O. 847, Gazette of India, 17-3-1962, Pt. II, Sec. 3 (i), Ext., p. 517.

(2) Dadra and Nagar Haveli by S.O. 846, ibid.

(3) Pondicherry — See G. S. R. 1640 Gaz. Ind., 8-12-1962, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), p. 1982.

1. Short title.—This Act may be called THE CITIZENSHIP ACT, 1925.

2. Interpretation.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "a Government in India" means the Central Government or a State Government;

(b) "citizen", in relation to a country specified in the First Schedule, means a person who, under the citizenship or nationality law for the time being in force in that country, is a citizen or national of that country;

(c) "citizenship or nationality law", in relation to a country specified in the First Schedule, means an enactment of the Legislature of that country which at the request of the Government of that country, the Central Government may, by notification[a] in the Official Gazette, have declared to be an enactment making provisions for the citizenship or nationality of that country:

Provided that no such notification shall be issued in relation to the Union of South Africa except with the previous approval of both Houses of Parliament;

[a] Singapore Citizenship Ordinance, 1957, declared as an enactment making provision for citizenship of Singapore—Gazette of India, Pt. II, Sec. 3 (ii), page 2.

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) The Citizenship Act deals with citizenship after the Constitution came into force and confines it only to natural persons. The Constitution and the Act are completely exhaustive of the citizenship of this country and these citizens can only be natural persons the fact that corporations may be nationals of the country for purposes of International Law will not make them citizens of this country for purposes of Municipal Law or the Constitution. AIR 1963 SC 1811 (1821, 1823, 1835): (1964) 4 SCR 99. (Observations of Mukherjee, J. in AIR 1951 SC 41, held to be obiter; AIR 1954 SC 119 and AIR 1955 SC 661, Considered. AIR 1953 Raj 188, AIR 1961 Cal 258; AIR 1959 Cal 45 and AIR 1953 Assam 177, Impliedly overruled.)

(2) Citizenship Act does not deal with regaining of citizenship already lost under Article 7 of Constitution. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 106 (108): (1959) 2 Andh WR 472 (DB).

(3) The Act provides for citizenship of India after 26-1-1950 by acquisition in five different modes. AIR 1963 Guj 226 (229): (1963) (2) Cri LJ 265: (1963) 4 Guj LR 1073 (DB). (Reversed on facts in AIR 1965 SC 10.)

(4) The question of acquisition of citizenship after the Constitution was not provided for in the Constitution. This was provided for by the Citizenship Act, 1955. The Act does not touch the question of those persons who were citizens or deemed to be citizens at the time of the commencement of the Act, except in the context of the termination of such citizenship. The provisions in the Constitution and this Act supplement each other and have to be read together. AIR 1961 Madh Pra 110 (113, 114): 1961 (1) Cri LJ 516: 1961 Jab LJ 662 (DB).

SECTION 2 — SYNOPSIS
